Broadband internet service ‘challenge’ comment by May 14

Are you satisfied with local internet service? Does your community lack access to broadband? Arizona Commerce Authority has invited comments by the Tuesday, May 14 deadline, described as a “Challenge process” to verify whether a particular location or community is not adequately served with broadband internet access. Local and Tribal governments may submit a challenge; so can non-profit organizations. Gila County residents are also invited to report service issues and test their own internet speed using an online challenge portal. Gila County Public Works chip-sealing schedule Residents from Saguaro Drive to the Stockyard, Central Heights streets and Russell Road: check the schedule below and mark your calendar ahead of chip-sealing scheduled during the month of May. Gila County Public Works Roads Division will be improving roads with chip-seal on top of the existing pavement, followed by a surface seal on top of the chip-seal. A chip-seal consists of a petroleum-based binder that seals the existing pavement and a 3/8” aggregate, “chip,” that will provide a new textured surface to drive on. To ensure the success of this project, Gila County is requesting that all residents who live in the following areas scheduled for this year’s chip-seal to not have anything parked within any road right-of-way from 6 a.m. to 5 p.m. for the duration of the project. This includes, but is not limited to, vehicles, boats, and trailers. This is to ensure we can cover 100% of the paved area and avoid damaging anything parked too close to the construction area.

There will be no road closures, but drivers should expect one-way traffic and/or temporary rerouting, small delays, flaggers and traffic control. These are the scheduled areas and dates for the chip-sealing:

BROADBAND, from page 1 portal,” said Gila County Manager James Menlove. “More than $993 million of federal funding is available for the state of Arizona to achieve universal internet access. This empowers local residents to add depth to the maps and data that will identify regions lacking reliable broadband infrastructure and service.”

Challenge categories may include broadband availability, speed, latency, data cap, business-service only; whether qualifying broadband service is available or not.

Hoping to tap nearly $1 billion of federal funding through the BEAD (Broadband Equity Access and Deployment) program, the Arizona Commerce Authority will determine the unserved, underserved, and served status of homes, businesses, and ‘community anchor institutions’ in the state. Unserved and underserved locations will be eligible to be connected through BEAD-funded projects. Arizona’s broadband navigator map is online at <https://az.BroadbandNavigator.com/map>. How to test your internet speed, or submit a challenge? Register at az.broadbandnavigator.com, then select your location associated with the challenge and identify the challenge type (availability, speed, etc.); upload evidence to support your challenge by the deadline Tuesday, May 14.

5 inspirational gifts for Mother's Day

Mother's Day is celebrated on Sunday, May 12, 2024. Mother's Day is devoted to expressing love and showering praise on mothers, step-mothers and any other figure in one's life who has taken on a motherly role.

It is customary to lavish extra praise on moms come Mother's Day, and that often involves gift-giving. The following are five gifts that can ensure Mom knows her efforts and unconditional love have not gone unnoticed.

1. Prompt mindful thinking: The cards from Sunny Present Empowering Questions Cards pose questions to prompt meditation, journaling or simply to practice mindfulness during the day. They are a great way to encourage positive self-talk. Each of the 52 cards feature a door in the Estonian city of Tallinn. Available through Amazon and www.sunny-present.com.

2. Motivational can-do candles: A little aromatherapy can treat any mother to an uplifting or relaxing fragrance in her special place in the home. But these inspirational candles from Bianchi Candle Co. feature names like "bravery," "joy" and "gratitude" and a motivational message. Purchase at bianchicandleco.com.

3. Inspirational coffee table book: Author and educator Natalie Friscia Pancetti wrote, "This Too... Life-Isms to Savor the Sweetness of Life and Calm You Through the Storms" to pay homage to her parents, particularly her father, who was fond of the phrase, "this too shall pass." Pancetti says people often relate the phrase to rough patches in life, but it also can refer to cherishing all the moments that are fleeting. The book offers many inspirational passages and lessons that can be applied to all aspects of life. It can be a touching gift for a mom, grandmother or another special woman. Available through Amazon, Barnes & Noble and at www.nataliefrisciapancetti.com.

