abundant repast. The stated goal of the book club, when it was formed, was for women to “use their minds and to circulate literature throughout the community.” We continue to support the Globe Public Library as was the intent in 1933 when the women put on their Sunday best, gloves and a hat, and met in each other’s homes for a delightful afternoon of literacy, friendship, laughter and food.

Each month one member reviews a book that may be enlightening, fun or both. Many of the books shared are nonfiction, but that is by choice, not club rules.

Do you enjoy reading? Think you might enjoy sharing with other book lovers? Give us a call, Geneva Gilmer 480-204-5974 or Emilie Kanon 928-812-4514. However, don’t expect to see hats or gloves.

Shayne Phillips at First Friday

By C.F. YANKOVICH
Staff Reporter

If you are interested in chivalry, sword-play or costuming and would like to indulge your interest, you want to talk with Shayne Phillips of the Adrian Empire. For the past few months, he has shown up to discuss his passion for things medieval at the vendors area at Globe's First Fridays. The group is a North American-based educational and social organization dedicated to studying and recreating the skills and arts of European culture from 793 to 1625 C.E.

Phillips is establishing a chapter of the group in Globe and invites you to find out more about joining at First Friday on January 6 or at a planning session and fighter practice meeting on Saturday, January 7 at the Globe soccer fields from 5 to 7 p.m. For a list of equipment required to participate in fighter practice or more information on the Adrian Empire, contact Phillips at (602) 743-4043.

What a wonderful community we live in!!

All of us here at Judy's Cookhouse would like to say a BIG thank you to The Legion riders from Henry Berry post #4 of Globe.

For about six years they have teamed up with Judy's Christmas Cheer program. They start by doing a motorcycle run in October and end it with tip a legion rider night here at Judy's. It is a lot of fun, all while raising money for our community. Then they donate the money they have earned and (usually add to it) to our Christmas program that helps families have a better Christmas.

Another BIG shout out to the Globe and Miami Police that came in full force for our Tip an Officer Night, to wind down the evening with our annual raffle. It was a huge success! Globe and Miami Police officers did an amazing job. They went above and beyond this year making this Christmas cheer an amazing night. But only because our community came together to help in anyway they could.

Also thank you so much to St. Vincent de Paul's of Holy Angels of Globe, for providing dinners to over 25 family's... THANK YOU ALL!

Lastly, I would like to thank my crew at Judy's for all they do as well!!! It warms my heart to see the compassion and the giving spirit of EVERYONE involved.

The JH Coates Gallery exhibits works in memory of Alicia Olive Hue Jones, with proceeds to benefit the Miami Arts Commission

The JH Coates Gallery currently has on display an exhibit in memory of Alicia Olive Hue Jones. The show is a collection of over 20 of Alicia's artworks.

Alicia, or Olive as she liked to be called, had been an active part of the Miami arts community years ago, but was sadly lost at too young an age earlier this year. Olive's unique style produced some emotionally charged, beautiful and intriguing mixed media paintings that are now on display for the community to enjoy.

The JH Coates Gallery organized the show, not only in memory of Alicia but also as a benefit to the Miami Arts Commission, a local nonprofit organization. All proceeds from the sales will be donated to MAC by the gallery. During the opening weekend of the show, all of the artwork was purchased by Alicia's cousin Stephanie Drouin and then bequeathed to the Miami Arts Commission.

With proceeds from the donation made by JH Coates Gallery, the commission is discussing a memorial fund for future arts education programs. Donations in Alicia/Olive's name may be made to Miami Arts Commission and sent to the address below.

In memory of Alicia Olive Hue Jones is on display now through February 4 at the JH Coates Gallery, 418 Sullivan St. in Miami. The gallery is open Saturdays and Sundays 11-4.

Could there possibly be a more direct and personal way to help others? More than a dozen healthy donors are needed for our community's next blood drive at the Globe-Miami Elks lodge near Denny's Jan. 6 (Friday) from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. Call 1-800-RED-CROSS to reserve one of the appointments, or pick your choice of times and schedule yourself conveniently online at redcrossblood.org. All healthy donors are welcome, and giving blood is safe. Pre-arranged appointments are required in order to help Red Cross staff and Elks Lodge volunteers schedule the most efficient drive day possible. Type-O blood is especially needed. Type-O is often used in trauma situations, especially Type-O negative, which can be transfused with any blood type.

Appointments are also available for 'Power Red' donations, which allow you to safely donate two units of red blood cells during one donation. Blood is drawn from one arm by a machine that separates and collects two units of red cells, then safely returns the remaining blood components, along with some saline, back to you through the same arm - and just one needle jab is required. A Power Red donation takes approximately 30 minutes longer than a whole blood donation, so plan on about 35-45 minutes in the chair and you're limited to donating approximately once every four months.

