Deputy chief retires Leininger reflects on 23 years with Rochelle PD

BY JEFF HELFRICH

MANAGING EDITOR

ROCHELLE — At Monday's Rochelle City Council meeting, Jeff Leininger was surrounded by his Rochelle Police Department coworkers as he was recognized for his retirement after 23 years with RPD.

"That was humbling," Leiningersaid. "It made me feel good to see them come out and support me and say kind things. It's one of those things that makes you think you may have made a difference in the world."

Leininger served in a variety of roles with RPD including patrol officer, detective, patrol sergeant, detective sergeant and finally deputy chief. He was also a D.A.R.E. officer and tactical team member.

"It was interesting," Leininger said. "I was lucky to be hired when a lot of movement was coming up. To start on the street and see everything, people want that. Being a detective, you get to figure out more things. There's a satisfaction in working and solving a case and making an arrest. You feel like you're making a difference. Sometimes patrolmen can only go so far. Getting to the bottom of a case is a challenge. Being in charge of the detective bureau was exciting. I enjoyed teaching the younger guys."

Leininger said he dreamt of being an officer early in life. He grew up in Rochelle.

He applied for law enforcement jobs around the area when he was 21, but he then got away from the field and worked at Carnation. He later worked at the prison in Dixon as a corrections officer.

Leininger then learned that RPD was accepting applications for officers. He applied and was hired. The rest was history.

The field of policing has changed over Leininger's 23 years. Little computers in cars that only ran plates evolved to include GPS mapping and access to more records. VHS tape car cameras changed to digital and now auto upload into a system upon pulling into RPD's lot.

Maplehurst office nearing completion

'Hopefully our customers appreciate it as much as we do'

BY JEFF HELFRICH

MANAGING EDITOR

ROCHELLE — Maplehurst Farms is near completion of its new corporate office off Moore Road.

Most of the company's staff has moved into the one-story office building that offers multiple conference rooms, offices and workstations to allow team members to better serve customers. Finishing touches are being put on and Maplehurst hopes to have an open house sometime in the spring.

"It's exciting," Maplehurst Farms Controller Barbara Koehnke said. "It's very fulfilling for me, having been here 20 years, to see it come to fruition. And it's exciting to bring in the employees and show that we value them and where and how they work. We're trying to give back to them as well as provide for our customers.'

Construction began on the building in April. Maplehurst's old office was built back in the early 70s and was added onto a General Manager Jerry Cowan said the prospect of a new office was talked about in his first meeting seven years ago. He's enjoyed seeing it finally come together. He likes that the company now has conference rooms and he thinks new amenities like that will improve productivity.

"We outgrew our previous office and we want to continue growing," Cowan said. "In order to do that, we needed some better offices and facilities. For me it's the morale of the company and the people here worked awfully hard to get this nicer office. I think it'll also help attract more people who want to come work here. We will definitely be more efficient than we were."

Demmer files legislation to combine state positions

SPRINGFIELD -Deputy House Minority Leader Rep. Tom Demmer (R-Dixon) filed HJRCA 36 Wednesday to make state government more efficient and cost effective by eliminating the office of the comptroller and moving the responsibilities to the office of the treasurer.

Under Demmer's proposal, the treasurer would maintain the state's central fiscal accounts and order payments into and out of state funds. The treasurer would also be responsible for the safekeeping and investment of monies and securities as well as their disbursement. These functions are presently performed by two separate offices, the state comptroller and the state treasurer.

"Illinois taxpayers would be better served by having one office perform the duties of comptroller and treasurer," Demmer said. "Reducing state government's footprint and consolidating functions would achieve savings for taxpayers and streamline the fiscal operations of Illinois in a meaningful way. The late Judy Baar Topinka, who served separate terms in both offices, advocated for combining comptroller and treasurer into one position. We can honor her memory and reform an inefficient Madigan-era relic by acting now to let the people of Illinois have the final say on approving this reform later this year."

The Illinois State Constitution adopted in 1970 created separate offices of comptroller and treasurer. Combining them requires passage of a constitutional amendment, which needs a three-fifths majority vote of the general assembly to place the question on the next general election ballot for Illinois voters to approve.

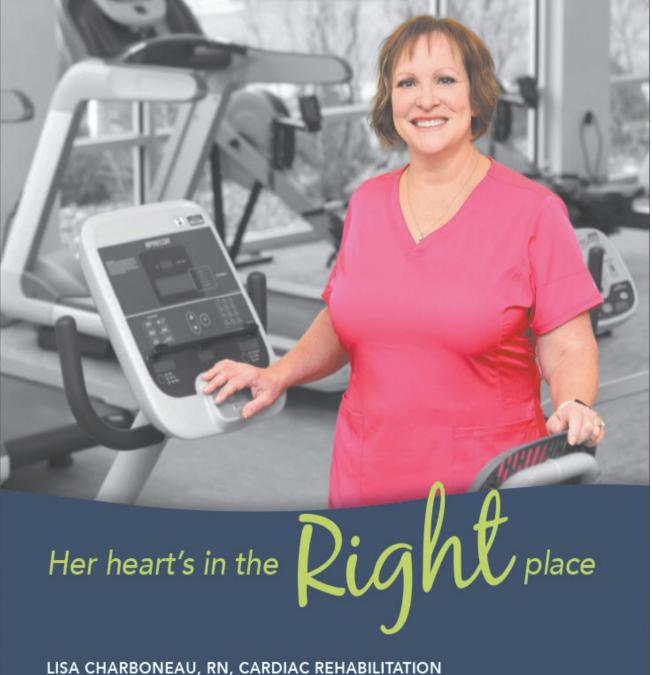

Representative Dem-

mer has consistently filed legislation to combine the two offices, but has been blocked by Democrats unwillingness to advance common sense reform proposals. In the 101st general assembly, Demmer filed HJRCA 22; in the 100th general assembly he filed HJRCA 25; and in the 99th general assembly he was sponsor of Leader Durkin's effort to combine the offices in HJRCA 3.

