The Messenger Becomes A Legal Newspaper in Dodge County

The Messenger is pleased to announce that it is now a legal newspaper in Dodge County, Minnesota as of August 2023, meeting Minnesota Statutes for legal newspaper status in the community and county.

The Messenger Newspapers were formed back in the early 2000's to fill a void left in towns when their local weekly newspaper ceased publication. Over the last twenty-plus years, we have grown to ten different hometown publications in fifteen separate hometowns in Dodge, Goodhue and Rice and Wabasha Counties. Until 2022 all of our publications were published once each month in the communities we serve.

The Dodge Center Messenger began as a monthly publication after the long time Star-Herald newspaper ceased publication in 2018,

Christmas Memories from the Past

David is 89 years old this Christmas. He remembers Christmas as a child in Salt Lake City, where his dad was a teacher at a school in Utah. The lived in a two-story house with a steep stairway leading to the upper level. On Christmas morning the kids would sit on the steps waiting for their parents to open the door. The presents were not wrapped, but were on the dining table covered by a sheet. They would join hands and march around the table like a train until the sheet was removed. One year they received the nicest gift ever. His dad found three pedal cars second hand and each boy got one. There was a firetruck, and airplane and a car. The girls would get clothing.

Christmas: "Season of Hope"

By Colin Rueter

Hope is a powerful topic. In C.S. Lewis' The Lion, the Witch and the Wardrobe, there is a scene where Mr. Tumnus, a fawn in Narnia, is lamenting to Lucy Pevensie about the fact that due to a terrible curse, Narnia endures an everlasting winter but they never have Christmas. In fact, there is no celebrating of any kind. Every day is the same—cold, dark, and desperate. "It is winter in Narnia," said Mr. Tumnus, "and has been for ever so long.... always winter, but never Christmas." Later, all the children hear sleigh bells. It is the driver of a sleigh who is a giant of a man dressed all in red and white. It is Father Christmas! He declares, "I have broken through at last. [the White Witch] has kept me out for a long time, but her magic is weakening. Aslan is on the move! A merry Christmas! Long live the true King!" Hope is coming for Narnia!

The hope that I speak of, that Lewis shows us as Aslan in the story, is a person! Hope is Emmanuel, God with us! Hope is not wishful thinking in positive change, but recognizing that the God who created all things came to this place of perpetual winter to shine His light and give us perpetual, living hope through His Son. We were cold, helpless, and lifeless, so God came in the flesh, born of a virgin, sinless throughout His whole life, giving His life as a ransom for many, and being raised from the dead so that all who believe in Him would not perish but have eternal life. Our hope is living because Jesus lives today and we celebrate this Christmas season with a hope that does not disappoint.

I want to close by bringing us to a specific passage that is not common to Christmas. The Apostle Peter wrote a letter to a people who are suffering for their faith in Jesus Christ. He writes a common greeting in verse 1 & 2, reminding them that they were chosen by God, according to the foreknowledge of God the Father. 1 Peter 1:20 says that Christ Himself was foreknown by the Father in the same way. God didn't just know about us; He knew us—personally—and He chose us, even while we were still sinners (Romans 5:8). We are chosen through the sanctifying work of the Holy Spirit to set us apart for God, making us people God can call holy and His children. We fulfill our purpose in God choosing us as His children when we obey Christ. Here is our text this Christmas from 1 Peter 1:3-9, "Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ! According to his great mercy, he has caused us to be born again to a living hope through the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead, to an inheritance that is imperishable, undefiled, and unfading, kept in heaven for you, who by God's power are being guarded through faith for a salvation ready to be revealed in the last time. In this you rejoice, though now for a little while, if necessary, you have been grieved by various trials, so that the tested genuineness of your faith—more precious than gold that perishes though it is tested by fire—may be found to result in praise and glory and honor at the revelation of Jesus Christ. Though you have not seen him, you love him. Though you do not now see him, you believe in him and rejoice with joy that is inexpressible and filled with glory, obtaining the outcome of your faith, the salvation of your souls." Peter reminds us that God is to be praised because He has caused us to be born anew to a living hope, real hope through Jesus Christ, and that the temporal world now cannot overcome that hope. Though trials may come, they test our faith and refine it so that it is revealed as genuine, real, and active in our life. Though we do not see Jesus, we know and love Him, therefore we obey and faithfully walk with Him. Light momentary affliction today prepares for us the glory when we see Jesus' face to face and our joy is

Do you have the sense some days, like those Pevensie children shivering and confused in a cold land, that despair clouds your hope? You are not alone. Many people cringe at the mere thought of another pain or trial, others rise to the occasion, most are somewhere in between. Friends, Christmas is a season of hope, even though with everything going on in our world today we are tempted to despair. Peter's encouragement is one of perseverance in faith because God is with us. It isn't enough for us to simply get up every morning and trudge through each day nor paste a smile on our faces and ignore troubles. C.S. Lewis brilliantly wrote The Chronicles allegory soon after the World War, a time of despair for many and time of needed reflection on true hope. It seems that a story like this is needed again and again to awaken our hearts to see the world as it is, always winter, and yet give hope to our hearts that it won't stay this way—Christmas is coming, Aslan is on the move, Hope is here. Come to Jesus this Christmas and know Hope. May He help us to reflect on the hope He brings through the written word that we would know Him better this Christmas season. So onward! It is in the darkest times that our collective light shines brightest for the world to see and by grace praise our Father in heaven. Merry Christmas and hold fast Christian. Behold, the King is coming soon!

Friends, this season can bring a plethora of emotions, including loneliness, sadness, and anxiety, even with the hope that Jesus brings. Therefore, if you have questions, need prayer, a word of encouragement, or a cup of coffee, please contact me via my personal email: niloc1214@gmail.com

Area Church Directory The Glory of Jesus

When we think of the glory of God, we probably have something like Isaiah 6 in mind. The prophet Isaiah had a vision of God in a heavenly temple, "high and exalted, seated on a throne." Seraphim (fiery creatures with wings) were flying about, singing, "The whole earth is full of his glory." And the temple trembled and shook (Isaiah 6:1-4).

