ROCHELLE—Hicks BBO, a local food concession and catering business, recently announced it has purchased the building at 315 Cherry Ave. and the lot west of it.

No, the building will not be a restaurant. It will be a centralized location for the owners, Jeremy and Erica Hicks, to continue and grow their catering and food truck business. Some carry out and events may be in the cards in the future for Hicks BBQ at the location.

"The new building will help considerably," Jeremy said. "We have stuff stored in four different places right now. We do a lot of catering. This will centralize us. We do more catering than anything. But we don't want a restaurant. People ask us that a lot."

Hicks said he and his wife have been looking to get into a building for a couple of years. They considered building something in Hillcrest, but wanted to be in the downtown area. The couple have Hicks BBQ is planning an overhaul of the building including paving the lot for a place to park its two food trucks. The inside of the building will be gutted, cleaned and repainted. A new roof will be added and windows and doors will be replaced.

"We're going to revamp the whole place," Jeremy said. "It won't look anything like it does now. We want to be local and downtown. People have to find our trailers wherever they are now. I'd like to have it open by the beginning of summer. We'll do it as soon as we can."

Jeremy said the building purchase came from a desire to reinvest in his home area and have a place where customers can find Hicks BBQ easily.

Downtown grant application submitted

BY JEFF HELFRICH MANAGING EDITOR

CRESTON — At its Tuesday meeting, the Creston Village Board heard an update on its grant application for an overhaul of its downtown area.

Creston applied for a Illinois Department of Commerce and Economic Opportunity Rebuild Illinois Main Street & Downtown grant for $780,000, $195,000 of which would be matched locally by the village. It would include reconstruction of its downtown including new water mains and storm sewer, reconstruction of the street, all new sidewalks, curb and gutter, parking and Village President Tom Byro said Village Engineer Kevin Bunge was unable to attend the meeting, but did update the board and said the application was submitted and he's waiting to hear the result. At previous meetings, Bunge has said the grant application process will take a year and if selected, Creston wouldn't start construction or have to pay any costs until the latter part of 2023. "We haven't heard anything yet," Byro said.

Williams: 'It's fun to share it with my kids'

Five years ago, after joining a group for backyard ice rinks on social media, David Williams took the plunge and made one of his own at his home on Raindance Drive outside of town. He's done it every year since.

You want to do something bigger and better. It started Williams makes the rink out as a 40-by-80 rink out of treated plywood and now it's 90-by-50. sheets and puts in brackets The amount of hours, to hold them up. After that, he gets myself would probably be a liner and has tankers of around 30. Some things I water delivered to fill it.

> Work on the rink starts around Thanksgiving weekend and the water comes around mid-December. He watches the weather for when a cold front is coming in so the water doesn't sit and attract leaves. After freezing, Williams said skating can usually be done through February before he starts tearing down the rink by the middle or end of March.

"I think it's fun to share it with my kids," Williams said. "Ithink it's just something that will help them as they become parents. Just knowing to do something for your children, nothing's really impossible. Having a hockey rink in their backyard in the middle of a subdivision, who would ever think that's possible? But you just put in the effort and you can make just about anything work."

Maintenance of the rink can be a lot of work, but Williams said he enjoys it. He combats snow and warmth every winter. He spent three hours snowblowing the rink after the most recent snowstorm before shoveling it and using a pull behind zamboni to level it.

HICKS: BBQ business purchases downtown location

Rochelle has been good to he and Erica, as residents have constantly found them and waited in line wherever they've been set up in the past.

"Rochelle treats us great," Jeremy said. "No matter where we are. They go out of their way to show support."

Jeremy and Erica started in competition barbeque in 2007 or 2008. They started doing it out of their driveway and cooked for family and graduation parties. The hobby kept escalating. The catering aspect grew and they got into food concessions at the Cypress House farmer's markets in 2014.

"We sold out in like no time during the first one we did and we caught the bug and bought a food truck and didn't look back," Jeremy said.

