Away from it all: Luxury getaway goes south in 'Leave the World Behind'

By Sarah Passingham
TV Media

A family's stay at a luxurious vacation home is unexpectedly extended due to a mysterious apocalypse in the new thriller "Leave the World Behind," premiering Friday, Dec. 8, on Netflix.

Based on the bestselling 2020 novel by author Rumaan Alam, the adaptation stars Julia Roberts ("Ticket to Paradise," 2022) and Ethan Hawke ("Moon Knight") as married couple Amanda and Clay Sandford, whose family getaway to Long Island is steered far from the rest and relaxation they expected.

After putting off a much-needed break from their busy city life, Amanda tells Clay in the official trailer for the film, "I figured if I made the reservation and packed our bags, it would eliminate most of the reasons to say no." Off they go to a sprawling home near the beach with their two children, teenager Archie (Charlie Evans, "Everything's Gonna Be Okay") and their youngest, Rose (Farrah Mackenzie, "United States of Al").

While Amanda and Clay watch on as their children enjoy the pool and they all begin to settle into their temporary home, the peace and quiet begins feeling eerie. The cable and internet are mysteriously out, but the Sandfords try to make the most of it by pulling out games to pass the time. A knock at the door in the dark of night puts them face to face with two strangers in formal wear.

Mahershala Ali ("Swan Song," 2021) is G.H. Scott, the owner of the home, he explains to the bewildered couple blocking his doorway. This fateful introduction deepens the uneasiness that's beginning to build, when Amanda says to G.H. like an accusation, "This is your house?" G.H., joined by his daughter Ruth (Myha'la, "Industry"), face down their guests until they are eventually let into their home.

Widespread blackouts led the Scotts to flee New York City for their Long Island residence, wanting to wait out the outage away from the panic of the city. Relegated to the basement in-law suite by a forcefully skeptical Amanda, the divide between the two families intensifies. Both sides want the other out of the house, and while they could just harmoniously share the ample square footage, righteous advertising executive Amanda is determined to make the Scotts uncomfortable in their own home.

But, there are much bigger problems on the horizon. In the trailer for "Leave the World Behind," a picturesque day at the beach is interrupted when a giant ship ominously lurches straight toward Amanda and Clay as they sit on their beach towels. The ship crashes ashore, sending sunbathers running back inland.

Closer to home, a herd of deer stares down Rose as they migrate en masse through the manicured wilderness, away from some unknown threat. A sharp sound pierces everyone's ears and shatters lightbulbs in the hanging pendants above the marble kitchen island. Countless abandoned white Teslas completely block oceanside roads and speed uncontrollably toward the Sandford's car as they try to make an escape. Trouble in paradise is an understatement.

If Amanda is determined not to make any friends in the apocalypse, her efforts are matched only by gruff contractor Danny, portrayed by Kevin Bacon ("City On a Hill"). Holding his shotgun as a warning in the trailer, Danny sternly tells G.H., "I would do anything to protect my family. What you do is your business." A woman desperately clings to the passenger side door as Clay accelerates away, lost in this unfamiliar beach town, leaving the Sandford and Scott families no choice but to rely on each other for the time being.

All they know for certain is that a countrywide cyberattack has caused sweeping power outages along the East Coast. Confirmed with an unsettling "unrecognized emergency warning" blasting bright blue light from the beach home's flat-screen TV, G.H.'s hunch that the seemingly unrelated disasters are connected grows.

"Leave the World Behind" is written and directed by "Mr. Robot" creator Sam Esmail, who spoke with The Hollywood Reporter in October about adapting the novel shortly after it was published during the COVID-19 pandemic. Esmail shared, "It was a crazy time, those early days [of the pandemic], and when I read the book what really resonated for me was this idea that in a moment of crisis, just how easily we could forget our common humanity."

Alam executive produced the film with Tonia Davis ("Rustin," 2023), Daniel M. Stillman ("Eurovision Song Contest: The Story of Fire Saga," 2020), Nick Krishnamurthy and Barack and Michelle Obama ("We the People"). Esmail also shared what it's like to collaborate with the former president and first lady, saying, "They gave notes on everything from the disaster elements to the characters." The director added, "It's a highlight of my career that I got to work with the Obamas. They're some of the most brilliant minds on the planet and I'm really grateful for their involvement."

Don't miss "Leave the World Behind" when it debuts Friday, Dec. 8, on Netflix.

Taylor Kinney returning to 'Chicago Fire'

By Michelle Rose
TV Media

Back to the firehouse: Actor Taylor Kinney is reportedly heading back to Firehouse 51 following a months-long leave of absence from "Chicago Fire."

Kinney — or rather, Kinney's character, Lt. Kelly Severide — had been a staple on the NBC firefighter drama since 2012. In addition to plenty of guest spots on other shows within the One Chicago franchise, Kinney appeared in 231 consecutive episodes of "Chicago Fire" before his sudden departure midway through Season 11 earlier this year.

