AARP, senior groups stump for graduated tax, address retirement income claims

Opposition group led by Illinois Chamber announces new alliances

BY JERRY NOWICKI

CAPITOL NEWS ILLINOIS/JNO-WICKI@CAPITOLNEWSILLINOIS.

SPRINGFIELD – A group of retirees organized through the senior advocacy group AARP held a virtual news conference Wednesday to express support for a graduated tax constitutional amendment and opposition to a tax on retirement income – two things that they note are mutually exclusive.

Many of the speakers, which included a former state director of the Department on Aging, took direct aim at recent claims by opponents of the tax amendment. Illinois is one of 12 states that do not tax retirement income. Of those 12, nine do not levy income taxes at all.

"The fair tax amendment would also protect our retirement income," Chicagoan Carmen Betances, a member of the Jane Addams Seniors in Action, said at the news conference. "Illinois is one of the few states that does not tax retirement income. The fair tax will not change that. In order to protect retirement income in Illinois, we need more revenue to keep us afloat."

The "fair tax" is a name proponents, including Gov. JB Pritzker, have given to the graduated tax constitutional amendment proposal. That measure, which will appear on the Nov. 3 ballot, would amend the state's constitution to remove the requirement that any income tax be levied at a flat rate equally across all levels of income. If approved by voters, the amendment would allow lawmakers to impose different tax rates on varying levels of

Should the amendment pass, a rate structure that has already been approved by lawmakers would take effect in January. It would scrap the current 4.95 percent flat tax, creating six tax brackets for varying levels of income ranging from 4.75 percent under $10,000 to 7.99 percent above $750,000 for single

Those earning more than $250,000 annually would see rates increased under the structure, while those earning less than that amount would pay slightly less or the same under the new tax system compared to the current flat tax structure. In estimates released prior to the COVID-19 pandemic, Pritzker's office said it expects the approved graduated tax rate structure to bring in about $3.4 billion in state revenue once it is in place for a full fiscal year.

Speakers at the news conference Wednesday said state government has ongoing budget deficits in the billions of dollars, especially as revenues plummet amid the COVID-19 pandemic, and the graduated tax rates approved by lawmakers are one way to raise revenues without taxing middle income earners or retirement incomes.

Pritzker has estimated the budget shortfall for the current fiscal year at $6.2 billion dollars. Without the graduated tax, which would only be in effect for half of the fiscal year, the shortfall could reach $7.4 billion, he said in April.

"If Illinois doesn't find a way to fix this budget crisis with steps in the right direction, such as passing the graduated income tax, that's when state lawmakers may be forced to consider adding a retirement income tax or more drastic spending cuts," Charles Johnson, AARP Illinois volunteer and former Director of the Illinois Department on Aging, said at the news conference.

Opponents of the amendment have seized on a June comment by Treasurer Michael Frerichs, a Democrat, who said at a local chamber of commerce event, "One thing a progressive tax would do is make clear you can have graduated rates when you are taxing retirement income...And, I think that's something that's worth discussion.

Frerichs called a news conference this week to address the statement, but abruptly canceled it, instead issuing a release saying he is against taxing retirement income.

While opponents have argued that allowing different tax rates on different levels of income would open the door for a future tax on high-dollar amount retirement incomes, the actual wording of the amendment does not create a retirement tax and does not make it any easier for the state to levy one.

Pritzker said in a separate news conference Wednesday he was opposed to taxing retirement

"I want to preserve the ban on retirement taxes, and I stand with all democrats opposed to raising retirement taxes," he said. "But the people who are opposed to the fair tax want to put the burden on people who can't afford it.

Charles Johnson

I want to put the burden on the people who can most afford it. And that's our millionaires and billionaires in Illinois."

Opponents, however, have argued that even the $3.4 billion from the graduated tax would not fill the state's budget holes, meaning further increases would be needed in the future and rates could be adjusted. Opponents argue more structural spending and pension reforms are needed before taxpayers are tapped for more revenue.

The amendment does not change the simple majority vote threshold needed from lawmakers to raise taxes in Illinois, but opponents argue by allowing lawmakers to set tax rates for smaller sectors of the population at any one time, it makes it a politically easier move for future General Assemblies.