Several neighboring states have already successfully combined the operations of separate fiscal offices for efficiency and savings including Minnesota, Wisconsin and Michigan. In Illinois the merger has been estimated to save taxpayers up to $12 million annually and is supported by government efficiency advocates like The Civic Federation.

Representative Demmer serves Illinois'90th District which includes portions of Lee, Ogle, DeKalb and LaSalle Counties.

Mustafa named student trustee

MALTA — Mohammad Mustafa was seated as the new student trustee on the Kishwaukee College Board of Trustees at the January meeting. Mustafa will finish the term of outgoing Student Trustee Ahmed Elfaki, who graduated in December.

"Ahmed did a fantastic job as a representative for the students of Kishwaukee College, and the entire board wishes him well in his next step," said Bob Johnson, board chairman. "We are confident Mohammad will serve well in this role.'

Mustafa was born and raised in Karachi, Pakistan, before coming to the United States for college. Currently a DeKalb resident, he is completing his associate in science degree at Kish and plans on graduating in summer 2022. Following Kish, Mustafa plans on pursuing a bachelor's degree in communications at Northern Illinois University before applying to law school.

"My goal is to become a domestic violence attorney and focus on family law," Mustafa said.

At Kish, Mustafa is currently the president of the Student Government Association and the Black Student Union. Some initial goals of his as the student trustee are to introduce a book club and advocate for an increase in female representation in clubs and organizations at Kish. Mustafa said he would like to see the formation of a Women's Student Union.

"During my term, I want students to feel more connected. I believe when students interact, more ideas are generated that benefit society. Learning outside the classroom is as important as in-classroom learning," Mustafa said. "I want every student to know nothing is impossible if you put your heart and soul into it."

Elfaki, a Sycamore resident originally from Sudan, graduated in December after serving as student trustee since Dec. 2020. Elfaki said he was honored to serve as a representative for the students of Kish during a challenging period.

"As student trustee, I was proud of the way Kishwaukee College supported its students through the pandemic by offering free books and computer loan programs, as well as providing relief funds to those who were impacted financially," he said. "During my term, I was part of the initial stages of programs like Kody's Cupboard Food Pantry and the Intercultural Center, which are both great initiatives that I would like to see continued."

During his time at Kish, Elfaki served as president of the Student Government Association and was part of the Black Student Union, Diversity Committee, LatinX Organization and Men's Soccer Team. He will continue his education at Northern Illinois University, pursuing a bachelor's degree in computer science.

MALTA — Kishwaukee College graduated its first class of medical assistant students during a pinning ceremony on Friday, Dec. 17, at the college. Kish pinned six students before family and friends as recognition for their completion of the medical assistant certificate.

Kishwaukee College's medical assistant program trains students to work in hospitals and other health care facilities where they complete both administrative and clinical tasks. Through collaboration with area medical partners, Kishwaukee College identified a strong need for qualified medical assistants within the local community and started the program in spring 2021. All six graduates of the initial medical assistant class had employment lined up before completing their certificate.

"There is a lot of work available. You can really go wherever you want to go. Employers all want to hire you," graduate Mayla Sanders said.

Students can make connections with local health care facilities through on-the-job training, where they apply their education to real-world clinical scenarios. Many of the graduates were able to find work through the employers they practiced with.

"There are a ton of options," graduate Kyla Rachas said. "The two places I had my externships were fighting to hire me."

Along with strong local demand, the national outlook for the medical assistant position is expected to grow by 18 percent over the next decade, much faster than the national average, according to the Bureau of Labor Statistics.

Kara Schreiner, director of the medical assistant program at Kish, praised the students for navigating the challenges of being the first class of a new program. "The medical assistant certificate is a short-term program, where students obtain their credential in just under a year," Schreiner said. "The students worked hard, putting in the time and effort to successfully complete. They were leaders in the classroom, and I have no doubt they will be leaders in their new field. I am so proud of them all."

The students also celebrated the quality of instruction they received during their education at

"There were challenges throughout the semester, but our instructor was really great. She was able to help us out the whole way," graduate Asia Brown said.

To create a state-ofthe-art learning space for the program, Kishwaukee College modeled an existing classroom after medical facilities to have patient rooms, a reception desk and a lab area. The space allows students to practice their skills before starting rotations at an externship site.

The graduating class includes Brown, Felicia Craig, Shalana Jones, Rebecca Nelson, Rachas and Sanders. Each graduate was pinned individually by a friend or family member who had supported the student or acted as a mentor while completing the program.

Medical Assistants work as multi-skilled health professionals in a clinical setting. They need to be able to perform a wide range of tasks in health care, including administrative and clinical duties. Kish prepares students to become fully certified or registered medical assistants. Fall 2022 applications will be available starting Tuesday, Feb. 15. To learn more about Kish's accredited medical assistant program, visit www.kish.edu/

OFFICE: Maplehurst Farms building nearly complete

"There's nicer, newer technology and if you were in the other office, you'd be shocked."

