'Still a Mystery' covers Tyler Smith

Illinois State Police investigating 2018 death of 23-year-old

BY JEFF HELFRICH
MANAGING EDITOR

ROCHELLE — The Nov. 10 episode of the Investigation Discovery channel's "Still a Mystery" TV show was hard to watch for Sandy Halsne and Keith Smith.

The episode covered the death of the Rochelle couple's son, 23-year-old Tyler Smith. Tyler, a graduate of Rochelle Township High School and Western Illinois University, was found dead on Sept. 15, 2018 in Cedar Fork Creek in Galesburg. He was a in the Army National Guard and was in the area at the time for drill training.

After the Galesburg Police Department initiated the investigation into Smith's death and ruled it accidental from drowning, the Illinois State Police Division of Criminal Investigation got involved in Sept. 2020 and launched an investigation into Tyler's case that is still ongoing.

The Nov. 10 show brought back "a lot of raw emotions" for Halsne and Smith. The producers of the show filmed at the couple's home for a day 10 months ago.

"I think I had to watch it a couple of times to take it all in," Halsne said. "Because we hadn't seen it. It was new to us like everybody else. We just didn't know how they were going to put it together. But it was hard. We watched it together, just Keith and I. We didn't want anybody else around. We just wanted to be together and watch it."

Halsne said she thought the show, which aired for a half hour, didn't have the time to cover what her family has been through in the past three years. She and Smith have been working over that time to find answers about what happened to their son.

Tyler's mother said last week that she speaks to the state police task force investigating her son's case "at least weekly."

"They keep the lines of communication open," Halsne said. "That's huge for a family that doesn't know what's going on. We have tons of leads and they're going through every one of them and looking into them. With what they were left with, I feel like they've done a really good job and they've been very good to us."

Halsne said she and Smith's biggest goal since the beginning is to find out what happened to their son. They want to know why it happened and if others were involved, they want them to be held accountable with an arrest and conviction.

"We're not going to give up," Halsne said. "I'm in it for the long haul until the good Lord takes me, if it takes that long."

We both are. I'm confident at some point the truth is going to come out."

Before Sept. 2018, Tyler planned to go to the San Jose Police Academy in California. He had aspirations of being a canine officer and DEA agent.

Sunrise Family Restaurant celebrates 30 years

'I just want to thank everybody that's supported us'

BY JEFF HELFRICH
MANAGING EDITOR

ROCHELLE — Thirty years went by faster than Seadin Ajvazi anticipated.

The owner of Sunrise Family Restaurant celebrated being open for 30 years in Rochelle on Thursday with family, employees and customers. Free coffee and dessert were offered the entire day.

"It's just kind of crazy," Ajvazi said of the milestone. "I just want to thank everybody that's supported us up until now. We've got good support from the community and our customers. From the beginning until now, it's been good. I hope people continue to support us. Our customers have been great."

Ajvazi runs the restaurant alongside his wife, Mida, and children, Sead, Bika and Besim. Sead expressed that the restaurant would be nothing without the community and he enjoys seeing customers, along with working with family.

"Seeing the customers for so long is the best part," Sead said. "Some people are 70-80 years old and they have their grandchildren with them now. When all hands are on deck here with the family, it's good. When we work together, we got it."

Besim thanked the community for supporting a small business like Sunrise and said the family has enjoyed going table-to-table for 30 years and making sure every customer is treated well.

Seadin agreed with his sons and talked about what it's like to run a business with family for 30 years.

"I've been grateful for my family," Seadin said. "My kids here and my daughter, Bika, and everybody that's been helping. I've always been here, taking care of my business."

It's been great to do it with them. It's easy with a family like mine."

Seadin called business during the COVID-19 pandemic "a little tough." He reflected on how the community supported him during times when only carryout was allowed and how they came back after the restaurant was able to open up again.

"Without our community and customers, it would've been a lot worse," Seadin said. "The city helped too with a grant. Since then, we've been good. We appreciate the customers and the community of Rochelle for their support all these years. We'll serve them for many more. We hope it will stay in the family for another 30 years."

Rochelle Moose awards Valued Veterans of the Year

ROCHELLE—Each year since 2017, The Moose at each lodge in the fraternity has an obligation to recognize a Valued Veteran of the Year.

This award is given to a member of The Moose who, after their discharge from U.S. military service, continues serving their local community and The Moose by volunteering. They are then honored at the annual Valued Veteran banquet in November.

