Spark Shop bringing ideas to life Aunt B's Baking, Wallyswishes, The Rose Barn working in retail incubator

BY JEFF HELFRICH

MANAGING EDITOR

ROCHELLE—After opening in October, The Spark Shop in downtown Rochelle has been home to 10 home-based businesses looking to get the storefront experience and work on future expansion.

The retail incubator is a collaboration between the Rochelle Chamber of Commerce, City of Rochelle, Retail Advisory Board, Kishwaukee College and the Small Business Development Center at Waubonsee College. It's for businesses that are currently home-based but are looking to someday have their own brick and mortar location.

"From the chamber's perspective it is going well," Chamber Executive Director Tricia Herrera said. "We are happy with the sales and they are growing each week. We are thrilled with the support we have received from the community and are happy that we can help the vendors have a storefront for their products. Our single focus is to grow their businesses and we have worked hard to do that. We don't have a 'road

The News-Leader spoke with three of The Spark Shop's vendors last week about their businesses and the experience so far.

"Aunt B" started her business officially in June after it was a passion for years. She makes custom cookies and cupcakes along with cakes, cinnamon rolls, brownies and other sweets. She also offers cookie decorating classes.

"It's a creative outlet for me," Cox said. "I can look at something and make it into something people enjoy. I love being in the kitchen. It was a no-brainer for me to combine those things."

Fund matching planned for grant application

$650,000 reconstruction of downtown could cost village $160,000

BY JEFF HELFRICH

MANAGING EDITOR

CRESTON — At its Tuesday meeting, the Creston Village Board resolved to commit $160,000 in matching funds if it were to receive a grant for a $650,000 reconstruction of its downtown area.

Applications for the Illinois Department of Commerce and Economic Opportunity Rebuild Illinois Main Street & Downtown grants are being taken until the first week of January. $50 million is available for the entire state. Last month, the board authorized Village Engineer Kevin Bunge to submit an application.

Bunge said the village's application would have a total project cost of around $650,000 and would cover the area from the north side of the train tracks to the south side of Cederholm

It would include a new water main and storm sewer, reconstruction of the street, all new sidewalks on both sides, new curb and gutter and parallel parking on one side of the street and angle parking on the other. It also includes street lights, planters, trees if the village wants them, benches, bike racks and trash bins.

"We've talked about this section of street for quite a while," Bunge said. "At least now there's a grant that's specifically for this."

ROCHELLE — On Thursday, City of Rochelle's leadership team was out spreading holiday cheer by visiting local nursing homes, senior living

County Board approves new salary structure

BY BRAD JENNINGS

OGLE COUNTY LIFE EDITOR

OREGON—The Ogle County Board chairman and vice-chair will be seeing a significant bump in pay after the board approved a new salary structure at its last meeting.

The chairman had been paid $4,800 per year, which included $250 per month for the position, plus the $150 per month other board members made. The chairman will now make $25,000 per year, plus mileage. The vice-chair will be paid $5,000 plus mileage.

Marcia Heuer, who represents District 8 and is vice-chair of the Personnel and Salary Committee, said that every 10 years the board can adjust its pay. She said the committee started looking at the issue last year and found that the Ogle County Board was "vastly underpaid."

Heuer said they did a comparison on pay with similar county boards. She said the research showed the pay in Ogle County was "way low."

"All of them paid their chairman considerably more than what we did," she said.

She said the workload on the chairman, vice-chair and those who chair all the committees is high. With no county administrator, the elected board members are responsible for areas including human resources, finance, personnel and more.

The new pay includes $100 for committee chairs and $75 for vice-chairs for committee meetings. All County Board members will be paid $70 per meeting they attend plus mileage.

Board Member Skip Kinney this is a change because members will be required to attend the meetings to get paid. In the past, members were paid monthly for three meetings whether they attended or not.

"You absolutely have to do your job," Heuer said.

Can the county afford these changes? Heuer said it can. The change was only made after the committee looked at the numbers, and County Treasurer Linda Beck did a cost analysis.

"That was the one big question," Heuer said.

Another question for the committee was should the county return to having a county administrator. Heuer said there have been two in the past, with one being very good at the job.

