City officials provide daycare update

‘It’s definitely something we spend a lot of time on’

BY JEFF HELFRICH
MANAGING EDITOR

ROCHELLE — City officials are still endeavoring to help get a daycare facility back in town after Kishwaukee Family YMCA Child Care Center at 1010 N. 15th St. closed last year, Rochelle City Manager Jeff Fiegenschuh said.

Early in the summer, Rochelle Mayor John Bearrows said track was being laid to open a daycare run by an outside operator at the recently-closed May School with the help of the elementary school district, but Fiegenschuh said last month that that option may be off the table.

Recent talks have involved the city helping to create a 501c3 nonprofit due to high costs of starting a for profit daycare, Fiegenschuh said.

“It’s a huge issue for our employers in the community and more importantly for people in our community who have kids,” Fiegenschuh said. “And the closure of that daycare center directly impacted some of our employees, so I know first hand its impact. We’re working hard to try to find a solution.”

Fiegenschuh said last week that he believes it is the city’s job to help find a way to solve the daycare problem. But he does not want the city running the daycare.

“And we’ve been at the forefront,” Fiegenschuh said. “It’s been a frustrating process because every time we think we have a solution, there’s another roadblock.”

Chef Amadeus visits the ‘Hub City’

‘Extreme Chef’ winner spends week dining at local restaurants

BY JEFF HELFRICH
MANAGING EDITOR

ROCHELLE — Chef Amadeus spent his week in Rochelle eating at local restaurants like The Rack, Sunrise Family Restaurant and The Iron Skillet.

The professional chef and former winner of The Food Network’s “Extreme Chef: Mexican Show-down” was in town to cook at the Cooks & Carpenters fundraiser at The Kitchen Table with Habitat For Humanity of Ogle County. He also helped with The Kitchen Table’s usual Tuesday and Thursday dinners.

“I like small towns and I like to put down roots in every community I’m in,” Amadeus said. “If I come back, I feel like a local. That’s why I always eat local in different cities. I could’ve gone across the street to McDonalds. It’s just spending time in the community so people see me and know who I am. I’m here to help out. I’m here to give back, not

Chef Amadeus met

Carolyn Brown of The Kitchen Table five or six years ago when he was guest speaker at a seminar 90 percent of community cafes are in small towns.

RTHS begins weekly testing of unvaccinated staff

District 212 Superintendent Harper: 'It went off without a hitch'

BY JEFF HELFRICH
MANAGING EDITOR

ROCHELLE — At Monday's Rochelle Township High School district board meeting Superintendent Jason Harper said that Monday was the first day of testing unvaccinated staff on-site to comply with Gov. JB Pritzker's mandate that was made in August. Harper said at last week's elementary district board meeting that between both districts there are 85-90 staff members that are not two weeks out from their second vaccine shot that will require weekly testing. The districts have entered into a program with Sauk Valley Community College that sees staff members take saliva tests on site and receive the results later in the day. Harper said the districts originally planned on using rapid tests they had on hand for the staff testing, but were told that those were not allowed by health officials. "There's been a lot of stops and starts in this process collaborating and working with how we're going to implement this mandate," Harper said. "Working with the Ogle County Health Department, trying to follow guidance and legalities and things of that nature. Today it went off without a hitch. No issues there. This is how we'll proceed for the immediate future until we get more clarification on using rapid tests." During his school reopening report, Harper said he didn't have anything new for the board pertaining to things like masks in schools that have been discussed since July. During the public comment portion, a few community members did speak out against the mask mandate and asked for the school board to push back against it. Board President Tom Huddleston addressed those that spoke after public comment closed. "You're not unheard," Huddleston said. "We hear you. We have to make decisions on behalf of the whole district. It's a very difficult time and obviously everybody is trying to adapt to the rules which is difficult to do as well. As a general rule, we pretty much need to follow what the state mandates are. And we're doing that at this time. It doesn't mean it's going to happen forever and I think we're on the tail end of this."