In 2019, Jeremy worked the Hicks BBQ business full-time. The couple had a big year planned after that. And then the COVID-19 pandemic happened and Jeremy went back to his construction job. Erica runs the business primarily now and left her own job to take it on.

Hicks BBQ offers full-service catering and has done large events in the past. For that and both food trucks, Jeremy said the business has stuck to barbeque, but the menu has grown. All cuts of barbecue and "pretty much anything cooked on a fire" are offered. The couple has even done some steak frys and crawfish boils recently.

"We don't reheat anything," Hicks said. "It's fresh. Our rubs, sauces and sides are ours. Nothing is store bought. We stay up all night cooking. It's truly a labor of love. It's really rewarding when people come out to support us and book us."

Jeremy said his love of cooking and the growth of Hicks BBQ have changed his outlook on his career.

"I really do enjoy it," Jeremy said. "It's the hardest work I've ever done, times two. All I ever wanted to do when I was a kid was run heavy equipment like my dad. It was all I ever did. And then cooking came along. I was afraid I wouldn't enjoy it if I was doing it for a living."

Hicks BBQ offers full-service catering and has done large events in the past. For that and both food trucks, Jeremy Hicks said the business has stuck to barbeque, but the menu has grown.

Watching progress at Hickory Grove

■ VERY day I try to drive by the Hickory ✓Grove complex to watch the progress.

There seems to be a lot of the building down already. I can't even tell where the multi-purpose room/theater was because that is all in rubble. Time moves on. While the place provided good memories, it will be nice to see a new structure that is better suited for the needs of the community.

RV park

I like the city's plans for an RV park near the airport. It may not happen overnight, but it is good the city is looking to create one. Once upon a time, when I was on the park board, there was some thought of putting a small RV park at Lake Sule, but the area was not big enough to accommodate enough RVs to make it work. That would have been a good location too.

Snow

Notice how the snow seems to be missing us? It's like the rains the past year or two.... east, west, north, south but not on us. That is concerning because the snow provides moisture for the seeds and plants in the spring.

I have friends in Missouri and Tennessee and they have had lots of snow this year. I am not a climatologist, but I tend to believe the scientists when they say we have climate warming issues. That does not always mean our climate is getting warmer, but that climates are changing. Yes, we have gone through warm periods and cold periods and the Earth has had ice ages and years of drought. It is a cycle. But if we are creating an unnatural cycle by the way we live, then maybe we need to figure out different ways of doing things to slow down that unnatural change.

Dickow

Snowmobiles

This has to be a bad winter for snowmobile owners in the area. There has not been a lot of snow to consistently get out and ride. I foolishly predicted a major storm for us in late January, but that storm missed us by several miles. We will get a heavy snow. It's just a matter of time. When it happens, I hope snowmobilers don't ride on the recreation path or in the parks. Those areas are off limits for snowmobiles and ATVs.

Owls

Snowy owls may be in the area. Keep your eye out for these beautiful Canadian visitors. Unlike the geese, owls will soon leave.

Terry Dickow can be contacted at terrydickow@gmail.

An update on several city projects hope everyone in the community had a safe and wonderful holiday season. With 2022 well underway, I thought I would update everyone on several city projects. The city has been working on implementation of a new EAM (Enterprise Asset Management) and ERP (Enterprise Resource Planning) software systems. The new systems will allow for enhanced inventory controls, a new GIS system, facilities management, greater inspection controls, a new budget, human resources and accounts payable and receivable system and great flexibility to track and manage service calls, work orders and capital improvement projects.

