Nnee Bich'o Nii Summer Youth Program 2023

Another summer has come and gone, shorter than what the older folks remember from their own youth. Nnee Bich'o Nii has completed another successful Summer Youth Program, with 6 students attending their two-week session.

Family Services Coordinator Karina Bendle and Assistant Teacher Elva Case worked together to create a curriculum that mainly focused on the Apache language, culture, customs and history.

Every morning began with one hour of Apache language taught by Elva. The students learned about their clans, and how to introduce themselves and identify their family members in Apache. They learned to count in Apache, to say their colors, name body parts and count to 10 in Apache. They learned their action words like stand, sit, walk and run. Most of all, they learned to express their emotions in Apache. I am happy. I am sad. I am angry. I am tired. I am hungry.

Presenters from various Tribal departments came to share their knowledge with the students as well.

COMMUNITY

Russe, who consults with San Carlos Apache Language Preservation, helped identify and pronounce their clans.

Seth Pilsk and Twila Casadore from the San Carlos Forestry Department taught the students about the importance of local plant life and how their ancestors depended on a variety of those plants for food, medicine and use in traditional Apache customs.

Community Outreach Coordinators Marlowe Bartholin and Vonda Russell shared information about diabetes prevention and the importance of being active.

Melody Thomas and Cate Gore are no strangers to the Nnee Bich'o Nii Services. This remarkable team of instructional specialists come from the University of Arizona Cooperative Extension, and have collaborated with Nnee Bich'o Nii to hold their classes for the adults. Melody teaches about healthy food choices and light exercising, while Cate covers money management. It is never too early to learn how to eat healthy and live on a budget.

The curriculum included arts and crafts sessions. Studies have shown that there are many benefits for students creating arts and crafts. It gives them a way to express themselves and cope with stress, anxiety and depression. It has a positive impact on their mental health and overall well-being. Arts and crafts show their ability to follow directions but more importantly, it helps strengthen their ability to plan (what materials they need, what colors will work together, etc.). It strengthens their ability to concentrate and motivates them to see the finished product. It allows them to use their imagination, to think outside the box.

The students had fun making their tie-dyed t-shirts without realizing they were strengthening the skills that will help them succeed in life.

The Nnee Bich'o Nii educational team plan to keep in contact with their summer students to help with college applications, financial aid packets, scholarship packets, job applications and mentoring them as they begin their journey into adulthood. They plan on continuing their Apache culture classes and would like to extend their classes to all of the Nnee Bich'o Nii participants.

After the Summer Youth Program ended, Elva and Karina were doing home visits and following up with the students. Elva asked one student, "Dagoteh?" (How are you?). The student answered back "Shit gozhóó" (I am happy).

To take part in this amazing program, you must be a Nnee Bich'o Nii participant. To join Nnee Bich'o Nii Services, please contact the Nnee Bich'o Nii team at their Peridot office at (928) 475-5011 or in Bylas at (928) 475-5033.

“American Pickers” to film in Arizona

The American Pickers are excited to return to Arizona, where they plan to film episodes of The History Channel hit television series in September 2023.

“American Pickers” is a documentary series that explores the fascinating world of antique “picking” on The History Channel. The hit show follows skilled pickers in the business, as they hunt for America’s most valuable antiques. They are always excited to find historically significant or rare items, in addition to unforgettable characters and their collections.

As they hit the back roads from coast to coast, the Pickers are on a mission to recycle and rescue forgotten relics. Along the way, they want to meet characters with amazing stories and fun items. They hope to give historically significant objects a new lease on life, learning a thing or two about America’s past along the way. The Pickers have seen a lot of rusty gold over the years and are always looking to discover something they’ve never seen before. They are ready to find extraordinary items and hear fascinating tales about them.

“American Pickers” continues to take the pandemic very seriously and will be following all guidelines and protocols for safe filming outlined by the state and CDC. Nevertheless, the team is excited to continue reaching the many collectors in the area to discuss their years of picking, and is eager to hear their memorable stories.

The show is looking for leads and would love to explore your hidden treasure. If you or someone you know has a unique item, a story to tell and is ready to sell, we would love to hear from you. The Pickers do not pick stores, flea markets, malls, auction businesses, museums or anything open to the public.

