Newly formed group assists with upkeep of local cemeteries

Have you been by the Pinal Cemetery in Central Heights lately? A wall is going up around the perimeter, and drainage issues are being fixed. This is the work of a partnership between the newly formed Gila County Memorial Foundation (GCMF), Gila County Public Works and Tonto National Forest.

Formerly the Globe-Miami Memorial Foundation, this group has restructured to include more areas and people. This new group's mission remains the same: to catalog the biographical records of local citizens and assist with the upkeep and platting of area cemeteries by providing work opportunities utilizing people of our communities. The foundation is a nonprofit, community-based organization existing solely to benefit the people of our communities. It is governed by a board of directors elected by the individuals who contribute to the foundation.

Currently, membership is represented by Gila County, City of Globe, Lamont Mortuary, Gila County Historical Society, Bullion Plaza Cultural Center & Museum, Globe Elks Club, Gila County 4-H, individuals and volunteers.

Donations to the GCMF, a 501(c)(3), enable the committee to do repairs and other projects, such as the new fence at Pinal Cemetery along Main Street. Significant funds will be needed to complete this one project and to fund future projects, both at Pinal and other cemeteries in the county. You can mail donations to: Gila County Memorial Foundation, P.O. Box 489, Claypool, AZ 85532.

The GCMF is open to the public and meets every third Tuesday of the month at 3:30 p.m. in the Gila County Supervisors' Hearing Room at the Gila County Courthouse, 1400 E. Ash St., Globe. Bring your ideas for both projects and fundraising. You can follow what the committee is working on by visiting their Facebook page, Gila County Memorial Foundation.

For more information about the Gila County Memorial Foundation, call Joe Sanchez at 928-200-2012 or 928-473-3550, or Mary Anne Moreno at 928-425-7242 (message).

Expired or unused pills, patches, powders? Drug 'take-back' at Fry's

You shouldn't dispose of unused or expired medications by flushing them down the toilet – chemicals from prescription medicines can damage your town's water treatment system or your own septic system.

Instead, bring your expired and unused pills, powders, patches and ointments to a prescription medication take-back event Saturday, Oct. 28, at Fry's from 10 a.m. until 2 p.m. Medications, pills, powders, patches and ointments are accepted, but do not bring needles, inhalers or liquids.

Drug overdose deaths in the United States continue to rise at an alarming rate, with a new nationwide record in 2022, when 109,680 people died as the fentanyl crisis continued to deepen, according to the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention.

Most people who misuse prescription drugs get them from family, friends, and acquaintances – and the risk of overdose doubles for young people who have family using opioids.

Keep track of the medicine you have, and rethink where and how you store your medications in your home. Safely dispose of unused medications at events such as this one Oct. 28. Don't share; keep track of your legally prescribed controlled substances – that is, count your pills so you always know how much you should have and so you know when to take action if any go missing. Read more about prescription medication abuse at getsmartaboutdrugs.gov; this thorough website has videos and comprehensive pages that describe and illustrate both drugs and medications ranging from amphetamines and barbiturates to heroin, MDMA (AKA ecstasy or molly), fentanyl, inhalants, kratom, khat, methadone, oxycodone – even peyote and mescaline.

Masons hold Clothe a Child program

On Saturday, Dec. 9, 2023, at 8 a.m., White Mountain #3 F&AM Masonic Lodge will hold the annual Dave Johnson Clothe a Child at Bealls Outlet west of Walmart in Globe.

We will buy clothes for approximately 24 children 5 to 10 years old. We will seek the assistance of Globe and Destiny school teachers to select 12 children from Globe and 12 children from Destiny. In addition to clothes, each child will be given a sack of treats and a card for a Breakfast Box at Taco Bell Miami.

This program has been held every year for over 57 years. Dave Johnson was a long-time supporter, and upon his passing asked that donations be made to Clothe a Child. The program operates on donations, and any are appreciated. Make donations to White Mountain Lodge #3. The program is a charitable tax exempt 501c10.

