Gila County Fair entries: From apples to zucchini

Start planning for your possible blue-ribbon or best-in-show winning entries in our community's annual Gila County Fair, just one month ahead: Sept. 20-23. Gardeners? You can enter fruits and veggies literally 'from A-to-Z' if you grew superb apples, zucchini, or just about any horticultural category in between – and yes, even unusual varieties such as quince, Jerusalem artichokes, kohlrabi or elephant garlic. In fact, the fair book lists no less than eight separate categories for tomatoes; read them

CASA of Gila County welcomes new volunteers; more needed

CASA of Gila County welcomed two new volunteers on Aug. 10, 2023 in Payson, Arizona. Linda and Joanne completed their Oath of Service before the Honorable Judge Timothy M. Wright.

This Oath of Service marks the completion of 30 hours of pre-service training, a thorough background check, and a personal dedication to servicing youth in foster care. CASA of Gila County provides free training both in person and virtually to all qualifying applicants.

As a Court Appointed

Special Advocate (CASA) volunteer, Linda and Joanne will fill a vital role in the life of a child or sibling group who has been placed in foster care due to abuse or neglect at absolutely no fault of their own. As a CASA volunteer, they will serve to advocate for the best interest of the child. They will visit the child, attend meetings and learn about the family, and use that gathered information to speak on the child's behalf for their needs, best interest and safety.

The CASA volunteer role is unique and helps to ensure that our children in foster care do not fall through the cracks of the overburdened child welfare system. These volunteers are not foster families; they do not have a role in the removal of the children, but instead they make objective recommendations for the child. They are appointed by a judge after a family's case has opened and it has been determined that the child would benefit from a consistent adult who can focus their attention on the child's needs. But more volunteers are needed in Gila County.

There are over 90 children from Gila County communities who do not currently have a CASA appointed to their case. Applicants do not need to live within Gila County to serve. We encourage those who may be interested in volunteering to contact our office today.

CASA volunteers do not need any prior special training and come from all walks of life. Anyone 21 years of age or older, who can pass a thorough background check and complete 30 hours of training, is encouraged to apply. Another way to get involved is a program with similar requirements called the Foster Care Review Board (FCRB). A judge appoints volunteers to a five-member panel that meets online one weekday per month to review the cases of children in foster care.

Our local children who have been placed in foster care need our help. To learn more about becoming a CASA volunteer, visit www.CASAofGilaCounty.org or call the CASA of Gila County Office at 928-402-4427. To learn more about becoming a FCRB volunteer or to watch a video about volunteering, visit, www.AZFCRB.org.

Phone and Internet Discounts
Available to CenturyLink Customers

The Arizona Corporation Commission designated CenturyLink as an Eligible Telecommunications Carrier within its service area for universal service purposes. CenturyLink's basic local service rates for residential voice lines are $18.47 per month and business services are $35.00 per month. Specific rates will be provided upon request.

CenturyLink participates in the Lifeline program, which makes residential telephone or qualifying broadband service more affordable to eligible low-income individuals and families. Eligible customers may qualify for Lifeline discounts of $5.25/month for voice or bundled voice service or $9.25/month for qualifying broadband or broadband bundles. Residents who live on federally recognized Tribal Lands may qualify for additional Tribal benefits if they participate in certain additional federal eligibility programs. The Lifeline discount is available for only one telephone or qualifying broadband service per household, which can be either a wireline or wireless service. Broadband speeds must be at least 25 Mbps download and 3 Mbps upload to qualify.

CenturyLink also participates in the Affordable Connectivity Program (ACP), which provides eligible households with a discount on broadband service. The ACP provides a discount of up to $30 per month toward broadband service for eligible households and up to $75 per month for households on qualifying Tribal lands.

For both programs, a household is defined as any individual or group of individuals who live together at the same address and share income and expenses. Services are not transferable, and only eligible consumers may enroll in these programs. Consumers who willfully make false statements to obtain these discounts can be punished by fine or imprisonment and can be barred from these programs.

If you live in a CenturyLink service area, visit <https://www.centurylink.com/aboutus/community/community-development/lifeline.html> for additional information about applying for these programs or call 1-800-201-4099 with questions.

He really cared about people and tried to help them find what they needed. Theron enjoyed helping his community. He could often be found on the side of the road in the canyon picking up trash. He also enjoyed running to the point of winning a number of races. One of his greatest loves, besides Anna and his family, was his old car collection.

Karen Witterman

In My Heart
I thought of you today,
But that is nothing new.
I thought about you yesterday,

And days before that too.

I think of you in silence.

Now all I have are memories,

And your picture in a frame.

Your memory is my keepsake,

With which I'll never part.

God has you in his keeping.

I have you in my heart.

