Miami Library class presents art piece

The Miami Memorial Library's Music and Movement class worked on a collaborative art project over the course of two weeks, painting squares the first week and piecing them together in the second to form an art piece entitled "I Love Music." It was then presented by some of the Music and Movement participants and their caregivers to Joanna Lee Twenty Three. Blood donors needed April 25 in Miami

Your donation of a pint of blood can save up to three lives, and the need for donors is so great that both of Arizona's largest nonprofit blood banks scheduled April dates in Globe-Miami. Vitalant staff and volunteers return to the Cobre Valley Golf Course in Miami, where Freeport-Mc-

MoRan hosts a blood drive Tuesday, April 25 in the Copper Room at 4877 Cypress Way, from 8 a.m. to noon. Schedule your appointment conveniently online at vitalant.org (search by zip code 85501) or call 877-258-4825.

Vitalant supplies and donates blood to 62 hospitals in Arizona and urges Globe-Miami donors to help offset a statewide critical blood shortage. Donors with Type O blood are especially needed because that universal type of blood is used to treat emergencies and trauma. Questions about giving blood, or a Power Red donation? Read more at vitalant.org.

How often can you give blood? According to the Red Cross, "Wait at least eight weeks (56 days) between donations of whole blood, or 16 weeks (112 days) between Power Red donations. Whole blood donors can donate up to 6 times a year."

Ghosts of Globe “ParaCon” scheduled for April 22

Globe-Miami has become a destination for those fascinated with the paranormal. Famous local “haunts” range from the historic Gila County Jail built in 1910 to the courthouse (which now houses the Cobre Valley Center for the Arts), Bullion Plaza Museum in Miami, the old depot train station, Broad Street buildings that once housed brothels and the massive YMCA building in Miami. Guided ghost hunts and more intense “five-hour lock-down” midnight paranormal investigations have proven so popular, they’ve become monthly events – and helpful fundraisers for these historic buildings.

Saturday, April 22 brings a full day of paranormal adventures with the Ghosts of Globe “ParaCon” in downtown Globe at the depot – with guest speakers, authors, psychics, paranormal teams and workshops. Want to have your tarot cards read? Buy crystals or anime? Bring the kiddos on a family-friendly ghost hunt? Admission to the vendor area is free; speakers and daytime guided tours are $10 – or buy a day-long all-access pass for $50. Tickets are also available for nighttime ghost hunts from 6:45 - 8:45 p.m. in the historic jail, depot, Bullion Plaza or YMCA – or your choice between special four-hour 7 - 11 p.m. “VIP intense paranormal investigation with celebrity guests” in a former brothel, in the courthouse, or from 9 p.m. - 1 a.m. in the jail, depot, YMCA or Bullion Plaza. Complete details are online at gogparacon.info.

Guest Speakers

The special guest speaker is Arizona-based author and journalist Debe Branning, author of the new book “Haunted Globe” and a dozen others (“Sleeping with Ghosts” and “Haunted Phoenix” among them). Featured on cable TV’s Ghost Adventures, she is also a founder of MVD Ghostchasers – and on Saturday from 12:20-12:50 p.m. she’s at the depot talking about dowsing rods. Others on Saturday’s schedule include:

- 10 a.m. Kendra Ashley
- 10:35 a.m. Rita Olsen: Communicating With Spirits
- 11:10 a.m. Damian Harris: Types Of Hauntings
- 11:45 a.m. Tom Foster: Copper Corridor History
- 12:20 p.m. Onae Shinn:

Live Audience Reading (Onae is a tarot reader, psychic, medium and pastor)

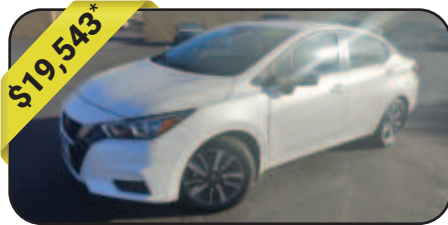

- 12:55 p.m. Sonoran Paranormal Case Files
- 2:05 p.m. Leland Lavender: Noise Reduction - Scouting A Spectrum Unheard. Based in Arizona’s White Mountains region, Paranormal Scout Investigators (P.S.I.) take inspiration for their name from the Apache scouts, finding and documenting paranormal events in the White Mountains area and beyond.
- 2:40 p.m. Unearthing the Supernatural, a groundbreaking Native American paranormal investigative team that blends ancient teachings and modern technology.