4. Relaxing home spa experience: Many people have turned their bathrooms into home spas, particularly empty nesters who now have more time to relax and pamper themselves. Spending time in a relaxing shower is a way for Mom to clear her mind and unwind, and Shower

Steamers from Body Restore can set the ideal environment. Purchase on Amazon and include alongside additional home spa necessities like loofahs or a bathrobe.

5. Ancestry exploration: Foster greater bonds in the family by giving Mom an opportunity to further trace her heritage. Popular genealogy companies include Ancestry.com, MyHeritage.com and 23an-dme.com, enabling anyone to enjoy a look back at the lineage that helped shape who they are today. These companies can help trace ancestors and even connect people with distant relatives.

Mother's Day gifting can revolve around inspirational and heartfelt gifts that show special mothers how much they are appreciated.

OBITUARIES

Lenora Clark

Lenora Clark, 90, of Globe, AZ, passed away on Saturday, April 20, 2024, peacefully in her home surrounded by family and her garden of roses. She was preceded in death by her parents, brother Dwight, husband Bud, daughter Gail, and grandchildren Cassidy, Neil, Amberlyn, and Jim Ed.

Lenora was born on Jan. 30, 1934, to Homer and Edna Joy in Young, AZ where she grew up and would meet her husband Charles "Bud" Clark, whom she married in 1951. Bud and Lenora lived in Pleasant Valley before moving to Texas and then eventually settled on "The Ranch" in El Capitán, where she thrived as a rancher's wife and mother raising their three children Lynn, Lee, and Gail, who all attended school in Globe.

Lenora loved gardening, traveling, cooking, and sewing. She will be remembered for her roses, famous biscuits & gravy, and her beautiful quilts. When she and Bud moved to Globe after the kids were all married and raising their families, she got to have her dream sewing room where she continued making quilts up until the end.

Above all, Lenora loved her family including her nieces, nephews, step-kids, cousins, and friends. Lenora is survived by many of these family members including her brother Frank and his wife MaryAnn, two sons Lynn (Pat) and Lee, and grandkids Lyssa (Jack), Lauren (Tyler), Josh (Meagan), Justin, Clint (Leslie) and Wes (Angie). She also leaves a legacy of 11 great-grandchildren and 5 great-great-grandchildren. Lyssa and Lauren got the family all together earlier this year to celebrate Lenora's 90th birthday in Globe.

Assisting the family; Lamont Mortuary of Globe.

Carmen Slough

Our beloved mother, sister, grandmother, great-grandmother and aunt, Carmen Slough, died peacefully on April 27 at the age of 110 in her home.

Carmen was pre-deceased by her husband Alfred Slough, who died in 1948. Carmen is survived by son Robert (Bob) and his wife Carol, of Apple Valley, California, and Bob's children, Jeffry (Rhea) Slough of Bellingham, WA and LeAnn Slough of Hawthorn, CA. Carmen leaves great-grandchildren Jerry Slough (Samantha) of Bellingham, WA and Alexis Donnelly (Rylan) of Ferndale, WA.

Carmen is also survived by her beloved brother, Antonio (Tony) Blanco of Phoenix; nieces, nephews, great and great-greats; her dearly loved long-time friend and caregiver, Aurora Wallace; and Carmen's little companion dog, Muffy.

We will all miss her lovely home, the gathering place of our lifetimes, and we will miss her, our wise, candid matriarch. She has long been the tie that has bound our family together.

Born in Douglas, Arizona to Spanish immigrants in 1914 during the Spanish flu pandemic, Carmen survived many pandemics and epidemics during her lifetime. It is impossible to list the vast array of changes her lifetime has wrought. She lived through two World Wars, having had brothers and friends who served in World War II. She saw Globe evolve from dirt streets and cattle drives down Broad Street to, presently, today's electric cars traveling Broad Street. She hand-wrote accounting ledgers in her businesses, but then learned to create computerized spreadsheets, have a Facebook page and use a cell phone.

