In memory of Ken Vargas

Bullion Plaza' 2nd Friday to present "101 Ways to Die in the Old West in Globe-Miami"

COURTESY PHOTO

Lovesick cowboys, poor medical knowledge, mining before safety measures were put in place, and many other unique situations caused the early settlers of the Globe-Miami area to live hard lives, and often die in extraordinary ways. Bullion Plaza Museum's research assistant, Lee Ann Powers, has been gathering articles from the area newspapers she has been digitizing for the past 12 years, and will present "101 Ways to Die in the Old West in Globe-Miami" for October's 2nd Friday presentation, Friday, Oct. 11, at 6:30 p.m. at the museum in Miami. Because of the subject matter, please be aware that some of the ways people died were rather graphic, and those who are sensitive are asked to consider this before deciding to attend. Telling the stories of the early settlers, both about their lives and their deaths, illustrates the exceptional people who created our See FRIDAY on page 8

Each month, Citizens for a Better Community selects a local person – someone who goes above and beyond to help others – to be "Citizen of the Month."

On August 1, we lost a man who exemplifies this attribute. Ken Vargas was the epitome of humble greatness. Ken was an exceptional person. He was a coach whose coaching went beyond teaching skills on the court. He was a teacher who was willing to work even outside of the classroom. He had a graceful way of teaching self-discipline by the way he handled situations.

He was a natural born mentor. Ken was a wonderful "family man." If you weren't part of the family, you wouldn't know it by the way he treated you. If you didn't have enough money for shoes, a tennis racket or food, Ken quietly and selflessly bought it.

This has been a difficult time for our community, losing such a loving, giving, compassionate and wonderful person as Ken was. Citizens for a Better Community felt that he needed to be honored; therefore, the August "Citizen of the Month" will be awarded to his family in Loving Memory of Ken Vargas. Memories of you will always be cherished and never be forgotten. Thank you for making our community a better place to live.

Don't forget about homecoming on October 4. It will be a "White Out" game in honor of Coach Ken Vargas, so wear a Kenny Vargas shirt or a white shirt to show your Vandal Spirit.

If you know someone who deserves recognition for making a positive difference in our community, please email Citizens for a Better Community at janetteherreira2023@gmail.com or judysmart148@gmail.com.

Globe-Miami resident seeks help with kidney transplant

Lifelong resident of the Globe-Miami area Mike Gonzales is asking the public for help. He is in need of a healthy kidney. Mike has been on the transplant waiting list for nearly four years and continues an extensive dialysis protocol at home. Mike retired from Pinto Valley, but many local residents have experienced his professional construction and carpentry skills over several decades. We have been fortunate to benefit from his craft and his friendship.

Mike's current condition cannot improve and will deteriorate without a healthy donor kidney. All efforts to secure a matching family member donor have been exhausted, so we are reaching out to our community to seriously consider the gift of life by becoming a kidney donor. Mike has type O

Positive blood, which requires the donor blood type to be type O (Positive or Negative) as well.

Mike has been helping family, friends, neighbors and our community in countless ways throughout the years and now he is the one who needs a helpful hand. Our Globe-Miami community has always proven the nature of its character by reaching out to one of our own. Mike and his family are hoping for anyone willing to explore the possibility to come forward. For more information or questions, please contact one of the following:

“American Pickers”
 to film in Arizona

The American Pickers are excited to return to Arizona! They plan to film episodes of The History Channel hit television series throughout your area in November 2024.

“American Pickers” is a documentary series that explores the fascinating world of antique “picking” on The History Channel. The hit show follows skilled pickers in the business, as they hunt for America’s most valuable antiques. They are always excited to find historically significant or rare items, in addition to unforgettable characters and their collections.

As they hit the back roads from coast to coast, the Pickers are on a mission to recycle and rescue forgotten relics. Along the way, they want to meet characters with amazing stories and fun items. They hope to give historically significant objects a new lease on life while learning a thing or two about America’s past along the way. The Pickers have seen a lot of rusty gold over the years and are always looking to discover something they’ve never seen before. They are ready to find extraordinary items and hear fascinating tales about them.

