Amboy City Council holds special committee

By George Howe
Amboy News Reporter
AMBOY—Amboy Mayor John Schamberger called a special committee meeting with the city council on Monday, Nov. 6 stating that there were pressing items that needed to be resolved and implemented instead of waiting for the regular scheduled meeting later in the month.

Change was in the air as a couple of resignations and appointments filled much of the opening session. City Building Inspector Don Clayton, who has held the position for the last 8 years, submitted his resignation as a result of moving to Byron. Current Public Works Director Jeramey Wittenauer agreed to step in as the new inspector consequently wearing two hats for now. Schamberger thanked Wittenauer for stepping up and said that it makes sense since he is in the city every day. The council also accepted the resignation of Community Building Manager Julie DeArmitt and was thanked for her longtime service. Holly Bruington was approved as the new manager. “Holly is enthusiastic and wants to promote the Community Center and bring in more events and bookings like baby showers and parties,” said Second Ward Alderman and Community Building liaison Brandon Klein. The council approved the hiring of Courtney Kennedy of Ehrmann Gehlbach Badger & Considine as new City Attorney replacing Matt Keegan. Kennedy is a graduate of Amby High School. Through the Amboy Municipal Program, the city was able to purchase two new John Deere mowers with a $3,000 trade-in from Prairie State Tractor. The mowers come with a new two-year warranty. Schamberger said it’s a “no brainer” purchase. The council also ratified the purchase of a 2007 International 7000 Series Plow Truck for the Amboy Township at a discounted price of $35,000. This is a huge upgrade for the city, especially for snow removal. The Capital Improvement Gambling Fund will pay for this purchase. An ordinance authorizing the execution of an intergovernmental agreement with the Amboy Community

Unit School District for the property where the former middle school stood was approved. The property was sold to the city for $1. “I’m very excited and it should be a huge asset to the community,” said Schamberger. Amboy Schools Superintendent Joshua Nichols agreed. “We do have a working plan in place, and this is a great opportunity to possibly add a park and keep green space on that side of town,” added Nichols. “We still need to finish the demolition work and put up a fence before it can be surveyed but we are on our way.” Schamberger ended the proceedings with a discussion about what to do with several properties around town that may possibly need to be condemned and torn down. “It’s no secret that we have properties in town that are in bad shape,” the mayor said. “Business owners have called to see if anything can be done. We need to get after the owners to clean up and we are willing to work with them to get it done.”

Long agenda discussed at November Sublette Village Board meeting

BRANDON LaCHANCE
Amboy News Editor

SUBLETTE – The Sublette Village Board met Nov. 13 with a long agenda sheet.

In his president's report, John Stenzel read a letter from Lee County Tourism about the organization dissolving. In the letter, it told the Village of Sublette thank you for its many years of being a participant.

According to the letter, the tourism group was dissolved because the Lee County Board made the decision for the funds, hotel/motel taxes, to go to the City of Dixon.

Also in Stenzel's report, Sublette Antique Tractor donated $500 to Sublette for the use of tables and chairs and there was talk of setting a date for the next Comprehensive Plan Meeting, but a date wasn't made official. There was a meeting on Sept. 21 and two or three more will be needed before the plan can be passed.

From now until the Dec. 3 (the Christmas Walk), the Village of Sublette is holding a Coat & Hat Drive.

Hats, coats, gloves, and other winter gear for ages of preschool-junior high children can be dropped off at Vaessen Brothers Chevrolet or Local Cup & Cake.

The Christmas Walk & Parade was discussed as it will be held Dec. 3. The next village meeting will be Dec. 11 and the Christmas Decorating Contest is set for Dec. 16.

Village Economic Development Coordinator Don Dinges and Trustee Julie Kessel have almost completed the community calendar for 2024, but need to fill a couple more dates before it's official.

In other news: Two Sublette households with continual ordinance violations have been taken to court.

The 109 W. Main Property Project is almost complete as the concrete has been poured, but dirt needs to be added around it and gravel needs to be hauled away.

Morrison and Sterling, two neighboring communities, have been contacted as Sublette is looking to amend or change its storm water ordinance.

The 2023-24 Levy is due Dec. 19, 2023. The board approved the levy to be passed for $15,931 next year.

The board approved two water meters, by Route 52 Roadhouse and the Sublette Farmers Elevator Co., to be purchased for $168.89 apiece, $329.78 total.

Three matters were added to the agenda for 2024: Water service lines and cubs stops repair list, replace concrete at Ellice Dinges Center and Main Street, and sidewalk replacement plan.

The board approved the tentative tax levy for the year 2023 and set a public hearing date at 6:30 p.m. Thursday, Dec. 14 at the Amboy Junior High School. School superintendent Joshua Nichols elaborated the tax levy discussion in his report. The levy is how the district gets the property tax money and every year the district must submit a levy request. It then goes to Lee County and the extension is established when the funds are distributed about a year later.

"Here in Lee County, we are a property tax capped district meaning that the most we can get is five percent," said Nichols. "We put the request in November and December and usually don't know what we are getting until next spring. This cap has been in place since the 1990's."

In other news, Nichols was proud to report Central Elementary School was recently recognized by U.S. News and World Report as one of the best schools in the state coming in at number 257 out of 1669 Illinois elementary schools.

"This is very exciting, and a lot of work goes into this," added Nichols. "The ranking is solely based on performance on standardized testing and demographics with the rest of the state schools."

At Central, 42 percent of students scored at or above the proficient level for math and 47% scored at or above that level for reading. Another impressive stat revealed that overall Central came in at 78.45 just three points shy of an "excellent" rating.

Finally, the board approved a recommendation to purchase a 2019 53-passenger school bus that is equipped with three rows of required child seats for both preschoolers and special needs children. The bus will be used primarily for those designated routes.

THE PASTOR'S PEN

YOUR NAMES ARE WRITTEN IN HEAVEN

BY PASTOR JOHN KALEBAUGH

While I am writing this column the pleasant aroma of turkey is filling our home as my wife is roasting two huge ones in preparation for our Church's annual Thanksgiving dinner following our Sunday morning service. This old, and familiar aroma is yet another thing I pause to thank God for at this time of year.

