City working to facilitate daycare at May School

Operation would be run by outside director; city has been without daycare for months

BY JEFF HELFRICH

MANAGING EDITOR

ROCHELLE — Rochelle Mayor John Bearrows said this week that the city, with the help of Rochelle Township High School District #212, is endeavoring to utilize part of May School as a possible daycare facility.

The city has been without a daycare facility for months since Kishwaukee Family YMCA Child Care Center at 1010 N. 15th St. closed, while the school district made the decision this year to close May School due to declining enrollment.

Rochelle officials have made attempts to purchase YMCA property, but no agreements could be reached. Bearrows said the city has already been in contact with a possible director if the May School operation comes to fruition and pointed out the city would not be buying May School as part of the proposed venture.

"We started many months ago when the daycare center closed," Bearrows said. "We've made great progress. We have some financial commitments. We're working with the school district to utilize the front part of May school to use as a daycare. It's not ideal. We've jumped a lot of hurdles. We're just trying to help financially. We're doing the legwork."

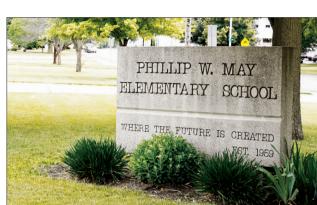

Bearrows said the city doesn't want to be in the daycare business, but sees the need for it in town. He wants the rates to be reasonable and said the potential director has said if the need is there, they would be willing to offer third shift care as well as during normal hours.

The director would hire employees and pay them. Bearrows said the city would try to assist with "carrying costs" and provide community development money. "Because that's what this is, community development," Bearrows said. "The people who ask about bringing businesses here, daycare availability is one of their first questions. Not having a daycare is not acceptable. It's a piece of the workforce issue that we're dealing with and the rest of the country is dealing with."

Fundraiser established for family of Rochelle mar killed in accident

BY JEFF HELFRICH MANAGING EDITOR

ROCHELLE—The family of a man who passed away after a motorcycle versus car accident in Sycamore Monday is raising money to pay for his funeral and medical expenses.

Broc Mohler, 30, of Rochelle suffered serious injuries and was transported to Kishwaukee Community Hospital where he was later pronounced deceased after an accident just before 9 a.m. on Bethany Road at Klein Road involving his Honda motorcycle and an SUV.

A Sycamore Police press release said Mohler was traveling eastbound on Bethany Road when it struck the SUV that was turning from Bethany Road onto Klein Road.

Mohler's sister, Natasha, said Broc was the sole breadwinner of his family, and they'd just ROCHELLE—When describing what he's learned from the COVID-19 pandemic, Rochelle Community Hospital Dr. Jason Popp called back on a mantra coined by former Chicago Cubs Manager Joe Maddon the year after the team's world series win.

"The next year he said, 'Now we just have to remember, don't get comfortable. Be comfortable being uncomfortable,"" Popp said. "Hopefully that will help us."

Popp believes one of the things everyone should learn from the pandemic is preparedness, in or out of the healthcare field. There were many aspects of COVID-19 that shined a light on areas of unpreparedness, Popp said. He called it a "smack in the face" and thinks the country will be prepared for years until people start to forget what 'We had decades of no pandemic and people started to say, 'It's probably not going to happen here,'" Popp said. "Whereas realistically, you knew it had to. We grew a little bit comfortable. And it's good to be reminded not to be too comfortable."

DAYCARE: Plans underway to bring facility back to Rochelle Bearrows said the daycare could be open by October or November if the idea pans out. The licensing process for a daycare center is "extremely long," Bearrows said, especially for facilities that care for infants and older, which the potential May School operation There are things at

POPP: Goal to get as many vaccinated as possible

Specializing in family medicine, Popp has spent the last 15 months treating and learning about COVID-19. He took to RCH's YouTube channel and made informational videos about the virus. He did part of a video with the Illinois Hospital Association for its Unity in Immunity campaign.

Popp made those videos because he believes they can be beneficial for people and their health. He likened it to someone with home repair skills making how-to videos for those that are less familiar.

