Rice County Dairy Princess Competes for State Title

Kelsey Kuball is the sixth generation on her family's 240 cow dairy farm located in Waterville, MN (Rice County). Her parents are Nathan and Shannon Kuball, and she has a younger sister Emma (17), and a brother, Keegan (14). Her aunt on her dad's side, Cassandra Kuball was also a Princess Kay finalist. Kelsey graduated from Waterville-Elysian-Morristown high school in 2020 and currently is attending the University of Northwestern- St. Paul. In high school, she was very involved in 4-H, on the dairy quiz bowl and dairy judging teams, also showing cattle at the county fair and state fair. Kelsey was involved in the FFA chapter, going to state in both the dairy judging and milk quality contests. She is still a member of the local FFA chapter and will be receiving the American Degree this fall. Currently, Kelsey is involved in the honors program at her university, the intramural broomball team, and is co-publishing research with a professor.

Some of her earliest memories on the farm are sitting on her grandpa's knee helping him bottle feed calves or falling asleep with her head bumping against the window of the tractor while riding along with her dad, on the buddy seat.

Preparations underway for 2022 State Baseball Tournament

Next Summer, the Dundas Dukes, along with the Faribault Lakers and the Miesville Mudhens, will host the State Amateur Baseball Tournament. It will be the first time Dundas has hosted a state tournament since 2003.

In preparation for the tournament next year, the Dukes have made sizable upgrades to Memorial Park. Already considered one of the finest amateur ballparks in the state, the Dukes have rebuilt the grandstand, all told adding more than 200 stadium-style seats. The press box has been moved and extended. A new sound system has been installed and there are ongoing improvements to an otherwise excellent playing field.

Dundas city administrator Jenelle Teppen said that the City of Dundas is partnering with the Dukes to update Memorial Park, although the upgrades they are responsible for may not be quite as flashy.

Stand Firm

When we think of something strong and immovable, we don't think of jello, do we? Jello wiggles: it's soft, it's squishy- but we don't think of it as something firm- a foundational material. We wouldn't use gelatin to set the walls in our basements- we would use cement. Cement sets up solid and unmovable. That's why we use it for foundations, for holding our posts in, for setting up our swing sets or our basketball poles- we want something that is going to hold and to stay firm.

It's important for believers to have a solid foundation for their faith as well. It is impossible to grow our faith and become the person that God has created us to be if our faith is wiggly- or wavering. Paul said "thanks be to God! He gives us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ. 58 Therefore, my dear brothers and sisters, stand firm. Let nothing move you. Always give yourselves fully to the work of the Lord because you know that your labor in the Lord is not in vain." 1 Corinthians 15:57-58.

Paul says, THANKS be to GOD- He gives us victory!!! Victory- who doesn't want to be victorious. What does Jesus give us victory over? Jesus defeated death. Jesus died on the cross- laid in the tomb for 3 days and He rose victorious out of the grave! That's power!!! That's a miracle! That's Jesus! Paul has corrected, disciplined, encouraged, loved, and he has come to the end of his letter. He wants to leave them encouraged, empowered, and hopeful for the future. Thanks be to God!" Jesus gives us victory through His mercy and grace. He gives us victory over death and over sin. Jesus didn't leave us with 'Jello' type promises, he gives us cement to build our lives on. The unswerving, unchanging, unwavering truth of Jesus Christ- HIS Word and we hold it here in our hands!

The prophet Elijah challenged the people of Israel, "How long will you waver between two opinions?" You can find this story in 1 Kings chapter 18. The definition of waver is: a) shake with a quivering motion. b) become unsteady or unreliable.

c) be undecided between two opinions or courses of action. Kind of sounds like a date night, 'honey where would you like to go, oh I don't care- where would you like to go? I don't care- you pick. I really don't care either you pick! That can go on for a while. We're so busy trying to please someone else that we are missing the importance of making a choice and sticking to it. In choosing a restaurant- probably not a big deal- but in regard to our faith: it can have eternal implications. We can't be wishy washy about our faith and our life. Alexander Hamilton said, "Those who stand for nothing fall for anything." The people of Israel were worshipping an idol by the name of Baal- Elijah challenged the people- and Paul challenges you and me: it's time to choose!

We admire people that have stood firm despite terrible opposition: Dietrich Bonhoeffer stood firm in his faith. His is a story of faith, of conviction, of standing firm in his beliefs- and was willing to die for those beliefs too. Dietrich Bonhoeffer was a German Lutheran pastor during the Nazi regime. He spoke out against Hitler's policies, especially of the extermination of the Jews. He also worked against Hitler and his Nazi party. Dietrich was arrested and 2 days before the Allies arrived, he was executed for his unwavering faith and his belief that all Hitler stood for was diametrically opposed to the laws of Jesus Christ.

Paul wrote, "Always give yourselves fully to the work of the Lord, because you know that your labor in the Lord is not in vain." We are called to give ourselves fully to the work of the Lord. Dietrich understood that— he gave himself totally and sacrificially to the work that God had called him to do. He was willing to give his all to the work that Christ called him to do.

