Rochelle schools previously planned mask optional approach

ROCHELLE—Jason Harper, superintendent of the Rochelle Elementary and Rochelle Township High School districts, said Friday that he will recommend that the school boards comply with Gov. JB Pritzker's Aug. 4 universal mask mandate for K-12 schools for the upcoming school year.

BY JEFF HELFRICH

MANAGING EDITOR

The districts previously planned a mask optional approach to begin this fall. Harper said Pritzker's mask mandate eliminated the authority of school tional plans.

"At this point, the Rochelle Schools remain focused on creating the best conditions for every child to learn and teachers to teach as we return from the pandemic," Harper said in an email. "Using last year as a guide, we will have strategies in place to help our students and staff work through the school day while in a face covering."

Harper said beyond the health concerns inherent to educating students during the pandemic, a choice to not adhere to the governor's masking mandate would put the district at

"Specifically, the district would experience risks associated with increased liability, loss of insurance coverage, loss of recognition as a public school and loss of school funding," Harper said. "Based on all of this, I cannot recommend our schools ignore this man-

comply with governor's mask mandate

Both of last month's school board meetings saw parents and community members fill meeting rooms and voice their opinions against the idea of requiring masks in schools. The Rochelle Elementary School District Board of Education will meet on Tuesday, Aug. 10 at 7 p.m. and the Rochelle Township High School Board of Education will meet on Monday, Aug. 16 at 5:30

"I understand that the issue of masking has been an emotional issue since the start of the pandemic," Harper said. "The news of the governor's mask man-has disappointed some and pleased others. We never know what is to come as the pandemic changes, so going forward we continue to adjust to changing conditions and mandates as quickly as possible. We appreciate our community's ongoing support in getting our students back into our classrooms.'

'It's just been insane this year. It really has'

ROCHELLE — RE/ MAX Associate Jennie McLaughlin recently put a duplex home on the market. It sold four hours

A shortage of homes locally and nationally has had local realtors working around the clock in recent months. Rochelle homes are selling in days instead of months for at or just below asking price.

Local realtors like McLaughlin say there are multiple reasons for the shift in the market. Interest rates are low. New homes are being built less often due to increased building material prices brought on by COVID-19. That same pandemic has homeowners looking for a change of scenery after spending so much time at home.

"Everybody was at home thinking about what they wanted to do and thought, 'Maybe I need a bigger house,"" McLaughlin said. "The main difference is the lack of inventory. It's really hard. Sometimes whenever you go to show a house there ends up being sometimes six offers. The other day I had seven offers. You have to make your highest and best offer. Otherwise, you don't have a chance.'

Weichert Realtors Broker Cathie Dame has sold four homes this year on the same day as they were put on the market. She used to tell clients to lower their price if their house went two months without an offer. Now she gives the same advice after 10 days without an Dame has had her real estate license for 35 years. She's online at least once every hour checking to see if an available home has come up. She's called past clients to see if they want to sell. And most don't want to, because they'd have to find something else of their own for the new higher prices.

"Buyers are just anxious to find a house," Dame said. "I probably have five buyers right now and we can't find a thing. There's just nothing out there that they want that fits their needs. It's just been insane this year. It really has."

John Bearrows of Bearrows Real Estate & Auction Co. said the biggest comment he hears from prospective buyers is the lack of available homes. When he does find a house to sell, he finds some discouraged buyers that have been knocked out of home deals several

He advises people who want to buy to "hang in there" and stick with someone they can trust and hope they can find them a house. Bearrows said the market shift has been seen for the past several months. Things like homes and cars that are purchased with disposable income are all in a shortage right now due to 'everyone' coming out of the pandemic looking to buy after an abnormal year.

"I think we've seen a peak in this or we're at a peak," Bearrows said. "I think we could see another 3-4 months of active market. Should the interest rates change, that could affect it. 3-5 percent now is really tolerable. I paid nine percent for my first house. We haven't seen bad rates for a while."

RMU Utilities Superintendent Adam Lanning, above, attended Tuesday's Creston Village Board meeting to explain the increases. He said after the work done in the next couple of years to the sewer plant, it should be in "very good" shape for the next 20-30 years. Creston's last sewer rate increase was five years ago.

Creston sewer rates increase

ROCHELLE — Sewer rates have increased in Creston and will for the next five years after a recent decision by the Rochelle City Council to fund recent and future improvements to its water reclamation plant that amount $14 million.

Creston and Hillcrest both utilize Rochelle's water treatment plant and are under contract with Rochelle Municipal Utilities and are bound to pay recent rate increases that also impact Rochelle residents.

HOMES: Pandemic doesn't keep market down

McLaughlin said she was worried when the pandemic started that there wouldn't be demand for homes. She thought the market would be in trouble, but was pleasantly surprised when she found the demand was still there.