"I figure, well it's my job to take the information I know and try to share that with other people," Popp said. "The most important thing is to try to present this information in a way that doesn't try to come down on people that are starting at a different point. If somebody is afraid of vaccines, I'm not going to be a person that is trying to make them feel bad. I just want to educate them." Popp told his patients before the vaccine rollout that if they saw him getting the vaccine along with the people in his family whom he loves, that they'll know he thinks it's OK. And that's what happened.

One of Popp's chief missions currently at the hospital is trying to get as many people vaccinated as possible. He said the current COVID-19 climate is a "good starting point" to finally put the pandemic to bed. He wants to avoid a fall and winter spike like last year. The vaccine is key to that.

Fighting social media misinformation related to COVID-19 and the vaccine is something that he feels is a responsibility for himself, RCH and health organizations.

"What we try to do is educate people by showing them the studies and what backs it up," Popp said. "I'm hoping we can raise the vaccination amounts using good information. I know it's never going to be 100 percent. But the more we can do to protect people, the better."

Popp thinks the question of just how vaccinated the population needs to be is "complicated." Top health officials guess it might have to get to around 70-80 percent. There isn't much data to go on when using this type of vaccine to combat a virus like COVID-19, he said.

The vaccinated population has been "very lucky" so far with variants of COVID-19 not becoming resistant to it, Popp said. He's worried that could eventually happen and bring mitigations and guidelines back.

Right now, the Delta COVID-19 variant is a fear of health officials. That variant is currently making another wave in the United Kingdom and is becoming more present in the United States,

"What we try to do is educate people by showing them the studies and what backs it up. I'm hoping we can raise the vaccination amounts using good information. I know it's never going to be 100 percent. But the more we can do to protect people, the better."

Dr. Jason Popp

Popp said. Health officials believe the vaccine is effective against the Delta variant, but they fear for the unvaccinated.

In a way, advocating for the vaccine is Popp's way of trying to get less people into the hospital.

"Because if less people get sick, then less people come into the hospital," Popp said. "It sounds stupid, but we're trying not to have business. We don't want people in the emergency room with COVID-19. I don't want to see them on the medical floor with COVID-19. I wish it was done. I wish I never had to admit somebody with COVID-19 again. That would be great."

Popp enjoys being a small town physician at RCH because it creates challenges and allows him to try to elevate his capabilities while providing the best care he can for the population. Those with serious COVID-19 complications usually had needs that required them to be transferred from RCH to a larger facility.

Expertise

Part of RCH's expertise has been to realize when those needs go beyond what it can provide, Popp said. He believes RCH improved to and has stayed at a "cutting-edge" level in dealing with the pandemic.

"I did a lot of studying with this because I knew with this pandemic, the hospitals were going to fill up," Popp said. "My job was to try to elevate my knowledge of COVID-19 far beyond any of the infectious disease processes with the previous SARS viruses so that I could provide the best care for people. I think I did a pretty good job with that."

As far as expecting something like a pandemic to happen during his career, Popp said he never really thought twice about it. He recalls seeing the first SARS viruses in Asia and later in the Middle East. He said he realized the seriousness then, but pushed it to the back burner with it not yet making an appearance in the U.S.

Popp called the virus making it stateside a "surprise" and "scary."

"All you can do is the same thing you do if there's an emergency situation in the public, on the medical floor, in the emergency room and you just approach things step-by-step," Popp said. "You have your training for it, and you rely on your training. You don't end up having anxiety get in the way, because this is what you're supposed to do. This is what you're trained to do."

The most vivid memory of the pandemic for Popp was uncertainty of how COVID-19 was transmitted. Early last year upon coming home from work, Popp would change clothes in his garage before going inside. He bought an ultraviolet C-band to kill germs. He didn't want to pass on COVID-19 to his family, including his young child.

"That was the scariest part for me," Popp said. "Then over time we started to learn that passage really didn't happen that much by touch. And then we learned more about passage through aerosolized particles and as we grow with our knowledge, you find that fear falls. That's the same with anything. More knowledge, less fear. That's what I'm hoping we can continue to do with COVID-19."

Popp said he's fortunate that he didn't have health issues that would've made him more susceptible to COVID-19. He also is at a lower-risk age. But, he said it was still scary. "A lot of faith" helped him work through it.

