Volunteers clean up Cherry Flats

COURTESY PHOTO

Part of the volunteer team that pitched in to clean up the Cherry Flats area above Miami on Saturday morning, Nov. 11.

The flats are back! It took about 30 volunteers less than two hours on Saturday morning, Nov. 11, to give Cherry Flats the TLC it needed. With support from Capstone Pinto Valley, the Town of Miami, USFS-Globe Ranger Station, Gila County, Gila County 4-H, Miami High School Student Council, Miami High School volleyball team, Love Where You Live, Cathy Sanchez-Cañez Foundation, Tim Humphrey, Tom Moreno, Evelyn Vargas, Brian Goslin and Frank Dalmolin, about 6,000 lbs. of trash including tires, and metal scraps, were removed from this area above lower Miami. Dumpers beware: A newly commissioned LEO (Law Enforcement Officer) hired through the USFS will be coming to town to monitor our forest regions. Federal fines will be enforced if caught dumping.

COMMUNITY

A presentation on youth mental health and drug-free choices

How can you help Globe-Miami kids cope with stress and depression, take care of their mental health and make drug-free choices? Teachers, parents and all local community members are invited to a free one-hour forum Wednesday evening, Dec. 6, starting at 6 p.m. in the meeting room at the Globe-Miami Chamber of Commerce. Hosted by La Frontera EMPACT Suicide Prevention Center, the discussion will explore ways to support youth who are grappling with mental health challenges, and how to talk to them about alcohol, drugs and peer pressure. The forum is free, no advance signup needed, and host Stefanie Cary hopes teachers, parents and even youth leaders from throughout Gila County will attend and learn together. For details about this event, email Stefanie.Cary@lafrontera-empact.org.

"We will talk about how to support youth through anxiety, depression and other mental health challenges," said Cary. "We will also discuss how to talk to them about drugs and the dangers of self-medicating. This has always been such an important topic, but has become especially pertinent after the pandemic. Let us continue to foster an environment where kids feel comfortable in their own skin and supported through life's challenges."

EMPACT, an acronym for Emergency Mobile Pediatric and Adolescent Crisis Team, is a behavioral health agency that was founded in 1987 to support individuals living with mental health conditions by providing prevention, treatment and emergency services. Initiatives began in 1988 with 'Teens Talking to Teens,' among the agency's first programs. EMPACT's Survivors of Suicide support program began with inception of the agency; the Crisis Department and first Suicide Prevention Hotline were established in 1990 (the 24-hour crisis hotline is 480-784-1500).

EMPACT answers over 40,000 crisis calls per year. Forty-five percent of calls involve suicide as the primary issue. Over 96% of these callers reported improvement by the end of their first call to the hotline.

Hazel Plumer

Hazel Plumer passed away on Nov. 8, 2023, in Mesa, Arizona, at the age of 94. Hazel was preceded in death by her husband David Plumer and by the love of her life, Lloyd Ward. Hazel was born in Miami, Arizona, on Feb. 7, 1929, to Olive and Samoa Williams. Hazel was one of five children. Hazel met and married her love, Lloyd Ward. Together they had four children: Nancy (George) McBride, Sandra (Robert) Trevillyan, Darwin (Diane) Ward and William (Mona) Ward. Hazel and Lloyd made their home in Central Heights, Arizona, where they raised their children and remained for 40-plus years. Hazel and Lloyd shared 12 grandchildren and 22 great-grandchildren.

Nothing brought Hazel greater joy than being home and raising her family. She always knew she wanted to be a wife and mother; this was truly her greatest passion. Hazel took pride in keeping her house tidy, washing laundry and hanging it out back to dry, and always ensuring her family had a hot meal served at the table. Hazel's greatest pride was her family and the home life she provided.

Hazel enjoyed the simple things in life but also made sure to keep herself busy. Hazel had several jobs around town once her children were grown. Hazel was a store clerk at the vitamin shop in downtown Globe and was also a cashier at the Copper Hills gift shop. Hazel enjoyed visiting with friends who stopped in and meeting new people passing through town.