Remaining tasks inside the building include delivery and installation of cabinets and chairs along with aesthetic work. The front desks will be made to look like grain bins. The office has a full kitchen.

Cowan called the construction process a "very smooth build." Morton Buildings was the contractor. The work came during an uncertain time in the construction industry with supply chain issues and higher prices due to the COVID-19 pandemic.

"There have been very few headaches with any of the materials or getting anything backordered," Koehnke said. "We've been pretty fortunate. We have been able to remain basically within budget, so we're very happy about that. Even with the rising costs, we were able to lock in pricing prior to major jumps. We were pretty fortunate with that."

Koehnke said the nice weather during the spring also went Maplehurst's way as it avoided any delays due to rain or mud. The majority of the project's subcontractors were local, including Anderson Plumbing and Dixon Glass.

Cowan believes the new office's layout will make for a more centralized location for staff, compared to the old building where employees were spread out Koehnke is excited that customers will have easier access to a "one stop shop" where they can talk about things like grain sales and inputs all within a few feet of each other. If necessary, those groups can come together and collaborate in the conference room, which they didn't have access to before.

"It also shows that Maplehurst is here to stay,"

LOCAL VIEWS

Guest column

Impressed by outcome of the city's Shop Local program

HE city recently wrapped up its shop local program, which offered utility credits to people who turned in $300 in receipts from qualifying local businesses.

According to a video posted by the city, 5,755 credits were issued. That reflected spending of $2.971,109 with local businesses. The credits paid out totaled $538,500.

That is quite impres-

Local businesses benefitted, residents benefitted and the city took in some sales tax money on the nearly $3 million spent locally. Although the program is done, keep shopping local.

Census data Based on census data, a group identified the state's 20 poorest cities population 10,000 and above. They determined that by the number of people falling below the poverty line.

DeKalb was 11 and Rockford at 18. Macomb, Champaign, Charleston, Bloomington... all college communities....were also on the list. I wonder if the student populations skewed the results.

I find it hard to describe DeKalb as a poor community, but statistics don't lie, do they?

Please be kind

I get so tired of hearing stories about people saying mask requirements violate their rights. A woman told a school board in South Carolina that if they mandated masks, she would show up with her guns loaded on Monday. Store clerks get yelled at by people when told they have to wear a mask.

I thought humans were better than that,

but I may be wrong.

This is part of a message posted by Gregg Olson, chief executive officer at Rochelle Community Hospital, relative to events at our hospital.

Terry

"With the increased number seeking testing, we have experienced unacceptable behavior from a few members in our community who have been disorderly with our staff. Over the last week especially our staff have endured being yelled at, sworn at and even sometimes met with physical aggression.

Rochelle Community Hospital will not tolerate this disruptive behavior from patients and family members. We ask you to please be respectful and kind to one another. Remember that we have to work together as we try to continue to meet the challenges of this pandemic."

No, mask and vaccine requirements are not the equivalent of Nazi concentration camps or discrimination. They are not a Holocaust.

If you don't want to wear a mask for the 20 minutes you are in a store, fine. Don't go in the store. Order online and pick it up.

But please be kind to people trying to help the rest of us.

Medical costs in the U.S. are ridiculous

Thas become common for us to see our friends on social .media having GoFundMe campaigns for health care issues. It is a very sad reality in 2022.

The older I get, the more I see it. This includes people who have medical insurance and have worked for decades. We need to face the fact that medical costs in the U.S. are ridiculously high, and even the best insurance is not a cure for that.

One area that is especially costly is prescription drugs. I know people who are on prescriptions that cost hundreds and even thousands a month. There are too many people in this country who must decide whether to pay for their medicine or food on any given week.

It makes me sad and angry.

But Congress won't do anything about it. Pharmaceutical companies have very deep pockets, so those lobbying dollars are not something members of Congress want to do without. In fact, two-thirds of Congress – 302 members of the House and 72 Senators – cashed checks from the pharmaceutical industry ahead of the 2020 election, one survey found.

We are talking about Republicans and Democrats from all over the country.

It is hard for rank-and-file Americans who are barely making it day to day due to the high cost of often life-saving drugs to have their voices heard. In Washington, money talks. There have been many stories about the same drug being $100 in the U.S. and only $12 in Mexico or Canada. There are many reasons - more competition, subsidies from the government, less regulation – but it is clear there are some huge cost differences.

Brad

Jennings

That is why people flood over the border into Mexico (or Canada) to buy lower cost prescription drugs or to have medical or dental procedures. It is cheaper. Some people might want a wall along our southern border, but many others want a pipeline for affordable prescription

Someone is doing something about it. A politician? No. A doctor? No. Actually, it is Mark Cuban. Recognize the name? He is the billionaire owner of the NBA's Dallas Mavericks, and he has recently launched an online pharmacy aimed at bringing down the price of prescription drugs.

I had read something last year about this but had forgotten about it until I read a few stories about the site in the last week or so. It will sell generic drugs purchased directly from the manufacturers. The drugs will them be sold online with a 15 percent markup and fee. I have read that pharmaceutical companies usually mark up prices at least 100 percent. Often it is much more.

How much will the savings be? From what I read it could be substantial. For instance, a common cholesterol drug that sells for $55 will be sold on the site for under $4. A drug used to treat leukemia that retails for more than $9,000 per month will sell for $47 per month.

