Unlike some YCC assignments that require camping, the summertime Globe-Miami crew will work daytimes, returning home each night, after an initial orientation week camping near Flagstaff. Youth Crew members live at home and work Monday through Friday on projects in the surrounding national forest, with preference given to local applicants. Ideal candidates are willing to work outside, are drawn to project work and have a passion for conservation and nature.

Arizona Conservation Corps has job openings for adult crew leaders and members too, options that are equally open to applicants of all experience levels and ages 18-30. Read more at azcorps.org/join.

It's valuable work! Crews could be building trails, treating invasive species, doing habitat enhancements, wildfire mitigation or other projects on public lands. How to apply?

Nurturing students, growing plants: Gila County's Teacher of the Year

Originally from Manitou Springs, Colorado, Bethany Gray took a circuitous route that landed her at Globe's High Desert Middle School, where she inspired eighth-grade parents and peers enough to win this year's Gila County Teacher of the Year award. One nominator described how Gray "inspires more students to be interested in science and holds her students to a higher standard of behavior in her class," adding that Gray "finds time to tutor students in math and other subjects. She started a gardening club with the students and taught them about growing plants." Bethany Gray earned a bachelor's degree in US History at the University of California San Diego before starting her educator's career as a park ranger at some of the Southwest's most iconic national parks. Pulled to study wildlife biology, she completed three years of graduate work at NAU, leading to a series of jobs as a field biologist around the Southwest.

"I have family in central Arizona and as the years passed, I began to crave the stability of a more regulated work experience," she said. "A close friend at the time suggested I apply for a teaching position nearby, and I was hired as a middle school teacher at a small Montessori school. Outside our classroom was a pre-existing garden enclosure that needed a lot of TLC. I'm not sure where I would be without that critical event, but I know I would not be the same person I am today.

"Middle school chose me, and I chose those kids right back. Many of them graduate this year and some even started college last year. They keep me up to date. They also inspire me with their curiosity, the paths they choose and the things that make an im-act on them. I finally feel like I've found my homeplace here in teaching, and I was recently able to add a Master's in Education to my own education. My first year in Globe has been utterly transformative, just as my first-year teaching middle school was. There is a mixture and magic here that is not duplicated in Arizona. I feel very lucky to be part of the team that works with these kids, to connect them to community and make sure they also see that the world awaits them."

Runner-up Marne Perez teaches special education to preschoolers at Rice Primary School in San Carlos. Her nominator described how Perez "writes lessons filled with activities that keep students engaged and learning. These activities include storytelling, role-playing, singing, while sometimes being animated to keep students' attention. She incorporates early childhood standards from Teaching Strategies Gold and uses data-driven decisions to support student learning."

Runner-up Jennifer Madrid, a physics teacher at San Carlos High School, has been teaching the subject for 19 years. She has worked as a research advisor, robotics coach, mentor teacher, National Honor Society advisor and Project Lead the Way biomedical science teacher. She is currently the physics and research (bioscience) teacher, and science coordinator, at San Carlos High School. Her nominator wrote: "Jennifer Madrid has been making an impact on the students' lives as a science and also honors teacher at San Carlos High School. She gets her kids to do community service activities and then reinforces the student to see their own impact/value on the community."

Treatment courts save lives and strengthen communities

For three decades, there has been a growing movement to transform the way the justice system responds to substance use and mental health disorders. Rather than continuing the revolving door of addiction and related crime, treatment courts break the cycle by holding individuals accountable while connecting them with the treatment and support needed to change their lives. This approach is no longer an experiment; more than 4,000 treatment courts across the nation have proven to be the most successful justice intervention in our nation's history.

Treatment courts like the Gila County Opioid Drug Court differ from traditional court because treatment providers and other public professionals are invited to be a part of the team. They ensure each person in the program receives an individualized, evidence-based treatment plan, and work together with the judge, defense attorney, probation and law enforcement to provide ongoing support and accountability. Following this approach allows Gila County's treatment court to identify and meet individual needs.

The Gila County Opioid Drug Court serves those high-risk/high-need individuals in our community who suffer from opioid addiction and are in need of medication assisted treatment. The purpose is to help criminal justice-involved individuals with opioid addiction get on the path to recovery and become contributing members of our community. The Gila County Superior Court and Probation Department work with treatment provider Community Bridges to provide substance abuse treatment and medication assisted treatment services, along with consistent probation interaction, to those clientele in need with the main goal to save lives.

The research agrees: Numerous studies have found that treatment courts reduce crime and drug use and save money. These programs also improve education, employment, housing, financial stability and family reunification, which reduces foster care placements. Treatment courts represent a compassionate approach to the devastation of addiction.