Carmen was an entrepreneur from an early age with her husband Alfred. Together, they owned and operated "Slough's Market." Later, she and brother Edward co-owned and operated Carm-Ed's Men's and Boy's Clothing store for 47 years.

Carmen was a quintessential pragmatist. After the death of her husband, as a single mom, she raised and college educated her beloved son, who became an educator and coach. She believed in hard work, in navigating life's difficulties, and she always did so with her characteristic grace and elegance. Carmen epitomized the term "iron fist in a velvet glove" and she proved her courage, strength and stamina in all her challenges and undertakings.

Carmen became iconic in Globe as a local celebrity who was often seen working in her garden, participating in the local Elk's Emblem Club, at community plays and musical events. Carmen was honored at the age of 100 for being the oldest living graduate of Globe High School and was inducted into the GHS Hall of Fame. She is well known for her philanthropy and community involvement.

Carmen valued family; son Bob most of all, daughter-in-law Carol, her dear friend Aurora, her extended family, her little dog Muffy, and Globe, the community she cherished.

In lieu of a funeral, a Celebration of Life will be held on Saturday, June 8 at the Globe Elks Club.

David was a very hard worker and owner of Miami Machine and Manufacturing in Miami, Arizona. He also enjoyed building engines for vehicles and spending time with family and friends. His hobbies included building toys for children out of wood, hiking, fishing, hunting, camping and reloading bullets.

He is survived by his wife of 51 years, Deborah Hiibel, and brother Quincy Auliso. David is preceded in death by his brothers Nicholas Pontliana, Bill Pontliana and Dean Hiibel along with his parents Jake and Elaine Hiibel.

Memorial service will be held at 11 a.m. on Saturday, May 11, 2024, at the Lamont Mortuary Chapel in Globe, Arizona.

Frances Tewksbury

Frances Louise Tewksbury was born Oct. 2, 1930, to Frances Irene Phelps and William C. Phelps, Sr. in Petoskey, Michigan.

Several years later Frances, her older brother Bill, and her mom moved west to Winslow, Arizona.

Frances completed her schooling there, where she was a cheerleader. After high school, she and Billy Jack Burgett were married and had one son, Lonnie Richard Burgett. Billy Jack enlisted in the Army and two years later he returned home to Winslow. Billy Jack went to work at a nearby ranch and lost his life in a ranching accident. Soon afterwards, Frances went to cosmetology school and got her license.

Several years later, Frances married John Q. Gillette from Young, Arizona. They had one son, Ernest Edward Gillette. A short time later, they moved to Globe. Frances worked at a beauty salon and later she worked at JC Penney's. Several years later she was hired at the Gila County Health Department. There she worked with her best friend Mary Jane Steele. They traveled all over Gila County giving the required immunizations.

She and John Q. loved going to the horse races all over Arizona with their best friends, the Byrnes, the Hughes and Dr. Skinner. Frances took care of John Q. until he passed away in 1987.

After a couple of years, she and James Henry Tewksbury met and ended up getting married. "Tewks" and the Lotus Flower (as Tewks called her) enjoyed going to the casino. They were married 20+ years and James Henry passed away in 2012.

Frances always said that in her next life she was going to marry a man who would cook. Frances loved playing bingo and spending time at the casino. Apache Gold will surely miss her!

Frances is survived by one son, Lonnie Richard Burgett (Yolanda); grandsons Brandon Wayne Burgett (Angelina) and Eric Brobeck (Michelle); granddaughter Bristol Leos (Albert); 9 great-grandchildren and 6 great-great grandchildren; and her best buddy Max, her cat.

Assisting the family; Lamont Mortuary of Globe.

Cristi Vargas

Cristi Michelle Vargas was born on Jan. 11, 1976, to Coach Dickie and Stella Flores Vargas. After 6 boys, the family welcomed the new baby girl and the Vargas household was never the same.

