Super Bowl 57: Chiefs, Eagles meet for title in Arizona

By DAVID BRANDT
AP Sports Writer

Patrick Mahomes finally got the best of Joe Burrow. All he needed was a little shove.

Harrison Butker made a 45-yard field goal with 3 seconds left — after Cincinnati's Joseph Ossai was flagged for a 15-yard penalty for shoving Mahomes after he was out of bounds — and the Chiefs beat the Bengals 23-20 in the AFC championship game to make it back to the Super Bowl.

There is no shortage of storylines: Kansas City coach Andy Reid goes against his old team — which he led to Super Bowl 39 — in a game that's also the first matchup of Black starting quarterbacks in the Super Bowl with Mahomes and Philadelphia's Jalen Hurts.

On top of that, there's a brother-against-brother showdown between Chiefs tight end Travis Kelce and Philadelphia center Jason Kelce.

"Officially done being a Chiefs fan this season!!" Jason Kelce tweeted immediately after the Chiefs won.

The Chiefs have been making deep postseason runs on a regular basis ever since Mahomes came to town as the franchise quarterback.

This was their fifth straight trip to the AFC title game and will be their third Super Bowl appearance in that span. They beat the 49ers for the NFL title in the 2019 season, but lost to the Bucs the following season.

The Eagles clobbered the Niners 31-7 in the NFC title game earlier Sunday. They've looked dominant in the playoffs so far, also beating the New York Giants 38-7 in the divisional round.

Philadelphia is back in the Super Bowl five years after beating the New England Patriots 41-33 on Feb. 4, 2018.

Now a mostly new generation of Eagles — led by coach Nick Sirianni and Hurts — will come to Arizona to try and win another title.

The Chiefs-Bengals game looked as if it was going to overtime before Ossai's ill-advised play. Mahomes — who was playing on a badly sprained ankle — was running to get a first down in the final seconds as Ossai desperately tried to track him down.

Mahomes was out of bounds when Ossai gave him a shove, sending both players tumbling to the turf. The ensuing 15-yard penalty was enough to push Butker into field-goal range and the kick split the uprights.

A distraught Ossai sat on the bench with his head in his hands, well after the game was over.

The Bengals and Chiefs were playing for the fourth time in less than 400 days and Cincinnati had won the previous three meetings — all by three points. This one was decided by a field goal, too, and all Burrow could do was watch.

The Bengals lost to the Rams in last year's Super Bowl and they just missed another chance at returning to the title game.

NO DRAMA IN NFC

Odds makers thought fans were in for some close conference championship games.

They'll have to settle for a 50% success rate.

The NFC title game was a blowout. Niners rookie quarterback Brock Purdy was injured in the first quarter when Eagles linebacker Haason Reddick drilled his right arm on a play that was ruled a fumble. The Eagles recovered that fumble and the injury proved to be a game-changer.

With Purdy hurt, San Francisco turned to 36-year-old journeyman Josh Johnson, who couldn't do much before eventually leaving with a concussion. Purdy came back into the game but could barely throw, and the Eagles cruised to the win.

The 49ers dealt with quarterback injuries all season, losing Trey Lance and Jimmy Garoppolo before turning to Purdy, a seventh-round draft pick out of Iowa State. Purdy stepped into a starter's role in December and won his first seven games before Sunday's injury.

Here's a few things to know about the upcoming

Switching up salsas for the Super Bowl: 3 recipes with fruit

By KATIE WORKMAN

Associated Press

Certain foods are inextricably linked with game day parties: chicken wings, nachos, chili, guacamole ... and salsa.

Bowls and bowls of salsa.

And while you can always pop open a jar, homemade salsa is extremely simple to make. The only skill it requires is a willingness to chop, mince and dice.

Everyone loves a classic tomato-based salsa, but if you want to shake things up a bit, there's no easier way to liven up your spread than to play with different fruit-based salsas.

