Overcoming Jealousy in a Relationship

By Greg S. Baker
Pastor of First Baptist Church of Miami.

Overcoming jealousy in a relationship isn’t easy. Jealousy is the fear of losing something you believe to already be yours. When you believe you may lose the one you love to another, you will become jealous, and jealousy can become violent and controlling (Proverbs 6:34). It is a natural emotional response to the fear of losing something important to you. There are two factors that must be addressed in overcoming jealousy in the human world:

1. Insecurity
2. Mistrust

INSECURITY AND JEALOUSY

Jealousy has no room to grow in a secure relationship, because there is no fear. Insecurity looks for problems, for reasons to fuel its fear. Those who are secure do not possess this fear, so they don’t look for it.

If you are the one who is insecure, you need to sit down with your spouse, boyfriend, girlfriend, or friend and communicate your fear. This is an essential part of overcoming your fear. If you can’t talk about it rationally, you’ll just make things worse. If you come across too strong and demanding, you’ll create defensiveness and resentment.

You need to seek their help with your insecurities. Here are some things you need to consider:

1. The actual source of your insecurity – The Core Problem
2. Options and plans to help manage your insecurity – Communication
3. Frequent discussions and updates regarding your insecurity – Constant Contact

Insecurity needs to be dealt with from both sides of the issue. Both people in the relationship need to work on it. It won’t be accomplished without good communication and constant contact regarding the core problem that is causing the insecurity.

People who are insecure are only so because of an innate lack of self-confidence somewhere. For example, if a man becomes insecure when his wife speaks to another man, even for business reasons, it may be due to a lack of confidence in himself, in his marriage, or in his wife.

But if you intend to overcome your jealousy, you need to deal with your insecurities first.

MISTRUST AND JEALOUSY

Mistrust brings suspicion. Suspicion and insecurity lead to jealousy. If you don’t trust your spouse, boyfriend, girlfriend, or friend, you have a problem.

Trust is an essential part of the success of any relationship. When you don’t trust someone, you will always be suspicious, second guessing their actions, and attributing ulterior motives to everything they do.

Trust must be earned. So if you don’t have the trust of your loved one, you need to do whatever it takes to earn that trust. If you don’t trust your loved one, you need to sit down with him or her and discuss it freely without accusation or argument. It is essential that you can discuss these issues without getting defensive, injured, or angry. And trust is best earned by constant communication and discussion of the problem in a loving way.

No matter if you are the one who distrusts or the one who is mistrusted, you need to help with the issue.

CONCLUSION

If you want to overcome your jealousy, then you will need to work on it. It won’t magically go away. A little work can go a long way to fixing jealousy issues.

Raymond Wesley "Wes" Simmons

Raymond Wesley "Wes" Simmons passed away on April 7, 2025, just days before his 83rd birthday. Born on April 15, 1942, in Mesa, he spent most of his life in Miami after moving there at a young age.

Wes is survived by his beloved wife of 62 years, Linda Sue; his daughter, Shelley (Jim Ham); his son, Ron (Tandra Higginbotham); granddaughter, Amanda (Wally Wilson); grandson, Nick; great-grandson, Colton Nichols; great-granddaughter, Krista; sister, Mary Davis (Jerry); brother, Larry (Eva); and many cherished nieces and nephews. He was preceded in death by his parents, Mary and Bill; brothers Duane and Rodney; and sister Norma Kidd.

Wes worked at Copper Cities and Pinto Valley before retiring as a heavy-duty maintenance mechanic. In later years, he and Sue relocated to Apache Junction.

Wes was known for his silly sense of humor and an ever-curious mind. He enjoyed hunting and sharing beers with friends. A true tinkerer at heart, he once converted a Volkswagen Bug into a sand rail and rebuilt Shelley's wrecked Ford Pinto so she could continue driving it for years. His passion for electronics led him to build stereos and computers from scratch—not only for himself but also to help others keep theirs running. Self-taught in computer programming, Wes even built a miniature robot shortly before his passing.

He will be remembered fondly by all who knew him—for his inventive spirit, helpful nature, and especially for the bad jokes that never failed to bring a smile.

May his memory bring comfort to those who knew and loved him.

