Ruth: "Faithfulness"

By Pastor Colin Rueter,
New Life Church
(colin@nlcwanamingo.org)

Ruth: [ /rooTH/ ] noun --- derived from the Hebrew word re'ut, meaning "friend".

The Book of Ruth does not list the author. While tradition holds that it was Samuel, the author is unknown. The lack of this fact should not detract from the spiritual impact or literary beauty of this short story. This is only one of two books in the Bible with women names for titles, Esther being the second. The exact date of the text is unknown, but the prevalent view is between 1011 and 931 B.C.

OVERVIEW:

The setting for the Book of Ruth begins in the heathen country of Moab, a region north-east of the Dead Sea, but then moves to Bethlehem. This true account takes place during the dismal days of failure and rebellion of the Israelites, called the period of the Judges. A famine forces Elimelech and his wife, Naomi, from their Israelite home to the country of Moab, a gentile nation. Elimelech dies and Naomi is left with her two sons, who soon marry two Moabite girls, Orpah and Ruth. Later both of the sons die, and Naomi is left alone with Orpah and Ruth in a strange land. Orpah returns to her parents, but Ruth determines to stay with Naomi as they journey to Bethlehem. This story of love and devotion tells of Ruth's eventual marriage to a wealthy man named Boaz, by whom she bears a son, Obed, who becomes the grandfather of David and the ancestor of Jesus. Obedience brings Ruth into the privileged lineage of Christ.

The book was written from Naomi's point of view. Every event related back to her: her husband's and sons' deaths, her daughters-in-law, her return to Bethlehem, her God, her relative, Boaz, her land to sell, and her offspring. Ruth herself embodied loyal love. Her moving vow of loyalty (Ruth 1:16-17), though obviously not marital in nature, is often included in modern wedding ceremonies to communicate the depths of devotion to which new couples aspire. The story truly shows the extent of God's grace—He accepted Ruth, a gentile, into His chosen people and honored her with a role in continuing the family line into which His appointed king, David, and later His Son, Jesus, would be born (Matthew 1:1, 5).

SO WHAT?

The main idea of the Book of Ruth is that of the kinsman-redeemer. Boaz, a relative of Naomi on her husband's side, acted upon his duty as outlined in the Mosaic Law to redeem an impoverished relative from his or her circumstances (Lev. 25:47-49). This scene is brought to a higher level by Christ, who redeems us, the spiritually impoverished, from the slavery of sin. Our heavenly Father sent His own Son to the cross so that we might become children of God and brothers and sisters of Christ. By being our Redeemer, He makes us His kinsmen. Behold the great love that God has given to us through Jesus Christ

(1 John 3:1)!

In addition to redemption, the sovereignty of God is clearly seen throughout the story of Ruth. He guided her every step of the way to become His child and fulfill His plan for her to become an ancestor of Jesus Christ. In the same way, we have assurance that God has a plan for each of us through His faithfulness and for His glory. Just as Naomi and Ruth trusted Him to provide for them, so should we. This means we seek to be faithful because God is always faithful.

Next month, we will look at the Books of Samuel as we combine these texts together. This is an account of Saul and David as they are introduced as Kings in the land anointed by Samuel, the last judge of Israel.

Smells Beautiful

"Leave her alone," said Jesus. "Why are you bothering her? She has done a beautiful thing to me."

— Mark 14:6

After Jesus died, his body was supposed to be anointed. That was the custom with dead bodies, to honor the deceased and help keep away the smell of decay. But when a group of women came to anoint Jesus' body in the tomb (Mark 16), they could not find it! Jesus had risen from the dead.

This helps to explain an important detail in our reading for today. A few days before Jesus died, a woman anointed him at a dinner gathering using expensive perfume. Some of the guests were offended at the waste, but Jesus was not. He said, "She poured perfume on my body beforehand to prepare for my burial" (v. 8). Even if the woman didn't know it then, her act of honor and devotion hinted at the resurrection; she was anointing Jesus because he wouldn't be anointed later.

Jesus said that what she did was beautiful. Any action that points to the resurrection of Jesus is beautiful. When we preach about the resurrection today, it is beautiful. When a hospice nurse gives tender care to a dying person, it is beautiful. When we raise children to live with courage in a world of fear, it is beautiful. When we are willing to give up trying to control things that we can't control, even though it makes us afraid of our limits, it is beautiful. Jesus rose from the dead, and celebrating that fact is a beautiful way to live.

Risen Lord Jesus, we praise you for your victory over death. We praise you that as the anointed King, you would die and rise again to give us new life. Amen.

Charlotte Iverson

Charlotte Iverson, 90, passed away peacefully at Benedictine Living Community (Madonna Towers) in Rochester, MN on Thursday, June 9, 2022.

Charlotte Evelyn Iverson was born on the family farm, February 18, 1932 in Wanamingo, MN to Andrew and Elida (Erickson) Iverson. She grew up in rural Wanamingo, attended country school and ultimately graduated from Wanamingo High School in 1949. During her high school years, Charlotte was a majorette with the Wanamingo marching band. Charlotte and her twin brother, Charles, were the youngest of 4 children. Her twin brother couldn't pronounce "Charlotte", so she became known as "Sissy" to the family.

As a young woman, Charlotte moved to Rochester and worked as a desk attendant at the Mayo Clinic for 30 years, retiring in 1994. Over the years, she traveled to Florida, Haiti, Jamaica, Norway and various places in Europe and the U.S. Charlotte really enjoyed music and had a gift to play piano by ear. She was a lifelong member of Emmanuel Lutheran Church of Aspelund.