If interested, please send your name, phone number,

OBITUARIES/COMMUNITY

Charlene "Charlie" H. Brown

Charlene "Charlie" H. Brown, 1951-2023

(Mother, Grandmother, Great-Grandmother, Sister, Aunt, Cousin, Friend)

Today, the 29th day of July, our hearts are broken as we all mourn the loss of our beloved older sister, Charlene. Her bright light and big heart left us too soon, but we will remember her warmth, love, and generosity.

Charlene taught us all some fundamental lessons while she made her short journey through life, of which the most memorable was to get to know Jesus as your personal savior. She would say, "There is no other way but through Jesus, He is the way, the truth and the life," and "Glory be to God and the Joy of the Lord is our strength" are a couple of phrases she continuously stated.

We will miss our big sister, as will those she impacted throughout her life, from friends and family to the work she did with the San Carlos Unified School District from where she retired.

Charlene H. Brown, 71, is survived by her only daughter Carrie Thompson, her son Mark Anthony Brown (Linda), her grandsons Andrew Brown and Cohen Brown, one great-grandson, Braden Rider Brown, her brothers Howard Hooke Jr. (Juanita), Harding Hooke (Selma), Councilman Simon Hooke and Malcolm Hooke (Sally), her sisters Cheryl H. Mull (Marvin Jr.), Karen Hooke-Johnson (Terry), Peggy Cassa and Cassandra Chewning (Jonathan), and many, many nieces and nephews.

She is preceded in death by her husband Tommie Brown, her son Timothy Patrick Brown, her parents Howard Hooke Sr. and Nancy P. Hooke, and her two brothers, Hardt Hooke and Samuel "Chummy" Hooke.

Charlene was a private person; therefore, a one-day service was held in her memory. She was brought home one last time. The visitation was held from 4 a.m. – 8:30 a.m. on Friday, Aug. 4, 2023, at her residence in Lower Peridot, Arizona.

Funeral Services were held at 9 a.m. on Friday, Aug. 4, 2023, at the Michael Noline Activity Center in Peridot, Arizona.

Interment followed at the Peridot Cemetery. Lunch was served at the Michael Noline Activity Center after the burial.

Janice Krank

Janice Marie Krank, 84, passed away peacefully at home on July 26, 2023. She was born on Dec. 4, 1938 in Jerome, Az., to James Magill and Eva Murry.

She married Richard Taylor in 1957, Tom Henderson on April 16, 1966 and Claude Krank on Oct. 18, 1989. She liked reading, crochet, camping and hiking. She was involved with her church.

She was preceded in death by her husband

She is survived by her former husband Richard Taylor; her children Wanda Rakcozy (Tony), Linda Hom (David), Roxanne Rayes, Randy Henderson (Roberta) and Jeff Taylor; 11 grandchildren; and 23 great-grandchildren.

Services will be held Aug. 12, 2023 at 2 p.m. at Maranatha Baptist Church in Globe, Az., with a luncheon afterward.

Michael McGinley

Mike joined God on July 14, 2023. He passed quietly surrounded by family. Mike is survived by his wife Linda, his son Michael Sean (Ina), his daughter Regan (Jim) and his sister Sharon. He is preceded in death by his parents Helen and George, and his brother Pat.

He went to Daniel Boone High School in Birdsboro, Pennsylvania. He spent 6 years in the US Navy, and on the USS Albany. He worked for the Chicago and Northwestern Railroad in Wisconsin for 11 years. He later moved to Globe in 1986 with his when he said something it made you laugh and was always worth the wait. He loved his family and friends and was always ready to help. Mike put others before himself. He loved boating, camping and having scotch with his friends and family.

I pray everyone has someone special like Mike in their lives. He is the love of my life, my husband, my soulmate, and my best friend.

Memorial services will be held at 12 p.m. on Saturday, Sept. 23, 2023, at the Train Depot in Globe, Arizona.

Though it may be difficult, we are called to follow Jesus' example and surrender everything to God.

In the Old Testament, sacrifice was a means of atonement. When a person sinned, he or she brought an animal to the altar, and through its death, reconciliation was accomplished. What, then, does Romans 12:1 mean when Paul urges believers to “present your bodies as a living and holy sacrifice”?