Lifeworks pumpkin festival scheduled for Oct. 17

ROCHELLE — Lifeworks Photography Studio will be hosting its second annual Family Pumpkin Festival at its home studio on Sunday, Oct. 17. Lifeworks is inviting 150 families to come carve one jack-o-lantern pumpkin for each family that will be put on display for the fall Halloween season in front of the studio. Owners Daniel & Stephanie Williams decided they wanted to do a family-friendly event as an appreciation to their community and their clients while helping celebrate the fall season. "Halloween is one of my favorite holidays," Daniel said. "I've always tried to decorate and celebrate as much as I can and thought it would be a lot of fun to invite our friends and clients to come help celebrate with us." The Williams' will be providing the pumpkins and the carving tools and tables for free to any family who signs up. Families are welcome to bring their own tools too. The Williams' will also be providing a big outdoor tent this year in case the weather doesn't cooperate. Hicks BBQ will be at the event. The Williams' will be providing complimentary food to all the families who participate. The Williams' will also have a giant obstacle course bounce house for kids to play too. After you finish carving your pumpkin, stick around for a fun afternoon. Families and the community are invited to come back around dusk when all of the jack-o-lanterns will be displayed and lit in front of the studio. The pumpkins will be lit up each Friday, Saturday and Sunday until Nov. 1. Families are encouraged to drive out, take pictures and check out the display. The event is completely free for any families that sign up. All reservations for a time slot are booked on a first come, first serve basis. Anyone interested in booking a time slot can call the studio at 815-561-7131, by messaging the Williams on Facebook from the Lifeworks Photography Studio fan page or by emailing them at photo@lifeworksimaging.com. A box for donations will be placed toward the road. All donations from this event will benefit the Daniel & Stephanie Williams Fund for the Arts. The Daniel & Stephanie Williams Fund for the Arts was established with the Rochelle Area Community Foundation. The donor advised fund is aimed at encouraging permanent art installations in the Rochelle area.

Park board approves Spring Lake expenditures

Executive director Ohlinger reflects on Grand Celebration at The REC

BY JEFF HELFRICH
MANAGING EDITOR

ROCHELLE — The Flagg-Rochelle Community Park District board unanimously approved two expenditures for Spring Lake Pool at its Monday meeting.

The first expenditure was replacement pumps and a control panel for Spring Lake's lift station, which is the original from 1980. This year, staff had issues with the lift station being able to keep up while trying to backwash. The control panel will be moved outside next to the lift station where it can be seen better. The board accepted a bid from Anderson Plumbing for the work in the amount of $21,641. The project will be done in the spring.

The board also approved $17,750 to Nova Painting & Decorating for resurfacing of the water slide. As part of the bid, work will also be done on the rock climbing wall at the pool.

Superintendent of Parks and Facilities Austin Stolte said that the pool's heater will need to be replaced due to a small fire that happened towards the end of the season. The park district is looking at replacing it with 2-3 smaller heaters so it wouldn't be without a heater completely during future issues.

Stolte also said the park district recently received information on how to properly winterize the new splash pad and will be looking at a water softener and filter to protect the concrete on the splash pad from the effects of iron in the city's water.

Executive Director Jackee Ohlinger said Spring Lake overperformed this year financially and attributed that to the hot summer.

"Overall, we're looking at a $30,000 loss," Ohlinger said. "We've always known it's not a moneymaker for us, but it is a huge benefit to the community and we budgeted for a $70,000 loss, which is usually about where we see it. I'm very happy with where we are at that facility."

Ohlinger also said the use of the Spring Lake Marina and park shelters were up from last year by 53 percent, which she attributed to people wanting to gather outdoors due to the pandemic.

Lake Sule

The board voted unanimously to change its rules at Lake Sule to no longer read that only motors under 10 horsepower are allowed. Now, the ordinance simply reads that it's a no wake zone. The move was made because not many motors under 10 horsepower are made anymore and no wake reduces shoreline wave action. Lake Sule is around 60 acres.

The REC

Ohlinger said the recent Grand Celebration at The REC was a positive experience for the park district and it plans to do other events like that in the future.

The park district is also working to finalize an agreement with the Comfort Inn hotel for its guests to use the facility. The closure of Hickory Grove next door to the facility left the hotel without a pool on site.

Recreation Supervisor Scott Stevenstalked during his report about the park district taking on the Rochelle Youth Basketball Association this fall and winter. Girls will start in October and boys will start in January. The league will be renamed The REC Basketball League.

"We want to make it our own and carry the same traditions," Stevens said. "I see it being a very productive thing and people being happy with it. It's a good thing we're able to bring that into The REC this year."

Helms Field

Stolte said the park district is looking at replacing the roof on the locker rooms and bathroom at Helms Field. He said it's in "dire need" of repair and is leaking. Rochelle Junior Tackle uses those buildings for storage.

