Gila County Public Health confirms increase in Covid-19 cases

Gila County Public Health has confirmed Covid-19 cases are increasing in our communities. Our public health officials have determined that the Delta variant has been detected locally. Nationally, this variant is responsible for over 80 percent of all new cases and is noticeably more infectious than previous variants. In the past few months, the majority of these positive cases in Gila County have not been vaccinated. Gila County Public Health is offering free Covid-19 tests. We conduct in-house serology, PCR and antigen tests. We have the results in 10-15 minutes for each test.

To make an appointment today please call one of our numbers: Globe (928) 961-1284; Payson (928) 200-7668.

As of July 20, 2021, our county has administered a total of 49,267 Covid-19 vaccines. Our population is 49.3 percent vaccinated. Gila County Public Health offers Pfizer, Johnson &

Johnson and Moderna vaccines. We are actively hosting clinics throughout our county and encourage all residents to get vaccinated. The Pfizer vaccine has been approved for 12 years of age and older. Therefore, any resident over the age of 12 can make an appointment with our local health department to get a vaccine.

For more information, please call the Gila County Public Health vaccine line at (928) 910-4009, option 1.

Tonto National Forest lifts Stage 1 Fire Restrictions

The Tonto National Forest in coordination with federal, state and local partners terminated Stage 1 Fire Restrictions effective July 21, 2021 at 8 a.m. due to reduced fire danger.

implemented to reduce the risk of human-caused wildfires during periods of high fire danger and elevated fire weather conditions.

“The Tonto and Arizonans needed a break in the weather, and we got it with recent monsoonal activity,” said Deputy Forest Supervisor Tom Torres. “We thank everyone for cooperating with these restrictions across the forest, but temperatures are still high enough to spark a wildfire if people are not careful when building a campfire.”

Campfire tips:

Keep your fire small;
Always keep water and a shovel nearby and know how to use them to put out your campfire;

Be sure an adult is always watching the fire;

Keep an eye on the weather! Sudden wind gusts can blow sparks into vegetation outside your cleared area, causing unexpected fires;

Make sure your campfire is dead out!

Campfires and charcoal BBQs must be completely extinguished after use. Abandoned campfires continue to be a major cause of wildfires. Always keep enough water on hand and a tool to drown and stir fires. If it is too hot to touch, it is too hot to leave. More campfire safety and prevention tips can be found at Smokeybear.com.

Violators of regulations that prohibit abandoning a campfire are subject to a fine and/or imprisonment. If an abandoned campfire causes a wildfire, violators can also be held responsible for fire suppression costs.

Please take the time to inspect vehicles and trailers for proper maintenance, especially in relation to tire condition, brakes and wheel bearings. The Arizona climate is tough on tires and wheel bearings; tire blow-outs or worn bearings can be very dangerous but can also cause wildfires. Take time to adjust trailer chains to avoid them dragging and sparking fires. Many tire shops and mechanics are available in the area to provide professional assistance in inspecting vehicles and often inspection is free.

For more information, visit the Tonto National Forest alerts and notices webpage or call the following district ranger stations for information: Cave Creek Ranger District (480) 595-3300; Globe Ranger District (928) 402-6200; Mesa Ranger District (480) 610-3300; Payson Ranger District (928) 474-7900; and Tonto Basin Ranger District (602) 225-5395.

Tim was also involved in stockcar racing with friends and family for almost 50 years. He started at Manzanita Speedway in Phoenix and came to races in Globe in the 1970s. He enjoyed the challenge of fine-tuning a stock car for the best performance possible.

Rosa Pacheco awarded Gem and Mineral Scholarship

The Gila County Gem and Mineral Society has awarded our annual scholarship to Rosa Pacheco. Rosa is a very deserving young student. She will be attending Northern Arizona University to study Biomedical Science. She finished high school with a 3.8 GPA. While attending high school, she also attended CVIT where she earned her certificate in the Medical Assistant Program.

It was not easy for her though. Rosa lost her mother during her sophomore year and was faced with taking care of her father with stage 4 chronic kidney failure. Then, she found out that she had diabetes. Caring for her family while dealing with her own health issues only proves her resolve for dealing with tough issues. She also cared for her neighbor with house chores, running errands and just watching Family Feud with her.

Our scholarship is not just awarded to a student that is going into a STEM-related field of study, but also someone that is involved in community service. Giving up part of her social life during her high school years had to be hard, but the sacrifices she made for her family and friends exemplifies what our scholarship is about. Some of the words that were written to describe her were diligence, quiet resolve, inner determination, solid work ethic, not afraid of work, a great student, a great kid and someone with great promise. We would like to add to that, she is also a great role model.