I'm most excited for the new utility billing software that will allow our customers to track in real time their water and electric usage. The city has been working on this system for the past two years and full implementation is expected by July 2022. These types of systems are needed for a complex organization like ours with a budget that exceeds $85 million, owns, and manages multiple utility functions and utilizes fund accounting (over 30 different funds)

Recently the city issued approximately $18 million in alternate revenue bonds for upgrades to Rochelle Municipal Utilities' electric distribution system. By taking advantage of the low interest rate environment, we will be able to complete the many needed updates to support our utility load growth and increase system reliability and avoid future inflationary costs. The overall interest rate is approximately two percent over 15 years (when the debt will be retired). Because the city retired $14 million in electric revenue bond debt last year and due to the low rates, funding the debt service will not require a rate increase. The funds are being utilized for system upgrades totaling more than $22 million. This includes finalizing the Prologis Park substation, construction of a new substation on Center Point Drive, upgrades to our Twombly Road substation, a new 10.1 mile 34.5 KV line to connect the Center Point substation to the Prologis Park and Twombly Road sub stations and upgrades to consumer service facilities (transformers, distribution lines, etc.).

Jeffrey

This work is many years in the making and was needed years ago. Many thanks to former Electric Superintendent Jason Bird and current Superintendent of Electric Operations Blake Toliver for advocating for these projects and overseeing their implementation.

Speaking of critical infrastructure, I would like to thank Adam Lanning, the superintendent of water and water reclamation, along with his team for all their hard work initiating upgrades to water well 8 near Caron Road and working to complete a new well and well house on 2nd Avenue. Both projects are being funded through a combination of reserve dollars and grants and loans through the IL EPA. Well 8 was drilled in the 1960s to provide water for our industrial customers and is need of an iron removal system. Well 4, the city's oldest well, was drilled in 1926. The work being done includes a new building, new pumps and motors, conversion to liquid chlorine and installation of a new water main. The layout is also designed for a future radium removal plant if it's needed.

Finally, I would like to thank Mayor John Bearrows and our entire city council. Without their leadership and forward thinking, these projects would not happen. When they developed the city's strategic plan in 2018, every councilperson emphasized the need to maintain and reinvest in our infrastructure. Along with commercial development and housing, this was a top priority. I am very pleased with how far we have come in the past four years. and I am looking forward to continued growth for our town.

I'm wishing you all a happy and healthy 2022. Let's hope baseball starts on time and the Red Sox win the World Series.

RTHS alum still making music

Ludwick and Hansen attend IMEA conference

ROCHELLE — Illinois Music Educator Association President Jake Stouffer welcomed hundreds of students to the annual conference Jan. 28, including Rochelle Township High School's Jaela Ludwick and Jon Hansen among them.

A 1997 RTHS graduate, Stouffer is currently associate principal at Dundee-Crown High School and as you can see, still a very active state music educator.

Question: "What has been most important to you about working on the ILMEA board?"

Answer: "The group on this board has so much perspective, intelligence, and experience to offer as we make bold choices that

Q: "What would Illinois music educators appreciate us knowing about ILMEA?"

A: "We are here for each and every one of you, even if we have never met you, even if we aren't familiar with each other - we want to know your story."

Q: "Name one of your go-to listens lately."

A: "I have been working to get more of Jon Batiste in my life, but I am getting my center from the grunge and 90's rock scenes rightnow."

BOARD: Creston trustees discuss replacing water mains

"No news is good news. I guess they haven't told us no. That's the way I look at it."

Quiet zones

After the board discussed its desire to get its railroad crossings considered "quiet zones" to alleviate train horn use in the village at its last meeting, Byro said Tuesday that Bunge has also been tasked with formulating a cost estimate for the project.

"As soon as he can get some information, he's going to get back to us," Byro said.

Train horns are one of the ongoing complaints the village receives from residents and recent sidewalk work improved crossings and made quiet zones more feasible.

Localities desiring to establish a quiet zone are first required to mitigate the increased risk caused by the absence of a horn. Raised medians are often placed between lanes in front of both sides of the tracks to prevent the possibility a vehicle could attempt to go between lowered gates.