That's glory. Glory is big. Glory is high. Glory is powerful. No doubt that's what James and John have in mind when they ask to sit on either side of Jesus in his glory. They want the best seats in the house. They want to be where the action is. They want to be where power resides.

They have no idea what they're talking about. Because Jesus is on a long mission that will redefine glory. Glory will not describe an untouchable God so high up as to be invisible, except in a vision. No. Glory will now describe God in human flesh, lifted a few feet off the ground and nailed to a cross. Glory will now describe the God available to be touched, to be spat upon, to be mocked. This is what it means for God to be human. And this is how glory is redefined when God becomes a suffering servant.

"We have seen his glory," John says (John 1:14).

Jesus, we praise you for your glory. It's a glory that overturns our expectations. Thank you for setting them right-side up. Amen.

Their dad would get a tree a couple days before Christmas and the kids would decorate it with strips of shiny, silver icicles. The family would draw names and each one would buy a gift for whose name they had. David always hoped someone other than his older sister would draw his name, because she gave him practical things. He remembers that his mom would sew clothing out of feed sacks and they were quite good material.

For the Christmas day meal there would be chicken, mashed potatoes, gravy, cranberries and home baked bread. They would get real butter, which was hard to come by due to the war rations. His dad loved nuts and he had a nutcracker to open the shells. There was also licorice, bubble gum and jelly beans for treats. All the kids participated in the church program and he enjoyed the festive time of getting dressed up and singing Christmas songs. They went to a Methodist Church there, which was only unusual because it was a Mormon county.

One of his non-Christmas memories was riding back to Minnesota in his parent's 1949 Chevrolet each summer to visit the grandparents. Dave loved the green grass and fishing so much he moved back to Minnesota when he came back from his two years in the service.

Nancy is 84 years old. She recalls her parents going out to chop a tree for Christmas when she was young. They were gone a long time. Her mom was real particular about the tree. It had to be perfect. When her dad put the tree up in the house the kids got to decorate it. The next morning when she got up, she realized that her mom had redecorated the tree while they slept.

There were seven kids in her family growing up. They went to church on Christmas Eve. The kids would have their part to recite in the program and costumes to match. They usually would each get a new outfit to wear for Christmas. Afterward they would open gifts. The boys would get toys like trucks and the girls got dolls and clothes. Her dad would give them some money to buy small presents for each other. They didn't have much, but they were happy. Christmas day the house was full of company. Her grandparents would arrive early in the day with small gifts like socks and underwear. The relatives would show up in time for a big meal. The main course was lutefisk, lefse and oysters. There was also turkey, potatoes, gravy, apple and pumpkin pie, her favorite. Afterwards the kids would go outside to play and make snow angels and snowmen.

Larry is 87 years old and grew up in a family of six kids, four boys and two girls. They lived in Rochester and his dad worked at the Mayo Clinic. He recalls how his dad rode his bike to work at the clinic every day and they didn't own a car until the family purchased a new 1955 Plymouth.

When Larry was young the family would celebrate Christmas by opening gifts on Christmas eve. One of the gifts he received as a young man was a wrist watch, which he considered about the greatest thing on earth. Another gift he recalls from his youth was a pair of cowboy boots. His birthday also fell in December, an event that kind of got lost in the excitement of the holiday.

On Christmas day there was always dinner with the family consisting of turkey and dressing. His grandparents were from Ireland. After Larry got older, he played the dollar drop game with the kids, where they tried to catch a crisp new dollar bill before it hit the floor. A few years ago he asked if they were too old to play the game, but they wanted to keep up the tradition so he procures some new money from the bank for the occasion.

Larry lived at Ryan's Bay in Lake Zumbro for over fifty years and used to drive the ski boat and pickup boat as well as serve as the announcer for the water ski performances on the lake.

Mary is 95 years old and grew up on a farm in western Minnesota. She remembers the Christmas programs at the country school and churches when she was young were more about Jesus' birthday than Santa Claus. They consisted of Christmas songs and recitations the kids memorized. She can recall playing an angel in one of the pageants. There was a man dressed as Santa who gave each kid a bag of candy at the school program.

As the oldest of seven kids, Mary helped a lot with the cooking at Christmas time. Family would come over for the Christmas meal of turkey, mashed potatoes, gravy, sweet potatoes and cranberry salad. One specialty was her dad's favorite treat from old England. He would steam plum pudding with raisins and currants for four hours and then make a sweet sauce that was poured hot over the pudding. The memories of the meals with the family was more important than the gifts.

For fun they would ski behind the pickup on country roads. The kids took turns with the one pair of skis and had to remember to throw the rope over the mailboxes as they passed by. After the lakes froze they would ski behind the pickup on the flat surface as there were no hills to be found where they grew up.

When Mary went to nursing college in Chicago her parents mailed her a Christmas dinner in dry ice one year. She cooked it and shared it with her nurse friends who were all far away from their homes over the holidays.

Jean is 94 years old and grew up on a farm with her twin sister and one brother. The family endured lean years but her parents always made it a special day for the kids and managed to have some toys for gifts along with clothes and games. She recalls a baby doll for a gift one year.

The family would go to church on Christmas eve and then on Christmas morning would wake to open gifts. The Christmas meal included ham, pork roast, potatoes, chocolate milk and pies. Activities were always playing games as a family. They included Yahtzee and card games like Old Maid. One of her favorite treats was the chocolate cake her mom would bake.

Arietta is 89 years old and grew up living in town with her five brothers and sisters. She remembers going to church on Christmas eve and the next day all her uncles, aunts and cousins went to grandmother's house for a big meal. There would be 30 to 40 all packed in the house together. Her grandmother cooked on a wood stove and served turkey, dressing, cranberry bread and apple pie. There would also be homemade ice cream in the afternoon.

Presents were pajamas and books for the girls and toy car, trucks and farm machinery for the boys. Her favorite was a handmade doll with a china face.

After the noon meal the adults would sit around the table and play 500 while the kids headed outside to slide down the nearest hill on sleds and toboggans.

Bev is 94 years old and was an only child growing up in town during the Great Depression era. Christmas was a big event at her parent's house and her mother baked all sorts of wonderful holiday foods. She got to open her gifts Christmas eve and her favorite gifts as a child were dolls and a doll buggy.