Ohlinger said the cost of the project has been quoted in the past at $50,000 and would likely be higher now. The track at Helms Field is also on the park district's capital projects list.

The next park board meeting will take place on Monday, Oct. 18.

Rochelle Municipal Utilities offering after-hours appointments

ROCHELLE — Rochelle Municipal Utilities will offer two evenings for after-hours appointments where customers can learn more about their bills or have questions answered.

want to be accessible to everyone."

Customers are invited to schedule a 20-minute appointment with the city manager and customer service supervisor on Tuesday, Oct. 12 between 4-6 p.m. or Wednesday, Oct. 13 between 5-7 p.m. at City Hall in Rochelle.

City staff will generate additional reports on customer usage for each appointment. Appointments must be scheduled in advance by contacting Jenny Thompson at jthompson@rochelleil.us or 815-561-2006.

Why Self-Control is the Key to Freedom

WE all have hopes and dreams for our lives—whether it’s to buy a house, get in shape physically, have success at our job, grow spiritually, or any other goal that’s in our heart.

However, if we want to make progress in life, it’s going to require self-control. I realize this isn’t a very popular topic, but self-control is one of the best friends we can ever have because it brings us freedom.

What does it really mean to be free? Many people think it means you should be able to do what you want, when you want, and never have to suffer any of the consequences. But God’s Word tells us that we reap what we sow (see Galatians 6:7).

Sure, we can choose to do what we want; however, every choice we make is a seed that will produce a harvest in our lives—either for good or bad.

Freedom is not simply the liberty to do whatever we want. True freedom is having the ability and discipline not to do something if it means we will be happier with the results in the long run.

Self-control is one of the best gifts God has given us. It helps us say yes to what we truly want to say yes to...and it helps us say no when we want to say no.

For instance, my husband, Dave, and I ate at a restaurant that makes some of the best lobster bisque soup I have ever tasted; it’s so smooth and creamy, and it has just the right amount of flavor. I instantly began thinking about going back the next day.

The truth is I could choose to eat that soup every night, but I know my body and what I need to do to maintain my weight. And while I want the soup, I want to stay in shape and remain healthy even more.

Galatians 5:17 says, “For the flesh desires what is contrary to the Spirit, and the Spirit what is contrary to the flesh. They are in conflict with each other...” (NIV).

The “flesh” represents the desires and cravings of our body and soul, apart from the Holy Spirit. Many times our flesh wants something that the Holy Spirit says is not good for us; however, as we learn to follow the direction of the Holy Spirit, that is when we become truly free.

Galatians 5:16 says if you “walk by the Spirit, and you will not gratify the desires of the flesh” (NIV).

The Lord wants to help us make wise choices. I often say that wisdom is doing now what you will be happy with later. Even if a good decision isn’t comfortable for our flesh in the moment, it will produce good results later on.

God has already provided everything we need to have a great life, but it’s up to us to walk it out—and we do that by making good choices (2 Peter 1:3). Good decisions produce good results.

We make choices every day: how we think, what we’re going to say, what attitude we take... We can choose to forgive someone when they don’t treat us the way they should. Or we can choose to say something kind to someone when everything in us wants to say something mean.

Always remember, when you choose to do what is right—especially when you don’t feel like it—that is when you will see good results!

I love 1 Corinthians 6:12. It says, “‘I have the right to do anything,’ you say—but not everything is beneficial. ‘I have the right to do anything’—but I will not be mastered by anything” (NIV).

This scripture is saying we can choose to do whatever we want, but not everything is good for us. So, when we feel tempted by something that isn’t good for us, we need to stop and think, If I do this now, how will it affect me later on?

I am so glad that I’m no longer controlled by a cookie or an overwhelming desire to have to buy every new outfit I see at the shopping mall. Operating in self-control and choosing to do what I really want is true freedom.

Wherever you are in life right now, God has a great plan for your future. And He not only wants to lead you and show you what to do, but He also wants to give you the grace to do it!

Ask the Holy Spirit for the guidance and strength to make good choices, then begin making decisions today that you will be happy with tomorrow.

As you do, you’ll be amazed at the results... and you will experience the wonderful freedom of self-control.

RYBA passes the torch

FOR many years Rochelle has been home to a variety of positive groups and programs that support the development of our children. In any place you look there are people willing to share their passion, effort and time in order to create a positive experience for the youth of the community.

