cautions to protect themselves and their pets from rabies exposure.

How to Protect Yourself and Your Pets

- Avoid contact with wild animals or domestic animals that are behaving unusually.

- Teach children not to approach or touch wild or unfamiliar animals.

- If bitten or scratched by an animal, seek medical attention immediately and report the incident to Gila County Animal Care & Control.

- Report any sightings of sick, dead, or abnormally acting animals to Gila County Animal Care & Control at (928) 425-5882.

Arizona Youth Partnership (AZYPP) and the Copper Basin Coalition are working with the Substance Awareness Coalition Leaders of Arizona in a first-of-its-kind effort to save lives in Arizona. Youth are using vape products at alarming rates across the Nation. Most e-cigarette liquids contain high levels of nicotine, which can lead to higher rates of dependence, especially for teens and young adults. Vaping devices are also easily accessible among youth despite the legal age to buy any tobacco products, including vapes, is 21. Studies show that vaping can harm teen brain development and long-term mental health, lead to dependence, and damage the lungs.

Youth are also vaping cannabis products. Cannabis concentrates are highly potent and made by extracting THC - the chemical that produces the high feeling - from the cannabis plant. Similar chemicals found in liquid nicotine are found in these concentrates. Youth often mistakenly believe vaping concentrates is safer than smoking marijuana. However, studies have shown that concentrates include chemicals that are linked to long-term lung damage and mental health problems. As with tobacco products it is only legal to purchase, possess and use cannabis products if you are 21 years of age or older.

AZYP offers more information on vaping for youth and parents. If you are interested in receiving more information please contact Carissa

WORSHIP

It was always Johnny's heart to help anyone in need, he would do anything for anyone without ever asking for anything in return. He was your loyal friend and loved nothing more than to spend time with his family and friends. He is survived and forever missed by his son, grandkids, great-grand-kids, daughter in law, girl-friend, and her son.

Are You Content with Your Life?

Joyce Meyer

It seems there are very few people who are consistently content with life. It's more common to be up and down mentally and emotionally, depending on what our circumstances are. So, I want to ask you: How content are you? Are you consistently enjoying your life?

God loves us and has a good plan for our lives. Jeremiah 29:11 says His thoughts and plans for us are "for welfare and peace and not for evil, to give you hope in your final outcome" (AMPC). And John 10:10 says Jesus "came that they may have and enjoy life, and have it in abundance (to the full, till it overflows)" (AMPC).

It was such a revelation for me when I realized that God wants me to enjoy my life now, and not just barely get by, hanging on until I get to heaven. It was also a life-changing revelation when I understood that my joy and contentment don't have to be based on my circumstances. In Christ, I can learn "how to be content (satisfied to the point where I am not disturbed or disquieted) in whatever state I am" (Philippians 4:11 AMPC).

Being content doesn't mean you never want change or to have anything else in your life. It means you can be satisfied to wait with a good attitude for whatever God chooses to do in your life. It means that even when you want something to happen, you still trust God enough to believe that if He doesn't give you what you want, He has your best interest at heart. And you'll find that what He gives you is better than what you thought you wanted to begin with.

The world is full of problems, and we all have times when things don't go the way we planned. It's so wonderful when we get to the point that we can be happy even when we don't get our way!

I've learned that since the world probably isn't going to change, then I need to change my approach to circumstances—my attitude and my expectations. And it was a great breakthrough for me when I discovered that God wants me to have great expectations of Him. He wants me to put all of my hope in Him and exercise my faith in Him to do great things in my life.

Ephesians 3:20 says that God's power that is working in us "is able to [carry out His purpose and] do superabundantly, far over and above all that we [dare] ask or think [infinitely beyond our highest prayers, desires, thoughts, hopes, or dreams]" (AMPC). I love these words: superabundantly, far over and above ALL that we dare to ask or think!

It's so important for us to put our expectations in the right place—in God. We serve an awesome God, and I want to encourage you to ask Him to do great things in you and through you.

What are you asking God to do for you? Do you believe He loves you unconditionally and He has great plans for you? Do you trust Him to take care of your needs and that everything He asks you to do is for your good?

We need to resist thinking that God can't do anything for us because of our weaknesses and faults. He isn't expecting us to be perfect; He wants us to have faith in Him.

God wants us to put all of our hope and all of our expectation in Him. He wants us to trust Him to do what's best for us in the way He chooses to do it. He wants us to give Him the credit for the good things He does in our lives.