Hazel was not only an amazing mother, but she was also an amazing grandmother. Hazel had a way of making sure that each of her four children and all 34 grandchildren felt special and loved. Hazel showed each one of them how to slow down and play. She loved reading books to her grandchildren, taking them on walks, showing them how to explore, and truly just enjoying the time spent together. Hazel loved to play card games, skipbo becoming a quick favorite, and she loved conversations around the dining room table. Hazel never missed a birthday. Even today, in her 2023 calendar is the shaky name of every child, grandchild and their spouses. The names are placed with the intention of a call being made to them, singing them each their own special birthday song.

Hazel loved Jesus and spent many years attending the Central Heights Baptist Church. Hazel often played the organ/piano as the congregation sang beautiful hymns. Hazel was a Sunday school teacher for many years. The day she accepted Christ in her life, she knew she wanted to spread God's love and good word. Hazel lived proudly by the words that she shared, always demonstrating patience, love for others, grace and forgiveness. Hazel truly loved all people. In the rare instance Hazel was crossed, she did not let the person damage her spirit. Instead, she prayed for them.

Hazel was a wonderful wife, a loving and patient mother, adoring grandmother, aunt, sister and friend to everyone. She was not only our grandma, she was everyone's grandma, and she loved it that way.

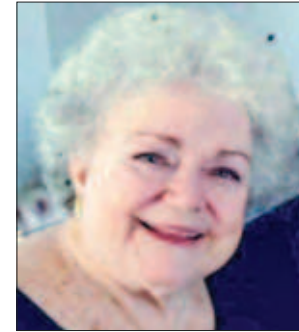

May Grandma Ward fly away into the loving arms of Jesus and be reunited with her loving husband, Lloyd.

Services will be held at the Central Heights Baptist Church Saturday, Nov. 25, 2023. Viewing will be at 10 a.m. and services will start at 11 a.m. A graveside service will follow at Mountain Breeze Memorial Gardens.

Family is being assisted by Bulman Miles Funeral Services Globe.

1944 – 2023: Joan Louise Clark, also known as JoAnn Clark, passed away on Oct. 13, 2023, in Tucson, Arizona, at the age of 79. She was born on Aug. 22, 1944, in Alhambra, California. JoAnn was a loving and compassionate individual who cherished her family and friends. Her infectious smile and kind heart touched the lives of those around her. She will be deeply missed and forever loved.

JoAnn is survived by her daughter, Heather O'Neal of Tucson, Arizona; her granddaughter, Sierra McIntyre-Ouimet (Josh) of Ansbach, Germany; and her grandson, Colten McIntyre of Tucson, Arizona. She was preceded in death by her father, Clarence Jack Clark; her mother, Clara Mae Cameron Clark; and her granddaughter, Cicely Ronell McIntyre.

Throughout her life, JoAnn had a successful career at Classic Beauty College and Tucson Medical Center. Her dedication and hard work left a lasting impact on those she worked with.

A ceremony to honor and celebrate JoAnn's life will be held on Saturday, Dec. 2, 2023, at 2 p.m. at the Globe City Cemetery, located at 1700 Hackney Ave. in Globe, Arizona.

JoAnn's memory will forever remain in the hearts of her loved ones. She will be remembered for her unwavering love, her generosity, and the joy she brought into the lives of those who knew her.

Sherrel Ann Clark

Sherrel Ann Clark was born on Dec. 6, 1946, in Norfolk, Nebraska, to Pauline and Wilfred Tabler and passed away at Dignity Health Mercy Medical Center in Gilbert, Arizona, on Nov. 9, 2023, at 76 years of age. Sherry grew up in Hot Springs, South Dakota, where she had three children, Curt, Karie and Kim. In the early 1970s, she moved her family to Chadron, Nebraska, where she could be closer to her mother, Pauline Jung. In 1980, Sherry began working for the Nebraska National Forest Service as a purchasing agent. She retired in 2009. In 2010, she and her husband, Roland, moved to Arizona so Sherry could be closer to her two daughters, Karie and Kim. Sherry's hobbies included spoiling her two dogs, golfing, gardening, crafting and watching the Denver Broncos. She was a loving mother and grandmother, and was so very proud of all of our accomplishments!