Those that have thanked the "front line" workers like Popp and the rest of the RCH staff are appreciated, Popp said. But he doesn't want the rest of the essential workers that were exposed to COVID-19 in the community while doing their jobs to go unnoticed.

And then there's the population that Popp doesn't want to see forgotten. The same population he doesn't want to see grow.

"I don't want to see even one more person lost," Popp said. "I know it's going to happen across the country. But for my own area, if we can do something to keep one more person from getting lost, that's what we're fighting for.

"And also, I would say to all of the people out there who have lost somebody, we have not forgotten those people. I remember every person that I knew that was lost to COVID-19 and that is why we continue to fight forward."

"We want what we cannot have. The heart wants Life to go on and on." \sim Garrison Keillor

"Life is what you celebrate. All of it. Even it's end."

These words certainly apply to Ronnie Ankney...a husband, a father, a grandfather, a great-grandfather, a brother, an uncle, a brother-inlaw, a cousin, a friend, and a life-long Bears fan and Rochelle Booster!

His family wants to thank each and every one of you who helped celebrate his life...one he truly lived to the fullest... his way, every day.

Perhaps you sent a lovely card, or sat quietly in a chair. Perhaps you sent some funeral flowers or a plant. If so, we saw it there. Perhaps you spoke the kindest words, as any friend could say. Perhaps you just dropped by, to help Ronnie pass the time of day. Perhaps you were part of the amazing group that prepared all that wonderful, comforting food at his memorial luncheon held at his beloved VFW... truly incredible!

To have so many old friends remember him the way you all did would have brought tears to his eyes... not an easy thing to do. Perhaps you reached out to Freda and his family with your sincere words or comfort and condolences for their unfathomable loss. Whatever you did to console our hearts, we thank you so much, whatever the part.

Our Ronnie is now in Heaven, sharing a cold Bud Light and doing the Polka with all our relatives that were waiting there to embrace his definitely unique spirit and very BIG heart! He will be missed.

Growing pains that produce amazing results

AVE you ever hired a professional to prune a tree in your yard? Dave and I have someone to do that for us and there are times when he's cut the branches back so far that I've said to him, "There is nothing left. You have totally destroyed our tree!" But he told me, "You just watch and see." And sure enough, before long the tree was much better looking than it was before. Just like trees need pruning from time to time to remove dead branches or areas where there is overgrowth, you and I need to be pruned or reshaped at different times in different areas of our lives. We may not enjoy the pruning

You see, God wants us to be at our very best—spiritually, emotionally and physically.

process, but when it's over, we're much better off than we were

John 15:2 (AMP) says, "Every branch in Me that does not bear fruit, He takes away; and every branch that continues to bear fruit, He [repeatedly] prunes, so that it will bear more fruit [even richer and finer fruit]."

It's good for us to stop and evaluate our lives sometimes and ask God to show us if there are things that need to be cut off because they are hindering our growth in our relationship with Him. Ask yourself: Am I dragging around "dead branches" in my life? Maybe it's a bad relationship, life? Maybe it's a bad relationship, an old wound from your past, or a negative attitude that keeps you from enjoying life to the fullest.

It would be nice if we could see what God sees and say, "Yes, God. Let's get rid of that dead branch." But many times we're too afraid to give up what we know for something new that we just can't see or understand.

The truth is you can be miserable dragging those dead things around or you can go through the pain of letting God "prune" them away. Even though it's uncomfortable, the best thing you can do is let God prune you, because after the hard part is over, you will see some amazing results!

God doesn't want you to struggle all the time. He loves you so much that He will never give up on you. As we allow Him to speak into our lives, He teaches and trains us to be kind and gentle, peaceful and patient, loving and forgiving like Him. But we cannot develop that "fruit" on our own.

John 15:4 (AMP) says, "Just as no branch can bear fruit by itself without remaining in the vine, neither can you [bear fruit, producing evidence of your faith] unless you remain in Me."

In other words, we need to spend time with God.

Our relationship with God is about much more than going to church on Sunday and reading the Word as a religious duty. He wants a personal relationship with each of us.