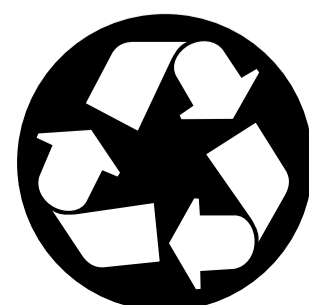

This year, the Rochelle Moose honored Jim Mecklenburg for 2020 and Russ Lechner for 2021. Chuck Roberts of Roberts Armory in Rochelle was the guest speaker and his presentation on the Military Honor Guard was well-received by veterans and their guests. Roberts presented both veterans with their award.

2-Ton Thanksgiving Food Drive held this week

‘It just speaks to how great the community is’

BY JEFF HELFRICH
MANAGING EDITOR

ROCHELLE — 102.3 The Coyote held its 16th Annual 2 Ton Thanksgiving Food Drive on Thursday at Prescott Brothers Ford in Rochelle.

All donations stayed local, helping the Rochelle Christian Food Pantry. Both food and monetary donations were accepted. Prescott Brothers Sales Manager Chad Young said the food drive went “great” and donations came in steadily.

“Chuck O’Brien and everybody from the radio station have been down here all day,” Young said. “We’ve been working hard. I set a personal goal of $10,000, we’re going to get there. So far, so good. I think we’ll definitely blow the doors off of everything that we’ve been trying to do.”

Young said the food pantry will hand out 250 Thanksgiving dinners Saturday to residents in need.

“A lot of the money goes towards that and the food goes right back into the food pantry to take care of families locally in Rochelle that could use a little extra help when it gets cold and through the winter months,” Young said. “Even all year, we know it’s been a tough year. We’ll help however we can.”

This year was the first time the radio station’s event was held at Prescott Brothers Ford. Young said he saw a lot of local businesses make donations. He and O’Brien said the event shows how supportive the community is.

“16 years ago it started as a nice little fundraiser for the Rochelle Christian Food Pantry and it’s just kind of grown since then,” O’Brien said. “A new location this year and I think we’re approaching a record number of not just food donations, but monetary donations too. And it’s in a year when we went through COVID-19.

We’re pretty sure it’s a record. It just speaks to how great the community is.”

With his law enforcement goals, Halsne often wonders how Tyler would handle the situation she’s in. She thinks about how she and Keith would be going out to California to see him if he were still alive.

“He worked really hard to get where he was at and it’s frustrating,” Halsne said. “He was a hard worker. I always wonder why it happened to him. It’s not my place to say why. But there’s a purpose. Something good has to come from this. I don’t know what. But you have to think that way to make it through the day.”

In late 2018, Halsne started a Facebook page called Justice For Tyler Smith dedicated to finding answers about her son. The page now has over 11,000 followers. She said it’s helped “turn the wheels” on getting more eyes on Tyler’s case.

Halsne said after the “Still a Mystery” show aired she had “tons” of people reach out to her and the Facebook page with messages of support.

“And I didn’t even know the people that reached out,” Halsne said. “They said they’re sorry for our loss and that they’ll continue to follow his case and do what they can to help. It’s getting out there more. People are talking about it. And that’s what we need. We need the public eye on it. It just takes that one person to say, ‘Oh my gosh. I saw that happen. But I didn’t think anything of it.’”

The uncertainty surrounding Tyler’s death has complicated the grief process for his family, Halsne said. She doesn’t believe they’ve had the chance to grieve yet and won’t be until they find answers.

“We never thought our son would be going off to drill and never coming home again,” Halsne said. “You see things like that on TV, just like we were last week. It can happen. And it happened to the wrong person. It’s frustrating, but we just keep pushing. We’ve hit so many roadblocks. But you just keep pushing to find out.

“Because I know my son would do that for me.”

Alcie Vernice Murphy

ROCHELLE — Alcie Vernice Murphy, 83 years, 11 months and 29 days, was granted her wish to go home to heaven to be with her Lord and family members on Tuesday, Nov. 16 at the Rochelle Community Hospital. She was saved and baptized by the late Pastor Robert Miller, at Hillcrest Baptist Church with Baptist her choice of religion.

Alcie was born on Nov. 18, 1937 in Vanndale, Arkansas, the daughter of Elbert and Minnie Robertson. She moved to Illinois in the late 1950s and resided there until her death. She was known as "Granny" to her grandchildren, "Al" or "Alvy" to her late husband, James and "Fuzzy" to some family members.

On Feb. 23, 1960, she married James E. Murphy and they enjoyed 53 years of marriage until his death on Aug. 5, 2013. Three children were born to them, Ricky, Janice and Michael Murphy. With Alcie's first husband, the late Bobby Samples, they were blessed with one child, Brenda. Alcie and her second ex-husband, John Cleveland, were blessed with three children, Barbara, Johnny and Alice Lawrence.