Sherry is survived by her son Curt Smith; daughter-in-law Tracy; daughters Karie Jones, Kim Smith and Belinda Petersen; and son-in-law James. She is also survived by seven grandchildren, eight great-grandchildren and brother John Jung of New Mexico. Sherry is preceded in death by her husband Roland "Buck" Clark, her father Wilfred Tabler, her mother Pauline Jung, her sister Barbara Titus and her brother Mike Jung. A celebration of life will be conducted in Chadron, Nebraska, at a later date.

THANKSGIVING

Essential gear for first-time Thanksgiving hosts

Hosting Thanksgiving is a large undertaking that can put some hosts under pressure. Unlike some other holidays that are less food-focused, Thanksgiving is largely about the meal. Turkey is the centerpiece of the celebration, and any guests who come over are going to expect turkey and a number of side dishes. Leaving hungry is never an option on Thanksgiving.

Individuals who are new to Thanksgiving hosting may be at a loss as to where to start with their preparation. There are certain must-haves hosts should familiarize themselves with. Many of these essentials revolve around tools for cooking in the kitchen and serving guests.

- Large roasting pan: You'll need somewhere to oven-roast the turkey. While it's perfectly acceptable to purchase a disposable aluminum pan for this purpose, if you plan to host Thanksgiving year after year, investing in a quality roasting pan will help deliver even cooking temperatures to the food and also can be used for roasting other meats.

- Wire rack: The turkey is placed upon a rack inside of the roasting pan so that it will not swim in the juices and cause a soggy bottom during cooking. Many roasting pans and racks are sold as sets, but others can be purchased separately. The rack can be used for other purposes as well, including cooling baked cookies or even drying out fresh herbs.
- Food thermometer: Ensuring the turkey and other foods are dishes can hold all of the sides served with the turkey, including stuffing, sweet potatoes, mashed potatoes, green beans, and more. A set of matching dishes will help the table look more coordinated.

- Service for eight or more: Thanksgiving draws a crowd, so take inventory of silverware, dishes, wine glasses, and any other table needs to ensure that you can accommodate all of the guests. Purchase new items if you cannot set the table completely with what you have, as mixed and matched may be okay for informal events but may not set the tone hosts are aiming for on Thanksgiving.

- Table and chairs: Determine if you have enough table space to seat all of your guests. Some dining tables come with an extension leaf, but you still may need to supplement with a folding table. You may need more seating. Chairs can be rented or you can utilize some folding chairs.

- Turkey serving platter: When the turkey is ready, it can be placed on an attractive serving platter for your photos, after which you slice and then return the sliced poultry to the serving platter for dining.

cooked to the correct internal temperature is essential. You do not want to send guests home with foodborne illnesses. Food thermometers run the gamut from very basic to those that can be programmed to alert cooks through an app on a smartphone. Turkey is done when the temperature reads 170 F in the breast and 180 F in the thigh. If stuffed, the stuffing should register 165 F, according to Butterball.

their backyard or a visitor eager to dive into the Corridor's history, this passport will unlock the region's secrets. It is designed for individual travelers, families and friends seeking adventure and educational experiences.

"We are excited to offer the Copper Corridor Crawl Adventure Passport as a fun way for people to explore our region and experience its rich history, unique culture and stunning landscapes," said Copper Corridor Economic Development Coalition Director Mila Besich. "We believe this passport will create lasting memories, and inspire visitation and a deeper connection to the Copper Corridor."

Key features of the passport include multiple stops along the way – historic towns, scenic vistas, cultural landmarks, restaurants and more; immersion in captivating stories and local traditions; and, as passport points are collected, the chance to win prize packages and discover exclusive offers from participating businesses and organizations.

To sign up for, and access, a Copper Corridor Crawl Adventure Passport, visit Discover Copper Corridor's website (<https://www.discovercoppercorridor.org>). Then begin your adventure by exploring the Copper Corridor's designated destinations and collecting points along the way.

Five kernels of corn

BY DR. DAN MORTON
Contributor

This story has been handed down through families for more than 400 years. As the country appears to divide even further between the “haves” and “have-nots,” Thanksgiving seems an appropriate time to review.

Governor Bradford was aware of the inventory of foodstuff and the dependency of crops on the weather, so he thought a lesson could be taught. He suggested that a single meal of five kernels of corn per person could be a “feast” and addressed a value to each of the five.