She believes sellers

She believes sellers are "happy and smiling" because their prices are up. Buyers feel hurried by the competitive market.

"You just have to

"You just have to make sure everyone is ready," McLaughlin said. "If you get a good seller, their house has to be ready. The buyer wants to get the best for their money when they know they're going to be paying higher. I've had somebody bid $10,000 over."

Despite the upped workload, Dame called the year "fun" and said she hopes the trend continues. She believes prices may stay where they are, but the speed of sales may slow down.

Dame believes Rochelle's market lags behind larger communities in other areas and can be predicted by what happens elsewhere. "Right now, you just don't know," Dame said. "Everything is different since COVID-19 hit. We've got a new president and new administration, there's a lot of different factors playing out. But you always look at other places before Rochelle. Rochelle, even in 2008 when everything crashed, it didn't hit us until later. Watch what's going on everywhere else. I've looked, and they're still crazy busy."

Bearrows, who also serves as Rochelle's Mayor, said the city needs more homes built to combat the home shortage and improve its economy.

He said the city is working with groups looking to build affordable homes in the $170,000-200,000 range when lumber prices come down. He believes the Rochelle area has "plenty" of more expensive homes.

"We need some working class homes that somebody can buy brand new for those prices," Bearrows said. "I think that's doable. But we have to get the lumber prices back in line. I'd like to see another development project in Rochelle. We need homes. We don't have any duplexes to speak of. I want an area with a whole street of them."

McLaughlin voiced the importance of buyers and sellers being prepared if they plan to get into the market.

"Sellers just have to be ready to move," Mc-Laughlin said. "I think if they have everything in order and ready to go, they should expect to find a new place to live because their house is going to sell. Just have your house prepared. The buyer, you have to be ready with your bank and everything you want."

Dame believes now is the time to buy or sell a home, despite there not being much available out there. Her advice to keep watching the market online or find an agent to do it for you. Buyers should contact their lender and be prepared before approaching the purchase of a home.

Like McLaughlin, Dame thought the real estate market was going to slow down when COVID-19 hit.

"And it did the total opposite. I knew there was COVID-19, but my business didn't know there was COVID-19.

"Every time I think it's starting to slow down, it picks right back up again."

Creston Board members briefly discussed and tabled the idea of allowing a liquor license for Headon's Fine Meats. Village trustee Mark Hibshman, who owns Headon's, was absent from the meeting and Village Attorney Dave Tess said he's in need of more information about what Hibshman is looking for.

CRESTON: Expenditure approved for village water meter equipment

RMU Utilities Superintendent Adam Lanning attended Tuesday's Creston Village Board meeting to explain the increases. He said after the work done in the next couple of years to the sewer plant, it should be in "very good" shape for the next 20-30 years. Creston's last sewer rate increase was five years

"We feel it's prudent for everybody to pay their fair share in our infrastructure and not put that burden on future generations," Lanning said. "The cost impact to Creston for 2022 will be a 5.5 percent increase, 2023 a 5.3 percent increase, 2024 five percent and 2025 2.2 percent. The next few years we're looking at some pretty hefty investments. After that, we anticipate a steady decline and expect just to see simple cost of living increases."

Lanning said the rate increases "happened quickly" and took effect Aug. 1. RMU and the city recently did a rate study and found the new rates had to be implemented by then or else they'd have to wait a year. The rate study was done thoroughly, Lanning said.

Creston is only billed by RMU for improvements to the sewer plant it uses. It does not pay for things like sewer lining within Rochelle.

"It's cheaper than having our own plant," Creston Village Trustee Curt Ward said.

Creston Village President Tom Byro said Creston is billed by RMU as one entity and then divides that cost up among residents. Byro said the village plans to do some adjusting on its sewer bills after the increases by Rochelle and RMU.

Water meter equipment The village board approved a $9,795 expenditure for water meter reading equipment by a vote of 4-0. Trustees Wayne Williams, Mark Hibshman and Steve Katzman were absent from the meeting. The equipment includes a new handheld device to read water meters and an annual $1,950 a year service contract between the village and the company that provides the handheld and a radio frequency.

Booster Days

The board unanimously approved a $2,500 donation to the Creston Booster Club for its fireworks celebration at Creston Booster Days, which is planned to take place Aug. 27-29.

Liquor license

The board briefly discussed and tabled the idea of allowing a liquor license for Headon's Fine Meats. Hibshman, who owns Headon's, was absent from the meeting and Village Attorney Dave Tess said he's in need of more information about what Hibshman is looking for.

ARPA

Byro said the village is eligible for $87,955,90 in American Rescue Plan Act funds, which is a COVID-19 relief pro-

"I think it's a good deal and a no brainer," Byro said. "We need to find out what those monies can be used for. Fire hydrants, for example, we need a few. We'll see what happens. I'm all for going ahead with it."

