On Friday, June 14 local entrepreneurs vied for top honors in the 2024 Globe/Miami Rural AZ Moonshot Pitch Competition, and first place went to Round Mountain Baking Co., of Globe, and its owner Cecilie Hudson.

"To the moon, Alice!...and beyond! I am so grateful to have won the 2024 @moonshotarizona pitch competition!" said Hudson, whose top finish brought a $2,000 prize. "Y.O.U. – my amazing customers and followers – gave me the courage to present my business in a forum like this! Thank you! Without you, Bernadette [RMBCo.'s dessert truck] and I would have nothing to present, lol!"

With her win, Hudson earned a spot in the State Moonshot Competition, which will be held in Cottonwood, Arizona on Friday, August 2. There, competitors will submit their pitches for a $10,000 first place cash prize or a $5,000

God's viewpoint

*While you can't understand the infinite mind of God, you can

When adversity hits you like a ton of bricks, it could easily cause discouragement. However, God's purpose in the hardship is not to destroy you; His goal is to stimulate your spiritual growth. In His great wisdom, the Lord knows how to take a situation and use it to transform you into the image of Christ.

Every adversity that touches your life has been sifted through God's permissive will. That doesn't mean the difficulty itself is His perfect will, but He's allowed the trial so He can use it to achieve His good purposes for you. While some of the suffering we see and experience may

Two Types of Listeners

Trusting God with our hurt and bitterness opens the door to healing

Courtesy photo

In order for the Holy Spirit to be unimpeded in his work, we must make an effort to hear God when He speaks. It is possible, for example, to "listen" to every word of a sermon while not actually hearing a word of it. In fact, there are two types of listeners in practically every church around the world: passive and active.

A passive listener is one who's present at services but just sits in the pew and lets his mind wander. He watches people, notices how they dress and act, socializes with friends, and makes lunch plans. He doesn't go to church to hear from the Lord.

OBITUARIES

Freddie Goss

Freddie Carl Goss, 86, passed away peacefully on Saturday, July 13, 2024.

Freddie, or Fred as he was known to his friends, was born on March 13, 1938 to Fred and Louise Goss in Pitcher, Oklahoma. He lived his early years in Amarillo, Texas and later moved to Arizona.

A cowboy and a Marine (Military Police May 1957 - May 1960), he was a strong man dedicated to his beliefs who lived by "The Cowboy Code." A smile and firm handshake were always present when meeting Freddie.

A hardworking man into his 80s, Freddie had finally decided it was time to relax. He made a career in the mining and construction fields, wearing different hats, from laborer to Superintendent to business partner.

He was also an avid outdoorsman, a hunter and a fisherman. He always knew when and where to find the "big ones" and taught his family to "leave the small ones for next time." He had a huge respect for history and nature, knowing the things it provides and the animals that live there.

Freddie came from a large family; he was the oldest of 11 children. He had 5 children, 13 grandchildren, many great-grandchildren, and nieces and nephews, all of whom he loved dearly.

Freddie leaves behind his wife, Pauline; daughter, Terry; sons Steve, Randy, and Rick; and his grandchildren and great-grandchildren.

He is preceded in death by his parents, Fred and Louise Goss; brothers Clarence, Ronnie, Jimmy, Billy and Mike; sisters Esty Pinkerton and Della Wakefield; and his daughter, Lucinda.

Services for Freddie will be at the Living Waters Church, 125 E. Haskins Rd. Globe, Arizona on July 26, 2024 at 10 a.m. A funeral reception will follow at the American Legion Hall, 645 S. Broad St., Globe, Arizona.

A Living Tribute of Trees will be planted in the Ton-to National Forest in Freddie's honor.

Frank graduated from Pima College in Tucson with high honors as a Registered Nurse and worked at hospitals in Tucson and San Diego until he and Rob moved to Toledo, Ohio. There he worked at the Northwest Ohio Psychiatric Hospital where he was awarded the honor of Nurse of the Year in 2024.

Frank was a kind and compassionate man who traveled extensively throughout the U.S. and Europe with his husband Rob. He continually strove to be a creative individual, leaving his mark with many friends and family members alike.

tilla and Angela Antilla; his father-in-law, George Sanzenbacher; brothers, Eric DuFriend (Brooke), Jefferson DuFriend (Deyon), and Michael Bingham (Katherine); several sisters and brothers-in-law; several nieces and nephews; several great-nieces and nephews; several aunts, uncles, and lots of cousins; and many, many friends - all of whom loved him very much. Frank cared for everyone around him with a smile that could light up a room. He will be truly missed by all his family, friends, and co-workers.