"It was so much easier running the county," when there was an administrator, she said.

Aprofessional administrator, who would cost the county from $120,000 to $150,000 per year, would be well versed in state and county policies and legal requirements. There is also dealing with the EPA, OSHA, strategic plans, the nuclear plant – it is a long list, according to Heuer.

Ultimately, she said the money just isn't there currently for an administrator.

"It's under consideration," she said. "It has been for a couple of years. We just can't afford it right now."

While the measure for the pay increase did pass, Board Members Zach Oltmanns, Dean Fox and Lyle Hopkins voted against it.

On duty Tuesday was former Rochelle Hub Anthony Durham (2012) now a member of the United States Marine Corps. He is stationed in Hawaii.

Durham stationed in Pearl Harbor for 80th anniversary

BY VICKI SNYDER-CHURA SPECIAL TO THE NEWS-LEADER

ROCHELLE — The United States observed the 80th anniversary of the Japanese attack on the naval base at Pearl Harbor, Hawaii in ceremonies across America Tuesday. When the bombs hit that Dec. 7, ships were destroyed, more than 2,300 people died and it shook the nation, leading us to join World War II.

Sitting President Franklin D. Roosevelt famously called Dec. 7, 1941 "a date which will live in infamy" - the very next day the United States declared war on Japan and formally entered World War II.

The war ended four years later when the United States declared victory against Japan in 1945, after dropping a pair of atomic bombs on Hiroshima and Nagasaki killing hundreds of thousands of civilians.

As you can imagine, the number of survivors and veterans of World War II dwindles every year. 63 WWII Veterans arrived at Oahu, Hawaii Dec. 3 to begin a week-long commemoration; a dozen of them more than 100 years old. For some, it was their first return to Pearl Harbor since the attack.

On duty Tuesday was former Rochelle Hub Anthony Durham (2012) now a member of the United States Marine Corps. He is stationed in Hawaii. Cpl. Durham and fellow marines escorted a group of WWII Veterans as they visited the elementary school on the base.

His military service has taken Durham all over the world including postings on Guam and Japan. Capable and confident having undergone rigorous training as an intelligence surveillance reconnaissance systems engineer, Durham had to admit he was a little bit overwhelmed being on duty at Pearl Harbor on the 80th anniversary of the attack with the men and women who survived and saved the world.

Thankfully, he was present in the moment but nonetheless recorded memories in photos and a text he sent home to his father Mark Durham, grandmother Donna Durham and aunt Danae White:

"Got to spend the morning with some WWII veterans at the elementary school on base and as a bonus I got to meet one of my favorite authors, Navy Seal Jack Carr, who was volunteering with them!

Today was a win." At the end of his long day, Jack Carr tweeted: 'Humbled beyond words to honor those who stood up 80 years ago today to put it all on the line in defense of freedom.'

Jack Carr is the author of 'The Terminal List,' 'True Believer,' 'Savage Son' and 'The Devil's Hand,' his fourth in the bestselling series.

"As we mark National Pearl Harbor Remembrance Day, we honor the patriots who perished, commemorate the valor of all those who defended our Nation, and recommit ourselves to carrying forth the ensuing peace and reconciliation that brought a better future for our world," President Joe Biden said.

CRESTON: Village board approves 2022 tax levy

"But probably every other community in the state is going after it too. We just have to show that the cost estimate is well thought out. The plan can be tweaked later in small ways. This is a complete reconstruction of all of that road and all of the infrastructure under it. Sanitary is the only thing we're not touching. That's in good shape. We would also notify utility companies to do what they need to do while it's open."

Bunge said the grant selection process is a points system and the village would be more likely to get the grant if it used a higher local match. Village Trustee Mike Kerns was in favor of doing that.

"Some day, we're going to pay for 100 percent of it," Kerns said. "Let's match everything we possibly can right now so we're hopefully high on the list. Do 25 percent if you think it'll help. You're getting 75 percent of the project paid for. If you get your whole downtown done for $160,000, you're doing pretty good."

Bunge said that 25 percent is "a good number" for consideration and the grant application process would take a year and if selected, Creston wouldn't start construction or have to pay any costs until the latter part of 2023.