Beau Vaughn Jason Sullivan

BEAUFORT, S.C. - Beau Vaughn Jason Sullivan, formerly of Rochelle, the most amazing human being ever created by God, passed away at the age of 26 on Aug. 4th, while home with his parents and

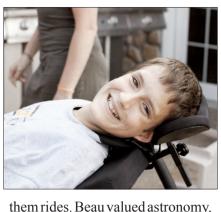

He is whole now. He is running and moving free from his worldly bonds, without pain. He loved life. Many may not have seen that, but he wanted to be alive despite everything he went through, and he felt fortunate and blessed.

After high school, Beau planned on going to law school. He wanted to be a disabilities rights advocate. He would have been awesome at that, but his deteriorating condition affected his plans.

When he was younger and more able, Beau's favorite thing to do was drive his chair and play random made-up games with his siblings. He loved playing PlayStation and his Nintendo DS. He was really good at it.

Beau loved talking to people. He was intelligent and soaked up as much wisdom as he could from remarkable people in his life. He would watch the Cowboys football games with his dad and brother. I don't know if he really loved football, but he loved the camaraderie it brought with his family, and he loved Tony Romo. He considered him his friend.

He would enjoy letting his younger siblings sit on his lap and help them use the computer or just give Pokémon, Star Wars and folklore. He loved watching movies, especially super hero movies.

He loved laying on the beach and digging in the sand with the waves crashing unto his body. He treasured floating in the pool with his siblings. He would float in there for hours and hold his breath under the water. He said he felt free in the water.

He thought roller coasters were the ultimate rush of joy. He looked forward to his Halloween birthday parties and the holiday in general, but that may have been due to his strong infatuation with sweets.

You will never meet anyone with better manners. Through everything he ever endured, he would still treat people with the greatest of kindness...when he was in the right mind. He always wanted to move to a warmer climate so he could drive his wheelchair around all year long.

After Beau became more afflicted with his condition, he became less comfortable. People didn't see him out and about as much, but he still found life enjoyable. He would assure me every day he was happy

He enjoyed watching his favorite TV series and going out to eat; JMK was his favorite. He really enjoyed getting out to movies and listening to music. He and his dad would jam to music while getting ready, and he always looked forward to his grandpa's slushy visits.

Beau is preceded in death by his grandpa, Cletes Rick Sullivan.

He is survived by his grandparents: Gary and Connie Manning Terry and Bonita Reints and Barbara Manning (Raggy); his dad and mom, Jason and Rhonda Sullivan, all of his brothers and sister - Chayce (Bibiana), Gage, Gwen, Krew, Jax and Thayde Sullivan; uncles Chris Sullivan, Barrett Manning Cassidy Manning, Grant Manning and Tommy Youngman; special "uncle" in name, Tara Manning; his aunts, Andrea Youngman, Andee Anderson, Esma Ramos, Georgina Barraza, April Feiden, Ashley Musielski and Andrea Barrett and several cousins. I know there are others he considered family and loved. You know who you are.

The visitation will be on Wednesday, Aug. 11 from 4-7 p.m. at the Unger-Horner Funeral Home, 400 N. 6th St., Rochelle. The funeral service will be held at 10:30 a.m. Thursday, Aug. 12 at the funeral home. Cremation care will be provided following the service. Visit www.ungerhorner.com to sign the online guest book.

The Holy Spirit: Can You Hear Him Now?

Joyce Meyer

S born-again believers in Jesus Christ, we serve a triune God—Father, Son and Holy Spirit. In Genesis 1:26 (AMP) God says, "Let Us (Father, Son, Holy Spirit) make man in Our image...." This verse reveals God as the Trinity, and we need to worship and have relationship with each Person of the Godhead.

It seems more common to hear people talk about God and Jesus, but the Holy Spirit does not get enough of our attention. It's important to understand that He is a person who has a personality, a will, knowledge, a mind, and He thinks and knows things. For example, 1 Corinthians 2:11 (AMP) tells us that "no one knows the thoughts of God except the Spirit of God."

In John 16:7 we learn some of the facets of His personality and how we need Him to work in our lives. In this verse Jesus says, "...If I do not go away, the Helper (Comforter, Advocate, Intercessor – Counselor, Strengthener, Standby) will not come to you; but if I go, I will send Him (the Holy Spirit) to you [to be in close fellowship with you]" (AMP).

This scripture teaches that He is our... Counselor—Always go to God first for counsel and let Him speak to you His way, through the people or things He chooses.

Advocate—He pleads our case when we're in trouble.

Intercessor—He prays for us and through us when we don't know how to pray on our own.

Standby—He stands by us, ready to act on our behalf when we need something.
Strengthener—He gives us

God's grace, which is His power and ability to do whatever we need to do in every situation.

