Exhibitors, vendors invited to Rock the Block Aug. 6

This year's theme is 'Tropical,' meaning Hawaiian shirts, coconuts and inflatable palm trees will be in style for the annual 'Rock The Block' back-to-school Tuesday evening kickoff, August 6 from 4 – 7 p.m. outside the historic Train Depot on Broad Street.

Arizona Youth Partnership staff and volunteers coordinate this popular event, which includes free back-to-school items for local students during three hours of family fun including games, demonstrations, free school supplies, vendors and community resource booths. Both non-commercial and commercial exhibitors are welcome and encouraged to dress tropical – with beach-inspired booth décor, too!

Exhibitors are welcome including:

* Local schools - welcome your new students with tables that double as a fundraiser for your class or club. Schools may register for multiple tables to accommodate clubs or sports. Appearances by school mascots and spirit squads will make this event even more fun.

* Resource providers -

here's a great opportunity to meet our community and tell local students and families about the wonderful services you offer. Resource providers should plan ahead and bring school supplies for about 200 students from kindergarten through high school – supplies such as pencils, pens, markers, Hi-Liters, personal tissue packs, sanitizer, notebooks, etc.

* Merchants and retail - sales at the event are not allowed, but this popular evening is a great opportunity to connect with stu-

NMC enters agreement with Carpenter Media Group

On July 25 Carpenter Media Group (CMG) and News Media Corporation (NMC) announced plans for CMG to manage, with an option to acquire, NMC.

Illinois publications – Rochelle News-Leader, Ogle County Life, Mendota Reporter and Amboy News—are all owned by News Media Corporation and are now part of the management agreement with Carpenter Media Group.

Longtime NMC leaders J.J. Tompkins and Billy McMacken will assume leadership roles with CMG, and the transition will begin immediately.

News Media Corporation was founded in 1975 by John C. Tompkins. John began his career as a paperboy at The Hammond Times, where his father was the publisher. Eager to learn, he continued to work his way through every department at The Times with Howard Publications. At the age of twenty-one, Tompkins purchased his first newspaper, The Rochelle News-Leader in rural Illinois.

Under John Tompkins' leadership, News Media grew to over seventy publications across ten states. NMC serves communities, of roughly 5,000-50,000 population, in isolated rural trade centers, focusing mainly on weekly newspapers. It has always been News Media's top priority to provide quality local journalism to the unique communities it serves. NMC currently has twenty-five publications located in Illinois, South Dakota, Wyoming, Nebraska, and Arizona.

"We have worked with JJ and his father, John, over the years.

We have a long friendship and deep respect for the company they built and its exceptional team of community media professionals," said CMG Chairman Todd Carpenter. "We look forward to building on the foundations put down by John and others as we develop the products, people and communities served."

"This is a unique opportunity to partner with Todd Carpenter and CMG," JJ Tompkins said. "The Tompkins family has always deeply respected Todd and has a friendship spanning multiple generations and family companies. We have a unique history and friendship, which began with my father many years ago, and will continue into the future and for the next phase of News Media Corporation."

"We are thrilled about this partnership with Carpenter Media Group and its potential for the future success of our family's legacy and the communities we serve. As a company deeply rooted in people, we are confident that this partnership will uphold our values and lead us to a bright future," Tompkins added.

CMG owns and manages over 200 community and metro media titles in the U.S. and Canada and is dedicated to preserving and building community journalism and marketing services to develop and improve each community served.

NMC and the Tompkins family was represented by John Cribb of Cribb, Cope & Potts. CCP is a leading merger and acquisition firm with offices in Montana, California and Arkansas.

What parents can do to be more involved at school

According to the National Education Council, children are more likely to do better in school and be more positive about the school experience when parents get involved, and also may be well-behaved.

Such parental involvement can be vital to students' success.

Some ways parents can get involved are by going to school board meetings and letting their voices be heard on varied issues, or and open houses, running for school board positions; getting to know teachers and other staff by attending open houses, back-to-school nights and parent-teacher conferences – developing a connection between parents and teachers; volunteering with the PTA or PTO or heading school committees; helping out at their children's school, in the library or cafeteria for example; and attending school events – whether it's a game, a concert or a fundraiser. Parents can also volunteer in school-sanctioned extra-curricular programs.

Taffy Gould Coutts

Taffy Dee Gould Coutts, Auburn CA resident, passed away at 73 years Monday, on a hot July 22 afternoon after a long battle with leukemia.