On Sept. 24, Lt. Gov. Juliana Stratton said lawmakers "will be forced to consider raising income taxes on all Illinois residents by at least 20 percent, regardless of their level of income" if the graduated income tax fails. That would push the current tax rate to about 6 percent. The Illinois Republican party quickly issued a statement following those remarks, calling them a "scare tactic" that will not sway Illinois voters. A coalition led by the Illinois Chamber of Commerce, the Illinois Farm Bureau and National Federation of Independent Business has been growing in opposition to the amendment since the beginning of the year, and on Wednesday they announced 40 new members opposing the tax, including 27 local chambers of commerce.

The approved rates also raise the corporate tax rate from 7 to 7.99 percent, and the Vote No on the Progressive Tax Constitutional Amendment coalition argues that, amid the COVID-19 pandemic and associated economic restrictions, now is not the time to raise corporate taxes.

"Like the rest of small businesses, our auto dealers are struggling to recover from major losses due to the COVID-19 pandemic," Illinois Automobile Dealers Association Director of Government Affairs Joe McMahon said in a news release. "Now is the worst possible time to increase taxes on our businesses that are fighting to keep their doors open and their teams employed."

Proponents, however, point out that small businesses earning less than $250,000 per year will see taxes lowered if they are pass-through entities such as S-corporations or sole proprietorships.

The graduated income tax will need support from 60 percent of those voting on the ballot question or a majority vote of the total votes casts in the election

Get free of the fear that's holding you back

ODhasa wonderful plan for each of our lives (see Jeremiah 29:11). And when we put our faith in Jesus as our Savior, we put ourselves in a position to walk out our God-given destiny. Sadly, many believers in Christ aren't living out their destiny because of fear. The fear of man is a common problem that causes us to worry about things like, "What will they think of me? What are they going to say about me? What will they do if I don't do what they want? What if they reject me? What if they don't like me?."

Everyone struggles with insecurity and the fear of rejection to some degree. And there's nothing wrong with wanting people to like you. But when we're so focused on being people pleasers that our fear of being rejected, judged or criticized controls our choices, we're being controlled by the fear of man.

If we're going to get free of fear and really pursue everything God has for our lives, we have to make a decision that we will not live with fear. Instead, we can learn how to live courageously by the grace and strength we have in Christ.

It's important to understand what it mean we will never feel fearful, because the truth is, we will never completely get rid of the feeling of fear. But it does mean that when we feel afraid, we can do whatever we need to do through Christ who gives us strength. (See Philippians 4:13.) We can follow the leading of the Holy means to live courageously. It doesn't strength. (See Philippians 4:13.) We can follow the leading of the Holy Spirit and do what God puts in our hearts to do, rather than settle for an okay or average life. And God wants to do amazing things in our lives that will likely pull us out of our comfort zones and require us to walk by faith to do them.

Now, I'm not talking about making foolish choices or doing things that are dangerous because you don't want fear of those things to hold you back. Living courageously means we can be bold and take risks instead of just doing what seems "safe" and keeps us from becoming everything God has created us to be.

I remember when I had to make some bold, scary choices so I could move forward in God's plan for my ministry. I had friends who didn't think I had the right personality to be a Bible teacher. There were people in my church who didn't think women should teach the Word. And there were family members who didn't understand the call of God on my life and they rejected me because of it.

It was a very hard time, but I'm so glad God gave me the courage I needed to do if afraid. And now, it's scary to think about where I would be if I hadn't trusted God and followed His plans for me because I was afraid I'd lose my friends and not be well thought of by others.

The only way you can conquer fear is to confront it... to keep going forward with God while the enemy of fear is trying to drive you backward. Remember that "God has not given us a spirit of fear, but of power and of love and of a sound mind" (2 Timothy 1:7 NKJV).

When you're struggling to do what you know God wants you to do, go to the Word for encouragement. Here are a few powerful scriptures you can use to conquer fear:

Isaiah 41:10 says, "Do not fear, for I am with you; do not be dismayed, for I am your God. I will strengthen you and help you; I will uphold you with my righteous right hand" (NIV).