- 3:15 p.m. Candice Norton Reiki workshop. Founder of SPlofAz, Candice is a reiki practitioner as well as an empath/medium.
- 3:50 p.m. Tony & Cherie Rathman: Sounds Of The Dead. Learn about their Staticom communication method and possibly hear actual EVPs from beyond.

Celebrate National Library Week April 23-29

COURTESY IMAGE

Globe Public Library encourages all community members to visit the library during National Library Week, April 23-29, to explore all they have to offer.

Most people know about the wealth of stories available at the library, from picture books and large print to audiobooks and ebooks. But there's so much more to the story of libraries.

Libraries are welcoming spaces that bring communities together for entertainment, education and connection through book clubs, storytimes, movie nights, crafting classes, lectures and more. Globe Public Library offers a wide array of programs, classes and resources, including Spice of the Month with a spice library, Culture Passes, Youth Advisory Committee and Literary Journeys, a virtual trip through a story's setting with walking goals, Maus-riter role playing game, Summer Reading and so much more. Programs are added frequently based on requests from those who come to the library and participate. We also collaborate with AZ Health Zone, the University of Arizona Cooperative Extension GOWA and AZYP for programs.

Libraries also play a critical role in the economic vitality of communities by providing internet and technology access, literacy skills, and support for job seekers, small businesses and entrepreneurs. Globe Public Library supports Globe, Arizona with services such as faxing, photocopying, technology help, online resources to assist with cover letter and resume writing, and parent education classes. Also available at the Globe Public Library are NARCAN, condoms, COVID tests and feminine hygiene products from the Gila County Health and Emergency Services Department.

If you have not checked out Globe Public Library lately, you are missing the full story. Stop by for a visit to celebrate with them during National Library Week, April 23-29. Follow Globe Public Library on Facebook and Instagram, and the hashtag #National Library Week to join the online celebration.

First sponsored in 1958, National Library Week is a national observance sponsored by the American Library Association and libraries of all types across the country each April.

OBITUARIES

Vesta Barrowdale

Vesta Mae Barrowdale passed away peacefully on April 9, 2023, at the age of 70 with her family by her side.

Vesta was born on April 6, 1953 in Miami, Arizona. She was the oldest of 6 children born to her parents, Betty and Bob Huggins. Vesta grew up in Miami, Arizona and attended Miami High School.

Vesta married the love of her life and soulmate, Reginald John Barrowdale, in June 1981. They built an amazing life together, each owning their own businesses, raising their beautiful children and taking an active role in the lives of their grandchildren.

Vesta spent her early career working in the Morenci and Miami mines. She was one of the few women to work in the tank house and smelter. In later years she became a prominent member of the community when she founded Mid-State Childcare and Nutrition, a non-profit to help provide meals for children. She was the director of Mid-State from 1990 until the time of her retirement in 2006.

Upon retirement she traveled the country and the world with her husband and family, volunteered for local non-profits, and excelled at being a professional grandparent and great-grandparent. Her hobbies included scrapbooking, quilting, sewing, crafting and camping. She was a stellar hostess and homemaker. She enjoyed cooking gourmet meals for her family, and she showed her love to her babies and grandbabies through her comfort food. Her Christmas parties were legendary, and she spent her whole year planning gifts and festivities to make Christmas and holidays special for her family.

She had a quick wit, infectious sense of humor and lust for life. She brought joy and laughter to those around her. She had a warm and inviting home where everyone was loved and welcomed. She was generous and cared deeply for those in need. She was a fierce advocate for her children and grandchildren, and always worked to improve the lives of those around her and help where she could.