Grandmother to four grandchildren: Elliott, Maslin, Tillie and Olin, and second to last survivor of the Gould immediate family; survived by her elder sister Loretta Mae Puzzi, husband James R. Coutts, daughter Lori Jean Gordon and sons Thomas Bartholomew-Coutts & Jeff Coutts.

Taffy was born in Miami, Arizona, the 4th of 5 children of Durwood Lindsey Gould Sr. & Frances Elaine Hall Gould; surviving her eldest sisters Elaine Gould Dapper and Doris Gould Flagg, and younger brother Durwood Gould Jr.

An avid Arizona State Championship tennis player for the Miami Senior High School Vandals, who married young to James Robert Coutts as they shared a passion for dancing to the tunes of country western singers Waylon Jennings and Emmylou Harris. She became a mother in 1970 & 72 to Thomas & Jeffery, and later welcomed eldest daughter Lori into the family adopted from Carol Ann Coutts, James' first wife.

Taffy quickly determined to not only be a mother of three, but to support her family in every way possible, working for AMI, learning and earning a B & C Class driver's license to become a bus driver at her children's schools, to then chauffeuring and inducting technology workers for the Sysorex

Government Services of Silicon Valley. While the kids were little she volunteered as a nurses' assistant and PTA Parent for their school functions, and later earned a Professional Embroiders Credential from Purdue University and provided hand-stitched sample designs of every possible stitching style for the greater San Francisco Bay Area embroidery shops.

Having always believed in her Native American ancestry, at the request of her paternal grandmother Taffy arduously began researching the families' backgrounds; incessantly at times. This passion quickly developed into travels to the state's various libraries, archives, and cemeteries, and led to her achieving her Genealogy Certificate from Boston University using research skills learned at the National Archives. Working for numerous personal clients, families and organizations seeking their genealogical histories, Taffy took great pride in her research accomplishments.

Taffy's never-ending service in research & learning simultaneously continued in her dedication as a Library Media Specialist for Natomas Unified School District's Natomas Middle School for the last 28 years. There she enjoyed ensuring the students, staff and faculty had the books, technology and research skill capabilities every school needs to instill a questioning of resources, biases, research diligence, and learning the latest research methods.

She also leaves behind her beloved Tonkinese cat of 20 years, Sophie.

Mom, we all love and miss you, and hold you in our hearts.

A memorial website will be set up in her honor at TaffyCouts.com soon.

Avoiding obstacles to effective prayer

God blesses those who earnestly and honestly seek Him through prayer.

Some of David's prayers are recorded in the book of Psalms. He praised the Lord, confessed sin, and cried out about his troubles. To pursue a rich prayer life like David's, we must avoid certain hindrances, such as:

Wavering faith (James 1:5-8). Doubts about God's character or dependability diminish our trust in Him. Therefore, we must not allow feelings to dictate what we believe.

Wrong motives (James 4:3). We can't expect an affirmative answer when petitions are motivated by selfish desires. God wants us to pray for His will to be done – not ours.

Conflict in relationships. Being resentful or argumentative with others will affect communication with the Father.

Lack of generosity (Proverbs 21:13). God is displeased when we ignore people's needs or give begrudgingly.

Indifference (Proverbs 28:9). Apathy to the Scripture is another stumbling block. God has given us the Bible so that we might know Him and serve Him wholeheartedly.

If your prayers have not been answered, consider which, if any, of the above issues may need correction. Then, try personalizing the prayers that you read in the Psalms or elsewhere in God's Word.

When Faith Wavers

Spend time in the Word to discover who God is and how He operates.

If we believe God is who He says He is and will do what He has promised, why do so many of us habitually waver in our prayers? Instead of exercising bold faith, we come to God hoping He will hear us and answer our requests.

Perhaps one reason we are so prone to doubt is that we fail to discern God at work in our circumstances. We asked, and it seems as if nothing has happened. But the Lord sees the past, present and future and knows the right time for every answer. His invisible hand is already at work on our behalf – arranging situations, opening hearts, and preparing us to receive what He wants to give.

Another cause for uncertainty may be that we don't adequately know God's ways. Then His response might disappoint us. Our prayers are often accompanied by expectations of how He'll work. So when He fails to intervene according to the method we anticipate, doubt can set in. But knowing God and trusting in His perfect ways will give us stability as we wait for His answer.

To overcome doubts, spend time in the Word to learn God's principles and ways. Then you'll begin to grasp what He wants to achieve in your life and how He goes about it. Examine your past from a biblical perspective – faith will grow as you see the unexpected ways He's answered your prayers.