Alcie was preceded in death by her husband, James Murphy, first husband, Bobby Samples and second husband, John Cleveland. In addition to her parents, she was predeceased by her mother and father-in-laws, Mae and Charley Murphy; son, Michael Murphy; siblings: Nellie Smith, Mary Meier, Sandra Wilton, Marlin, Art and Ray Robertson; infant siblings: Viola and Alvin Robertson; nieces: Wanda Cooksey and Janell Smith; nephews: Chester Sanders, Thomas Robertson, Denny Smith and Leroy Caldwell; brother-in-law, Robert Smith and sisters-in-law: Judy and Ruth Robertson.

Alcie is survived by daughters: Brenda (Gary) Williams, Alice Louis, Barbara Dickens and Janice Gunning; sons: Ricky Murphy and Johnny Lawrence; multiple grandchildren including: Daniel (Christi) Batsch, Michelle (Tim) Dotter, Zachary and Ashley Gunning, Angel, Mikey, Justin and Amanda Murphy, Brandi and Elizabeth Murphy, Kimberly, Josh, Larry and others; multiple great grandchildren: Christin Batsch, Dusti (Tristan) Sturtz, Kaitlyn McCloud, Elizabeth and Devin Montelongo, Garrett Dotter, Samantha, Jessica and others; multiple great great grandchildren: Michael, Laila and Kanoa Montelongo, Breanna Sturtz and baby Sturtz due in February and others; numerous nieces and nephews and many friends.

Alcie was a stay-at-home wife and mother. She and James loved to grow flower and vegetable gardens. She enjoyed eating and canning the vegetables. She loved flowers of any color and size. The two of them cut tons of wood to burn in their wood stoves for heat and also for making wood furniture and yard ornaments. She had a great passion for going to thrift stores and garage sales, often smiling as she said, "I don't need this but I gotta have it." Her hobbies included small crafts, picking and canning fresh asparagus and home remodeling until health issues arose. Alcie loved crayons, colored pencils and coloring books very much. She was quite often found with her coloring items in hand and at times fell asleep holding something she was coloring. She also enjoyed reading various things.

Alcie and Brenda were estranged most of Brenda's life. The last few years, Brenda and Gary have been helping Alcie as much as Brenda's own health and disabilities would allow her. Brenda and Alcie attempted to be daughter and mother and found themselves doing things together for the first time ever, such as decorating Christmas trees, dying Easter eggs, small crafts, one-day camping, freezing fresh corn, short country drives and even went fishing once, which was hilarious. But above all, they tried to forgive, forget and love — even though there were tons of hurdles, some were solved and some were not.

Old classic country and gospel were her choice of music. She enjoyed family members and friends getting together to sing and play music. Going out to eat was a real favorite, biscuits and gravy, vanilla ice cream, tacos and fried chicken were her foods of choice. Her favorite food was chicken and dumplings and berry pie both made from scratch by Brenda. She requested these a lot.

Throughout her growing up and marriage years to James, country living was at the top of her list. She loved her privacy so wooded or grassy distant areas were preferred along with old houses. She enjoyed spending time with her family. Alcie was a very stubborn and determined lady that wanted things her way, going out of the way to accomplish it but she had a very loving side as well. She would often say in a strong voice followed by a laugh, "Well, y'all know how I am. When I want something I want it now and how I want it. Been this way all my life and too old to change now." Mom... gone but not forgotten! R.I.P.! Love you!

The visitation will be from 11-1 p.m., Friday, Nov. 19 at the Unger-Horner Funeral Home, 400 N. 6th St., Rochelle. The funeral service will follow at 1 p.m. with Pastor Duane Boehm officiating. Burial is at the Lawnridge Cemetery in Rochelle. Memorials may be made to the family.

COMMUNITY

Fair association hosts annual meeting

OREGON — The Ogle County Fair Association held its annual meeting Saturday, Nov. 13, at the Ogle County Farm Bureau auditorium with 4-H and adult Volunteers, fair association members and board members present.

The Annual Meeting is held each year to review the past year's fair and elect new directors.

Tom Simpson, president of the OCFA called the 2021 Ogle County Fair a very successful fair.

"The weather was great and the attendance at the 2021 fair was excellent," he said in his address.

Simpson credited fantastic volunteer labor provided by fair association members and directors, 4-H club and FFA members and contributions from individuals and businesses all help make our Ogle County Fair a success.

