Miami Music In The Park: Neto & Imagine

Bandleader Neto Vasquez pledges "We are bringing the cumbias!" when Neto & Imagine kick off the summer outdoor concert season in Miami on Saturday night, June 4 for three hours of music, from 6 p.m. to 9 p.m., ranging from pop standards and classic rock covers to irresistible cumbias that are sure to move you onto the dance floor.

Arranged by Miami Genesis (thanks to a generous grant from the United Fund), outdoor summer concerts are free - but make sure to bring cash for snack bar options. During last summer's Miami concert delicious red or green chile burros were a bargain at $4; tasty bean burros, nachos, cheese crisps, soda, candy and popcorn were available, too.

Event organizers suggest to bring your own camp chairs. Neto & Imagine have an impressive set list; they know all the favorites requested by Globe-Miami audiences, after decades playing local events. Just a few to listen for Saturday include Volver, Rosa Maria, Cowboy Cumbia, Woolly Bully and The Chair. Mark your calendar for these summer music dates, too: Silver Creek June 18, Paloma Latin Sounds July 16, Los Implicados July 30, and Neto & Imagine August 13.

Early childhood adventures at Globe Public Library

Parents are invited to bring their children who are 0-5 to Free-play Friday. This open playtime at the Globe Public Library offers different things to explore each week. This child-directed exploration will feature color fun on June 3 and shapes on June 10. Items will be cleaned before and after Free-play Friday. Parents must stay with their children.

Saturdays at 9:30 a.m. Christine Carlson from the University of Arizona Cooperative Extension is offering Gowa: Teachable Moments for Apache Children in person at Globe Public Library. These are designed for children 0-6 and their parents. All children regardless of ethnicity are welcome with a parent or guardian. We are changing to biweekly for the summer.

June 4 – Bedtime in the Southwest, Join us to share a reading of a Bedtime in the Southwest story while talking about pictures and asking questions with young children, followed by an at-home activity. Please bring a piece of paper and crayons. Each family will receive a free copy of the book following the class.

The 1,000 Books Before Kindergarten Program is going strong at the Globe Public Library. This program is to help children read 1,000 books before entering Kindergarten and encourage lifelong reading habits. You can register online at <https://globepubliclibrary.azsummerreading.org/> or come to the Globe Public Library for the paper form. If you have used the summer reading program online, you can use the same login to register for 1,000 Books. For every 100 books, children will receive a reward. They will receive a grand prize when they finish the 1,000 books.

There are Oceans of Possibilities for five and under at Globe Public Library. Tide Pool Tots is the Summer Reading Program for children ages 0-5. We have two groups. The first group is on Mondays from 11 a.m. to 11:30 a.m. and is focused on children ages 3-5. The second group is on Mondays from 11:30 a.m. to 12 p.m. and is focused on children 0-3. These groups will explore different sea creatures every week. Join us each week as we talk, sing, write and play for 30 minutes. These programs are child and parent interactive; plan to spend the time having fun with your children. We are encouraging you to read 20 minutes a day with your children, then record your reading. You can record your reading with your young explorer on a paper log that can be picked up at registration or you can track your reading online at <https://globepubliclibrary.azsummerreading.org> or on the READ-Squared app available for both android and Apple devices from Google Play or the App Store.

Don't forget lunch. Monday through Friday, Globe Public Library is serving lunch for children 18 and under. Lunch starts at noon and runs until 1 p.m. We will have the picnic area open for dining. Food must be eaten at the library.

Do you wish someone would read you a story? Now you can call the Globe Public Library Dial-a-Story phone line and hear a new story every week. The phone number is (855) 614-6111. You can call this number at any time and get a story read to you. Listening to a read-aloud story is fun and engages everyone in literacy. Even passive listening teaches reading and vocabulary and helps a child's brain grow. This program is brought to you by the Arizona State Library, Archives, and Public Records through the Institute of Museum and Library Services.