One shining example of this type of selfless giving has been Rochelle Youth Basketball Association (RYBA). If you have had a child grow up in the Rochelle community, the chances are that you have had some experience with this program during your time here.

RYBA has been a staple of the youth sports community since it was established by Gene Kessen in 1978. Gene dedicated well over 30 years of coaching and aimed to create a positive environment for youth to refine the skills that they would utilize as they grew into adults.

If you have had any experience with RYBA in last 25 years, it is also likely that you have met Henry Bunger along the way. Henry has been involved with RYBA since 1995 and running the operations since 1998. It would not be uncommon to find Henry outside of Central School at 5 a.m. after a snowfall the night before so that the children could enjoy another week of learning to play the game of basketball.

"The RYBA program is about getting kids playing the game at an early age," Bunger said. RYBA has succeeded in its tenure to not only produce improvement in physical skill sets but also to serve as the bedrock for youth to grow socially amongst their peers and coaches. There have traditionally been two age groups of players that move through RYBA's system. The third and fourth grade league is focused on establishing a love for the sport and an understanding of the fundamentals. The fifth and sixth grade league "was still fundamentals, but added more of the competitive side as well", Bunger said.

Beginning this year with the Rochelle Park District, RYBA will take on a new name. REC Basketball will continue this well-established tradition with the same passion and effort that RYBA's past leaders have invested into this league to make it what it has become.

With the addition of The REC to the Rochelle community, Rochelle Park District will be able to provide a centralized location for practices and games that take place under the supervision of dedicated coaches and administrators.

Players will have one team practice a week as well as one combined practice that includes all players and coaches in their respective age group. The focus of combined practices will be to provide players with a well-rounded experience with a variety of coaches and teaching methods. During individual practices, youth will become acquainted with team play and gain a more personal bond with their specific teammates and coach.

League administrators work directly with the coaching staff of Rochelle Middle School and Rochelle Township High School in order to produce a foundation that allows our young athletes to transition seamlessly to the next level.

Girls' REC Basketball League will begin in a few short weeks with the first practice being on Oct. 14 and the first game on Oct. 23. The girls' league will continue on until the middle of December with games every Saturday morning. The Boys' REC Basketball League will begin shortly after the first of the year and continue through early March.

Registration is currently open for Girls REC league at the Rochelle Park District website (www.rochelleparkdistrict.org) or by phone (815) 562-7813.

Who is 'James Doe'

So who is "James Doe?"

That's the pseudonym assigned to a man who accused former U.S. Speaker of the House Dennis Hastert of sexual assault. The man alleges that when he was in school decades ago, Hastert, then a wrestling coach, molested him.

More than 30 years later, in 2010, when Hastert was raking in the dough as a lobbyist, Doe threatened to publicly expose the abuse he says he suffered unless Hastert paid him hush money.

The two men reached a verbal agreement that the former politician would dish out $3.5 million in exchange for Doe's silence.

I can empathize with Doe's pain. When I was 12, a man sexually assaulted me on my family's farm. More than 40 years later, I still bear psychological scars. And I have some familiarity with the deep-seated rage Doe must feel.

I'm glad James Doe was financially compensated for some of the pain Hastert inflicted on him.

But is shaking someone down for hush money ever an honorable action?

He agreed to stay quiet about a man who was once second in line to the presidency. The paid silence is troubling. Hastert made cash payments to Doe amounting to $1.7 million.

Each cash withdrawal was beneath the $10,000 threshold that banks are required to report to the federal government. Nonetheless, the feds found out, learned it was hush money and discovered at least three other victims of Hastert's besides Doe.

The statute of limitations for the sex crimes had long since passed. But prosecutors were able to charge the once powerful politician with a financial crime related to how he structured the bank withdrawals.

Hastert admitted to "mistreating" Doe and three others and pleaded guilty to the financial wrongdoing. A federal judge sentenced him to 15 months in prison.

But now Doe is suing Hastert for $1.8 million - the outstanding balance in hush money that the Illinois Republican agreed to pay the man in 2010. The case was supposed to go to trial September 20. But a tentative, confidential settlement has been reached.

Kendall County Chief Judge Robert Pilmer ruled if the case went to trial, Doe would be stripped of his pseudonym and publicly identified. This may have created an incentive for reaching a settlement ahead of time.