She especially remembers school and church Christmas programs where each child would memorize a piece to be recited in front of the parents.

Christmas day they would get in the car and drive to a relative's farm for a big meal and afterwards she played outside with her cousins.

MERRY CHRISTMAS

In 2022, The Messenger was contacted about becoming a legal newspaper in Dodge County. Our business model had been very successful as a monthly publication, delivering hometown news in the Triton area. Further discussions took place with interested and supportive parties to make the move to publishing twice per month. (Publishing twice per month is required to meet the state statute requirement for legal newspaper status. Legal status is required for a publication to publish official legal notices for school, city, township and county government, as well as other legal notices.)

Beginning in June of 2022, we began to print and distribute the Messenger twice a month as required by the State of Minnesota to fulfill the legal requirements set forth by the Minnesota Secretary of State office, Minn. Stat. § 331A.02, subd. 1 (a)-(j). The requirement was fulfilled after 12 months of twice monthly publishing and distribution. The Messenger filed the necessary paperwork with The Minnesota Secretary of State office once the requirements were met.

The Messenger is supported by local advertisers and paid subscriptions.

Thanks to overwhelming community support, The Messenger also collaborated with the Triton School District for the last several years to provide full circulation of the Triton Times publication, reaching the residents served by The Triton School District in Dodge Center, West Concord and Claremont. This ongoing partnership also saves the district tax dollars in publishing the school news they previously did in their in-house publication.

We look forward to continue serving the Triton area and our communities of Dodge Center, Claremont and West Concord in this new capacity, working to grow and continuing to offer our readers the best we can in local media coverage.

We want to thank these three communities for their continued support as we grow to serve the area better.

Celebrating 800 Years of Nativity Displays

By Catherine Eayrs

As we celebrate Christmas in 2023, Christians around the world are celebrating the 800th anniversary of the tradition of the Nativity scene displayed in homes, churches, and communities. But how did this important religious tradition evolve?

Historians confirm that Saint Francis of Assisi chose Greccio, Italy, as a favored location to visit because the people of this community were devoted to their faith. A local wealthy nobleman and his wife, John and Alticama Velita, offered Francis a place to build a humble hermitage or haven. Here, Francis meditated on the incarnation in which God took human form in the birth and life of Jesus. Francis asked his good friend, John Velita, to organize the people, animals, and manger with hay so that those who came to worship could experience the birth of Jesus in sight, sound, and smell.

Francis presented the mystery of how we (humans) are connected to the divine and nature in the first live Nativity on Christmas 1223 in a cave in Greccio, Italy. This crèche, or scene, helped children understand how God came to earth in physical form as recorded in the biblical account of the birth of Jesus to Joseph and Mary, dwelling in a humble stable amid an ox and donkey. Thus, the God of greatness came to earth in poverty. An angel's announcement to shepherds and a special star shining brightly above Bethlehem brought wise men seeking this baby—the Savior of the world.

Biographers and followers of Saint Francis, Thomas of Celano and Bonaventure, wrote the earliest record of the Nativity scene circa 1260. This scene, also known as the crib, manger, or stable, has stirred faithful Christians of numerous denominations throughout the ages.

For centuries, art objects depict the Nativity scene in many forms as painters, sculptors, writers, actors, composers, and musicians demonstrate their talents through their interpretations of this Gospel story. Presently, Christians experience a love for the Nativity through worship, pageants, concerts, greeting cards, decorating, and gift giving. In the United States, amidst numerous secular holiday traditions, Christians remember the most sacred tradition—that Jesus is the Reason for the Season.

I had a marvelous experience to see the display of a very special kind of Nativity figures while living and working in Switzerland 30+ years ago. Brienz, a community near Interlaken in Canton Bern, is a famous wood-carving center. Tourists visit the wood-carving school in Brienz and find a variety of beautifully, hand carved figures for sale in local shops in this area as well as in shops in the major cities of Switzerland that feature Swiss made crafts.

Fritz Fuchs, a world-renowned woodcarver and instructor from the Brienz area, visited the Berne Swissfest at Zwingli United Church of Christ, in rural West Concord, several times in the 1980s through the early millennium. Fritz brought a sampling of Swiss folk figures, animals, and Nativity figures to sell at the Swissfest. He designed his own line of Nativity figures and spent several months every year for several decades carving only these figures to keep up with the demand of Nativity sales. Among my most cherished possessions are the Nativity figures hand carved and given to me by Fritz and his family.

I found one of Fritz's most unique, religious designs at his home when my daughter, Annemarie, and I visited the Fuchs family in 2010. It was his depiction of Mary holding the baby Jesus, carved in basswood with an additional element—triangles of all sizes shaped throughout the figure. His abstract interpretation masterfully shows the form of the earthly mother and child as well as the incarnation through triangles—Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. Fritz Fuchs died in 2021 yet his legacy at Christmas time lives on throughout the world. His hand carved Nativity figures are lovingly displayed at Christmas time by many Swiss people and foreigners who visited Switzerland.

A local woodcarver, LuVerne Schettl, of Oronoco, Minnesota, has made a few of her own Nativity figures. She belongs to the Rochester Woodcarvers. Mrs. Schettl, now age 91, was interviewed a few years ago for the local magazine, Today, which featured her collection of more than 250 Nativity scenes in the December 2015 issue. Her collection is from all over the world and made from various materials—crystal, teakwood, paper, clay, metal, etc. Mrs. Schettl also displays the Nativity in paintings and tapestry. Her granddaughter helps her set up her most cherished display of a Nativity village featuring 100 pieces. The tallest display is assembled outdoors and was given to her by her daughter and son-in-law, Andrea and Keith Maxson, of rural Pine Island.

I recommend the following local event for you to see many forms of the Nativity: Wonder of the Nativity—The public is invited to this free annual event featuring more than 200 Nativity scenes displayed on December 1st and 2nd at The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, 2300 Viola Heights Drive NE, Rochester, MN. Visit the website:

2023-2024 Triton Teacher of the Year

By Shelly Bungum

Marit Lang has received the award of Triton's 2023-2024 Teacher of the Year. Mrs. Lang is a middle school math teacher. While at Triton, Marit has worked as an Educational Assistant, taught early childhood education, kindergarten, first, third, and fifth grade. This fall she moved from the elementary to the middle school to teach 6th grade math and it also marks the start of her 35th year of teaching, 26 of them being at Triton Public Schools. She has also taught after school programs, summer school, coached 5th grade math masters, and helped out at track meets.