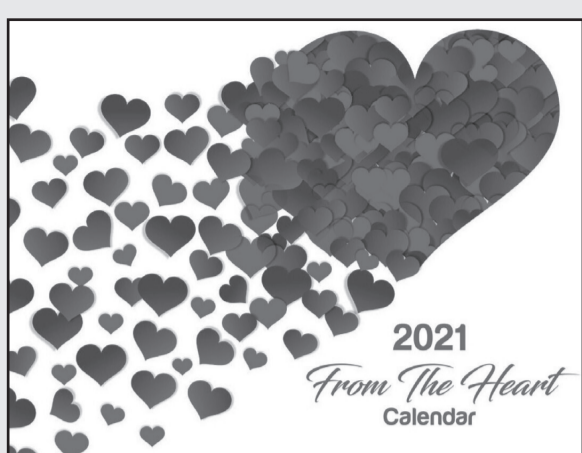

"All volunteers should be very proud of what you do at the Ogle County Fair Grounds to make it look and function as a top-notch fair," he said.

The OCFA recognized Lisa Schultz to receive the 2021 "Volunteer of the Year" award. This award is given in recognition of exceptional volunteer work throughout the year at the fairgrounds.

Directors re-elected for a three-year term on the board were Brad Larson and Rosanne Hurst of Mt. Morris and Chris Carter.

Other continuing board members are Simpson, president, of Davis Junction; Brenda Holm, Carol Magnuson, Rita Dauphin, Lyle Hopkins, Daryl Cave, Nathan Magnuson and Dave Engelbrecht. Other fair officials include Dennis Alderks of Chana, fair superintendent; Jon Sheely of Oregon, assistant superintendent and Dr. Tryne Pfeiffer, DVM of Rochelle, Ogle county fair veterinarian.

City receives budget award

ROCHELLE—Government Finance Officers Association announced last week that the City of Rochelle received GFOA's Distinguished Budget Presentation Award for its budget for its fiscal year that began Jan. 1, 2021.

The award represents a significant achievement by the entity, a GFOA press release said.

"It reflects the commitment of the governing body and staff to meeting the highest principles of governmental budgeting," the release said. "In order to receive the budget award, the entity had to satisfy nationally recognized guidelines for effective budget presentation. These guidelines are designed to assess how well an entity's budget serves as a policy document, a financial plan, an operations guide and a communications device."

Budget documents must be documented "proficient" in all four categories, and in the 14 mandatory criteria within those categories, to receive the award.

When a Distinguished Budget Presentation Award is granted to an entity, a Certificate of Recognition for Budget Presentation is also presented to the individual(s) or department designated as being primarily responsible for having achieved the award. This has been presented to City of Rochelle.

There are over 1,700 participants in the Budget Awards Program. The most recent Budget Award recipients, along with their corresponding budget documents, are posted quarterly on GFOA's website. Award recipients have pioneered efforts to improve the quality of budgeting and provide an excellent example for other governments throughout North America.

GFOA advances excellence in government finance by providing best practices, professional development, resources and practical research for more than 21,000 members and the communities they serve.

can pick up a form at St. Patrick's church, VFW Post 3878, or online at WreathsAcrossAmerica.org/IL0136P. The deadline for wreath sponsorships to be received is Nov. 30.

Illinois DCEO officials visit Rochelle

ROCHELLE — On Tuesday, three officials from the Illinois Department of Commerce & Economic Opportunity came to Rochelle for a briefing on the industrial development opportunities being created by the City of Rochelle Railroad. The group rode the City of Rochelle Railroad locomotive during their visit.

The officials met with Mayor John Bearrows and other members of the city's economic development staff to discuss economic development opportunities for further growth of the city rail system which has been a driver for new industrial development for more than 35 years.

Healthy Hand Hygiene Habits

Protect yourself against COVID-19 and other diarrheal and respiratory illnesses, and help prevent the spread of germs to others, by following these simple hand hygiene guidelines:

1. Wash your hands with soap and warm water, lathering for at least 20 seconds.
2. If soap is unavailable, use a hand sanitizer containing at least 60 percent alcohol to clean your hands.

Wash your hands throughout the day, and particularly under these circumstances:

- Before preparing food
- Before eating
- After using the toilet
- After changing a diaper or helping a child use the toilet
- Before and after exposure to someone who is sick
- After coughing, sneezing or blowing your nose
- After touching an animal or picking up animal waste
- After handling pet food or treats
- After handling garbage or garbage cans
- Before and after attending to a cut or wound

SMALL BUSINESS SATURDAY

How to make the most of Small Business Saturday

GIFTS and gatherings take center stage come the holiday season. The holiday season begins on Thanksgiving and continues until New Year's Day. During that time, families gather to exchange gifts, break bread, celebrate their faith, and toast the year to come.