Bealls Outlet assists the program by opening the store one hour before normal opening and giving discounts on purchases. Volunteers help the children pick clothes, and more volunteers are always needed.

Breakfast will be served to all volunteers at the Masonic Temple (180 North Broad Street in Globe) following the clothes purchases.

Popular Halloween costumes for 2023

Costumes and candy are synonymous with Halloween. Individuals may spend weeks or months trying to come up with the perfect costumes for their trick-or-treating excursions or Halloween parties. Many children and adults also enjoy costume themes, in which they dress up to coordinate with others in their group.

There is always a steady selection of classic costumes that appeal to Halloween revelers, including vampires, cats, witches, and pirates. But one only need look to pop culture to come up with costumes unique to a particular year or era. The following are some costume ideas that figure to be wildly popular in 2023.

- Barbie: Due to the release of the mid-summer motion picture "Barbie," starring Margot Robbie as the titular character and Ryan Gosling as "Ken," there are bound to be many pink-clad trick-or-treaters traveling through neighborhoods this fall. Barbie always has had an impressive wardrobe, so fans of the film can dress up in any of her signature looks.

- Ariel: Disney has reinvented many of its popular animated classics into live-action retellings, and "The Little Mermaid" took its turn this year. Life is more fun under the sea, so costumes for Ariel the mermaid and her underwater friends and foes figure to be popular.

- Creed: Rocky's boxing spin-off series "Creed" gave fans its latest installment with "Creed III" in 2023. The boxing champ dons all-white or all-red color schemes in this movie, and fans may want to emulate that in their costumes.

- Geralt of Rivia: "The Witcher" fandom is widespread, and viewers were treated to another season of the Netflix series this summer. This is the final season with Henry Cavill in the titular role (Liam Hemsworth is reportedly set to take over), so fans may be inspired to dress the part for Halloween this year.

- Jigsaw: "Saw X" will be released on October 27, and the Jigsaw Killer might be a choice for those looking to instill fear around the neighborhood.

HALLOWEEN

Downtown Globe Annual Halloween Block Party 2023

Please join the Globe Downtown Association Tuesday night, Oct. 31, for this annual community-gift trick-or-treat event night in historic downtown Globe. With usual estimated crowds of well over 5,000 folks all spread out throughout our historic downtown, come ready to meet and greet and trick-or-treat along Broad Street. The street will be closing for the fun from Sycamore to Yuma, starting at 5 p.m.

The trick-or-treat portion of the event runs from 5:30-7 p.m., or until each station runs out. We encourage guests to simply start anywhere they wish along Broad Street from Yuma Street to Sycamore Street, or Sycamore Street to Yuma Street. Encouraging everyone to enter the line anywhere in the zone will help disperse the highly congested crowd of tiny batmen and princesses that annually pile up for two blocks at Sycamore.

For 2023 we are planning for four music-related hubs (Sycamore, Oak, Mesquite and Hackney), car show participants, family trunk-or-treat stations, on Broad Street and sidewalk chalking, storefront and candy station decorations contest with people's-choice voting by hashtag and voting station at the 1910 Jail (#GlobeAZHalloween). Oak Street will also feature a food-truck food court, and the 1910 territorial jail will be open as a kid-friendly "spooky jail" for round-the-cell block simple tank-walks, free to the public (can of food for the St. Johns food pantry next door encouraged).

We are also extremely excited to be able to once again bring back the in-person and famous photo booth on Broad with the talented photographer Yvette Vargas and her team from Ms. Yvette Photography. Every photo taken will be uploaded online for the hashtag-entry community costume contest, free of charge. (Photos will additionally be available for purchase, as per tradition). In addition, will still be hosting the fun hashtag-entry community social media pumpkin carving and costume contest. #GlobeAZHalloween.

town Association (aka Historic Globe Main Street), the Globe Public Works team, Globe Police, Globe Fire, and Globe Events Committee, for without you this event could never happen. Additional thanks go out to the countless businesses, community groups, churches, organizations, clubs, and families who annually participate in this event with us. We know how much candy and toys you purchase to donate and are so thankful to the moon for you! Additional thanks & gratitude go out for the countless pounds of candy that is donated by you, our community. With the help of our ATV runner angels, we get to joyfully redistribute the donations throughout the event. Thank you all! See you on Halloween night, or feel free to pop by the 1910 Jail (Th-Sat 11-2), the CVCA, the City of Globe, or your favorite merchant before the event to donate wrapped & sealed bags of candy. We are a community most blessed.