That settlement came as a surprise. I was planning to travel to Yorkville to watch the beginning of the trial and learn the identity of the accuser.

I wanted to get a sense for his motivations and, to be honest, who he is as a human being. Is he a good person or a bad one?

"I don't think we should think of him as either a good guy or a bad guy," Carrie Ward, CEO of the Illinois Coalition Against Sexual Assault, said. "He's a sexual assault survivor trying to come to terms the best way he knows how."

Ward added it is often harder for male victims to come forward because society is less likely to believe them.

"People think a man should have been able to fight someone off and that they really can't be victimized. But, of course, that isn't true," she said.

But one of Hastert's victims, Scott Cross, did come forward three years ago and spoke publicly about being victimized by his wrestling coach. He's the brother of former Illinois House GOP Leader Tom Cross.

Tom Cross, unaware of his brother's experience with Hastert, became a protégé of the future U.S. Speaker of the House.

Scott Cross has successfully lobbied the Illinois General Assembly to eliminate the statute of limitations for sexual abuse cases.

NBC News at the time reported him saying that he's tormented that he didn't speak out against Hastert earlier. "The guilt kills me, that I could have perhaps saved other victims," he said.

But his work to get the law changed has served as some consolation, he said.

"I just hope this gives an outlet for other victims to feel like they should come forward no matter how long they have waited," he said at the time. "I just felt it was the right thing to do."

Cross is not receiving money from his former coach while Doe is. That's hardly fair.

Then again, Cross used his experience to change the law and protect others. Perhaps, his compensation is the satisfaction of knowing he did the right thing.

Have a great autumn weekend

FALL seems to have made a sudden, and welcome, appearance.

Just days ago the temperatures were in the 80s and 90s but now we are down in the 60s. It does feel good.

The other change is in the fields.

It seems just yesterday the beans and corn were green and now most fields are brown. I have seen farmers out picking both corn and beans. It's a time of year we need to be extra careful on country roads because there are slow moving tractors and trucks going from one field to another. Be alert.

Seebach's pumpkin patch is loaded with pumpkins in Flagg Center, as well as hay bales and corn stalks. Great for fall decorating.

And those pesky Asian beetles seem to be popping up again. These are the ones that look like ladybugs, but they are no ladies! They bite and they stink. I was told that they become a nuisance when soybeans are harvested. But I don't have a soy bean field anywhere near my house, and here they are.

I think it is time for me to get some mums, which will be my weekend project.

Shattered tree

The shattered tree from the 2015 tornado that housed a shrine to the Blessed Virgin Mary on Skare Road at Skare Park has been removed. It was a matter of time because the tree was rotting away.

Also missing is whatever was being built on the southeast corner of IL 64 and Illinois Route 251.

It has been under construction for a while, but now there are just piles of building material.

Hall of Fame

Congratulations to this year's RTHS Athletic Hall of Fame inductees. Tom McDermott, Flagg Township Museum historian and city council member, has mentioned William May several times in past conversations and wondered why he wasn't in the Hall. Mr. May was the first state champion in any sport at RTHS, winning the 50 yard dash title in the 1904-5 track season. He also broke the world record. I'm glad Tom brought the man's accomplishments to light. Sometimes in 100 years people get passed over and forgotten. Now Mr. May will always have a place in RTHS sports.

Lantern fly

Ever hear of a spotted lantern fly? Natives to Asia, they have appeared in the United States, as far west as Indiana.

They are pretty, but harmful to oaks and other native trees. Several agencies are recommending killing the bugs on sight to prevent their spread.

Workers put up a new sign for R.P. Home & Harvest, formally known as Stock+Field, located off Illinois Route 251 in Rochelle. The business was rebranded as R.P. Home & Harvest recently.

R.P. Home & Harvest gets new sign

ROCHELLE — R.P. Home & Harvest got its new signs put up Tuesday reflecting the recent name change of the business.

Formerly Stock+Field and Big R, R.P. Lumber Co. announced the rebranding of all 22 of its locations earlier this month. R.P. Lumber acquired the locations this past spring.

“With a new management team in place and the stores open and stabilized, the transition to this permanent brand is the start of the new beginning for these exciting stores and the customers they proudly serve,” a recent R.P. Lumber press release said. By rehiring and committing to the employees at these locations, rebuilding the culture that helped the company thrive in years past, and investing in the products and brands the customers crave, R.P. Home & Harvest has turned the page and will begin growing again.”