I am not shilling for the new site but am simply pointing out a couple of things. First, this is good news for many Americans struggling under the weight of expensive prescriptions. Second, we must do something about the health care system in this country.

We can't rely on one billionaire to save us. Most can't even be bothered to pay their fair share of taxes. But Congress needs to do something, and we must make sure that it does.

How to create structure after retirement

ROFESSION-ALS typically look forward to retirement and the freedom that comes with it. The notion that commuting and deadlines will one day be a distant memory is enough to make anyone excited for retirement. But when the day to leave the daily grind behind arrives, many retirees admit to feeling a little anxiety about how they're going to find structure.

Retirement is a big transition, and Robert Delamontagne, PhD, author of the 2011 book "The Retiring Mind: How to Make the Psychological Transition to Retirement," notes that some retirees experience anxiety, depression and even a sense of loss upon calling it a career. Some of those feelings can undoubtedly be traced to the perceived lack of purpose some individuals feel after retiring. Without a job to do each day, people can begin to feel useless. Overcoming such feelings can be difficult, but finding ways to build daily structure can make the transition to retirement go smoothly.

Find something to truly engage in. Professionals who truly enjoy their work tend to be fully engaged, so it's no surprise if such individuals have a hard time adjusting to retirement. Some may suggest volunteering can help fill the void created by retirement, but researchers with the Sloan Center on Aging and Work at Boston College have found that only those individuals who are truly engaged in their post-retirement volunteering enjoy the psychological benefits of such pursuits. So before retirees dive right in to volunteering as a means to creating structure, they should first exercise due diligence and find an opportunity they'll find genuinely engaging. Embrace the idea of

"bridge employment." "Bridge employment" is the name given to the trend that has seen retired individuals take on part-time or temporary employment after they have retired from full-time working. COVID-19 has no doubt skewed post-retirement working statistics since the World Health Organization first declared a pandemic in March 2020, but a 2019 survey from the LIMRA

Secure Retirement Institute found that 27 percent of pre-retirees with at least $100,000 in assets planned to work part-time in retirement. Even part-time work can provide enough daily structure to help retirees feel as though each day is not just a free-for-all.

Make a concerted effort to be more social. Volunteering and working are not the only ways to create structure in retirement. A concerted effort to be more social can help retirees fill their days with interactions with like-minded individuals who may be experiencing the same feelings. Join a book club, a local nature group that goes on daily or semi-daily morning hikes or another local community organization. These are great ways to build structure and meet new people. Retirees can create social media accounts to find local community groups that cater to their interests. Even if it seems hard to believe, plenty of retirees are seeking to create structure in retirement life, and social media can make it easier to find such individuals in your community.

Structure and retirement may seem like strange bedfellows. But many retirees seek structure after calling it a career, and there are many fun ways for seniors to create more organization in their lives.

Learning more about active senior living

OUSINGneeds may change as adults grow older and their children move out. Adults nearing retirement may want to reduce their cost of living and could find a big house is more than they need at this stage in life.

According to the financial management resource The Motley Fool, in 2019 48 percent of seniors planned to downsize, while 52 percent wanted to remain in their existing

A lower cost of living could be the primary motivator to sell, but less house to maintain and the extra free time that comes with fewer chores can be powerful motivators as well.

Many adults age 50 and older consider adult communities when seeking to downsize their homes. Senior home options are categorized based on the level of care they provide. "Active adult living" is a relatively new option that reflects a growing desire for residences that afford aging adults a chance to downsize their homes and engage in their favorite activities.

leisure living or active adult communities include single-family homes, townhouses, condominiums, and other housing options within a community that offers an array of amenities and services. According to Retirement Living, residents in active adult communities enjoy country club settings with amenities like swimming pools, clubhouses, golf courses, exercise centers, walking trails, computer labs, hobby centers, and even on-site restaurants. Active adult living communities may provide transportation options and have their own travel clubs. Though active adult residences do not typically provide medical services, many communities are conveniently located close to local shopping centers and complexes, ensuring that the doctor's office is not that far away.

Other features of active living covered by homeowner's association fees include outdoor mainteof mind to lock up their homes and leave knowing lawns will still be mowed and shrubs trimmed removing signs that the residence is unoccupied. This is an ideal situation for a snowbird who spends time in a different location for part of the year.

Active adult living is the relatively new kid on the block for senior communities, filling an important niche for independent retirees and near-retirees.

BOARD: Community members meet to discuss daycare

McLachlan said he decided to get involved with the board after seeing how important the issue of a daycare was to the community.

"There's been a lot of talk in the community about a daycare center," McLachlan said. "I thought it was a good place to help. Because there are a lot of people that need this and want this. The city has tried and we're all trying to work together here. I wanted to do my share and help. Because there's a lot of passion about the daycare center."

A survey the city put out to residents last year came back with overwhelming results in favor of a daycare with 72 percent of respondents saying they're in need of a daycare and 71 percent saying their children would be likely to attend a daycare if it opened in town.

Arteaga is a city councilwoman and teaches kindergarten at Lincoln School. She works with kids and families every day and sees parents who don't have childcare that need it. She's a mother as well. The project is "very dear" to her.

"I know people have to work," Arteaga said. "They need daycare before and after school and during third shift. I think it's important for a community this size has a daycare for our families to take care of kids while parents work to get ahead in life. We need it for our families. I was a teacher here while the previous daycare was still operating. We have parents now that can't work because of it. It's to help out those families."