Vesta is survived by her loving husband of 42 years, Reginald John Barrowdale; children Jhawn (Deanna) Barrowdale, ValMarie Caporicci and Kristi Hunt; grandchildren Daniel Van Pelt, Vesta (Rene) Insam, Tamra (Dustin) Wilson, Lisa (Ryan Milling) Caporicci, Gina (Caleb Klein) Caporicci, Shelby (Jacqueline) Barrowdale, Brittany (Charles) Porter and Shawn (Emily) Barrowdale; 9 great-grandchildren and 1 great-great-grandchild; siblings Jim Huggins, Ray (Ruthie) Huggins, Rebecca Hartwell, Josh (Lisa) Huggins and Leonard Strom; and many nieces, nephews and friends.

She was preceded in death by sons Leonard Dewayne, Shawn and Johnny Barrowdale; daughter Christy Barrowdale; grandson Christian Barrowdale; son-in-law Louis Caporicci; parents Betty and Bob Huggins; and sister-in-law Shirley Strom.

Vesta will be deeply missed by all who knew her. Services will be held privately with immediate family.

Gerald Lee Philpot Sr.

Gerald Lee Philpot Sr. was born Oct. 23, 1960, in Miami Inspiration Hospital. He was the seventh child out of eight children born to Mr. Junior DC Philpot and Mrs. Stella Mae Philpot.

He attended Miami Schools and met and married Sharon Imhoff in 1981; together they have three sons, Loren, Gerald Jr. and Randall.

His number one goal was to serve God and provide for his family, so he attended RSI refrigeration school shortly after his second child was born. He worked for Kwik Kool Refrigeration, then moved his family to the valley where Randall was born.

Wanting to be close again with family and friends, he took a job with Miami School District and moved his family back home. He eventually went to work for Cypress Miami Mining. His desire was to own and operate his own business and he started Mountain Air Heating and Cooling, which he ran for many years. After selling his business he took a job with Gila County in the weatherization department. A few years later he started another HVAC business, Gila Energy Management, and then added Green Tree Construction. He was an owner and operator for 20 years until his retirement in 2014.

Jerry enjoyed camping and fishing in the great outdoors with family and friends. Throughout his life he also enjoyed playing his guitars, listening to music, coaching his son's baseball teams and riding his motorcycle. He had a love for people and was known for his big heart. Anybody that knew Jerry knew they could call on him anytime for anything and he would be there.

Gerald is preceded in death by his parents, the late Junior DC and Stella Mae Philpot, his brother Nolan Philpot (Joy) and sister-in-law Glenda. Gerald is kept in memory by his siblings Gary, (late Glenda), David (Frances), Kathy (Joe Wilson), Patsy (Gary Minefee), Tony and Paul.

Jerry will be lovingly remembered by his wife Sharon of 41 years; his children Loren (Stephanie), Gerald Jr. (Ingrid) and Randall; his grandchildren Kaetlyn, Gavin, Santiago, Ethan, Callan, Isaac, Sebastian, Declan, Maximiliano and Charlotte Rose; and numerous nieces, nephews and cousins.

Celebration of life will be held Saturday, April 22, 2023, at Grapevine Group site, Mallard Loop, Roosevelt Lake, Arizona at 12 p.m.

Louis D. Avila

Louis was born on April 21, 1945 in Claypool, Az. Louis attended schools in Globe, and was a proud Globe High School graduate. Upon graduation in 1963, he served in the United States Marine Corps. Louis worked for the City of Flagstaff. He moved to Sierra Vista and drove a military bus on Fort Huachuca base for the troops in training. After many years of driving he retired. He is survived by his wife Myrna Avila of 42 years, daughter Ana Avila, son Albert Avila, sister Rosemary A. Toscano (Vivi), brother Johnny Boy Serrano II, and many loving family members and friends. Deadlines for Obituaries

Obituaries are due Thursday by 4:30 p.m. for the Copper Country News and 8 a.m. on Friday for the Arizona Silver Belt.