How often can you give blood? According to the Red Cross, "Wait at least eight weeks (56 days) between donations of whole blood, or 16 weeks (112 days) between Power Red donations. Whole blood donors can donate up to 6 times a year."

If you're ineligible during January, please sign up for the next blood drive Feb. 3, also from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m.

OBITUARIES/COMMUNITY

Manuel Campos Ornelas

Manuel Campos Ornelas, age 87, of Miami, Arizona passed away peacefully on Thursday, Dec. 15, 2022. He was born Sept. 4, 1935, in Miami, Arizona to Manuel and Pabla Campos Ornelas.

Manuel married his loving wife Molly Benavidez on April 28, 1956. Molly and Manuel were devoted to each other through 66 happy, loving years of marriage. They became parents to four children – Rosemary, Darlene, Cassie and Manuel. Manuel's children and grandchildren brought him the greatest joy, but he and Molly also endured the greatest heartache at the loss of their second child, Darlene, at the age of 4, and the recent loss of their grandson, Josh Durnan.

Beginning in 1956, and throughout his mining career, he was a dedicated, hardworking employee with Inspiration Consolidated Copper Company (ICCCo), where he earned his living and supported his family for 38 years. Manuel learned the trade of upholstery, which helped him earn a living during the lean times of mining strikes. He retired from Cyprus Copper Company, formerly ICCCo, as a general foreman in 1994.

At the early age of 17, Manuel volunteered for the Army National Guard, ready to help defend the United States in his eight years of service. He was also a member of the Knights of Columbus, serving Our Lady of the Blessed Sacrament Church and earning the status of Grand Knight.

Manuel enjoyed photography, fishing, camping, hunting, and bowling with family and friends. He always had someone along with him on his leisure times in the wilderness because of his kind heart, easy smile and outgoing personality. He especially loved fishing with family.

Manuel is preceded in death by his daughter Darlene Ornelas, grandson Joshua Durnan, parents Manuel and Pabla Ornelas, and sister Elodia Cervantes. He is survived by his wife Molly B. Ornelas, son Manuel Ornelas (Isela) of Queen Creek, Arizona, and two daughters Rosemary Gonzales and Cassie Ornelas, both of Miami, Arizona. He is also survived by six grandchildren and six great-grandchildren. He also leaves behind his brother Joe Ornelas (Mary Ann) of Phoenix, Arizona and sister Rosie Romero of North Hollywood, California.

The Lord above created you and I to love. He picked you out from all the rest, because he knew I loved you best. -- Written for you my love, by your loving wife, Molly Services for Manuel Ornelas will be held on Wednesday, Dec. 28, 2022 at Our Lady of the Blessed Sacrament Church. Visitation at 9 a.m.; Rosary at 9:30 a.m.; Funeral Mass to begin at 10 a.m., with burial to follow at Pinal Mountain Cemetery in Central Heights.

Deadlines for Obituaries

Obituaries are due Friday morning by 9 a.m. for the Copper Country News and 9 a.m. on Monday for the Arizona Silver Belt.

Book Club at Globe Public Library

Saturday, January 28, at 2 p.m. the Book Club will be discussing "The Witches of Moonshyne Manor" by Bianca Marais. We will give available to those who did not make it to the Book Club.

Gardening and Landscape class at Gila Pueblo Campus

Want to get more healthy greens and veggies from your garden, boost the health of a heritage fruit tree on your land or grow your most radiant flowers yet? Learn gardening basics and explore more advanced topics of horticulture, too, when County Extension Agent Christopher Jones hosts a weekly class that runs Thursday mornings from 9 a.m. till noon starting Jan. 19, and features expert guest speakers from throughout Gila County and the University of Arizona.

Taught here in Globe at the Gila Pueblo Campus, you'll find it listed online as AGR230 "Gardening and Landscape" and offered during spring semester 2023. Gila Pueblo Campus is located at 8274 S. Six Shooter Canyon Rd. Jones and his guest speakers will host a weekly lecture and provide hands-on activities to make this course exceptionally informative and well-tailored to southern Gila County. Did you know this is among other classes offered free to students 55 years and older? Make sure to ask about the senior waiver when you register. Cost for the course includes standard tuition and fees required by Eastern Arizona College. The text is the Arizona Master Gardener Manual, available online from UA Cooperative Extension Publications. Register at Gila County Community College in person, by phone at (928) 425-8481 or at <https://www.gilacc.org/>.

January 20 is the last day to register for classes.