Last year, the city recently received a $10,000 grant from the Rochelle Area Community Foundation to start the process of the daycare board and 501c3. At its first meeting, Arteaga said the board worked on establishing bylaws and how it will agree to put things in place.

Work is ongoing to officially establish the nonprofit and work will be done going forward on fundraising in hopes of buying a building. The board will have different committees including one for fundraising.

A survey the city put out to residents last year came back with overwhelming results in favor of a daycare with 72 percent of respondents saying they're in need of a daycare and 71 percent saying their children would be likely to attend a daycare if it opened in town.

Late last year Rochelle CIty Manager Jeff Fiegenschuh said he was unsure what kind of funds the board would have to raise to open a daycare, but guessed the number could be over $1 million to get a building bought and the facility off the ground and running.

"I'm hoping to be on the fundraising committee to do whatever it takes," Arteaga said. "That will be an important part."

McLachlan said he wants to help any way he can in his work on the board. He knows it's going to be a tall task for the volunteer board and hopes the community as a whole comes together to bring a daycare back to town.

"We can communicate what the board is trying to do with families that will really need the childcare facility," McLachlan said. "I think that's somewhere where having that communication open between the board and the community is key and something I hope we do."

Arteaga said the board is "full of good people" and said the establishment of it shows movement in the right direction.

"I feel very proud as a resident and I know I made the right decision to work and move here," Arteaga said. "I always felt the city and local people were approachable and wanted to help each other. Things like this board coming together to work on this issue show that."

DEPUTY: Leininger retires from police department

"We have a lot more training," Leininger said. "People don't realize how much goes into that. You have to do that and maintain your work on the street. There are more mandates. Cars have changed and are purpose built. They're made to be cop cars."

Leininger doesn't believe Rochelle has changed much in his time policing it, and he said RPD's involvement in the community hasn't either. But he has seen the city get bigger and more spread out with more truck stops coming in. That has upped the city's daily population, bringing more people in and out of Rochelle.

"Nothing has changed too much," Leininger said. "The goal is still to serve and protect the city. Even with all the national negativity and anti-police sentiment, all of us at the PD have seen more people thank us recently. The occasional pop bought for us in the drive thru at McDonalds or a meal at the butterfly. It means a lot and we have seen more of it."

Leininger considered retirement a couple of years ago, but talked himself out of it and was later promoted to deputy chief. That allowed him to do some of the things he always wanted to, such as getting squad cars outfitted a certain way and helping with computer systems, the things he called "pieces of the puzzle" that help to make things flow better and improve morale.

Working as a police officer in his hometown was something Leininger called both easy and hard at times.

"Sometimes you deal with people you know," Leininger siad. "You're just doing your job. I always enjoyed working here. It's not all the excitement like Rockford and Chicago, but everything that happens in those places happens here. I wouldn't change a thing.' Leininger said he doesn't have many things planned for his first year of retirement. He wants to take a year off. He does plan on spending time with family, working around the house, jumping back into his photography hobby and riding his Harley.

"I ride it every Friday in the summer," Leininger said. "Maybe someday I'd like to be on the city council or do something like that. I can't sit around forever. But it's going to be different. I haven't not had a squad car outside my home in 20 years."

When asked about memories from his career that stand out, Leininger recalled a day early in his time as a patrol officer when a man smashed the candy machine at the laundromat off South Main Street. He watched a grainy security video. He saw a man later that matched the description and sure enough, it was him.

"I talked with him and he confessed,"Leiningersaid. "I'll remember things like and teaching kids and seeing them graduate and doing security at football games. It will be weird not putting on the uniform and going out the door every

Lady Hubs record season-high game and series scores against LaSalle-Peru

ROCHELLE — The Rochelle Lady Hub varsity bowling team turned in one of its strongest performances of the season on Wednesday, when Rochelle hosted LaSalle-Peru for its annual Senior Night match. The Lady Hubs celebrated four seniors including Alyssa Mickley, Anna Samo, Carly Summers and Zoe Rourke.

After shooting a seasonbest 983 game and 2,730 series during its road victory against Kaneland on Tuesday, Rochelle returned home on Wednesday and set the bar even higher, setting new season-high team game and series scores in a 3,179-2,757 loss to the Cavaliers. Mickley rolled a team-best 549 series for the Lady Hubs (6-9, 4-5 Interstate 8), while freshman Cassidy Vincent followed with a 510 series

"It was a bittersweet moment but I'm happy for our seniors," head coach Eric Widick said. "I've only had the chance to work with three of the seniors for one year and I worked with Carly for two years. I hate to see them go but we've had a lot of fun together. I'm really excited about where our team stands right now. We've really started bowling together over the last three meets and with our recent performances, I think we have a chance to not only finish third or higher in the conference, but advance beyond the regional."

LaSalle-Peru claimed the first game 1,067-889, with Isabella Weber and Olivia Weber each shooting 226 for the Cavaliers. Samo led the Lady Hubs with 187 in the first game, while Vincent scored 167 and Mickley totaled 160. LaSalle-Peru extended its lead in the second game, winning 1,124-853 behind Olivia Weber's 209 and Isabella Weber's 203. Mickley rolled 191 and sophomore Faith Adams fired 183 for

Despite losing the overall series, Rochelle compiled its best team game of the season to close out the match, edging LaSalle-Peru 1,015-988 in the third game. Vincent spearheaded the charge for the Lady Hubs, shooting a series-high 226 while Mickley followed with 198 and Samo recorded 165. Samo ended the match with a 463 series and Adams finished with a 488 series after rolling 155 in the third game.

