Roberto Ybarra retires after 50 years of service

COURTESY PHOTO

The #TontoNF sends a huge congratulations to Roberto Ybarra who is retiring this month with 50 years of public service!! Roberto began his career with the government in 1975 in his hometown of El Paso, Texas working at Chamizal National Monument with the National Park Service while still a student at University of Texas at El Paso. After graduating, he worked as a ranger at Big Bend National Park in Texas.

He started his career with the U.S. Forest Service in 1981 as an OHV patrol at Siuslaw National Forest in Oregon. Then, he transferred to Willamette National Forest in Oregon. In 1991, he

Citizens For A Better Community November Thanksgiving dinner

The Citizens For A Better Community November Thanksgiving dinner and Elvis event was another huge success. This event was made possible by Courtesy Ford. Thank you, thank you Matt Bennett!!

The guests enjoyed a wonderful turkey dinner with all the fixings prepared and cooked by our Judy Smart. Guests enjoyed great music and entertainment provided by Gus "Elvis" Park who was also surprised to be our November citizen of the month. His contribution to our community is outstanding and we're so grateful for all he does.

If anyone would like to nominate a citizen who helps make a positive difference in our community, please email us at janetteherrera2023@gmail.com or judy-smart148@gmail.com.

Recreation Management. His dedication to public service is highly appreciated and honored. We wish you all the best in retirement Roberto!

WALK in the LIGHT this THANKSGIVING

Satan's vexation overwhelmed
 Mother Eve and Father Adam;
 Their Paradise, they lost.
 The deadly sin nature
 Cleaves like a harden barnacle.
 An adulterous soul
 Pronounced spiritually dead in sin.
 Darkness is explosive.
 Its potency corrupts mortal soul;
 Self-indulgence leads to HELL!

Are you acquainted with
 Dr. Emoto's discoveries?
 Loving words or hateful words
 Affect molecular structure of water.
 In trillion cells in your body.
 2000 years ago Jesus Messiah
 Said, "Words are living.
 Words evoke life or death."
 By placing a jar of cooked white rice
 In a room labeled it, "I LOVE YOU",
 Dr. Emoto's living love words
 Shined life on the rice.
 Dr. Emoto placed a second jar
 Of cooked white rice in an Adjoining room labeled it,
 "YOU FOOL." Each day living.
 Cursed words oppressed the rice.
 After 30 days the jars
 Informed Dr. Emoto: The
 Blessed jar of white rice
 Was a good color - living.
 The cursed rice - rotten-dried.
 Furthermore, Dr. Emoto viewed
 Blessed frozen water under
 A dark-field microscope.
 The blessed frozen water
 Had a beautiful structure.
 The cursed water appeared
 In disarray.
 Dr. Emoto proved, Jesus Messiah
 Spoke TRUTH: WORDS are LIVING.
 Remember to speak a blessing

Over the food and drink
 You are to partake.
 Bless and speak living love
 Words over your children,
 Over your loved ones.
 Remember: Forbid speaking
 Killer words.

Don't let the Devil's proxies
 Sabotage your precious SOUL into HELL!
 Witches and sorcerers
 Love the darkness - black magic.
 They scorn new birth;
 Reject the light of salvation.
 Witches and sorcerers committed
 Tyrants lurking treacherously
 While speaking living curse
 Words to YOKE your SOUL
 Into bondage.

Jesus Messiah said, "You MUST
 Be born again".
 Faith in Jesus Messiah's sacrifice —
 BLOOD, WATER, LIGHT
 Embraces the power of the Holy Spirit —
 Our Sin-Bearer, our Savior.
 Unyielding Holy Spirit conquereth
 Sin's darkness and breedeth life
 Giving promises from earthly life
 Unto incorruptible life in Heaven.
 Born again means living under the
 Will of Jesus Messiah and power
 Of the Holy Spirit indwelling
 In every repentant HEART.
 Be SAFE! Be SAVED!
 Be blessed with salvation
 This THANKSGIVING DAY!

Vera (Campos) Fernandez

Vera (Campos) Fernandez, a compassionate mother and caregiver for all, peacefully passed away on November 15, 2024, at 71 years old, with her loved ones by her side. She is survived by her companion Sergio Medina, Tina Carbajal-Perez (Kevin Perez), Monica Fernandez (Reggie), & Angel "Angel Baby" Medina (Zoe Medina). She is welcomed to heaven by her beloved late son Paul Wayne Carbajal.

through being a foster mom, nursing assistant, and providing love to anyone that needed it.

She grew up in El Sereno, California where she enjoyed day trips to the beach and surfing. Vera moved to Globe, Arizona as young adult and spent the rest of her life residing in southern Arizona. She dedicated many years of her life to caregiving

She enjoyed playing softball, dancing to oldies, going to the river, spending time outside and with family, water skiing, playing pool, and watching her Diamondbacks play. She will be deeply missed, never forgotten, and her spirit will be carried on through her family.