Health and fitness activities at Globe Public Library

Globe Public Library wants to help keep you healthy. Here are the programs we have running during June.

Globe Public Library is collaborating with the AZ Health Zone through Gila County Health Department to have chair aerobics classes at Globe Public Library Tuesdays at noon.

Kids Yoga is at Globe Public Library Fridays at 10 a.m. We will be learning mindfulness and yoga. This is a program for children 3 and up; parents and caregivers are encouraged to come and participate.

Seed 2 Supper with AZ Health Zone will begin on June 16 at 11 a.m. This is a six-week, two-hour program for adults that takes food from the garden to the table. There will be cooking every week.

Globe Public Library Literary Journeys is the new name for the Walk/Run Club. We have a hybrid type of program. You can choose how you participate. We will meet in person on Mondays, Thursdays and Fridays at 6 a.m. at the Globe Public Library, or you can participate independently and record online on the Globe Public Library Walk/Run Club Facebook group. All participants must complete a waiver available from the circulation desk at the Globe Public Library or available for download on the Globe Public Library Walk/Run Club Facebook group. The club is for all ages and abilities; an adult must accompany minors. Dogs who are friendly and get along with others are invited to participate. This time we are starting a literary journey that will run most if not all of this year. We are marching to Mordor. Who will join our fellowship as we take the one ring to the volcano in Mordor? Pick up your log and your ring from Globe Public Library. You can join us at any time. We welcome all at your current level of fitness. We have had one person finish the third leg of this journey.

Spice of the Month is on Thursday, June 15 at 5 p.m. We will be featuring za'atar. Each month we will be introducing a spice. Each spice will have basic information (description, origin, varieties, flavor profile and nutritional facts) and one or more recipes. We will have at least one dish to sample made using that spice. Everyone who comes will then be able to pick up two tablespoons of the spice to use at home in their cooking. We do not want you to bring back the spices; they are yours to keep. Two tablespoons will be given at circulation. There is a limit of one unit of spice per month. This will give you the ability to try a spice to see if you like it before you purchase it for yourself. Please share your experience with these spices with us. We would love to hear how it went.

All these programs are free and brought to you through partnerships with the Friends of the Globe Public Library, the United Fund of Globe-Miami and the AZ Health Zone through the Gila County Health Department.

At-home COVID test kits for people who have been exposed to or are experiencing symptoms of COVID are available at Globe Public Library. Call from the parking lot and we will bring them out to you. We are also a distribution site for brown bag condoms and Naloxone through the Gila County Health Department.

The GREAT SOUL ROBBERY

"In a moment, in a twinkling of the

Be raised incorruptible, and we Shall be changed. For this corruptible

Must put on incorruption and this

Is life a struggle? Is your struggle

Ahab turned his back on Father

GOD forbid you turn your back

Your spirit and flesh become defiled.

The unrighteous never shall

The sinless Kingdom of Father GOD.

With unbound submission to the

Let thy conscience reign,

Value thy BRAIN.

'Tis your undoing – half brain

And half artificial machine.
Master not of thy destiny,

will be introducing a spice.
Each spice will have basic information (description, in their cooking. We do not want you to bring back the spices; they are yours to keep. Two tablespoons will be given at circulation.

There is a limit of one unit will give you the ability to try a spice to see if you like it before you purchase it for yourself. Please share your experience with these spices with us. We would love to hear how it went.

If you want to be sure you are hearing from God, spend time in His Word daily.

If you follow Jesus, you have likely heard the phrase "God's will." It's often mentioned in the context of His having a will for each believer—or of our doing His will, walking in His will, and the like. If we love the Lord, then certainly we want to obey Him (John 14:15). But let's take a look at some of the reasons we might miss His plan for our life.

Handling God's Word Improperly. When our days become jam-packed with commitments and activities, it's easy to have trouble maintaining a steady intake of Scripture. Without spending time in God's Word, we tend to forget what matters to Him. Then there are times that some of us will incorrectly use Scripture to support decisions we've already made. Or, when God's Word does not match what we want, we might ignore it and do things our way.

Picking the Wrong Guide. When making decisions, we sometimes rely too heavily on other people's opinions. We think that the easiest and quickest way to get answers is to ask fellow Christians—or even unbelievers who seem "wise."

Making Scripture your daily companion is the best way not to miss God's plan. Be prepared to spend time reading and listening while the Spirit teaches you what God's will is for your life.

Why we might miss God's will

Yesterday we looked at two reasons we might miss God's will. John 14:26 says the Holy Spirit teaches us all things. So why do we sometimes have trouble understanding His plan?