"Our girls realized tonight that they're capable of winning and I'm looking forward to the remainder of the season," Widick said. "It's important that our girls continue to talk with each

The Rochelle Lady Hub varsity bowling team defeated the Kaneland Knights 2,730-2,211 and swept the home-and-home Interstate 8 Conference set. Freshman Cassidy Vincent finished with a team-high 597 series, while senior Alyssa Mickley added a 511 series in the win. The Lady Hubs (6-8,

Hubs finish regular season with 19-7 record after 38-36 loss against Tigers

ROCHELLE — The Rochelle Hub varsity wrestling team closed out the regular season with a competitive nonconference dual against the Princeton Tigers on Thursday. While the Hubs built an early lead, Princeton rallied for six consecutive bout victories, erasing an 18-6 deficit and defeating Rochelle 38-36. The Hubs (19-7, 6-1 Interstate 8) will compete in the IHSA2A United Township Regional on Saturday, Feb. 5.

Freshman Kaiden Morris secured the first win of the dual, outlasting Jess Wright for a 3-1 decision to take the 220-pound bout. After Princeton's JJ Wicaryus won by fall to claim the 285-pound bout, Rochelle earned victories over the next three bouts, with sophomore Jimmy Chavez receiving a forfeit in the 106-pound bout before sophomore Tommy Tourdot notched a secondperiod pin against Steven Benavidez in the 113-pound bout. "We wanted to have one last competitive dual in front of the home crowd," head coach Alphonso Vruno said. "Princeton had a few weight classes missing and we could've taken advantage of that, but we wanted to have a competitive dual and we put our kids in positions where we felt they could be competitive."

The Tigers began their comeback in the 126-pound bout, where Matthew Harris scored a 15-0 technical fall against freshman Joseph Nadig before Carlos Bena-

Full-court defense fuels victory over Plano

Darby leads with 15 points, Bunger adds 13 points as Rochelle wins 46-33

BY RUSSELL HODGES

SPORTS EDITOR

PLANO — Full-court defense from start to finish allowed the Rochelle Lady Hub varsity basketball team to overcome a slow start during Friday evening's Interstate 8 Conference road matchup against Plano.

Senior Lucy Bunger delivered a strong second quarter for the Lady Hubs, scoring 10 of her season-high 13 points on two 3-pointers and a pair of soft layups around the basket. Bunger also anchored Rochelle's fullcourt pressure on defense, helping the Lady Hubs overcome a first-quarter deficit to defeat Plano

"It feels good to snap our losing streak,"Bunger said. "We weren't happy with how we played during the first quarter but we knew we had to move on from that and show them what we were capable of. We're always fighting hard on defense and we're always moving until the game stops for a timeout or another reason. It felt good to knock down those shots and I thought we took another step forward as a team."

The Reapers sunk a trio of perimeter shots in the opening quarter, emerging with an 11-8 lead as Rochelle (11-15, 4-7 Interstate 8) struggled with turnovers on the offensive end. But with Bunger catching fire in the second quarter, the Lady Hubs took control of the first half, surging ahead 25-19 at halftime. Junior Torrin Nantz sunk her first 3-pointer of the night in the third quarter to keep the Lady Hub offense moving.

Leading 31-25 entering the fourth quarter, Rochelle looked for freshman Kendyl Darby to close out the victory.

PLANO — Slowing down standout guard Mason Accidentale was the primary objective for the Rochelle Hub varsity basketball team during Friday's Interstate 8 Conference matchup against the Plano Reapers.

With several seniors stepping up in the manto-man defense, Rochelle limited Accidentale to only 14 points on Friday. On the other end of the floor, Hub senior Noah Brown was a marksman from 3-point range, hitting six triples including four in the first half as Rochelle cruised over the Reapers for a 78-60 victory.

"We knew where Mason was whenever he was on the floor," head coach Tim Thompson said. "He had 11 points in the first half but I thought he had to work for a lot of those shots. We didn't make things easy for him and we have a lot of length at the guard positions, which we haven't had in several years. We switched on him throughout the game and I thought Ryan [Simmons] made it tough on him with his length."

Senior Ryan Simmons opened the scoring for the Hubs with a 3-pointer early in the first quarter before Brown canned three triples to fuel the Rochelle offense. The Hubs (13-9, 7-2 Interstate 8) continued knocking down 3-pointers in the second quarter, where sophomore Eli Luxton found the net from the corner and senior forward Zach Sanford threw up a longrange triple that splashed through the hoop.

winner Joaquin Phoenix has a Napoleon complex in his future — or at least it would help, since he'll take on the emperor of France in "Kitbag," reuniting him with "Gladiator" director Ridley Scott. His co-star is "Pieces of a Woman" Oscar nominee Vanessa Kirby. Kirby stars in "The Son" with Anthony Hopkins, Hugh Jackman and Laura Dern and also will star opposite Jake Gyllenhaal in the thriller "Suddenly."

Also taking on a famous persona is "Captain America" Chris Evans, who'll portray MGM superstar Gene Kelly in an untitled film about a 12-year-old boy who works at MGM in 1952 and creates an imaginary friendship with Kelly. But first we'll hear Evans as Buzz Lightyear in Disney's "Lightyear," due in theaters June 17, and see him in the Netflix $200 million action thriller, "The Gray Man," with Ryan Gosling and Ana de Armas.

