Exploring the Sierra Ancha Cliff Dwellings at Bullion Plaza's 2nd Friday

Who were these people who lived in the Sierra Ancha Cliff Dwellings north of Globe-Miami, and what can we learn from their way of life? Using photographs and firsthand insights, Dr. John Mack will bring to life the experiences of the original inhabitants for Bullion Plaza Museum's 2nd Friday presentation, Friday, Sept. 11, at 6:30 p.m.

Dr. Mack brings a unique perspective in searching for the stories of the Sierra Ancha Cliff Dwellings. With years of hiking experience, and advanced degrees in history, he will share his unique perspective on these remarkable structures, revealing the stories they tell about the people who called this rugged landscape home.

Through their architecture, artifacts, and surroundings, he'll guide us through a deeper understanding of their daily lives, traditions, and connection to the Arizona desert.

2nd Friday presentations are always free, but donations help to both pay the bills and to bring more of these superior presentations to our area.

Former Globe resident publishes book on Army experiences

Former Globe resident Marc Marin has self-published a book about his experiences in the United States Army.

Marin served as the publisher of the Arizona Silver Belt from 2008 to 2017, and also as the publisher of the Copper Country News from 2010 to 2017. He then taught English and Journalism at Miami High School from 2017 to 2023.

Titled "Resonance," Marin's new book details his time at Basic Combat Training and in Baghdad during Operation Iraqi Freedom in 2003. "Resonance" is a unique combination of fiction, poetry, memoir, diary entries, and letters sent and received by Marin during his time in uniform. The 154-page book is available on Amazon in paperback format for $8.99.

Marin now lives in Cortland, New York, with his wife, Pat and his stepdaughter, Anissa. He teaches English at Cortland High School, and he is also pursuing his Master's degree in English from

Mobile pet clinic coming to Miami

Gila County Animal Care & Control reminds dog owners that an up-to-date rabies vaccine is required for your dog to be licensed - and that annual Gila County dog license is required by law. A license is also essential to prove ownership if your stray dog ends up at the shelter. Are your pets microchipped? If they aren't, consider this: only 22 percent of lost dogs without a microchip get reunited with the anxious owners who love them, and that number drops to just two percent for stray cats. Low-cost vaccines, preventative care, microchipping and even nail trimming are all available when PetVet mobile clinics visit the Tractor Supply store one Sunday afternoon each month: Sept. 15, Oct. 13 and Nov. 10, from 2:30 - 4 p.m.

Did you know there's a snakebite vaccine that can help dogs survive being bitten by a rattler? Pre-treatment with the snakebite vaccine also reduces a pet's pain and suffering - and dramatically reduces the overall cost of treatment if bitten, too.

No appointments are needed but call PetVet Mobile Clinic staff at 800-427-7973 if you have questions about vaccines or specific services when their mobile clinic sets up outside the Tractor Supply store in the Cobre Valley Plaza at 2260 W. Highway 60 in Miami. Read more at petvet.vippetcare.com/services-pricing.

Why You Don't Want a God You Can Completely Understand

By Pastor Greg Baker
First Baptist Church of Miami, AZ

Perhaps a better question would be: why would you want a God you could completely understand? This seems to be the goal of many people. Before they are willing to trust God, they want to be able to understand Him. But why? Is it to feel equal to God? So that His decisions, actions, and purpose become more palatable? Or perhaps it is so they can approve of God.

Whatever the reason, if you could understand everything about God, who God is, why He does what He does, then wouldn't you be God? In the book of Isaiah, God said:

Isaiah 55:8-9 – For my thoughts are not your thoughts, neither are your ways my ways, saith the LORD. For as the heavens are higher than the earth, so are my ways higher than your ways, and my thoughts than your thoughts.

According to these verses, God's thoughts, God's methods are way beyond our own comprehension. Some people struggle with that. They want a God created in man's image instead of man created in God's image. Another passage of Scripture that jumps out at me is:

1 Corinthians 1:27-29 – But God hath chosen the foolish things of the world to confound the wise; and God hath chosen the weak things of the world to confound the things which are mighty; And base things of the world, and things which are despised, hath God chosen, yea, and things which are not, to bring to nought things that are: That no flesh should glory in his presence.

There you have it. No one can ever say, "I have God all figured out." It's just not possible and why would you want it to be? Why would you want a God that is no larger than your capacity to understand?

I believe in a God and a Savior that is vastly larger than my ability to comprehend and to fully imagine. I thank God that He is larger than my finite ability to comprehend. I thank God that He is vastly larger than anything I can imagine.

Let's be blunt: You don't want a small God!

There is no way that I would want a God who can be contained within the confines of my own brain and imagination. I don't want to find an end to my God or my Savior, Jesus Christ. And I don't want a God that can be quantified, digested, and distilled in the confines of man's inventions, imaginations, or even sermons.

I want a God I am always learning about, who can make me awestruck at any time, any place, and in any way. When I pray, I want my prayer to be heard by a God who is not limited to what I imagine is possible—or even to what I think needs to be done. I want the God of infinite might and ability. I want the God of the Bible.

If God is so much larger than my imagination, then my prayers and faith connect to something so vast and so awesome that my limited understanding constantly fails to articulate it. It means that I don't need to understand God to have a relationship with Him... which means that all I really need to understand is that I can have a relationship with Him. Give me that relationship any day.

Why would you want anything less?

Boy Scout Troop holding Open House

Boy Scout Troop 101, sponsored by the First Christian Church, is having an Open House! It is an opportunity for young men who may be interested in Scouting to see what the program has to offer.

In addition to weekly meetings the Troop goes on at least an outing a month with age-appropriate activities. What have we done in the past? We've climbed Humphreys Peak and Picket Post Mountain. We've gone on numerous day hikes and backpack trips into the Sierra Ancha and Superstition Wilderness Areas. We've kayaked on not just the Salt River lakes but also lakes along the Mogollon Rim. We've snowshoed in and camped on four feet of snow and done several week-long 50-mile backpack trips. We've gone to the largest High Adventure Base in the world, Philmont Scout Ranch in northern New Mexico, numerous times.

If this sounds like challenge, adventure, and fun, come to our Open House on September 12 at 7 p.m. to learn more. It will be at the old Globe Junior School across from Globe High School. Watch for the Christmas lights! There is no obligation to join. Call 928-200-9348 for information.