Marit graduated from Winona State University where she earned a Bachelor's Degree, and later went to Hamline University where she obtained her Master's Degree in Education. Through these degrees, she was able to teach any grade level Pre-K through 6th Grade. As it turns out, she has taught just about every subject within that license area!

As part of the nomination process for Teacher of the Year, colleagues write a brief explanation of who they are nominating, her colleagues wrote, "Marit Lang is the epitome of what it means to be an educator. She is willing to take on any role to help our students. She is firm, but flexible and is a team player. Even after many years in education, she is still finding new ways to help students, such as incorporating the Modern Classroom Project. She is constantly doing those things that need to be done, but get lost in the busyness of the day or are done once and forgotten, such as analyzing data, reworking assessments to fit targets, and differentiating for all learners. Any teacher in any stage of their career would learn a great deal about how to be a great educator by observing and collaborating with Marit. Marit is a tremendous teacher who works tirelessly for her students and for her own professional growth as an educator. This was most recently demonstrated in her taking on both a new position in the middle school and completing the Modern Classroom Project. Marit has served our school in so many capacities throughout the years. She has taught grades K, 1, 3, 5 and currently 6th grade in the Middle School. She has served as treasurer of the union for quite a few years, and was also secretary of the negotiations team for many years as well as the Elementary building rep. She was the math masters coach for 10 years, and worked on the Veterans day committee for as long as she worked in the elementary. In addition, she was on the I Love to Read committee, she was also on the leadership team that worked to come up with a continuous improvement plan to meet AYP, and was the chair for the math curriculum adoption committee, just to name a few things! In each role that she takes on, she is the epitome of dedication, professionalism, and ultimately, care for her students and their growth both educationally and personally."

Marit started her teaching career in Fort Lauderdale, Florida teaching kindergarten for Broward County Public Schools. After living and working in that area for three years, her and her husband moved back to Minnesota. At that time, Minnesota had a surplus of teachers, and it was difficult to get a teaching position. So Marit became a substitute teacher for 7 different school districts. This experience gave her the unique perspective of seeing a wide variety of teaching and leadership styles within education.

When asked, "Why did you choose to become a teacher," Marit's response was, "I became a teacher because it is the only thing I ever really considered doing as a career, aside from wanting to be one of Charlie's Angels when I was in middle school. I can't tell anyone the exact reasons why education was such a calling, but I was fortunate enough to have exceptional teachers growing up in Zumbrota. I had so much respect for them, and I just enjoyed learning and being in school. I also have an aunt that taught for Faribault Public Schools, and she has always been such a positive role model for me."

Marit is very honored to be named Triton's Teacher of the Year. She said, "It means a great deal to me since I feel that Triton has so many incredible educators, and to have their respect humbles me."

In addition to being Triton Teacher of the Year, Marit will become a candidate for Minnesota Teacher of the Year. The Minnesota Teacher of the Year program has recognized excellence in teaching in Minnesota for 60 years. The program selects one teacher to represent the state's thousands of excellent educators.

Congratulations Marit Lang and thank you for serving the Triton community. #wearetriton

Craig Schlichting
Superintendent

In my article last month I talked about the importance of gratitude. One of the things that I am grateful for is the life experiences that I have had playing football. It is fun to talk about successes and the positive experiences, and I appreciate those wonderful happy memories. More importantly, for me and my path in life, is to reflect on the times that things didn't go as well as I would have liked. The times when things were rough, like getting hurt and not feeling well and having to fight through pain. Or when I experienced a season ending injury and had to rehabilitate and focus on getting well again while others were able to fill my role and I could only watch.

The reality is, life doesn't always go the way we would like or plan for it to happen. Being faced with adversity and difficult situations is unfortunately very much a part of life. It is important to learn to work through those situations and understand that adversity will always be a part of our life. Learning to accept that adversity happens, and then being hopeful and having a positive attitude for the long-term that things will get better. It is easy to feel sorry for yourself and think that you are the only one that bad things happen to. But, everyone deals with adversity. It is easy to look at someone and think that they have everything going their way, and how it would be better if we were in their shoes. That may be the case on a given day, but the truth of the matter is, they have adversity in their life as well. Sometimes we may not know or realize that, and it makes it easy to think that the grass is greener on their side of the fence. The reality is that we all deal with adversity at times in our life.

How we handle adversity is what is important. It doesn't mean we have to put a smile on our face and just accept things that happen to us. It does mean that we need to reflect on the situation for what it is, and look at the things we do have control of. Having a positive attitude and hope that there are things you can do to improve the situation in the future is an important step to addressing adversity. Even if we put our heart and soul into something, there is always the chance that we might F.A.I.L. (First Attempt In Learning). Getting things right often takes practice and multiple failures.

In my previously mentioned adversity, I learned that being injured was very a much a part of the game of football, and to think that I was going to be able to play my entire career without that happening is pretty unrealistic. What I was going to do when I was done playing, needed to be a focus, because at some point it was going to be a reality. I am so happy that I decided to go back to school and finish my degree after I had a season ending injury, because it ultimately led to my career here at Triton. I have found Triton Public Schools to be an amazing place, and a big part of that journey to get here started when I got injured and needed to look at how I was going to deal with it. Sure it would be neat to finish the story with..."I healed up and lived happily ever after playing football", but the reality is that I was able to finish my degree and find something even better!

Please reach out to me with any questions that you may have regarding our school district. You can email me at schlich@triton.k12.mn.us or you can call me at 507-418-7530 to reach me at the district office. I would be happy to set up a time to meet with you or your organization. Communication is an important aspect of my job responsibility, and I welcome the opportunity to gain experience from your perspective. GO COBRAS!