“Yes, these clubs offer a range of fun and activities,” said Renee Carstens, director of University of Arizona’s Cooperative Extension Gila County, “but even more, 4-H gives youths that extra edge for life success with a variety of opportunities to develop leadership, responsibility, citizenship and life skills. Being active in 4-H helps children and teens become competent, caring and actively engaged citizens – the type of people who strengthen our Arizona communities, making Gila County such a great place to live. Also, we are currently in need of caring adults who are willing to share their time and knowledge to help offer quality youth programs. Please contact UA Cooperative Extension.”

Not a day went by where Daisy didn't talk about how much her children and family meant to her. Daisy's family was arguably the most important achievement in her life.

Daisy was survived by partner Marvin Joseph and predeceased husband Ernest Jess Karnes, also her sons Jamie Roark, Early Roark and Ernest Karnes, grandchildren Erica Karnes and Dustin Karnes, great-grandchildren Lilliana Spurlock and Micah Spurlock, and countless friends.

Funeral Services were held on Tuesday, Oct. 17, 2023, at Bulman Miles Funeral Services, Globe, Arizona.

as he faced his health challenges with courage and a deep trust in and obedience to Christ. He believed the words of St. Francis, "Where there is doubt, let me sow faith; where there is despair, hope; and where there is sadness, joy ... for it is in giving that we receive ... and it is in dying that we are born to eternal life." We will forever miss him but trust that

Keith Droste

Ole miners don't give up before announcing, "She's deep enuf and well timbered." Keith Droste, age 90, spoke these words days before his passing on Oct. 11, 2023.

Keith was born and raised in Sterling/Rock Falls, Illinois. As a high school student and athlete, he excelled in academics as well as football, swimming, diving and track and field. He earned an academic and athletic scholarship to Monmouth College in Monmouth, Illinois, where he went on to lead his various sports teams to championships. Keith discovered a passion for science, particularly geology, and graduated with honors in 1955. Monmouth was also where he met Vivian, his first wife. Keith served his country in the US Army, working as a physical science assistant.

Keith's enthusiasm for geology continued throughout his long and distinguished career in mining and exploration. In his 68 years in the mining industry, he experienced most types of hard rock and precious metal mining and knew the operation of all aspects relating to the profession. Keith's focus throughout his career was exploration, development and management. He worked with and consulted for companies throughout the United States and around the globe. Keith was well known and respected in the mining community and was truly a "mentor to all," as one colleague recalls. Anyone who met Keith would usually receive a brief education in geology and local mining history – whether they wanted it or not.

Keith's genuine energy extended to all aspects of his life. He ran marathons throughout the United States. He hiked and climbed peaks in several western states. Wherever Keith lived, he was known as "that guy who is always hiking with his beloved dogs." His skiing history spans from the early 1950s with winters spent working in Sun Valley, Idaho, to early skiing days in Park City, in the 1960s. He had an influence on the ski schools and ski racing programs at ski areas in North Idaho in the 1970s and 1980s. He then returned to the slopes of Utah for several years. Keith took his final runs at Lookout Pass, Idaho, at the age of 88. It was always a joy to spend time on the mountain with him ... skiing the powder, groomed or, his personal favorite, the "crud."

Keith was a person who was 100% invested in any relationship he formed. He is remembered for a life well lived by all who knew him. He is preceded in death by his mother, Velma Chapman Droste, and his father, Joseph Droste. Keith is especially cherished by his wife, Winona "Dale" Barcón; his three daughters, Darcy (Gwain) Oka, Paula (Dave) Halstead and Dana (Ed) Mulick; and his stepsons Vincent Barcón and Eric (Tammy) Barcón. He was loved and admired by his 13 grandchildren and his great-grandchildren, nieces and nephews.