Cristi attended Miami schools and was a Vandal through and through. For 12 years she was her mother's and brother Richard's copilot to all her dad's basketball games. During her junior high years, she participated in volleyball and basketball. She loved music and danced to her own drum, her own beat. She was a 1994 graduate of Miami High School and after graduation, she took her turn working in local restaurants and fast food – Dairy Queen, Burger House, and Country Kitchen. She attended Gila Pueblo College, where she was taking EMT courses.

Cristi was employed by Safeway for over 24 years, working in the produce department and many other areas throughout the store. She enjoyed helping people find the right produce while adding her huge, witty sense of humor and sometimes her sarcasm to their shopping experience. Through the Safeway Corporation, she was a member of the "Reset Team" for 5 years, resetting stores all over the state of Arizona.

"Nutty Nina," as she was affectionately called by her nieces and nephews, worked for the Miami Police Department as a dispatcher for many years while also working at Safeway. She volunteered for Tri-City Fire Department, coached Youth League basketball for several years and the kids on her team still called her "coach" even after 30 years.

Cristi was proud of all her brothers, their accomplishments, and spoke about them often. She organized a basketball team called, "Who's Next?", and all her brothers played on her team. One of her proudest moments was when her team won the tournament. She traveled to Germany to visit her niece, Nikki, and had the opportunity to visit the Dachau Concentration Camp. When she spoke of this visit it was always in reverence and great regard to the Jewish people and what they endured. Her world travels also took her to the Netherlands, the Czech Republic, southern Bavaria, and Amsterdam. She also attended the Kentucky Derby with one of her best friends, Laura.

"Nina-Nina" loved all her nieces, nephews, cousins, aunts, uncles, extended family, and friends. She was bold in her personality and was a bright light in a room. She was famous for her scalloped potatoes and her macaroni and cheese at family gatherings. She loved country music, going to athletic events, eating seafood, having a massage, getting her nails and hair done, crocheting, and cooking. She had many life-long friends, made friends wherever she was, and had a thousand stories. She was crazy and funny and had the biggest loving heart, often taking food and clothing to someone in need or paying for someone's meal.

Cristi is survived by her brothers, Lenny (Clydene), Kenny (Evelyn), Richard, Steve (Angela) and Chris, and those she always considered sisters, Becky Guadiana and Penny Remondini. She loved her fur babies, Foxy and Luda. Cristi longed for those she lost in her life: Her mom, Stella; her dad, Dickie; and her brother James.

The world became a few decibels quieter at 1 a.m. April 28, 2024. We will miss you, our dearest Cristi.

A celebration of Cristi's life will be held at Our Lady of the Blessed Sacrament Church on Saturday, May 11. Visitation from 9 – 10 a.m., followed by the Rosary at 10 a.m. Mass will be said at 10:30 a.m.

Assisting the family; Lamont Mortuary of Globe.

The Importance of Right Motives

David found King Saul's reward for Goliath's defeat interesting—in fact, he asked to have it repeated twice (1 Sam. 17:26, 30). However, David may have been young, but he wasn't foolish. The reward was a nice perk, but it wasn't the young shepherd's motivation.

David's reason for standing against Goliath was to serve the Lord. He openly criticized the giant: "For who is this uncircumcised Philistine, that he has dared to defy the armies of the living God?" (v. 26). Challenging the chosen nation of Israel was the same as defying the Lord Himself. David was prepared to defend Yahweh's holy name and His people, even against this fearsome

Embrace Your God-Given Gifts

As believers, we've been granted special abilities to be used during our time here on earth. First Peter 4:10 says we have a responsibility to respond to this divine grace by serving one another. It's important to realize these gifts aren't just for our own advantage—they're meant to be used generously, impacting the lives of those around us. And God is glorified when we do so in dependence on Him for guidance and strength.

The Lord wants us to recognize our abilities as being from Him, and we're to use them to sow seeds of love and compassion.

Courtesy photo

When we serve one another, we become vessels of God's grace, enriching the body of Christ and shining His light in the world.

Think about your talents. What do you love to do? What are the things that make serving a joy and cause you to feel fully alive? These capabilities aren't just coincidental parts of who you are;

they've been deliberately bestowed by the Lord.