Charlotte is survived by her sister, Marilyn Schumann of Rochester; sister-in-law, Mrs. Charles (Joan) Iverson of Wanamingo; nieces and nephews, Larry (Bonnie) Schumann of Pine City, Judy (Patrick) Riley of Fargo, ND, Kari (Tom) Barker of Phoenix, AZ, Lorrie Iverson of Raleigh, NC, Sally (Van) da Costa of Shakopee, Clifford (Melissa) Iverson of New Brighton, Renee (Jim) Hill of Kenyon, Pamela (Marlin) Swiggum of Wanamingo; step-nephews, Dennis and David Loop, Rodney and Robert Svien.

She was preceded in death by her parents; brothers, Arvin and Charles Iverson.

The funeral service was at 2:00 p.m. Monday, June 13 at Emmanuel Lutheran Church of Aspelund. Reverend Lyle Aadahl officiated. Visitation was one hour prior to the service at the church. Interment took place at the Emmanuel Lutheran Church Cemetery.

A special thanks to the Benedictine House at Madonna Towers and St. Croix Hospice who provided wonderful care and comfort to Charlotte. Online condolences are welcome and may be shared at mahnfamilyfuneral-home.com.

Mary Jo (Perrett) Rothen

Mary Jo (Perrett) Rothen entered the arms of her Lord and Savior Jesus at approximately 8:30 in the morning on Tuesday, June 7, 2022 after a long battle with cancer. She was 73 years old.

She was the second child of Frank and Hazel (Husbyn) Perrett, born on Saturday, January 15, 1949 at 1:23 pm in Red Wing, Minnesota. She graduated from Wanamingo High School in 1967 and then attended Mankato Commercial College where she was in the medical secretary program for one year. Afterwards, she was employed for approximately one year at St. Mary's Hospital in Rochester, Minnesota, where she worked as an EKG Technician.

In 1969, Mary Jo met David William Rothen while working at Zumco in Zumbrota, Minnesota, where they built pool tables. They dated for approximately one year and were married on May 30, 1970. They began their life together on David's home farm in Pine Island, Minnesota, while David worked at the SuperValu Ice Cream plant in Zumbrota. They had their first child, Jason, in 1970. Their second child, Adam, was born in 1973. In 1974, they built their home in Wanamingo, Minnesota. And in 1975, their third and last child, Carla, was born.

Mary Jo worked the evening shift at Maple Island in Wanamingo, Minnesota for a time, but she was also a stay-at-home mom for many years while their children were young. Later she worked for approximately 30 years as a server and bartender at the bar in downtown Wanamingo through three ownership changes (DPJ's, Rondo's, and Ringo's) until retirement. She saved many coffee cans of change from her tips and was always so kind and generous to everyone. Most of her tips were given away to family and friends.

She loved and cared for her children very much. She would read to them every day, sing songs on the guitar, and cook delicious meals every night. Most importantly, she prayed every night with them and made sure they were in Sunday School and church every Sunday. She loved to play the guitar, and she even took guitar lessons with Jason and Adam at Wanamingo school in the evenings. Even though she loved Elvis Presley, she could be heard singing John Denver and Gordon Lightfoot songs most of time. Sometimes she would even sing "Mr. Bojangles" to Adam, which would eventually make him laugh. Whenever there was company, Mary Jo always made people feel at home. She knew how to be kind and hospitable and how to treat others better than herself.

Family was especially important to her, and whenever everyone got together, she loved playing cards, especially Rook and Cribbage. She also loved playing Scrabble and was a "professional" at crossword puzzles. She had a very large vocabulary and taught many of us words that we had never heard of. Whenever we played Scrabble with her, she was like a dictionary so no one could get away with a made up word! She also loved her grandchildren immensely and made sure she was at every birthday and holiday get-together. They were truly her "sunshine!"

In the summer of 2000, Mary Jo and David attended a Christian camp meeting on the Nelson Farm in Elkton, South Dakota. It was there that they both publicly declared their faith in Jesus Christ. Mary Jo studied her Bible and many of the notes she took involved Scriptures about forgiveness from God, forgiving others, and being cleansed of a guilty conscience. She trusted in Jesus right up until the very end, and now she can finally see Him, face to face.

She is survived by her husband, David, of 52 years; 3 children, Jason (Janice) Rothen, Adam Rothen, and Carla Coke; 4 grandchildren, Hannah Rothen, Jonathan Rothen, Mihaela Rothen, and Joseph Rothen; 2 sisters, Linda (Michael) Hoseth and Vicki (Kenneth) Burdick; 2 brothers, Leslie Perrett and Michael (Marilyn) Perrett; 4 sisters-in-law, Marilyn (Thoreson) Perrett, Judy Rothen, Jill Rothen, and Nancy Rothen; 1 brother-in-law, Michael Hoseth; 8 nieces, Michelle Cook, Julie (Michael) Kosobucki, Jessica Perrett, Sarah (Jake) Chapman, Emily (Travis) Richter, Erin Burdick, Kali (Kerry "KK") Newton-Kosch, and Toweya (Lance) Brown-Ochs; 4 nephews, James (Rena) Hoseth, Brian Hoseth, Trevor (Tawnya) Perrett, and Andrew Burdick; 4 great nieces, Olivia Hoseth, Ruby Kosobucki, Cheyenne Michels, and Savannah Perrett; and 4 great nephews, Ethan Cook, Lucas Cook, Isaiah Brown-Ochs, and Miles Brown-Ochs. She was preceded into eternity by her brother-in-law, Kenneth Burdick, and her parents, Frank and Hazel Perrett. Mary Jo will be greatly missed until we see her again in glory with Jesus ...

