“A Lost Childhood” author to speak at Bullion Plaza’s 2nd Friday

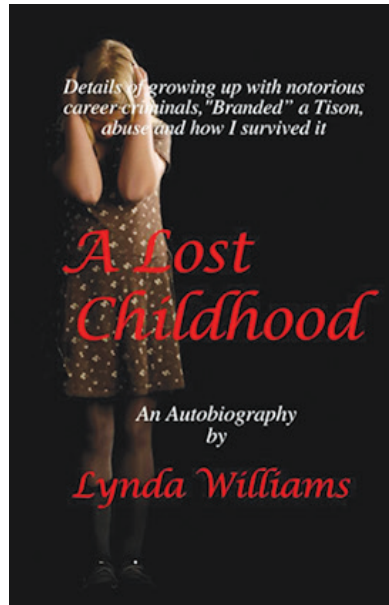

Living in extreme poverty and abuse, in a family of famous criminals, certainly shaped Lynda Tison Williams’ life, but rising above those beginnings to become a help and a hope to others is what she wants to convey in her presentation, through her autobiography, “A Lost Childhood.”

Lynda Williams, the sister of Gary Tison, an infamous sociopathic criminal of the 20th century, will be the guest presenter at the 2nd Friday program for May at Bullion Plaza Cultural Center & Museum in Miami, on May 12 starting at 6:30 p.m. These programs are free to the public. Lynda will have copies of her book for sale at the presentation.

“I grew up in a home with notorious, career criminals...my father, RC Tison, and three brothers, Gary, Joe, and Larry,” Lynda recounts. “Two books and movies were made about my family: ‘A Killer in The Family’ and ‘The Last Rampage,’ about the criminal activity of my father and three brothers.

Globe native Perino returning home for Independence Day celebrations

events of living in a home with criminals, the abuse and my attempt to survive it and become a productive member of society, and to live a normal life," she says.

Eventually, Lynda did survive her early life, and dedicated her life to help abused children. Not only did she become a C.A.S.A. (Court Appointed Special Advocate) for foster care children, she used her ranch for equine therapy and founded the Pinal Council for CASA/Foster, Inc., to raise money for the support of foster care children and for the people who advocate for them.

Retired Army Col. Larry Perino, a distinguished military veteran with embedded roots in Globe, is returning home for a special Fourth of July celebration from July 3 to July 7, 2024. The City of Globe, Globe High School Class of 1986, and Globe High School Alumni Association proudly announce events honoring Perino's exceptional service and contributions to his country.

Perino, a native of Globe, graduated from the United States Military Academy at West Point, NY, in 1990 and was commissioned as an infantry officer. His illustrious military career spans decades, during which he held key positions within multi-national, joint, conventional, training, and special operations commands.

With operational assignments at all levels, from tactical to strategic, Col. Perino's experiences range from infantry to special operations. Notably, he spent over seven years as a member of the 75th Ranger Regiment, serving overseas in Korea and deploying to Somalia in 1993 as part of Task Force Ranger in support of Operation Gothic Serpent, an experience immortalized in the book/movie "Black Hawk Down." Perino displayed extraordinary bravery during that harrowing mission, earning him the prestigious Silver Star, the United States Armed Forces' third-highest military decoration for valor in combat, for his actions during that intense firefight that took the lives of 8 Rangers and left more than 70 wounded.

Throughout his career, Perino served in various command and staff assignments, including operations officer of a Stryker Infantry Battalion in Iraq, special operations planner at U.S. Northern Command, 6th Ranger Training Battalion commander, and director of force management at ISAF Joint Command in Afghanistan.

Among his numerous awards and decorations are the Bronze Star with "V" device for Valor, Legion of Merit, Combat Infantryman's Badge (with Star), Master Parachutist Badge, Freefall Badge, and Ranger Tab. In 1993, he was honored with the General Douglas MacArthur Leadership Award.

Col. Perino retired from active duty in January 2015 after nearly 25 years of service and currently resides with his wife, Leslie, in Gulf Breeze, Florida. In 2014 he was inducted into the Globe High School Hall of Fame.

The celebration in Globe will begin with Col. Perino taking a cruise through the city, followed by a recognition ceremony at the CVCA Bandstand during the First Friday event on July 5 at 6 p.m. Mayor Al Gameros will officially proclaim July 5 as "Colonel Larry Perino Day" and present Perino with the key to the city. After the recognition ceremony, there will be a family and friends get-together at Silver Tap 928, where everyone is welcome to attend and celebrate.