Maria DeJesus Yanik

Maria DeJesus Yanik, 91, of Top of the World, passed away on February 11, 2025. She was a beloved Wife, mother, grandmother, and great-grandmother who left a lasting impact on all who knew her.

Born in Nazas, Mexico, in 1933. She had a daughter named Patrica (Patti) in 1965. Maria moved to California in 1966 in search of new opportunities. It was there that she met the love of her life, Robert Yanik. Their love was instant and undeniable, leading to a marriage on February 9, 1974. Soon after, Maria moved to Globe/Miami, Arizona, where she and Robert built a beautiful life together, raising their blended family, including Robert's son, "Bobby."

Maria dedicated many years to her work in house-keeping at the hospital in Globe before continuing at Heritage. In 1995, she retired to focus on what she cherished most—her family. She played an essential role in the lives of her three grandchildren, Adam, Britany, and Jasmine, caring for them with unwavering love and devotion.

In her retirement, Maria found a new passion in quilting, quickly mastering the craft through classes at the Miami Senior Center. Her quilts became cherished gifts for family members, each stitch a symbol of her warmth and love. She was also known for her incredible Mexican cooking and baking, always ensuring fresh tortillas were ready whenever loved ones visited.

A devoted believer in Christ, Maria was a member of St. Paul's Methodist Church in Globe, where she found strength in her faith. Her love for her family, never wavered. Above all, the love she shared with Bob was a beautiful testament to their enduring bond.

Maria's life will be celebrated on April 26, 2025, at 10:30 AM at St. Paul's Methodist Church, 196 E. Cedar St., Globe, Arizona. A luncheon will follow.

Kathleen Marie Campbell

Kathleen Marie Campbell, 70, of Globe Arizona passed away peacefully in her beloved home on April 25, 2025.

Kathy was born on December 4, 1954 in Globe Arizona to her eternal loves Hugh and Mary Lou Hocking. Because she was a change of life baby, Kathy was always extremely close to her parents. Most of her childhood memories are of the three of them together.

Growing up, Kathy's dad would tell her that when she was born, he caught her playing jacks with the nurses. Throughout her life he would stop to tell her, "Remember, you were playing jacks with the nurses." Kathy and her dad could sit together for long periods of time without speaking words. Both very quiet and reverent souls.

Kathy's memories of summer were spent swimming, fishing, and attending her brother Lynn's baseball games. Her dad always gave her a quarter for the concessions. Kat, as her dad called her, would buy hot cinnamon suckers.

Kathy has always loved her beloved hometown of Globe. The many streets and mountains she walked as a child was always a favorite pass time while walking to and from school. While attending high school, Kathy skipped an entire semester. Kathy decided to walk to her sister, Loretta's home, where she stayed, instead. Sometimes she would stop at Mighty Nice Bakery to pick up cinnamon rolls for the two of them. The school eventually called Kathy's mom to enquire if she had switched schools, thus ending all the fun.

In 1974, Kathy met the love of her life, David Neil Campbell. One month

Pamela Kay (Blattie) Yurkovich

Pamela Kay (Blattie) Yurkovich, the youngest child of Edward and Eleanor Blattie, (of Swiss and German descent), was born on May 21st 1941, and passed away on February 24, 2025, in Globe, Arizona at the home of her daughter and son-in law.

Pamela was raised in Mantorville, Minnesota with her much admired “Big Brother” Donald. Pamela also spent a great deal of time with and spoke most fondly of Uncle Ivan, Aunt Lillian and their daughter Elaine. Their home and canning factory in Dodge Center always being a hub of activity, good food, hospitality and much love.

Pamela graduated from both John Marshall High School and St. Mary’s School of Nursing in Rochester, Minnesota and worked as both a nurse and a model.

Following her marriage to Thomas Yurkovich she attended the 1964 Winter Olympics in Innsbruck, Austria as the beautiful and gracious wife of the U.S. A’s Ice Hockey goalie. A little over a decade later she would accompany her daughter and husband who was refereeing the Coupe Beard International Ice Hockey Tournament in Lensin, Switzerland. Being the end of the ski season and the hotelier having travel plans to leave before the end of the tournament, the keys to the hotel were given to the beautiful and gracious Mrs. Yurkovich. She was instructed to lock the doors and leave the keys with the Mayor upon the family and other officiating tournament members’ departures, good manners and striking appearance do not only open doors but close them too!! It didn’t take long before Pamela herself became a little bit of a “Rink Rat”; often taking her lunches “On Ice” meaning figure skating on the noon hour of course!