When we stay connected to God through meaningful Bible study and prayer, we're remaining in Jesus. God wants us to be so rooted and grounded in His love that nothing can shake us—so we're able to bear good fruit in even the hardest, most difficult seasons of life.

God has a good plan for your life. He wants to take you to the next level in your relationship with Him, but there are some things that He wants you to leave behind—past hurts, insecurities, or anything you look to for a sense of security other than God Himself.

Don'tever be afraid to surrender to God so He can prune the things that are hurting and hindering you from moving forward in your relationship with Him.

The apostle Paul said, "...One thing I do: forgetting what lies behind and reaching forward to what lies ahead, I press on toward the goal to win the [heavenly] prize of the upward call of God in Christ Jesus" (Philippians 3:13-14AMP).

Make a determined decision to let go of the past and press on to experience a fuller, richer, more abundant life in Christ.

Pray today: "God, I'm tired of dragging this heavy load around with me. I'm ready to let it go so I can get on with my life and experience a closer relationship with You. Help me to know that You love me and that You will work everything out for my good."

If we will totally give ourselves to God, He will give us His best for us. It may not be what we thought we wanted, but it will be exactly what we need. And it will be greater than anything we could have asked for.

Kids need a library

Terry

Dickow

NE of my favorite benefits of teaching was reading children's literature. Notice, I did not say books, but literature... quality stories, well written, with great plot lines and usually happy endings. Usually.

I only read "Where the Red Fern Grows" once because when I got to the part where the fern grows, I started getting teary eyed in class. It was hard to focus on the rest of the book. (If you want to know about the red fern, you'll have to read the book!)

And Gilly Hopkins eventually gets what she wants most in life, only to learn an important life lesson. (Read The Great Gilly Hopkins to discover her wish.)

By the way, Gilly is a troubled child who is placed in a foster home run by a lady described as "a great hippopotamus of a woman." As politically incorrect as that may be now, it gives the reader an instant mental picture.

I have been out of teaching for a while, and I have no idea what the "hot" books are now.

But I know if I went into a library with a bunch of 10-year-olds, they would be able to recommend their favorite books to me.

Ever watch kids in a library? They pick up a book, look at it and put it back. Eventually they will find one they like.

When a parent mentioned to me that there would not be room for a library at Tilton School this year, it concerned me.

Tilton will become the fourth and fifth grade building for the district. This is an age group that needs a library with a lot of books because sometimes it takes a while to find the right one, especially if you are a reluctant reader.

I contacted the administration and talked to Tony Doyle, the assistant superintendent. Tony was my principal in my last years at Tilton and knows the building well.

He did admit the building was full, but said school staff were working on a variety of "creative" solutions to solve the problem. When I first started at Tilton we had a portable building that served as classrooms and eventually as a library. May School has a portable building not being used. Maybe part of that creative solution could be to relocate the portable from one school to another. I don't know if that is practical considering the age of the portable.

But I do know kids need a library.

Here's to creative thinking and a workable solu-

VOICE ON THE STREET

Question:

With the Fourth of July holiday fast approaching, how do you feel about residents lighting off fireworks in and around town?

"They are illegal for a reason, scare pets and young children, and cause people to lose sleep."

Marilyn Overby

"Not at 2:30 in the morning!" Phyllis Jones

"Let them light them off. I see nothing wrong with it."

"Yes! Other places in the United States allow it for a few days a year."

"Does it matter how we feel? They're not going to stop and the police do nothing."

Cody Dale

"It sucks! These things they are lighting in the south part of town are not fireworks. More like mini dynamite."

Chuck Simpson

"That night is OK, but it has been going already for the past couple of weeks. Poor pets and a Jason King lot of people."

Kay Beguin McGrath

"I don't like them. They're illegal for one and I have to spend Tom Hartnett money on anxiety medicine for my dog because it scares her so much."

Reaching a milestone I never expected

EOPLE used to get a job and stay there for life. Great pension, good benefits and the comfortable feeling of a familiar job. That has changed over the years, of course. An actual pension is hard to find these days, as most companies offer a 401K retirement fund that you fill with your money. Yes, the good companies also offer a match, but that is also not as common as it was even a handful of years ago. Benefits are also not quite as good as they were at many companies, and the pay gulf between the boss and workers has grown to Grand Canyon proportions.