Rosa wrote in her essay, "Mom always reminded my sibling and me of the importance of school and the irreplaceable knowledge that you gain from college." Rosa, your dad and your siblings have been blessed by you and your mom is proudly watching you accomplish your dreams.

She also wrote, "No heartache, disability or misfortune will keep me from reaching my dreams. Besides, my luck has to start somewhere and I won't stop until I get there." From this and what was written about her, we believe this to be true about her. The old saying absolutely rings true in her case, "hard work does pay off," and she is already living proof of that. Congratulations and Go Lumberjacks!

When it's time to call in a tutor

Busy schedules, hybrid learning and demanding coursework have affected students' academic performance over the last year-plus. The months since a pandemic was declared in March of 2020 have been unlike any other and confronting the academic challenges of the pandemic may have adversely affected some students' grades.

Failing grades are not necessarily the most notable indicator that students can benefit from the services of a tutor. The Princeton Review says 25 percent of high school students say homework is their biggest source of stress, and homework progress can help parents determine if it's time to call in a tutor. Students who find their homework is taking too long, particularly double or triple the amount of time it once required, may need some extra help. Here are some additional indicators that a tutor may be needed.

- Declining test scores: Some students are simply poor test takers, but a gradual or sudden decline in test scores may indicate students are having trouble mastering material.

- Poor time management or focus: Students who are struggling may have their attention drift or they put off doing tasks because they don't grasp the assignments.

- Lack of homework help at home: Parents may have prior commitments during the times of day when their children are doing homework.

- Learning disorder: Certain students learn differently from others due to a diagnosed or undiagnosed learning disorder.

- Students "shut down" or say they "hate" school: Disinterest in school or expressions of hating going to school may be indicative of academic struggles in the classroom.

Tutors can be valuable resources for students who need some one-on-one attention to master general learning concepts or reinforce skills for key tests or projects.

Lesson on King David

By MONICA NUNEZ

Sweet Haven Canyon Church

2 Samuel 12

The Lord sent Nathan to David, he began with a story, and told David, this man is your David! (Nathan was a court prophet and advisor to King David.) You either deny your sins or admit your sins!

When God shows you your sin, you see it before your own eyes and King David did. David repented and admitted his sins. David said to Nathan, "I have sinned against the Lord."

Repentance – The life of David- his trials, his triumphs and his troubles. Troubles he brought onto himself by sin and messing around, they called it folly in the Bible.

Adultery - Murder which displeased the Lord. (2 Samuel 11:27). David loved the Lord, but there was an area of his life that he allowed and did not submit to the authority of God. Sin built a position of power in his life that blinded him. He would not admit his sins and was blinded. You see, "he was King David, he was someone special, and felt he could get away with murder! Murdered Uriah, and adultery

Language

By DR. DAN MORTON

Contributor

Genesis 11:1: "Now the whole world had one language and a common speech."

Working together as one force, the men decided to build a city and in this to build a tower that would extend to the heavens, but their motives were selfish and they had not gotten a building permit from with Bathsheba, Uriah's wife!

Nine months passed on and the child is born. There was no repentance. David covered it up and moved on.

What did Adam and Eve do when they sinned? They covered their sin with fig leaves! They knew something was wrong-no peace. God Himself revealed their sin.

Why is there no response from the beginning of sin? Go to God and say, "Lord I confess, I have sinned, forgive me! But they, as so many of us don't do this right away, knowing your own sin. If you belong to God and have accepted Him in your life, He will always show you your sin, and then your will should be to repent. The sinner's first impulse is to run and hide from God. You can't! Psalm 32 David wrote: When I kept silent my bones wasted away through my groaning all day long. For day and night Your hand was heavy on me, my strength was dried up as by the heat of summer!

In this year David's life was not great in the palace. It was not! It was the most miserable time of David's life.

Sin in our lives will drain

God.

Genesis 11:5: "But the Lord came down to see the city and the tower that the men were building. The Lord said, 'If as one people speaking the same language they have begun to do this, then nothing they plan to do will be impossible for them. Come, let us go down and confuse their language so they will not understand each other. So the Lord scattered them from there over all the our Holy Spirit like it drained David in the palace. He had more than enough riches, food, privileges, and a wife he wanted.