All these programs are free and brought to you through partnerships with the Friends of the Globe Public Library, the United Fund of Globe-Miami, and the University of Arizona Cooperative Extension Agency.

As God's Son, Jesus perfectly demonstrated for us what it means to be children of God.

As God's Son, Jesus perfectly demonstrated for us what it means to be children of God.

Jesus' assertion that He was the Son of God incited fury in the religious leaders of His day. Yet His explanation to them so many centuries ago helps us understand how to act like God's children today:

- He spoke His Father's words to the world (John 8:26). And we were given the same assignment: "Go into all the world and preach the gospel to all creation" (Mark 16:15).

- Christ did nothing on His own initiative (John 8:28). Sonship requires surrender to the Father's authority.

- The Son spoke as the Father taught Him (John 8:28). We should rely on the truth of God's Word, not our own wisdom.

- Jesus did what pleased the Father (John 8:29). God's children no longer live for their own pleasures but seek the joy of obeying their heavenly Father.

- Christ pursued the Father's glory, not

His own (John 8:49-50; John 8:54). In the same way, we're to humble ourselves and exalt the Lord in our thoughts and behavior.

- He knew His Father (John 8:55). Like Christ, believers have the same privilege of intimacy with God.

We are God's children only because of the faithful obedience of His Son. Christ opened the door for our adoption, showed us with blessings and demonstrated how we are to walk in faith. Now we are to follow His example.

Zuidema to preach at Globe Christian Center

Pastor Marcus Zuidema, of Santa Rosa, will be preaching at the Globe Christian Center on Sunday, June 5 at 10:30 a.m. and 6:30 p.m. Services will continue Monday through Wednesday, June 6-8, at 7 p.m.

For years Marcus Zuidema lived in Globe-Miami and worked for the mine, but he grew up in California. His parents divorced when he was in the third grade. He and his brother became "latchkey kids," home alone while their mother worked trying to make ends meet.

Marcus hated his father, although he spent every other weekend with him. Marcus had heard bad things about him, and he despised his father's drinking. He raided his father's alcohol, however, and drank with his high school friends.

At the funeral of a friend, Marcus puzzled; the body was there, but something was missing. Marcus had never heard about a "soul" or the "afterlife."

In his senior year his mother remarried, and Marcus wound up in a trailer at his dad's. Across the street, a family from Globe was starting a "baby church" in their living room. Marcus visited and, at an altar call, heard that he needed to decide where his soul would spend eternity. It "clicked" - it made sense.

He became a Christian, and attended faithfully.

Courtesy photo
Pastor Marcus Zuidema

"When I was filled with the Holy Ghost, I had the confidence to confront my father," he says. They had good talks. "He quit drinking," says Marcus, "but the real change was in me." They became close.

The neighbors from Globe moved back to Arizona and eventually Marcus moved to Globe himself. He liked the Globe Christian Center. He gave up a dishwashing job for a three-day temp job at the mine landfill. As he'd hoped, the job became permanent and Marcus was learning about environmental regulations.

In 1998 he married Toni, a girl from the church. In 2006 they were sent to Simi Valley to start a baby church, but they came back discouraged. Marcus got on at the mine again and worked up to the smelter control room, straight days. Discouragement faded, and he and Toni wanted to be useful again. They ran a satellite church in Superior for five years, driving over the mountain three times a week.

In 2014, Pastor Bobby Hernandez was preparing to go to Asia and Marcus was offered the church in Santa Rosa. Wow! His old church!

The Santa Rosa Church stayed healthy, as Pastor Zuidema followed the pattern set by the Prescott and Globe churches. With super-high rents, however, he needed a job too, and was soon an environmental tech at the shipyard where his father had once worked.

Last year Marcus got his bachelor's degree in environmental science. He is off weekends and busy at church. "It's a blessing to pastor a great church," he says.

The Zuidemas have three children: Rebecca, 20, a nursing student; Matt, 16, in football; and Nick, 14, in band. California has its "craziness," says Marcus, but, "God is helping them."

