Karen Adair Osborn

Karen Adair Osborn was born Feb. 18, 1955 at 11:49 a.m., to Donald Osborn and Margaret Farrah in Trona, Ca. She passed away April 28, 2023 at 4:28 p.m.

Karen has 3 brothers and 1 sister; Mike (deceased), Mark, Don, and Jan.

Karen is survived by her two sons, Nicholas and Daniel Madrid, 12 grandchildren and 2 great-grandchildren. She leaves behind so many friends, and even some folks who adopted her along the way to show her a life full of love. Thank you, Phillips family, each and every one of you.

My Mother, my everything.

My mother was a Saint....

She gave more than she ever expected to receive. Time and time again, she always concerned herself more with the wellbeing of others than she did her own self.

My mother was Selfless;

If you needed something, my mom was there. If you needed to talk without receiving judgment, my mom was there. When your older brother gets caught sneaking into your bedroom after a night of partying, welp... She tried to be there all the time lol.

My mother was God in my Eyes...

I never understood what this quote meant, until the day after I lost my mom.

Everything that is great in me, she gave it and instilled it into me. She loved her sons unconditionally, especially during the times where we couldn't even love ourselves.

A mother's love can never be duplicated, replicated, copied or artificially made. It's so unique and catered to each child, it's amazing to witness. I'll cherish each memory that I have of her until the last breath leaves my body; that is my promise to myself.

I love you to the moon and back momma, and then once more for good measure.

This isn't goodbye, just a...

"See ya later, Alligator. In awhile, Crocodile."

Adverse Childhood Experiences Training at Globe Public Library

Globe Public Library is partnering with Arizona Youth Partnership to offer Adverse Childhood Experiences Training in person for anyone interested on May 20 at noon. An Adverse Childhood Experience (ACE) is trauma that happens before age 18. These include but are not limited to recurrent physical abuse; recurrent emotional abuse; contact sexual abuse; alcohol and/or drug abuse in the household; an incarcerated household member; a household member who was depressed, mentally ill, institutionalized or suicidal; a mother who was treated violently; one or no parent; and emotional or physical neglect. When adults were asked if they grew up with exposure to any of the above, the number of exposures had a direct correlation to certain health, social and economic risks as an adult. This free training is available to anyone who wants to understand the impact of ACEs on the health and well-being of Arizona youth. The study of the impact of ACEs is not a treatment or program, but a movement to equip communities with the skills to better understand the benefit of prevention and understanding of Adverse Childhood Experiences. This training would be a great benefit to anyone who has regular contact with youth; teachers, coaches, pastors, scout leaders, camp counselors, activities directors, youth employers, members of law enforcement and medical professionals.

Summer Scares Book Club

During the months of June, July and August Globe Public Library will be offering a special book club for those who like spooky stories, psychological thrillers and things that go bump in the night. God can transform any sinner into a saint.

One of the most miraculous displays of the Lord's power is His ability to transform an unrighteous man into a shining light for Jesus. The apostle Paul is a great example of how God can change ...

- The religious into the redeemed (1 Timothy 1:12-13). Before his conversion Paul was deeply religious, but not in a good way. He relied on his pedigree, performance and piety to gain authority and acceptance. When he met the Lord on the road to Damascus, however, he discovered that all of his religious works and credentials meant nothing. The only way we can become acceptable before God is through receiving the saving grace of Christ—and that's how Paul's sin was replaced with a righteous spirit.

- A servant of sin into a servant of God (Romans 6:17-18). Paul had been hostile toward the early church—promoting blasphemy, punishing believers and voting for them to be punished with death (Acts 26:10-11). Yet after salvation, he became a dedicated missionary who spread the gospel wherever he could.

Our Father turned one of the early church's enemies into a wise and repentant leader. Commit to obey the Lord, and see what happens. He is faithful to complete the good work He has begun in you (Philippians 1:6).

WORSHIP

Something is missing

By DR. DAN MORTON
Contributor

When I look out the parlor window at 4 a.m., I see the lights of a commercial airliner flying across my view. Wondering where those people are going, I think some of them may be looking at a single street light in an expanse of darkness. I have been on both sides.

One day I was watching a parade in downtown Kent, Connecticut, and the man asked if I were a native of the area. I answered that the past years had been spent in Globe, Arizona. Expecting to explain where Globe is, I was surprised when he said, "I know Globe, Roosevelt Lake, the copper mines" and other landmarks with which he seemed familiar. I asked when he had last visited and he said he had never been there. He had just retired as an airline pilot flying from San Diego to the East Coast. Globe was his personal check point and he observed it closely.