But David in this time lived with a nagging groan in his Spirit. That groan never left him, heaviness when he wanted great pleasure, he went to sleep at night and when he awoke in the mornings at the thought of another day. Psalms 32:3-4 "I kept silent." He had no energy. He lost his zest for life. His enthusiasm was gone! Blessings had departed and all that was left was groaning!

Have you ever felt this way? Like you're in a dry wilderness in your life? Like you can't hear from God? You pray, you wait for an answer, yet none come? You feel like you're totally alone and feel so lonely even if you are around people, your love ones? You pray for healing in an illness which you cannot understand why me Lord? You ask why did my love ones die? You say, I don't know why when I needed you most you would leave me? (This all reminds me of the words in "Footprints in the Sand," after questions, God answers us. "My precious child, I love you and I would never leave you. During your times of trial and suffering when you see only one set of footprints, it was then that I carried you.")

This means we belong to the Lord and He will never leave us alone. A person who has never known or really loved the Lord will not miss him when He is gone! When you feel miserable maybe there is no repentance, no confession of sin, no seeking the face of God.

Remember this; sin does not always lead to repentance, not at all! At times you can't see your sin. But if you belong to God, He will show you your downfalls, just ask Him, what is it Lord? Genuine repentance is always a miracle of God's Grace. If it were not for the grace of God sin would lead us to live at a distance from God forever!

A prayer of repentance. King David wrote Psalms 51:10-19. It is a song of repentance. Create in me a clean heart, Oh God, and renew a right spirit within to me.

-Sins of Attitude, Action, Neglect, and Intent.

earth, and they stopped building the city."

There are many languages spoken across the earth today and people study them in order to better understand each other. With international trade and world travel it has become essential to be able to effectively communicate ideas and terms. Millions of dollars are at the risk of loss, should there not be complete understanding.

At the day of Pentecost, the disciples were gathered together in one room when they were stirred by the Holy Spirit.

Acts 2:4: "All of them were filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in other tongues as the Spirit enabled them."

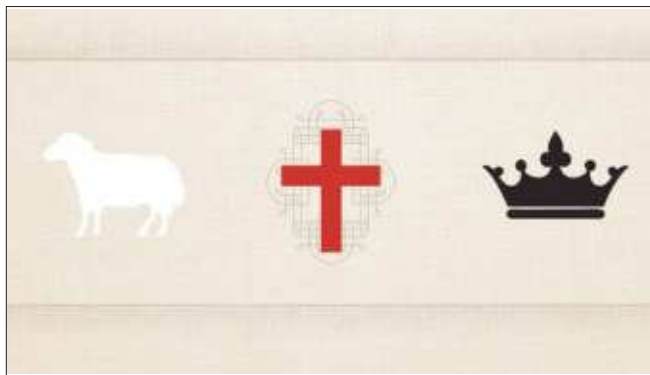

Having worshipped with Apache and Arapahoe, Latinos and others, I have found a common understanding among Christians in music and word.

There's just no way of getting around it, Jesus is God

By PASTOR NICK JONES
Maranatha Baptist Church

Recently, my family and I went on a trip to Flagstaff. It was a nice little getaway. We spent some time resting at the cabin we rented, walked around downtown, saw a juggling show, and visited some local parks. At one park, a man began a conversation with me that ended up dealing with spiritual matters. As we talked he told me about his religious background, which was filled with all sorts of eclectic beliefs and philosophies. While the conversation was congenial, it unfortunately did not end as I would have hoped. In fact, as he walked away he told me that I was brainwashed.

What in our conversation made him come to this conclusion? I mean, this man said that he had some sort of belief in God and even in the Bible. His major objection was my insistence that Jesus of Nazareth was no mere man, prophet, teacher, or son of God in a human sense, but that Jesus is indeed God in the flesh. His rejection of this important, central, and historic Christian teaching is, sadly, not uncommon. There are many people, religious organizations, and even so-called churches that readily rebuke this teaching. It is unfortunate, however, because if you claim to hold to the Bible as the Word of God, you must believe that Jesus is God. Why? Because this is what the Bible teaches throughout its pages. There is just no way of getting around it, Jesus is God!

There are many helpful routes to take when trying to help an individual see the deity of Christ in the pages of the Bible. I often tell people that we are not looking for Jesus to stand up and say "Hey everyone, I'm God." That make the task simpler, but it wouldn't cover all the nuances and insights that the Bible reveals to us. Rather, I try to teach that when we are studying the deity of Christ (that Jesus is God) we are going to see how Jesus acted, what Jesus claimed, and how others responded to Jesus as a means of building a complete case.