Pallbearers for Mary Jo Rothen were her four grandchildren: Hannah, Jonathan, Mihaela, and Joseph Rothen. The memorial service was held at Trinity Lutheran Church in Wanamingo, Minnesota on Friday, July 1, 2022 with the visitation at 11:00 am and the service at 12:00 pm.

Gunder worked 30 years (1962 to 1992) at IBM in Rochester. Following retirement, he drove for Held Bus Service for several years. He was a 35 year volunteer with the Wanamingo Fire Department, and was a member of the Wanamingo Lions' Club. He was a member of Trinity Lutheran Church and served on the Cemetery Board for many years.

Dennis Robert Urnes

On June 30, 2022, a self-proclaimed "Regular Old Mr. Nice Guy" drew his last breath. Dennis Robert Urness was born the seventh son of the seventh son on August 20, 1949. He lived his entire life in Kenyon, Minnesota. Before he was even able to drive, Dennis had bought and restored his first car. This was a hobby that continued throughout his life, even after he'd lost the ability to drive. Dennis could always be found with a car magazine in hand, attending a car show, or driving through every car lot in a 60-mile radius. It was probably fate that brought him and Linda Curtis together. She drove a 1975 Corvette Stingray. The pair met while helping out after a devastating flood.

Dennis was fond of saying, "We met in a disaster, and it's been a disaster ever since." But this statement was only his sense of humor talking. Dennis and Linda recently celebrated 40 years of marriage.

Even in his last days, Dennis said Linda was still cute to him. Dennis and Linda had two children, AndyBud and EmilyJayBabe. Dennis worked as a draftsman at FoldCraft and drove a fuel truck to support his family and car collection. Dennis took great pride in teaching his son how to restore classic cars and spent thousands of hours playing catch with his daughter. While the last years of his life were challenged with multiple health concerns and pain, the family will always remember the times they laughed so hard they cried. Whether it was checking into a hotel with a rat-gnawn bible or spitting watermelon seeds at each other at the dinner table, there was always something to find joy in.

Dennis is survived by his two children, wife, and beloved dog Foxy.

Kathleen G Putrah

She will be remembered as the glue of the family, a special friend, generous, a gracious host, a caregiver, a respected business leader, and quite frankly... a superhero. To us, however, she was simply mom. On July 8, 2022, Kathleen G. Putrah passed away peacefully at her home at the age of 80 in Faribault, Minnesota. As with most moments of her life, she was surrounded by family and those who loved her most.

Our mom's extraordinary life began in Brownton, Minnesota on February 19, 1942. She grew up with our grandparents, James and Olga Vinar, along with her 4 brothers and 2 sisters. She graduated from Brownton High School in 1960. To her last days she loved traveling to Brownton with her sisters to reminisce and support the local businesses.

During her time in Brownton, she met Dick Anderson. They were later married in Mankato, Minnesota. During their 10 years of marriage, two of us were born, Rick and Tim.

It's remarkable how one decision can change a life. For our mom, that was to work for Condux International in Mankato. She would often talk on the phone to a hot-shot colleague named Dale Putrah. The sparks flew one morning when they met face-to-face, and the rest is history. Legend has it, the sparks were ignited into a lasting flame by the sight of a pair of long, beautiful legs that our dad never stopped commenting on... and nor did anyone else for that matter.

On December 31, 1973, Kathleen and Dale Putrah were married and their two families became one, as four of us were officially connected: Rick and Tim; and Dale Jr. and Susan. In later years, two more of us were born, as Trevor and Megan joined to make our family complete.

From a professional standpoint, our parents were a team in every sense of the word. In 1973, they took the initial step leading to a successful career in the communications industry which spanned 5 decades, by starting the first manufacturer's rep firm exclusive to the Bell Telephone System. They later launched Great Lakes Telephone Supply, a distributor of telecommunications products. After selling Great Lakes, with the support of our dad and using her initials as a guide, our mom founded KGP Telecommunications in 1982 as an official Woman-Owned Business.

In the early years, it was not rare for our mom to be the only female in a meeting, at a dinner, or even on a show floor. We never viewed her as a pioneer, but a pioneer she was to many. She excelled because she was great at what she did, overcame any obstacle put in front of her, instilled a set of eternal values in KGP, and cared deeply for the employees. She leaves behind an organization strong and prepared for what's next, with over 2,500 employees across KGPCo and KGP Services, and now part of a transatlantic partnership with over 12,000 total team members around the world.

When she wasn't shattering glass ceilings in business, she was caring for others, organizing family gatherings, and seeing the world with our dad and close friends. Her greatest passion was collecting nativity scenes. Once a year her collection and love of Christmas came to life at our home. The impressive collection was amplified by her enthusiasm for travel and flair for shopping. To the grandchildren's delight, Christmas was always a time to deploy all these special skills.

She was preceded in death by our dad, Dale E. Putrah, and our grandparents, James and Olga Vinar. She is survived by all of us and our families: Rick (and Cindi) Putrah of Faribault, MN and their 4 children and 2 grandchildren; Tim (and Julie) Putrah of Faribault, MN and their 3 children and 3 grandchildren; Trevor (and Caren) Putrah of Faribault, Minnesota and their 2 children; Megan (and Bernie) VonRuden of Lakeville, MN and their 4 children; Dale Jr. (and Linda) of Burnsville, MN and their 2 children and 3 grandchildren; and Susan (and Jon) Aswegan of Apple Valley, MN and their 2 children and 5 grandchildren. She is also survived by her siblings: Duane Vinar, Val Hallgren, James Vinar, Jr. (Julie), Dennis Vinar (Karen), Sharon Latvala (Rich), and Vance Vinar, Sr. (Barb).