If you take a stroll down the salsa aisle in a supermarket, you'll see firsthand how deep America's love affair with salsa runs. And while there are dozens of tomato-based choices, you can also find more exotic offerings, many of them fruit-forward. And those can become inspiration for our homemade versions.

Popular salsa variations include peach, mango, pineapple, black bean and corn, avocado, and green tomatillo.

What game day foods does salsa go with? What DOESN'T salsa go with? Clearly, it works well with chips (potato, tortilla, pita and so on). Definitely nachos, tacos, burritos, quesadillas. Ditto an assortment of raw veggies, from carrots to cucumber slices to planks of jicama. A scoop of salsa on a bowl of chili is a terrific contrasting topper. Chicken wings benefit from a dunk in a bright spicy salsa. And a spoonful is excellent atop a burger or slider.

So, let's wow our friends and make our own. Here are three quick and easy fruit salsas that will elevate game day and still fit right in.

PINEAPPLE-MINT-JALAPENO SALSA

This so, so pretty and colorful salsa is truly refreshing, even with the kick from the jalapenos (and of course the amount of jalapeño can be adjusted as desired). The sweetness of the pineapple is a bright surprising base. If you use two different-colored bell peppers, the salsa gets that much more colorful, but if you use just one pepper of any color that's absolutely fine, too. Try this with teriyaki beef skewers or pulled pork sandwiches.

In a medium bowl, com-

bine 2 cups ¼-inch diced pineapple, ½ cup diced bell pepper (any color or mix of colors), 1 to 2 tablespoons chopped mint, 1 teaspoon minced jalapeno (or more to taste), 1 tablespoon lime juice and salt to taste.

TROPICAL FRUIT SALSA

Besides the usual game-day menu suspects, this is great with fish (think fish tacos) and on top of grilled chicken.

In a medium bowl, combine 1/2 cup finely diced pineapple, ½ cup finely diced mango, ½ cup finely diced papaya (or additional mango), ½ cup finely diced red bell pepper, ½ cup finely diced onion, 1 kiwi peeled and finely diced, 1 teaspoon minced jalapeno, 2 teaspoons minced cilantro, the juice of 1 lime, ¼ teaspoon red pepper flakes or to taste, pinch cayenne pepper, and salt to taste.

SPICY PEAR SALSA

Also remember this next time you make a roasted pork loin or cook a turkey breast. The pomegranate seeds are optional, but they sure do offer a lot of visual appeal, not to mention crunchy pops of sweet tart flavor. You can use whatever pears you have around, making sure they are ripe but still firm so they hold their shape when diced. Try Bosc, Anjou or Bartlett.

In a medium bowl, combine 2 diced ripe-but-firm pears, a minced ½ red onion, a couple of tablespoons pomegranate seeds, 1 teaspoon minced jalapeno, 1 tablespoon minced fresh cilantro, 1 tablespoon lemon juice, 1 tablespoon orange juice, and salt and pepper to taste.

Community Working Group meeting planned in Superior, February 21

The next Community Working Group (CWG) meeting for the Resolution Copper mining project, located near Superior, Arizona, will be Tuesday, Feb. 21, 2023 at 6 p.m. This is a change from the normal Wednesday meeting schedule. An update from BHP, which holds 45% ownership of the Resolution mine, will be the main focus of the meeting. Currently, BHP is working with the Arizona Department of Environmental Quality (ADEQ) on the Superior Voluntary Remediation Program (VRP) to determine the level of soil remediation required for certain properties in the area. Also, ongoing discussions to reach accord on a Good Neighbor Agreement between the Community Working Group and Resolution Copper will continue. Monthly meetings of the group have been moved from the Superior Chamber of Commerce to Town of Superior Offices, Library Room at 199 N. Lobb Ave.