This class also provides the training and opportunity to become a Master Gardener volunteer for Gila County. A Master Gardener receives certification after successfully completing the course, registering as an official UA volunteer and remaining active by conducting at least 50 hours of volunteer educational service in the following 12 months. Any student with a disability may request a reasonable accommodation, such as a sign language interpreter, by contacting Mori Farmer, (928) 474-4160. Requests should be made as early as possible to allow time to arrange the accommodation. For more information about the class and project, call Chris Jones at (928) 402-8586.

Rabies, bordatella, microchipping? Mobile pet clinic Sundays Jan. 8, 22

Gila County Animal Care & Control reminds dog owners that an up-to-date rabies vaccine is required for your dog to be licensed - and that annual license is required by law, too. A license is also essential to prove ownership if your stray dog ends up at the shelter. Are your pets microchipped? If they aren't, be aware that only 22 percent of lost dogs without a microchip get reunited with the anxious owners who love them, and that number drops to just two percent for stray cats. Low-cost vaccines, preventative care, microchipping as low as $15 and even nail trimming are all available when the PetVet mobile clinic revisits the Tractor Supply store in Claypool two Sundays each month from 2:30-4 p.m. Upcoming dates are Jan. 8 and 22.

No appointments are needed, but call PetVet mobile clinic staff at 800-427-7973 or visit petvet.vip-petcare.com/services-pricing if you have questions about specific services, or to verify services available such as microchips (with lifetime registration), urinary tract care and Lyme disease vaccine (check for $15 vaccination discount coupons online, too). Keep your dogs and cats protected and up-to-date on vaccines essential to guard against rabies, feline leukemia, bordatella and distemper. Did you know there's even a snakebite vaccine that can help dogs survive being bitten by a rattler? Pre-treatment with the snakebite vaccine also reduces your pet's pain and suffering - and the overall cost of treatment if bitten, too.

Miami holds successful Small Town Christmas

Again, the Town of Miami knocks it out of the park when it comes to the annual Small Town Christmas event. Christine Duarte and her army of Santa's helpers that included some darling little elves outdid themselves again. The Tri-City Fire Department was gracious enough to deliver Santa to the Veterans Memorial Park, where Mrs. Santa was waiting surrounded by colorful lights. Traditional hotdogs, popcorn, hot chocolate, toys and goodies were given away during this festive, music-filled event. Mr. Manual Labor and his crew assisted Santa by providing a colorfully lit train for the children and elves to ride on. Many thanks to all who help make this celebration of Christ's birth possible.

HAPPY NEW YEAR

Historic events that occurred on January 1

January 1 is all about new beginnings. Upon waking up on the first day of a new year, it's not uncommon for people to turn over a new leaf or look ahead to the months to come. But the first day of the new year also merits a look back, as many historical events have taken place on January 1.

- 45 BC: Of the many memorable events to take place on January 1, perhaps none had a more lasting effect than January 1 in 45 BC. That's the day when the Roman Empire officially adopted the Julian calendar, which established January 1 as the first day of the new year.

- 404: Gladiatorial fights are banned by Christian Emperor Honorius, who issues the ban after the Christian monk Telemachus is stoned to death by a crowd as he tries to stop a gladiatorial fight in a Roman amphitheater.

- 1500: The coast of Brazil is discovered by Portuguese explorer Pedro Álvares Cabral. Cabral is acknowledged as the first European to discover Brazil and during his voyage in 1500 became the first human in history to be in four continents.

- 1600: More than 1,600 years after the Roman Empire recognized January 1 as the start of the new year, Scotland follows suit. Until this point, Scotland had considered March 25 as the start of its new year.

- 1776: In the midst of the Revolutionary War, General George Washington hoists the Grand Union Flag, a precursor to the American flag, at Prospect Hill in Somerville, Massachusetts. Historians cite this as the first time any American flag was raised.

- 1801: The United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland is proclaimed. The sovereign state would remain in existence until 1922, when the Irish Free State was established.

- 1863: The Emancipation Proclamation takes effect in Confederate territory. The proclamation from U.S. President Abraham Lincoln changed the legal status of more than 3.5 million African Americans from enslaved to free.

- 1898: The City of Greater New York is created when New York, NY, annexes land from surrounding counties. Four boroughs (Manhattan, Brooklyn, Queens, and The Bronx) are established, and a fifth (Staten Island) joined less than a month later.

HAPPY NEW YEAR

Jump into adventurous resolution ideas

Individuals looking for a little more excitement and adventure in their lives can think about making New Year's resolutions that align with their adventurous goals. These adventurous ideas can serve as inspiration for anyone who wants to be a little more daring with this year's resolutions. Try a new outdoor activity. Adventures do not have to be large and time-consuming. In fact, the term "microadventure" was coined by Alastair Humphreys, an adventurer and speaker, as a way to squeeze more gutsy activity into anyone's schedule. One way to do so is to resolve to sleep outdoors in a new place once a month. Shaking off the creature comforts of home enables you to adapt and embrace new experiences.