Psalm 118:6 says, "The Lord is with me;
I will not be afraid. What can mere mortals
do to me?" (NIV)

Psalm 27:1 declares, "The Lord is my light and my salvation—whom shall I fear? The Lord is the stronghold of my life—of whom shall I be afraid?" (NIV)

Romans 8:31-32 says, "...If God is for us, who can be against us? He who did not spare his own Son, but gave Him up for us all—how will he not also, along with him, graciously give us all things?" (NIV)

The Word of God has power to set you free from fear. Take time to study these verses and pray for God to help you live courageously in His will for your life. You'll discover there's nothing more exciting than being the person God has created you to be.

Bigger than the Great Chicago Fire

IRE Prevention Week is a good time to change batteries in smoke detectors and make sure they

Last week I asked about the big fire that started Oct. 8, 1871. Most people know about

Terry Dickow the Great Chicago

Fire, which burned from Oct. 8 to Oct. 10 but that fire paled in comparison to the Peshtigo Fire, which started the same day as Chicago's.

Peshtigo is a small, quiet town in the woods of northern Wisconsin. Following a long hot and dry summer, the woods around town were tinder waiting to burn.

And burn they did. What was described by survivors as a "tornado of fire" ravaged the area. More than 1,500, and as many as 3,000 people died in the flames. In comparison, the Great Chicago Fire resulted in an estimated 300 deaths.

In the Peshtigo fire, 12 towns and villages were destroyed by the flames, which may have started from a railroad construction crew, lightning, or some other cause.

Coincidentally, the Port Huron Fire and the Great Michigan Fire, which affected half state from Holland to Manistee, also started the same day.

Then, like now, conspiracy theories and rumors abounded. While Mrs. O'Leary and her cow were blamed for the Chicago fire, I have also read that it was more likely a drunk who fell asleep with a cigar, a young boy smoking behind a barn, and other theories. The cow story seems more folklore than true.

One other theory floating around is that a comet breaking up was the cause of all the fires, although astronomers say that is unlikely. Four major fires starting Oct. 8, 1871 coincidence, comet, or conspiracy? I don't think we will ever know.

I have heard a couple of people say candidate signs have been damaged or stolen from their

T was September 1977. "Don't Stop" by Fleetwood Mac topped the music charts, and "Star Wars" was all the rage in movie the-

I was a 14-year-old high school freshman running for freshman class president. Why? Honestly, I wasn't sure then and I am not sure now. My brother, a senior, was running for student body president and was popular. I was new to the school but was also pretty well liked by people – shocking, I know.

Honestly, I was talked into running. A friend of mine also ran and badly wanted to win. He actually campaigned. I don't remember doing that. Of course, that was a long, long time ago, so maybe I did campaign.

I remember we gave speeches during lunch at the baseball field, which was, surprisingly, in the middle of campus. I don't remember mine much, but I did have something prepared. I probably promised better tacos for lunch and to burn the face of our mascot, a criminal, into our rival's field during homecoming. (Yes, we were the Yuma High School Criminals. Google

Well, I actually won. I'm sure I was happy, but I soon figured out that life as a politician – even a 14-year-old politician – wasn't for me. I had to go to too many functions and do things like decorate the homecoming parade for our class.

I also lost the friendship of the guy I ran against. He was very bitter that he lost, and he ignored me the next four years. No big deal, I suppose. But winning an office was not worth that for me.

And yes, my brother won too. He was actually good at the job and loved doing it.

How did we win? We got more votes than the people running against us. It is really that simple. The reasons why didn't matter – popularity, name recognition, promises made. Ultimately, the vote count mattered.

The reason for this long and possibly boring story? To remind everyone that next month we are electing a president. And yes, it is a very important office. This country is also electing congressmen and women, senators, people for statewide office and even folks to represent us locally.

And the same truth matters as much now as it did in Yuma, Arizona, in 1977 your vote counts.

I have heard every excuse in the world for not voting. I am too busy. It doesn't matter who wins. My vote doesn't even count.

Well, you are wrong. Voting is now easier than ever, and that is a good thing. When I moved to Minnesota in 2003, I registered to vote on Election Day – something that we should be able to do nationwide.

People are voting right now. They are voting by mail and going to city offices and voting. I plan to walk to the church across the street and vote on Election Day, like I have in every election since we moved here five years ago.

It is easy and it is your duty. Yes, your duty.

I have rarely missed a chance to vote, even in a local election. I am not one of those who says if you don't vote you can't complain. Clearly, that is not true.