In preparation for this Thanksgiving, and the Holiday Season, I found my thoughts drifting to one particular instance when Jesus Himself specifically expressed thankfulness to His Heavenly Father. "In that hour Jesus rejoiced in the Spirit and said, 'I thank You, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, that You have hidden these things from the wise and prudent and revealed them to babes. Even so, Father, for so it seemed good in Your sight.'" Luke 10:21

What was going on at that specific time which prompted such a response from Jesus? In the text it records that seventy of Jesus' followers whom He had sent out earlier had just returned ecstatic with how successful their mission had been... "Lord even the demons are subject to us in Your name." vs. 17. And though Jesus shared in their celebration, and how they were able to use His delegated authority and power, He also told them, "Nevertheless do not rejoice in this, that the spirits are subject to you, but rather rejoice because your names are written in heaven." V. 20.

What Jesus wanted His followers to know was that they already possessed something which was even more important than victory over the forces of evil! He is celebrating the fact that entrance into God's heaven is not based upon power and ability. Nor upon social class in society. Nor upon intellect or attractiveness. No, not at all. Jesus makes it clear in this portion of Scripture that it is really all about... "who you know." In other words, it is through our relationship with Him.

"Then Jesus called a little child to Him, set him in the midst of them,

And said, 'Assuredly, I say to you, unless you are converted and become as little children, you will by no means enter the kingdom of heaven.

Therefore, whoever humbles himself as this little child is the greatest in the kingdom of heaven.

Whoever receives one little child like this in My name receives Me." Matthew 18:2-5

Let's remember that we don't get ahead in God's kingdom by our own accomplishments. This isn't how it works. No matter how much effort or hard work we pour into it. Rather, it is through the childlike faith and humility that realizes we can never be good enough to be acceptable in our own strength or ability. The Good News is... Christ already accomplished this for us. We simply receive salvation by faith in Him.

And this really is cause for every one of us to thank God—just as Jesus did. It is precisely (and only) through our relationship with Him.

And my sincere hope and prayer for each of you reading this is that you already have that joyful, calm assurance that... "your names are written in heaven"—even as those first followers. And if you don't have that assurance yet, please talk to God, and ask Him with the same childlike faith and trust which Jesus spoke of.

May God bless you. Happy Thanksgiving.

Corrine Catherine Morrissey

Oct. 2, 1928 - Nov. 19, 2023

FRANKLIN GROVE — The long goodbye has come to an end -- Corrine Catherine (Just) Morrissey, 95, passed away peacefully on Sunday, Nov. 19, 2023, at Franklin Grove Living & Rehabilitation from Ischemic Dementia.

Corrine was born Oct. 2, 1928, in Peru, the daughter of Julius and Esther (Funf-sinn) Just. She married John (Tiny) Morrissey on June 19, 1954, at St. Joseph Church in Peru.

Corrine was an active member of St. Patrick's Parish, Altar & Rosary Society, helped with funeral dinners, and volunteered with counting Sunday collections. Corrine was a farmer's wife and worked tirelessly to support Tiny in raising livestock and field work. Later, Corrine retired from Borg Warner Inc. after several years of working post farm life.

Corrine is survived by her children, Douglas Morrissey, of Dixon, Diane (Tony) McCoy, of Amboy, Patricia (Richard) Cox, of Dixon, Cynthia (Larry) Kelly, of Normal, Eddie (Beth) Morrissey, of Amboy, and Robert (Michelle) Morrissey, of Effingham; 21 grandchildren, 12 great-grandchildren; a sister, Elizabeth Ghighi, of Peoria; sister-in-laws, Rita Glenn, Lois Considine, Frances Carroll, Monica Scorby, Colleen Koch; a brother-in-law, Larry Morrissey; and many beloved nieces and nephews.

Corrine was preceded in death by her husband, Tiny; parents, Julius and Esther Just; siblings, Lorraine Schuda, Eugene Just; daughter-in-law Darla Morrissey, and many brothers and sisters-in-law.

Mom was never one to "put on airs;" it wasn't her "cup of tea," nor flowers in the yard or animals in the house. She will be remembered for the gardens that grew, batch after batch of "yum-yums," kids everywhere, and making a meal out of little. She told it "like it is," but her prayers, full of grace, encompassed everyone. The Lord was her guiding light. The long goodbye has come to an end, but really, it's just the beginning...

Funeral services will be on Monday, Nov. 27, 2023, at St. Patrick Catholic Church in Amboy. Visitation is from 9 a.m. until 10:45 a.m., followed by the funeral at 11 a.m. Burial will follow at St. Patrick Cemetery in Amboy.

Arrangements by the Mihm-Jones Funeral Home in Amboy.

Lucille R. Grady

July 24, 1935 - Nov. 19, 2023

AMBOY — Lucille R. Grady, 88, of Amboy, passed away on Sunday, Nov. 19, 2023, at Franklin Grove Living and Rehab.

She was born on July 24, 1935 in Mendota, the daughter of George and Catherine (Sharkey) Schwamberger. The youngest of four children, she often spoke fondly of the many antics her and her siblings would get up to while growing up on the west side of Amboy. Lucille was a graduate of Amboy High School (class of 1953). It was there where she would meet the love of her life James H. Grady, who would often go out of his way to give her rides home.

After exchanging many letters during his time in the army, Jim finally came home and proposed to Lucille. They were married on May 18, 1957 at St. Patrick Catholic Church in Amboy. As the years passed, they were blessed with five children and many grandchildren and great-grandchildren. Every fall and spring, she could be found working alongside her husband on the farm they owned in Ohio, IL. When they weren't farming, Lucille and Jim would spend their time traveling. They enjoyed visiting Ireland, Italy, Panama, Hawaii, Alaska, and taking many trips to Branson, Mo.

Whether it was driving the tractor, learning to drive while pregnant, or cooking the best mashed potatoes, there was nothing Lucille could not do (except make ketchup). She was always present at her grandchildren's extracurricular activities and always was one to make sure everyone felt included in family events. She kept active throughout her life, enjoying many walks with her dear friend Virginia Leffelman.

She was a member of St. Patrick Catholic Church in Amboy where she participated in the guitar and adult choir. She was also a member of the Altar and Rosary Society, helped with funeral dinners, and volunteered with the March of Dimes. A cancer survivor herself, Lucille participated in many Relay for Life campaigns.