Keith Kennedy

1,000 miles from his hometown to college. At Baylor, he pledged Kappa Omega Tau (KOT) and served as its president. After college, he attended his beloved Baylor University School of Law. Upon graduation from law school, he practiced law first in Waco, Texas for almost 10 years before moving to Dallas to work as the personal attorney for his close, personal friend and client, John F. Eulich. Keith served as general counsel to Mr. Eulich's family for 40+ years, later being joined by his second son, Matt, as his law partner. Most of Keith's best friends were work colleagues that he would verbally joust with. He was very slow to anger, very quick-witted and always positive no matter the circumstances.

Counselor to all including family and friends. Committed to family and employees. Always working to help others. Keith was the consummate gentleman and expert peace broker/get the cart out of the ditch kind of guy. No challenge too big or too small. He loved to brag about his legal conquests, which were many. He treated all of his clients and others with a great deal of respect and a just pinch of humility.

Keith loved fly-fishing with his two boys, Brett and Matt, in Alaska every year for 10 years. He had a love of the arts, collecting paintings from artists all over the country. He supported his daughter Gracie's aptitude for art and design. He encouraged her throughout her career and was always sending her inspiration. He had a passion for collecting historical documents and first edition book collections from a quaint bookstore on Bond St. in Mayfair, London. He could always be found with a smile on his face and was especially fond of spending time with his adored wife, Caren, at their small ranch in Sanger or second home in Phoenix. He loved his lapdog, Casper. We will miss his shady 1970s era mustache and roughhousing from when we were kids. We'll miss his sheepish grin like he knew something and did not want to tell.

Keith was preceded in death by his parents; his sister, Louise; and his daughter, Claire. He is survived by his wife, Caren; his children, Brett Kennedy, Matt Kennedy and Gracie Kennedy; and his grandchildren Reid, Lily, Brown and Sallie Frances. He will be celebrated at a private family service at Sparkman Hillcrest. Keith was loved and will be missed by many.

In his memory, donations may be made to the Circle Ten Council of the Boy Scouts of America and the American Cancer Society.

by his success and the great respect of his clients and peers.

Keith was raised in the small mining town of Globe. He was involved in the Boy Scouts and played on the high school basketball team. He enrolled at Baylor University where he was a business major. He routinely hitchhiked nearly

Meeting to explore a Miami community theater

The public is invited to come out and help create a community theater in Miami Thursday night, April 20. Volunteers are needed to contribute time, ideas and money. The main event of Third Thursday Think Tank Theater will be 6-7 p.m. at the YMCA building, on the corner of Sullivan Street and Miami Avenue; come early, stay late and plan to participate. This will be an open forum with no particular agenda, like an open mic night – sign up, first come first served. It is planned as a bilingual, multicultural event to gauge and generate interest in a monthly get-together, to entertain, share, teach and learn from our friends and neighbors.

Evening movie fun at Globe Public Library

Fun for the whole family. We will be showing movies in the meeting room at 5 p.m. on Friday, April 21 and 28. Popcorn will be provided. Bring your favorite movie snacks and enjoy the movie. Children must be accompanied by an adult. Smoking and alcohol are not allowed.

For a listing of the movies please contact the Globe Public Library at (928) 425-6111.

All these programs are free and brought to you through partnerships with the Friends of the Globe Public Library and the United Fund of Globe-Miami.

Local theater group stages successful Broadway play

The Copper Cities Community Players presents “The 25th Annual Putnam County Spelling Bee” on May 12, 13, 19 and 20 at the Old Courthouse Theater in Globe. This musical comedy pits a colorfully zany group of junior high students against each other in a spell-off in fictional Putnam County.

There’s William Barfee (be sure to pronounce his name like “parfait”) who spells words with his foot. In stiff competition is over-achiever Marcy Park, a martial arts baton twirler. Then there’s home-schooled Leaf Cooneybear, whose overprotective mother sent him to the bee in a helmet, just in case.