About the Community Working Group
The CWG focuses on potential environmental impact issues, science and policy, economic development and growth, and the pros and cons of the proposed development of the Resolution Copper mine, which could become one of the world's largest copper mining ventures. Members include residents and stakeholders from the Town of Superior, Queen Valley and nearby communities. Monthly meetings of the group are now held in the Town of Superior office complex library at 199 N. Lobb Ave. Topics include environmental stewardship, transportation, education, health, safety, natural resource issues, air quality, community investments, recreational changes and other related subjects. The public is welcome and encouraged to attend these meetings. For more information on the CWG, please visit the CWG website at <http://SuperiorAZCWG.org/>. The site also posts summaries of all past meetings, presentations and other related articles.

About Resolution Copper

The Resolution Copper project is a proposed underground mine 60 miles east of Phoenix, Arizona, near the town of Superior. The project is a joint venture owned by Rio Tinto (55%) and BHP (45%). The ore deposit lies nearly 7,000 feet below the earth's surface. It represents one of the most significant untapped copper deposits today. The mine has the potential to supply nearly 25% of US copper demand.

Mexico Consul General's visit to Miami

On January 24 the Town of Miami had the privilege of hosting a meeting at Billion Plaza Cultural Center & Museum with the Consul General of Mexico in Phoenix (Consul General de Mexico en Phoenix), Jorge Mendoza Yescas, and his aides. Four members of the Miami Town Council were present, as well as the town manager and some of his staff. Also there, representing the Globe-Miami Chamber of Commerce, was Angel Ruiz. Christine Duarte and her friends prepared a buffet of delicious red chile con carne, beans and rice, and of course tortillas. The main topic at the meeting was how the Consulate General wishes to reach out to the Globe-Miami area and bring us closer as neighbors from the west of Phoenix. Also, it was mentioned that the Consulate General wishes to start an outreach program here locally, in which individuals could receive information on various topics such as work visas, medical information and benefits. Services that would have meant a trip to the Valley would now not require a visit to the Mexican Consulate in Phoenix. The Consulate General also mentioned a plan to have a gathering somewhere at some time in the future to further expand on the aforementioned information. All in all, the meeting was very cordial y muy amable.

Many thanks to all, muchísimas gracias a todos.
Mayor Jose (Angel) Medina Sr.

Globe Public Library is hosting an after-hours game night for people 18 and up. These game nights will be held Wednesday evenings at 5 p.m. These are cooperative or competitive board games that use strategy. If you have a favorite you would like to share, bring it along. Invite your friends, bring a snack for yourself or to share, and enjoy a game night for adults.

If you love karaoke but want to be able to do it somewhere without alcohol, here is your chance. Globe Public Library is hosting a karaoke club for people 16 and up. This club meets weekly on Thursday at 7 p.m. Sing with us Thursday night.

Do you have unfinished projects you want to work on? Would you like to spend time with friends who are also working on something? Want to do a mystery craft? Crafternoon is the place for you. Every Friday at 3 p.m. we will have something for you. Everything from bullet journaling and card-making to painting and needlecraft, you can work on it here.

Spice of the Month is on February 16 at 5 p.m. We will be featuring Chinese Five Spice. Each month we will be introducing a spice.

Each spice will have basic information (description, origin, varieties, flavor profile and nutritional facts) and one or more recipes. We will have at least one dish to sample made using that spice. Everyone who comes will then be able to pick up two tablespoons of the spice to use at home in their cooking. We do not want you to bring back the spices; they are yours to keep. There is a limit of one unit of spice per month. This will give you the ability to try a spice to see if you like it before you purchase it for yourself. Please share your experience with these spices with us. We would love to hear how it went.

Saturday, February 25 at 2 p.m. the Book Club will be discussing "The Banned Bookshop of Maggie Banks" by Shauna Robinson. Everyone should be able to pick up a book for March. If there are leftover books, they will be made available to those who did not make it to the Book Club.

The Library Committee is looking for members. If you live in the city limits and want to be part of this City Committee, ask for an application at City Hall or the Library.