She is preceded in death by her parents, son in law, Carl Alesio, and sister, Mary Bullard. Lucille is survived by her husband Jim; children, Lu-Ann (Anthony) Costello, of Arlington, Karen Alesio, of Schenectady, N.Y., James E. (Linda) Grady, of Amboy, Janet (Myron) Leffelman, of Maytown, Mike (Renee) Grady, of Dixon; 13 grandchildren and 11 great-grandchildren; sisters, Margaret Castle, of Rock Falls, Kathleen Bodmer, of Dixon, and brother, George (Barb) Schwamberger, of Franklin Grove.

Funeral services will be at 11 a.m., on Tuesday, Nov. 21, 2023, at St. Patrick Catholic Church in Amboy. Burial will follow at St. Patrick Cemetery in Amboy. Visitation will be from 9-10:45 a.m., on Tuesday Nov. 21, 2023, at St. Patrick Catholic Church in Amboy.

Paula F. Barkei March 14, 1957 - Nov. 15, 2023

STEWART — Paula F. Barkei, nee Altrichter, 66, unexpectedly passed away on Wednesday, Nov. 15, 2023 at home. Paula was born in Chicago, Illinois on March 14, 1957 to Frank and Christine (Babik) Altrichter. Paula grew up in Westchester, and attended North Central College with a major in accounting and psychology. Paula used those skills as a comptroller at Tunnel Electric for close to 20 years. It was there that she met the love of her life, Bill Barkei. They were married on Nov. 24, 1990 at St. Mary's Catholic Church in West Brooklyn, and she relocated to Stewart.

Paula welcomed their son, Andy, with great love and enthusiasm. She volunteered at his school and was his greatest supporter. Paula used her love of people and detail while working for several years at State Farm in Amboy. She was committed to helping people and frequently volunteered her time with church or community organizations. Paula loved the many trips they took to Yellowstone in their camper and often related stories of their camping adventures. Her love of family and friends was always evident by her thoughtful calls, her Hallmark cards and the twinkle in her eye when she looked at you. Paula and her sister, Lynn, enjoyed a very close relationship and had just returned from their annual week long shopping trip together.

Paula was preceded in death by her parents. She will be greatly missed by her husband, Bill; son, Andy; sister, Lynn Genutis; brothers-in-law; sisters-in-law; nieces, nephews and cousins.

SOCIAL NEWS

There was a time when Black Walnut trees were planted for autumn harvest, yielding distinctively flavored nuts in time for Thanksgiving. Nowadays, we tend to leave that harvesting to the squirrels.

Our native walnuts

We once gave thanks for this unique tree

Most of us today have never tasted or else have forgotten the taste of our native walnuts. We substitute English walnuts when we make turkey dressing, cookies, and fudge.

The flavor of the nuts of American Black Walnut trees is far superior.

When we gather walnuts, it is necessary to wear gloves to prevent our fingers from being stained by their husks. The pioneers boiled the husks and used the liquid produced to permanently dye homemade cloth.

Walnut trees have large compound leaves placed alternately on their branches. Each leaf has leaflets arranged in two rows along the mid-rib. The walnut's nut is perfectly round with smooth sculpturing. A Black Walnut tree can be readily identified in summer and winter by its bark; it is very dark with diamond shaped fissures.

As a rule, our walnut trees are the last to leaf-out in spring and the first to drop their leaves in the fall. We have an abundance of Black Walnut trees growing in the country. Some natural groves have over a hundred trees.

Did you know?

Black walnuts can be eaten with or without cooking. Just know that the tree produces a chemical known as juglone in its roots, leaves and fruit husks, but not in the shell or in the nut. The tree produces this chemical to prohibit the growth of many other plants, including asparagus, rhubarb, apple trees, and lilacs. Such that many plants will not grow within fifty feet of a Black Walnut tree's drip line. The chemical can act as an irritant to human hands, so wearing gloves while removing the husks is advised. -- Editor

Editor's Note: James Brady Long was born in Amboy on June 12, 1926. Known by many as "Mazie", he grew up in Amboy, served in the army during World War II, then studied forestry at the Michigan College of Mining and Technology. His studies in botany and forest protection continued as he ventured into farming here. A beloved story-teller, his farm became a place of learning and adventure for relatives and friends. In his later years, he contributed a series of local nature articles to The Amboy News. Upon his death in 2000, his many hand-written drafts were gathered and initially curated by Brenda Boyle. The present, renewed series draws from those drafts, both unpublished and previously published.

AN UNCERTAIN SPRING

Sigrig Nunez's latest novel, "The Vulnerables" (2023), begins with an opening sentence from Virginia Wolf, "It was an uncertain spring." The spring of "The Vulnerables" is that of 2020, our lockdown year. The title refers to the age category of the narrator, who is well over 65. The narrator remains unnamed, but, like Nunez, she is a writer who lives in Manhattan. She gave her apartment to a health care worker from Oregon, one of many who rushed to New York City. (In that uncertain spring, from March to May of 2020, 18,676 people died of Covid in the city.) Our narrator moves into a friend's apartment to bird sit a sociable macaw named Eureka whose owner got stuck on the West Coast.

The apartment is "luxury squared...the collision of great imagination, great taste and a whole lot of money." The narrator quotes a viral tweet that describes lockdown as "the middle class hiding while working-class people bring them things." The parrot has his own room with paintings of rain forests to make him feel at home. Macaws easily bond with people. Eureka is beautiful and extremely intelligent, a playful companion whose company is consoling in her isolation. She walks for hours in Manhattan's deserted streets, but she cannot read on the park bench where she used to spend hours reading. A friend chides her that she must stay inside, after all, she is one of the Vulnerables.

Enter a handsome college student who had abandoned Eureka weeks before. Our narrator instantly loses Eureka to the boy because they had bonded in that initial extreme loneliness and fear. Our narrator calls him Vetch and avoids him at all cost. He had spent the summer in a psychiatric hospital. When he went home after his university shut down, his parents soon tossed him out. Over time, he notices that our narrator isn't eating and offers her reefer. They smoke nearly every day and their friendship flourishes. "When people are thrown together," our narrator tells us, "they do help each other. That is the most natural human feeling in the world."

Nunez is a wonderful storyteller, but her books are not autofiction. She has said that the observations and reflections are hers, but the storyline is invented, a kind of hybrid. One of my favorite reflections is about reading. When she was young, she believed that it was important to remember what happened in every novel she read. "Now I know the truth. What matters is what you experience while reading. The states of feelings that the story evokes, the questions that rise to your mind, rather than the fictional events described. They should teach you that in school."

Whether we admit we can handle change or not, our society gets bored and changes things.