DRA hosting trick-or-treating event

Chef Amadeus (middle) visited Rochelle this week, spending time at local restaurants and participating in the Cooks & Carpenters fundraiser at The Kitchen Table. Amadeus has traveled all across the world as a professional, visiting places like Haiti, The Bahamas and Puerto Rico as a guest chef.

CHEF: Amadeus attends fundraiser at The Kitchen Table

“When I found out that all of them were in small towns, I was kind of excited about that,” Amadeus said. “I was excited to go to a small town. When I was having breakfast at Sunrise, I knew I was in a small town when a group of older guys got up and said, ‘See you tomorrow.’ I like that small town feel.”

Amadeus believes The Kitchen Table is “a really great idea.” He said it shows when somebody cares enough to give back to their community. When cooks want to do an internship with Chef Amadeus, the first thing he tells them is that they have to do volunteer work.

He said he admired the way The Kitchen Table prepares its food and said it cooks for people like they’re a part of a family.

“I think every community needs a place like this,” Amadeus said. “This place, they’re feeding the community. Tonight is taco night. Most people take Taco Tuesday for granted. Taco Tuesday here means something totally different. Here, it means, ‘I get to eat something.’ They’re eating because they need to.”

Being a professional chef has taken the Jacksonville, Florida native to Haiti, The Bahamas and Puerto Rico as a guest chef. He’s worked on cruises. He loves his “culinary road trips” in the states to cities in the south and Florida.

“I get to collaborate with other chefs,” Amadeus said. “My thing is,

I like to travel, cook and play golf. If I can get the trifecta, I’m good. How many people can say they played golf in Haiti?”

At Friday’s fundraiser, Chef Amadeus served cowboy pork chops with his own line of spices along with roasted veggies, a baked potato and a dinner roll.

“Sometimes it’s not the money, it’s the journey,”

Amadeus said. “I tell cooks I’d rather build passion cooks than paycheck cooks. Paycheck cooks come in and do just enough not to get fired. A passion cook will show up early and come to work all the time because they don’t know what they’re going to miss.”

RTHS: Homecoming dance to take place outside

"We just have to stick together and thank you for your comments."

Homecoming

RTHS Principal Chris Lewis said that the homecoming dance will be held outside this year to allow students to go without masks. He said "99 percent" of schools around the area are doing the same to allow students to have as normal a night as possible.

"You can enjoy an experience that's somewhat normal," Lewis said. "It's a really cool setup. The student council has put a lot of time into this. We rented a tent in case it rains. It will be in that grass area between the two parking lots. I think the kids are excited. The theme is 'Under the Stars.' This is what everybody in the area is doing to accommodate homecoming.

The homecoming pep rally will also be held outdoors on the football field rather than inside due to COVID-19.

Job fair

Harper gave a report to the board on the job fair held last week in conjunction with the City of Rochelle, Kishwaukee College and local businesses at RTHS. Usually the school puts on its own job fair in the spring.

"I think it was a really solid event considering some of the mitigation strategies and some of the impacting variables and factors happening in our community and everywhere," Harper said. "I think it timed up well for businesses to have the opportunity to reach the public. It was well publicized. I don't know what will come of this event in the spring. We may do it again then on a smaller or larger scale."

Employment

The board unanimously approved the hiring of nine employees including Vanessa Guzman as a health office aide COVID-19 testing lead.

Also hired were Marisol Belmonte (paraprofessional/office assistant as needed), Mark Bratko (special events custodian), Reed Dalen (custodian/maintenance), Brandon Kantz (FLEX program part-time), Dennis Mensching (bus driver), Dale Lawhorn (volunteer marching band), Phil Orlikowski (volunteer marching band) and Jillian Thompson (volunteer marching band color guard).

Buses

The board unanimously approved an item that will allow the district to let bids to lease nine school buses, which include six 77-passenger buses, one 59+2 wheelchair bus, one 38+2 midsize wheelchair bus and one 18+1 mini bus. It also will let bids to lease five activity Hub buses. Bid recommendations will be brought before the board for review and approval.

"Every three years we have a large lease and purchasing overhaul," Harper said. "That's the time we're at right now. Right now our hope is to get these bids out early. Typically we go out to bid in December, January or February. We've been told by vendors to get on this earlier in the cycle so we don't get behind any supply chain issues."