The first kernel reminds us of the autumn beauty all around us. I now live in an area famed for the colors in the fall. Trees begin losing their leaves, but before they drop, they turn bright yellows to gold, browns to reds, changing every day and attracting “leaf peepers” from far away.

The second kernel is to remind us of our love for one another. Reaching out to another to satisfy a need of whatever kind – pay ahead.

The third kernel reminds us of God’s love and care for each of us. Remember prayers, the desperation you felt. You’re here. Thank God!

The fourth kernel reminds us of our friends. Put down the electronic devices. Step outside. Greet your neighbor with a warm handshake and a word of encouragement.

The fifth kernel reminds us that we are a free people. Not to run amok or impose on the rights of others, but live sensibly.

Happy Thanksgiving!

A caregiver’s love Jesus is our role model – when we serve others sacrificially, we show love the way He did.

Pop songs, movies and books shape the way we think about love. Attraction, emotion, romance and sentiment color how we expect it to be. But when the Lord told His followers that they’re to love the way He does, He wasn’t talking about what we find in popular culture. Jesus gave them the ultimate image of self-sacrificing love: a person laying down his life for a friend (John 15:13).

The kind He was referring to looks far more like the sacrificial service of a caregiver changing a soiled adult diaper. It looks like a family opening their home to foster children. Or like a woman interceding daily in prayer for her prodigal daughter. Sacrificial love is humbly given by countless modern heroes of the faith every day as they lay down their hopes and dreams to meet the needs of the sick, helpless, and broken among us.

The delightful feelings of “being in love” are distant cousins to the self-giving action that Jesus was referring to. And we should remember that when He spoke the words in today’s passage, He was just hours away from laying down His innocent life for each one of us – those He loves.

GIVE THANKS unto the LORD for HIS LIGHT and HIS MIGHT

The POWER of Salvation and Resurrection

Against treacherous human flesh,
Against reprobate Satan,
Against barren Death.

A Holy Sacrificial gift offered

To every SOUL by Father GOD's

Spirit of GRACE through his

Risen son, Jesus the CHRIST.

Many evil fanatics commit treason;

MURDER LOVE, to their detriment.

We love Jesus, our SAVIOR.

Our faith worthy of heaven's favour.

Deny Jesus, the ONLY REDEEMER? NO faith?

Sorrow forever, the SOUL entombed in torment!

Our contrite hearts confess impulsive

Wicked sins, stirs the LORD's heart.

He subverts Satan's piercing flood,

Purge our sins with sweetest blood.

He engraves his name across

Our foreheads, blessed Immortality.

CHRIST's LIVING light ignites

Our abused dim SOULS.

Darkness diminished. LIVING light

An antidote.

We walk morally in light's reality.

It's CHRIST's illumination. Releasing

LIVING light's vibration, the devils' counterplot.

We ask Jesus, "Quench the fiery darts!"

Jesus is LORD! The devils flee;

Light bearers are we.

Refuse Satan's MARK staining –

Superimposed on GOD's engraving.

Never the servant greater than

The MASTER. The servant too,

Suffers rebuking dark rebellion

In Satan's world of inquisition.

CHRIST's LIVING light in us,

We stand firmly against wicked

Deceitful hearts.

America, where free fruitful

Moral men and women

Witnessed historic GREAT FAITH

Among the Pilgrims –

Enduring great hardships:

Always worshipping GOD,

Always trusting GOD.

This Thanksgiving Day, we too

Honor GOD! We thank THEE,

Father GOD, giving us the LIVING light –

JESUS – The HOPE of GLORY,

And its SPLENDOR!

Book signing at Globe Public Library

Date change! On December 2 at 2 p.m., Globe Public Library is inviting you to welcome Dr. Thea W. Wilshire for an author talk and book signing. Wilshire will be promoting the second book in her Nugget Mining Series, "Nugget Goes to the Dogs: Tales of Crime." She is passionate about Globe. She supports the artistic community by being a large part of the I Art Globe group. Enjoy an afternoon learning about her writing process and her amazing new book.

As a fun activity leading up to this author's visit, come to the Globe Public Library and leave Tripod a gift. As we know from the first book, Tripod loves to collect underwear. We will be collecting new underwear for the Homeless Coalition. We know Tripod would steal clean underwear from the clothesline, but we are asking for new underwear for those in need. Just look for the basket by Tripod at Globe Public Library.