Sports fans get bored of the same teams being good every year such as the New England Patriots (Tom Brady days), the New York Yankees (Derek Jeter days and the great pinstripe teams before him), the Los Angeles Dodgers (until they choke in the postseason), the Golden State Warriors (Splash Brothers otherwise known as Steph Curry and Klay Thompson, and crybaby Draymond Green), and to not Chicago fans, the Chicago Bulls when Michael Jordan was creating his resume.

Drivers get sick of traveling the same roads, so they find new routes.

Gamers become exhausted with the same game formats and grind their teeth for new challenges.

Banker's eyes become crossed when they see the same reports day after day and hope for numbers to be transposed to break out the red pen and add some color.

And foodie's pallets get frustrated with the same flavors every Thanksgiving Thursday.

Turkey is too bland.

Mashed potatoes too runny.

Gravy too lumpy.

Stuffing too hard.

Cranberries too tart.

Corn is too corny.

Pumpkin pie isn't as dynamic, or eye catching as cherry or apple.

And green bean casserole is, well, green bean casserole.

Families have taken some of the traditional, staples of the Thanksgiving table off of the table because

Column

By Brandon

members of the family are bored and want something different.

Macaroni and cheese, duck, scalloped potatoes, fried turkey, squash lasagna, pumpkin chili, blooming onion (thanks to the Outback Steakhouse), garlic bread, and roast beef have become popular items to replace the traditional options.

You know that face your grandmother makes when you let out a toot in church?

Or that moan your grandfather makes when you don't know the model of car you parked in his driveway?

I'm contorting my face and startling my neighbors right now at the thought of someone trying to replace the items on the Thanksgiving table that have become familiar, popular, and family-like in their own right.

I never named a turkey, but I should have as for one night a year, it's the best bird to ever be lathered with juice, sauce, poked with cloves and honored with ring pineapples like crowns or tiaras.

The stuffing could be made out of Legos or Lincoln Logs and I'd still eat it.

We're in Illinois and if you diss corn, your taxes rise. So, don't.

The point is, there is a reason these food items are tradition.

There is a reason they have become synonymous with the holiday which unionized Pilgrims and Native Americans for the first time in 1621, 402 years ago.

Do we even have the right to change the food? Is it possible for the afterlife to haunt you for doing such a thing?

I think so.

In life, there are certain things we should just enjoy. Why do we have to nit pick and complain about some-

Is tradition boring?

Congress shall make no law respecting an establishment of religion, or prohibiting the free exercise thereof; or abridging the freedom of speech, or of the press; or the right of the people peaceably to assemble, and to petition the Government for a redress of grievances ~ The First Amendment thing such as food that helped tie our nation together?

Even if you don't look at it in a cultural, 402-year event, what about your own families?

I know my great-grandmother (R.I.P. Grandma LaChance) would have smacked someone if they said, "Grandma, we don't like turkey anymore, what about ham, roast beef, or a stuffed pig with an apple in its mouth?"

She would have smiled for half a second, said 'Oh dear' and then reached to the skies to have you change your mind without you even knowing it.

Why are we making a mockery of what Thanksgiving is meant to be because you're bored?

And that's what it is.

Because I have never, never, never, ever met someone who is allergic or can't eat turkey, corn, stuffing, gravy, mashed potatoes, pumpkin pie, green bean casserole (except me, ha), or cranberries. Maybe one item, but not all.

It's OK for you to not like something and eat something else. Just eat something else that's on the table.

Suck it up, eat the great food your elders supplied, say thank you to them, and give appreciation to the country's founding settlers for creating the amazing holiday sitting in your belly.

Check is in the mail

Paper checks are dead and cash is dying."

When I read that headline in the Washington Post, I cringed.

According to the Post article, back in 2000, 6 out of 10 non-cash payments were made with a paper check. Today it is 1 in 20.

Or consider this: 57% of Americans haven't written a check in the past month. None. Nada. Zero. Zip. If check writing is going the way of the dinosaur, I must be a regular Tyrannosaurus rex. I still pay my bills by check.

I line up my bills on my desk and pay each of them with the swoop of a ballpoint pen. To me, it screams financial responsibility. But soon those giant, oversized, foam board novelty checks will be the last remanent of what was a 20th Century fiscal icon.

I remember when merchants preferred checks. Credit card companies charge them between 1.5% and 3.5% of each transaction. More than a few times, I've negotiated a discount on merchandise by offering to pay with a check rather than a charge card.

Still, I can't help but think something is lost as the written check goes by the wayside.

I opened my first checking account when I was 11. My dad thought it was important that his sons have experience operating their own businesses. My brother raised hogs. I raised cattle.

I purchased bull calves from dairy farmers across Knox County, took them home and raised them on a bottle. (Dairy calves are raised on formula because humans drink their mother's milk.)

I felt like a regular Rockefeller writing a $25 check for a Holstein calf. My mother taught me to carefully record each transaction in my checkbook: milk replacement, feed, a pitchfork. Checks were about responsibility and accountability. When I received a check in the mail from Bill Robinson, the farmer I eventually sold the calves off to, I felt a sense of accomplishment. Holding something tangible in my hands was a reward for hard work.

Guest Column

By Scott Reeder

Decades later when I wed, the checking account became a point of contention.

Spouses have to communicate with one another. And nothing requires communication more than a joint checking account.

My wife, God bless her, has a phenomenal memory and can remember all of her transactions. But somehow, she'd forget to tell me about them. It was a recipe for checks bouncing higher than a super ball. We experimented with separate checking accounts. But that created a mindset of: "his money" and "her money"—never a good idea. In marriage everything should be "ours." Eventually, we tried a joint account again and learned to communicate better. It wasn't just good for the finances but for the marriage.

A young man I do business with needed to pay me and asked about sending me a Venmo payment. I told him I didn't have an account. This exasperated, college-educated, 20-something then asked how he was supposed to get the money to me. I told him to mail me a check. He had to watch a YouTube video to learn how to fill one out.

As the written check fades away, the American lexicon will be altered. Terms like: "Grip and grin," "Rubber check," "The check is in the mail" and "Paycheck Fridays" will slowly disappear from our language.

Future students may ponder these words of '60s radical Jerry Rubin: "The individual who signs the check has the ultimate power." Will those future scholars ponder this statement or simply ask: "What's a check?"