Kinney reportedly stepped away to deal with a personal matter and his last appearance was in the 14th episode, which aired in January. When "Chicago Fire" returned in March, viewers were told that his character had left to attend an arson investigation training program, though his eventual return was implied.

Kinney's return has been the subject of much speculation. Many were hoping for an appearance in the May 24 finale, but Jesse Spencer, who played Matt Casey for 10 seasons before bowing out in 2021, stepped in as a guest star instead.

The speculation has now shifted to what lies ahead for Severide and his relationship with Stella Kidd (played by Miranda Rae Mayo) now that Kinney is confirmed for Season 12.

Severide is back, but is he here to stay? According to Variety, his return will happen early in the season since the character is included in the first batch of scripts. It's not clear if he'll be in more episodes beyond that, but Deadline indicated that Kinney "is expected to be full-time."

Finding Captain Nemo: If you love the 1954 film starring Kirk Douglas, or if you remember the now-shuttered Disney

Taylor Kinney in "Chicago Fire"

Parks ride, you probably think of Disney whenever you hear "20,000 Leagues Under the Sea." If so, you'll be surprised to learn that a reimagining of Jules Verne's classic novel is bound for ... AMC.

Set to debut in 2024, "Nautilus" is being touted as an origin story for Captain Nemo, played by Shazad Latif ("Star Trek: Discovery"). Once an Indian prince, Nemo was robbed of his birthright and family, and made a prisoner of the East India Mercantile Company; now, years later, he is a man bent on revenge. However, this is still an adventure-focused story: setting sail, Nemo and his crew will battle foes while discovering magical underwater worlds.

Other cast members include Georgia Flood ("Here Come the Habibs"), Thierry Frémont ("Murder in Mind," 2004) and Céline Menville ("Emily in Paris"), while Richard E. Grant ("Loki"), Anna Torv ("The Newsreader") and Noah Taylor ("Shine," 1996) guest star.

The series hails from British producers Moonriver TV ("A Gentleman in Moscow") and All3Media-owned Seven Stories ("Selection Day"), and, yes, there's a Disney connection: "Nautilus" was initially developed for Disney+, which picked it up in August 2021. Unfortunately, Disney scrapped it earlier this year as part of a $1.5 billion write-down aimed at bringing down costs by removing more than 30 titles from Disney+ and Hulu, including "The Mighty Ducks."

While the series won't be on Disney+, Disney Entertainment has the right to license it out to other broadcasters and/or streamers — which it did, and that's why it is "coming soon" to AMC and AMC+.

"Nautilus" is a big, sweeping drama that is sure to appeal to fans of our Anne Rice Immortal Universe and other buzzy and fan-forward series like "Orphan Black: Echoes," said Ben Davis, executive VP of original programming at AMC Networks and AMC Studios, in a statement. "We are looking forward to bringing it to AMC+ and AMC as a special television event next year."

"We are so thrilled to present the epic adventures of Captain Nemo and his legendary submarine The Nautilus alongside the other incredible AMC universes," Moonriver TV CEO Xavier Marchand and Seven Stories CEO Anand Tucker said in a joint statement. "The series will take viewers on a breathtaking journey with Nemo and his crew, battling terrifying creatures and the dark forces of the British Empire."

Indiana Jones and the Dial of Destiny

Now retired from teaching, globe-trotting archeologist Indiana Jones (Ford) is pulled back into action for one final adventure after uniting with his estranged goddaughter, Helena (Waller-Bridge), the daughter of his former wartime ally Basil Shaw (Jones). Learning that an artifact, previously rescued by Indy during the war, has now fallen into the hands of revenge-fueled scientist Jurgen Voller (Mikkelsen), the duo race to reclaim the lost treasure. As Voller and his secret NASA operatives, set off to reset the outcome of World War II, Indiana and his allies, old and new, must face their greatest challenge yet.

Director: James Mangold. Stars: Harrison Ford, Phoebe Waller-Bridge, Mads Mikkelsen, Antonio Banderas, John Rhys-Davies, Toby Jones, Boyd Holbrook, Ethann Isidore, Karen Allen. 2023. 154 mins. Action.

offers struggling art dealer Patrice (Thurman) a lifeline. Agreeing to the scheme, Patrice hosts Reggie's artwork, a side project to his hitman obligations, which unwittingly captures the attention of the avant-garde arts scene. As the accolades and resurgent art gallery grows, the trio must further bury the truth as the secret origins of "The Bagman" and his artwork come into question. Director: Nicol Paone. Stars: Uma Thurman, Joe Manganiello, Samuel L. Jackson, Maya Hawke, Debi Mazar, Dree Hemingway, Larry Pine, Candy Buckley, Liv Morgan. 2023. 98 mins. Action.