Events will also take place in Miami to celebrate this hometown hero.

For further information on the Fourth of July celebration celebrating Retired Army Col. Larry Perino's homecoming, please contact Regina Ortega (Globe Event Coordinator) at 808-373-0032, Yvonne Avalos (Globe Event Coordinator) at 818-860-6650, or Jess Bryant (Miami Event Coordinator) at 928-200-6348.

Join us as we pay tribute to Retired Army Col. Larry Perino's remarkable achievements and dedicated service, a true source of pride for Globe-Miami.

OBITUARIES

Lenora Clark

Lenora Clark, 90, of Globe, AZ, passed away on Saturday, April 20, 2024, peacefully in her home surrounded by family and her garden of roses. She was preceded in death by her parents, brother

Dwight, husband Bud, daughter Gail, and grandchildren Neil, Jim Ed and Amberlyn.

Lenora was born on Jan. 30, 1934, to Homer and Edna Joy in Young, AZ, where she grew up and would meet her husband Charles "Bud" Clark, whom she married in 1951. Bud and Lenora lived in Pleasant Valley before moving to Texas and then eventually settled on "The Ranch" in El Capitan, where she thrived as a rancher's wife and mother raising their three children Lynn, Lee, and Gail, who all attended school in Globe.

Lenora loved gardening, traveling, cooking and sewing. She will be remembered for her roses, famous biscuits & gravy, and beautiful quilts. When she and Bud moved to Globe after the kids were all married and raising their families, she got to have her dream sewing room where she continued making quilts up until the end.

Above all, Lenora loved her family including her nieces, nephews, step-kids, cousins, and friends. Lenora is survived by many of these family members including her brother Frank and his wife Mary-Ann, two sons Lee and Lynn, and grandkids Lyssa, Lauren, Josh, Justin, Clint, Cassidy and Wes. She also leaves a legacy of 11 great-grandchildren and 5 great-great-grandchildren. Lyssa and Lauren got the family all together earlier this year to celebrate Lenora's 90th birthday in Globe.

Memorial services will be held at Lamont Mortuary on May 4 at 11 a.m.

Assisting the family; Lamont Mortuary of Globe.

Linnie Martin Dodd

Linnie Martin Dodd entered into eternal rest on April 17, 2024. She was born to Rev. John and Clara Lemmar on Feb. 27, 1924, in Waldron, Arkansas.

She met the love of her life, Henry Martin, in Waldron and was married when she was 18. They moved to Globe, Arizona in 1942, where they raised two sons, Stephen, and James. They were married for 48 years. After Henry passed away in 1990, she married Noel Dodd in 1996. They spent 12 years together until Noel's passing in 2008.

She is preceded in death by her father John, mother Clara, sister Ethel Burton, brothers Bill, Rev. Roy, Clifton, and Alonzo. She leaves behind her brother Odis of Waldron, Arkansas, sons, Stephen (Kitty), James (Christine), 4 grandchildren, 4 great-grandchildren, and 2 great-great-grandchildren.

She will be greatly missed.

Walking God's Way

Who doesn't enjoy accomplishments? Most of us like being recognized for our achievements, whether it's landing a big client at work, winning the chili cook-off, or training a baby to sleep all night. These are all good things, but God's purpose for us is so much deeper. Galatians 5:22-23 tells us that our character is important to God. That's why He instructs us to walk by the Spirit, so that the deeds of the flesh are replaced with God's attributes.

• Love is the foundation for all other virtues. We cultivate it by embracing God's unconditional love for us.

• Joy is contentment

regardless of our circumstances.

• Peace comes from trusting God and surrendering to Him.

• Patience is developed by trusting God's perfect timing.

• Kindness is God's compassion reflected to others.

• Goodness occurs as we mirror His righteousness and justice.

• Faithfulness means we are steadfast and trustworthy.

• Gentleness comes when we approach others with humility.

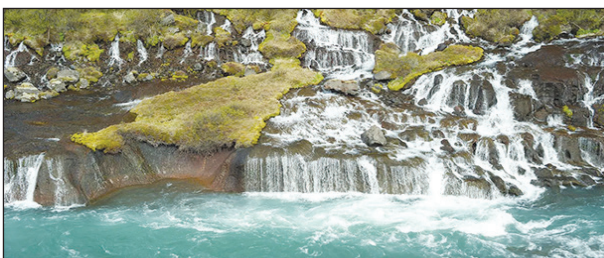

• Self-control requires us to exercise restraint and rely on the Holy Spirit's strength.