We make decisions according to emotions. When life gets hard, our instinct is to move away from the source of pain—but in reality, we need to move closer to Jesus. When we figure He couldn't possibly want us to feel this way, we're more prone to take action and hope that we're in His will. But then we're actually focusing on ourselves instead of God's plan.

We focus only on the immediate. Many times we come to God troubled about the choices we or our loved ones are facing.

We do not see how this situation could possibly be His will. Our short-term focus prevents us from seeing the Lord's long-term purposes.

We conduct a superficial search. We can treat finding God's will like a checklist: "Read. Pray. Serve. Give." But that can result in neglecting to give God the time and stillness needed for us to hear from Him (Psalm 46:10). More than simply investing time with the Lord, listening without distraction is also essential.

How much Bible study is required to find out what God wants for us? What amount of prayer? The answer is simple: whatever it takes to hear from Him. He will always answer His children.

Vacation Bible School at Central Heights Baptist

Central Heights Baptist Church would like to invite you to Vacation Bible School, for ages 4 through 5th grade, June 4-8 from 5 p.m. to 7:30 p.m. We are located at 5468 S. Apache Ave. For more information, call (928) 425-5303.

Lord God, Creator of all things, guide our steps and strengthen our hearts, during these months of summer and vacation days. Grant us refreshment of mind and body. We ask this through Christ our Lord.

Wake up

BY DR. DAN MORTON
Contributor

The hardest time I ever had waking up was when I was on bivouac in basic training in the United States Air Force. It was a cold and rainy night in northern California. We had been marching all day and looked forward to at least two hours of uninterrupted sleep. Those in charge had other ideas. About every thirty minutes we were awakened, standing in formation to be told what would happen next. In no way could this ever match combat, but that word crossed my mind. Later in civilian life there were stresses that were as bad, but there seemed to be a profit motive there.

In the Bible we are told of trials and hardships we may encounter and we see them play out with increasing difficulty but always resulting in building us up for later challenges. In civilian life I realized the importance of waking up at 3 a.m. when our chef was away and we had to prepare 400 meals for the day plus do our regular duties. Later, as pastors of a local church, we had no problem preparing 125 meals for a church dinner.

Whenever called on to do some special duty, realize there is a special lesson involved that will not only make life better for the moment but will prove profitable the next time you are so challenged.

The old hymn reminds us, "God is working His purpose out." Enjoy each moment.

HOROSCOPES

ARIES - Mar 21/Apr 20

Being more selective can enhance your life in many different ways, Aries. You often are judged by the company you keep, so think about that when starting new relationships.

TAURUS - Apr 21/May 21

Set up camp on the sofa for the next few days, Taurus. Enjoy the rest and relaxation. You don't have to be productive every minute of the day so don't feel guilty about your R&R.

GEMINI - May 22/June 21

Some interesting information could be coming your way, Gemini. You just need to keep your ear to the ground and open to receive it. Others may want to get in on the news.

CANCER - Jun 22/Jul 22

Cancer, this week you may find it easier to cut out superfluous spending or extravagant behavior than at other times. You may need to exert greater control and discipline.

LEO - Jul 23/Aug 23

There's a fresh cosmic wind blowing your sails, Leo. This gives you all the energy you need to tackle projects or get moving in other ways. Embrace all of this energy.

VIRGO - Aug 24/Sept 22

Your romantic life is about to get even more exciting, Virgo. Date nights are happening with greater frequency and you're likely to enjoy all of the extra attention.

LIBRA - Sept 23/Oct 23

You'll likely feel more at ease having a big group of people around you during the next few days rather than heading out alone. Put away that lone wolf mentality for now.

SCORPIO - Oct 24/Nov 22

Ambitious career goals could have you reevaluating all of the choices you have made thus far, Scorpio. It might be time to venture off on new paths once you figure out the way.

SAGITTARIUS - Nov 23/Dec 21

Sagittarius, the call of the wild is quite strong right now. This means you might be right at home on a hiking trip or a rafting trip. Make your plans and bring a friend.

CAPRICORN - Dec 22/Jan 20

Capricorn, rather than being light-hearted, conversations could take a turn to the more serious, especially as they pertain to a health condition for someone you love.

AQUARIUS - Jan 21/Feb 18

Aquarius, don't try to take on too many things yourself. You need to know when to ask for help this week, especially as your schedule gets even more filled up.

PISCES - Feb 19/Mar 20

This is the perfect time to get more organized, Pisces. Try to fit in time to sort and clean among all the other things on your itinerary.