Sub rates

The board unanimously approved raising the daily pay rate for substitute teachers from $85 to $105.

Principal Chris Lewis provides an update on Homecoming Week during the RTHS board meeting.

The move puts the district inline with the approaching $15 per hour minimum wage requirement and other districts in the area. "We're trying to get more competitive, not only with other starting wages in our community, but also with what other school districts are paying," Harper said. "We feel like it puts us in the right competitive space."

DAYCARE: City officials evaluating current options

“It wasn’t our daycare center. And as far as I know, the city has never given money to the daycare center. It was always self-sufficient through grants and community donations. Maybe the city helped establish it way back in the day, but we weren’t subsidizing it on an annual basis.”

There are a lot of costs involved with getting a building and getting a daycare center up and running, Fiegenschuh said. After looking at the books from some daycare centers, he said they don’t often make a lot of money and that daycares are more services than profit centers.

Getting a daycare center back in town is something that city staff “spends a lot of time on,” Fiegenschuh said.

“When that place closed, Mayor Bearrows had it right on his radar and he said we have to find a way to get it back open,” Fiegenschuh said. “And I can’t speak for the entire council, but I think it would say the same thing, we need that in our community. We just don’t want to run it.”

Fiegenschuh said right now there is “a ton of” money available through federal COVID-19 funds available to help daycares which could create “even more opportunity.”

“But again, we have to find somebody to run the thing,” Fiegenschuh said. “That’s been difficult. That’s why you want to make sure you’re very diligent and you do it the right way and you don’t set something up that’s destined to fail. Because that doesn’t serve anybody.”

The need for the daycare reaches further than Rochelle residents and those that live out of town and work here would use it, Fiegenschuh said. Based on what he’s seen, he believes

May School was considered earlier this summer to be an option for a daycare center in Rochelle. The facility may be off the table as city officials continue to evaluate options for daycare.

a daycare would fill up “pretty quickly.”

The city manager’s biggest concern with a future daycare facility in town is the possibility of another state budget impasse that could tie up funds that reimburse places like daycare centers that are providing social services. That happened from 2015-2017.

The continued efforts to get a facility back in town may require a fundraising effort, Fiegenschuh said.

“There are a lot of people who want it and need it,” Fiegenschuh said. “And if we needed to do a fundraiser, I would hope some of those people would be right there helping us go out and raise funds for it. Because it’s going to be a community effort to get this thing done.”

Kissack evaluates progress as varsity team reaches halfway point of season

ROCHELLE — Friday evening will look a lot different for the Rochelle Hub varsity football team. With news coming down Thursday afternoon that Harvard would have to forfeit its Interstate 8/Kishwaukee River Conference Blue Division matchup with the Hubs due to a COVID-19 situation, Rochelle will receive a forfeit victory rather than take the field against the Hornets. The disappointing news arrived as the Hubs effectively reached the halfway point of the 2021 season. Now 3-2 overall and 2-1 in the conference after the forfeit from Harvard, head coach Kyle Kissack and the Hubs will look to capitalize on their remaining time this week in order to prepare for a home matchup next Friday against Marengo, who also has three wins so far.

“It’s a bad deal for Rochelle and it’s a bad deal for Harvard,” Kissack said. “It’s unfortunate but it’s the environment that we’re living in right now. These instances can come up out of nowhere and I think this will be a good learning experience for our kids in that we have to ensure we’re taking care of our business, staying healthy and being thoughtful of the situations we’re putting ourselves in. We have to continue to protect ourselves, especially because we’re transitioning into Homecoming Week and there will be a lot of activities happening in town.”

Rochelle arrives at the halfway mark of the season boasting a scoring average of 32.3 points per game on 315 total yards per game. The Hubs are outpacing their opponents 84-59 in first downs earned while totaling only five punts and four turnovers on offense. Junior Garrett Gensler has shined for the Hubs offensively, rushing for 413 yards and seven touchdowns while averaging 7.4 yards per carry. Senior Josh Lloyd has thrown for 120 yards and two touchdowns.

Lady Hubs take marathon match over L-P

Rochelle outlasts Cavaliers in three sets for 22-25, 30-28, 25-15 victory

BY RUSSELL HODGES
SPORTS EDITOR

ROCHELLE — The Rochelle Lady Hub varsity volleyball team overcame a sluggish start against LaSalle-Peru on Tuesday, fighting back from a first-set deficit and outlasting the Cavaliers in a marathon second set before finishing the third set strong to score a 22-25, 30-28, 25-15 win. Junior Isela Vasquez totaled a season-high 26 assists for the Lady Hubs, who improved to 9-9.