On Aug. 15, 1918, the 88th Division had arrived at Hoboken, New Jersey where they boarded the transport ship Kashmir for the ten-day journey across the Atlantic. As American soldiers moved in large numbers to the battlefields of France in that year, Harry's division would arrive in time for horrific large-scale fighting in the trenches and the forests of the Argonne. If any soldier was fortunate enough to have survived the flu pandemic that was killing tens of thousands, he would face gas attacks, machine gun nests, and continuous artillery barrages that included the use of poison gas.

During Harry's time in the trenches, the people of West Brooklyn and Viola Townships organized volunteer committees to support the American soldiers. The two townships raised over $150,000 through Liberty Loans and War Stamps, and supported their country in every way possible, despite many citizens having been born in Germany or one of the other Central Power countries.

By mid-September, the American Expeditionary Force gathered under the command of General John J. Pershing in the final offensive of the war, leading to Germany's request for an Armistice on Nov. 11. The objective of the Meuse-Argonne Offensive was to break through the Siegfried Line, a heavily fortified defensive barrier running just inside the German border. By the time this battle ended, American and Allied forces had broken through the Siegfried defenses and forced the German army into retreat.

In the weeks to follow, the 88th Division continued the fight to liberate French towns and bring an end to the war. On Oct. 12, 1918, Pvt. Harry E. Lahman was killed in action near Belfort, France. Along with thousands of other young Americans, he was laid to rest with honors at the Meuse-Argonne American Cemetery and Memorial in France.

Season Preview: Amboy wrestling doubles in size; looking for team success

By Brandon LaChance
Amboy News Editor

AMBOY—When third-year Amboy-LaMoille wrestling coach Brent Montavon looks at his roster for the 2023-24 season, he smiles.

A season ago he had seven student-athletes donning a singlet. The list of names is considerably longer this go around.

“We doubled in size this year. We had seven last year and we have 13 this year,” said Montavon. “It’s pretty impressive and we have more coming up next year. We’re going to finally fill a squad here and try to do some damage Northwest Upstate Illini Conference and regional wise; we’re hoping.”

The roster has one senior in Lucas Blanton, two juniors in Tyler Huggins and Josh McKendry, four sophomores with Chase Montavon, Birgen Tucker, Landon Blanton, and Landon Roath, and six freshmen in Chase Huggins, Carter Phelps, Jose Lopez, Caiden Heath, Ty Florschuetz, and Evan Flanagan, who is from LaMoille.

Last year Lucas Blanton represented the Clippers at the IHSA State Tournament.

“I think Landon has a chance to make the podium this year and take home a state medal. Him and his brother Lucas Blanton have been wrestling during the offseason all summer long,” coach Montavon said. “We had a couple other kids that went to summer camps with us and wrestled all summer in Greco-Roman wrestling before the football season started.

“We’d like to send three or four to state this year. We have quite a few possibilities. There are some good, talented wrestlers in freshmen Evan Flanagan, Jose Lopez, and Caiden Heath. All three of these freshmen went to state in youth club wrestling the last two years.”

Montavon elaborated by stating Landon Blanton has the ability and work ethic to be a four-time state qualifier, Lucas Blanton is wrestling better, has dropped weight, put on muscle and should have a solid season, and McKendry is wrestling well and is expected to improve his win total.

The Huggins brothers, Tyler and Chase, are new to the sport but are catching on quickly and are adding to a young roster with experience.

“A lot of our guys have wrestled in club, so they’ve been around for awhile and are not new to the sport,” Montavon said. “Our club, Clippers Wrestling Club, is the feeder program to get kids interested in wrestling and develop them so they’re ready for high school wrestling.

“The mix of youth and experience, plus new guys to show the ropes, I think this year is going to be one heck of a wrestling season for the Amboy Clippers.”

Season Preview: Positive mindset to power Clippers boys hoops

By Brandon LaChance
Amboy News Editor

AMBOY—The energy at the Amboy boys basketball team’s practices is positive.

They’re hungry to win games after only winning four contests last year and finishing at the bottom of the Northwest Upstate Illini Conference.

With the positivity, three returning starters, and coach Brad Dunlap coming into his fourth year at the helm, the Clippers feel this is a year they can climb the ranks.

“We lost three seniors last year, so we have everyone else coming back. We have three starters back and a lot of frosh/soph guys from last year who are now on the varsity team,” Dunlap said. “I think if our attitude is in the right spot, we have a chance to compete with anyone as long as we’re playing hard and doing what we’re supposed to do.

“We have two seniors in Eliseo Vazquez-Tapia and Troy Anderson. They’re going to have to carry us a little bit with their leadership. We have juniors Eddie Jones and Brody Christoffersen who along with Anderson are our returning starters. Juniors Kabe Daniels and Joel Billhorn are going to step up after being on the junior varsity team last year.

“We have a newcomer in junior Carson Barlow and hopefully a couple of our younger guys will step up and help us out also.”

Rounding out the eight-man roster, two seniors and six juniors, is junior Quinn Leffelman.

Dunlap is relying on each player wearing a Clippers’ jersey to contribute.

“It’s going to be a full team effort. We don’t have an individual that’s going to carry us for a win,” Dunlap said. “It’s going to have to be as a team, just like we preach. It’s going to come down to our attitude. That’s what we said all summer and preseason. It’s how we practice and approach the game. It comes down to how we wake up every day and if we have a positive attitude or not and are ready to improve.”

With a chunk of the basketball team also on the state champion football team, they weren’t at practice.

Although the team couldn’t practice with its entire squad, the team still found ways to improve.

“Most of the time, we’ve been practicing with the frosh/soph guys because our varsity guys were playing football, which is awesome,” Dunlap said. “We only had two varsity players at practice during the first week. We’ve been doing a lot of stuff with the younger guys, which is great for them because they get more attention and have an opportunity to improve a lot more.

“Speed is one of our assets that we need to take advantage of. We have a couple of good shooters. We want to pride ourselves on our defense and limit the other team’s opportunities. We want to be a tough team. We’ve preached at every practice how we need to be tough.”

Similar to the three previous years, Dunlap wants his team to keep pushing the envelope and improve at each practice and be better from game to game.

He has full belief this team will do so.

“Expectations are always high. As a coach, you should expect to win every game and expect to get better at every practice,” Dunlap said. “If you’re not doing that, I don’t think you’re helping the kids reach their full potential. We go into every game prepared to win.