Alice Linda Guerrero (Lala)

Linda was born in Pome- rene, AZ, living most of her life in the Globe area.

Linda is survived by an older brother, Tony Guerre- ro (Cruz), and three young- er sisters - Yolanda Bird (Keith), Norma Caldera (Ed- die) and Bettina Amado, as well as a myriad of nieces and nephews - grand, great and great-great.

She had many jobs throughout her life, but the most prominent was work- ing at the old El Rey Cafe of Globe for 35 years.

We mourn the loss of our sister Linda who was loved by all her family. As her sib- lings, we have memories of such great times that are still strong in our minds. She was a second mother to us younger ones, at times firm, but always fun.

She shared a special bond with her nieces and nephews who affection- ately called her Lala. Much time was spent watching movies and laughing, play- ing games and laughing, and having sleepovers, and yes, laughing.

She was also an animal lover. She treated them as she did her family - with love and kindness.

While she may be gone, our lives will continue to be filled with memories full of laughter that she added to our lives. We'll miss her smile and the warmth of her presence.

A Celebration of Life for La will be held Saturday, Au- gust 3, at the old Train De- pot in Globe from 1-4 p.m.

The family was assisted by Bulman Miles Funeral Services Globe, www.bul- manmiles.com.

COMMUNITY

Exhibitors, vendors invited to Rock the Block Aug. 6

This year's theme is 'Tropical,' meaning Hawaiian shirts, coconuts and inflatable palm trees will be in style for the annual 'Rock The Block' back-to-school Tuesday evening kickoff, August 6 from 4 – 7 p.m. outside the historic Train Depot on Broad Street.

Arizona Youth Partnership staff and volunteers coordinate this popular event, which includes free back-to-school items for local students during three hours of family fun including games, demonstrations, free school supplies, vendors and community resource booths. Both non-commercial and commercial exhibitors are welcome and encouraged to dress tropical – with beach-inspired booth décor, too!

Exhibitors are welcome including:

* Local schools - welcome your new students with tables that double as a fundraiser for your class or club. Schools may register for multiple tables to accommodate clubs or sports. Appearances by school mascots and spirit squads will make this event even more fun.

* Resource providers - here's a great opportunity to meet our community and tell local students and families about the wonderful services you offer. Resource providers should plan ahead and bring school supplies for about 200 students from kindergarten through high school – supplies such as pencils, pens, markers, Hi-Liters, personal tissue packs, sanitizer, notebooks, etc.

* Merchants and retail - sales at the event are not allowed, but this popular evening is a great opportunity to connect with students and their families about your business and provide incentives (coupons, special promotions) to recruit new customers. Also as above, each resource provider is asked to bring some type of free school supplies for about 200 students.

To request an application for booth space, call or text AZYP's director of community initiatives, Julie Craig, at 928-961-0426 or email Julie@azyp.org.

RESCOLA, from page 14 Leroy Powers, and her Spear, and many aunts Betty Packard and Mary Powers. To nieces, nephews and cousins. She was preceded in death by her parents Jewel Arnold and Leonard Tomlin, her loving husband Thomas Rescola, her uncles Robert "Bob" Powers, Don Powers, Leonard Powers and Carol (Nannie), we say farewell for now, but we will never forget the light you brought into our lives. May you rest in peace, and may we continue to honor your memory by living our lives to the fullest.

HERNANDEZ, from page 14 Services will be Saturday, August 17 at Lamont Mortuary of Globe. Visitation from 11:00-12:00 followed by a memorial service at 12:00.

SEEK, from page 9 we'll never grasp the seem senseless and awful, we have a very limited perspective and can't always understand what God is doing.

Our heavenly Father sees every aspect of life, but our view is restricted to what's right before us. His plans include not only you but also all of His creation, and they reach from the beginning of time to eternity. Though we can know His faithfulness and love.

When you can't understand God's ways, focus on the truth that He has perfect knowledge, wisdom, and power. Remember, the entire picture is clear to the One who loves you more than you can imagine. This is a time to walk by faith, as perfect understanding will come only in heaven.

LISTEN, from page 9 Lord saying to me? The Lord communicates in many different ways, and when He speaks, we should always listen actively. If you find your mind wandering during worship, perhaps you're passively listening. Ask God to focus your thoughts, and decide to be an active listener from now on.

When you can't understand God's ways, focus on the truth that He has perfect knowledge, wisdom, and power. Remember, the entire picture is clear to the One who loves you more than you can imagine. This is a time to walk by faith, as perfect understanding will come only in heaven.