Village Trustee Curt Ward said if the matching cost were to end up being too high for the village to afford, Creston could opt to not sign the agreement before it began as proposed.

Water letters

The village recently sent out letters to its residents detailing situations with its water meters and concerns about a chlorine smell in its water.

Creston is currently waiting on a new water meter reader device that has not arrived as planned. In the interim, after charging estimated water rates recently, the village is asking residents to read meters themselves and send in screenshots or numbers in writing.

"That way if we can get actual readings from some people, we can get them back on track with accurate as opposed to estimated use," Village Clerk Jennifer Payton said. "If you've overpaid, we can start getting that straightened out now, same with those that have been getting underbilled. We're trying to figure out a way to help people out because it is frustrating for residents and us."

Village President Tom Byro said after working to regulate the level of chlorination in the village's water supply to meet EPA standards, it is now under control.

Tax levy

The board unanimously approved its tax levy for 2022 and it will total $21,206, just under a five percent increase from last year. The village is using the same Equalized Assessed Value (EAV) from last year.

Village Treasurer Penny Payton said the money is earmarked in the budget for legal expenses and mosquito control in 2022.

Well

maintenance

Byro brought up the idea of future well maintenance projects at the meeting due to recent issues with water. He said one hasn't been "pulled" in a long time and the other hasn't ever been, to his knowledge.

"I think next year we need to talk about possibly putting it on the agenda to get it looked at," Byro said. "You can't do it in the winter or summer. It's something I think we need to look at for next year, possibly getting it on or budget someplace. It's not going to be cheap, but we need to make sure our wells are up and running."

Village Hall

Byro said the village plans to do some maintenance work on Village Hall this winter that will include painting of the inside walls and carpet cleaning. He said to his knowledge, neither of those things has been done since it was built in 1989.

"I think it's time we spent a little money on getting this building back up to shape before it goes south," Byro said.

Taking in the Christmas Walk

HE Christmas walk was a lot of

The crowd was bigger than in previous years, I imagine the mild temperatures had a lot to do with looked pretty popular and the parade was short but sweet.

Santa at the museum

It was nice to see most of the downtown merchants open and they looked pretty busy. The new home decor store in the old Stone's Hallmark had some items displayed, which was a nice way to introduce the business to the community.

Shop local program

The city's utility rebate program ends soon. I believe the city said over $2 million in business was generated by the program, which provided a $60 credit on your utility bill for every $300 in receipts from select local businesses. It was an innovative way to help local merchants during these uncertain times.

Vaccination

Speaking of COVID-19, I wish businesses would post if their employees have been vaccinated or not. That would help me decide whether to go in or not. If food or drink is involved, servers and anyone handling food should be masked. I know it is a pain, but the best ways to stop this are to be masked and vaccinated. As a matter of fact, I would love it if businesses, especially restaurants, required proof of vaccination to enter.

Jim Moorehead

Jim Moorehead recently passed away. He was 100, a World War II veteran that served on a submarine. He was on the park and other boards and went skydiving for his 91st birthday. He and wife

Marnie traveled a lot. As they travelled they collected glassware, antique Dickow glassware, mainly. Marnie lovingly packed it in boxes and kept an inventory of the items. Jim was on his own after Marnie died. He had lots of friends and neighbors who would help him and run errands. Unfortunately, Jim had to go into a care facility to-

were in the basement of his Unfortunately, the boxes ward the end of his life. The 50 or 60 boxes of glassware disappeared. Jim's son said no one seems to know what happened to the boxes, only that they are gone.

It could be Jim gave the boxes to someone before going into the home, or perhaps someone offered to take them to keep them safe.

Or maybe someone went into the empty home and took them.

If you know what happened to the boxes, please let me know so I can pass the information on to his son.

2021: A year to be thankful

AST year I, along with a few of my staff members, had the privilege to participate in the High-Performance Leadership Seminar conducted by the Professional Development Academy.

It was one of the best leadership and personal growth trainings (both online and in person) I have participated in. I learned a lot over the course of five months, but the one item that remains with me daily is the phrase "What got you here will not get you there."