“Now, we just have to have the mindset, during the game, that we can play four quarters and finish the game. That’s what we’ve struggled with. We’ve played a good half or three quarters but couldn’t get over the hump. This group has shown that they have the ability and the toughness mentally and physically to get over the hump and finish some games.

“I love our guys. I enjoy coming to practice every day and having the opportunity to form bonds with them,” Dunlap said. “They’re great kids and they want to win.”

Eller part of St. Ambrose history

DAVENPORT, Iowa — Ian Eller, a sophomore at St. Ambrose University, was a member of the SAU Cross Country team that broke a school record on Oct. 21, 2023, at the Blazing Tiger NAIA Classic in Ashland, Neb.

The Bees combined for a team time of 131:05 minutes to smash the previous 8K school record of 131:58 minutes set at the 1999 Midwest Collegiate Conference Championships. Eller finished in 26:45 as the 5th member of the top seven SAU runners. Other runners on the record-breaking team include Luke Benes, Chris Miserendino, Will Dowda, Ross Willerth, and Trae Corby.

St. Ambrose is a 4-year private Catholic university located in Davenport, Iowa, and is a member of the National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics (NAIA).

DAR seeks Wreaths across America sponsors, deadline is Nov. 28

ROCHELLE — Rochelle Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution (DAR), will conduct multiple Wreaths Across America ceremonies to honor local veterans during the weekend before Christmas. Wreaths Across America is a national program for communities to honor deceased local veterans by sponsoring and placing wreaths at their graves.

DAR will return to Daysville Cemetery in Oregon, burial site of Revolutionary War soldier Daniel Day, St. Patrick's Cemetery in Rochelle, and Woodlawn Cemetery in Creston. Grave-specific requests at Trinity and Lawnridge, which are also in Rochelle, will also continue in this year's sponsorships.

The public's assistance is requested to honor as many veterans as possible. Wreaths can be sponsored for $17 each online by visiting www.wreathsacrossamerica.org/IL0136P or scanning the QR code in the photo to select the cemetery of their choice. To sponsor wreaths by check or for a digital copy of the form, please contact Lydia Roberts at VIS.DAR.Rochelle@gmail.com or Laurie Perry at laurieannperry@hotmail.com.

IDNR reminds deer hunters to be safe when hunting from tree stands SPRINGFIELD — As people across Illinois prepare for this weekend's firearm deer season, the Illinois Department of Natural Resources is urging hunters to use safety harnesses when hunting from tree stands in the field. Tree stands are the No. 1 source of hunting-related accidents and fatalities in Illinois.

The 2023 firearm deer season dates are Nov. 17-19 and Nov. 30-Dec. 3.

"Our utmost priority is ensuring hunters' safety so they can return home unharmed after every hunt," said Jed Whitchurch, director of IDNR's Office of Law Enforcement. "While we want them to enjoy themselves and achieve success in the field, we emphasize putting safety first. Our recommendation for hunters is to prioritize safety above all other considerations."

So far during the fall 2023 hunting season, which includes archery deer season, Illinois Conservation Police have documented two hunting-related fatalities, both of which involved tree stands. One fatality occurred when a hunter fell out of a 15-foot-tall ladder tree stand. The second occurred when a hunter who'd been reported missing was eventually found deceased on the ground at the base of his ladder stand.

Tree stand falls, often from heights of 20 to 30 feet, can cause significant injuries, including broken bones, spinal damage, paralysis, concussions, organ injuries, internal bleeding, sprains, cuts, and bruises. Most of these injuries are preventable by using fall arrest systems, avoiding drug and alcohol use, and making sure the tree stand equipment is in good working order.

"By using a functional and trustworthy fall arrest system and thoroughly examining every tree stand component prior to use, most tree stand accidents can be avoided," Whitchurch said. "The consequences of falling from a tree stand can have a lasting impact on hunters and their loved ones. The Illinois Conservation Police strongly emphasize prioritizing safety in all hunting endeavors."

Conservation police have already documented several tree stand falls that resulted in injuries this season. Among them:

- A hunter in Jefferson County fell from a tree stand, resulting in two broken legs. He crawled nearly a half mile before a passerby saw him and called 911.

- A hunter in Saline County fell 25 feet from a tree stand when the straps broke. He suffered from severe back pain from landing on his feet.

- A hunter in Cass County fell from a tree stand after a climbing stick strap broke. His injuries required surgery.

Tree stand-related falls in previous years:

- 2022 – 6
- 2021 – 13

- 2020 – 14, one of which was fatal

Tree stand safety tips include:

- Use a fall arrest system that includes a safety harness and follow the manufacturer's guidelines that come with it.

- Inspect the tree stand for wear and tear before each use.

- Use a haul line to bring up unloaded firearms, bows, and other hunting equipment.

- Take a cell phone.

- Tell a friend or loved one where you intend to hunt and when you intend to return.

- Avoid drug or alcohol use before and during hunting.

For more information about hunting safety, visit IDNR's hunter safety website.

THE PASTOR'S PEN

HAPPY THANKSGIVING

BY PASTOR RICK WULF

The East Grove Union Church of Rural Amboy

Hello, Friends,
Well, it is that time of year again. The beginning of the "holiday season." We know, from our study of American History that it was because of the actions of the Pilgrims in 1621, that we now as Americans have set aside the fourth Thursday of November as a day of Thanksgiving. This practice was reinforced by President Abraham Lincoln in the midst of the Civil War in 1863 to proclaim a day of Thanksgiving. It has now become a national holiday that Americans should give thanks to God, and that is a good thing, just so long that it is not only "that" day that we are supposed to be thankful.

There are 40 references in the Bible for thanksgiving and more than one-third of them found in the book of Psalms. It sort of make sense, seeing that is the songbook of the Bible.

Psalm 100 is entitled a Psalm of Thanksgiving. It is a favorite of many. It has five concise verses that all focus on praise to God. This year for my Thanksgiving messages in our church, I will be using Psalm 103. As I have been reading and preparing for my Thanksgiving messages, I have just gained more insight into this wonderful Psalm of David. David in his praise to God wrote, "Bless the Lord," which means to Praise the Lord. It is so important that we give God the glory and honor due His name, not that He needs the praise and thanks, but He knows that we need to give it to Him. David recognized all that God has done for him and all of those who put their faith in the One true God. David reminded himself to "forget not all His benefits," because "He forgives all our iniquities, and heals all our diseases; He redeems our life from destruction, and crowns you with lovingkindness and tender mercies, and satisfies your mouth with good things, so that your youth is renewed like the eagle's." He caps off all that the Lord does for us as. "He executes righteousness and justice for all who are oppressed."