He's all these things and so much more! God is literally everything we need, and as we fellowship with the Holy Spirit, we can have "the mind of Christ [to be guided by His thoughts and purposes]" (1 Corinthians 2:16 AMP).

Learn the Sound of His Voice

The Holy Spirit is the only One who fully knows the mind of God, so when we pray for God to give us wisdom or the knowledge we need, it's important for us to realize the Spirit is in us (1 Corinthians 2:12; 6:19). And He communicates to us what He hears God say. John 16:13 (AMP) explains that He is "the Spirit of Truth" and He guides us into the Truth. "For He will not speak on His own initiative, but He will speak whatever He hears [from the Father....]"

One way we learn how to hear the Holy Spirit is by understanding that He has emotions and He can be grieved. Ephesians 4:30 (AMP) says, "Do not grieve the Holy Spirit of God...." Because He lives in us, when He feels grieved, we will feel it too.

Ephesians 4:29-31 (AMP) lists some behaviors that cause Him to be grieved: unwholesome (foul, profane, worthless, vulgar) speech, bitterness, wrath, anger, and clamor (perpetual animosity, resentment, strife, faultfinding), slander, every kind of malice (all spitefulness, verbal abuse, malevolence).

When we choose to think and speak in ways that go against His nature, we will feel conviction, and the best thing we can do is confess our sin and repent immediately.

James 3:8 teaches that no one can "tame the human tongue" and sometimes we make mistakes and say wrong things. But we can learn from our mistakes; we can pray and ask God to help us only say things that are right and pleasing to Him.

I know it's easy to be insensitive and say the wrong things sometimes. The other day I was wearing a blouse that didn't fit me right, and I said to someone, "This thing is way too big for me but it would probably fit you." Afterward, I couldn't believe I had said it!

We need to pray for God to help us hear His voice, giving us wisdom and direction in the thoughts we choose to think about and the words we speak. As our Counselor, He wants to guide us in everything we do, and we can learn how to hear His voice.

Listen for the still, small voice of the Holy Spirit speaking to your heart. You can hear it as you wait quietly in His presence, while you're studying His Word, in the midst of your circumstances, and even through nature. God is talking to you!

More than 400 miles for seven causes

RIENDS of mine just completed the 450mile Des Moines Register's Annual Great Bike Ride Across Iowa, more commonly called the RAGBRAI.

Riding 450 miles over seven days is an accomplishment in itself, but what John and Lauren Hintzsche did was even more

Each day they dedicated the ride to a person or cause. Then they made donations to those causes.

I was honored to be recognized on the first day of heir ride, and I directed my donation to the MS Society of Illinois. For those of you who do not know me, my wife Jackie has MS and is pretty much confined to a wheelchair. She was diagnosed over 20 years ago and until the last six years or so we have been very fortunate in that she was fairly

Dickow

Lauren and John also dedicated days, and donations, to the Kitchen Table, Rochelle Food Pantry, Miss Carly's, Elsie Swanson, and Eden

Carr. Some of these groups or people you may never have heard of, but they all seem deserving recipients of the Hintzsche's generosity. Maybe reading this will inspire you to make a donation also.

I keep saying I am too old to do the ride, but I have always dreamed about it. When I said that to Lauren, she noted a 95-yearold man was doing the ride this year. She thought he was pulled off the road at one point because the temperature was in the 90s with a heat index well above that. And another friend told me her college roommate from the 60s has done the ride 40 times and was still riding this year.

address homelessness.

So age is not an excuse. I need to come up with a better one.

As the number of COVID-19 cases continues to rise, we need to remember we are all in this together.

Please don't take out your anger on clerks or greeters in stores where masks are required. If you don't want to wear a mask in a business requiring a mask, then go somewhere else. Don't cause a scene or scream at employees. And the governor's mask mandate for schools takes the pressure off local school boards. Students will be required to wear masks. I know there are parents who are upset with that, but don't be upset with your local school board, or child's teacher.

I have been vaccinated, but I am also starting to again wear my mask in stores where there are a

I don't want to bring that disease home.

A year to begin anew

THE mayor and city council continue to work to advance the vision for the city as an organization and our community.

Our team began a new strategic planning process back in late 2017.

The process was overseen by Northern Illinois University and included multiple community engagement meetings with residents, business owners and employers, along with two meetings with the mayor, city council and department heads.

From these meetings, the council identified five priorities for staff to focus on. These included economic & business development, financial management & stability, community inclusivity & engagement, infrastructure effectiveness & improvement and finally, core service

From these key priority areas, they developed several long-term and short-term goals which became the foundation for all work in each department. Some of these included the creation of a 20-year CIP; improving/creating more intergovernmental partnerships; addressing community blight; promote, enhance, and retain small business development; and explore and develop strategies for industrial growth.