One of my favorite ways in which to show the deity of Christ is to talk about worship. I start by asking the question, "Who should we worship?" Right away the response is clear, "God!" Yes, Christians are called to worship God. In fact, our whole lives should be characterized by our worship and adoration of our great God and King. Throughout the Bible, we are told that if we bow down and worship anything besides God, we are in great sin. When God reveals the 10 Commandments through Moses, we are warned about worshiping false gods and idols. "You shall not make for yourself a carved image... you shall not bow down to them or serve them" (Exodus 20:4-5). Later, God's people are told that the glory of God is for God alone. "I am the LORD; that is my name; my glory I give to no other, nor my praise to carved idols" (Isaiah 42:8).

This same idea is carried over into the New Testament revelation as we are reminded that worship is to be for God alone. When Jesus is tempted in the wilderness, the devil shows Jesus all the glorious kingdoms of the world saying, "All these I will give you, if you will fall down and worship me." To which Jesus responds, "Be gone, Satan! For it is written, 'You shall worship the Lord your God and him only shall you serve'" (Matthew 4:9-10). Again, Jesus points out that worship belongs to God alone.

Finally, after the Apostle John sees all the visions that he will record in the book of Revelation, he is overcome with emotion and begins to fall down and worship the angel who is with him. The angel rebukes John, saying, "You must not do that! I am a fellow servant with you and your brothers the prophets, and with those who keep the words of this book. Worship God" (Revelation 22:9).

We have established that people are called to worship God alone. Only God is worthy of worship.

Yet, as we read through the pages of the New Testament, we find that people worship Jesus and no one stops them or corrects them, not even Jesus Himself. For instance, when the Wise Men come to visit the baby Jesus we are told that they "fell down and worshiped him" (Matthew 2:11). Mary and Joseph were good Jews who know that worship belongs to God alone, and yet they do not stop this from happening. Why? Because they recognize that this baby is no ordinary child, but God in the flesh.

Throughout the ministry of Jesus we see moments when individuals fall down and worship before Him, and yet Jesus never stops them or corrects them (c.f. Matthew 14:33, 28:8-9, 17, Luke 19:38, John 12:13, 20:28). Theologian Millard Erickson points out that in Matthew 26:63 when Jesus is being questioned by the religious leaders, He has a great opportunity to correct any misunderstandings that people may have had about Him. "He could have avoided execution simply by denying that He was the Son of God, but He did not do that. Either He desired to die, albeit on a false charge, or He did not respond because the charge brought against Him was correct." Jesus would not lie about His true identity.

So should Christians worship Jesus? Most definitely! Worship belongs to God; therefore worship belongs to Jesus. The deity of Christ can be seen in a number of ways throughout the pages of the New Testament, this is only one of them. We worship Jesus because He is the eternal God made flesh.

Drug take-back event planned at Miami PD

You shouldn't dispose of unused or expired medications by flushing them down the toilet. Chemicals from prescription medicines can damage your town's water treatment system - or your own septic system, if you're off the grid. Instead, bring your expired and unused pills, powders, patches and ointments to a prescription medication take-back event Saturday, July 31 at the Miami Police Station, 740 W. Sullivan St., from 10 a.m. until 2 p.m. There's no need to even leave your car at this convenient drive-through event.

Medications, pills, powders, patches and ointments are accepted - but do not bring needles, inhalers or liquids. Drug overdose deaths in the United States continue to rise at an alarming rate. Just last week the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention reported a 29 percent spike in deaths over the past year - an estimated 93,331, including 69,710 involving opioids. The risk of overdose doubles for young people who have family using opioids.

Most people who misuse prescription drugs get them from family, friends and acquaintances. You can make a difference by keeping track of the medicine you have, rethinking where and how you keep your medications in your home, and safely disposing of any unused medications. Don't share; keep track of your legally prescribed controlled substances - that is, count your pills so you always know how much you should have and so you know when to take action if any go missing.

With controlled substances, sharing is not caring. You could be putting your loved ones at risk and unintentionally contributing to drug misuse, drug addiction or a fatal drug overdose. Limit access. Everyone knows to keep medicine out of the reach of children, but adolescents and teens can reach all the medicines in your home and they know exactly where you keep what. Many people keep their medicine in easy to reach, easy to access cupboards, medicine cabinets, drawers, etc. So put your medicine somewhere that only you can easily find and access - locked up, if possible.

This will keep your medicine from unintentionally ending up in the wrong hands and could save someone's life.