Thankfully, there is no need for our blood to be shed; Jesus took care of that when He died on the cross for our sins.

Instead, what Paul means is that our lives should be surrendered to the Lord. A surrendered life involves commitment. It's a decision to defer to God's will and His Holy Spirit instead of following our own preferences. Every aspect of our being—body, soul, and spirit—is to be a living sacrifice.

Though this may sound dreary, true freedom and joy are found when we yield to Christ. The Lord promised His followers that abundant life comes from losing ourselves in Him (Matthew 16:25). Psalm 16:11 says it best: “In Your presence is fullness of joy; in Your right hand there are pleasures forever.”

Becoming a living sacrifice sounds like a tall order—and it is. But it's a call we face with Jesus by our side. Remember: He is our constant companion and wants to help us.

Micah Wright coming to Globe Christian Center

Evangelist Micah Wright will be at the Globe Christian Center (501 E. Maple St.) Sunday through Wednesday, August 13–16. Sunday services start at 10:30 a.m. and 5:30 p.m. On Monday through Wednesday, services will start at 7 p.m.

Wright preaches across the U.S. and in mostly-small churches around the world. Travel isn't always easy. His six-year-old daughter will ask, "Are you leaving again?"

So what keeps him going? "Miracles that change people's lives," he said. This year, he added, he has seen God heal "nerves, ligaments and tendons" - repeatedly!

Two weeks ago a 17-year-old girl in Florida was becoming suicidal. She had gotten no real sleep in 10 years, and she was worn out. After prayer, she went home to a good night's sleep and has slept normally ever since. "For us, that's a great story," said Wright, "but for her, it's life-changing."

In Jacksonville, three people took off their glasses and didn't need them again. In Texas a lady in her 60s, almost deaf from infancy, could hear without her oversized hearing aids. In New Hampshire, a man recovered feeling in his face, feeling his wife's touch for the first time in 15 years. And another man said of the eczema on his arms, "It's changing. I can see it." By the next service, it was gone.

"That keeps me going," said Wright.

Of course, only God can heal. "I have no super power," said Wright, "but if I did, I'd make people feel what it's like to be right with God, the peace... But I can't! Everyone must taste and see for themselves. There's no risk! Coming to Jesus, we have nothing to lose but tormenting shame and addiction."

Visitors are welcome at the services. "To see a miracle is a thrill," said Wright, "but to experience one is life-changing."

Christ in Globe-Miami Back to School Worship Night

The Homeless Coalition of Cobre Valley is sponsoring an event at the Miami High School Auditorium. It will be a food drive to replenish our food pantry and help out with other food pantries in our area. The event is free, but we are asking for non-perishable food donations. We will also be having a raffle to raise money. Doors will be open at 4:30 to purchase raffle tickets. All proceeds will be going to help homeless people in our area. Most importantly, it will be a night of worship. With so much happening in the world, it is so easy to be distracted by "the storms" that are happening in our lives. Whether it is personal, community, school, government or even worldwide, our focus is being taken off what our main focus should be on – Jesus! This event will be a time for our community to worship and praise our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. Extol and Jericho Project will be the music ministries at the event. Please come and worship with us as a community on Saturday, August 12 from 5 p.m. – 8 p.m., with doors opening at 4:30.

TAURUS - Apr 21/May 21

Taurus, spend time reflecting on things this week, as you may have some difficult decisions to make in the near future. A close confidante can serve as a sounding board.

your plans for the time being. Reward yourself with some extra pampering.

ing things this week. You cannot please everyone, so figure out who you can work with and appeal to those people to get things done.

Libra, you may have to take off the rose-colored glasses for a little while. Although it's good to have a cheery outlook, a no-nonsense approach will serve you well in the days ahead.

SCORPIO - Oct 24/Nov 22

Scorpio, you could be having doubts about your role in your workplace. Maybe the work isn't stimulating or the responsibilities too great. If change is happening, do it soon.

SAGITTARIUS - Nov 23/Dec 21

Sagittarius, something from your past will come back to the surface in the days to come. Maybe it is an error you made or it could be an opportunity that you thought was lost.