I've been involved in local government for over 18 years and have worked on numerous strategic plans. The plan approved in 2018 is the one I am most proud of.

The current plan was formulated with extensive input from the community and our elected officials and each initiative (especially during the > pandemic) our staff pursued was tied back to the five core areas of focus.

Fast forward to 2021, we have a new mayor, two new council members, new leadership within our team and we are coming out of a pandemic. The time has come to update the current plan based on our past successes and disappointments as an organization.

The new plan will offer even more opportunity for community input with three community focus groups. The mayor and city council members will conduct personal interviews with key NIU staff along with two planning workshops.

I am very excited for this new process to begin and am humbled to be part of a new plan that will continue moving our great community forward. If you have questions, feel free to reach out to me at City Hall at 561-2000 or via email at jfiegenschuh@rochelleil.us.

Approaching homelessness with kindness

OMETIMES hearts rather than policies need to be changed. A good case in point is how we as a society

Mark Kessler, an owner of Recycled Records in Springfield, has said he and his brother, Gary, are selling their business in part because panhandlers are driving potential customers away from "Let's say you are a 60-year-old woman, if a panhandler comes up to your car, you may be too frightened to get out and shop," he said. Kessler said he would like to see the Springfield police roust panhandlers out from the area near his shop. "Why do people panhandle? Because they are too lazy to work," he said. "You can't convince me, that with as many job openings that there are now that these people can't find a job if they want one." During the decades I've been a journalist, I've spent a lot of time talking to homeless folks. At one point in could share with readers the challenges they face. My observation: Many end up panhandling to feed an addiction. Also, because of addiction or mental illnesses, some have become unemployable and use

1988, I went and lived on the streets with them just so I panhandling to survive. Now, please note the homeless folks I'm talking about aren't the ones sleeping on the sofas of friends or residing in a temporary shelter because of a missed rent check.

I'm talking about those sleeping on sidewalks. It's important to remember that not all homeless people panhandle. And not all panhandlers are homeless. But there is a pretty big overlap between the two.

Interestingly enough there is a business a little over a block from Kessler's record store that is taking a radically different approach. Café Moxo is showing the downtrodden hospitality.

"I believe in the Golden Rule: treat others the way you would like to be treated," said Brandon Hughes, who manages the Springfield restaurant. On many mornings, the café is full of business people, politicians, lobbyists and community power brokers eating breakfast, sipping coffee and opining on the problems of the world. And often sitting among them is an older woman talking to herself. She always has a hot cup of coffee and warm meal in front of her. "She pays us when she can. When she can't, we make sure she has something to eat," Hughes said.

This approach of radical hospitality reflects the philosophy of the restaurant's owner, Mark Forinash. During the pandemic, the restaurant partnered with Springfield businesses and gave away thousands of sack lunches to those in need. "At the end of the day, we are all people and we all deserve to be treated with dignity and respect," Hughes

And there is the rub. In the American caste system. the homeless have become our untouchables.

They are the ones many folks want out of sight and out of mind.

I've fallen into that trap myself. Last winter, I was in the Springfield public library researching used car prices. (I'm too cheap to buy a Kelly Blue Book.) A man wearing a bathrobe kept coming over to the reference desk and asking questions while I stood there. The reference librarian was patient and humane.

But I became a bit annoyed and thought: Why is he getting more attention from this librarian than me?

As soon as that thought crossed my mind, I knew I needed to check my middle-class privilege at the door. After all, I don't have any more right to use a public amenity -- whether it's a public library, a sidewalk or a street-than the fellow wandering about the bookshelves in his bathrobe.

And, hey, I've devoted my life to free speech and free expression. Every week I get letters from those who like what I write – and those who don't. If all speech were popular, it wouldn't need to be protected. So, if someone wants to use a public sidewalk to ask for money, who am I to say they can't? Or for that matter what standing does a local government have to prohibit such a thing? After all, panhandlers have the same First Amendment rights as anyone else in society. We shouldn't punish someone for being homeless.

That said, the New York Times reported Monday that the nation's most populous city has undertaken an aggressive campaign to push homeless people off the streets of Manhattan so tourists will feel more welcome

In other cities, including Springfield, city officials have pondered doing something similar. But here is a better approach: kindness.

I've noticed that Café Moxo is changing customers' attitudes. It's not uncommon for a business person or other professional to buy a meal for a needy person they see on the street.

When approached by a panhandler, I'll say, "I won't give you money. But I will buy you a meal.' Is that response always embraced? No. But kindness never hurts. And when I do buy someone a meal, where do I go? I go to Café Moxo. After all, why not help a business that is helping others?

Rochelle Police host National Night Out

'We're able to explain to people why we do what we do'

BY JEFF HELFRICH

MANAGING EDITOR

ROCHELLE — The Rochelle Police Department hosted its National Night Out event on Tuesday night at Atwood Park.