These are a few of the quirky characters who sing and dance their way up to the microphone as they attempt to outspell each other and members of the audience. All of the actors in “The 25th Annual Putnam County Spelling Bee” are from the local area. You’ll spot some familiar faces from previous Community Players productions, but there’s newer talent as well. Evening performances are at 7 p.m. with a matinee on Saturday, May 13 at 2 p.m. Tickets for evening performances are $20 and available at the Cobre Valley Center for the Arts. Please contact JoNell Brantley at 928-425-8111 for more information.

Experiencing inner peace

Remembering that God's in control is the key to a calm heart.

Have you ever fallen asleep on a long trip? Jesus did. Luke tells us that one time Jesus and the disciples got on a boat to reach the other side of a lake, and Jesus fell asleep. The next thing the disciples knew, they were engulfed in a storm, and the one person powerful enough to protect them was blissfully unaware. The disciples panicked and woke Him.

Jesus has promised to give us His peace (John 14:27)—this is the very same peace that enabled Him to sleep through a storm. Without His tranquility, we feel helpless and afraid like the disciples. But with it, we can experience inner calm in the midst of hardship.

Believing in God's sovereignty is the key to a peaceful heart. In their panic, the disciples believed that a sleeping

Jesus wasn't in control of their circumstances. But we must remember that He is always in control—even in times of difficulty. When we rest in the knowledge that God is in charge, we can exchange anxiety for peace.

Jesus doesn't want us to be weighed down by fear. He wants to share His peace with us. Are you trusting in His control?

WORSHIP

A peaceful heart

Entrusting our worries to God removes their power to cause anxiety.

Sometimes circumstances trigger our anxiety, but other times it's an inner turmoil we wrestle. Regardless of the source, our angst is no match for God's peace, "which surpasses all comprehension" (Phil. 4:7). When you're feeling anxious, remember ...

God made you on purpose. Our Father chose the time and place we each would be born (Acts 17:26), and He gave us our personality, talents and spiritual gifts. So consider what God has chosen specifically for you and give thanks.

God has a plan for your life. Scripture promises that embracing the Father's specific path for your life will bring satisfaction and peace (Proverbs 3:5-6).

God adopts believers into His family. Once you belong to Him, nothing can change the fact that you are His (John 10:28).

God forgives when you confess. Some feelings of inner turmoil come from guilt or shame over wrongdoing. But when you confess your sin and change direction, God forgives you. Then your conscience can become clear (1 John 1:9).

Peace is within reach when you remember your identity in Christ. Next time you're feeling anxious, pause for a moment to pray and meditate over these four truths. Taking your eyes off yourself and fixing them on Jesus should help, even if it's necessary to repeat the process periodically.

Presence

BY DR. DAN MORTON
Contributor

Early in 1954 I was working at the fire station in Scottsdale, Arizona. My assignment at that time was to be part of the crew for the ambulance. This was before EMTs and paramedics, and our training was basically first aid taught by the American Red Cross.

One call was to transport a patient from the Pima Reservation at Salt River to the Indian Hospital in Phoenix. The patient was a young girl about sixteen. Her injuries were not life-threatening, but all of this was new to her and she was frightened. I was riding in the back with her. At one point she extended her hand and asked me to hold it. I did and could feel the anxiety disappear. Conversation was minimal, but the holding of her hand was the best "treatment." When we arrived at the hospital, it was difficult for her to let go.

Years later, as Chaplain for Canyon Fire in Globe, Arizona, I arrived at the home of a friend who was suffering from severe complications. We greeted each other and he asked me to sit on his bed. He, too, extended his hand for me to shake. He wouldn't let go. The medics arrived, did their assessment and prepared to transport to Cobre Valley Regional Medical Center. He very reluctantly let go. He passed two days later.

In my years of experience with people in traumatic situations, having a friend present can mean so much. Can you extend a hand?