While she may be gone, we will see her again. Her spirit lives on in all of us. We believe she was a wonderfully rare person, but admittedly, we are a bit biased... she was our mom.

Friends and family are invited to attend a memorial service on July 30th at 3pm at Our Saviors Lutheran Church, 1207 Prairie Avenue Southwest, Faribault, MN. The family kindly requests that any donations be made to the American Diabetes Association (<http://www.diabetes.org>) in memory of Kathleen.

Al joined the United States Navy and served as a fighter pilot in active combat during World War Two. Albert Quie married Gretchen in 1948, a union which lasted until she passed away in 2015. After the war he enrolled in St. Olaf College in Northfield where he graduated with a political science degree in 1950. He first followed in the family business as a dairy farmer. Quie embarked on his political career with winning his first election to the Minnesota State Senate in 1955. Three years later he was elected to the United States House of Representatives and served eleven terms before retiring to run for the Governor position in Minnesota in 1978. He was elected and served as the state's Governor from 1979 to 1983. One of his accomplishments was to straighten up the state's fiscal problems with spending cuts, leaving the state with a surplus when he left office. During his twenty-eight-year career in public office Quie never lost an election. After leaving public office he did not enter business or lobbying to capitalize on his political connections.

He considered public office to be a stewardship of the citizens he represented and that a public servant was just that, a servant.

Al Quie always held a strong faith in God and a deep spiritual conviction. He recalls growing up in the depression years and often hoboes would show up at the family dairy farm, where his parents would invite them in and share a meal. This gave him a lasting belief to respect the dignity of every person.

At the time that Richard Nixon resigned, Albert Quie was one of the persons Gerald Ford considered for the position of vice president. Another incident that came out of the Nixon and Watergate scandal involved Special Counsel to the president Chuck Colson. Colson was one of the Watergate Five, eventually charged with obstructing justice and faced prison for his part in the coverup. Colson, a hardnosed political hack who was described as someone who "would walk over his own grandmother", had once instigated some union leaders into organizing an attack by 200 construction workers on 1,000 college kids demonstrating against the Viet Nam war. Indicted and facing arrest and an eventual one to three-year prison sentence, Colson was given a C.S. Lewis book, "Mere Christianity" by a friend. Colson became a born again Christian and joined a Bible Study group with some congressmen, including Al Quie. Many claimed Colson's conversion was a ploy to avoid sentencing but Quie sensed that Colson was a changed man. Seven months into Colson's prison sentence some family problems surfaced and Al Quie went to then president Ford and asked if he could finish out Colson's prison term for him to allow Chuck to go free to be with his family. Although the offer never came to fruition, Chuck Colson was overwhelmed with the willingness of Al Quie, in an act of Christian service, to pay his penalty. Colson went on to become an influential evangelical Christian writer and speaker who authored over thirty books and formed the Prison Fellowship foundation, which has ministered to thousands of incarcerated individuals. After retiring from political life Al Quie, joined the Prison Fellowship and has devoted much of his time since helping prisoners turn their lives around through belief in Jesus Christ. In 2008 Quie was awarded the William Wilberforce Award given each year to a person who is an exemplary witness for Jesus Christ and advancing Christian values. A programming facility at Lino Lakes State Prison has been named after Albert Quie, the only current or former elected official to receive that honor. When he counsels prisoners, Al asks for the most difficult convict available. "It makes it interesting" he says.

Al Quie has been respected by members of both parties especially his opponents on the other side of the aisle, who are won over by his honesty, character and unswerving dedication to the truth. Roger Moe, Minnesota Senate majority leader and political foe, stated that Al Quie is "one of the most decent people I've ever met." He has even made it in Minnesota folklore, being mentioned in Garrison Keillor's Lake Wobegon Days, where he is said to be the first governor to visit the mythical community of Lake Wobegon where he dedicated a plaque to the Statue of the Unknown Norwegian.

Quie's love of horses has always been a priority in his life and in 2003 he published a book about his adventures with a number of his friends who spent eight summers riding a route from Canada to Mexico through the Rocky Mountains. The book was named "Riding the Great Divide", and followed their experiences riding and camping out in the western United States as they made their way through the wilderness much a explorers would have two centuries ago. Quite an undertaking for a man in his seventies.

On December 5, 2021, with the passing of Bob Dole, Albert Quie became the oldest living former governor and former United States Congressman.

Newly Published Children's Book Filled with Light

By Keely Keller

What was your favorite children's book? Mine was Alexander and the Terrible, Horrible, No Good, Very Bad Day by Judith Viorst. When I was young, I could relate to Alexander's intense dislike of lima beans. As an adult, I appreciate the notion that all bad days come to an end and there is new light in the morning to try again! Cassandra O'Reilly, a newly published children's book author from Goodhue, enjoyed The Seven Silly Eaters by Mary Ann Hoberman, especially when her grandma read it to her. Cassy, mother of five, now reads the same book to her children along with other favorites.

While there is plenty of reading going on in the O'Reilly home, there is also writing taking place. Cassy recently wrote and published a brand new children's book inspired by God and her children.