The event featured police and fire demonstrations, a helicopter landing, a ballet folklorico presentation, games, giveaways, music and free hot dogs. Similar events are celebrated by local police departments all across the country on the first Tuesday in August.

Attendees watched the fire department use some of its life-saving tools on a car and the police department did both a taser and K9 demonstration. Rochelle Police Chief Eric Higby said the night gives officers the chance to interact with people outside of the scope in which they normally would.

"We're dressed differently, it gives people an opportunity to look at our equipment and do things like see the dog take a bite," Higby said. "A lot of times people ask us questions one-on-one and we're able to answer them. Because we're not on a call, we don't have a call waiting. It just gives us an opportunity to talk to people in a different environment."

Tuesday's event was the department's fourth year participating. Last year's National Night Out was canceled due to the COVID-19

Higby said "a lot" of prep goes into National Night Out for his department and donations are received from community businesses and organizations.

Officer Ryan Beery and K-9 Axel were on hand at National Night Out to meet those in attendance.

"I think the paper plates and the condiments are about all we've paid for down here," Higby said. "We appreciated the companies who have helped out and donated."

Higby called the turnout for the event "awesome" and said it felt great to see local residents come out and support law enforcement.

Events like Tuesday are "vitally important" for outreach in the community, Higby said. People are able to ask questions and get them answered in a non-pressurized environment.

"Out here, there's no time pressure," Higby said. "It's a unique environment out here. I hope they learn that we're approachable and you can trust us and talk to us. That's the one thing we see a lot especially with children. That's why we do some of the children's events out here like the coloring contest. We want the children to be comfortable and grow up trusting officers so when they're adults, they can talk to us about their problems."

The event also featured booths and tents with local organizations meeting with residents.

"We appreciate that it's a true community event," Higby said. "It's not the police department out here. There's lots of other entities here."

Officer James Jakymiw spoke with many residents Tuesday night.

ROCHELLE—Lion Jim Kloepping, past zone chair and past district governor inducted new Lion Members Rich and Kathy Cogswell on July 22.

The Lion Clubs International began as the dream of Chicago insurance man Melvin Jones in 1917. He believed that local business clubs should expand their horizons from purely professional concerns to their communities and the world at large.

Since that humble beginning, Lions club members have volunteered their time and talents to meet needs wherever they exist. Lions are especially dedicated to serving the blind and visually impaired, a commitment made after Helen Keller challenged our members to become her "knights of the blind in the crusade against darkness. Our motto, "We Serve" exemplifies the dedication to helping those in need worldwide. The Lions Clubs International is the world's largest service organization; a group of over 1.4 million men and women in over 48,000 clubs in over 200 countries and geographical areas around the globe.

ROCHELLE — The Rochelle Little League 14U Baseball All-Stars teed off the Illinois Little League Junior League State Championship tournament on their home field Wednesday evening, squaring off in a firstround matchup against Chicago East Side. Rochelle fell by a score of 19-9 to move into the consolation bracket. Rochelle will face either LaSalle or Elmhurst-River Forest next.

Rochelle tallied one run to take a 1-0 lead in the top of the first inning after Ethan Goodwin doubled and scored on an RBI groundout from Frankie Pelan. Chicago East Side tied the game at 1-1 with one run on one single and a balk from Rochelle in the bottom of the first inning.

Rochelle surged ahead with five runs in the top of the second inning. Pelan smashed a two-RBI triple to bring home Mark Green and Ethan Goodwin, who each reached on base hits. Pelan then scored on an RBI groundout

Chicago East Side answered with six runs on five singles and two walks in the bottom of the second inning to take a 7-6 lead. Junior Hubs ready for 2021 football season

Rochelle kicks off fall campaign against Sterling on Saturday, Aug. 14

BY RUSSELL HODGES SPORTS EDITOR

ROCHELLE — Rochelle Junior Tackle President Derek Johnson was encouraged to see strong participation numbers when practices kicked off for the upcoming fall season this year. After not having a 2020 season because of the COVID-19 pandemic, Johnson has been excited to see local fifth, sixth, seventh and eighth-graders suiting up and returning to the gridiron again. "A lot of these kids have been waiting for a long time," Johnson said. "Many of these kids went through all of last year without playing any sports. Seeing them be out there with their friends and enjoying the activities is really exciting. Our numbers show that everybody was getting ready to come back. I don't think our numbers have dropped the road. Roughly 125 players have signed up to participate in tackle football this fall. The season kicked off with the RJT camp at Rochelle Township High School and the RJT coaching clinic, also heldat RTHS. After receiving their equipment this past month, players will bring home their uniforms this coming week.