Triton High School Concurrent Classes

By Christi Runnells

Each issue of this school year's Triton Times, I'd like to highlight Triton High School's concurrent course offerings available to our students. A concurrent course is a class that upperclassmen can take to earn both high school and college credit—FREE and right at Triton. Concurrent courses are taught by our own Triton teachers to sections made of only Triton students. Students earn anywhere from 1-4 credits for each class, depending on which class they take. Teachers must have a master's degree and a minimum of 18 graduate credits in that field. This month we'll look at the social sciences offerings.

Concurrent American Government is the equivalent of Rochester Community & Technical College's (RCTC) POLS 1615 Introduction to American Government class. Successful completion of this semester course earns the student 3 college credits. This course is open to juniors and seniors who have a qualifying reading ACT or MCA test score or pass into college level on the Accuplacer test. We actually first offered this class as a concurrent ITV class in partnership with Zumbrota-Mazeppa many years ago (earliest we could find was 2000-2001). Most recently, we started offering this course in the fall of 2021 and it has been so popular that we consistently run two sections of the class every year since. Sam Storlie is the instructor and has been teaching it for the last three years. Mr. Storlie stated he enjoys challenging his students to think critically about their government and country. He believes the course is valuable because "it develops skills to be an informed citizen who can think from multiple perspectives when analyzing politics." Further, he believes this class is "great for any student who wants to go beyond the status quo when it comes to examining politics." One of Minnesota's high school graduation requirements is a class on US government. Students who take this course are able to fulfill this graduation requirement while also earning free college credits (and oftentimes getting a college general education requirement taken care of as well as it fulfills Goal Areas 5 & 9 of the MN Transfer Curriculum).

One of our more recent concurrent class offerings is our concurrent Intro to Education Careers class. For this class we partner with Minnesota State University-Mankato and it is equivalent to their KSP 150 Exploring Careers in Education class. This spring semester class earns the student 3 college credits, upon successful completion of the course, and also applies towards Goal Area 2 of the MN Transfer Curriculum. In order to take the course, juniors must have a 3.3 cumulative gpa or higher and seniors must have at least a 3.0 gpa. We first offered our concurrent education class in the 2021-2022 school year and have been able to run the course the last two school years. Alli Horejsi is our instructor for the class and is excited to be able to teach the class again this spring. Mrs. Horejsi especially enjoys that this class provides students with opportunities to explore career options while working collaboratively with Cobra Care and Triton elementary, middle and high school students. "Fewer people are going into education-related career paths,"

Mrs. Horejsi stated, "Offering a class such as this provides our students with a real-world opportunity working with our own student body. It provides an experience for us as a school to further promote this field while potentially growing our own future educators as well." Any student who is interested in exploring careers that work with youth in any way, such as teachers, daycare workers, nurses/healthcare, social workers/counselors, law enforcement, and many more will benefit from taking this course. Or students who simply want to broaden their experiences and explore a field they haven't yet considered will also find value in this course. Mrs. Horejsi shared a quote from a current senior who took this class last year, Lauryn Nauman: "Introduction to Education was a very beneficial class. I think this because it not only helped me with growing and learning in the education department but also helped me with general concepts of life. We went to many different grade levels which gave us all sorts of experience. This helped me see what grade level I was enjoying most. We also learned how to deal or cooperate with everyone. For example, we talked about different mental health disorders and how to make accommodations or be there for them. This is a big help no matter what occupation you go through. I am interested in business so learning to cooperate with anyone is an amazing skill to acquire. I recommend everyone take this class." Students always make the best course promoters.

2023 Triton Cobra Football Wraps up Season

2023 Team Award Winners this fall. All of these awards were voted on by their peers and the individuals that received these awards were all integral parts of our success this fall. From left to right, Brody Munnikhuisen (Jr., WR/DB) won the Most Improved Player Award, Alex Ortiz (Fr., RB/LB) won the Scout Team Player of the Year Award, Austan Adreon (Sr., FB/LB) won the Defensive Player of the Year Award, Hunter Stark (Sr., RB/LB) won the Offensive Player of the Year Award, Jayce Leonardo (Sr., WR/DB) won the coveted award of Team MVP. All of these student-athletes did it the right way this fall and were positive role models for our younger Cobras.

By Coach Neseth

The 2023 Cobra Football team celebrated the season with a banquet in November. This fall the Cobras played one of the most difficult regular season schedules in the state for our AA football. However, it paid off come playoff time as the Cobras were able to secure victories over JWP, St. Clair/Loyola, and finally Maple River in the section finals. It was the first time the Cobras advanced to the state tournament since 2010. Unfortunately, the Cobras were stopped in the quarterfinals of the state tournament by a strong Cannon Falls squad, but that didn't put a damper on the accomplishments our student-athletes achieved this fall. The Cobras were led by a strong senior class, Carson Koenigs, Jayce Leonardo, Austan Adreon, Kaeden Ellingson, Maguire Keller, Zach Barker, Hunter Stark, John Moening, Joiser Ortiz, and Bronson Freerksen, all played a vital role in our success this fall, not only from their play, but their leadership throughout the season. Some of the accomplishments the Cobras had this fall included having a 6-6 record and advancing to the state tournament. Statistically, the Cobras were well-balanced, having a passer throw for more than a 1,000 yards (Pierce Petersohn) and a rusher (Hunter Stark) rush for over 1,100 yards. Jayce Leonardo and Hunter Stark both scored 12+ touchdowns on offense and again demonstrated the balanced

attack the Corbas employed this fall. Defensively, Austan Adreon, Joiser Ortiz, and Hunter Stark led our team in tackles, with Maguire Keller leading our team in turnovers, with 7 INTs on the season. It was a season with high and lows, like every sports season will have, but what made this group

2023 All Sub District Southeast (White) Honorable Mention winners: Brody Munnikhuisen (WR/DB, Jr.), Carson Koenigs (OL/DL, Sr.), and Pierce Petersohn (QB, DB, So.)

special was their resilience throughout the season and their work ethic. Thanks to all the seniors for everything they have done for Cobra Football and for the special memories we made this fall. I also want to thank the coaching staff, Colt Ullom (defense), Sam Storlie (special teams), Cole Rollins (OL, JV DC), Brady Essig (QB/WR/DB, JV OC) your hard work and dedication to the program were instrumental in our success this season. The future of Cobra football is bright and we are excited to continue to build on the success we had this fall next year!