Cassy always thought it would be fun to write a children's book, but many of the ideas that came to her she'd seen in other books. She forgot about the idea for a while until she started having recurring dreams where she was in school and not getting work done. Cassy believes this was a gentle nudge from God to get her started, so she just went with it. Shortly thereafter, an idea popped into her head for Light Bringers! She jotted down short short phrases as they came to her. The phrases started to connect, and eventually, she felt her first book was complete. She worked with a publishing company and an illustrator to bring the book to life. Of course, Cassy's favorite part of the process was holding the hard copy in her hands and surprising family and friends with the finished product.

The book, Light Bringers: Let Us Shine Our Light, is all about how we can be the light of the world. Cassy hopes the book will provide an opportunity for readers (both children and adults) to dive into the word of God through verses she's included in the text.

She provided the following summary:

Who are we? We are light bringers! Come along and join us on this mighty mission as the children of God HE calls us to be. Dive into what the Word of God has to say on how to be the light of this world. Let us shine our light to bring His glory to all of those around us!

Light Bringers: Let Us Shine Our Light shines Cassandra's light on anyone who reads her book. She encourages others to share their gifts, especially when God puts it on your heart. "If that's writing a book like me, being an artist, playing music, helping others, teaching, woodworking, etc., whatever your gift from God may be, trust in Him and do it. Not only will it bless others but also bring God's glory into your life..."

Cassandra O'Reilly

When asked if Cassy plans to write more books, she responded with, "We will see what God puts in my heart and go from there!" Cassandra's first book is available on Amazon, Barnes and Noble, and Xulon Press.

Exploring History with Textiles

By Mary Closner

The extent of my knowledge about fabric and sewing is the fact that I've heard the terms "Warp" and "Weft." I don't know what they mean, but I have heard of them. Oh, and I did sew part of an apron in Home Economics class in middle school, so I guess that counts.

Well, imagine my delight in chatting with a textile historian with 40-years-experience, Margo Krager of Reproduction Fabrics. This gal knows her stuff!

Margo owns a bright, cheery and beautifully organized store located above the downtown branch of Merchant's Bank (formerly First National Bank) in Northfield, MN. She specializes in cotton fabrics from the time period 1775 - 1950. She has a very specific and unique niche in the textile industry.

If you have questions about what folks were wearing during the Civil War or the Great Depression, Margo has you covered. She's been in business for eight years in her current location. Prior to Covid, half of her clients were costume designers for movies/theater/tv/teen-actors and the other half were quilters. Now that the entertainment industry is back alive, she's scrambling to accommodate her costumers and online clients all over the globe.

Margo spent 15 years in the medical technology field while her husband was working as a wildlife biologist. They lived in small communities all over Colorado, Wyoming and Montana before she pursued her interest in textiles and opened her brick & mortar store in Bozeman, MT. She did a lot of teaching when visitors from Yellowstone Park came in to see what it was she sold.

Her husband was the one who set up her original online presence and wrote the code that allowed her to start a "mail order business." She still uses both a server and a personal cell phone number from her old stompin' grounds in Montana so customers from her original store can find her.

When she isn't in the store, she's traveling, writing or lecturing all over the country. At 75, she doesn't appear to be slowing down a bit. While I was in the store, she was waiting on a group of three ladies who peppered her with questions and shared stories about their recent quilting projects. She was also waiting for a call from her "young tech guy" who helps her keep her online customers happy with a smooth ordering process.

Margo casually mentioned that the first movie she ever worked on was, "A River Runs Through It." She's currently helping the costumer on a movie with a big-name star we all know and love, but she wouldn't let me write about him.

Margo also told me she has purchased fabric from all over the world during her retail adventures, but she was most excited to tell me about having designed 23 lines of textiles for big companies as well as manufacturing three of her own cotton fabric lines.

She is the proud owner of nine antique fabric sample books that are her prized possessions. Three of these books feature American fabrics from the 20th century and the others are French fabrics from the 19th century. In this day and age, she can work with a fabric stylist who is technically astute in preparing images for digital printing. This gives her a level of detail that wasn't available when the fabrics were original produced.

South Korea is where most of the fabrics are created and usually are printed in quantities of 3,000 to 5,000 yards at a time. It can take anywhere up to 18 months from the original design to receipt of the actual bolt of fabric.

Due to advances in printing and technology in general, she can now produce smaller batches and multiple colors in the United States and have much more control over the end product.

If you want to learn about the French wall-paper hanger who is credited with creating the ombre effect or what women wore after their initial black silk mourning clothes during the Civil War, I recommend you stop by and chat with Margo. Reproduction Fabrics has samples of quilt pieces and period clothing and Margo would love to share her passion with you. Stop in!

Wisconsin Utilities Delay Coal Plant Closures Due to Blackout Risks

Xcel Energy Should Follow Suit with Sherco

By Isaac Orr

Isaac Orr is a Policy Fellow at Center of the American Experiment.
isaac.orr@americanexperiment.org

Electric companies in Wisconsin have announced they will delay the closure of three coal plants in the Badger State due to a shortage of reliable power plant capacity on the regional electric grid, the Midcontinent Independent Systems Operator (MISO). The shortage of capacity is increasing the risk of rolling blackouts rolling blackouts this summer.

This is good news because the region's coal plants are absolutely necessary for maintaining grid reliability.

The importance of these coal plants is why Xcel Energy should follow Wisconsin's lead by keeping its Sherburne County (Sherco) Units 1 and 2, two coal units with a combined capacity of 1,360 megawatts (MW), open past their current 2023 and 2026 retirement dates.