The village would have to make all three of its rail-road crossings quiet zones. They include Woodlawn Road, Main Street and Transit Street. Transit Street would likely have to be made a one way due to it being narrow. The other two crossings would have center medians installed.

Water meter update

After receiving new water meter equipment in recent months, Village Clerk Jennifer Payton said a water meter reader has been hired and the village is doing interviews to hire a second.

Due to not having equipment and an employee to read meters, Creston has been charging estimated water rates recently and asked residents to read meters themselves.

"I am going to get ahold of our vendor tomorrow and find out when they can come and do the training," Payton said. "Things are rolling. We're going to get it up and running and I'm hoping the next set of billings will not be estimated and that will be fantastic."

During Tuesday's meeting, Creston village trustees discussed replacing water mains and unanimously agreed to raise hourly wages for part-time employees from $13 an hour to $16 an hour.

Water mains

The board discussed the idea of replacing water mains in the future. Creston was recently awarded $89,000 in American Rescue Plan Act funds that it has three years to spend. Water mains are an eligible expense for that money.

The board discussed giving Bunge a list of water mains it wants to replace and having him create a cost estimate. The project would have to be sent out for bids after that. Village Trustee Curt Ward said it's likely in the future that the EPA will mandate improvements to the village's water mains.

"We need to identify the ones to replace so we know exactly what we're talking about," Byro said. "I'll tell him we need to get started on that. It could be 4-5 weeks, then get a bid. It could be next year before we get it done, but we need to get the process going."

Hourly rates

Following meeting in executive session, the Creston village board of trustees unanimously approved raising part-time employee hourly rates from $13 an hour to $16 an hour.

RINK: Williams shares fondest memories on the ice

Williams called seeing the rink full of people "awesome." He comes home from work when it's dark and sees the glow of the rink's lights.

"I come in and you see the kids out there skating and having fun," Williams said. "Late at night after they're all done I'll go out there and shovel it and sometimes level it with water. It's quiet and the lights are on and you hear the coyotes howling or a deer will come through the yard. It's just peaceful. And it's only 9 p.m."

The rink has gotten a lot of use this year and over the years, WIlliams said. Two years ago during the start of the COVID-19 pandemic, it was used as an outlet for kids looking for a safe outdoor activity when schools and more were closed down in the community.

"It was just kind of great," Williams said. "Everything was shut down and locked out and everyone was trapped indoors. You had the kids that were willing to skate and some others would come out and just hang out and be on the ice or just be with their friends for a little bit. It was just nice to see and a nice release for some of them knowing that they didn't have their high school sports or other activities that they could go to."

Williams didn't think he'd end up having the passion he does for the rink. He enjoys being off the couch in the winter. In the future, he'd like to add rounded corners, doors for the boards, rope lighting and a warming hut to it.

One of Williams' fondest memories on the rink was skating while it was snowing one year.

"It was cool 3-4 years ago when we were out there skating and we probably got 6-8 inches of snow while we were doing that," Williams said. "Your skates and your ankles are all underneath the snow so it just kind of looks like you're floating."

Because of the rink, the Williams children love winter. They look forward to it. Around Halloween they ask him when he's going to start building it. Once the water starts freezing over, they ask when they can start skating on it. "Now they don't mind the winter," Williams said. "They know it's another season we get to enjoy."

County Christmas tree recycling program wraps up

OREGON — The annual Ogle County Christmas tree collection and chipping program recently wrapped up around the county and final numbers for trees are now in.

A total of around 280 trees were collected and chipped up into useful mulch. That is a total of around 14,000 pounds or roughly seven tons of trees not headed to the landfill. While the overall number of trees was down this past season, it was good to once again offer curb-side collection in some areas. Since program year 1999, a total of almost 16,300 trees, or roughly 408 tons, have been recycled into mulch and not ended up in the landfills.

Starting on Dec. 26, people dropped off trees at locations in Rochelle, Byron, Oregon, Monroe Center, Polo, Forreston and Leaf River. Rochelle residents placed trees out by the curb and the street department came out and chipped them at the curb.