Simply put, if you want to grow as a person, a leader, mentor or whatever you choose, you must continually grow and adapt. What brought you success and/or fulfillment today will not necessarily bring success or allow you to thrive tomorrow. One way to move this philosophy into action is to grow and learn from your previous successes and failures.

This philosophy guides me as our mayor and city council begin work on a new strategic plan.

The plan that was approved in 2018 has proven to be very successful. In fact, it's one of the best and most forward-thinking strategic plans in my career. However, what got us here may not get us there, so we are updating our current plan. During the fall of 2021, Northern Illinois University staff solicited feedback from three community groups, city council members on an individual basis and city staff. We are set to meet in January for a one-day planning session to discuss the input.

Jeffrey

Fiegenschuh

Our mayor and city council members will use this information to help formulate and ultimately approve a new plan. I am excited to be part of the process and more excited to work with my staff to implement the plan that is approved by our elected leaders.

As Christmas and the holiday season comes and goes, I want to thank Mayor John Bearrows, our entire city council and all my staff for their dedication and commitment to Rochelle. God has blessed me greatly and for that I am most thankful. Blessings to you and your loved ones in 2022!

Happy Holidays!

Sarah

APPY Holidays to the Rochelle community! If you get the chance, drive by the front of the 1912 building. It is decorated with beautiful white lights, packages and trees.

We were honored to have the Rochelle Township High School Madrigals sing on our porch for the Annual Downtown Rochelle Christmas Walk last Friday. The ambience of the evening was spectacular. The porch had a beautiful glow and guests enjoyed the lovely carols. Now for some library history.

"Andrew Carnegie donated over $56" million dollars for the construction of 2,509 library buildings throughout the English-speaking parts of the world. In those days, $56 million dollars bought a lot of library, when one considers the original library building, a gem of modern architecture, cost only$10,000 in 1912.

Carnegie's support of public libraries and other educational institutions reflected his belief that rich men should use their resources to provide facilities for people of lesser means to improve themselves. During his lifetime, he gave more than $333 million dollars, over 90 percent of his fortune, for what he called, 'the improvement of mankind.

Carnegie was particularly aware of libraries because of his own background. His father had encouraged his fellow weavers in a small town in Scotland to pool their money to buy books. One would read aloud while the others worked. Their collection of books became the first > circulating library in town. Carnegie referred to his father as a library-founding The fireplace is somewhat unusual for a Carnegie library because Carnegie did not approve of fireplaces in libraries. He noted that the wall space occupied by a fireplace Flanagan could provide shelving for 500-600 books. He also noted that the fireplace only benefited a few people in the immediate vicinity and the rest of the room would not profit much by its warmth." (Nov. 27, 1973 Flagg Township Library history binder). We are so thankful that Andrew Carnegie chose Rochelle to build the library that we still have today. It has a timeless history that adds to our current community atmosphere. Our original building was added to the National Register of Historic Places in 1973. See you at the library!

SHOP: Vendors begin operations at retail incubator

Cox worked local farmer's markets and vendor events over the summer and was looking for a way to continue into the winter after a lot of those events go dormant. The Spark Shop was "perfect timing" for her.

"It's been awesome," Cox said. 'It's very unique and not common in other towns. People can be hesitant picking up things from homes. It's another opportunity for me. For my customers that do know me, they know they can come down when we're open and pick up some cupcakes or cookies in small portions and they don't have to order in bulk."

Cox has been baking since 2013. When she became a stay-at-home mom in Aug. 2019, it gave her more time to do things like invest in herself and it led to Aunt B's Baking. She's enjoyed her work-life balance and making her own hours since.

The main goal of Aunt B's Baking is to have a standalone storefront one day. The Spark Shop is helping her with the learning curve in the meantime.

"One thing about The Spark Shop has been how great it is to meet other vendors," Cox said. "We network and help each other out with different things. I've learned a lot from them and I've been able to lend some of the knowledge I have."

Wallyswishes

Krystyn Mellor named herbusiness, Wallyswishes, after her grandfather.

Wally was a woodworker and had his own workshop. Krystyn spent time with him learning the trade. Her business creates custom crafts, home decor, signs, tumblers, shirts and more.

"I wanted to start a business for when people have an idea and can't find something," Mellor said. "Something unique to an individual that I can make special for people. I wanted to bring ideas to life."