Marcus and Toni hope to see many old friends while they're in Globe, ministering to the "mother church" that sent them to Santa Rosa.

The God I never knew (Part 3)

BY ELVIN FANT
Contributor

I remember when I was looking at some scripture, trying to figure out what it meant. It was one of those difficult scriptures and I read all the concordance, the lexicons, the commentaries. I went through everything I could and couldn't figure it out, and I'm sitting there with my computer with the highest Bible program you can purchase. I got everything you can think of, and I'd spent about three hours trying to read this scripture. Suddenly I had this feeling like the Holy Spirit was standing right beside me, and he said to me "What are you doing?"

I said, "I'm trying to figure out what this scripture means." I felt like he said to me, "Do you think I know what it means?"

I said, "Well, of course you know what it means."

"Then why don't you just ask me?" I thought "OK" and was about to say "What does it mean?" But the answer was there just like that; scripture from other places came to me that backed it up and showed what the scripture meant. And he has a mind; we know he has the mind of God. That's the Holy Spirit's mind.

Here's number two; he has a will. Acts 16:6 - "Now when they had gone through Phrygia and the region of Galatia, they were forbidden by the Holy Spirit to preach the word in Asia." We know they did go to Asia later, but at this time he forbade them. You know what forbidden or forbade means; it means "to exercise your will over." Have you ever forbidden your children to have sweets before they eat? So the Holy Spirit forbade; he exercised his will over them. The obvious question is: Since he has a will, since his will is obviously the will of God and you would like to know God's will for your life, shouldn't you get to know him? If you want to know God's will for your life, get to know God. This is the number one question that Christians have: "How can I know God's will?"

Next week we will continue this teaching by Pastor Robert Morris of Gateway Church. As Paul Harvey would say, "Stay tuned for the rest of the story."

Fay G. Lisk

they lived out their lives in a beautiful acreage she referred to as her paradise.

Their first child, Thomas Edward Lisk, was born Feb. 9, 1956. On Oct. 27, 1958 Michael Marvin Lisk was born. On June 13, 1961 Edna Fay Lisk was born. Next was Fawn Lynnette Lisk, born Oct. 18, 1964, and last was Christopher Clark (Rusty) Lisk, born June 11, 1966.

Fay faithfully made sure her children attended church at the River of Life Pentecostal Church in Central Heights throughout their raising. She set the example for the family and on July 21, 1996 her husband Tommy committed his life to our Lord Jesus Christ and was baptized. They raised their five children with all the love and devotion any parents could give.

Fay worked tirelessly at all she did, whether it was as a mother, wife, an accountant, a member of the River of Life Pentecostal Church, a 4-H leader or in Scouting. Fay was a long-time member of the Rebekah & Odd Fellow Lodge where she and so many other lodge members shared blessings for many in our community. She was a member of the NRA and served as a gun safety instructor.

Fay had many loves, but faith and family were always present unto her last breath. Her endless giving for the benefit of others never dampened even in difficult times. She opened her heart, her home and her dinner table to countless friends and neighbors. She was an extended mother to many in our community, never too tired to make a meal at any time of the day or night or help someone in need. She found good in people even when it seemed well hidden to most. She asked for very little and always gave all she could.

Fay had several passions; cooking, sewing and 4-H scouting, but probably enjoyed the outdoors the most. Family hunting trips to Hagler Creek with the Evans family for turkey and Chevlon Canyon and Dripping Springs for deer were staples of family events. It was important for the meat provided, but mostly for the joy that was shared. Fay loved to hunt anything she could. Through the years she harvested turkeys, deer, elk, bear, antelope and in 2015 at the age of 84 she got a desert bighorn sheep. Ninety days before her birthday this year she bagged a large oryx in New Mexico with a 409-yard shot. For our families many a happy time and cherished memory came from hunts shared with our mother.