The good times and gatherings that are such a big part of the holiday season were absent from many celebrations in 2020. Though the COVID-19 pandemic is ongoing, the successful rollout of various vaccines should make the coming holiday season feel more normal. That means gift exchanges and gatherings are back in play. Savvy celebrants recognize the benefits of shopping early, and Small Business Saturday is a great chance to get back in the holiday swing of things while supporting the local businesses that make communities so unique.

Plan ahead. Small Business Saturday takes place each year on the Saturday after Thanksgiving in the United States. Since its inception in 2010, Small Business Saturday has grown in popularity. American Express estimates that 110 million people participated in Small Business Saturday in 2019, which underscores how shoppers can benefit from planning ahead. Research sales and inventories of local businesses you want to support so you're ready to go come Saturday morning. Doing your homework can make it easier to navigate the crowds.

Reserve a table at your favorite restaurant. A great meal with friends and family can be an ideal way to cap off a day of shopping, and it's a great way to support a local restaurant. It's worth noting that a National Today survey of 1,000 shoppers that focused on Small Business Saturday shopping habits found that food and groceries were the most popular things to buy local. Saturday is traditionally a popular night to dine out, and that popularity is even greater on Small Business Saturday.

Shoppers can ensure they aren't waiting for a table by booking a reservation in advance.

Check your social media feeds. Many small businesses have recognized the value of communicating directly with consumers through their social media feeds. Throughout the day, shoppers can keep an eye on Facebook, Twitter and Instagram to learn about special sales or events. In addition, shoppers can share their shopping experiences via their own feeds.

Many small businesses rely on word-of-mouth from existing customers, so this can be another way to show your support for the establishments that call your community home.

Small Business Saturday is a great way to begin the holiday shopping season on the right foot.

We understand local businesses because we are one!

Your business needs more than just a checking account and a loan. You need access to capital, financial advice, and ideas to keep you one step ahead of the competition. This is why we take the time to build relationships with each customer in order to craft a financial strategy specific to the goals of their business!

“As a local business, it just made sense to do business with a local bank like Stillman Bank. They're honest, they're real people, they're reliable and their decisions are made locally by local people. They genuinely care about our business.”

Chamber hosting Small Business Saturday Nov. 27

ROCHELLE — The Rochelle Chamber of Commerce will celebrate Small Business Saturday on Nov. 27 with a Holiday Hunt.

Nearly 20 businesses have special promotions set up in honor of shopping local and the holiday season. They include Acres Bistro, Artist's Garden, Cheri Picked Vintage, Colonial Flower Shop, Flagg Township Museum, Flight Deck Bar & Grill, Hope Chest, Kennay Farms Distilling, Kenny's Place, Midwestern Clothing Company, Moose Family Center, Pickin Station, Remedy Boutique, ScaleHouse Lounge, The Cypress House, The Lounge (Liquor 'N' Wine), The Rack Bar & Grill, The Spark Shop and Quinn's Jewelry.

For the Holiday Hunt, the chamber will be placing a card in participating businesses, and all you have to do is visit them and write the corresponding word on the back of the card.

Finish at least 13 businesses, hand in your card and you'll be entered to win one of the chamber's three gift baskets, generously donated by local businesses.

Gensler earns All-State honor

Junior tailback/linebacker named to IHSFCA 5A All-State First Team

BY RUSSELL HODGES
SPORTS EDITOR

ROCHELLE — Junior Garrett Gensler was a workhorse for the Rochelle Hub varsity football team this season, starting at tailback and inside linebacker while helping his team to an 8-3 record and a 5-1 record in the Interstate 8/Kishwaukee River Blue Division. An Interstate 8 All-Conference Honorable Mention as a sophomore, Gensler’s efforts this fall resulted in 5A First-Team All-State recognition from the Illinois High School Football Coaches Association.

“It’s really an honor,” Gensler said. “I want to thank all of my teammates, my coaches, my family and anyone else who helped me along the way. I’m grateful for the opportunity.”

Gensler finished the season as Rochelle’s leading rusher, totaling 925 yards and 20 touchdowns while adding five receptions for 43 yards and two touchdowns. Gensler shined in Rochelle’s playoff win against Chicago (Payton), recording 176 rushing yards and four touchdowns.

“I thought I developed more leadership this season,” Gensler said. “I thought I blocked better and ran harder this season as well. Defensively, Junior Garrett Gensler was named to the IHSFCA 5A All-State First Team this season. Gensler totaled 968 yards and 22 touchdowns offensively while recording 38 tackles defensively. The Rochelle Hub varsity football team finished 8-3 overall this season.

