Chihuahua races, food court, music & more: Miami Fiesta returns Sept. 14

COURTESY PHOTO

Miami's annual Fiesta, including the famous chihuahua races (pictured here are a couple of contestants from 2022) is coming back to Bullion Plaza Circle next month.

The famous and hilariously adorable chihuahua races are scheduled at 3 p.m. when the annual Miami Fiesta returns to Bullion Plaza Sept. 14. Admission is free, and so is entertainment during the full day of festivities from 9 a.m. to 11 p.m. – with rides and crafts for kids, a food court and a beer garden. Entry forms for the chihuahua races are at the Miami Town Hall or call 928-473-4403. Event sponsors include the Town of Miami, Miami Genesis, Gila County Supervisors, APS, Resolution Copper, United Fund of Globe-Miami, and H.O.M.E. (Hearts of Miami Engaged).

Mead-making presentation, mural ribbon cutting Saturday in Superior

Superior's annual Prickly Pear Festival this Saturday, August 24, will include a new addition to the list of presenters – Meading of the Minds owners Dave and Christa Lindblad, who plan to open a mead tasting room in Miami.

The Lindblads, who are remodeling a historic Sullivan Street building, will host a brief slideshow and explanation of mead at 4 p.m. Basically a honey wine, mead is the world's oldest fermented beverage. Following the slideshow they will give a hands-on demonstration, answering questions on the brewing process as they start a batch of prickly pear mead.

Admission to the Prickly Pear Festival, which begins with guided foraging at 7 a.m., is free. The event continues with a street fair, prickly pear-themed dishes and drinks at local restaurants, and folklorico dancers in the evening.

Saturday will also feature a ribbon-cutting ceremony for a new mining-themed mural, "Not All Who Wander Are Lost," the newest in a series of such murals along the Copper Corridor sponsored by local arts organization Love Where You Live. Created by artist Adrienne Wakefield, this newest piece of outdoor art, at 180 Main Street, will be dedicated at 10 a.m. Wakefield's design includes an "eye spy" game where you can try to find a miner's pick and other hidden objects.

Miami blood drive needs donors

Appointments are still open, and donors needed, for a Thursday, Aug. 22 blood drive hosted by Freeport McMoRan at the Cobre Valley Recreation Center (the golf course) from 8 a.m. to noon.

Choose and schedule your own appointment conveniently online at vitalant.org (search by zip code 85501) or call 877-258-4825. Your donation of one pint can save up to three lives; and each time you donate, you get a free cholesterol screening, too – which you can review on the Vitalant donor portal, once results are posted.

How often can you give blood? Wait at least eight weeks (56 days) between donations.

Small Business Workshop Aug. 21: Digital Marketing

Wish you could expand your business with a website, Facebook page, e-newsletter, Instagram or TikTok? Be in room 536 at the Gila Pueblo Campus Wednesday, Aug. 21 at 5:30 p.m. for this month's free session in a small business development series.

Digital Marketing is the topic, Sarah Alexander is the teacher, and the session is geared "to equip you with the latest strategies and tools to thrive in the digital world. Learn about SEO, social media marketing, content creation email campaigns and more." Alexander is the certified business analyst with EAC's Small Business Development Center, and coaches this series of free classes on the third Wednesday each month.

Questions? Call (928) 428-8590 or email sarah.alexander@eac.edu to join the email list for future classes in this series, which continues Sept. 18 and Oct. 16.

Other workshops cover topics such as using Square in your small business and Canva techniques for social media. Read more about small business topics ranging from business start-ups and sources of financing, to marketing strategies, government procurement, business expansion and customer service at eac.edu/community/small-business-development-center.

Jason Sanchez Connect Day a great success

On August 2, the Homeless Coalition of Cobre Valley in collaboration with Gila County Public Health and Community Services held the Jason Sanchez Connect Day event. There were many resources there to help people in all different situations from behavioral health, utility assistance, Medicare, and government phones to people getting showers and clothes. It was not only a great opportunity for people to get connected, but also for the resources to network. Building a better community takes teamwork.