The “American Pickers” TV show is looking for leads and would love to explore your hidden treasures. If you or someone you know has a unique item, story to tell, and is ready to sell... we would love to hear from you! Please note, the Pickers do not pick stores, flea markets, malls, auction businesses, museums or anything open to the public.

If interested, please send your name, phone number, location, and description of the collection with photos to americanpickers@cinetflix.com, call (646) 493-2184, or visit their Facebook page @GotAPick.

What is the Grace of God?

By Greg S. Baker
Pastor of First Baptist Church of Miami, AZ

The grace of God is a key aspect of Christianity, and it is curious that one of the most significant aspects of God is largely misunderstood and, if I may, misused. Not that the typical definitions are in any way demeaning of God; they aren't. But as far as application of grace to our own lives is concerned, the typical definitions remain somewhat deficient.

There have been entire books written on the subject. There have been millions of sermons preached on it. It shows up over 120 times in the Bible. It is firmly attached to salvation:

Ephesians 2:8 – For by grace are ye saved, through faith...

The typical definition of grace is this: Unmerited Favor.

If we say that grace is completely unmerited, then why do the Scriptures say that Noah found grace in the eyes of God when he was the only one that was perfect in his generation (Genesis 6:8-9)? Why him and no one else? It seemed he merited it in some way. Then there is this verse:

James 4:6 – But he giveth more grace. Wherefore he saith, God resisteth the proud, but giveth grace unto the humble.

According to this verse, grace can be achieved through humbleness. Is it therefore unmerited? You could argue that nothing we ever do no matter how good would ever merit any grace from God. That's fine, and I don't necessarily disagree, but it just doesn't seem to match what the verse teaches.

I'll make a closer examination of what grace is by looking at three verses. These three verses help to explain the purpose and idea of grace.

THE GRACE OF GOD AS TAUGHT IN EPHESIANS 4:7

Ephesians 4:7 – But unto every one of us is given grace according to the measure of the gift of Christ.

This is an interesting verse, simply because it tells us that not everyone has equal grace. In fact, it is measured to people differently. So whatever grace is, it is not something that everyone gets equally.

And the Bible is very clear that you can receive more grace:

GRACE, from on page 7
James 4:6—But he giveth more grace. Wherefore he saith, God resisteth the proud, but giveth grace unto the humble.

According to Ephesians 4:11-12, we find that the amount of grace given to us is measured out according to the gift of Christ. He then lists different offices, or jobs, or callings, that get different measures of grace. Each one of these different positions receive a different measure of grace. The grace, apparently, is given so that the work can get done.

THE GRACE OF GOD AS TAUGHT IN 2 CORINTHIANS 9:8

2 Corinthians 9:8 – And God is able to make all grace abound toward you; that ye, always having all sufficiency in all things, may abound to every good work:

In this verse, note the phrase “abound to every good work.” God gives us grace so that there will be sufficient strength and ability to do the work that God wants us to do! Grace is God stepping in when we lack the strength, ability, knowledge, wisdom, or talent to get something done.

Thus we get to a better, more accurate, definition of what grace is: Grace is God’s provision for our insufficiencies.

This is certainly true in salvation! We are saved by grace. We are not saved by ourselves for that is impossible, because we lack the means, thus salvation is the gift of God (Ephesians 2:8-9). It isn’t unmerited favor, so to speak. Rather it is God’s provision for where we become incapable or are lacking.

John 1:12 is another perfect example of grace. God gave them grace (power) to do what they could not do on their own! You are saved by grace!

THE GRACE OF GOD AS TAUGHT IN 2 CORINTHIANS 12:9

2 Corinthians 12:9 –

And he said unto me, My grace is sufficient for thee: for my strength is made perfect in weakness. Most gladly therefore will I rather glory in my infirmities, that the power of Christ may rest upon me.

Again, note how the words “grace” and “sufficient” are tied together in this verse.