As outlined in today's passage, believers are to steward their God-given abilities well, selflessly using them to benefit others (Ephesians 4:11-12). So, embrace your gifts with humility and appreciation. And utilize them to uplift those around you, heal wounds, and spread God's love.

warrior. A right and holy motive gives a person confidence to obey God, even if doing so defies human wisdom.

When facing life's Goliaths, we might be tempted to approach God with a plea like, I'm tired of being in this mess, or I want to run away but can't, so You'll have to remove this problem.

However, the right motive for facing a problem is the desire to follow, serve, and honor God—no matter what. Giant challenges may tax our comfort or wellbeing, but wanting a quick way out can impede our obedient walk with God. So pray, "Lord, help me to stand strong in Your name. And grant me victory over the Goliaths in my life, bringing you honor and glory each step of the way."

Kearny, Hayden-Winkelman Jobs by May 13, Monday

If you're between age 16-21 and want summer work, apply online before the Monday, May 13 deadline next week for jobs starting Monday, June 3 based in in Globe-Miami, Superior, Kearny and Hayden-Winkelman.

Jobs are sponsored by the Gila County Board of Supervisors, but applicants are not required to live in Gila County!

Gila County Government's innovative youth summer jobs program secured $306,000 from the Arizona Office of Economic Opportunity (OEO), paving the way for six jobs each in Kearny, Hayden, Winkelman and Superior--and an impressive nine jobs assigned to the Hayden-Winkelman Unified School District.

Jobs are coordinated by Gila County Government and placed with community partners including local towns--even extending to neighboring towns in Pinal County. That's new this year, and thanks to Gila County Supervisor Woody Cline and his Executive Assistant Cathy Melvin attending a February Governor's Round Table in Superior. While there they met with Office of Economic Opportunity staff, and seized an opportunity to apply for funding that dramatically multiplied the summer youth employment budget from about $70,000 last year to $306,000--more than enough to hire two Arizona Conservation Corps crews (one each, to be based in Globe and Payson); plus expanding opportunities to towns along the Gila County/Pinal County border including Superior, Kearny and Hayden-Winkelman.

A range of indoor and outdoor work positions this year can range from being a lifeguard at the community pool in Globe, to library assistant--or as a Public Health clerk. There are opportunities to apprentice with an IT professional--learning a range of new computer and network skills on-the-job, as a clerk in a finance department--or office work for Gila County Public Works. Summer jobs are designed to add to your skillset, expand your contact list-- and your career options.

Whether you live in Pinal County neighboring communities; Payson and Rim Country, central Gila County; Globe-Miami, San Carlos, or Hayden-Winkelman--apply today! This innovative program matches local youth with a range of jobs that pay $14.35-per-hour, working over the course of six-weeks for Gila County Government, or for six weeks placed with town governments in Superior, Kearny, Hayden-Winkelman; Payson, Globe, and Miami.

Broadband Internet Service 'Challenge' Comment by Deadline May 14, Tuesday

Are you satisfied with the local internet service? Does your community lack access to broadband? Arizona Commerce Authority has invited comments by the May 14 (Tuesday) deadline, described as a "Challenge process" to verify whether a particular location or community is not adequately served with broadband internet access. Local and Tribal governments may submit a challenge; so can nonprofit organizations.

Gila County residents are also invited to report service issues and test their own internet speed using an online challenge portal.

Find complete information, and links to the online speed-testing portal, at <https://www.azcommerce.com/broadband/arizona-broadband-equity-access-deployment-program/the-challenge-process/>

"Rural areas such as Gila County stand to benefit from this, and I urge residents who want improved broadband access to use the Arizona Commerce Authority speed-testing portal," said Gila County Manager James Menlove. "More than $993 million of federal funding is available for the state of Arizona to achieve universal internet access. This empowers local residents to add depth to the maps and data that will identify regions lacking reliable broadband infrastructure and service."

Challenge categories may include broadband availability, speed, latency, data cap, business-service only; whether qualifying broadband service is available or not."