I thought I showed more leadership and I communicated more with my guys up front. I thought I had a higher motor this season.” Gensler ran for a season-high five touchdowns in Rochelle’s 43-21 win over Kaneland after opening the season with four touchdowns in a 60-22 victory against Woodstock. Defensively, Gensler tied for the team lead with 38 tackles at inside linebacker this fall. Gensler is one of three junior starting linebackers eligible to return to the Rochelle defense next season. “I have high expectations for next year,” Gensler said. “We have a lot of key players coming back and we’re losing some important leaders who I really love. I’m hoping we can win the conference and make a solid run in the playoffs next year. I’m trying to get faster and stronger and improve myself every day. I also want to work on being a better leader for our team.”

Defense fuels Lady Hub victory over Eastland

Rochelle edges defending IHSA 1A state champs with 56-53 win

BY RUSSELL HODGES
SPORTS EDITOR

FORRESTON — Rochelle’s full-court defense created all sorts of issues for Eastland on Thursday, when the Lady Hub varsity basketball team tipped off the Forreston Thanksgiving Tournament against the defending IHSA 1A State Championship-winning Lady Cougars.

Looking for a bounce-back win after suffering a tough season-opening loss against Rockford Guilford on Tuesday, Rochelle build up an early lead over Eastland, with sophomore Alivia Henkel scoring a team-high 23 points as the Lady Hubs held off the Lady Cougars 56-53. Senior Zoey Tabor added 10 points and junior Torrin Nantz totaled nine points for Rochelle (1-1).

“We’re ecstatic about this win,” Tabor said. “We worked together and we played our defense. We started strong and we continued to play hard throughout the whole game. I’m really proud of our team. This was our first game running a full-court press and we hadn’t done that before, but we executed it well and we want to be a top-of-the-line team defensively.”

Eastland’s guards struggled to handle Rochelle’s full-court pressure in the first half, committing several turnovers that allowed the Lady Hubs to score transition layups and convert easy shots under the rim. Rochelle led 13-8 after the first quarter before six Lady Hubs players scored points in the second quarter, with Henkel sinking three shots to lead the offense.

“We played a great game tonight and it feels really good,” Henkel said. “We had a really good practice yesterday and we worked a lot on our defense. Losing on our home court hit us hard and we wanted to come back strong. We worked on executing our plays better and we did as much as we could to improve our shots. I think this win boosts our confidence a lot.”

GIRLS: Lady Hubs knock off defending IHSA 1A state champions

The Lady Cougars adjusted to Rochelle's defense in the third quarter, using quick cross-court passes to get the ball underneath the basket to forwards Quinc Haverland and Addison Burkholder, who teamed up for 32 points to lead the Eastland offense. The Lady Cougars cut the Rochelle lead to seven points, 43-36, after three quarters before clawing their way to within one point of tying the game with roughly four minutes remaining in the fourth quarter.

But it was Henkel who stepped up with high-effort plays for the Lady Hubs, grabbing multiple offensive rebounds and converting key free throws down the stretch to preserve the Rochelle lead. Despite Eastland earning the double bonus and Rochelle losing three senior starters (Josie Lundquist, Zoey Tabor and Lucy Bunger) to foul-outs, the Lady Hub defense forced enough turnovers and jump balls to ultimately swing the game in favor of the purple and white.

"Our main focus offensively was to run our plays and do our jobs," Tabor said. "We didn't want to focus on what the other team was doing. I thought we played well but there's always room for improvement. Our mentality coming in was that we needed to forget about Tuesday's game, come in with a different mindset and have confidence in ourselves and the team."