Our sincere gratitude to the entire staff at the Cancer Center at CVRMC in Globe for their excellent care during his battle with cancer. Thank you also to the wonderful staff from Aviant Hospice for their kindness and TLC during his final days.

In memory of Keith, contributions can be made to the Humane Society of your choice.

Copper Cities Community Players perform Broadway hits

The Copper Cities Community Players have been burning the midnight oil, meticulously fine-tuning their musical revue called "Broad Street Does Broadway!" They promise a showstopper with familiar melodies from some of Broadway's legendary show tunes.

Mark your calendars and plan to attend the evenings of Nov. 4, 10, 11, with a Sunday matinee on Nov. 12.

From the hay-bail strains of "Oklahoma" to the romantic vibes of "Summer Nights" from "Grease," the saucy energy of "Master of the House" from "Les Miserables," and the empowering "Defying Gravity" from "Wicked" – every song is a powerhouse from Broadway's long resume.

Featuring the combined talent of familiar local artists and sprightly newcomers, the entire cast has forsaken their day jobs to cut loose with the performance energy they usually keep bottled up inside.

It all takes place at the historic Old Courthouse Theater at the Cobre Valley Center for the Arts. And to add a sprinkle of magical allure, several ethereal apparitions from Broadway's golden days will weave through the audience, adding a layer of "haunted" nostalgia.

Ticket alert! Grab yours while they last. Regular tickets are priced at a modest $20 with the opening night gala performance on Nov. 4 at $30. The curtain rises at 7 p.m. for the evening shows, with a special matinee at 2 p.m. on Sunday, Nov. 12.

A phenomenal ensemble of 32 gifted performers from our community is gearing up to offer a mesmerizing experience, beautifully bridging Broadway classics with the area's very own shining stars.

We strongly recommend early bookings, especially if you have your heart set on the gala performance. Secure your tickets at the Cobre Valley Center for the Arts.

For further information, reach out to JoNell Brantley at 928-425-8111.

What's inside counts

BY DR. DAN MORTON
Contributor

I remember looking at a special quilt made by several members of a pioneer family in Encampment, Wyoming. Each member created a piece as a tribute to a teacher and recognized the contribution to that child's education. Over a teacher's lifetime, there may be several such memories.

The education doesn't start and stop at the door of the school. When my children began their formal education, I went to visit Mr. Bill Bowers, principal, to ask what we should do, as parents, for the education of Robert and Ann. His answer was simple and direct: "Send them to us happy. If they aren't happy, we can't teach them all day."

A tough assignment, one I understood. We tried to send them off happy each morning and that appeared to be the answer. Robert completed his MBA and was very successful in his efforts for a worldwide corporation. Ann graduated with a degree in industrial management, and it has proven successful for her.

They both met God as a close, personal friend and found that this extended around the world. Being in Rome, London, Tokyo or at home in the United States of America, there is no problem that God can't solve, and it can be fun working with God.

"I will lift up mine eyes unto the hills, from whence cometh my help. My help cometh from the Lord, which made heaven and earth." (Psalm 121:1-2) A simple formula. Look around. The ingredients await!

Making Disciples

Are you investing in other believers by sharing your time, understanding and experience?

Think about all the men and women who have invested in you over the years – those wonderful people who helped you meet Jesus and grow in your faith. Where would you be without their love and positive influence?

Maybe it's time for you to become that person to someone else. After all, as Christians, we each have a responsibility to spread the good news and then to invest in the lives of other believers by sharing our understanding and experience. That's why we must:

- Spend time with the Lord so that we are growing and in tune with His Spirit.
- Be prepared with a plan. New believers need to understand the basics – such as how to read the Bible and develop a habit of prayer – as well as where to find fellowship and encouragement.

• Help others know what to expect as they embark on the Christian journey. It isn't always a straight line, is it?

Most of us learned (and struggled) until we understood the basics of life in Christ. That's why godly mentors are so important. We all need advice and encouragement from those farther along in their walk of faith.