Living in bondage

When we stop listening to the Holy Spirit, the temptation can be strong to meet our needs with sinful options.

Freedom is one of humanity's most prized treasures. Yet every human being is born in captivity to sin. Jesus said anyone who commits sin is a slave to it (John 8:34). The only way to be set free is if the Lord releases you. Salvation is the permanent liberation spoken about here, but the Savior also continually sets believers free from the sins that entangle them.

Ungodly habits typically begin as an attempt to fulfill a desire or need in the wrong way. If feelings of guilt come, we may quickly rationalize them away. Over time, we become desensitized to the conviction of the Holy Spirit and the ongoing trespass becomes a comfort. Eventually it controls us, and we feel powerless to stop.

As believers, however, we're never without strength, because the Holy Spirit indwells us. With His help, we're no longer slaves to sin but instead become slaves of righteousness (Romans 6:12-19).

Take an honest look at your life. Are there any habits that own you? If so, it's time to fight the good fight. As you submit yourself in obedience to God, He'll begin to set you free.

WORSHIP

A restful night

BY DR. DAN MORTON
Contributor

For many years my wife and I were “on call” with local emergency services. It seemed that two o’clock in the morning was a common time for a crisis. We finally learned that if we went to bed at eight o’clock we could get a few hours of rest. Now we are retired from such calls and can sleep like most people do.

However, I find my mind waking up in the middle of the night with the challenge of an unresolved issue from the day. Only when that matter is resolved can my peaceful slumber continue. So I get up and act on it or plan the day that lies ahead.

Often there are thoughts that may become articles. These I write down legibly and in sufficient detail that can be completed in the morning. Experience has proved that even the best ideas will not be remembered when the sun rises.

Science has shown us that our internal clock is more important than the one on the bedside table. We admit that is right when in states that go to daylight saving time, our bodies take several nights to adjust forward or backward. Politicians bring up bills twice each year to resolve this issue, but they end up going to sleep in a committee and are forgotten for six months.

Perhaps we can take matters into our own hands and leave the alarm clock set to our internal clock and ignore the rest of the country.

Valentine Dinner and Dance

Holy Angels’ annual Valentine Dinner and Dance will be held at the Parish Hall, 151 E. Sycamore in Globe, on Saturday, February 11. The menu includes appetizers and prime rib or bourbon chicken. Appetizers will be served from 5:30 to 6 p.m., with dinner from 6 to 7 and the dance from 7 to 10. Music will be provided by Neto Vasquez and Imagine.

Tickets are $50 per person, and can be purchased at the church office Monday thru Thursday from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. For tickets or more information call Marie at 928-200-0559.

Go to the ant

God tells us in His Word that we can learn much from His creation.

God is a masterful Creator. He has integrated many of His principles into the fabric of nature so we can learn about Him by observing His handiwork (Psalm 19:1-6). If you desire wisdom, look outdoors for His lessons.

Of course, the outdoors sometimes comes inside. If you have ever battled ants in your kitchen or pantry, wisdom probably isn’t the first trait you’d attribute to them—you would likely choose a description more like determination. But to the lazy person, God points out these tiny creatures as an example of wise living. Simply consider how many characteristics of the ant would be smart for people to adopt; preparation, cooperation, perseverance, diligence, unity and the list goes on. So interacting with righteous men isn’t the only way to acquire wisdom. God also wants us to observe the lowly ant, which He designed to work in community.

There’s much to learn from the created world. Our quest for wisdom is to be rooted in Scripture and covered in prayer. But don’t overlook the many lessons unfolding right outside the front door. Ask God for eyes that truly see (Mark 8:18). Then take every chance to grow in understanding so your capacity to live by His principles will be strengthened.

A Valentine’s Day Prayer for True Love

Dear God, Help me today to understand what love really means. I need a love that’s big enough to include all of us. Big enough for the dating and engaged couples, of course, with their giddy daydreams of a future together.