Despite entering with a 3-10 record, LaSalle-Peru controlled the match early in the first set, taking advantage of several serve-receive errors from Rochelle to take a 9-2 lead. The Lady Hubs shifted some players around, with junior middle hitter Payton Hale moving to the back row to fortify the defense. Rochelle fought within two points of L-P, with senior Sylvia Hasz providing power on the serve and junior Addie Friestad scoring multiple kills on the outside.

“We definitely struggled last week and we started slow during the first set,” Hasz said. “But we proved that we wanted to win and we didn’t stop fighting. I thought we became much stronger mentally as the match went on. Serve receives are more of a mental game and I thought we were much more focused and we kept more balls up as the match went on.”

After holding off the Lady Hubs in the first set, LaSalle-Peru surged ahead in the second set, capitalizing on multiple service errors from Rochelle to build up a 15-10 advantage. Looking to avoid a fifth consecutive loss, the Lady Hubs leaned on their two strongest hitters in Hasz and Friestad, who delivered a series of kills to bring Rochelle within one point and eventually tie the set after a Cavalier timeout. Hasz and Friestad combined for 19 kills in the victory.

“We definitely started passing the ball better,” Hasz said. “Our passes were all over the place when the match started and we weren’t very consistent, but I thought our passing improved and we were able to run our offense more effectively as the match went on.”

The Lady Hubs continued pressuring the Cavaliers with their newfound momentum during the third set, taking an 8-4 lead and forcing a LaSalle-Peru timeout after a handful of Cavalier errors. Hasz and Friestad touched the ball on nearly every offensive series for the Lady Hubs, who grew their lead to as many as 10 points.

"We needed this win to keep going," Hasz said. "I think this win will give us a spark."

BYRON — Several runners on the Rochelle Hub and Lady Hub cross country teams took home medals from the Byron Invitational on Wednesday. Two Lady Hub athletes finished 16th and 19th overall, respectively. Seniors Luke Orlikowski (20:22), Hayden Smith (20:39), Max Orlikowski (20:59), junior Purevdorj Amujin (22:01) and sophomore Avery Auld (22:20) all medaled in the open race for the Hubs.

"We've met with our seniors and talked about the peaks and valleys of our season thus far," Kissack said. "We've talked about developing more consistency. I think we've played really well for stretches, but there are other times where we haven't played as well as we're capable of... We have a great rotation of backs right now and I think the ball can go to any of those four kids back there. That's been a very bright spot for us and we've been able to move the ball effectively, which has allowed us to utilize some different formations and try new things."

Juniors Trey Taft and Landon DeLille have combined for 452 rushing yards and six touchdowns, with Taft averaging 6.7 yards per carry and DeLille recording 6 yards per carry. Junior Cody Stover-Cullum has 134 rushing yards, three touchdowns and a 5.2 yards-per-carry average. Senior Tanner Lager has been Rochelle's top wide receiver, catching seven passes for 65 yards.

Defensively, Rochelle has allowed an average of 23.8 points and 244 total yards per game. Junior Jaden Cook has emerged as a key playmaker on the defensive line, leading the Hubs with two sacks. Gensler and Taft are Rochelle's leading tacklers with 18 and 17 tackles, respectively. The Hubs will hit the road after hosting Marengo, taking on Kaneland and Plano on Oct. 8 and Oct. 15 before closing out the season with Senior Night against Sandwich on Oct. 22.

"I think we've had some tough matchups and we're young at some key positions," Kissack said. "Those kids will get better every week. Our inside six kids have played really well up to this point and those kids get a lot of work during the week against our offense and our scout team. We need to get better on the back end because we're going to see some teams over the next few weeks that like to throw the ball around. We have some growing to do for sure."

An Advertising Proverb

When Mark Twain was editing a newspaper in Missouri, one of his subscribers wrote in, saying that he had found a spider in his newspaper and wondered whether it was a sign of good or bad luck. Twain's response: "Finding a spider is neither good luck nor bad.
The spider was merely looking over our newspaper to see which merchant was not advertising, so that he could go to that store, spin his web across the door, and lead a life of undisturbed peace ever afterward."