Honestly, most people can't afford to stay in one job forever, unless you work for a great company or enjoy union benefits something that is also disappearing.

I have never been a member of a union, and I have never worked for a company that offered a pension – well, the military did offer retirement, but I was not in long enough. The newspaper companies I have worked for have ranged from great to horrible, but they have all offered me a chance to do a job I love, and for that I am

Believe it or not, this month marks quite an anniversary for me, one that I find improbably and a little sad, honestly. As of right now, working for this newspaper marks my longest tenure at a job in my adult life.

Like I said, a little sad. Not sad because of the job, I love my job. But sad that I had to bounce around so much to reach career goals.

Journalism can be a very unstable job in recent years. Sure, I could have stayed at my hometown newspaper, where I worked from 1992-96. I could have stayed at the paper in California where I worked from 2006-11. Actually, I probably couldn't have stayed in California. Like a lot of newspapers, that one has been sold multiple times since I left.

So, as I have worked at the Ogle County Life now for more than five years, this is my longest tenure at a single paper. I worked at the paper in California for five years to the day.

> years and a couple of weeks. Break out the Champaign!

Here it has been five

Honestly, if I had not wanted to move up in my career, I Brad wouldn't have moved. Jennings I could be a reporter or a copy editor in my hometown and still sitting at the same desk, I am sure. I might be comfortable, but I would never have lived in the places I have lived or experienced the things I have experienced.

My goal was to be the editor of a daily newspaper by the time I was 35. As I was in the military and didn't even start going to college until I was 24, I was behind at the start. But I worked hard and took some chances and by the time I was 35 was editor of a daily newspaper.

Before that happened, I was an intern at a paper, worked in sports and news at another in Arizona, worked in sports, news and as a copy editor at my hometown paper and then served as city editor at a daily newspaper in Nebraska, a great newspaper with a publisher so horrible I have tried to block that time from my memory. Finally, I went to a paper in Wisconsin as a city editor, and after the paper sold found myself in the big chair. Honestly, I wasn't that great at the job, but I had fulfilled my goal.

After that it was Minnesota for a few years, then to California, then to Illinois to work at corporate for a large company. That was also pretty soul crushing and kept me away from the things I love about journalism – telling people's stories and producing a product for them to enjoy.

So, I came to the Life in June of 2015 – my first time working at a weekly newspaper. I fell in love with Ogle County and, well, here I still am.

How long will this last? I have no idea. But one thing the last nearly 30 years has taught me is never say

HOME IMPROVEMENT

Popular renovation projects during the pandemic

PENDING so much time at home during the pandemic led many homeowners to spruce up their homes. According to HomeAdvisor's 2021 State of Home Spending report, spending on home improvements increased by an average of $745 per household in 2020.

In the face of travel restrictions and social distancing guidelines, many homeowners pivoted in 2020 and spent money they initially intended to use for vacations on home improvements. Though many such projects required the services of a professional contractor, others, including the most popular project among the 5,000 homeowners who participated in the HomeAdvisor report, were do-it-yourself endeavors. That not only gave homeowners' homes a new look, but also gave them something to do during quarantine. The following are the five most popular home improvement projects of 2020 according to the HomeAdvisor report.

Interior painting: Just under 35 percent of participants reported taking on an interior painting project in 2020. Interior painting projects can be perfect for DIYers, but homeowners also can trust this task to skilled professionals.

Bathroom renovations: Real estate professionals routinely report how much prospective buyers love updated bathrooms, so it's no surprise that roughly 31 percent of homeowners who took part in the HomeAdvisor report indicated they renovated their bathrooms in 2020.

Flooring: Floors took on a lot of extra traffic during the pandemic, so it shouldn't be too surprising that flooring projects were popular in 2020. More than one-fourth of participants told HomeAdvisor their homes were updated with a new floor during the pandemic.

Landscaping: With nowhere else to go to escape the daily grind in 2020, many homeowners took to their yards. Twenty-four percent of those homeowners reported making their backyard retreats more appealing by repairing or upgrading the landscaping outside their homes. In fact, the average homeowner reported completing 3.4 landscaping projects in 2020.