But if you don't vote, your voice is simply not heard. You are not exercising a fundamental right of being an American. It is also a civic duty that we all must complete.

Please, vote now or vote on Tues, Nov. 3. I am saying this as a citizen and a former elected official. And for the record, the tacos were better my freshman year.

OREGON—The Ogle County Solid Waste Management Department will be holding two residential electronic recycling events in October.

Electronics will be accepted on Saturday, Oct.17, from 8 a.m. to noon and on Friday, Oct. 23, rom 9 a.m. to 4 p.m., do not arrive early. The electronics recycling events require permits in advance, and will be held at the Ogle County Annex Building at 909 Pines Road in Oregon.

To obtain a free permit, call the OCSWMD at 815-732-4020, or e-mail the department at solidwaste@oglecounty.org. Acceptable items

Items accepted at this event include all televisions, computers, computer monitors, computer hardware and cables, printers, FAX machines, copiers, scanners, video game consoles and equipment, DVD/ VCR's, satellite and cable boxes, tablets, cell phones, laptops, radios, stereo equipment, digital clocks, phone systems, holiday lights, rechargeable batteries, CFL bulbs, and printer cartridges. Limit five large items per permit.

Please remove all batteries from devices, discard the alkaline batteries, and recycle the rechargeable ones at the event.

For more information about these electronic recycling events, call the OCSWMD at the number above, visit the county website at www.oglecounty.org, or visit the OCSWMD on Facebook at Ogle County Solid Waste Management Dept.

Thiravong shoots 77 in IHSA 1A Oregon Regional at Silver Ridge

BY RUSSELL HODGES SPORTS EDITOR

OREGON — Need-

ing a birdie to shift the momentum at the start of her back nine during the IHSA1AOregon Regional on Wednesday, Lady Hub senior Megan Thiravong grabbed her putter and lined herself up off the fringe of the 11th green at Silver Ridge Golf Course.

Thiravong's tee shot landed on the north edge of the green, leaving a tough putt from the fringe on a slight downslope. Unnerved, Thiravong putted the ball slowly onto the green, confidently watching as the ball rolled its way into the bottom of the cup for a birdie.

The putt was a huge morale booster for Thiravong, who finished her tournament strong with 37 on the back nine to end the afternoon in second place with a final score of 77. Thiravong, who was one of two Lady Hubs competing in Wednesday's regional, will represent Rochelle in the IHSA 1A Rock Falls Sectional at Rock River Golf & Pool on Tuesday, Oct. 13. > Despite a triple bogey on the front nine, Thiravong stayed near the top of the leaderboard throughout the regional tournament.

A birdie toward the start of the round helped Thiravong begin the morning under par, and consistent play on the back nine enabled the senior standout to earn her spot in the sectional next week. Dixon finished first in the regional behind Isabella Heintzelman, who

Huskie players return to the practice field

Mid-American Conference football programs begin games in November

Northern Illinois University football was back on the football field prepping for the upcoming 2020 Mid-American Conference season Monday morning.

The Huskies, who are practicing for the fourth time since it was announced the season was back on, worked out for an hour and a half in the crisp DeKalb air at Huskie Stadium. Head coach Thomas Hammock was pleased with the way the team responded.

"It felt really good," Hammock said about being out on the practice field. "For us, it's been a long time coming and a lot of uncertainty, but it was good to have a focus, a narrow focus, on knowing the start date and knowing the things we need to get done to get ready for the season. Our players had great energy and it's been outstanding."

All Mid-American Conference schools will start their seasons on Wednesday, Nov. 4. Having that start date to point to, Hammock can see the difference in his squad early in practice.

"You went from trying to keep the players engaged during the fall semester to now we're preparing for a game," Hammock said. "I think the urgency has certainly picked up amongst the coaches. It has certainly picked up amongst the players and guys know that we need to get ourselves mentally and physically prepared to play a MAC

Without a traditional fall camp and classes already in session, Hammock and his staff had to adjust their practice schedule accordingly.