Hubs roll to win over Kaneland

BY RUSSELL HODGES
SPORTS EDITOR

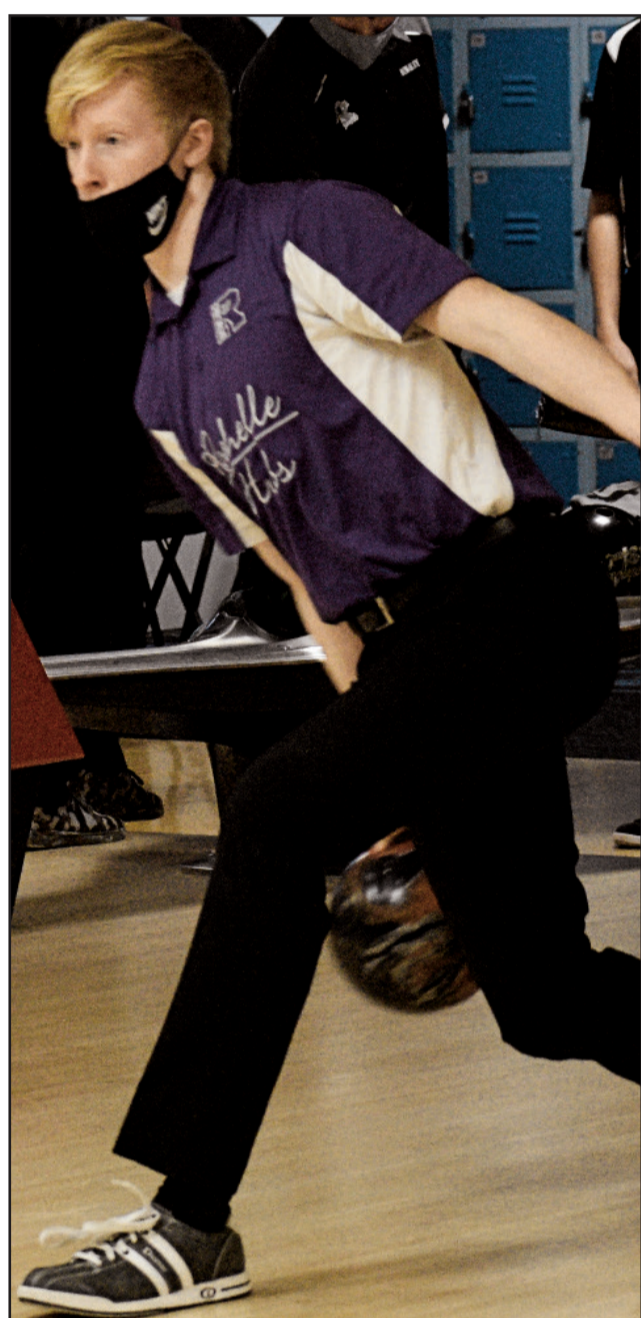

ROCHELLE — The Rochelle Hub varsity bowling team struck down the Kaneland Knights on Thursday, winning 2,722-2,543 and ending a four-match losing streak. Senior Devansh Patel rolled a team-high 534 series for the Hubs (1-4), while junior Evin Odle added a 495 series.

"It felt really good to get our first win and I think it shows everyone on our team that we can win," Odle said. "We're hoping that we can see some more wins in the future. I think our team's definitely capable of making the sectional and state meets if we try our hardest."

Rochelle opened the match with a 965-816 victory in the first game. Sophomore Christian Thorne stepped up with 192 to lead the Hubs, while Odle followed with 184. Kaneland fired back with an 863-832 win in the second game behind 200 from Corbin Vines and 179 from Nick Casey. Patel rolled 180 to anchor the Hubs, who still held the series lead after two games.

by Tony Rizzo

HOLLYWOOD — “The Theory of Everything” Oscar-winner Eddie Redmayne has completed “Fantastic Beasts: The Secrets of Dumbledore,” with Mads Mikkelsen and Jude Law, due April 15. He’s currently shooting Netflix’s “The Good Nurse,” with Jessica Chastain, about a caregiver tied to the deaths of hundreds of patients. Redmayne next will hit London’s theater district as “The Emcee” in “Cabaret.” His casting set off a storm of protests because a heterosexual man will be playing a traditionally gay role.

The original master of ceremonies on Broadway and in the 1972 film was Joel Grey (married to Jo Wilder from 1958 to 1982, they had two children, including “Dirty Dancing” star Jennifer Grey). But at the time of Broadway’s “Cabaret,” he wasn’t officially “out” as a gay man. The character of The Emcee, while flamboyant, only appears in musical numbers, including “Two Ladies (And I’m The Only Man),” with no back story about being gay. So why the fuss about Redmayne as The Emcee?

Among straight actors who’ve won Oscars for “playing gay” are Tom Hanks (“Philadelphia”), Hilary Swank (“Boys Don’t Cry”), Charlize Theron (“Monster”), Philip Seymour Hoffman (“Capote”) and Sean Penn (“Milk”). Many of these films would never have been made or been successful without the special talents of these artists. Eddie Redmayne playing The Emcee in “Cabaret” will bring in a huge audience who’ll flock to see his interpretation of the role. There will be many people who otherwise would never have been exposed to the horrors that existed in Nazi Germany at the core and message of “Cabaret.”

Michael Caine announced he’d retire after his last film, “Best Sellers” (released Sept. 17). For decades, British actors have announced their retirements when there weren’t any work offers, then when offers came,

Depositphotos

they conveniently came out of retirement. After two Oscars and 136 films, Michael Caine is NOT retiring. He got what he wanted ... offers of work.