Kitchen: Another project that makes sense given the circumstances, kitchen renovations were the fifth most popular home improvement project in 2020. Restaurant closures and social distancing guidelines led many people to dine in more often than they otherwise would, and just under 23 percent of homeowners reported renovating their kitchens in 2020.

As the world gradually emerges from the pandemic, many homeowners who caught the renovation bug while in quarantine also will be emerging with what feels like an entirely new home.

How to maintain hardwood floors

ARDWOOD floors have long been sought after by home buyers. In its 2019 "Remodeling Impact Report," the National Association of Realtors® revealed that new wood flooring was the fourth most popular project to attract buyers.

Of course, hardwood floors aren't just for buyers. Homeowners who already have hardwood floors know just how impressive these floors can be, especially when they're well maintained. Maintaining wood floors is not necessarily as straightforward as it may seem, and homeowners may benefit from a tutorial on how too keep the floors under their feet looking good.

To polish or not to polish?

Polishing floors is an inexpensive way to keep them looking good. But the home improvement experts at BobVila.com note that not all floors can be polished, and determining which ones can depends on the finish. Floors with waterproof barriers such as urethane will benefit from routine polishing. However, floors with penetrating finishes like tung oil will need to be waxed rather than polished.

What finish is on the floor?

The Hardwood Distributor's Association recommends a simple way for homeowners to determine which type of finish is on their hardwood floors. Homeowners are advised to rub a finger across the floor. If no smudge appears, then the floor is surface sealed. If a smudge is created, then the floor has been treated with a penetrating seal. The HDA also notes that recently installed wood floors are likely surface sealed.

How often should floors be polished or waxed?

Wood flooring professionals recommend polishing floors that can be polished once every few months. Waxing wood floors does not need to be done as frequently, and most can benefit from a fresh coat of wax every 12 to 18 months.

What can I do on a daily basis?

Some simple tricks and daily maintenance can daily maintenance can help wood floors maintain their impressive look. Utilize floor mats. The HDA notes that floor mats near entryways can reduce the time it takes to clean hardwood floors and reduce the wear and tear they endure. For example, tiny particles like dirt can scratch the floor and contribute to the kind of minor damage that adds up to significant scarring over time. Floor mats near entryways ensures that most of that dirt never makes it to the wood floors.

Vacuum without a contain beater bars, which

Use manufacturer-recommended cleaning products. Local home improvement stores sell a host of hardwood floor cleaning products, but the HDA notes that many flooring manufacturers now sell their own hardwood floor cleaners designed specifically for their floors. These products are likely Hardwood floors are attractive for many reasons. And they look ever more stunning, and last much longer, when homeowners make an effort to maintain them.

Design ideas to give your home a farmhouse feel ¬ARMHOUSE style homes are having a moment. A 2020 survey from Homes.com asked more than 5,000 adults across the United States about their favorite house style from a list that included bohemian craftsman, mid-century modern ranch, French chateau, and Tudor, among others. Modern farmhouse was the runaway winner, as participants in 42 of the 50 states indicated this simple, cozy style was their favorite.

Home renovation projects can help homeowners put their own unique stamp on their homes, and such projects can be both aesthetic and functional in nature. The following are some farmhouse design elements homeowners can consider as they look to transform their home interiors with this popular style in mind.

Exposed beams: Exposed beams instantly evoke images of a farmhouse. The home improvement experts at BobVila.com note that this rustic renovation project can utilize real wood or faux beams that look like the real thing. Decorative beams that have nothing to do with a home's structural integrity can be installed by skilled do-it-yourselfers. However, even faux beams are heavy, and BobVila.com recommends homeowners have an engineer assess their existing structure prior to installation. Distressed wood finishes: Distressing is designed to make something look less than perfect. Distressed wood finishes can be found throughout many farmhouse style homes. Furniture and picture frames can provide the distressed look farmhouse fans are looking for. This is a relatively inexpensive project that many homeowners can tackle on their own after watching some online tutorials that recommend the right tools and techniques to get the job done right.