David goes on to declare these great truths about our God. "The Lord is merciful and gracious, Slow to anger, and abounding in mercy. He will not always strive with us,

Nor will He keep His anger forever. He has not dealt with us according to our sins,

Nor punished us according to our iniquities. For as the heavens are high above the earth,

So great is His mercy toward those who fear Him; As far as the east is from the west, So far has He removed our transgressions from us." (Psalm 103:8-12). Our God is like no other and as we read His Word, we are encouraged to trust Him through it all. David ends this marvelous the way he began it, "Bless the Lord, O my soul!"

I trust that as you celebrate Thanksgiving with family and or friends that you will be reminded of how good God is and that He loves you and wants you to trust Him. He is waiting for you to call out to Him in faith and to allow Him to work in and through your life to make it what He desires you to be, the very best, His creation. Happy Thanksgiving from the East Grove Union Church Family.

May God continue to bless and sustain you.

Assessed Values for 2023

Valuation date (35ILCS 200/9-95) January 1, 2023

Required level of assessment (35ILCS 200/9-145) 33.33%

Valuation based on sales from (35ILCS 200/1-155) 01/01/2020 – 12/31/2022

Questions about these valuations should be directed to:
Lee County Assessment Office

112 E Second St
Dixon IL 61021
815-288-4483

Office Hours: 8am – 4:30pm M – F

Property in these townships, other than farmland, is to be assessed at a 33.33% median level of assessment, based on the fair cash value of the property. You may check the accuracy of your assessment by dividing your assessment by the median level of assessment. The resulting value should equal the estimated fair cash value of your property. If the resulting value is greater than the estimated fair cash value of your property, you may be over-assessed. If the resulting value is less than the fair cash value of your property, you may be under-assessed. You may appeal your assessment to the Board of Review.

If you believe your property's fair cash value is incorrect or that the equalized assessed valuation is not uniform with other comparable properties in the same neighborhood, the following steps should be taken.

1.Contact your township assessor to review the assessment.

2.If not satisfied with the assessor review, taxpayers may file an appeal with the Lee County Board of Review. For appeal forms, instructions, and the Rules and Procedures of the Board of Review, visit www.leecountyil.com, or call (815) 288-4483.

3.The final filing deadline for your township is 30 days from this publication date. After this date, the Board of Review is prohibited by law from accepting assessment appeals.

Your property may be eligible for homestead exemptions, which can reduce your property's taxable assessment. For more information on homestead exemptions, visit www.leecountyil.com or call (815) 288-4483.

Your property tax bill will be calculated as follows:
Final Equalized Assessed Value - Exemptions = Taxable Assessment

Property in these townships, other than farmland, is to be assessed at a 33.33% median level of assessment, based on the fair cash value of the property. You may check the accuracy of your assessment by dividing your assessment by the median level of assessment. The resulting value should equal the estimated fair cash value of your property. If the resulting value is greater than the estimated fair cash value of your property, you may be over-assessed. If the resulting value is less than the fair cash value of your property, you may be under-assessed. You may appeal your assessment to the Board of Review.

If you believe your property's fair cash value is incorrect or that the equalized assessed valuation is not uniform with other comparable properties in the same neighborhood, the following steps should be taken.

1.Contact your township assessor to review the assessment.

2.If not satisfied with the assessor review, taxpayers may file an appeal with the Lee County Board of Review. For appeal forms, instructions, and the Rules and Procedures of the Board of Review, visit www.leecountyil.com, or call (815) 288-4483.

3.The final filing deadline for your township is 30 days from this publication date. After this date, the Board of Review is prohibited by law from accepting assessment appeals.

Your property may be eligible for homestead exemptions, which can reduce your property's taxable assessment. For more information on homestead exemptions, visit www.leecountyil.com or call (815) 288-4483.

Your property tax bill will be calculated as follows:

Amboy-LaMoille-Ohio scores nine first half touchdowns to power a 74-22 victory; first Clippers' state title since 1984

By BRANDON LaCHANCE
Amboy News Editor

MONMOUTH—It was a well-known fact the Amboy-LaMoille-Ohio football team lost in the Illinois 8-Man Football Association State Championship last November.

It was also a well-known fact the Clippers were hungrier than hyenas to get back to the last game of the year and show that they were the best squad.

No one thought they would be able to basically win the game in the first three minutes and 15 seconds enroute to hoisting the state trophy after a 74-22 final over Ridgewood Friday, Nov. 17 at Monmouth College.

"This means a lot. A year ago we lost and we knew we wanted to come back here and be on the winning side," said senior tight end and defensive end Brennan Blaine, who recorded four touchdowns in the state final (three receiving and one rushing). "This group of seniors has been playing football together since we were in the second or third grade and we never had an undefeated season. To be able to say our last season together was an undefeated, state championship season is amazing.

"All week we focused on not starting the game slow. It didn't matter if I didn't score any touchdowns, we just wanted to win the game and take the state trophy home to Amboy. We had unfinished business and we needed to prove we were the best team this season."

The Clippers received the opening kickoff and scored a touchdown in two plays as senior running back Landon Whelchel had a 59-yard carry and the duo of junior quarterback Eddie Jones and Blaine connected for a 7-yard score in the air with 11:25 on the clock. Whelchel ran in the two-point conversion for an 8-0 lead.

On the ensuing kickoff return by the Spartans, the ball was popped loose, and the Clippers pounced on the ball for their first-of-three collected turnovers.

It only took three plays for A-L-O to find the end zone a second time as junior fullback Quinn Leffelman found paydirt after a 24-yard run with 10:13 left in the first quarter for a 14-0 advantage.

Ridgewood ran two plays during its second possession, but it ended the same as the first as the Clippers jarred the ball loose and senior Landon Montavon recovered the fumble.

Jones and Blaine connected for a 40-yard, one-play possession touchdown (Leffelman ran in two-point conversion) to give A-L-O a 22-0 lead with 8:45 remaining in the first frame.

The Clippers scored three touchdowns in 3:15 and never looked back.

"We played dominating football and it surprised us," said linemen Austin Heath, who recorded a sack for a loss of five yards and three other tackles for losses. "We thought the game was going to be kind of close and had no idea we were going to play our best football of the season. I'm excited we won. This is something I will never forget.