In certain areas local Future Farmers of America (FFA) volunteers collected trees and brought them to the drop-off point for chipping. This year's collection was held on Saturday, Jan. 8 and was the first organized FFA collection since the winter of 2018-2019 due to weather and pandemic-related problems. FFA volunteers in Byron, Forreston, Polo and Oregon collected trees curb-side for residents in their respective areas and collected around 100 trees that morning and dropped them off to the chipping sites around the county.

The Ogle County Solid Waste Management Department (OCSWMD) coordinates the program and wishes to thank all of the volunteers, municipalities, street departments and FFA students and teachers who actually do the work and handle the trees. This program will continue for 2022 and into 2023. Anyone interested in free mulch from the trees, please call the OCSWMD at 815-732-4020 for more information and sites where mulch will be available.

Huskies announce 12 additions to 2022 signing class

Sixteen freshmen and five transfers inked from December Signing Day completing one of the biggest one-year turnarounds in college football in 2021 with nine wins and the Mid-American Conference Championship, Northern Illinois University football head coach Thomas Hammock and his staff continued to lay the groundwork for even more success with the addition of 12 players to the 2022 signing class on Wednesday.

The Huskies, who signed 16 freshmen and five transfers during the December signing period, (link to release/list), added seven offensive players, a specialist and five defenders to their 2022 class in the February group, which included both preferred walk-ons and scholarship recipients.

"Obviously this is an important class for us to continue the trajectory of our program," Hammock said. "We've been able to stack three strong recruiting classes together, and that is going to help us maintain a competitive edge as we continue to improve as a program. I have to shout out my staff because we would not have been able DEKALB – Fresh off to put this class together without all the work they do. They do a tremendous job of going out, building relationships, working, evaluating and recruiting. We are constantly building our board and we recruit year-round."

The success the Huskies' staff has had in building relationships paid dividends with the most recent group of signees. After the signing of the initial group of 21 players in December, including eight freshmen defenders and four offensive players, including a trio of wide receivers, the focus for February became on finding those "difference-makers" that were still available.

"We call it 'level up' recruiting," Hammock said. "After the initial signing day in December where we felt we addressed some needs, the focus becomes how can we add difference makers in our program, how can we add those guys that are a level up. We got into some serious battles down the stretch with Power 5 programs but because our relationships were so entrenched, and we had been recruiting these kids for forever, we were able to hold onto them at the end."

Just as in December, the February class is diverse in background as well as in positions played. The Huskies added a pair of players from the Carver High School team in Columbus, Georgia that helped lead the team to the 2021 4A state championship game, and two multi-position athletes from St. Pius X High School in Festus, Missouri. Running back Terron Kellman joins NIU from one of the top-ranked programs in the country and defensive tackle Reggie Jean was plucked from Class 2A Foundation Academy in Florida. NIU added four players from Illinois, including DeKalb native and Huskie legacy Dane Pardridge, a wide receiver from Marmion Academy whose father, Curt, was a four-year letterwinner at NIU who played on the 1983 NIU MAC Championship team and was selected in the sixth round of the 1986 NFL Draft.

While the external focus is often on the stars and recruiting battles, for Hammock and his staff, recruiting a strong class of preferred walk-ons is just as important. Last year alone, six players who entered the program as preferred walk-ons earned scholarships.

"We only recruit walkons that we feel have the ability to earn scholarships," Hammock said. "That's important because we are selective; we evaluate the walk-ons the same as we do a scholarship kid.

They come in, they are treated the same and given every opportunity to earn a scholarship. The preferred walk-ons have built our program up. We've been able to increase the depth and the talent in our program with walk-ons, they are extremely valuable to us."