Growing in these virtues makes us more Christlike and testifies to God's transformative work in our life. And that's an accomplishment worth celebrating.

Joy in the Holy Spirit

Abiding with our Lord brings gifts that money can't buy.

In Romans 14:13-17, the apostle Paul writes, "[Do not] put an obstacle or a stumbling block in a brother's or sister's way ... For if because of food your brother or sister is hurt, you are no longer walking in accordance with love" (vv. 13, 15). God's kingdom isn't about what we eat or drink—or any other "rule" we think we must follow. Rather, it's about the transformative work of the Holy Spirit within us.

When we align with God's righteousness, seeking His ways and His will, joy blossoms. The Holy Spirit, our Comforter and Guide, brings it to life within us. He reminds us of God's love, assures us of our salvation, and empowers us to live in harmony with those around us. This is not some superficial or temporary happiness; See JOY, page 12 it's the fruit of the Spirit dwelling in us (Galatians 5:22) and transcends our circumstances.

Take a moment to reflect on the joy that comes from knowing God and seeking Him. This profound sense of stability and strength cannot be bought or manufactured—it flows from our connection to the Source of all joy and is a taste of the eternal pleasures that await us in God's presence (Psalm 16:11).

Decoding teen behavior classes start May 2

University of Arizona Cooperative Extension's Gila County staff will offer a Thursday series of weekly workshops in decoding teen behavior starting May 2 and continuing weekly at 5:30 p.m. for six Thursdays. Each session builds on the idea that teens be-feel a sense of belonging. Parents can learn skills to help teens develop the drive parents would want them to have as adults. Parents will learn the root causes of common behaviors and how to respond to that behavior in a productive way.

Read more and find sign-up links at facebook.com/gilaextension and extension.arizona.edu/gila, or call Gila County Cooperative Extension staff at (928) 402-8585.

Vitalant blood donors needed in Globe May 23 to save lives and honor moms

Every year, about 219,000 blood and platelet transfusions are needed to help patients experiencing women's health issues including about 1 of every 83 births. In honor of Mother's Day, nonprofit Vitalant is highlighting that need and thanking donors who give April 21 through May 23 with a chance to win one of 83, $83 gift cards when they opt in to the Vitalant Donor Rewards program. Donors of all blood types, especially type O, are vital to always maintain a robust blood supply for patients, from emergencies to ongoing medical treatments.

A Vitalant blood drive is being held in Globe Thursday, May 23 from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. in the Turquoise Conference Room at Cobre Valley Regional Medical Center, 5880 S. Hospital Dr.

May is also High Blood

Pressure Education Month. In addition to helping patients, Vitalant blood donors can also track their own health, including blood pressure, pulse, hemoglobin and cholesterol in their secure and confidential online account.

To make a blood donation appointment, visit vitalant.org, download the Vitalant app, or call 877-25-VITAL (877-258-4825).

This recipe makes for a great breakfast in bed this Mother's Day

There may be no better way to start Mother's Day than serving Mom some breakfast in bed. A homemade meal before Mom even gets out of bed can set the right tone for a day that celebrates all mothers have done and continue to do for their children.

There's no shortage of breakfast in bed options to serve Mom this Mother's Day. If Mom loves a traditional hearty morning meal, this recipe for "Mixed Berry French Toast" courtesy of Taste of Home (tasteofhome.com) is sure to please.

Mixed Berry French Toast
Makes 8 servings

- 6 large eggs
- 13/4 cups fat-free milk
- 1 teaspoon sugar
- 1 teaspoon ground cinnamon
- 1 teaspoon vanilla extract
- 1/4 teaspoon salt
- 1 loaf (1 pound) French bread, cubed
- 1 package (12 ounces) frozen unsweetened mixed berries
- 2 tablespoons cold butter
- 1/3 cup packed brown sugar Confectioners' sugar and maple syrup (optional)

Whisk together the first 6 ingredients. Place bread cubes in a 13 x 9-inch or 3-quart baking dish coated with cooking spray. Pour egg mixture over top. Refrigerate, covered, 8 hours or overnight.

Preheat oven to 350 F. Remove berries from freezer and French toast from refrigerator and let stand while oven heats. Bake French toast, covered, 30 minutes.

In a small bowl, cut butter into brown sugar until crumbly. Top French toast with berries; sprinkle with brown sugar mixture. Bake, uncovered, until a knife inserted in the center comes out clean, 15 to 20 minutes. If desired, dust with confectioners' sugar and serve with syrup.