Hoping to tap nearly $1 billion of federal funding through the BEAD (Broadband Equity Access and Deployment) program, the Arizona Commerce Authority will determine the unserved, underserved, and served status of homes, businesses, and 'community anchor institutions' in the state. Unserved and underserved locations will be eligible to be connected through BEAD-funded projects.

Arizona's broadband navigator map is online at <https://az.BroadbandNavigator.com/map>.

How to test your internet speed, or submit a challenge? Register at az.broadbandnavigator.com, then select your location associated with the challenge and identify the challenge type (availability, speed, etc.); upload evidence to support your challenge by the deadline May 14, Tuesday.

Southern Gila County Pre-Season Fire Meeting

For the eighth year in a row, Gila County District 2 Supervisor Tim Humphrey convened an interagency roundtable of first responders for a pre-fire-season meeting.

"It's great to work with all entities to prepare for the upcoming fire season. We have built a good working relationship," said Sup. Humphrey, who hosts the annual fire meetings, coordinated with Gila County Emergency Management staff, the Gila County Sheriff's Office and a thorough array of first responders, state and federal agencies.

The meeting included representatives of the National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration; United States Forest Service; Arizona Department of Transportation; and fire stations in Globe and Tonto Basin, as well as power companies APS and SRP. Other participants have included Pinto Valley, Freeport and Resolution Mining and State Representative David Cook.

"A resounding success," said Gila County Emergency Manager Carl Melford, bringing together "department leaders and stakeholders involved in wildfire response to deliberate on the season outlook, strategies and updates from their respective organizations."

While initial assessments point towards an anticipated average year in wildfire potential, "past experiences have taught us to remain vigilant as nature's plans can swiftly change without warning," said Melford. "The group unanimously agrees that preparedness for any scenario is paramount."

Melford said that "noteworthy mentions" from the April 18 meeting included a "multitude of mitigation projects underway by the Forest Service," along with a "commendable level of preparedness demonstrated by all participating organizations. Such strong partnerships are invaluable in the high-stakes, high-stress environment of wildfire response."

A Gila County resident himself, Melford finds solace in "witnessing the evolution of our response agencies from mere acquaintances learning to collaborate to a cohesive unit dedicated to keeping our community safe."

Addressing all Gila County residents, Humphrey said, "I am asking for all of you to help us and be fire wise around your properties to help us all have a safer fire season."

“A Lost Childhood” author to speak at Bullion Plaza’s 2nd Friday

Living in extreme poverty and abuse, in a family of famous criminals, certainly shaped Lynda Tison Williams’ life, but rising above those beginnings to become a help and a hope to others is what she wants to convey in her presentation, through her autobiography, “A Lost Childhood.”

Lynda Williams, the sister of Gary Tison, an infamous sociopathic criminal of the 20th century, will be the guest presenter at the 2nd Friday program for May at Bullion Plaza Cultural Center & Museum in Miami, on May 12 starting at 6:30 p.m. These programs are free to the public. Lynda will have copies of her book for sale at the presentation.

“I grew up in a home with notorious, career criminals...my father,

RC Tison, and three brothers, Gary, Joe, and Larry,” Lynda recounts.

“Two books and movies were made about my family: ‘A Killer in The Family’ and ‘The Last Rampage,’ about the criminal activity of my father and three brothers.

“My book details the events of living in a home with criminals, the abuse and my attempt to survive it and become a productive member of society, and to live a normal life,” she says.

Eventually, Lynda did survive her early life, and dedicated her life to help abused children. Not only did she become a C.A.S.A. (Court Appointed Special Advocate) for foster care children, she used her ranch for equine therapy and founded the Pinal Council for CASA/Foster, Inc., to raise money for the support of foster care children and for the people who advocate for them.

Learn the meanings behind popular Mother's Day flowers

Mother's Day is a time to express love and appreciation for mothers, sentiments that are often expressed with gifts. Flowers are a popular present to bestow on Mother's Day, as they can brighten a room and bring a sweet aroma to any household.