This program is free and brought to you through partnerships with the Friends of the Globe Public Library and the United Fund of Globe-Miami.

Velma Tucker, Wrangler of the Year

"Beef, it's what's for dinner" and "Where's the beef?"

Both very familiar advertisements, right? You see, those ad phrases were coined through the Promotions Committee of National Livestock and Meat Board located in Chicago, Illinois. If you recall, these two ads made a huge impact, on a national scale, for the cattle industry and still do.

Meanwhile back at the ranch, the wrangler continued to tend to the livestock and all that encompassed. Sit back and relax while I give you a glimpse into the life of your Gila County Cattle Growers Association 2023 Wrangler of the Year, Mrs. Velma Tucker.

A high school sophomore level education, married at 16 years of age in 1949, and three children by 1954 was quite a start for Velma Tucker - and she has continued to blaze trails to this day.

Velma loves a good rodeo and a match horse race. Leroy was a pretty good hand himself and then Tenna, Roy and Lee

Ann were to follow in their parents' footsteps. Rodeo was a good fit, so in 1965 Velma and a handful of other visionaries began the Arizona Junior Rodeo Association (AJRA). She was devoted to its success and to championing the sport of rodeo at the youth level.

Early on Velma also became very involved in the Arizona State Cowbelles and was a founding member of the Gila County Cowbelles in 1971, moving through the ranks to become president in 1976. She served on the Board of Directors of the Arizona State Cowbelles and as president in 1980, where she was instrumental in organizing the National Beef Cookoff for several years. Her footprint of service through the promotion of beef has blazed a trail for those to follow as evidenced by her recognition as the Arizona Cattlewoman of the Year in 2010.

Governor Bruce Babbitt selected Velma to serve on the Board of Arizona Beef Council during the formative years of the Beef Checkoff program. During her twelve-year service she was selected as Arizona Beef Director for the National Livestock and Meat Board and served for eight years. During that time, she held a seat on both the Promotions and Education Committees. If you've been paying attention, it was Velma Tucker who had her finger in the pie and brainstorming sessions for the development of those famous beef catchphrases that I mentioned earlier.

Velma has been a valuable secretary to the Gila County Cattle Growers Spring Sale as secretary/bookkeeper for many years. She continues to prepare the obituaries of cattlemen and cattlemen for presentation and recognition during the annual meetings.

Her accolades are many; however, most important of all is her love of Arizona and the life of ranching she has lived. She is capable when the work is hard and makes sacrifices in tough times. She understands the changing seasons, El Niño and La Niña, and makes necessary adjustments during drought or high interest rates. She is mindful of the ecosystems and how the country flourishes with good common-sense stewardship. She keeps a daily journal of her lifetime of ranching, weather patterns, cattle prices, family celebrations, and all the daily stuff that have made this quality of life. She is up earlier than everyone else, cooks a mean meal and always greets you with her steady smile.

Yes, she is the 'chief cook and bottle washer.'

She is Brains and Beauty, and as she recently exclaimed to me, "This ain't my first rodeo!"

Where's the beef, you ask? Right there!

Thank you, Velma, for a lifetime of service to the livestock industry and the Gila County Cattle Growers Association.

Game-playing opportunities at Globe Public Library for all ages

Globe Public Library has a Mausritter Campaign on Mondays at 6 p.m. This is a day change for Mausritter. Mausritter is a rules-light fantasy adventure role-playing game, where the characters are mice. All ages are welcome. An adult must accompany children under 12.

Globe Public Library is hosting an after-hours game night for people 18 and up. Game Night is Wednesday evenings at 5 p.m. These cooperative or competitive board games use strategy. If you have a favorite you would like to share, bring it along. Invite your friends, bring a snack for yourself or to share, and enjoy a game night for adults.

Calling all elves, dwarves, halflings, humans, and others interested in adventure. The Dungeons and Dragons Campaign is Wednesdays at 7 p.m. This is a day change. We are using the Old School Essentials rules. This game is for ages 14 and up. If you want to enjoy a fantasy adventure role-playing game, this is for you.