God's calling is different for each of us and even during our lifetimes our calling will change or morph into something different. And to us it may seem like a different direction, but all along the way, God uses those circumstances, those learning experiences to prepare us for what He has called us to in the future. Because of the experiences that I have went through in my life, I am better able to relate to people in similar journeys. The day I laid my all on the altar- was the day that truly began my life- I did become a new creature in Christ- a new person- filled with the Holy Spirit's power to live a new life.

God is calling you. He is calling each of us. He isn't calling all of us to be pastors, or theologians, or teachers, or missionaries, or even to be activists, but He is calling us to be fully devoted followers of Jesus. He is calling us into the workplace, into the schools, into our homes and into our communities. When we walk with Christ- that's what it is—a walk—a life—it isn't a sprint- it's a marathon. We are all called to be fully devoted followers to whatever he has called us- we can become 'marketplace missionaries.' This is a term being used more and more to describe men and women that don't leave their faith at church or on the shelf in their bedroom, but men and women that live their faith in the workplace. They share their faith stories and invite others to join them in following Jesus.

Only God is God, and He alone knows what is best for us. He alone is the path to life, love, and victory. God is calling you. God desires you to fully follow Him. To put aside all the distractions, to lay aside your plans and be totally on board with His plans for you. Will he send you to deepest darkest Africa? maybe or maybe not. He will send you to work; to go and tell, to love Him with all you heart, soul, and mind. If Jesus is Lord of your life "Follow Him" if Baal- is your god- follow him. Time to choose: No More JELLO!

Area Church Directory

Seeing and Welcoming

Scripture Reading — Hebrews 11:1-2, 13-16

They did not receive the things promised; they only saw them and welcomed them from a distance.

— Hebrews 11:13

Hebrews 11 gives us a glance in the Bible's rearview mirror. The faithful witnesses mentioned in this chapter lived long ago, even before Jesus came. And they had this in common: they all lived by faith in God's promises. And before they died and were taken to live with the Lord, "They did not receive the things promised; they only saw them and welcomed them from a distance."

"Seeing from a distance" is how we can describe the sights, sounds, and scenes in the book of Revelation. Revelation 11 closes with a scene in which all heaven rejoices and gives thanks to God because "the kingdom of the world has become the kingdom of our Lord and of his Messiah." It is a powerful picture of God reigning on earth as in heaven. And the promise is that "he will reign for ever and ever." Hallelujah!

With eyes of faith, we can see this "from a distance." Close-up in the world around us, though, we often see terrible things such as cancer, COVID-19, poverty, racism, violence, addiction, and death. And there are times when these appalling things make us weep. At such times, faith is the Holy Spirit's muscle that enables us to see "from a distance."

Faith also welcomes the future of God's full kingdom today. Faith has this power because it is "confidence in what we hope for and assurance about what we do not see."

Prayer: "Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your name, your kingdom come, your will be done"—here today—"on earth as it is in heaven." Amen.

Rice County Dairy Princess Competes for State Title

Some of her favorite memories are of her siblings while they were in charge of feeding the calves every day when growing up. If they weren't fighting or spraying each other with the hose they were giving the calves an epic Taylor Swift concert. A job that should've taken an hour or so often took much longer. Some of her worst memories come from late night "the cows are out adventures" or trying to move heifers. "Honestly you don't really know someone until you've chased/moved cows with them", Kelsey relates. She remembers one time when her siblings, her Dad, and her were moving heifers when it was raining and things were not going well. Her younger sister, who was maybe 10 at the time, was in charge of blocking off one corner of open space from the heifers so they would go into the pen. Just as a group of calves were coming toward her it starts to storm with thunder and lightning. It scared her so much that she ran in the barn, letting the calves escape. The rest of the family was left to herd the heifers back into the barn while she hid from the lightening. It was a tense evening after they finished, but now they know not to ask her to help if there is a chance of rain.

Even though Kelsey does not plan to pursue a career in the dairy industry she is still very passionate about it and help regularly on the farm. She works regular milking shifts, feeds the calves, helps with fieldwork whenever needed, and of course is a professional parts runner.

Kelsey sought the title of a dairy princess because she loves the industry and the people working in it. She is consistently humbled by the hard work and dedication of dairy farmers and feels like being a dairy princess is a way of giving back to them. "Most consumers lack the ability or resources to understand who dairy farmers are and what they do Kelsey states. Dairy princesses are that representation, the mascot if you will, who can take the time that dairy farmers often don't have to advocate to the public and be a trustworthy and knowledgeable person."

Kelsey believes dairy farming is a very difficult, but rewarding work. Dairy farmer not only get to provide so many people with nutritious products but also help support the local community. She really values the dairy industry because it has shaped her character by developing a strong work ethic and reinforced the values of family and community.

As a Rice County dairy princess Kelsey will be representing the local dairy farmers at the Rice County fair, local parades, and various events throughout the year. "It truly has been an honor to be selected as a Princess Kay finalist, Kelsey closes with. I have looked up to and wanted to be a finalist since I will a little girl at the state fair admiring the butter heads."

Kelsey will be attending the University of Northwestern-St. Paul majoring in biblical and theological studies with a minor in ancient and classical languages. She hopes to pursue higher education after graduation and may go into ministry or an academic field.