While any flowers may ultimately suffice on Mother's Day, gift givers may want to select flowers for Mom that convey specific messages. The language of flowers has been recognized for centuries. Though perhaps not as heralded as it once was, flower symbolism persists to this day. Here's a look at some of the meanings behind certain types of flowers to help guide Mother's Day gifting.

- Amaryllis: These plants start as bulbs and are naturally spring-blooming flowers. The name comes from the Greek word "amarysso," which means "to sparkle," and they symbolize pride.

- Aster: These daisy-like flowers are delicate-looking perennials. Asters make great gifts because they symbolize love and daintiness.

- Begonia: There are more than 2,000 types of begonias, and the flower symbolizes deep thoughts. Begonias were made famous by French horticulturist Michel Bégon, who thought the blooms looked like beautiful girls.

- Bleeding heart: These flowers are red and pink blossoms that look like the perfect heart shape with a teardrop at the bottom. They're beautiful and symbolic of love and affection.

- Buttercup: These are associated with youthfulness and cheerfulness and can call to mind childhood days spent picking buttercups and holding them under chins to reveal that you like butter. The flower is known for its beauty and innocent charm.

- Camellia (white): White camellias stand for purity and innocence, but they also symbolize admiration and respect. Camellias make beautiful additions to any bouquet.

- Daisy: Daisies are happy-looking flowers, and according to Norse mythology they represent motherhood and children.

- Delphinium: Delphiniums come in pink, white and blue varieties and embody youth and renewal. They're a good pick if you want to convey a continued or renewed affection for a person.

- Tulip: Tulips with an orange hue are thought to represent understanding and appreciation. They can express appreciation for Mom or another special person. Yellow tulips symbolize happiness, while pink tulips are symbolic of love. Red blooms should be reserved for sweethearts.

Various flowers symbolize feelings people want to express to their mothers, grandmothers and other special women on Mother's Day.

HOROSCOPES

ARIES – Mar 21/Apr 20
Aries, it's challenging for you and a romantic partner to get together this week and that may lead to stress. Over time you will be able to reconnect and get things back in sync.

TAURUS – Apr 21/May 21
Taurus, normally you are very open, but all of your communication channels seem to be blocked of late. Don't be too hard on yourself as things will return to normal soon enough.

GEMINI – May 22/June 21
Gemini, if a family member has been in a bad mood or is feeling unwell, it is up to you to get to the root of the situation. Provide whatever assistance you can.

CANCER – June 22/July 22
Cancer, you may feel like you don't want to get involved if a friend or colleague is in trouble. But this person can really use your help at the moment and you should step up.

LEO – July 23/Aug 23
Don't let your career get sidetracked by gossip and office politics, Leo. You should stand up for yourself if others are speaking poorly about you. Avoid getting involved in gossip.

VIRGO – Aug 24/Sept 22
Virgo, what seems to be bad news about your financial situation may not be as bad as it once appeared. Double-check the details before you become panicked.

LIBRA – Sept 23/Oct 23
Libra, you may be inclined to protect loved ones from the truth this week, but they need to hear all of the details in this instance. Break any news to them gently.

SCORPIO – Oct 24/Nov 22
Scorpio, you are a workaholic by nature, but when fatigue hits you this week, you'll need to step back and give yourself time to rest. There's a lot coming your way soon enough.

SAGITTARIUS – Nov 23/Dec 21
A person who is no longer in your life may be on your mind a lot these days, Sagittarius. Cherish the fond memories you have of this person and don't worry about being preoccupied.

CAPRICORN – Dec 22/Jan 20
Capricorn, misinformation may be spreading around you and it can be tempting to add your own input to the discussions. Make sure your contributions can be backed up.

AQUARIUS – Jan 21/Feb 18
You are finally putting some of your longstanding plans in motion, Aquarius. However, this week you may receive some information that might delay progress.

PISCES – Feb 19/Mar 20
Someone may try to mislead you with some inaccurate information this week, Pisces. Conduct your own research and you'll get all of the details you need for to draw your own conclusion.