Evening Adventures
Children aged 2-5 and an adult

Join us this session with your preschooler, ages 2- 5 years (not yet in kindergarten). Mrs. Vermilyea will plan a special evening centered around a theme. You will participate in activities, games, explorative play, reading and art around the same topic. Mrs. V has also invited many experts from our community to join you and share their knowledge and resources to make these truly amazing experiences for all who participate. Snacks will be provided, so PLEASE alert us if your child has any allergies or sensitivities to food. Please pre-register for each of these classes, so that we can provide the appropriate number of materials and supplies needed.

Cost: $8/class or $20 per semester/family

Dates:

January 10, 24, February 7, 21 March 6, 20, April 10, 22, May 1

Million Dollar Quartet Old Log Theatre, Excelsior, MN

The musical captures the memorable day when four Rock n' Roll greats made music history. On December 4, 1956, an auspicious twist of fate brought together Johnny Cash, Jerry Lee Lewis, Carl Perkins, and Elvis Presley at Sun Records' storefront studio in Memphis, TN. The man who made it happen was the "Father of Rock'n'Roll," Sam Phillips, who discovered them all. This was the only occasion the four legends-to-be played together, and it has come to be known as one of the greatest rock jam sessions of all time.

We will have lunch at the Cast and Cru dining room at the Old Log.

Lunch choices are:

-Off the bone beef short ribs, mashed potatoes, and seasonal vegetables

-Chicken Breast, mashed potatoes, and seasoned vegetables

-Vegetarian pasta with house marinara

All lunches are served with dinner rolls, dessert, and coffee. Bar service is available at your own cost.

Cost: $88, includes coach bus ride, lunch and ticket to the theatre.

Beautiful: The Carole King Musical Chanhassen Dinner Theatre, Chanhassen, MN

The soundtrack of a generation inspired this BROADWAY SMASH HIT! For six years, Beautiful: The Carole King Musical thrilled Broadway audiences with the inspiring true story of Carole King's remarkable journey from teenage songwriter to Rock & Roll Hall of Fame music legend. As a woman in the music industry, King broke barriers and became one of the most prolific songwriters of our time! Carole King wrote hits for the biggest music acts from The Shirelles to The Righteous Brothers – then recorded her Grammy-winning masterpiece, TAPESTRY. The musical takes you on a joy-filled, emotional ride of a lifetime! Featuring over two dozen hits including "One Fine Day," "The Locomotion," "So Far Away," "Natural Woman," "You've Lost That Lovin' Feelin'," and "Will You Love Me Tomorrow," this Tony and Grammy Award-winning musical is filled with the songs you remember and a story you'll never forget. A huge cast of singers and dancers bring more than 24 of her greatest hits to life in a triumphant celebration!

Lunch is ordered off of the menu and served at your table. Water, Tea and coffee are included. Soda, alcohol and dessert is an extra that the individual is responsible for these costs.

Tea bags: No Good. Pork Bad. Strawberries Excellent (right kind)

By Shauna Burshem, D.C.

Purchasing organic pork is the best bet for your health. The antibiotic carbadox is added to pig feed to prevent infections and fatten up the animals. Due to cancer concerns the drug has been banned in the European Union since 1999 and in Canada since 2006. China, Brazil, Australia and the United Kingdom have also banned the drug due to concerns over its cancer risks. A 2017 study found that carbadox consumption increased antibiotic resistance not only to carbadox, but also many other commonly used antibiotics. Organically raised pork is free of antibiotics as well as growth hormones. On November 7th, 2023 the U.S. Food and Drug administration announced they are considering withdrawing their approval of the drug in the animal feed. But based on past government announcements there is no telling how long or if their consideration will actually take place.

A research paper presented at the American Society of Nutrition proved that strawberries have health benefits for the heart, metabolic function and brain / cognitive health. Research from previous studies found that eating strawberries improved colon health and could reduce the symptoms of inflammatory bowel disease which includes afflictions of Crohn's disease and ulcerative colitis. Strawberries contain very important nutrients like vitamin C, potassium, magnesium and quercetin (which is an immune system booster). Sadly, strawberries are heavily contaminated with pesticides and have been ranked #1 on the list of the Dirty Dozen's most adulterated fruits and vegetables with pesticides. So, once again it is extremely important to only eat organic strawberries.

In the more bad news department, an analysis of tea bags found that those sealed in plastic release billions of particles of plastic with every cup that is brewed. Tea is a very important beverage that plays an important role in health. Tea contains antioxidants for health as well as tea can boost brain function and cardiovascular health. The news gets worse though as tea contained in paper teabags are not any safer as the paper tea bag is infused with a known cancer causing agent. Don't despair there is an age old solution. Loose leaf tea brewed in a stainless steel tea ball or tea basket prevents this problem.

Flight attendants have a higher rate of cancer than people in other professions. Flight attendants have a 1.5 times increased rate of breast cancer, 2 times the amount of melanoma and 4 times the amount of non-melanoma skin cancer. Possible reasons for the higher risk is the disruption in circadian rhythm from irregular work schedules, exposure to carcinogens on the plane, fire retardant chemicals, jet fuel, high levels of cosmic ionizing radiation and electromagnetic radiation exposure.

In the "I get paid a lot of money to promote drug department," Kansas City Chief's star Travis Kelce was reportedly paid 20 million dollars from Pfizer drug company to promote the "Two Shots In One Go" campaign for getting the covid-19 shot and flu shot at the same time.

Speaking of the Covid-19 vaccine, the U.S. Army has reversed its policy on kicking out soldiers for refusing to get the Covid-19 vaccine. The icing on the cake is that the army is asking the soldiers who were kicked out to come back and rejoin the service as well as have a correction to their military record. The army dismissed about 15,000 soldiers during the Covid-19 vaccine campaign and has been sending out recruiting letters to the dismissed troops.

Chiropractic and TRAP shoulder pain: Do you ever get a balled up knot in your upper back or shoulder area? Does it really bother you when you sit at the computer or on your phone for long periods of time? That balled up muscle knot is in your trapezius muscle. The traps are the muscles between your shoulder (deltoids) and your neck.