Being a homemaker and a mother never stopped Pamela from pursuing her various interests. Many a weekends would be spent in a stream or quarry hunting for Agates or discovering a cephalopod to join the ranks in her historic showcases that resided in the basement. Meetings at the Isaak Walton League for rockhounds and the stories of their Arizona mineral adventures or favorite hounts for specimens eventually led to a class in Silversmithing.

So many interests! Cooking led to gardening, (a Master Gardener eventually) gardening led to pickling, pickling led to entertaining which of course meant setting an exquisite holiday table – which of course led to years of field trips in the countryside scouring Antique Shops and flee markets for the perfect pieces to enhance the table setting. Macrame, embroidery, sewing, drawing field trips led to workshops, which led to Roch.CC classes, Winona State University, College of St. Theresa and an eventual induction into Phi Theta Kappa! All of these activities ran alongside running a household, raising a child with a substantial extra curriculum list and caring for her parents whom she loved dearly. There were years of volunteering and community ranging from the Roch Public Schools, Int’l Assec and friends of the Minneapolis Institute of Art to mention a favorite few.

Several years after retirement, Pamela and her husband followed their daughter to Arizona, enjoying the warmer weather, becoming grandparents and taking on active role in their grandson’s early development. After her grandson started school, Pamela, who always enjoyed “little people” turned her attention to the children at Holy Angels School and became affectionately known as “Miss Honey”.

A gorgeous and gracious woman the embodiment of old school elegance; dearly loved and deeply missed.

“On Foot standing tall in her sunglasses and straw hat, a rare beauty; her smile and gracious exchange, a ray of sunshine for all whom she met-- a flower in the desert”. S.B.

Pamela is survived by her daughter Sarah (Kenneth) Bernstein, grandchildren Alexander Day and Eleanora Bernstein, her brother Donald (Jan) Blattie, children Linda (John) Smaby, Mark and Jay Blattie and sister-in-law Patricia Surina

GLOBE, AZ – Cobre Valley Regional Medical Center (CVRMC) is excited to announce the future opening of its much-anticipated “Highway 60 Clinic,” a walk-in clinic located near Cal Ranch and Walmart. This new facility is set to provide essential healthcare services to the community, offering a convenient option for those seeking immediate medical attention without the need for an appointment.

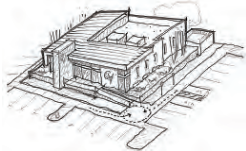

The journey to establish the Highway 60 Clinic has not been without challenges. The initial plans for the clinic encountered an unexpected delay when it was discovered that the proposed location fell within a designated floodway.

Determined to bring this vital service to the community, CVRMC worked with local and federal agencies to reassess the flood maps that impacted the clinic's location. Through extensive modeling, updated maps were drawn to better reflect the actual conditions of the area. CVRMC then submitted a request for a Letter of Map Revision (LOMR) to the Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA), requesting an official change to the flood designation.

On July 29, FEMA issued a LOMR, paving the way for the new clinic. The new facility will offer extend hours to walk-in patients, providing a convenient, affordable option for healthcare services. While the specific timeline for construction and opening is still being finalized, the team is working diligently to bring the project to completion as swiftly as possible.

CVRMC is committed to keeping the community informed as progress continues. Updates on the clinic's development will be shared regularly, with a focus on ensuring that residents are aware of the new healthcare options that will soon be available.

The opening of the Highway 60 Clinic represents a significant step forward in CVRMC's mission to provide comprehensive, accessible healthcare to the region. The medical center looks forward to welcoming patients to this new facility and continuing its tradition of high-quality care for the community.

When Mark Twain was editing a newspaper in Missouri, one of his subscribers wrote in, saying that he had found a spider in his newspaper and wondered whether it was a sign of good or bad luck. Twain's response: "Finding a spider is neither good luck nor bad. The spider was merely looking over our newspaper to see which merchant was not advertising, so that he could go to that store, spin his web across the door, and lead a life of undisturbed peace ever afterward."