Sometimes we are discontent and disappointed because we think we're expecting something from God but in reality, we're expecting someone else to give it to us. For example, we pray for a raise or promotion and if we don't get it, we become mad at our boss. Or we ask God to make our children behave better or help our spouse to be more sensitive and thoughtful. But when they don't do what we want, we get mad at them.

We need to look to God to provide what we need and what we want. This means we trust Him, no matter what other people do or what circumstances look like. It's not wrong to put realistic expectations in the people we have relationships with, but no one is perfect, and people will disappoint us sometimes. We can get rid of a lot of disappointment and discontentment by learning how to put our hope and expectation in God first and foremost.

God cares about everything about you and everything that concerns you. He wants to be good to you and He will never disappoint you. Give Him all of your heart and put all of your hope and expectation in Him. You can have true contentment and satisfaction in Christ!

I'm Looking for a Miracle!

By Greg S. Baker
Pastor of First Baptist Church of Miami.

If you're like me, you want to see God work in your life. You want to see a miracle! Sometimes, it is a life-and-death matter, a problem so big that only God can intervene. In such times, you mentally sit on the edge of your seat, your stomach clenched and heart heavy with said and unsaid prayers, just hoping the next instant will bring the miracle you desperately seek.

Sometimes, it is a "small" matter, a hiccup in your life's journey, a mere speedbump on the road to your next destination. Yet, even then, you sometimes hope God will show up and prove that He sees you, that He knows your situation and sees your small problem. You are anxious to know that God does truly love you.

In the life-and-death struggle and in the small things, it still matters when God shows up for you. But the key, I think, is waiting on the Lord as Psalms 27:14 and so many other Scriptures command. "Wait on the LORD: be of good courage, and he shall strengthen thine heart: wait, I say, on the LORD" (Psalms 27:14).

But waiting is hard. If you're like me, you want to do something. You want to be active, to take matters into your own hands and make it happen. You want to be proactive, not sit around on your hands and "hope"

God decides to grant you a miracle.

That's just it. Waiting on the Lord is not doing nothing. In fact, waiting on the Lord can be hard work. It can take a lot out of you. Waiting on the Lord means you're praying, you're reading your Bible, and you're involving yourself with the things of God. It means you want God to direct your steps, that you want to be smack-dab in the middle of God's will. It means you are willing to seek after God and to, in all things, trust Him.

Lamentations 3:25 tells us that it is good to wait for God...to the soul that seeks Him! That doesn't sound like you're doing nothing. Seeking God is clearly an activity that involves motion and action! But it is the next verse, verse 26, that hits home:

Lamentations 3:26 — It is good that a man should both hope and quietly wait for the salvation of the LORD.

Quietly waiting is an action, believe it or not. And it involves hope, and in the Bible, hope is much more than some preferred, vague, unlikely outcome. It is a strong confidence that something will happen. It is the reliance you have when you know just how powerful and mighty your God is. When you have that type of hope, you can wait quietly on the Lord.

And that is when the miracles come.

So let us wait on the Lord!

GLOBE, AZ – Cobre Valley Regional Medical Center (CVRMC) is excited to announce the future opening of its much-anticipated “Highway 60 Clinic,” a walk-in clinic located near Cal Ranch and Walmart. This new facility is set to provide essential healthcare services to the community, offering a convenient option for those seeking immediate medical attention without the need for an appointment.

The journey to establish the Highway 60 Clinic has not been without challenges. The initial plans for the clinic encountered an unexpected delay when it was discovered that the proposed location fell within a designated floodway.

Determined to bring this vital service to the community, CVRMC worked with local and federal agencies to reassess the flood maps that impacted the clinic’s location. Through extensive modeling, updated maps were drawn to better reflect the actual conditions of the area. CVRMC then submitted a request for a Letter of Map Revision (LOMR) to the Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA), requesting an official change to the flood designation.

On July 29, FEMA issued a LOMR, paving the way for the new clinic. The new facility will offer extend hours to walk-in patients, providing a convenient, affordable option for healthcare services. While the specific timeline for construction and opening is still being finalized, the team is working diligently to bring the project to completion as swiftly as possible.

CVRMC is committed to keeping the community informed as progress continues. Updates on the clinic’s development will be shared regularly, with a focus on ensuring that residents are aware of the new healthcare options that will soon be available.

The opening of the Highway 60 Clinic represents a significant step forward in CVRMC’s mission to provide comprehensive, accessible healthcare to the region. The medical center looks forward to welcoming patients to this new facility and continuing its tradition of high-quality care for the community.