"We looked at a normal camp schedule, and what we wanted to do was take the things from camp that we thought were productive and we could be efficient with our time and try to get that into a school day," he said. "You can't have the players here more than four hours a day. The things that you would normally space out take more time during training camp, you have to be able to condense in a timely fashion to make sure we're not going over our time. but with the understanding that these guys are in class, "For us, it's been a long time coming and a lot of uncertainty, but it was good to have a focus, a narrow focus, on knowing the start date and knowing the things we need to get done to get ready for the season."

have study tables, tutoring, etc. We want to make sure we can be as efficient and effective with our time. I think the way we have our schedule mapped out is really good. We get our physical work in the morning with practice."

In the spirit of efficiency and with an eye on safety, Hammock and his staff are also taking advantage of the technology they relied on during the pandemic to continue to coach their players up outside the practice field or meeting

"I think Zoom helps a lot now too," he said. "You can have an opportunity to grab a guy on a meeting and he doesn't have to physically come back into the building. We still want to be cautious in everything we're doing because of COVID and making sure we're being smart and safe to prevent the spread of this virus that is still in play."

Hammock has a very simple goal for his squad Thomas Hammock leading up to their first game of the season.

"The goal is to progressively build this team up, to get them ready and peaking by Nov. 4," he said. "You have to build them up to be able to sustain a two-hour practice, which helps prepare you for a three-hour game. You don't just jump right into it day one. What we tried to do is progressively work ourselves back into practice shape, into game shape and we want to peak at the right moment."

OREGON — Hub senior Aiden Seldal had one runner to beat during the final stretch of Rochelle's cross country race against the Oregon Hawks on Thursday

Competing stride-for-stride with Oregon harrier Ryan Hussung, Seldal maintained a slight edge before making a strong turn around the last turn of the course at Oregon Park West. With nothing remaining but a sprint to the finish, Seldal pushed toward the line, extending his lead and ultimately winning his first race of the 2020 season with a time of 19:08.1.

"I knew that if I stuck with whoever I was running with, I could beat him out at the end," Seldal said. "It felt really good to win the race. I think my season has gone pretty well, but I think my next few races are going to be even better. I want to finish in the 17-minute range during my next race at the conference meet and I want to be a sectional qualifier this year."

Seldal's first-place performance propelled Rochelle's boys past Oregon on Thursday, with the Hubs winning 25-30 for their first victory since Sept. 3. Sophomore David Wanner placed third for Rochelle (5-7, 1-6 Interstate 8) with a time of 20:00, while junior Josue Huerta took sixth in 20:33.8. Freshmen Parker Lenkaitis and Alex Burke rounded out the top eight runners in the race, with Lenkaitis (20:34.0) finishing seventh and Burke (21:20.1) placing eighth.

"We're racing really well right now," Seldal said. "We have a well-rounded team and everybody placed well today. I think we can race well at the conference and regional meets. These next few races may be the last few for some of the guys, so we want to show what we can do.'

The Lady Hubs also went head-tohead with Oregon on Thursday, with the Hawks defeating Rochelle 17-46. Junior Sara Johnson finished fourth for the Lady Hubs (3-8, 1-6 Interstate 8) with a time of 24:01.1 and sophomore Karina Lopez took 13th with a time of 28:12.9.

Kaneland

The Rochelle Hub and Lady Hub cross country teams faced the Kaneland Knights on the road Tuesday afternoon, with both the boys and girls falling by scores of 15-50. It was the final conference dual meet for the Hubs and Lady Hubs before the Interstate 8 Championships on Saturday, Oct. 17 at Sycamore.

Junior Sara Johnson finished eighth with a time of 23:45 to lead the Lady Hubs, while senior Aiden Seldal and sophomore David Wanner were the top boys, placing 11th and 12th with respective times of 19:02 and 19:10. Freshman Parker Lenkaitis took 14th for the Hubs with a time of 19:43.

"I knew that if I stuck with whoever I was running with, I could beat him out at the end. It felt really good to win the race. I think my season has gone pretty well, but I think my next few races are going to be even better."

NIU Football

2020 schedule released

Huskies face Buffalo on Nov. 4

DEKALB — The Northern Illinois University Huskies will open the 2020 football season on Wednesday, Nov. 4 when they play host to the Buffalo Bulls at Huskie Stadium in the first of three 2020 home games as the Mid-American Conference released its complete 2020 football schedule Wednesday.