Paul learned that grace is all he needed. He wanted the thorn in the flesh to depart from him, which would allow him more strength to do what God wanted. God, however, taught him an invaluable lesson. True power is not within ourselves; it comes from the grace that God gives us. When you find yourself lacking, it is then that you need the grace of God.

This changed my prayer life. Where I fail, God has grace to help me succeed. No matter what your deficiency is, grace is your answer. If God has called you do something and you don’t see how you have the personality, ability, or strength to accomplish it, that is what grace is for.

Hebrews 4:16 – Let us therefore come boldly unto the throne of grace, that we may obtain mercy, and find grace to help in time of need.

With love and sincere gratitude.

My Dearest Ken-

The outpouring of love from Miami, Globe, surrounding communities, and across the nation for you and our family has been incredible. We have so many people to thank for prayers, Mass intentions, cards, gifts, food, supplies, posts, plants, flowers, stories remembered, a warm embrace, words of comfort, and especially for all the love they have for you and our family. I pray that they will accept this public, heartfelt "Thank You" from us both.

Your church service was beautiful with cousin Fr. Daniel Cruz, Fr. Bosco, and Deacon Rich LeMeiux officiating. Your former basketball players were the altar servers. Janet and Annette sang like angels and our kids, grandchildren, brothers, sisters, in-laws, nieces and nephews all helped with your service. For all of these special people and more, I know you are grateful, as am I.

So many of your students and athletes were present. Many of them shed tears and said they were all going to miss you so much. Thank you to the MHS Art Classes, the IT Department of MUSD, and the MUSD Administration. There was a beautiful, green wreath with your picture, hanging on your classroom door. Students and teachers left heart-shaped messages all over your door and on the wall down the hall. I hung the wreath in our dining room and all the notes are saved and remain close to my heart.

Many former students came from all over the United States. Some were wearing their military best dress to honor you. Your amazing co-workers paid respects, and hugged our family tight. You were always so humble, you probably never realized what an impact you had at MUSD over the past 39 years you devoted. You were always so grateful for your fellow employees and staff that surrounded you. You were so fortunate to work with the employees you did and to teach some amazing students throughout the years.

Patsy Elmer and her sewing crew made you the most beautiful drape for your casket. It was a Vandal head on the top with the words, "Ken Vargas, The love you shared will remain with us forever," flowing on each side. When Patsy and her daughter, Christine, dropped it off at the house the night before your service, your brothers, and all that were present, cried and then we reminisced about all the great times and the tears turned to the joy you brought to all our lives. You were always so proud of the accomplishments of MHS alumni and students you knew from many different high schools throughout the state.

It was a very warm day, but despite the heat, a great multitude were present to lay you to rest at the foot of your Mom and Dad. Our thanks goes to Tim and Reuben who played some of your favorite music as many paid their last respects. Our gratitude goes out to Ian Lamont for his gentle care, too.

The OLBS Luncheon Crew, the MHS Sports Hall of Fame, Fito Trujillo and family, Joe Sanchez, the MHS Football/Basketball teams, the MHS Culinary students, and many others who helped with the beautiful mid-afternoon dinner where everyone was fed and nourished. The hall was decorated with Vandal posters (you guessed—Mary Yazzie and students) that reminded me of the gym on game nights. Of course the meal began with a blessing followed by, "God Bless the Vandals." I remember all our family celebrations and everyone would bring their special dish. It was always so important for us to rejoice and give thanks to God for our many blessings and we all will continue our special gatherings. Together, we give thanks to each person who prepared a dish, brought paper supplies, served, or any kind of donation for the meal.

A wonderful family video was made by Raychele and played during the luncheon. She captured your love for lightning storms and stars, sunsets and clouds, falling stars and rainbows. She put on screen the essence of your heart through pictures of all those you continue to love.

Remembering all the students and student athletes you fed, Aubrie, Ana, and Andrew wanted to start a food fund in your name for student athletes that may need monetary assistance on away trips. The "Coach Ken Vargas Athletic Food Fund" gained much support and will be able to feed many student athletes this year. I know your spirit is filled with gratitude for your children and for all those who made contributions to the fund.