On, Wisconsin!

Wisconsin Public Radio reports that Alliant Energy had previously announced it would shut down its 400-megawatt Edgewater coal plant in Sheboygan by 2023 and its 1,100-megawatt coal plant in Columbia County by 2025. Now, the utility said Edgewater will continue to operate until mid-2025 while Columbia is now slated to retire by mid-2026.

We Energies announced Thursday that will delay the closure of its coal-fired units at the South Oak Creek coal plant in Milwaukee County by a year. Two units will now retire two by May 2024 and the last two units by late 2025.

Save Our Sherco

MISO currently has a capacity shortfall of 1,200 MW, which is roughly the amount of power plant capacity needed to power half the homes in Minnesota on an average hour. Next year, however, the shortfall is projected to grow to 2,600 MW.

Unfortunately, Xcel Energy will be contributing to this growing capacity shortfall if it follows through with its planned retirement of Sherco 2, which measures 680 MW, next year.

The good news is that extending the life of Sherco 2 would be easy because the original retirement date of the plant was not until the 2030s. This means there is plenty of life left on the plant to help stem the rising risk of rolling blackouts.

It is unclear, however, if Xcel will attempt to keep the plant open.

Where do we go from here?

We are in a reliability hole, and the first thing we need to do is stop digging.

State lawmakers need to make reliability the top priority for our electric system. This means Minnesota should keep all of its existing coal, natural gas, and nuclear power plants online for the foreseeable future.

We should also do common-sense things that will shore up grid reliability while also allowing for the cleaner operation of our power plants. This includes allowing coal plants to install pollution control equipment and legalizing the construction of new nuclear power plants, which can provide reliable and emissions-free electricity at every hour of the day.

Wisconsin companies appear to understand that reliability comes first. Hopefully Xcel Energy will follow suit.

OLD BUSINESS:

Mayor Holmes stated that the enforcement process with Wanamingo Locker/Blondies Butcher Shop had been approved at the May Wanamingo City Council meeting. A letter had been sent to Wanamingo Locker/Blondies Butcher shop outlining their portion of the MPCA approved compliance plan to eliminate blood, animal guts/tissue, and fleshings from entering into the discharge of water or wastes. The approved compliance plan includes the following:

-30 days for the locker to provide a written letter back to the City on how they plan to meet the goal of eliminating blood, animal guts/tissue, and fleshings from entering into the discharge of waters or wastes.

-60 days provide a written update on progress toward meeting goal

-90 days to meet goal. If goal is not met a written request made to the City outlining why goals have not been met. State how long of a realistic extension to meet goal.

If the locker has not met the three milestones of 30, 60, and 90 days the City would consider them in violation. The City may fine, block sanitary sewer service pipe, or take legal action. The City will inform the Minnesota Pollution Control Agency of the violation.

Holmes thanked the Fulton's for attending the meeting. Lindsey Fulton stated that this was the first time invited to the meeting and was disappointed that she had not been approached in the process. Holmes stated that Council meetings are open to the public and that anyone is welcome to share concerns with the Council. Holmes stated that he and staff have had numerous conversations with Fulton and had advise that changes were needed to collect blood before going down the drain. VanDeWalker stated that Fulton had been invited to the Council meeting and that he, other Council members, and staff have had numerous conversions to make corrections in the slaughtering process to limit blood and animal biproducts from entering the wastewater collections system. Ohr was happy that Fulton had come to a Council meeting and was glad to finally address the concerns. Ohr stated that was disappointed that this is the first time that a proper discussion at a Council meeting, on this topic, took place between the City and the Locker to find a remedy.

Lindsey Fulton provided photos and briefly explained on how blood and animal biproducts are collected as part of the slaughter process at the locker. Lindsey Fulton stated that this process was put into place nearly two years ago. Lindsey Fulton stated that most of the blood is collected and could not believe that there continues to be substantial amounts of blood and animal biproducts at the WWTP coming from the locker. Lindsey Fulton stated that to fully eliminate the City sewer in the process would require the installation of a collection tank. The tank and changes needed to install is estimated to cost $15,000. The monthly cost for pumping and cleanout is estimated at $1,000 per month. These costs are an extreme burden on a small business and could threaten the livelihood moving forward, if required. VanDeWalker thanked Fulton for explaining the changes that had been made. However, the Locker needs to submit a written plan as per the MPCA approved plan.

Lindsey Fulton asked what had recently changed at the sewer plant to hurt operations. Lindsey stated that the locker continues to slaughters 3-5 large animals per week. The locker also conducts catering and teaching at the facility. Kennedy stated that the MPCA conducted its yearly visit in June 2021. The MPCA Environmental Specialist observed blood and animal fleshing in the effluent and started asking questions regarding locker plants. Kennedy stated that the MPCA requires the City to regulate discharge from users of its wastewater treatment facility. The MPCA was concerned with blood from the Wanamingo Locker. The City is required to prevent any pass through of pollutants or any inhibition or disruption of the City's facility, its treatment process, or its sludge processes or disposal that contribute to the violation of the conditions of the permit or any federal or state law or regulation limiting the release of pollutants from the POTW. The City is required to prohibit the discharge of the following to its wastewater treatment facility: Solid or viscus pollutants which obstruct flow. Any pollutant, including oxygen demanding pollutant such as biochemical oxygen demand, released at a flow rate or pollutant concentration that will cause inter-

Kennedy stated that the changes described by the Locker that were put in place were not sufficient and that there is weekly blood and animal biproducts coming into the WWTP. Kennedy stated that there needs to be trust between the City and the Locker that any mitigation is working and will continue to work. Cal Fulton asked how the City could prove that the blood and animal biproducts had come from the locker. Cal Fulton suggested that residential households thawing meat could produce blood that appears at the WWTP. Cal Fulton challenged the credentials of City staff and the WWTP licensed operator to know where the blood was coming from. Call Fulton stated that women in the community are contributing to the WWTP issues. Kennedy stated that the staff, including himself and the WWTP licensed operator went through numerous class hours and continuing education for the sewer plan licenses. Small amounts of residential blood from cooking are diluted where gallons of blood from butchering are not able to dilute. Kennedy stated that staff have opened manholes upstream and downstream of the Locker to see no read on the upstream and bright red on the downstream of the Locker, when in the process of butchering.