Fay was preceded in death by her husband Thomas Neil, daughter Edna Fay, father and mother William Townsend and Julia Esterleen Griffay, brother Ray Griffay, sisters Laura Bell Goodson and Audrey Goodnaugh, mother-in-law Maud Lisk and aunt Millie Clark.

Fay is survived by her daughter Fawn Lynnette and sons Thomas Edward/Diane, Michael/Corina and Christopher (Rusty)/Kristie along with 24 grandchildren, 27 great-grandchildren and two great-great-grandchildren.

Services were at the River of Life Church, 5667 E. Golden Hills Rd., Globe, Az. on Friday May 27, 2022 at 10 a.m. Viewing was Thursday, May 26, 2022 from 5 to 7 p.m. Interment will follow at the Globe Cemetery.

Mother, we will meet with you one day soon on the streets of glory in the company of those loved and lost in the presence of our Lord our Savior Jesus Christ.

Heather Ann Woolf Wisdom

She attended Eastern Arizona College, Chandler Gilbert Community College and Arizona State University, where she excelled academically with a near perfect grade point average.

Heather met her eternal companion and best friend, Jeffrey Wisdom, on a blind date and both of them quickly knew that they belonged together. Their marriage has been a beautiful example of faithfulness, loyalty and love. Their joy was magnified beyond measure at the birth of their twins, Benjamin and Elizabeth, in 2007.

For the past 20 years of her life, Heather has suffered from a series of debilitating health challenges. In spite of this she has lived her life to the fullest, with a passion for finding joy in every circumstance. She has continued to serve others, develop her many talents and bring light and love to those around her.

Heather had perfect faith in our Heavenly Father's love and His plan for her life. We know that she is now rejoicing with her Savior, Jesus Christ, and her beloved grandparents who preceded her in death, Wanda and Wilbur Woolf and Darrell and Marjorie Smith. She is survived by her husband Jeff, the love of her life, and her children Beth and Ben. She is also survived by her parents, James and Rebecca Woolf, mother-in-law Eloise Wisdom, brothers Eldon, Aaron and Darrell, sisters-in-law Angie, Deserea, Erin, Kari and Courtney, brother-in-law Brandon, and many beloved aunts, uncles, cousins, nieces, nephews and dear friends.

Funeral services were held on Saturday, May 28, 2022 at 10 a.m. at the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, 9431 East Point Twenty-Two Boulevard, Mesa, Arizona.

Fay G. Lisk, of Top of The World, a beloved servant of the Lord, daughter, wife, mother, grandmother and friend to so many, passed away early Thursday morning, May 19, 2022 at Cobre Valley Hospital surrounded by family and friends. From the hands of loved ones, she passed to our Lord and savior Jesus Christ for an eternity of peace and rest in the company of family already in heaven.

Mattie Fay Griffay was born in Magdalena, New Mexico on May 5, 1932 to William Townsend and Julia Esterleen Griffay. She was a twin to her brother Ray Griffay.

Her parents owned various ranches across central New Mexico, which she grew up on. She was a 13-year-old child at home on their ranch some 35 miles north of the first atomic bomb test. She said she witnessed history, but at that time had no idea what exactly they had witnessed.

Fay met her husband Tommy Neil Lisk, from Mountainair, New Mexico, on a blind date.

They were married on March 19, 1955 in Socorro, New Mexico at the home place on the Griffay farm. Soon after they moved to Globe and then to Central Heights, Arizona where they set down their roots for the next 45 years to raise their family. In 2000 Fay and Tommy moved to Top of The World where they found peace and joy as Heather Ann Woolf Wisdom, loving wife, mother, daughter, sister and friend, passed from this life into eternity on Wednesday, May 18, 2022. She was 42 years young. Heather was born to James and Rebecca Woolf while James was attending dental school in San Francisco, California, but she spent the majority of her life in Arizona.

Heather had a happy childhood as the only girl in a family of three brothers whom she loved dearly.