Kitchen sink: Many components combine to create a truly classic farmhouse kitchen. But perhaps no component is more essential than the classic farmhouse sink. The renovation experts at HGTV note that a classic farmhouse sink features a deep, wide basin. Farmhouse sinks are large enough to handle all the dishes that come after a big family meal. Old-fashioned porcelain sinks are worth consideration by homeowners who want their kitchen sinks to evoke a traditional farmhouse feel.

Countertops: HGTV recommends butcher block countertops for homeowners who favor European farmhouse style. Homeowners overhauling their kitchens to create a farmhouse feel should consider installing a large island with a walnut butcher block countertop for an authentic farmhouse feel. Farmhouse style homes are wildly popular. Some simple renovations can help homeowners with a fondness for farmhouse style bring this classic look into their

Gati among five DAR Good Citizen award winners

ROCHELLE—Five students from area high schools were presented the DAR Good Citizen Award by the Rochelle Chapter Daughters of the American Revolution.

These students are selected by a process that involves both their teachers and members of their senior class because they exemplify the traits of a good citizen: dependability, service, leadership and atriotism.

They also have the option of completing an essay in a timed, proctored format. The winner of the essay contest is forwarded to the district, and may be further selected to compete at the state or national Level.

This year's winners are: Brianna Blaine of Amboy; Garrett Sage (Rochelle Chapter's essay contest winner) of Ashton Franklin Center; Claudia Reckamp of Oregon; Afi Gati of Rochelle Township High School and Julia Orlando of Stillman Valley.

Each student was presented a certificate, lapel pin and gift card.

Good Citizen Chairman Lydia Roberts and chapter member Millie Dutchoff presented the certificate and award to Blaine. Brianna plans to attend the University of Iowa and major in the pre-med fields of human physiology or biology. Roberts and chapter member Therese Dickey presented Sage the award. Garrett's essay on "Our American Heritage and Our Responsibility for Preserving it" with a focus on "How the combined actions of so many good citizens keep our nation moving forward" was selected as the winner for the Rochelle Chapter. He plans to major in Political Science.

Reckamp received the award from Roberts. Claudia will be attending the University of Illinois, Urbana-Champaign. She served as drum major at Oregon and is auditioning for the marching band at U of I.

Rochelle Chapter Treasurer Becky Danner presented the award to Gati who plans to attend Augustana College and major in a pre-med curriculum. Afi would like to serve with Doctors without Borders in her

Hubs exceed expectations with 21-win season

Six Rochelle athletes earn Interstate 8 All-Conference honors

SPORTS EDITOR

ROCHELLE — The Rochelle Hub varsity wrestling team had high expectations after finishing 18-4 during the 2019-20 season. But despite all of the challenges created by the COVID-19 pandemic, which included postponing the 2020-21 season to the summer, eliminating the IHSA State Series and competing with other sports happening simultaneously, head coach Alphonso Vruno felt the team excelled and made the circumstances. Rochelle finished with a 21-8 overall record, falling one victory shy of tying the single-season wins record. The Hubs went 5-2 against Interstate 8 opponents during the season before finishing fourth in the conference tournament. Four seniors will depart from the program including Ben Harvey (27-2), who broke both the career pins record and the career wins record this season, as well as Noah Messer (22-7), Ivan Pineda (24-5) and Grant Thomp-

season progressed, we had our football players come back and our kids went above and beyond our expectations. We kept rolling and scoring victory after victory. They blew my expectations away as well as the expectations of some of our assistant coaches." Six wrestlers received All-Conference recognition from the Interstate 8 this season, with five wrestlers (Harvey, Pineda, Thompson, Caleb Nadig and Tommy Tourdot) earning First-Team honors while Messer took home an Honorable Mention. this year, was best known for playing Charlene on the hit sitcom "Designing Women" in the late 1980s. Shortly after it ended, she took a big dramatic leap and wowed critics in the TV biopic "Overkill: The Aileen Wuornos Story." Adept at both comedy and drama, she easily switched genres, most notably as a Mrs. Robinson type in "The Brady Bunch Movie" the TV series "Fargo." In "Hacks," Smart plays a struggling comic who reluctantly hires a young writer, played by newcomer Hannah Einbinder, to spice up her act. Einbinder is the daughter of "Saturday Night Live" alum Laraine Newman. As for Smart's fireplace mantle at home, it has room for some more Emmys after previous wins as Outstanding Guest Actress on the sitcom "Frasier" and Outstanding Supporting Actress in the comedy series "Samantha Who?," which starred Christina Applegate. "Hacks" is a real showcase for her talent, so don't be surprised if her agent is already telling her to prepare her acceptance speech.