Prickly Pear Festival Aug. 26 in Superior

Bring your appetite to the annual Prickly Pear Festival in Superior Aug. 26 – a Saturday that starts at 7 a.m. with a foraging excursion guided by experienced pickers who will demonstrate how to safely harvest these forbidding fruit of the Opuntia cactus, and how to remove the cactus spines and process the tasty, healthy, magenta flesh within.

Other popular events of the day include a pancake breakfast fundraiser (with prickly pear syrup, of course!), and local restaurants have a prickly pear fruit or ‘nopal’ cactus pad special on the menu that day -- from prickly pear ice cream at Felicia’s to margaritas at Porter’s and other local taverns. A bitter poison

Has the pain of your past become a prison in your present?

Picture a man hunched over a chemistry set, adding a pinch of this and a dash of that to the unpleasant green fluid before him. He is thinking of someone who harmed him, replaying all the perceived slights and hurts, and is concocting a poison to repay the offender.

His work finished, he breathes a sigh of relief and takes the beaker in his hands, marveling at what's been created. "This will show him," the man says, and then drinks the bitter brew himself.

That's a surprising twist, to be sure. Yet there is a good chance you've essentially done this very thing at one time or another.

Bitterness is a poison that we prepare for someone else but then drink ourselves. It is something we often carefully nurture and grow over the years. If someone hurts us—whether intentionally or unintentionally—and we begin to fantasize of a thousand and one ways to get payback, all we are doing is destroying our own heart and mind. Thankfully, our faith presents a better way to live. Rather than nurture hate, we can "turn from evil and do good; seek peace and pursue it" (Psalm 34:14).

WORSHIP

Overcoming self

A model for prayer

BY DR. DAN MORTON
Contributor

We may know secrets about ourselves that nobody else knows and they may make us feel unworthy of friendships. What we may not realize is that it is grace that overrides any suspicion or distrust that may be blocking our relationship with God.

Our parents know all about us and continue to love us anyway. This may not be the same with a brother or a sister who know us in other ways. The One who knows us from birth to death, every deed, saying, action, is God. He is patient, enduring, kind, understanding, and wants only the best for us. Do we have a higher set of criteria?

Rather than trying to hide the negatives we can go to God and acknowledge our wrongdoings, and in doing so ask for His forgiveness and make every effort not to repeat the wrongs. Will we slip up? Probably. Does He care? Yes! Does He forgive more than once? Yes, because we are trying to be acceptable in His sight.

The apostle Paul, with a long record of misdeeds, was accepted by God and then reflected on the puzzle: "For I do not understand my own actions. For I do not do the good I want, but the evil I do not want is what I do." He then answers this. "Now if I do what I do not want, it is no longer I that do it, but sin that dwells within me." Romans 7:15-20

Don't let life's busyness distract you from the important work of intercession.

- Bear fruit in every good work (v. 10)—The Lord desires that our actions bring Him glory. We all seem to be very busy, but the amount of work isn't what matters. Instead, we must be sure that the things we do are eternally valuable.

- Grow in the knowledge of God (v. 10)—The apostle's request is not merely for believers to gain facts regarding Christ. He speaks of a deeper understanding in the heart.

- Be strengthened according to His power (v. 11)—Having endurance and focus in the midst of life's trials requires God's strength. Our own simply isn't enough.

- Walk in gratitude (v. 12)—When we realize where all good gifts originate, we live with thankfulness. Contentment and joy come from a grateful heart, not our circumstances.

Life is busy, so prayer often gets squeezed out of our schedules. We must always remember that lifting our loved ones before God's throne is far more important than any other task.

COMMUNITY

Globe Fire Department to hold 9/11 Memorial Stair Climb

The City of Globe Fire Department will be holding its first 9/11 Memorial Stair Climb on Sept. 1, 2023, at 6 p.m. The 1.3-mile course utilizing part of "Stairizona" will begin near the Center for the Arts, located at Broad Street and Oak Street in Downtown Globe, during the "First Friday Event." We invite members of the community to join us for this event.

The 9/11 Memorial Stair Climb is a way to honor and remember the FDNY firefighters, police and EMS who selflessly gave their lives so that others might live on 9-11-2001. Each participant pays tribute to an FDNY firefighter, police officer or EMS by climbing/walking the equivalent of the 110 stories of the World Trade Center.

Your individual tribute not only remembers the sacrifice of an FDNY brother or sister, but symbolically completes their heroic journey to save others. Through firefighter and community participation we can ensure that each of the 343 firefighters, 60 police officers and 10 EMS are honored, and that the world knows we will never forget.

The Globe Fire Department will be accepting donations and all proceeds will be donated to the National Fallen Firefighters Foundation. These 9/11 Memorial Stair Climbs help the National Fallen Firefighters Foundation create and maintain programs that support fire service survivors. Your support of the 9/11 Memorial Stair Climb events provides assistance to the surviving families and co-workers of the 343 firefighters who made the ultimate sacrifice on Sept. 11, 2001, and all firefighter families who have had a "Line of Duty Death" since then.
