Candlelight Vigil For Emily Pike

A candlelight vigil will be conducted to honor the memory of Emily Pike, whose young life was tragically taken. The vigil will be at the Apache Gold Casino Parking Lot at 777 Geronimo Springs Blvd, San Carlos, AZ 85550 on Saturday March 15, 6:30 P.M.

This loss has impacted not just the San Carlos Apache Reservation but also neighboring communities, towns and tribes. This vigil will serve as a focal point for all of Arizona to come together and heal. It is essential for us to demonstrate our support for the grieving families and also to raise awareness about the Missing and Murdered Indigenous Women/People. All royalties, this is a request for your attendance, wear your crown, your sash and also the facial stamp of the MMIW movement. All are welcome to make signs, share a song, share a few words. Comfort one another.

Emily loved art, so create art for her online and tag #MMIW #MMIP #Justice4EmilyPike. She was OUR daughter, OUR niece, OUR granddaughter. Let's share Emily's story and together begin this journey to find justice.

Those with any information about this incident may contact the Gila County Sheriff's Office by calling 928-200-2352, Bureau of Indian Affairs at 505-917-7830 or San Carlos Apache Police Department at 928-475-1755.

Mint Chocolate Pudding Cookies

- Ingredients:
- 1 cup sugar
 - ½ cup butter softened (1 stick)
 - 1 egg
 - ½ cup sour cream
 - 1 box 3.4 box instant vanilla pudding mix
- Servings: 36
- ½ tsp salt
 - ½ tsp baking soda
 - 2 cups all-purpose flour
 - 2 tsp mint extract
 - 1 drop blue coloring + 7-10 drops green coloring
 - 1 ½ cups chocolate chips

- Instructions:
- Prep:
- Start by preheating the oven to 375 degrees F.
 - Then, line a baking sheet with parchment paper or spray with non-stick cooking spray, set aside.
- Bake:
- Start dropping the cookie dough by the rounded tablespoonfuls onto the prepared baking sheet.
 - Then, bake for 10 minutes.
 - When done baking, transfer to a cooling rack.
 - Serve fresh and warm, enjoy!
- Cookie dough:
- Begin by creaming together the sugar and butter, in a large bowl, until nice and fluffy.
 - Then, add in the egg, sour cream and dry pudding mix, stir well to combine.
 - Next, in a separate small bowl, combine the flour, salt and baking soda.
 - After that, incorporate the flour mixture into the butter and pudding mixture and stir until well combined.
 - Now, add the mint extract and food coloring until desired color is achieved.
 - Lastly, add in the chocolate chips. I used ¾ cup chocolate chunks, ¾ cup regular chocolate chips and 1/2 cup Andes baking bits. Any combination is wonderful, but note that while the Andes mint baking pieces add an incredible flavor, they kind of disappear in the cookies. So add them in addition to the 1 1/2 cups chocolate chips, if you opt to put them in!

How to Find True Happiness

By Greg S. Baker
Pastor of First Baptist Church of Miami.

Everyone wants to be happy, but true happiness is defined differently by each person. In the main, however, most people intrinsically believe that happiness is not having any problems, which would explain our severe aversion to adversity.

Who wants problems? But since life is full of problems, the way we find true happiness must in some way include the problems, trials, and adversities of life.

What Is Happiness?
Happiness is not the same thing as joy. Joy is internal, but happiness is external. In other words, the “happenstances” around you is what brings you happiness. Happiness, therefore, is dependent upon the circumstances and situations around you. If you are pleased with how your external life is going, then you will be happy.

Can You Find Happiness Amidst Trials and Problems?

In short, yes. If someone were to ask me what I thought the single most important factor was to gain happiness, I would have to say that it was purpose or vision (Proverbs 29:18). Any problem or trial that you face is always faced better when you have a vision or purpose.

You can have a lot of money, be popular, have decent relationships, possess power, have friends, even have a walk with God and find yourself unhappy. The reason for this is that none of these things have full value until you have purpose behind them.

Problems and trials give you the chance to exercise your purpose in ways you would never be able to do before. Our heroes in life are not those who never face adversity, but those who face adversity and overcome them.

Find a Greater Purpose for Everything

You will find greater happiness in your marriage when you find greater purpose to everything in your life. Your marriage needs a greater purpose. Your job needs a greater purpose. And even that car accident needs to have a greater purpose for you. It will be in that purpose and vision that you find true happiness in every circumstance.

For most people, survival or just living longer is their only purpose in life. They live for that single moment or two of self-gratification sometime during the day, and then they dread the morning and the return to the daily grind. No purpose. No vision. Therefore, no happiness.

Get a purpose in life.
True Happiness Is in the Pursuit

If you really think about it, it is not the victories that bring you the most happiness in your life. It is the pursuit of those victories. If true happiness is in actually winning a ball game, then why play another? Because it wasn't winning that really brought you happiness; it was the pursuit of the win. This implies purpose to your life. Something to continually strive for.

Mankind wasn't made to retire. Without a goal or purpose, we don't have happiness. The obvious answer is to find out why God created you and then live it. Only then will you find true happiness.

HAPPY ST. PATRICK'S DAY

The Meaning Behind the Shamrock

When talking about Ireland and its culture and symbolism, many different images come to mind. Affectionately known as the Emerald Isle, Ireland is perhaps best known for its bright green hue. Irish flags and even harps are symbolic of the nation, but there is perhaps one symbol that most widely represents the country: the shamrock.