From a young age Heather showed remarkable determination, generosity, intelligence and a spiritual depth beyond her years.

Gardeners, Makers, Crafters, Bakers

Apricots are ripe, artichokes too – are you wondering what fresh, local greens, veggies, fruits and food will be available at the Globe-Miami Farmers Market on Friday, June 4? Call Holly Brantley at (928) 701-3097, or connect online at facebook.com/gmfm2011. And do you have an overabundance of apricots, peaches or plums, or veggies from your garden? Or do you make jams, jellies and salsas? New vendors are invited to set up and sell outdoors in Globe at the weekly Saturday morning Farmers Market when it reopens June 4. Questions about the items you'd like to sell, or how to apply to be a vendor? Call Holly or check out photos and connect with Holly and a growing community of more than 1,000 green-thumbed gardeners, craft vendors and others at facebook.com/gmfm2011. Farmers Market hours are Saturday morning 8 a.m. – 11 a.m.

Flat Four Farms will be there with fresh fruit – or robust plants ready to take home and plant in your own garden. Ask if 'Chito The Chile Guy' will have his variety of tasty peppers to add some picante to your cuisine. Got breakfast? Mary Hysong sells fresh local eggs. And if you have an overflow of surplus greens from your garden, delicious apricots from your tree, handmade crafts, baked goods, jams and jellies? Sign up for a table! Market manager Holly Brantley invites new vendors to contact her about setup. "If you've got seedlings, starts or other plants to sell, please call me about being a vendor! Crafters are welcome, and baked goods as well! Buy or sell local -- right here, at our Globe-Miami Farmers Market outdoors at Veteran's Memorial Park, in front of Globe City Hall at 150 North Pine Street."

Globe entrepreneurs attend Moonshot's AZ Pioneer Pitch Tour

Moonshot winners and City of Globe representatives

On May 5 and 6, Globe entrepreneurs came out to attend Moonshot's fifth stop on their annual statewide AZ Pioneer Pitch Tour, sponsored by APS. This business startup pitch competition is in its third year, but this was the city of Globe's first time participating. Over the course of the day-and-a-half event held at the Cobre Valley Center for the Arts, applicants were mentored and coached by the Moonshot staff including a winner of the ABC TV Network's "Shark Tank," Kiersten Hathcock of Mod Mom Furniture.

"I love working with startup founders, and this stop in Globe is especially rewarding because all of the business ideas are viable and all of the pitch applicants are women," Hathcock said.

Linda Odonetto, Globe's Economic & Community Development Director, was responsible for bringing the Pioneer Pitch Tour to Globe with assistance from Southern Gila County Economic Development Corporation, who provided the local prize money.

"This event is all about creating an entrepreneurial spark, one that we intend to build on year after year. We are only getting started, and I'm excited to partner with Moonshot to see where our efforts lead," Odonetto said.

Moonshot President & CEO Scott Hathcock and Globe Mayor Al Gameros awarded the prize money to all four winners.

The $1,000 first-place winner went to Erika Flores for her protein and supplement shake company, 3,2,1 GO!

The second-place prize, $750, went to Regina Ortega-Leonardi of E-Volve Adventure Rentals.

Two third-place winners received $500 each—Erika Franco for Erika's Salsas and Shandell Lowe for Arlairian Arts.

Globe's first place winner will attend Moonshot's annual banquet, the Shoemaker Awards at Little America in Flagstaff, on June 17 for a chance to compete for the $10,000 1st prize statewide award.

All four winners received an annual scholarship from Moonshot valued at $3,000 per scholarship.

Moonshot is an Arizona-based, 22-year-old 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization whose mission is to help subject matter experts bring products and services to market and help cities develop entrepreneurial ecosystems that create jobs for the local economy.