Holmes stated that the Locker needs to provide a written plan of what has been outlined at the meeting by the Fulton's. Holmes stated that the plan would be reviewed and the process could be review and suggestions could be made to improve. Cal Fulton asked how the WWTP is disrupted being the Lockers has operated the same for 80 years. He asked if it was from growth or sludge dumping, or how the locker contributes. Kennedy stated that there has been no sludge dumping in over a year. Blood is high in CBOD and the live bugs at the WWTP overload on high amounts of CBOD. The bugs slow down and disrupt the process to separate the solids from the water. The rest of the residents pay to treat any waste that upsets the operations of the wastewater treatment facility. Kennedy stated that the upstream and downstream manholes could be opened so that the Fulton's could see the color change when the Locker butchers. VanDeWalker stated that it is only logical after 80 years that processing change and regulators are going to witness and require changes. VanDeWalker was concerned that the extra phosphorus and disrupted WWTP operations were costing other taxpayers in higher sewer rates.

Cal Fulton asked how long the flow takes from the Locker to be seen at the WWTP. Kennedy stated that the Locker flow will be seen at the WWTP between 30 minutes to an hour, depending on the flow rate. Cal Fulton asked if the State Inspector was invited by the City. Kennedy stated that the State Inspector comes unannounced for yearly inspections. The inspector had not been at the WWTP in two years due to COVID and conducted a thorough review of the WWTP. Kennedy stated that in June 2021 the inspector witnessed the blood in the effluent and specifically asked where it was coming from and if the City had a Locker plant in town. Boulton stated that Richard Turri, the licensed WWTP operator documents photos of blood and animal biproducts. Boulton stated that the last two years have continued to have regular documented blood and animal biproducts coming into the WWTP since changes had been implemented at the locker to mitigate blood down the drain.

Lindsey Fulton stated that there has been a lack of communication from the City with her on the blood and animal biproducts and how to remedy. Fulton's has not had direction on what the City wants. Lindsey Fulton also brought up the operations of other area lockers and how they work with their cities.

Boulton stated that there are numerous ways to remedy the situation and that each remedy's results/costs are unique to the Locker. Boulton stated that requiring a specific remedy may not work best for the Lockers. Kennedy stated that he had few conversations with Lindsey Fulton within the Locker building and had specifically laid out a number of possible remedies over the past three years to limit the blood going into the sewer. Kennedy stated that other area Lockers, such as Pine Island, have built trust in the blood and animal biproduct cleaning process. Trust and communication are key in case there are situations when some blood gets into the system. It can be monitored and diluted so that it does not disrupt the WWTP operations.

Keith Allen expressed his concerns that the Locker fits a need in the area. He sells animals to customers that are processed at the Locker. Without the Locker his business would be adversely affected. Wayne Livingston expressed his concern not pushing the Locker out of business do to the potential high costs to remedy.

Holmes stated that there is a desire to find a reasonable way forward to keep blood and animal biproducts out of the WWTP. Holmes expressed his desire for the Locker to continue to operate in Wanamingo. Holmes stated that Fulton's should submit a written mitigation plan for review, which includes what has already been taking place. City staff can monitor the flow at the upstream and downstream manholes. Holmes apologized if there was any miscommunication or misunderstanding during this process. Holmes stated that the key is that the City and Locker have to take action since the Minnesota Pollution Control Agency stepped in and required changes.

Cal and Lindsey Fulton agreed to put the mitigation plan in writing and provide a copy for review. Jean Fulton stated that the Locker reputation had been damaged during this process and asked how this would be resolved. Jean Fulton asked if the City would be taking out a newspaper add in the future once the plan was approved. VanDeWalker stated that he continues to learn from information that is provided. VanDeWalker had concerns with any innuendos floating around the public that hurt the Locker's reputation. VanDeWalker stated that he was proud that the award-winning Locker was located in Wanamingo. Holmes stated his continued desire to work to remedy the situation with the Locker. Boulton stated that the Fulton's were invited to the July 11th Council meeting to discuss your written process and any potential conditions. Ohr stated that anyone, including the Fulton's, are welcome at any Wanamingo City Council to discuss concerns. Boulton explained that he had sent USDA grant information to Lindsey Fulton regarding expansions. Lindsey Fulton stated that she had reviewed the grant and was not sure if it would fit the Locker's needs.

Boulton stated that he and Councilmember Ohr had conducted a City-wide tour and had compiled a nuisance list. The nuisance list includes items such as junk vehicles, boats, mowing, and other junk items out in the open. A full list was been provided to the Council to review. The Council agreed to take the recommended actions for the nuisance list. Boulton has been conducting calls, making site visits, and sending letters to property owners who have nuisance violations. Many of the nuisances have been abated. The goal is to clean up the town before the Wanamingo 4th of July celebration.