My Dearest Love, you made every breath of your life count for someone. You finished the race with honor. You are in a perfect state with God and his Son, Jesus Christ. I'll bet your dwelling place is made of hardwood floors, fishing streams, and coaching clinics. I imagine a skylight so you have the perfect view of the stars, lightning storms, rainbows, and all of heaven.

Together, you and I, with our beautiful families, extend our sincerest gratitude to everyone who brought comfort and love.

I miss you every second of every hour and my love is always with you,

Evie—Evelyn Gonzales Vargas—Aubrie (Vargas) and Ben York; Ana (Vargas) and Michael Tarango—Brooklyn and Braxtin Gameraos and Isaiah and Aubrey Tarango; Andrew and Sydnie Vargas—Dierks, Easley, Remy, and Timber. "Let all that you do, be done in love." 1 Corinthians 16:14

#LLKV - "Live Like Ken Vargas"

A Litany of Remembrance

*In the rising of the sun and in its going down,
In the glowing of the wind and in the chill of winter,
We remember him.*

*In the opening of buds and in the rebirth of spring,
In the blueness of sky and in the warmth of summer,
We remember him.*

*In the rusting of leaves and in the beauty of autumn,
In the beginning of the year and when it ends,
We remember him.*

*When we are weary and in need of strength,
When we are lost and sick at heart,
When we have joys we yearn to share,
We remember him.*

*So long as we live, he too shall live,
For he is always a part of us,
As we remember him.*

IS YOUR NAME WRITTEN in the Book of Life?

Be not distracted. It is a fact.

Lord Jesus is coming back,
On Rosh Hashanah, a future appointment.

An archangel alights in midair,
Holding an ancient trumpet. With flair,
Blowing an exhilarating sound
Announcing the rapture of those home bound

Written in the Book of Life.

Then Christ descends and shouts,

"Come thither to glory, my children.
I, ELOHIM and my Kingdom devout
Acclaim thy homecoming with a shout.

Thy FAITH in Jesus,

Who died and rose again, you
Considered Jesus Pure Blood
Cancelled sin debt; will rapture thee.

Not by Egyptian gondoliers,
Not by alien spaceships,
Only by my LIVING WORDS pass my lips –
Transport thee in a twinkling of an eye
Incorruptible to live an immortal life

With ME. I will declare a
Welcome faithful saints,
All Heaven salutes thee.

You remained steadfast
In your armour of righteousness.

Your strong visible FAITH
Resolved thee irremovable."

GOD LIVES! There is LIGHT,
LIFE, LOVE in GOD's breath.
As ransomed children in GOD's Kingdom,

We will live in AWE. Inherent,
Loving our MAJESTIC parent.

His plenteous wonders so gloriously
Preserve HIS power and sovereignty.

Three persons in one GOD HEAD.

Father GOD, Son (Jesus-Messiah),
And Holy Spirit.

Man made in His image. GOD SAID,
"Man is a mind, body and spirit."

We worship a triune GOD of LAWS.
Without Father GOD's LAWS all perish.

Thy precious soul, you death wish
With extravagant sins and beguiled
By the world's antichrist's lifestyle.

Die in your immoral insurrection
And unforgiven tainted blood,
Villainous demons entomb thee
In HELL for thy dark sinister devotion.

Before you cross the line of NO RETURN,
Your soul, YIELD to Jesus-Messiah and learn

GOD formed thee!

HE deserves thy tongue of worship.
Be SOBER, you in penitence ASK:

"Forgive me Jesus-Messiah all my sins –
Past, present and future slips,
Let me not die in my sins!

Lamenting my soiled soul,
Thou, Jesus-Messiah pronounced
Everlasting forgiveness.

Death has no conquest concerning me.
Thy shared Holy BLOOD guarantees
My rapture in Heaven.

When my pilgrimage is completed,
I die forgiven –
Before I cross the line of NO RETURN!"