HOLLYWOOD

by Tony Rizzo

HOLLYWOOD — Wanted: bigname star, must be funny and able to move the highest-rated award show on television at a fast pace and grab enormous ratings. ABC sent the word to the Academy Award producers that they want a big-name host this year. ABC's own Jimmy Kimmel (not a movie star like Bob Hope, Billy Crystal or many of the previous hosts), did the honors in 2018 and 2019. There was no host in 2020 or 2021, and the ratings dipped substantially. When Crystal hosted several very successful ceremonies, he began eight months early, preparing sight gags and jokes based on films of that year. The Oscars air March 27 and a host, as of this column, hasn't been announced. It doesn't leave much time to prepare. Moviegoers braved movie theaters during this pandemic to watch "Spider-Man: No Way Home," "The Power of the Dog" and "Belfast," to name a few.

Maybe they should name Gal Gadot to host the awards, she seems to be getting all the plum jobs. She's already been announced as the wicked queen that gives "Snow White" (Rachel Zegler, wonderful in "West Side Story" as Maria) the poison apple, while Andrew Burnap, who won a Tony Award last year for "Inheritance," has also been signed — not to play the Prince or The Huntsman, but a newly created character. In addition to another "Wonder Woman," Gadot's set to play the Grace Kelly role in Paramount Pictures' remake of "To Catch a Thief," the 1955 classic Alfred Hitchcock romantic thriller that starred Cary Grant. Gadot also will serve as a co-producer.

Andrew Burnap is destined for stardom if his roles in Hulu's "Under the Banner of Heaven," with Andrew Garfield (who's currently running the award season with "Tick, Tick ... Boom"), and his role opposite Oscar winners Jared Leto and Anne Hathaway in Apple TV+'s "WeCrashed" impress.

Wes Anderson is following "The French Dispatch" with a film based on Roald Dahl's book "The Wonderful Story of Henry Sugar and Six More." It'll be starring Benedict Cumberbatch, Dev Patel, Rupert Friend ("Homeland"), Ralph Fiennes and Sir Ben Kingsley.

Paramount Picture is planning a third installment of "A Quiet Place," without John Krasinski, who wrote and directed the first two films, and his wife, Emily Blunt, who starred in them. They have stated it's not a threequel, and it will be helmed by Michael Sarnoski, director of "Pig," which starred Nicolas Cage and Adam Arkin. It was about a truffle forager whose truffle-finding pig is stolen (it only grossed $3.8 million). On the plus side, director Michael Bay remains as one of the producers. The first two films grossed a combined whopping $600 million, and it is going to take a lot more than a truffle pig to top that!

Q: I can't believe they're making a sequel Billie Reed on "Days of Our Lives" in 1996. to "A Christmas Story." How can they possibly Lisa Rinna had originated the role but left for recapture the heart of the original when the actor who played the cranky but loveable dad is deceased? Is it going to be set in modern times? -- Y.B.

A: When I first heard that HBO Max was planning to air a sequel to the 1983 classic "A Christmas Story," with Peter Billingsley (Ralphie), I had the same hesitation. The 1940s setting with father Darren McGavin yelling at the Bumpus' dogs stealing the turkey was perfection. How could they possibly and I have to admit, I'm a little more hopeful. As for the plot, according to Entertainment Weekly, Ralphie, now a father, "returns to the house on Cleveland Street to deliver his kids a magical Christmas like the one he had growing up." He greets old friends and pays tribute to the passing of his "old man."

recapture this magic in a modern sequel? Then I read that the new film will be set in the 1970s, Billingsley is no stranger to Hollywood since his child acting days. He's become a successful director and producer. He directed the 2009 comedy film "Couples Retreat," starring Vince Vaughn. A bit of trivia, according to IMDb.com, Billingsley and Vaughn became best buddies when they both appeared in the "CBS Schoolbreak Special: The Fourth Man." Q: Is the actress who now plays Taylor on

"The Bold and the Beautiful" the same Krista Allen who used to be on "Days of Our Lives"?