A: Even though it's been over a decade since Julie Benz, who played Rita, departed "Dexter," she says fans still approach her about her angelic character, and jokes that in real life, she's not that nice. She also said in an interview with TVLine.

com that even though "Dexter has moved way past Rita," she would Jean Smart reprise the character "in a heartbeat in "Hacks" if they asked." A: Ned Beatty started out as a theater actor, but his first film role was a memorable one. in "Deliverance." A few years later he was nominated for an Oscar in the Best Supporting Actor category for "Network." His television career was just as impressive with notable parts on classics like "The Rockford Files," "Highway to Heaven" and "Homicide: Life on the Street." Lady Hubs working through short offseason

Two-time All-Conference hitter Hasz headlines returning players

BY RUSSELL HODGES

SPORTS EDITOR

ROCHELLE — Replacing a four-year varsity starter won't be easy for the Rochelle Lady Hub varsity volleyball team next season. Combined with a condensed offseason, head coach Molly Sly and the Lady Hubs will face some challenges as the team looks to build on this season.

Rochelle finished 7-10 and 6-8 in the Interstate 8 Conference this season. The Lady Hubs saw three players receive All-Conference recognition including middle blocker Afi Gati (28 kills, 13 blocks) and four-year varsity setter Clare Green (347 assists), who ended her career with over 1,400 assists. Gati and Green are two of the seven seniors departing the program

"I was excited that our seniors were able to compete this year," Sly said. "The girls showed they could bounce back when the other team took the momentum away or when they didn't score a key point during the match. We'll need to work with our setters over the offseason and we're losing our libero as well, so it will be interesting to see who earns that spot. We have some girls coming back in front row and I'm looking forward to seeing them grow."

digs) and Morgan Haas (8 digs) will vacate varsity spots in the back row. Gati and senior Bella Lodico (18 kills) will depart from the front row, while Green's absence in the middle will create the biggest challenge for the Lady Hubs. Junior Sylvia Hasz led Rochelle with 239 kills and 98 digs this season, earning All-Conference First Team recognition for the second year in a row.

"When we started camp this offseason, we realized how great of an impact Clare had on our team and how big those shoes will be to fill," Sly said. "It will be interesting to see who steps up to take on

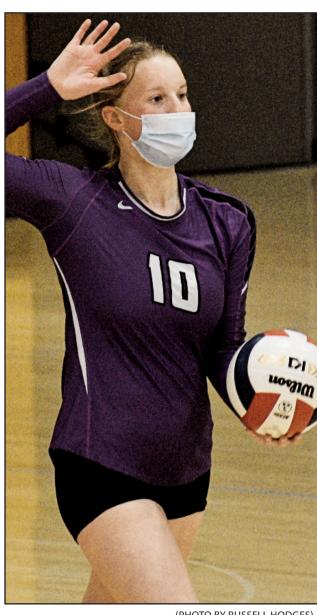

"We usually put a lot of work in over the offseason, but that's not happening this year because of the short offseason. With spring and summer vacations, we're being hit hard and it's tough to get our girls together." Molly Sly that role. We're thankful to have Sylvia back and she's been a core player for us over the last two seasons. I'm looking for our sophomores to take on more of a leadership role as juniors next season. I want to see them encourage all of our players to be successful."

Sophomores Addie Friestad (80 kills, 22 digs) and Payton Hale (17 kills, 20 digs) are two breakout candidates in the front row for next season, while sophomores Anna Harvey (47 digs) and Baylie Sutton could see increased roles next year. Juniors Ella McKinney, Lucy Bunger and Shannon Harding will all be eligible to return for their senior seasons this coming fall.

"I don't see the shortened offseason as a positive," Sly said. "We usually put a lot of work in over the offseason, but that's not happening this year because of the short offseason. With spring and summer vacations, we're being hit hard and it's tough to get our girls together."