There was a time not long ago when social contacts were made on the front porch as people strolled by. Known or unknown, conversations were friendly and people showed genuine interest, rather than striking the "like" button with the touch of a finger.

There are many today who would welcome such conversation. Try it.

Women's Spring Gathering at Divine Grace Church

All women in the community are invited to our second annual Saturday gathering, which will be held on May 20 beginning at 9:30 a.m. Pastor Joyce Howard will once again be our featured speaker and Janet Howard Lanphar will lead us in morning musical worship.

Come early for coffee and breakfast treats. Lunch will be served following our morning time of learning and prayer. The church is located at 305 Live Oak St. in Miami. Plan to join us for a time of great Christian fellowship!

Caring for others

Are generosity and service habits in your life?

So many people in the world are in need today and serving them is one of the highest callings of the Christian faith. Therefore, it's essential for believers to commit to give of themselves on behalf of others.

There are countless ways to serve people. For example, a man might decide to pray for and come alongside a friend until a burdensome situation is resolved. Or a woman could make herself available to answer a neighbor's questions about the faith. If we prayerfully look around, we may see other opportunities, such as driving an elderly friend to medical appointments, mentoring a teenager through a local outreach program, or helping a single parent check some things off a to-do list.

Before you become overwhelmed by the variety of needs in your area, remember that loving your neighbors is meant to be a church-wide effort. One person can't do it all. Instead, join a small group of fellow believers committed to serving those God brings into your sphere of influence. In order to care for them, you may be asked to surrender resources and time—but when you do, the Lord will bless you with the joy and contentment that come only from Him.

When I'm worried about my needs, remind me of your faithful provision. When I'm worried about tomorrow, bring me back to your presence with me today. And when I can't escape the anxiousness of what could come, pour out your peace in my heart and mind. Amen.

Gila County's New 'Road Scholar' Apprenticeship Program

Have you daydreamed of a job running a dump truck, grader, bulldozer, or other heavy equipment? Gila County Public Works offers a new 'Road Scholar' apprenticeship with pay starting at $32,398 per year, and the chance to earn your Class B Commercial Driver's License (CDL).

And after 18 months coaching and supervision, having learned to drive and prove your proficiency in safely operating a 10-wheel dump truck and a grader, graduates are on track for an Operator 1 salary starting at $39,186.

Applicants must be at least 18 and have a high school diploma or GED; apply online at gilacountyaz.gov. Any trouble finding the job listing, call Public Works staff (928) 402-8502 or email projects@gilacountyaz.gov

"Road maintenance is important for our quality of life and maintaining our roads requires specialized skills, we're looking to fill our vacancies with people who care for our community and have acquired the skills to professionally care for our roads," said Wayne Jones, Gila County regional road manager for the Timber Region.

Jones, who created the initiative, grew up in Gila County and has worked for the county government for 12 years. "Today, Gila County maintains 756 miles of road from five road yards—Globe, Star Valley, Tonto Basin, Young and Pine/Strawberry. Each road yard has an assigned road they are responsible for and work to maintain throughout the year. The three main maintenance activities include grading gravel roads, repairing paved roads and maintaining drainage features, like ditches and culverts."

Gila County Public Works has 33 road maintenance personnel who drive all types of heavy equipment, including motor graders, bulldozers and 10-wheel dump trucks.

"Throughout the year, the various road yards support each other to perform snow removal, pavement patching and storm runoff," adds Jones. From now through early June, the entire crew will team up to chip seal paved roads in Strawberry, Tonto and the Globe area.

"Road Maintenance personnel need to be skilled in heavy equipment operation and the road maintenance process and hold the required commercial driver licenses," he explains. "We continually have vacancies and that is the reason for starting an apprenticeship program."

Ideal candidates for Gila County's Road Maintenance apprenticeship program should be willing to learn, a team player with a respectable work ethic; people who enjoy outdoor work and the desire to operate heavy equipment.

There are two parts to the Local Technical Assistance Program

(LTAP)--Road Scholar I for the first 12 months and Road Scholar II from the end of probation through 18 months. Road Scholar I is completed after passing eight of nine courses in the first 12 months, while Road Scholar II is achieved by passing eight of nine courses in 18 months. Apprenticeship outcomes include working at a landfill and road yard;