Preparations underway for 2022 State Baseball Tournament

"Our work is replacing the driveway and maybe adding some trail segment down there. It makes it more aesthetically pleasing and a little bit easier to get around. But it's not as glamorous as a new grandstand or anything like that."

Teppen also said the playground equipment at Memorial Park will be replaced this summer.

The 2022 State Amateur Baseball Tournament will take place over three weekends next year, August 19-21, 26-28, and September 2-5.

Garlic Mustard, an invasive with value?

Teri Knight

Garlic mustard, a weed or an herb? Or both? Garlic mustard was first introduced as a garden herb but escaped and has been causing problems ever since.

An herbaceous plant, it takes two years to reach maturity. The chemicals in garlic mustard reduce the growth of neighboring plants, so when it's introduced to a site it can quickly outcompete native understory vegetation. It can thrive in fully intact forests. No good for those of us in Minnesota and Wisconsin!

It's also prolific and seed producing. Each 2 to 4 ft. tall plant can produce up to 100 seeds which can remain viable for up to 7 years. EEK.

So what about the "herb" part. Since it was introduced as a garden herb, it's obviously edible and, according to the U of M extension, makes great pesto and soup. Foraging for garlic mustard and how to use it from vintagekitchenvixon.

University of Minnesota Extension has several resources to help you think about long-term invasive species and garlic mustard management, including a great publication on how to prioritize species and how to organize a removal event.

Early May is the best time, but this will give you information on the plant and many ideas for next year!

It amazes me at how many "weeds" are really tasty and can be managed to a certain degree.

More from Nature.org on garlic mustard and eattheweeds.com

Teri Knight became a Master Gardener with Dakota County, Minnesota in 2003. She currently produces her website, www.gardenbite.com, that supplements her daily radio program which has aired Monday thru Friday on radio stations throughout Minnesota since 2007. In 2017, several stations in Wisconsin began airing her show. Teri's been involved in community projects which include a Junior Master Gardener program for 8 to 12 year olds, designing and planting a garden for a women's center and various other organizations! # CREP Restored Wetland Planned Near Millersburg

By Emmie Peters,
Rice SWCD District Technician

In the summer of 2020, many probably noticed that a new wetland area had formed east of Millersburg in an area that was previously farmed. Soon after, birds and other wildlife started flocking to the area. Whenever I have been on-site, there has always been someone pulled over taking pictures. This summer, however, the wetland will be gone. Now before anyone starts calling the office worrying, the wetland will be back and even better, we promise.

That land was enrolled in CREP in 2020. CREP stands for Conservation Reserve Easement Program and is a program with both the State of Minnesota and the Federal government that targets a state-identified, high priority conservation issue. At this moment, those issues are: target riparian areas and marginal agricultural land, restore hydrology, increase infiltration and provide flood mitigation, provide habitat for wildlife, non-game species, and pollinators, and reduce nitrate loading in drinking supplies. The land enrolled in this program goes into a permanent easement that can never be developed or converted back to farmland.

Due to the nature of this program being a permanent easement, it takes time to get all the paperwork done and processed before construction can begin. The land currently has a berm up along Wolf Creek that was constructed to prevent water from flooding into the site. There were tile pumps installed to pump water over the berm into the creek from the field. With the land no longer being farmed last year, those pumps were shut off and the land got ahead of itself and converted itself back before proper restoration could be done.

One may say that nothing further needs to be done to restore the land back into a wetland, but to truly achieve the highest potential the land has for flood mitigation, restored hydrology, and wildlife habitat some assistance is needed. This means breaking the berm and draining the wetland. Once all the water is drained, construction will begin by pulling tile from neighboring fields up and outlet into the wetland to make sure those fields not enrolled are functioning properly, reconstruction of the berm to allow water access into and out of the wetland depending on stream conditions, and engineering of safe crossings for the landowners to have access to the whole site for maintenance.

New CREP easement off County Road 46. Water has flooded the field since the tile pumps have been turned off. The pumps will be turned on this summer, drying up the site and construction will begin to fully restore the wetland. (May 2021.)

Currently, weeds have taken over the site. With the water drained, seed species that are specialized to the different wetland conditions and the upland area will be seeded to help promote better wildlife habitat conditions and an overall better wetland in the end.

After all, this is done, the water will be back, the wildlife will be back, and the wetland will be better and more beneficial than before. This site is still privately owned, however, and no trespassing is allowed, but the site will be a beauty for people to admire from the road and beneficial to all wildlife.

MN CREP applications are being accepted in a 54-county project area of southern and west-central Minnesota, including Rice County. To begin the process of signup, visit the Farm Service Agency office to determine if your land is eligible. For general questions about the MN CREP, contact the Rice SWCD at 507-332-5408.

We Recognize the Hardworking Dairy Farmers this Month

Our local dairy farmers work hard every day to nourish our nation with delicious and nutritious dairy products.

Over the years, their ongoing dedication and commitment to quality has helped us grow up healthy and strong.

But the dairy industry is more than just an important part of our lives and our children's lives, it's an integral part of our local economy too.