Get creative in the kitchen

Being adventurous can extend to any aspect of life, including dining. Expand your culinary horizons by trying new flavor profiles and recipes inspired by global cuisine. This may include ingredients you deem to be "exotic" but are customary in other parts of the world.

Sleep outdoors

Aim to be more sustainable

Active lifestyles often involve exploring natural landscapes. These areas can be affected by trash, which also can impact wildlife in negative ways. Resolve to keep parks, trails, rivers, lakes, forests, and other outdoor areas clean and beautiful.

In the workplace

God blesses those who choose to labor with integrity honoring Him with their finest efforts.

God's plan for us includes work of various kinds. Not only are we to help others and be involved in mission-related pursuits; we're also expected to serve our employers.

Regardless of your boss's actions or temperament, the Lord is our ultimate authority, and one way we honor Him is by doing our job with integrity. He expects that whether we work in transportation, technology, education, or any other field, we will carry out our tasks with excellence.

To do anything else dishonors God. Lazy employees might abuse company time, execute duties poorly, or do the bare minimum. Often their focus is exclusively on the paycheck. But work is not simply about receiving a wage; the Lord wants His followers to better themselves and their organization. Certainly, these outcomes are rewards in and of themselves. But God also shows favor to His followers who choose diligence and integrity.

Wherever the Lord places us is where we are to work for His glory. So, as children who want to please our heavenly Father, let's offer our finest efforts in all we do.

Begin again

By DR. DAN MORTON
Contributor

Where has the year gone? I had “winter projects,” “spring planting,” “summer vacation” and the autumn to “winterize” the yard, the house and the car. This morning I woke up to a light dusting of snow – the first of the season. It seems the older I get the less I get done because “time ran out!”

The projects left undone can weigh on you, discourage you and be self-defeating. Louisa Fletcher had such problems and wrote a short piece, “The Land of Beginning Again.”

“I wish that there were some wonderful place in the Land of Beginning Again, where all our mistakes and our heartaches and all of our poor selfish grief, could be dropped like a shabby old coat, and not put on again.”

Unfortunately, the author was so besieged by her troubles that she passed away before learning of such a land.

God understands us and the burdens we carry unnecessarily. The apostle Paul wrote in II Corinthians 5:17: “Therefore, if anyone is in Christ, he is a new creation; the old has gone, the new has come!”

to follow Christ and travelled to Canada, where he became engaged to a young lady. The night before their wedding, she accidentally drowned. In the depths of despair, his love of God came through and he wrote words to his mother who was seriously ill: “What a friend we have in Jesus.” In Him lies “the Land of Beginning Again.”

May God’s blessings shower upon you and bestow upon each of you a bright, healthy and peaceful new year. God of all time, help us enter the New Year quietly, thoughtful of who we are to ourselves and to others, mindful that our steps make an impact and our words carry power.

Rich hot chocolate in cookie form

Hot chocolate does a fine job of warming people up on cold winter days. This rich and creamy beverage is enjoyed many ways, with some people floating miniature marshmallows on top or adding a touch of liqueur for an adult treat. Of course, hot chocolate is equally delicious topped with whipped cream and a dusting of cinnamon.

What if you could replicate the taste of hot chocolate in a cookie? That's just what happens with this recipe for "Hot Chocolate Cookies" courtesy of creator Rachel Perry and American Lifestyle magazine.

Enjoy them on their own, or paired with a mug of hot cocoa.

Hot Chocolate Cookies
Makes 24

1/2 cup butter
1 12-ounce bag semisweet chocolate chips
1 1/4 cup light

brown sugar
3 large eggs
2 teaspoons vanilla extract
1/4 cup unsweetened cocoa powder
1 1/2 cups all-purpose flour
1 1/2 teaspoons baking powder
1/4 teaspoon salt
8 ounces semisweet baking chocolate, cut into 1-inch pieces
12 large marshmallows, sliced in half

1. Place the butter and chocolate chips in a microwave-safe bowl, and heat on high for 1 minute. Stir, and then heat for 30 seconds; repeat until chocolate is melted.

2. Beat the brown sugar, eggs, and vanilla extract together on medium speed, and then blend in the chocolate mixture.

3. Add the cocoa powder, flour, baking powder, and salt, and mix on low until combined. Cover bowl with plastic wrap, and refrigerate for 2 hours. 4. Preheat oven to 325 F. Line two cookie sheets with parchment paper. Scoop 12 tablespoons of dough onto each cookie sheet.

5. Bake for 12 minutes, remove from oven, and top each cookie with 1 piece of chocolate and 1 piece of marshmallow. Bake for another 4 minutes, and let cool for 5 minutes before placing on wire racks to cool completely.