Holiday Safety Tips for Your Pets

The holiday season is upon us, and many pet parents plan to include their furry companions in the festivities. As you gear up for the holidays, it is important to try to keep your pet's eating and exercise habits as close to their normal routine as possible. Also, please be sure to steer pets clear of the following unhealthy treats, toxic plants and dangerous decorations.

Be Careful with Seasonal Plants and Decorations

Oh, Christmas Tree: Securely anchor your Christmas tree so it doesn't tip and fall, causing possible injury to your pet. This will also prevent the tree water—which may contain fertilizers that can cause stomach upset—from spilling. Stagnant tree water is a breeding ground for bacteria, and your pet could end up with nausea or diarrhea should he imbibe.

Avoid Mistletoe & Holly: Holly, when ingested, can cause pets to suffer nausea, vomiting and diarrhea. Mistletoe can cause gastrointestinal upset and cardiovascular problems. And many varieties of lilies can cause kidney failure in cats if ingested. Opt for just-as-jolly artificial plants made from silk or plastic, or choose a pet-safe bouquet.

Tinsel-less Town: Kitties love this sparkly, light-catching "toy" that's easy to bat around and carry in their mouths. But a nibble can lead to a swallow, which can lead to an obstructed digestive tract, severe vomiting, dehydration and possible surgery. It's best to brighten your boughs with something other than tinsel.

That Holiday Glow: Don't leave lighted candles unattended. Pets may burn themselves or cause a fire if they knock candles over. Be sure to use appropriate candle holders, placed on a stable surface. And if you leave the room, put the candle out!

Wired Up: Keep wires, batteries and glass or plastic ornaments out of paws' reach. A wire can deliver a potentially lethal electrical shock and a punctured battery can cause burns to the mouth and esophagus, while shards of breakable ornaments can damage your pet's mouth and digestive tract.

Avoid Holiday Food Dangers

Skip the Sweets: By now you know not to feed your pets chocolate and anything sweetened with xylitol, but do you know the lengths to which an enterprising pet will go to chomp on something yummy? Make sure to keep your pets away from the table and unattended plates of food, and be sure to secure the lids on garbage cans.

Leave the Leftovers: Fatty, spicy and no-no human foods, as well as bones, should not be fed to your furry friends. Pets can join the festivities in other fun ways that won't lead to costly medical bills.

Careful with Cocktails: If your celebration includes adult holiday beverages, be sure to place your unattended alcoholic drinks where pets cannot get to them. If ingested, your pet could become weak, ill and may even go into a coma, possibly resulting in death from respiratory failure.

Selecting Special Treats: Looking to stuff your pet's stockings? Stick with chew toys that are basically indestructible, Kongs that can be stuffed with healthy foods or chew treats that are designed to be safely digestible. Long, stringy things are a feline's dream, but the most risky toys for cats involve ribbon, yarn and loose little parts that can get stuck in the intestines, often necessitating surgery. Surprise kitty with a new ball that's too big to swallow, a stuffed catnip toy or the interactive cat dancer.

Plan a Pet-Safe Holiday Gathering

House Rules: If your animal-loving guests would like to give your pets a little extra attention and exercise while you're busy tending to the party, ask them to feel free to start a nice play or petting session.

Put the Meds Away: Make sure all of your medications are locked behind secure doors, and be sure to tell your guests to keep their meds zipped up and packed away, too.

A Room of Their Own: Give your pet his own quiet space to retreat to—complete with fresh water and a place to snuggle. Shy pups and cats might want to hide out under a piece of furniture, in their carrying case or in a separate room away from the hubbub.

New Year's Noise: As you count down to the new year, please keep in mind that strings of thrown confetti can get lodged in a cat's intestines, if ingested, perhaps necessitating surgery. Noisy poppers can terrify pets and cause possible damage to sensitive ears. And remember that many pets are also scared of fireworks, so be sure to secure them in a safe, escape-proof area as midnight approaches.

Smart Home Devices to Help Seniors Age in Place

I've been talking to my mobility challenged mother, who lives alone, about automating her house with some smart home products to make it more convenient. She's very interested but we'd like to get your opinion as to which types of smart devices are most helpful for seniors aging in place.

--Searching Daughter

Dear Searching, If your mother is game, smart home products - such as smart lights, video doorbells and voice-activated speakers - can be very useful for aging in place. These devices can add safety and convenience to a home by providing voice and app-controlled operation, which is extremely helpful for seniors who have mobility issues or reduced vision.

Smart home technology can also provide family members peace-of-mind by giving them the ability to electronically keep tabs on their elder loved one when they can't be there.

If you're interested in adding some smart home products to your mom's house, she'll need home Wi-Fi installed, and she'll need either a smartphone, tablet or smart speaker to operate them. To help you get started, here are some different types of devices to consider that are very helpful to older adults.

Smart speakers: A smart speaker - like the Amazon Echo, Google Nest or Apple HomePod - can serve as the brains of a smart home, controlling the devices with voice commands or automating them.

These devices can also play your mom's favorite music, read audiobooks, make calls, set timers and alarms, provide reminders for medications, appointments and other things, check traffic and weather, answer questions, call for help in emergency situations and much more - all done by voice commands.

Smart light bulbs: To help prevent home falls - which are often caused by fumbling around a dark room looking for a light switch - smart light bulbs will let your mom turn on and off the lights by voice command, smartphone or tablet. These bulbs can also change brightness and color and be programmed to come on and off whenever she wants.

Smart plugs: These small units plug into a standard outlet and connect to the internet. That means your mom can control whatever she plugs into them - from a space heater to a coffee maker - using her voice or phone.

Video doorbell: Safety is also a concern for older adults, especially those who live alone. A video doorbell would let your mom see and speak to visitors at the door without having to walk over and open it.

Smart locks: For convenience and safety, smart locks would give your mom keyless entry to her home, provide customized access to family, friends and caregivers, and let you monitor who comes and goes from your mom's house.

Smart thermostat: This lets your mom preprogram or manually control the temperature in her home with voice command or via phone, and let you monitor it too.

Smart smoke alarms: These will alert your mom when smoke or carbon monoxide is detected and will also send alerts to your phone if a problem is detected.

Stovetop shut-off: To prevent home cooking fires, smart stovetop shut-off devices, like the IGuardStove, will turn off electric and gas stovetops when left unattended, and will alert you via text.