Wallyswishes started about three years ago. Mellor had just given birth to twins, two of her four children, and started the home-based business. She made matching shirts for her twins and posted it on Facebook and things just "took off" from there.

Mellor is a cancer survivor. She has chemotherapy-induced neuropathy and didn't want to be on medication every day to control her pain. Keeping her fingers working on her products has aided her. Moving her hands helps combat the ailment.

When asked which of her products she's enjoyed making most, Mellor mentioned creating wedding vows on boards for a wedding gift, customized Christmas ornaments and work she did for a friend whose father had recently passed away.

"We took his handwriting and lasered it into wood for her kids," Mellor said. "That was a meaningful Mellor said at the beginning, starting her small business was tough. Being introverted made it hard to put herself out there and she's worked hard to get high-quality products to customers fast at cost-efficient prices.

Her goal is for Wallyswishes to have its own storefront one day. Mellor wants to keep growing and learn new mediums to reach more people.

"I'm grateful to be a part of The Spark Shop," Mellor said. "It's been a great experience. There are so many great people involved and it's helped my business take off. I'm excited to see where it goes."

The Rose Barn

Rosario Herebia has 20 nieces and nephews. And she likes giving gifts.

Over the years, it got harder and harder for her to do that for such a large group. She had to resort to giving cash before having a change of heart.

"It's been the best to give them personalized things," Herebia said. "To see their faces when they realize it was made just for them is great. I like seeing that."

Herebia's business, The Rose Barn, is a personalization gift shop. She sells t-shirts, mugs, decor for things like wedding gifts and "pretty much anything that can be personalized." She also runs 2-3 painting classes per month at local venues.

Along with wedding gifts, The Rose Barn also crafts gifts for other occasions like birthdays. Herebia has done some team-themed work for parents of kids in town that play sports.

"I wanted to make an OK gift into a special gift by personalizing it," Herebia said. "I've done this for five years. I'm busy all the time now."

In the next year, Herebia hopes to open up a storefront for The Rose Barn. She wants to be able to host her painting classes at her own place. She's enjoyed having a space at The Spark Shop for people to pick up orders or see her products in person

"You just have to keep working and be consistent and make a good product and you'll keep growing," Herebia said.

The hours of The Spark Shop are Thursday and Friday from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. and Saturday from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. It is located in the historic filling station building at 500 Lincoln Ave.

Hubs stifled at home

Offensive struggles continue for Rochelle in 50-37 loss to Sycamore

ROCHELLE — The Rochelle Hub varsity basketball team endured its second tough shooting night of the week on Friday, when the Sycamore Spartans came to town for an Interstate 8 battle.

Senior Tanner Lager stepped up for the Hubs in the second half, scoring 12 of his team-high 14 points on aggressive drives to the basket and soft-touch floaters. But a lackluster shooting performance overall, particularly from the free-throw line, was enough to cripple Rochelle in a 50-37 loss to the Spartans. The Hubs (2-5, 1-1 Interstate 8) went 7-for-18 on free throws

"We have to get better ball movement in order to get more guys going to the rim," head coach Tim Thompson said. "We're doing a lot of standing around and rather than making the extra pass, we're sitting around figuring out how do we get our own shots. We're not being a good team right now. We constantly talk about giving up good shots for great shots, but we're not moving the ball from side to side. If we can do that, then we'll get better looks at the rim."

Both teams struggled to score the ball in the first quarter, with seniors Noah

Brown and Ryan Simmons each hitting 3-pointers for Rochelle's only field goals of the period. Sycamore's Tyler York was the go-to scorer for the Spartans, converting two triples and knocking down a mid-range jumper for eight of his team-leading 12 points. Junior forward Raul Aguirre worked down low for two layups in the second quarter for the Hubs, who trailed 24-14 at halftime.

"This is one time where we collectively have to look in the mirror and we have to change,"Thompson said. "We have to figure out where we're going to hang out hats so when we have a night where we're not making shots, we can still find a way to be successful. Our kids have to look themselves in the mirror and ask themselves, 'What can I sacrifice for this team? Am I going to sacrifice a little of myself offensively, or are we going to continue being selfish?""

