

Learn From New Saints, Pope Tells French Young People

BY JUNNO AROCHO ESTEVES

The lives of France's newest saints can inspire young people to persevere and hope amid difficulties and trying times, Pope Francis said.

Meeting with young people from the Diocese of Viviers, France, May 14, the pope said the holiness of Sts. Charles de Foucauld and Marie Rivier can "be an encouragement and inspiration" to young Catholics.

That several saints come from the same area of France "clearly shows the fruitfulness of your diocese, and I hope that you will be able to preserve this heritage of holiness and also make it grow and move forward," he said.

The pope's meeting with young people from the southern French diocese took place on the eve of the May 15 canonization Mass in which he declared 10 men and women as saints of the Catholic Church.

In his address, the pope said the lives of St. de Foucauld and St. Rivier are evidence that "the air you breathe in your diocese must be particularly healthy."

He also recalled the life of Blessed Gabriel Longueville, a French priest martyred in Argentina and beatified in 2019, who is also from the same diocese.

Blessed Longueville's "self-denial and care for the poorest in the parish where he worked are a model for the priests of his homeland," the pope said.

Reflecting on the life of St. de Foucauld, the pope encouraged young people to learn from his way of evangelizing, which is "a very demanding one because it requires the witness of a coherent life, that is, one that truly conforms to the aspirations of every person who is loved by God and called to something other than fleeting pleasure or immediate and visible results."

He also called on young people to base their Christian life on St. de Foucauld's spirituality, which centered on "the Gospel, the Eucharist and evangelization."

The pope recited St. de Foucauld's "magnificent prayer of self-surrender to God," which he said was an important prayer for young people, especially in the difficult moments "of life's decisions and crosses."

"Father, I abandon myself into your hands; do with me what you will. Whatever you may do, I thank you: I am ready for all, I accept all. Let only your will be done in me, and in all your

Sister Frances Lyle, Teacher Was 97

Sister Frances Lyle, O.S.U., who taught in the Bronx for nine years, died May 10 at the United Hebrew Home of New Rochelle. She was 97.

Sister Frances taught in the Bronx at St. Angela Merici School, 1973-1974; Academy of Mount St. Ursula, 1963-1969; and Our Lady of Mercy, 1961-1963; and at Blessed Sacrament, New Rochelle, 1951-1954. She served in administrative positions at the College of New Rochelle, 2002-2005 and 1992-1998; as community leader at St. Angela Merici, the Bronx, 1980-1983; and as Ursuline provincial secretary, New Rochelle, 1979-1980.

She also served in Maryland, Delaware, Venezuela and South Africa.

Born in Bridgeport, Conn., she entered the Ursuline Sisters in 1946 and professed final vows in 1952. She earned a bachelor's degree from the College of New Rochelle, and a master's from Fordham University, the Bronx.

A Funeral Mass was celebrated May 16 in the Ursuline Province Center, New Rochelle. Burial was in Gate of Heaven Cemetery, Hawthorne.

creatures. I wish no more than this, O Lord," the pope prayed.

Pope Francis said St. Marie Rivier, who founded the Sisters of the Presentation of Mary and devoted her life to educating children, can inspire young people, especially women, "to open the minds of the youngest to matters of God, concern for neighbor and admiration for creation."

"How important this is! I hope that there will still be many women of this stature, humble and courageous in making known God's love for the little ones who ask only to learn," the pope said.

"This desire is rooted in the hope that does not disappoint. I entrust it to the Virgin Mary, mother of this congregation that is now widespread throughout the world and which continues to dedicate itself tirelessly to children, young people and the excluded," he said.—CNS

PRAYER NOTICE

POPE LEO XIII'S PRAYER TO SAINT JOSEPH

To you, O blessed Joseph, do we come in our tribulation, and having implored the help of your most holy Spouse, we confidently invoke your patronage also.

Through that charity which bound you to the Immaculate Virgin Mother of God and through the paternal love with which you embraced the Child Jesus, we humbly beg you graciously to regard the inheritance which Jesus Christ has purchased by his Blood, and with your power and strength to aid us in our necessities.

O most watchful guardian of the Holy Family, defend the chosen children of Jesus Christ; O most loving father, ward off from us every contagion of error and corrupting influence; O our most mighty protector, be kind to us and from heaven assist us in our struggle with the power of darkness.

As once you rescued the Child Jesus from deadly peril, so now protect God's Holy Church from the snares of the enemy and from all adversity; shield, too, each one of us by your constant protection, so that, supported by your example and your aid, we may be able to live piously, to die in holiness, and to obtain eternal happiness in heaven. Amen.