Medical alert system: These devices provide wearable wrist and/or necklace emergency buttons that would allow your mom to call for help if she were to fall or need assistance. Many systems today also provide voice activated and fall detection features, and caregiver tracking apps that will let you keep tabs on her.

Cameras and smart sensors: If your mom needs more in-depth monitoring, there are indoor cameras you can install so you can see, hear and talk to her from your phone. Or, if that's too intrusive, you can install smart contact sensors on her doors so you can know when she comes and goes, or on her refrigerator door so you can know if she's eating.

Tea bags: No Good.

It is a very big muscle and extends from the base of the skull, down the spine to the level of the shoulder blades then up to the AC joint of the shoulder and continues to travel through the side of the neck to the base of the skull. The muscle knots up frequently with over use such as bending your head forward, overuse of the arms above your head and high levels of stress. The traps are the most contracted muscle during times of stress. Trapezius muscle pain is one of the more common complaints in the chiropractor's office. Once the muscle tightens up, it pulls on the moveable bones of the spine creating a misalignment which causes instability in the area. This leads to muscle imbalance and nerve irritation causing pain and discomfort which can be a dull ache or a burning pain and sometimes much more. Chiropractic adjustments to the spine restores stability to the area, relaxing the muscle and relieving the pain. In addition, soft tissue work on the trap muscles such as as massage will relax the muscle to help the chiropractic adjustment hold the spinal bones in their proper position for your body.

Changes in Latitudes, Changes in Attitudes My Childhood Christmas

By Terry Campbell

This column is written by Messenger editor and Minnesota native Terry Campbell. Terry now splits his time between Minnesota when it's warm here and Tennessee when it's cold here.

The first Christmas I can remember as a child was 1964. I was seven years old. I had the same interests as any second-grade boy. The toy machinery was the best. When my dad went to the implement dealer for parts I would stand at the toy display and wish. As a typical farm boy I was mesmerized by tractors. We had toy trucks, tractors and all sorts of farm implements and attachments to play with. Couldn't wait to grow up and actually drive them for real.

There is one reason that 1964 stands out in my memory though. Lots of fun things happened before that, but November 3rd, 1964 changed me forever. I always thought my dad was invincible. I remember him carrying huge bags of feed on his shoulder around the farm. He was strong and a farmer. Sort of Superman. It was election day 1964. My dad farmed and worked construction. Not just any construction, but with bulldozers. Caterpillar tractor D-8 dozers. They moved dirt, buried boulder, made roads and dams, pushed over trees and anything else that they wanted. Not only that but my dad flew a helicopter as well. From West Concord to the western part of Minnesota and from job site to job site every day.

But November 3rd was election day and my dad was going to fly back home and take my mom to the Milton Town Hall where they would vote that evening. It was foggy that evening and my dad decided to land at the Owatonna Airport and get a ride home instead. The altimeter on a helicopter tells you the altitude above sea level. It doesn't tell you about tall trees though. And there was a very tall tree between him and the Owatonna Airport.

I remember my mom sitting us four kids down on the sofa and telling us that our dad had been in a bad accident. She was driving to the Owatonna hospital. My grandma was there to watch us. KDHL radio reported on the accident. They got my dad's name right, but all the neighbors heard that he had been killed in the crash. He survived but was in a body cast for over a month and got out of the hospital in December. My mom had to drive him and he got around on crutches.

Before Christmas my parents decided the family was going to spend the holidays down south. We opened our Christmas presents a week early and headed south. This was before Disney World. There was just sandy beaches and alligators in Florida. But away we went. It was the first time I had been out of Minnesota. We learned how to ride for 1,500 miles with four kids in the back seat of a Chevrolet Impala. My mom would make sandwiches and we ate elbow to elbow with our brothers and sisters. No McDonalds back in those days for us.

I had never seen a Christmas without snow. I didn't think they would decorate for Christmas in Florida. I just figured it was alligators and flamingos and sunny beaches. But there was Santa Claus, reindeer and fake snow. We made fun of them, we knew what snow was and were glad to be away from it.

It was worth it. I was with my family and we were on an adventure together, and I was glad we were all there. I didn't think too deeply about the turn of events until much later. My dad nearly lost everything he had in life and decided to take the next chance to do things together. He had a wife and four kids and he wanted to enjoy doing things together. It became an annual event. We bugged out of Minnesota and headed to Florida every Christmas after that one. And we gladly traded our snow and cold Christmases for a couple weeks in Florida. My dad made it another twenty Christmases to enjoy with the family. And for me, memories with your family are much better than gifts. Have a Merry Christmas.

A Minnesotan: Christmas Games

By RosaLin Alcoser

Christmas is a magical time of the year and in Minnesota one of the few times that no one is really upset by the snow. Including my transplanted hispanic family from the south.

We absolutely love Christmas and for our traditions Christmas starts on December 24 with Christmas Eve and goes until January 6th on Three Kings Day. For us this whole time frame is Christmas.

My family will often play games at Christmas ranging from board games to more intricate puzzles. For most families a puzzle would have a beautiful Christmas scenery or a fun character on it. However, for my family it's a list of clues and riddles that someone has to figure out in order to find their present.

In full disclosure I am usually one of the family members given the puzzle and to this day have yet to solve one. The game normally ends when they give up on me solving the puzzle or I find the item by searching for it alone.

When I make a game for one of them though it goes a little bit differently and is usually just a game for myself. Christmas 2019 was one of the years that I did this. At the time my father had decided that he could only hang his coats on a brown hanger and everyone had to use a white or blue hanger. Only he could use the brown ones.

So being the good daughter that I am, I systemically took all of the brown hangers out of the coat closet. Every time he left the house, if I was home I would grab the hanger, replace it with a new one, and hide the brown one under his bed.

He knew that it was me and could not find where I had been hiding the hangers. It drove him absolutely nuts for the about week and a half that I did this.

Until one evening right in the middle of Christmas I moved the hangers. The next morning he comes to breakfast to find all of his brown hangers dangling above the table from the chandelier.

This was probably one of the best games I've ever played during Christmas and was also the reason my mother started having me go into work earlier.