With Aguirre in foul trouble for Rochelle during the second half, Sycamore went to its starting forward Sam Stoner, who made a 3-pointer and a layup at the rim for five of his 11 points to extend the Spartan lead. While the Hubs struggled from the free-throw line on Friday, Sycamore fared a little better, going 9-for-17 in the fourth quarter and 13-for-22 overall. Simmons finished with 11 points for the Hubs, who've lost four of their last five games.

"Tanner, Ryan and Adam [Kemp] have to be scoring in double figures every night," Thompson said. "They're not getting that right now and we're missing a lot of shots, but I feel that the shots are in their range. They don't have confidence right now, but once they start seeing the ball go in, they'll have more confidence and the game will come easier to them. The question is figuring out how to instill that confidence. They have to believe it and right now, they don't."

Two-game win streak snapped by Sycamore

Spartans defeat Rochelle after Lady Hubs down Indian Creek on Wednesday

ROCHELLE — Rochelle Lady Hub varsity basketball coach Ryan McQuade knows his team will endure some tough losses as he works to rebuild the program in his first season. Rochelle faced perhaps its toughest opponent of the season Friday in the unbeaten Sycamore Spartans.

Behind 21 points and five 3-pointers from St. Thomas commit Faith Feuerbach, Sycamore cruised over the Lady Hubs in Interstate 8 action, holding Rochelle to two first-half field goals for a 63-22 victory. Senior Adriannah Davis-Carter led the Lady Hubs (5-7, 0-2 Interstate 8) with 10 points, making both of the team's field goals in the first half and adding a 3-pointer late in the second half.

"It's tough to be aggressive offensively against a team like Sycamore," McQuade said. "They guard so well, but I thought Adriannah was our player of the game because she was fantastic on both sides of the floor. She played without fear tonight and even though Sycamore's

one of the favorites in Class

3A, we have to play without fear and I thought Adrian-nah did that." Sycamore's perimeter defense prevented Rochelle from finding any driving lanes during the first half. The Spartans scored on several transition layups while pushing the ball after missed shots from the Lady Hubs, building an 18-1 lead after the first quarter before surging ahead 35-6 at halftime. Freshman Kendyl Darby stepped up for the Lady Hubs in the second half, showing aggression and converting three field goals at the rim for six points off the bench.

"I'm seeing sparks from Kendyl," McQuade said. "The challenge with Kendyl being a freshman is figuring out how to piece together those sparks to make a fire because when she does that, she's extremely talented and we can use that at the varsity level. Seeing both Adriannah and Kendyl come off the bench and have strong performances will be good for us going forward."

Sophomore guard Lexi Carlsen and 6-foot-4 junior forward Evyn Carrier combined for 21 points to help lead Sycamore on Friday. The 9-0 Spartans led Rochelle 57-12 after three quarters. Senior Jordin Dickey scored three points on one 3-pointer, while seniors Abby Luxton and Zoey Tabor combined for three points.

"We're growing as a program and we look to teams like Sycamore and Winnebago, who we played earlier in the year," McQuade said. "We want to emulate those types of programs and the way we've been coming together as a team, I think that we're on our way."

Indian Creek

Junior Torrin Nantz led the Rochelle Lady Hub varsity basketball team to its second consecutive victory on Wednesday, scoring 10 points as the Lady Hubs knocked off Indian Creek 54-37 in nonconference play. Rochelle improved to 5-6 overall with the win.

"I thought our team was ready to play right from the start," Nantz said. "Our defense was where we scored most of our points. I thought our press defense was really effective."

Senior Jordin Dickey and sophomore Alivia Henkel each added eight points for the Lady Hubs, whose 54-point performance was their secondhighest scoring output of the season.

"The win raises my confidence a lot and that helps improve my game," Nantz said. "When my confidence is down, my game is down, but I think we're improving a lot as a team. We're having more fun playing together, we're gaining more chemistry and we're building off of each other."

