Miami Music in the Park July 13

The Sunset Highway Band rocks Veterans Memorial Park in Miami July 13 as the summertime music in the park series continues from 6 – 9 p.m., sponsored by Miami Genesis - thanks to a generous grant from the United Fund of Globe-Miami. Outdoor summer concerts are free – but make sure you bring cash for snack bar options which usually include delicious red or green chile burros, tasty bean burros, nachos, cheese crisps, soda, candy and popcorn.

Filling God's "Gaps"

Has God given you a vision that is as yet unfulfilled? Has He assigned you a task that remains incomplete, though you've done everything you know to do?

The "gaps" the Lord creates in our life are designed for His specific purposes. Sometimes they are meant to prepare us for His preordained answer. It's also possible He first wants to take care of some other necessary component of His plan. Perhaps a delay is intended to test our faith so He can prove Himself trustworthy. Or He may be using a pause as an occasion for correction.

It is always wise to wait on the Lord while He prepares us for His answers. We should pray and trust God, not acting until we're certain that we have heard from Him and Him alone. Even people with godly intentions can be wrong—look at Abram's poor decisions after listening to the seemingly solid logic of his wife. The result was that Sarai's handmaiden Hagar conceived Abram's child, which was not part of the Lord's preferred plan.

Anything other than God's plan carried out God's way amounts to self-reliance. Depend on His Spirit when deciding how to proceed; any other course of action can lead to serious and lasting repercussions.

The Power of Patience

Will you trust the Lord to wisely give—or not give—in His perfect timing?

Picture yourself in a checkout line that hasn't moved for 10 minutes. Many of us would feel frustrated; we want quick results.

Everyone struggles with some degree of impatience. We're born with this trait—think about a hungry baby. The natural reaction is to fuss at the first hint of discomfort and to keep at it until the need is met. Patterns from our sin nature make this a continual battle, but one that is very much worth fighting.

In the Bible, the word patience can refer to both longsuffering and perseverance. It reveals itself when we are willing to wait without frustration while suffering or experiencing some strong desire. What's more, being patient means accepting whatever God chooses to give (or not to give) and willingly receiving it on His timetable. In the meantime, we should pray and obey as we seek His direction. The danger of impatience is that we might miss the Lord's perfect plan and blessing. But when we trust our Father's will and timing, we will know inner peace.

Remember to carefully examine whether you are taking matters into your own hands or releasing the circumstance to almighty God. Follow Psalm 37:7, which says, "Rest in the Lord and wait patiently for Him." And always remember to seek God's way and His timing.

Globe-Miami Farmers Market Saturdays

Apricots, plums and peaches are ripe, early tomato varieties are red and tasty – and vendors have eggs from happy free-range chickens. Globe-Miami Farmers Market vendors set up outside Globe City Hall under the shade trees of Veterans Park at 8 a.m. each Saturday this summer. Kiddos can swing, climb and try out the array of new playground gear nearby, while you browse booths and tables with everything from artisanal bread and pastries to plants, chile powder, jams and jellies, locally grown lavender (plus soaps and lotions made from the aromatic herb) and much more.

Want to be a vendor for the market? Local non-profit and service organizations are welcome to set up informational tables for free, while for commercial vendors the fee is just $10, with no commission on sales. The current list of vendors includes Growing Wild, Chito The Chili Guy, Namaste Nursery, CocoTiki Bread Co., D & L Embroidery, Hysong Grows, Copper Valley Lavender, Home Sweet Home Wholesome Goods, Mocha Tree, RMB-CO and Glass Galori. For details call or text DeAnna Sanders at 602-316-3868, join the farmers market group on Facebook for weekly updates – or download a vendor application and read more at

Summer adventures begin at Globe Public Library

As the school year winds down and the summer heats up, Globe Public Library has summer fun options for you. With adventure as our theme, we will have several different types of adventures you can join. Build your passport for summer adventure and get your adventure gear.

Mondays, we have Family Storytime at 10:30 a.m. This early literacy adventure is designed with the youngest in mind. We will sing, read, write, play, and talk all summer long.

Tuesdays, we have a Crafting Adventure at 10:30 a.m. Explore the world through crafts from different countries. We are starting in the United States and will travel the world. These adventures are designed with elementary through middle school students in mind.

Thursdays, we have a Cooking Adventure at 4 p.m. except on July 25, then it will be at 5 p.m. Travel the world with your taste buds. We will be starting in New Orleans, Louisiana, USA. These adventures are designed for all ages, be prepared for food fun for all.

Fridays, we have a STEM Adventure at 10:30 a.m. Explore Science, Technology, Engineering, and Math all summer long. These adventures are designed with the older student in mind, middle school and up.

Then we will travel the world from the comfort of your own chair with Armchair Adventures at 2:30 p.m. We will explore the world through sights and sounds. Take a virtual field trip to many different places. We will start in New Orleans, Louisiana, USA with the sights and sounds of that amazing city and travel the world, visiting a new continent each week. This adventure is designed with the adult in mind, but all are welcome to come.

With the family in mind, this summer's programs are open for anyone who wants to go on the adventure. The age groups for which the adventures are designed are listed but anyone can come. We ask that parents stay with children who are younger than the recommended age group.

Our Scholastic Book Fair will run Saturday,

July 13, through Saturday, July 20. Operating hours of the book fair will be Monday – Wednesday, 8:30 a.m. to 5 p.m., Thursday, 8:30 a.m. to 7 p.m., Friday, 8:30 a.m. to 5 p.m., and Saturdays 8:30 a.m. to 2 p.m. Summer Reading Programs during this week will not happen.

Science Heroes: The Adventure of the Lost Treasure is on July 26 at 10:30 a.m. at Copper Rim Elementary. Join Science Heroes on a treasure-hunting adventure deep within the jungle! Along the way, the audience helps the performer conduct exciting science experiments that bring this story to life! Experiment with chemical reactions, air pressure, physical explosions, and more! Don't miss this exciting and interactive STEM learning adventure!

Don't forget Summer Food. Globe Public Library has partnered with Globe Unified School District again this summer. We will be serving breakfast at 9 a.m. and lunch at noon. These meals are free for people 0-18 years old. Adults are welcome to eat as well. Breakfast is $2.25 and lunch is $4. We will have weekend bags on Fridays at noon so you can eat lunch, then pick up a bag for the weekend.

So let the summer adventures begin.