Boulton provided a sanitary sewer district capital request update. The Minnesota Legislature adjourned without approving a bonding bill or authorizing the usage of Federal American Cares Act (ACA) State infrastructure funds. The Cities of Goodhue, Pine Island, Wanamingo, and Zumbrota had contracted with Winthrop & Weinsteine for lobbying services through July, including as possible special session. There does not appear to be any special sessions to be called to consider a bonding bill or authorizing the use of Federal ACA fund for infrastructure projects. The joint sanitary sewer district capital request is currently on hold. Without State or Federal assistance, the four communities can not afford to proceeds alone. The monthly meetings will continue to take place for strategy to work through the next legislative session after the 2022 elections. There will be many new faces in the legislature, more than usual due to redistricting. Returning legislators will also be representing new areas of the State. Hopefully there will continue to be a budget surplus to start the 2023-2024 legislative session.

*Next City Council meeting on 7/11/2022 at 7:00pm.

Adjourn: At 8:07PM a motion to adjourn was made by VanDeWalker and seconded by Ohr. Passed 4-0-0.

Signed: Ryan Holmes, Mayor

Attest: Michael Boulton, City Administrator

Changes in Latitudes, Changes in Attitudes Meeting the Old People who Once Lived in Our House

By Terry Campbell

This column is written by Messenger editor and Minnesota native Terry Campbell. Terry now splits his time between Minnesota when it's warm here and Tennessee when it's cold here.

We bought an old house in Tennessee. It is not as old as the house up the street that was once reportedly used as a stop in the underground railroad prior to the Civil War, but it has a history. Our friend Jim's grandparents used to live in the house, and he still lives nearby. He drives past every day. He stopped in with his sister Pat, to meet the new owners of their family's house. That is how we got acquainted with some of the original owners. Jim's son Danny is the local newspaper publisher and the bedroom upstairs that I use as my office was once Danny's bedroom when he was a kid. I find that an interesting coincidence.

Aulsie was the family matriarch. She seems to have ruled the family with an iron fist. Aulsie is as far back as we can find as an original owner of the house. She owned about 70 acres on this lot and accumulated land by marrying husbands. Three by our count, and she outlived them all. Our new friends brought us pictures of the house many years ago as well as pictures of Aulsie, who was an old woman before any photos were taken of her. The stories about Aulsie lacked affection, but gave you a kind of a healthy respect for her and a hope she wasn't still around listening in. One of the pictures was of Aulsie and couple of her old lady friends sitting in the living room, each with a cigar in their mouth.

Pat relates that she was a young girl when she remembered seeing Aulsie on the front porch with a pistol on her lap. Seems someone was shooting frogs in the pond and the old woman was going to put an end to it. When Pat was a teenager, she was staying with her grandmother and snuck out of the house with a couple friends to join some boys swimming at the pond. Aulsie told Pat's dad that "the boys had no pants on and had whiskey bottles in their pockets." Her dad was very mad and gave her "what fer" and so she stormed back to grandma Aulsie's house to defend her honor. She found herself looking at Aulsie, down the barrel of a shotgun.

Her Uncle Garfield lived up on top of the hill in an old log cabin and was the local drunk. Her dad and Garfield would raise a hog each summer and butcher it in the fall for meat. Garfield would trade his hog for cases of beer and stay drunk for weeks. They would send eight-year-old Pat up to find out if he was dead or just still drunk.

Pat and her husband moved into the old farmhouse when they were first married. Her last recollection of Garfield was watching him come down the hill one day while she was eight months pregnant. She picked up the shotgun and walked out on the porch where she dared him to come closer because he was not in range yet. He looked at her and said, "you would really shoot me, wouldn't you?" She said yes, and he turned around and headed back up the hill.

Life could be rough out in the backwoods Tennessee country and girls learned to be tough to survive.

A Minnesotan: Fireworks

By RosaLin Alcoser

I absolutely love to watch fireworks. Last Fourth of July I watched them from my apartment window. At University I went to watch the start of year fireworks every year. I've photographed them for newspapers and have watched them go off over the lake a number of times. In fact I just watched some while visiting my grandpa over Father's Day weekend this year.

This love of fireworks has not always been the case. Like most small children I was not a fan of fireworks, mainly because they were loud and I did not quite understand how they worked. On the Fourth of July, when I was two, I watched the fireworks with a tiny child's lawn chair over my head; my mother says that I told them at the time that the chair was to protect my hair from catching on fire from the fireworks.

As I got a little bit older I started being less afraid of fireworks for a few years. By less afraid I mean that I was OK with sparklers and fireworks that were set off far away from where I was watching them from.

One Fourth of July when I was probably seven, I was excited about the sparkler cake that we had for a birthday that same day. In full honesty I was a bit disappointed when it was not an actual cake, but it was still pretty cool.

Fireworks were less bad for me until the next Fourth of July when I was eight. That year one of Grandpa's buddies who will not be named, you know who are, came over to set off fireworks from the deck while we were on the deck. He brought a Mad Dog firework that lasted forever; and let me tell you, you do not want to share a deck space with one of those things.

After that I was scared of fireworks again for a one to three of the next couple of years and proceeded to spend the next couple Fourth of July fireworks in the basement because I was now more afraid of the fireworks than I was of the furnace. I was also afraid of Grandpa's buddy after that because of the Mad Dog firework.

Thankfully for me and my family, who like to go to fireworks, I am no longer afraid of fireworks unless they are set off on the deck while I am on it.