A: Yes, Krista Allen made her soap debut as "Melrose Place." Allen played Billie for three years. The most press she's received though is as George Cloo ney's girlfriend before he eventually settled down and married.

Billingsley is "Ralphie" in "A Christmas Story."

Q: Is Nicolas Cage still going to play Joe Exotic in a "Tiger King" movie? I saw that the one with Kate McKinnon is out. Were the plans scrapped for another Joe Exotic project? -- I.E.

A: When the "Tiger King" documentary series debuted on Netflix at the beginning of the pandemic, more than 34 million viewers tuned in during the first 10 days of its release. There was immediate discussion about "who would play Joe Exotic" in the inevitable movies and series in development. Soon it was announced that Academy Award-winning actor Nicolas Cage ("Adaptation") would don a blond mullet to play Joe in a series for Amazon, but the project was scrapped once the hype lessened. It also was reported that Rob Lowe ("9-1-1: Lone Star") had been in talks with producer Ryan Murphy ("American Crime Story") for their own project, but nothing new has been

One project that does seem to have come to fruition is "Joe vs. Carole," starring John Cameron Mitchell ("The Good Fight") and Kate McKinnon ("Saturday Night Live"). The eight-episode series will debut March 3 on Peacock and also stars Kyle MacLachlan ("Twin Peaks") and William Fichtner ("Mom").

Hubs stay hot with win over Stillman Valley Dominant second quarter propels Rochelle to 79-45 victory against Cardinals dominant second quarter allowed the Rochelle Hub varsity basketball team to score another decisive victory on Wednesday, when the Hubs hosted a nonconference matchup against Stillman Valley.

BY RUSSELL HODGES SPORTS EDITOR

With the Cardinals missing one of their best players, Rochelle took the early lead before outpacing Stillman Valley 29-10 in the second quarter to more than double the Cardinal offensive total in the first half. Rochelle converted 15 field goals including six 3-pointers in the first half, cruising to a 79-45 victory on Wednesday.

Senior Adam Kemp led the Hubs with 14 points and four triples made, while senior Noah Brown added 13 points and three triples of his own. All but two players entered the scorebook for Rochelle in the victory.

"We knew they were missing their best player, but I didn't think we were very locked in during the first quarter," senior Cooper Hasz said. "They showed up early and we knew we had to stay on top of our game. When the second quarter came around, we did exactly that. We're on a great run right now."

Kemp fueled the Rochelle offense during the first half, sinking three 3-pointers in the second quarter while Hasz battled down low, scoring on three layups under the basket in the first half. The 6-foot-5 forward Hasz, who came off the bench earlier this season but has since become a starter, has seen his role increase significantly since his junior season, when he was out of the rotation and primarily playing mop-up minutes.

"I feel like I put in a lot of work over the offseason," Hasz said. "My teammates and I have worked really hard since the end of last season... Our defense has improved in every practice and it's been great to see."

Rochelle (16-9, 9-2 Interstate 8) led 52-24 entering the third quarter, where senior Tanner Lager and junior David Gerber each canned 3-pointers from the wings to preserve the Hub lead. Gerber, who finished with eight points in the victory, has also earned increased playing time during the second half of the

"We're in a groove right now and we're coming for Ottawa on Friday," Gerber said. "We're a whole team and we're not a one-man show. We all love each other and I think we're going to keep succeeding. I didn't play much at the start of the season, but I began working harder during practice and when I had chances, I focused on playing good defense and coach [Tim] Thompson has started trusting me a lot more."

Brown did most of his damage in the third quarter, burying two long-range triples and a layup in the third quarter. With the Hubs leading 71-39 entering the fourth quarter, Rochelle looked to feed senior forward Zach Sanford, who banked home three lowpost shots for all six of his points on Wednesday.

Lager scored nine points and hit two triples for Rochelle, while Hasz totaled seven points and junior Raul Aguirre added eight points. Senior Ryan Simmons and sophomore Eli Luxton each chipped in six points for the Hubs.