"We're on track to have a normal season," Johnson said. "In talking with our conference president, it sounds like everything will be as normal as it could be. We haven't heard of any restrictions on visiting venues or anything like that... We're planning to have a normal season." The RJT fifth, sixth, seventh and eighth-grade tackle football teams will play seven games against Sterling, Princeton, Stillman Valley, Dixon, Byron, Rockton and Oregon, with the regular season concluding at Oregon on Oct. 4. RJT will hold its picture day on Aug. 20 and its season-ending banquet on Oct. 14. RTHS will host its annual RJT Night on tremendously and the coaching clinic is a great way for our coaches to come together and learn the system," Johnson said. "It helps a lot that we know the system they run at the high school and they're able to pass that system down to us at the Junior Tackle level. If we can keep our kids engaged here, it will speak volumes in the numbers we're hoping to see as we move forward over the next several years."

ormer Rochelle Lady Hub softball standout Maddi O'Rorke worked behind the dish as a catcher for the Rochelle Township High School varsity team. When O'Rorke took the field for her freshman season with Kishwaukee College earlier this year, O'Rorke served multiple roles across the diamond, working not only behind the plate, but in the field for the Lady Kougars.

O'Rorke appeared in 24 games with Kishwaukee College this season, recording a .250 batting average with 12 hits including two home runs. O'Rorke, who finished with a .321 on-base percentage and a .375 slugging percentage, totaled six RBIs, 11 runs, five stolen bases and three walks in 48 at-bats. O'Rorke is one of four Lady Kougar freshmen who could return next season.

"I felt like I performed really well," O'Rorke said. "I was placed in positions I have never played before and I thought I did very well. I felt like my fielding skills improved, but I feel like I could improve my hitting for next season. My goal for next season is to play better than I did this season and continue improving. The experience has been fun and I've met a lot of new people."

O'Rorke, who's currently studying criminal justice in hopes of becoming a game warden in Wisconsin, said she wasn't originally planning on competing for the Lady Kougars when she chose to attend Kishwaukee College. But after receiving a message from her head coach encouraging her to try out, O'Rorke said she enjoyed her first year of collegiate softball.

"I enjoyed being with my teammates the most," O'Rorke said. "They really made me feel like we were a family. I made a lot of new friends this season. I wasn't expecting to join the team, but my coach encouraged me to try out and I ended up really enjoying my experience."

The Rochelle Junior Tackle flag football program kicked off practices this past week, with games beginning Tuesday, Aug. 11 for preschoolers through third-graders and Wednesday, Aug. 12 for third and fourth-graders. The flag football season will span eight weeks and conclude with a celebration on Sept. 29.

ROCHELLE — For many young athletes in the Hub City, building the foundational skills and excitement for the sport of football takes place long before players suit up for tackle football at the elementary and middle-school levels. While preschoolers through fourth-graders may be too young for the pads and helmets of tackle football, Rochelle Junior Tackle's flag football program allows those kids to enjoy the game while learning the importance of teamwork.

Roughly 175 players have signed up to participate in the RJT flag football program this fall. After not having the 2020 season because of the CO-VID-19 pandemic, RJT Flag Coordinator Johnny Gonzales said both players and coaches are excited to be back playing football once again.

"The kids are excited to be playing sports again and we're happy for the parents who can watch their kids play sports again," Gonzales said. "There's a sense of normalcy and it feels right to see a lot of happy faces out there. I think we're going to have a normal season and I don't see us facing many issues at the moment. We're going to take everything one day at a time and we'll make any adjustments when they're needed. I feel like we can get a full season in this year." The RJT flag football program features three leagues including the Arena League for preschoolers and kindergarteners, the Jungle League for first and second-graders as well as the NFL League for third and fourthgraders. Arena League and Jungle League games will take place Tuesday evenings at Helms Park beginning Aug. 10, while NFL League games are scheduled for Wednesday evenings beginning Aug.

11. Games will span over a period of eight weeks. "We're always looking to grow our numbers,' Gonzales said. "The main thing for us when we talk with our coaches is that we want the kids to have fun and enjoy themselves. I think the kids who start flag football at a young age enjoy it more with each year they come back. We have our end-of-theseason tournament for the NFL League so our older kids have a more competitive tournament to look forward to before they begin playing tackle football."

The Arena League and Jungle League will each feature six teams, while the NFL League will field eight teams this fall. The flag football program's final games and celebration will take place on Sept. 28 and 29, with the RJT banquet scheduled for Oct. 14. Gonzales and fellow RJT Flag Coordinator Dan Escatel have been working hard to prepare for the upcoming season.

by Tony Rizzo

HOLLYWOOD — Director Franco Nero, "Lancelot" in "Camelot" (1967), was certain that his wife, Vanessa Redgrave, would star with him in his film "The Man Who Drew God." But when Kevin Spacey was signed to play a "cameo" in the film, she abruptly pulled out, claiming to never have committed to the film. Producer Louis Nero (Franco's son) then found someone who he considered a good replacement.