Lucille B. Gonzalez

Lucille B. Gonzalez passed away at her home in Globe, Arizona on October 26, 2024. She was born on August 14, 1930, in Miami, Arizona, and lived her whole life there. She married her husband Mariano G. Gonzalez on October 14, 1949. Together they raised four children, Anita, Edward (Joy), Mariano Jr., and Alice (Angel Sr.). Lucille was a devoted Mother, wife, grandmother and great grandmother. She enjoyed sewing and making jewelry and loved music and dancing. She adored her children, grandchildren, and great grandchildren, and the many cousins. She was an active member of the Catholic Church in Miami, AZ. She donated many pieces of jewelry she made to the Church's fundraising activities. She was an active member of the parent teacher association and advocated for better education processes for all the children. She enjoyed visiting all her family relatives, many who lived in California, and stayed in touch with them as time went on. Lucille and Mariano celebrated their 75th wedding anniversary together on October 14, 2024. She leaves behind her devoted husband Mariano Sr., one son, Mariano Jr., four grandchildren, and many nieces and nephews and two brothers, Manuel (Irene), and Tommy (Aissa).

You Don't Have to Be That Way!

By Pastor Greg Baker

First Baptist Church of Miami, AZ

Ever hear someone say, "That's just the way I am," in reference to a weakness or character flaw? It's one thing to say that about a personality quirk, such as me hating baked beans, but altogether different to say that about a character flaw or weakness!

We excuse our bad behavior by claiming we were born with such a weakness and implying there's nothing we can do about it. This is not true! We can all improve, and we can all grow. You don't have to be that way!

Typically, we are intentionally blind to our faults. We don't like to look at them, acknowledge them, or dwell on them. No one likes to think less of themselves. Instead, the typical person tries to justify the weakness or flaw in some way, such as saying, "That's just the way I am!"

But such an attitude will only create problems in your relationships. It's one thing to have a flaw, but altogether different to pretend it doesn't matter. That frustrates those around you, and can lead to arguments, fights, and broken relationships.

The key to overcoming this is to listen to other people. We see other people's flaws a lot clearer than our own. Learning to listen to other people regarding your weaknesses is essential to growth. You can't afford to get angry, snide, or dismissive. There is great opportunity to grow if you can listen when others point out your flaws and weaknesses.

I pastor a church, and pastors have plenty of flaws. I'm no exception. Recently, several members (including my wife) pointed out a character flaw in me. Like everyone else, I resisted at first, but after three people pointed it out, I had to admit the problem.

I have a hard time being in the moment when my mind is racing with everything I have to do. When talking to someone, I am easily distracted, my eyes shift off to the side as impatient thoughts invade my mind. This appears I am being rude—and I am, not intentionally, but true.

I need to address this, so the first thing I did was admit to it and recognize that I needed to change. The mistake would be trying to justify it or be dismissive of it. The next thing I did, being a pastor, I announced to the church that I'm working on it and asked them to help me. This relieved members of the pressure of wondering if I was being intentionally rude and feeling like they couldn't point it out because of my position. I gave them permission, when my eyes get shifty, to simply say, "Pastor, I'm right here!" That will help me focus and give them my full attention.

Be willing to listen to others and they can help you grow into a better person.

Santa and his elves at The Depot on November 30

Saturday from 10 a.m. to 1 p.m. bring your kids and your camera for holiday season Christmas card photo-ops with

Santa and Mrs. Claus while they're at the historic Depot downtown on Broad Street. Free to the public, this annual small business Saturday season kick-off event begins when Santa and Mrs. Claus arrive by vintage firetruck at 10am for a day filled with elf shenanigans, letters to Santa, ornament make-and-take; crafts, and a cup of famous elf cocoa – and to find out whether you're on this year's list under "naughty" or "nice." Partners in this event include the Globe

Downtown Association, Globe Fire Department and the Gila County Historical Museum.

GLOBE, AZ – Cobre Valley Regional Medical Center (CVRMC) is excited to announce the future opening of its much-anticipated “Highway 60 Clinic,” a walk-in clinic located near Cal Ranch and Walmart. This new facility is set to provide essential healthcare services to the community, offering a convenient option for those seeking immediate medical attention without the need for an appointment.

The journey to establish the Highway 60 Clinic has not been without challenges. The initial plans for the clinic encountered an unexpected delay when it was discovered that the proposed location fell within a designated floodway.

Determined to bring this vital service to the community, CVRMC worked with local and federal agencies to reassess the flood maps that impacted the clinic’s location. Through extensive modeling, updated maps were drawn to better reflect the actual conditions of the area. CVRMC then submitted a request for a Letter of Map Revision (LOMR) to the Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA), requesting an official change to the flood designation.

On July 29, FEMA issued a LOMR, paving the way for the new clinic. The new facility will offer extend hours to walk-in patients, providing a convenient, affordable option for healthcare services. While the specific timeline for construction and opening is still being finalized, the team is working diligently to bring the project to completion as swiftly as possible.

CVRMC is committed to keeping the community informed as progress continues. Updates on the clinic’s development will be shared regularly, with a focus on ensuring that residents are aware of the new healthcare options that will soon be available.

The opening of the Highway 60 Clinic represents a significant step forward in CVRMC’s mission to provide comprehensive, accessible healthcare to the region. The medical center looks forward to welcoming patients to this new facility and continuing its tradition of high-quality care for the community.

An Advertising Proverb

When Mark Twain was editing a newspaper in Missouri, one of his subscribers wrote in, saying that he had found a spider in his newspaper and wondered whether it was a sign of good or bad luck. Twain's response: "Finding a spider is neither good luck nor bad. The spider was merely looking over our newspaper to see which merchant was not advertising, so that he could go to that store, spin his web across the door, and lead a life of undisturbed peace ever afterward."