Taika Waititi, director of the soccer comedy, "Next Goal Wins" starring Michael Fassbender and Elizabeth Moss, had to replace Armie Hammer, due to his sex scandal. He cast Will Arnet in the role. Luckily for Hammer, he wasn't replaced in "Death on the Nile" because of the pandemic, despite sexual assault charges. "Nile" was long out of production. The L.A. district attorney has hinted he may drop Hammer's case, but the damage done is a publicity nightmare he may never recover from. Kevin Spacey, however, was not as lucky with "All The Money In The World" (2017) when he was replaced by Christopher Plummer because of Spacey's sexual assault case.

Michael Keaton finally revealed why he refused to play Batman again after his success in 1989's "Batman" (with a $411.6 million gross) and "Batman Returns" (with a $267 million gross). The latter two films were Warner Bros.

Michael Keaton preferred the darker, campy directorial style of Tim Burton.

the late Joel Schumacher signed on to direct Keaton's third "Batman" film, Keaton felt he "could no longer play Batman if the tone was moving away from Batman's dark nature, it was always about Bruce Wayne to me." It's a whole new superhero ball game now. After re-creating Adrian Toomes/Vulture in "Spiderman: Homecoming," and appearing in "Morbius" (January 29), toplined by Jared Ledo and Matt Smith, he'll again become Batman/ Bruce Wayne in "The Flash" November 4, but here's the catch, in this version Batman/Bruce Wayne hails from an alternate universe, while Ben Affleck plays Batman/Bruce Wayne from the timeline of "The Flash" and in the upcoming "Batgirl." Alternate universes ... what? Do we really need two Batmen?

CELEBRITY EXTRA

Q: I'm enjoying the new sitcom "American Auto," but it's bugging me where I've seen the actress who plays the CEO before. She looks a lot like the actress who played Agatha in "Wanda Vision" but I'm not convinced it's her. -- L.I. A: Ana Gasteyer, not Kathryn

Hahn, stars in the new Detroit-based comedy series "American Auto." To me she looks like a cross between Hahn and another talented comedic actress, Ana Gasteyer Jennifer Coolidge ("Legally Blonde"), but I'm willing to bet you've seen Gasteyer before. She was a regular on "Saturday Night Live" from 1996 to 2002, and then played helicopter mom Sheila Shay on the sitcom "Suburgatory." She followed that role with a federal judge on "The Good Wife" and returned to comedy as a drama teacher on "The Goldbergs. 'American Auto" is another workplace comedy created by Justin Spitzer, the same person who created the successful NBC comedy "Superstore." The commercials for the new series keeping touting it as the next "The Office." Perhaps they can safely make that assumption because Spitzer was a writer and producer on that acclaimed series earlier in his career. As for Hahn, the character of the delightfully devious Agatha was so well received on "Wanda-Vision" that Disney+ is creating a spin-off series for her character titled "House of Harkness." Q: When is "Outlander" coming back? I hope it hasn't been canceled. It's been forever since I've seen a new episode. -- K.I.

A: In June 2021, the Starz network announced that the historical time travel series "Outlander" would return with new episodes in March 2022. That seemed like an eternity for its fans, but with 2021 in the rearview mirror, the season premiere is just around the corner. "Outlander" is based on a series of novels by Diana Gabaldon, with each new season adapted from a different book. The uncoming sixth season is based on Gabaldon's "A Breath of Snow and Ashes," once again featuring Claire (Caitriona Balfe), a time-traveling British nurse, and Jamie (Sam Heughan), a Highland warrior. Shakespearean actor Mark Lewis Jones joins the cast this season as a new settler named Tom, who first met Jamie in prison. You can catch the first four seasons of "Outlander" on Netflix.

Q: Whatever happened to 1980s heartthrob Aidan Quinn? I remember him in "Desperately Seeking Susan," but not much else after that. He is still in the industry? - D.C. A: Yes, he's accrued quite a list of acting credits since he starred opposite Madonna in "Desperately Seeking Susan," but it's mostly been on television. In 2004, he played Lt. Miller on for a season on "Third Watch." an NBC series about first responders. He followed that with regular roles on the Showtime series "Weeds," the American version of "Prime Suspect," and his biggest role yet, an NYPD captain on "Elementary." Next up for Quinn is a role in the film "Butterfly in the Typewriter," about eccentric nov-

BOYS: Rochelle nets road victory against Rock Falls

Senior forwards Tanner Lager and Cooper Hasz each hit low-post basket for the Hubs, who led 34-29 at

"Noah's a hard-nosed player and his defense gets a lot better when his offense gets going," head coach Tim Thompson said. "I knew when he was at the sophomore level that Noah was going to be a very good varsity basketball player. When Noah sets his feet, he doesn't miss many shots and he's shooting with a lot of confidence right now. His release looks great and he's starting to play within himself. He's not trying to do too much and he's using his 3-point shooting ability to create more driving opportunities at the rim.'

Rochelle began pulling away from the Reapers in the third quarter, where Hasz bullied Plano's interior defenders for three close-range shots and Simmons found his rhythm with a pair of mid-range jumpers and an elbow triple for seven of his 12 points in the game. Brown and senior Adam Kemp each made triples in the third quarter for the Hubs, who built a double-digit advantage at 58-47 entering the fourth

"Noah shot the ball really well in the first half and I thought Plano made some tough shots," Thompson said. "We tightened our defense up during the second half and we stopped helping too much when they were driving into the lane and dumping the ball off for easy buckets. We shared the ball much better in the and we can't be turning second half and when we had Ryan take the ball in the middle, we were really able to exploit them."