No doubt Faye Dunaway is a great actress. She starred in such classics as "Bonnie & Clyde" (1967), "Chinatown" (1974), her Oscar-winning performance in "Network" (1976) and the cult classic "Mommie Dearest" (1981), in which she played Joan Crawford. But two of her past three films, "The Bye Bye Man" and "The Case for Christ," both released in 2019, lost money, and the third, "Inconceivable," was a bomb despite co-stars Nicolas Cage and Gina Gershon. Even worse, in July 2019, she was

Broadway-bound in "Tea for Five," a one-woman show based on the Katharine Hepburn book, but she was apparently so abusive to crew members, allegedly slapping them and throwing things at them, that she was fired for "creating a dangerous environment in which no one was allowed to wear white lest it distract her," according to a New York Post report. In "The Man Who Drew God," Dunaway, now 80, plays a braille teacher whose friend is the blind protagonist, played by Franco Nero. The film wrapped with no eruptions from the set reported, but there's still the full publicity campaign ahead, and Faye hasn't always gotten along with the bombastic foreign press corp.

Being a success doesn't guarantee all will go well. Author Stephen King has written 63 novels and has an estimated net worth of $400 million, yet he admitted in an upcoming biography that during the '80s he spent most of his time binging on drugs and alcohol, saying "One snort and cocaine owned my body and soul." King has admitted though that writing did help him escape the terrors of his mind.

But being famous makes one a target. On June 29 he wrote on Twitter, "Paying cash for gas is inconvenient, but what's REALLY inconvenient is having someone who's stolen your credit card info buying a diamond for his girlfriend and a new sound system for himself!"

The 1955 film adaption of the hit Broadway musical "Guys & Dolls" will be remade and directed by Oscar-winner Bill Condon ("Chicago"). The rights held by 20th Century Fox lapsed because when Disney bought Fox, it fired everyone and TriStar grabbed the rights. Now the search is on to find a modern-day Marlon Brando and Frank Sinatra. Channing Tatum and Joseph Gordon-Levitt are the front runners, but Brando or Sinatra? NOT!

pics in Tokyo, but I feel bad that the athletes' families can't be there in person to cheer them on. My favorite is gymnast Simone Biles. Who are her parents, and has she always lived in Texas? -- H.P. A: According to Heavy.com, decorated Olympic gymnast Simone Biles' biological mother is Shanon Biles, but she wasn't actively involved in raising her and is currently on probation in Ohio for assault. Biles and her siblings were put in foster care in Ohio before being adopted by her grandparents, Ron and Nellie Biles. Simone's biological father, Kelvin Clemons, 'was never truly in the picture," according to NBC News.

Simone grew up in Spring, Texas, near Houston. She's been dating Houston Texans safety Jonathan Owens for more than a year after meeting on the celebrity dating app Raya. As a big fan of Simone's, you'd probably enjoy her inspiring autobiography, "Courage to Soar."

Q: What has Chris Parnell been doing since "30 Rock"? I loved his hilarious character, Dr. Spaceman, but I haven't seen him in anything since. -- P.E.

A: Dr. Leo Spaceman (pronounced Spuh-CHEN-mun) was a recurring character created by Tina Fey with "Saturday Night Live" star Parnell specifically in mind. After "30 Rock" ended in 2013, Parnell had a regular role on another TV comedy series, "Suburgatory," appeared periodically on "Drunk History" and has done quite a bit of voice work for animated series, including "Archer." Parnell has expressed in interviews that his career goal is to land a regular role on a sitcom.

With two young children at home, the schedule and lucrative paycheck of a steady sitcom gig would be ideal. He's currently filming the upcoming Netflix movie "Senior Year," with Rebel Wilson and Alicia Silverstone. It's about a 37-year-old woman who wakes from a 20-year-long coma and returns to high school to pick up where she left off -- as a cheerleader.

Q: What happened to the TV drama "Manifest"? I can't tell which shows have been delayed due to the pandemic or which ones have been canceled outright. I hope this is one that will be back. -- E.M.

A: If you had asked this question a month ago, I would have said, unfortunately, NBC has canceled "Manifest" after three seasons. Recently, however, there's been a glimmer of hope. Its numbers have gone way up since Netflix started airing the first two seasons. According to EW.com, the show's creator, Jeff Rake, said that "Manifest" has an "entirely new legion of fans developing as we speak," as it went from being canceled by NBC to becoming the No. 1 show on Netflix for at least "20 days in a row."

Rake says that he needed six seasons in order to fulfill the whole vision of his show, but since its cancellation, a feature film might be his only option. He cites shows like "Deadwood" and "Firefly" as inspiration and that he just needs "a modest budget to tell the story."