We would like to thank Western Reprographics,

60 Motors, Life Prints Designs, Copper Mountain Transit, Ram Specialists and Pro Life Hot Dogs for their support. We would like to thank Miami Area Unified School District #40 for the use of Lee Korngay Intermediate School Gym, Andrew Brown, Lisa Shiefert, Abigail Ferguson, William Salazar and all the CVIT students who volunteered. We would especially like to thank Monica Magoon from the Sara K Foundation and Carlos Hunt. If it were not for these two individuals, we could not have done it. Thank You!!!

The Homeless Coalition of Cobre Valley is a 501(c)(3) organization. If you would like to donate you can mail your donation to Homeless Coalition of Cobre Valley PO Box 1173 Claypool, Az. 85532 or send it through Zelle at hccv2024@gmail.com.

God's Grace and Holiness

God's grace offers salvation to all people – and it also teaches us how to live well.

One of the grandest expressions of the gospel is found in Titus 2:11, where Paul tells us, "For the grace of God has appeared that offers salvation to all people" (NIV). How could there be any better news than that? What was invisible for many centuries has now come into view. Moreover, this grace has appeared for all people, not just a chosen few. It is what the apostle elsewhere calls "the power of God for salvation" (Romans 1:16).

With such power at our disposal, we're sometimes disappointed to find that grace, while beautiful, also involves pain. To most people, the word power suggests instant transformation and easy accomplishment. We often forget that grace is a schoolteacher whose HOLINESS, on page 7

An invitation to intimacy

God wants you to be a part of His forever family in Heaven.

God, the Creator of the universe, chooses us. And His purpose in doing so isn't simply to save us from eternity in hell. His love goes beyond that –

He wants an intimate relationship with each one of His children. Building this intimacy requires....

Commitment. God showed His commitment by rescuing us from sin through His Son Jesus, sending the Holy Spirit to live within us, and promising us eternal life. A INVITATION, on page 7

Phone and Internet Discounts Available to CenturyLink Customers

The Arizona Corporation Commission designated CenturyLink as an Eligible Telecommunications Carrier within its service area for universal service purposes. CenturyLink's basic local service rates for residential voice lines are $18.47 per month and business services are $35.00 per month. Specific rates will be provided upon request.

CenturyLink participates in the Lifeline program, which makes residential telephone or qualifying broadband service more affordable to eligible low-income individuals and families. Eligible customers may qualify for Lifeline discounts of $5.25/month for voice or bundled voice service or $9.25/month for qualifying broadband or broadband bundles. Residents who live on federally recognized Tribal Lands may qualify for additional Tribal benefits if they participate in certain additional federal eligibility programs. The Lifeline discount is available for only one telephone or qualifying broadband service per household, which can be either a wireline or wireless service. Broadband speeds must be at least 25 Mbps download and 3 Mbps upload to qualify.

A household is defined as any individual or group of individuals who live together at the same address and share income and expenses. Services are not transferable, and only eligible consumers may enroll in these programs. Consumers who willfully make false statements to obtain these discounts can be punished by fine or imprisonment and can be barred from these programs.

If you live in a CenturyLink service area, visit <https://www.centurylink.com/aboutus/community/community-development/lifeline.html> for additional information about applying for these programs or call 1-800-201-4099 with questions.

lesson plan includes very specific instructions.

In Titus 2:12, we learn what that plan entails. This teacher has appeared, "instructing us to deny ungodliness and worldly desires and to live sensibly, righteously, and in a godly manner." We can learn to say no to sin. We can learn what holiness is and find ways to acquire and display it. Only through God's grace can we even attempt to live a righteous life.

Such learning may take time. But progress in this school is just as much a tribute to God's grace as the instant changes that sometimes occur right after a person gets saved.

reasonable response is our pledge to obedience in both inner attitude and outward action.

Clear Communication. To develop a close bond, two people will express deep thoughts and feelings, and they'll also listen carefully to one another's words. God speaks to us through Scripture about Himself and His plans, and He also stands ready to listen (Psalm 10:17).

Openness. God

speaks honestly about our nature, the condition of the world, and the only solution: Jesus Christ. He willingly tells us the difficult truths about ourselves but also encourages and affirms us in our efforts to follow Him. Our part consists of being honest with Him about our thoughts, actions and emotions.

Salvation is only the first step of life in Christ (John 3:16). Have you accepted the invitation to intimacy with God?