In 1984, I was hired by disaster film producer Irwin Allen (“Poseidon Adventure,” “The Towering Inferno”) to photograph (for him) a Dean Martin-style roast with some of the greatest comics: Milton Berle, Bob Newhart, Red Buttons, George Burns, Danny Thomas, Rowan & Martin, Steve Allen and Sid Caesar. They all roasted Caine, giving him tips on how to be funny prior to filming “Blame It on Rio.” It turned out to be a disaster movie, and not by Irwin Allen. The critics called the film “anything but funny” and it bombed.

I remember a highlight of the night was Oscar-winner Red Buttons side-splitting classic routine about “famous people who never got a dinner”: “Nero fiddled while Rome burned, and HE never got a dinner.” They all toasted Caine by saying, “Now YOU know what it’s all about, Alfie!” But obviously, he didn’t!

Rochelle sealed its first victory of the season with a 925-864 victory in the third game. Odle and Patel paced the Hubs with respective scores of 191 and 189, while senior Sergio Guevara totaled a series-best 186. Vines recorded 232 to finish with a match-best 573 series.

"We have some good bowlers this year," Odle said. "Christian has bowled really well in his first year with the team and I think that if we continue listening to our coach [Jim Lyles] and working our hardest during practice, we can definitely accomplish our goals this season."

Devansh Patel led the Hubs with a 463 series and 170 high game, while junior Evin Odle added a 456 series with a high score of 175.

Huskies score overtime victory against Buffalo

Team clinches share of MAC West title for first time since 2018

BUFFALO—The Northern Illinois University football team claimed its eighth Mid-American Conference West Division title in the last 12 years, and first since 2018, in dramatic fashion with a 33-27 overtime victory over the Buffalo Bulls at UB Stadium Wednesday night.

“It’s obviously a great win,” NIU head coach Thomas Hammock said. “Our kids battled for four quarters and in overtime, but we expected to win. They went out there and got it done. I couldn’t be prouder of them. I couldn’t be prouder of our coaching staff for staying committed to the process of building this thing back the right way.”

After NIU (8-3, 6-1 MAC) recovered a Buffalo (4-7, 2-5 MAC) fumble at the goal line on the Bulls’ opening possession in overtime, running back Clint Ratkovich, burst through the line on the Huskies’ first play on offense and took it 25 yards to the endzone to seal the game and division for NIU.

With the game tied 27-27 following a 55-yard field by Buffalo’s Alex McNulty 1:10 left to play in the game, the Huskies looked for a repeat of a week ago and attempted to drive the field for a game-winning score.

The Huskies drove all the way down to the Buffalo 20-yard line and John Richardson attempted a 38-yard field goal attempt into a strong wind that both teams had to contend with all night. However, Richardson’s kick was blown left as time expired forcing overtime.

NIU won the toss and elected to play on defense. Buffalo drove down to the NIU 2-yard line in seven plays. The Bulls then called a timeout before their third and goal play. Buffalo quarterback Matt Myers, who was line up in shotgun formation, mishandled the snap, and defensive tackle Demond Taylor fell on the ball to stop the Bulls’ scoring threat and turn it over to the Huskie offense. It was Buffalo’s only turnover of the game and one of two lost fumbles on the night.

“It seemed like the ball was on the ground for 25 seconds,” Hammock said. “We were very fortunate to get on top of it. Obviously, on third down if they would’ve fallen on it, it would’ve been a touchdown. How about our defensive linemen being alert?”

While there were only two, turnovers played a big role in Wednesday’s outcome.

After Ratkovich gave NIU a 24-10 lead with 7:37 left in the period, the Huskie defense forced a Bulls punt on Buffalo’s ensuing drive and gave NIU the ball at its own 35-yard line. Buffalo cashed in a Huskie turnover on NIU’s fourth possession in the third quarter.

After a run for no gain and an incomplete pass, Buffalo defensive end Eric Black forced a fumble by Rocky Lombardi on sack of the Huskie QB. Black recovered the ball on the NIU 28-yard line. Tailback Ron Cook took the ball in two plays later from 22 yards to cut the Huskie lead in half, 24-17 with 3:06 left in the third. Cook tied the game, 24-24, when he scored on a 13-yard touchdown pass from Myers with 12:22 left in regulation.

NIU responded with a 14-play, 66-yard drive that chewed up 7:24 off the clock and ended with a 27-yard field goal by Richardson to give the Huskies a 27-24 advantage with 4:58 left in the fourth.

Buffalo opened up a 10-3 lead following a 32-yard field goal by McNulty and a one-yard touchdown run by McDuffie. Sandwiched in between the Buffalo scores was a 30-yard field goal by Richardson.

NIU responded quickly, tying the game at 10 on a 75-yard end around run by wide receiver Trayvon Rudolph. Rudolph led the Huskies in rushing with 94 yards on three carries.