A shamrock, by definition, is a young sprig of clover. However, plant experts actually have said that shamrocks are a distinct species of the clover plant, believed to be the white clover. The word “shamrock” is derived from the Irish “seamróg,” which translates as “young clover.” Over the centuries, this diminutive plant has come to symbolize Ireland and many things Irish. The shamrock also is a popular symbol of St. Patrick’s Day.

The shamrock and Irish culture are so intertwined thanks to Ireland’s patron saint, St. Patrick. Legends attest to St. Patrick using the three petals of the shamrock to illustrate the mysteries of the Holy Trinity to the Celtic pagans. Each leaf represented the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

The shamrock of Ireland has three leaves, not four as many people believe. The number three had significance in Ireland long before St. Patrick began to convert the masses. According to Blarney.com, the number three was believed to have magical properties and was a recurring theme in Celtic folklore. Because the Celts were familiar with the shamrock, it became easy to convert their knowledge of the shamrock to the magic of the trinity. The three leaves are also said to stand for faith, hope and love.

The four-leaf clover is a separate entity and a rarity. This why the fourth leaf is deemed to be “lucky.” But that lucky clover is not the traditional Irish symbol.

Thanks to their connection with Ireland, shamrocks are often gifted by the Prime Minister (Taoiseach) to the President of the United States in the White House each St. Patrick’s Day. They are presented in a special Waterford crystal bowl featuring shamrocks in the design. This practice started in 1952.

Shamrocks also can be seen on Irish clothing designs, the Erin go Bragh flag and the uniforms of several Irish sports teams. Of course they also are seen during St. Patrick’s Day celebrations. The shamrock and Ireland will always be linked.

GLOBE, AZ – Cobre Valley Regional Medical Center (CVRMC) is excited to announce the future opening of its much-anticipated “Highway 60 Clinic,” a walk-in clinic located near Cal Ranch and Walmart. This new facility is set to provide essential healthcare services to the community, offering a convenient option for those seeking immediate medical attention without the need for an appointment.

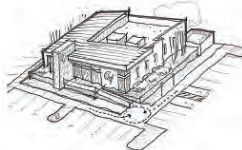

The journey to establish the Highway 60 Clinic has not been without challenges. The initial plans for the clinic encountered an unexpected delay when it was discovered that the proposed location fell within a designated floodway.

Determined to bring this vital service to the community, CVRMC worked with local and federal agencies to reassess the flood maps that impacted the clinic's location. Through extensive modeling, updated maps were drawn to better reflect the actual conditions of the area. CVRMC then submitted a request for a Letter of Map Revision (LOMR) to the Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA), requesting an official change to the flood designation.

On July 29, FEMA issued a LOMR, paving the way for the new clinic. The new facility will offer extend hours to walk-in patients, providing a convenient, affordable option for healthcare services. While the specific timeline for construction and opening is still being finalized, the team is working diligently to bring the project to completion as swiftly as possible.

CVRMC is committed to keeping the community informed as progress continues. Updates on the clinic's development will be shared regularly, with a focus on ensuring that residents are aware of the new healthcare options that will soon be available.

The opening of the Highway 60 Clinic represents a significant step forward in CVRMC's mission to provide comprehensive, accessible healthcare to the region. The medical center looks forward to welcoming patients to this new facility and continuing its tradition of high-quality care for the community.

HOROSCOPE

Week of
March 9 to 15, 2025

ARIES

You'll captivate an audience with your natural charisma, even if you're shy. You'll receive a medical treatment that surprises you, helping to resolve a long-standing health concern.

TAURUS

It's not in your nature to relish being in the spotlight. However, you must remember that many accomplishments deserve applause and could bring you extra attention for a period of time.

GEMINI

You'll begin the process of buying a new home or finding a place to live. Your children will bring you immense joy, especially as they take their first steps or get accepted into university.

CANCER

You're known for being talkative and have a knack for making jokes, no matter the context. You'll crack a joke to lighten a tense mood. Your goody side will be welcome at work or home this week.

LEO

You may succumb to the urge to make an impulsive purchase. You'll also likely feel the need to move around and explore new horizons. However, you must keep an eye on your finances.

VIRGO

Make sure you get enough rest to start your week off right. Take full advantage of your beauty sleep to improve your performance and achieve your goals.

LIBRA

As an artist, you'll draw inspiration from the diverse cultures around you to enrich your work. If you're feeling tired, consider taking a vacation to recharge your batteries and give you a change of scenery.

SCORPIO

You'll start building a remarkably loyal clientele at work. You'll be working on various tasks this week, strengthening your financial stability and motivating you to pursue interesting projects.

SAGITTARIUS

You may plan a spontaneous trip this week. You may also explore opportunities to work in a different area that will offer new and rewarding experiences. Taking a course could also provide valuable insights.

CAPRICORN

Embrace the call of change and let your inner voice guide you to live life to the fullest! You'll broaden your horizons and let yourself be carried from one discovery to the next.

AQUARIUS

Life will present you with challenges that align with your aspirations. You'll surprise yourself with your enthusiasm and joy. Your boldness will lead you toward fulfilling your destiny.

PISCES

You'll need to negotiate at work to reach an agreement following a disagreement. You'll likely take an active role in trade unions or community activities.

The luckiest signs this week:
LIBRA, SCORPIO and SAGITTARIUS
