Gila County opens new cooling center amid heat wave

By David Sowders
Assistant Editor

On Monday, July 8, Gila County Public Health & Community Services officially opened a new cooling center in Globe/Miami, to give community members some respite from this summer's high temperatures.

"It's just a place that people can come grab a bottle of water and relax in the air conditioning for a short period of time, to get out of the extreme heat that we're seeing in southern Gila County," said Health Equity and Prevention Manager Kayle Lathrop. "We'll be open any day that the National Weather Service has over 100 degrees on their heat risk map."

This meant the center was open every day the week of July

Gila County Public Health & Community Services' new cooling center saw its official opening July 8.

8-12, as high temperatures in Globe ranged from 104 (Friday) to 107 (Tuesday) according to AccuWeather.com. "We're seeing some record heat lately," said Lathrop.

The cooling center, located next to and above the Gila County complex at 5515 S. Apache Ave., is a converted conex box that is solar-powered and retrofitted with an air conditioning unit and a power supply. Lathrop said Gila County Public Health & Community Services applied for the facility through the Attorney General's Office and Arizona Department of Health Services.

"We haven't set a maximum time [that people can stay in the cooling center], but our aim is to open 11 a.m. to 5 p.m. on those days," said Lathrop. In its first two days, July 8-9, the center was open from noon to 5.

"We haven't had anyone come in yet, just because we weren't advertising until we were open officially," she added, "but we anticipate seeing that number rise this week as people learn about us."

Lathrop said that after checking the heat risk map Monday mornings, she sends it to the department's director and deputy director along with managers. "From there we try and staff the center for the week. Once I make that de-

District 2 Supervisor Humphrey Helps Tonto Basin Fire District with Critically Needed Equipment

The presentation took place at Supervisor Humphrey's July 2 Tonto Basin community meeting.

"Chief Stoltenberg gave us an update recently at a Board of Supervisors meeting," said Supervisor Humphrey. "He explained how the Tonto Basin Fire District needs to replace aging equipment and address mounting repair costs - issues he's been tackling since he became fire chief ten months ago. My community meetings each month in Tonto Basin and across District 2 have proven to be a great way to engage directly in the communities that I represent, to maintain contacts and provide support to our first responders."

Chief Stoltenberg added that it was apparent during his first year on the job that infrastructure, maintenance and long-term planning were imperatives. "The district has worked to develop capital replacement plans and explore additional funding opportunities, meticulously evaluating the equipment, fleet and stations, as previous management focused on day-to-day operations," Stoltenberg explained.

The district has applied for grants—targeting crucial assets like a Type 3 engine and self-contained breathing apparatus (SCBA).

Grants and donations over the past 10 months have "elevated the district," such as an ice machine from the Foothills 911 Association: two AEDs from the 100 Club of Arizona, as well as four more AEDs from the MHA Foundation.

"We have also been expanding our training and capabilities to respond in our fire district and around Gila County," Stoltenberg told Supervisor Humphrey, "This is where we need your assistance."

Currently, the Tonto Basin Fire District has five Technical Rescue Trained (TRT) personnel for rope rescue—and two just received the training.

During the training, the district evaluated their equipment, finding most of it outdated as technology has changed, said Stoltenberg, who requested $6,628.58 to complete their packs and bring them up to standard.

"We have already purchased another $2,000 just so we could do the class," he explained.

As Stoltenberg pointed out in his May 10 letter, "the Tonto Basin Fire District serves as a vital lifeline for the unincorporated areas of Gila County--a region enveloped by the breathtaking expanse of the Tonto National Forest."

While the fire district is about 48 square miles, adding in the Tonto National Forest means that, in reality, the department covers about 101 square miles.

"My community meetings each month in Tonto Basin and across District 2 have proven to be a great way to engage directly in the communities that I represent, to maintain contacts and provide support to our first responders."

Who Can Vote in the Primary?

> ALL Registered Voters: Independent, Libertarian, Republican, Democrat, Green, No-Labels

This week Gila County Recorder Sadie Jo Bingham re-affirmed that ALL registered voters are allowed to vote in this month's primary: Independent, Libertarian, Republican, Democrat, Green No-Labels or 'Party Not Designated (PND)'-- ALL voters.