Brown and Kemp opened the fourth quarter with a pair of layups on aggressive drives through the lane. With the victory all but sealed, Rochelle looked for Sanford to ice the win, with the 6-foot-5 forward finishing a screen-and-roll before sinking his second 3-pointer of the evening to finish with a season-high 11 points. Junior forward Raul Aguirre also converted two post-up opportunities for four of his eight points on Friday. Hasz finished with nine points, while Kemp recorded seven points and Luxton added five points.

Rock Falls

After a last-second loss against Kaneland this past week, the Rochelle Hub varsity basketball team looked to restart its winning streak with a nonconference matchup against Rock Falls on Tuesday.

Turnovers doomed the Hubs during last week's loss to the Knights, but Rochelle turned the tables against the Rockets on Tuesday, forcing 18 steals and scoring 24 points off Rock Falls turnovers. Behind a dominant first quarter in which the Hubs outscored the Rockets 24-9, Rochelle cruised over Rock Falls 76-59.

"It definitely helped us a lot to win this game," senior Noah Brown said. "We all accepted the loss against Kaneland and we needed to get back on our streak. We have to keep our tempo the ball over. Our turnover count was a lot higher than usual against Kaneland and they were scoring a lot of their points off of those turnovers. We can't be turning the ball over that much moving forward."

Brown led the Hubs (12-9, 5-2 Interstate 8) with 16 points while adding a teamhigh five steals on Tuesday. Senior Tanner Lager scored 12 points and senior Adam Kemp finished with 11 points, nine rebounds and seven assists. Senior Ryan Simmons recorded eight points, eight assists and 10 rebounds in the victory. The Hubs led Rock Falls 43-21 at halftime and outpaced the Rockets 21-6 in transition scoring for the game.

"We really pushed the tempo and we knew they had two really good shooters so we didn't want them to get many shots," Brown said. "We didn't want them to get clean looks and I thought we did that really well. We had the mindset that we needed to win this game and we didn't want to have another letdown like we had against Kaneland. We don't want to lose by a buzzer-beater or have that feeling ever again."

Rochelle dominated down low, outscoring the Rockets 50-20 on points in the paint and outrebounding Rock Falls 43-29. Seniors Cooper Hasz and Zach Sanford each scored seven points in the victory, with Hasz totaling six rebounds and three steals. Junior Raul Aguirre and sophomore Eli Luxton each added six points for the Hubs.

Although Plano clawed within one point of the Lady Hubs midway through the fourth quarter, Darby took command of the Rochelle offense down the stretch, scoring on a series of low-post shots including an old-fashioned 3-point play through contact. Darby totaled nine of her 15 points in the fourth quarter.

Nantz finished with five points in the game and senior Adriannah Davis-Carter chipped in four points. Seniors Zoey Tabor, Josie Lundquist and freshman Abby Metzger each added two points on Friday.

Leading 26-18, Princeton continued its winning streak in the 152-pound and 160-pound bouts, where Anthony Maciczak and Carson Etheridge each pinned for Tiger victories. Rochelle sophomore Brock Metzger stopped the bleeding, taking down and pinning Anthony Vujanov to win the 170-pound bout. Juniors Troy Papke and Jorge Driggs each took forfeits in the 182-pound and 195-pound bouts.

"Small details and mental toughness will be important for us as we prepare for the regional," Vruno said. "Our kids know a lot about wrestling, but some of our kids forget that sometimes when the lights come on. Getting them over those hurdles and helping them understand that they're good wrestlers will be really important for us. We're doing a lot of the right moves, but it's about making the small corrections."

Dear Neighbor:

I have great news for your wallet if your furnace is over 12 years old. Allow me to explain... Every year, the months of January, February & March can be slow for my business. I employ great people and want to keep them working during these long, slow months. That is why I've come up with a Win-Win Situation for both of us.

Every year, the big manufacturers of furnaces & air conditioners, like Amana, guess how many to build to meet the demand. Of course, they're never exactly right. So, they always have some inventory that they must hold over until the next summer season. I went to one of these companies and contracted for the purchase of twenty-two Deluxe furnaces and air conditioners in the four most popular sizes used in Kane County. And, because of the quantity and time of year, I was able to buy them at drastically reduced prices.

They are brand-new Deluxe Models. They are NOT the seconds or "blems" or standard "builder" models. They are factory-fresh furnaces and air conditioners and have a full 10-year factory warranty.

How To Get A Furnace For Peanuts

If you are interested in a new heating/cooling system (but only if one of the four sizes I have will fit your house, of course), I am "giving" you the furnace and all I ask for is the $941 in labor & material costs for installation, when you purchase

Perfect Fit For Your Home

I will come out and measure your home (and determine the availability of the proper size). Don't forget, I only have 22 matched Deluxe systems in four sizes. When they are gone, this remarkable offer ends also. Just call Bre at

I'm so confident that you will save at least 25% on your heating and cooling bills (I'm projecting more like 30%), that I will pay you the difference for a year if you don't! I'll show you exactly how this works. If these heating and air conditioning systems were not among the best on the market, I couldn't afford to make such a

Why This Offer Can't Last

I only have a few of each of the four sizes. When all of the air conditioners are sold and all the furnaces are "given" away, that's it. There are no more at this price. Call Bre now at (815) 562-4440 to set up an appointment for your no-obligation survey.