Basic camping workshop for women June 24-26

Ladies only: Have you been wanting to go camping but don't know the basics and don't have family or friends to show you the ropes . . . you know, ropes like those important cords that anchor your tent securely to the ground on a gusty night? Payson resident and experienced outdoorswoman Linda Dightmon is among organizers of a new basic camping workshop scheduled over the weekend of June 24-26, up in the cool high country forests that surround Camp Raymond near Flagstaff.

Camping is an unparalleled way to disconnect

Suanna Gurovich

Suanna was a beautiful sunrise to every morning. We treasured how she embraced life and always had a beautiful sparkle of love and caring in her eyes. She was defined by her love of music and travel, and the adoration she poured upon her children and grandchildren. She had an iron core that was coated with cotton candy. Everyone experienced her unique love and unparalleled mothering instinct. Having her in our lives enriched us and made us better people. She never shied away from giving herself, her time or her love. Suanna was a mother, a supporter and a nurturer to everyone she touched.

Suanna was born in Miami, Arizona in 1943 and was the first child of Danko and Maxine Gurovich. She was the big sister to Patricia and Danilo. Suanna was always fondly called "Suzi-Q" by her dad, who was so very proud of her. Suanna was a Miami girl through and through; she excelled in her studies and graduated with honors from high school. Her musical passions included playing piano and violin. She always attended reunions, where she reminisced with her schoolmates. Suanna was always friends forever. Suanna went on to the University of Arizona and studied abroad in Florence, Italy. She immersed herself in arts and languages. While there she realized her tremendous talent for mastering languages (she spoke more than four) and love of travel. While at the U of A she met and married Mike Kookan, and they made their home in California, where she finished her Bachelor's Degree at California State Long Beach. Her mastery of languages enabled her to communicate to many individuals whom she helped throughout their lives.

Suanna raised three children, Danielle, Michael and Marianne. They were always her priority and in her heart and thoughts from their first breath. Nobody took to business like Suanna. In 1976 with three children under the age of 5, she began her forty-year career in real estate and earned her broker's license. She was a quick success and a top-producing professional in Diamond Bar, California and Houston, Texas. She was one of the most successful agents in San Francisco, California. She was an active board member for the Ethics and Professional Standards Committee and the President of the Women's Council of Realtors. Her eye for real estate gave a start to her own "This Old House" business in San Francisco as she renovated properties. She bought and sold many homes and buildings, and left her mark on the city she loved. Upon her retirement in 2016, she moved to the Sacramento area so she could be close to her children. Nobody loved to travel like Suanna. She visited many countries, but Montenegro held a special place in her heart. When she couldn't find someone to go with her, she would just go solo and had a fearlessness few could imagine. On occasion she would return with a Montenegrin family member who was searching for a better life; she supported and sponsored their journey. She cared for her cousin, Gloria Henslee, as she struggled with severe mental illness for 25 years until she passed this last year. Her door was always open and accepting as she cared for the elderly and anyone in need.

She joined many churches throughout her life. As a child she was raised in the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saints and later joined the Serbian Orthodox Church in San Francisco, where she loved singing in the choir. She loved the music and the message. She said it "filled her soul and she felt close to God." When she moved to Sacramento she joined the Serbian Orthodox Church but it had no choir, so she joined the Greek Orthodox Church. She became an "honorary" Greek and learned the language, which led to developing new and lifelong friendships. She was active in many charities and church activities, including stuffing backpacks for kids and serving specialty foods at Greek Festivals.

Suanna is survived by her daughter Danielle Marquez and husband Bruce; her son Michael Kookan, wife Angela and grandson Trevor; her daughter Marianne, husband Earl Crouchley and granddaughter Lilly; her sister Patricia Fair; her brother Danilo Gurovich and wife Lori; five nieces and nephews, five grandnieces and an extended family of many wonderful people whom she loved around the world. Suanna loved everyone with all her heart. The number of friends and family who loved over her 79 years cannot be counted. Her warmth, love and compassion will be greatly missed.

Bulman Miles Funeral Services in Globe, Arizona faithfully assisted the family.