Her press release issued July 9 corrects misinformation concerning the 2024 Primary Election. Voters registered as Independent or Party Not Designated (PND) are able to participate in the Primary Election.

If you are registered as an Independent or PND and on the Active Early Voting List (AEVL) and haven't received your ballot it is because you have not notified the Gila County Recorder's Office of your ballot choice (Democratic or Republican).

Please call the Gila County Recorder's Office at 928-402-8738 or 928-402-8740, tell staff your choice of ballot, and that will be mailed to you.

Republicans, Democrats, Libertarians, Greens and No Labels registered voters can vote in the Primary Election.

If you are registered within the city or town limits of Globe, Miami, Hayden, Winkelman, Payson or Star Valley, you are eligible for the town races, and they will be on your ballot regardless of what party you are registered as.

Moving Beyond Our Fears

The Scriptures distinguish between two kinds of fear: healthy and unhealthy. The healthy kind is beneficial. One example is the wise caution that keeps us from touching a hot stove. Another is the proper fear of God (Ecclesiastes 12:13), which includes a sense of awe because of who the Lord is. It also involves a lifestyle of respectful obedience that honors Him.

Unhealthy fear, on the other hand, causes us to feel tense, uncomfortable, or threatened. Even when there's no longer any basis for apprehension, it may continue to thwart us.

The imagination can generate this type of fear by getting us caught up in "what if" thinking. Habitual worries like What if something goes wrong? or What if the outcome I want doesn't happen? can block God's best. His purposes—such as learning new skills, changing jobs, or trying a different way of ministering to others—often require that we move beyond what feels most comfortable. Challenges of this sort present the opportunity to trust the Lord and obey Him.

Remember that unhealthy fear isn't from God (2 Timothy 1:7). So, let the Holy Spirit guide you from a place of disquiet into the freedom that is ours in Christ (Galatians 5:1). There you will discover the ability to follow His plan without being hindered by undue alarm.

The Landmine of Fear

You don't have to be afraid of anything—Almighty God is with You and promises to help.

Fear has been a part of our emotional makeup since the fall of man. When Adam and Eve rebelled against God, they hid themselves from Him and were afraid (Genesis 3:10). Things haven't changed much. Anxiety often affects our thinking and controls our actions. It can keep us confined and unwilling to venture into unknown territory. Let truth help you defeat fear. Remember that God is ...

- Almighty. Jesus set us free from slavery to sin; the Devil has lost control over our lives. What's more, we no longer face eternal separation from God. Jesus' physical death has become the gateway to heaven, where we can live with the Father forever.

- Always with us. In commissioning Joshua to lead the Israelites into the Promised Land, God promised to be with him (Joshua 1:5, 1:9). Jesus gives us similar reassurance (Matthew 28:20). Through the indwelling Holy Spirit, we as believers have God not only near us but also in us.

- Actively involved. God promises His help, and He always keeps His word (Numbers 23:19).

God Himself is the reason we should not be afraid. Grasp the truth of His power, presence, and involvement, and use them to disarm the landmine of fear.

Over 50 local children waiting for a CASA volunteer

GILA COUNTY, AZ — Imagine being a child abruptly separated from everything familiar — caregivers, home, siblings, school, pets, and the life you've always known. Foster care brings constant changes: case managers, caregivers, therapists, and teachers come and go, creating uncertainty. These children deserve a consistent presence until a safe, permanent resolution is reached, which is where a CASA volunteer steps in.

As of July 2024, there were over 50 children in need of a volunteer in Globe, Miami, San Carlos, and Hayden. These children have entered foster care due to abuse or neglect, circumstances beyond their control. CASA of Gila County is searching for individuals aged 21 and older to volunteer as Court Appointed Special Advocates for these children.

CASA volunteers do not provide placements or become adoptive parents for the children. They are advocates for the child's safety and best interests, having undergone thorough background screening, pre-service training, and taking an oath before the court. A CASA volunteer visits the child, gathers information, offers crucial input in service meetings, and presents the court with information and recommendations for the child's best interest. CASA volunteers come from diverse backgrounds, careers, and communities. No prior experience is required as the program offers training and continuous support. To apply, visit www.CASAofGilaCounty.org.