Aaron Sorkin's film about Lucille Ball and Desi Arnaz, "Being the Ricardos," for Amazon will have the emphasis on drama, not comedy. Oscar-winners Nicole Kidman and Javier Bardem are Lucy and Desi, and it covers Lucy's investigation by the FBI for registering to vote as a Communist in 1936 (to please her ailing grandfather) and her struggles in convincing CBS to hire Desi as Ricky so she could keep him from gallivanting all over the globe with his band ... and female fans. Oscar-winner J.K. Simmons and Nina Arianda play Fred and Ethel Mertz. The film opens in theaters Dec. 10 and starts streaming Dec. 21 via Prime Video. Next, Kidman reunites with her "Big Little Lies" husband, Alexander Skarsgard, in the historical thriller "The North Man," starring Bjork and Ethan Hawke, out April 8.

Gal Gadot was thrilled when original 1970s TV "Wonder Woman" Lynda Carter, now 70, played Asteria, the greatest Amazon Warrior in Greek mythology. She confessed, "Lynda has mentored me from the first moment I was cast as Wonder Woman. She's a true champion of what I've been doing." Carter will be back for the third edition of "Wonder Woman." Here's a new one for you. More than 21,000 fans of the Broadway musical "Wicked" have signed a petition pleading with Universal Studios, which is making the film version, that "James Cordon in no way, shape or form be in or near the production of the movie." Cordon has a way of insinuating himself into movie musicals such as "Into the Woods," "Cats," "Cinderella" (which he also produced) playing a mouse, and Ryan Murphy's film of Broadway's "The Prom," with Meryl Streep. Cordon was singled out in Vanity Fair's review, which said, "Cordon, flitting and lisping around in the most uninspired of caricatures, misses all potential for nuance and thus never finds even a hint of truth in the role." Maybe he should stick to his late-night talk show instead of playing "Cats" and mouse with film audiences!

(11:00) "Sugar Plum Twist" (2021) (2021) Kimberly Williams-Paisley.

She's my all-time favorite movie actress. How have suffered PTSD, and this certainly made many Oscars has she won? -- S.F.

Love It or List It

A: Despite just turning 75 years old, Susan Sarandon has not slowed down. She first shot to fame at age 29 in the cult-movie comedy "The Rocky Horror Picture Show." She's no stranger to the Oscars, having been nominated five times before winning in 1996 for her performance as a nun opposite Sean Penn's death rowinmate in "Dead Man Walking." In recent years she's played movie star Bette Davis in the Ryan Murphy series "Feud: Bette and Joan," a movie mogul in Showtime's "Ray Donovan" and returned to comedy in the film "ABad Moms Christmas." Next, she stars in the country-music drama series "Monarch," which premieres Jan. 30 at 10 p.m. ET on Fox.

Q: Imake a point to watch "It's a Wonderful Life" every December. Did Jimmy Stewart win an Oscar for the role or any other roles? He certainly deserved a whole mantle full. -- D.J.

A: With his distinctive voice, Jimmy Stewart was absolutely one of the all-time greats. Born in 1908, he went on to act in 80 films up until 1991. He was nominated five times for Best Actor in a Leading Role, including for "It's a Wonderful Life," but his only win was for "The Philadelphia Story."

"It's a Wonderful Life" was the first film Stewart made after serving as an Air Force

When he returned to acting Stewart found that Hollywood had moved on without him. He wanted to do a comedy after having endured the trauma of war, but the only role offered was the despondent Bailey in the future Frank Capra classic. Stewart reluctantly agreed, and the rest is history. Susan

Q: I saw a commercial where Will Smith goes on an outdoor adventure around the world. I didn't catch whether he's a character in a movie or what, but it looked so interesting.

When does it come out? -- K.E.

A: Will Smith does have a new movie out, "King Richard," where he plays the father of tennis stars Venus and Serena Williams in a story about their lives, but the commercial you saw is for a limited reality series with Smith as himself. In "Welcome to Earth," he goes on adventures around the world with Oscarwinning filmmaker Darren Aronofsky. Guided by experienced explorers, Smith climbs volcanoes and glaciers, journeys 3,000 feet below the sea, and gets up close and personal with wild creatures. It will be available for streaming beginning Dec. 8 on Disney+.

This year also has been one of reflection for the 53-year-old actor, as he recently published his memoir, "Will," which you can learn more about at WilltheBook.com.