"With the younger players that are on the team and the kids in youth football, the Clippers have a chance to make it back here again."

The Spartans ran three plays but punted on a 4th-and-5. However, the ball wasn't kicked far as the Clippers broke through the line to block the punt and takeover on the Ridgewood 29-yard line.

Blaine scooped in a third touchdown pass from Jones (Jones run) the next play to give A-L-O a commanding 30-0 lead with 6:22 remaining in the first.

Jones was 4-of-4 in the game with 98 yards and three touchdowns.

A-L-O scored one more time in the first quarter as Whelchel broke away for a 61-yard touchdown run (Whelchel run) with 3:03 to give the squad a 38-0 advantage going into the second quarter.

"Our offensive line was spectacular. Their blocks stayed crisp all night and opened up holes for everyone all night. I did my part, but the kudos goes to the guys on the line," said Whelchel as he shared love to each unit of the team. "Our special teams played great and gave the offense the ball in great field position while pinning Ridgewood back. Our defense with three all-state linemen, should have been four, no one was stopping them.

"We wanted to get the losing taste from last year out of our mouth. No one wants that. There is nothing better than winning this state title."

first quarter, the Clippers didn't let off of the gas pedal as they found the endzone four times in the second.

Whelchel, who had 257 yards and three touchdowns on 10 carries for the game, scored his second TD with 11:05 on the second-quarter clock on a 63-yard run (Jones to Whelchel) for a 46-0 lead.

Blaine took a handoff for 12-yards at 7:28 for a 52-0 lead and junior Brayden Klein ran in a 30-yard score (Whelchel run) with 6:28 for a 60-0 landslide.

Ridgewood scored its lone first-half points at 2:56 on a 11-yard pass and catch to cut the Clippers' lead to 60-6.

Whelchel ended his endzone treasure hunts with a 35-yard journey at 2:14 to make the halftime score 68-6.

"I told the kids before the game, let's go out and finish, let's finish what we started," coach Scott Payne said. "They started right out of the gate. Our crowd did a great job of hyping them up and getting them ready. We got the turnovers early and we were able to get our offense going. Once the offense started rolling, they didn't want to stop.

"Our offensive line played so well. They held their blocks. I'm shocked of how well we played. This is the best I've seen this team play. I told the kids, 'You've yet to play a full game where you've played perfectly.' Well, they just played perfect for three quarters and it was great to see."

The perfect play followed the first half into the third quarter as junior Josh McKendry ended the Clipper scoring with a 19-yard score on the ground at 4:24 to make the game 74-6 headed into the fourth and final quarter.

Ridgewood scored at 11:55 and 7:35 against A-L-O second and third units, but the tide had been set for the Clippers' first state championship since 1984.

"It means everything to Amboy. The town, the crowd is behind the football team so much. It means a lot," Payne said. "I told these guys before the game, 'If you win this, you'll always be remembered as state champions. No matter where you go, what you do, 20 years, 30 years, 40 years down the road, you're always going to be remembered as state champions and no one can take that away from you.'"

"It's a big night for the seasons. I'm so happy for everyone and proud of what they've accomplished. To send the seniors off this way, you couldn't ask for a better ending."

A Look Back on the 13-0 Undefeated Season

Week 1

Clippers 40 - Decatur Unity Christian 0

Amboy coach Scott Payne attributes the defensive line to shutting out Unity Christian as defensive tackles Landon Montavon and Austin Heath controlled the running game and defensive ends Brennan Blaine and Quinn Leffelman put pressure on the quarterback.

Week 2

Clippers 80 - Hanover 8

The A-L-O running backs could not be contained as senior Landon Whelchel rushed for three touchdowns, Braden Klein had two, and Quinn Leffelman, Brody Christofferson, and Josh McKendry had one apiece.

Week 3

Clippers 60 - Martinsville 8

Defensively, A-L-O allowed eight points for the second straight week which is the most of the season as they allowed eight points against River Ridge in Week 2 and earned a Week 1 shutout against Decatur Christian Unity.

Week 4

Peoria Quest Charter forfeits game

Although the Clippers were not able to find an opponent, the administration orchestrated a scrimmage between the varsity and the junior varsity, and all of the Homecoming traditions still came to fruition.

Week 5

Clippers 48 - Cambridge Ridgewood 42

Once again, the credit goes to the offensive line. They came out in the second half and pretty much dominated the line of scrimmage offensively for us. Landon Whelchel rushed for 146 yards and three touchdowns and Quinn Leffelman scored two touchdowns on 102 yards on the ground.

Week 6

Clippers 32 - Milledgeville 20

Amboy coach Scott Payne said the defense did a great job. They improved a lot from the previous week giving up 42 to Ridgewood. To turn around and play the way they did against Milledgeville was great to see the improvement they made as a unit.

Week 7

Clippers 46 - Ashton Franklin-Center 0

The Clippers had a 46-0 lead at halftime and scored 20 more in the second half after the starters were on the sideline.

Week 8

Clippers 72 - Orangville 12

In their first home game since Week 1 of the season, the Clippers showcased what they've been demonstrating at away stadiums all fall, their running game.

Week 9

Clippers 52 - Polo 6

While the defense snagged four turnovers, the A-L-O offense ran rampant as senior Landon Whelchel had 123 yards and two touchdowns on 17 carries, junior Quinn Leffelman rushed for 119 yards and one touchdown on 18 carries, and senior Brennan Blaine had four carries for 43 yards and two touchdowns.

Playoffs Week 1

Clippers 54 - Hiawatha 6

Defensively, seniors Landon Montavon and Austin Heath had their names all over the stat books and through the public announcer's microphone.

Playoffs Week 2

Clippers 62 - F-W-C 7

Amboy- LaMoille-Ohio took one punch from Flanagan- Cornell-Woodland and decided enough was enough.

Playoffs Semifinals

Clippers 40 - Polo 6

"That's what it came down to, we made the big plays and Polo didn't. Polo is a great team and they're well coached," Clippers coach Scott Payne said. "The Amboy kids played great and made the plays they needed to make."

State Championship Game

Clippers 74 Cambridge Ridgewood 22

Domination. Domination. Domination. The Clippers hit the Spartans in the mouth as soon as the ball was kicked off. Scoring three touchdowns with 8:45 left in the first quarter, the game was virtually won in 3 minutes and 15 seconds.