NIU will start the season with #MACtion games on three consecutive Wednesday nights in November before the schedule moves to Saturdays beginning on Nov. 28, the Saturday after Thanksgiving. The MAC Championship game will be played on Friday, Dec. 18 at Ford Field in Detroit.

In addition to the season opener versus Buffalo, the only MAC East opponent on the 2020 schedule, NIU will take on Central Michigan at home on Wednesday, November 11 and faces Toledo at Huskie Stadium on Saturday, Dec. 5. NIU will travel to Muncie, Indiana to face Ball State on Wednesday, Nov. 18 and plays Western Michigan in Kalamazoo on Nov. 28. The Huskies conclude the regular season Dec. 12 at Eastern Michigan. (see schedule below)

Second-yearhead coach Thomas Hammock said announcing the schedule was another step forward in this unusual 2020 season.

"As coaches, we like to plan months ahead, so It feels great to know who you're preparing for," Hammock said. "We know the outline, the layout and when we'll have a longer week as opposed to a shorter week. We're excited about the schedule. It's very fair, very challenging and very competitive. We know that we have to be ready to play each and every week if we are going to be successful. We open with Buffalo, one of the best teams in the MAC with a great running back and they're going to have $our undivided \, attention \, and \,$ our focus as we prepare."

With fans inside Huskie Stadium limited to immediate family of studentathletes for the three home games, NIU will not sell tickets or be able to accommodate season ticket members at Huskie Stadium in 2020. Individuals who purchased season tickets earlier this year and who have not yet contacted the NIU Athletic Ticket Office to provide direction for those funds have until Nov. 1 to do so.

With Huskies Invest: The Campaign underway to raise funds to support NIU student-athletes and help fill the budgetary shortfalls created by the coronavirus pandemic, season ticket members are invited to donate the money already paid for season tickets to Huskies Invest at this critical time.

Season ticket members may also choose to roll the payments over to be used in the 2021 season. To make your determination now, or at any time, click here and submit the form or contact the NIU Athletics Ticket Office via email (huskiestickets@niu.edu) or phone (815-753-7225, M-F 9 am-5 pm).

While most fans will not be allowed to cheer on the Huskies in person this year, there will be a chance for NIU fans to be represented in Huskie Stadium in 2020 by purchasing a life-sized cardboard cutout of themselves, a family member or fellow Huskie fan that will be positioned in the stands. More information on the cardboard cutout program, along with a website where fans can upload photos and make the order, will be online soon.

show "The Amazing Race" is coming back. It was always my favorite because it wasn't just people bickering, and since I can't afford to travel the world, watching "The Amazing Race" is the next best thing. How much longer do I need to wait for new episodes? -- S.B. A: The 32nd installment of "The

Q: I'm so excited to hear that the reality

SUNDAY AFTERNOON

Amazing Race" was actually filmed back in November 2018, but CBS is finally set to broadcast it beginning Wednesday, Oct. 14, at 9 p.m. ET. According to TVLine.com, the globetrotting competitors will touch down in Trinidad, France, Germany and Brazil, and include NFL stars DeAngelo Williams and Gary Barnidge and Olympic hurdlers Kellie Wells-Brinkley and LaVonne Idlette. Representing us average folk are paired-up siblings, couples, and a father and son duo.

Q: I was a fan of "Pan Am" and enjoy watching it again on Amazon Prime. What happened to the cast since it was canceled? They were great, but I haven't seen them since the series. -- J.H.

A: "Pan Am," named after the glamorous international airline of the 1960s, lasted just one short season on ABC before it was canceled in 2012. Sony Pictures Television tried to get Amazon to pick it up for a second season, but that deal didn't work out.

The cast has done well since. Christina Ricci was already a household name before starring in "Pan Am" as stewardess Maggie Ryan and has since gone on to play Lizzie Borden in a miniseries. Next up for her is the survival drama "Yellowjackets" on Showtime, about a soccer team whose plane crashes.

Michael Mosley, who played Ted Vanderway, has had regular roles on "Longmire," "Castle" and "Ozark," among others. Kelli Garner, who played Kate Cameron, starred as the tragic Marilyn in the miniseries "The Secret Life Margot of Marilyn Monroe" and was in another Robbie in one-season drama, "The Enemy Within," which starred Jennifer Carpenter.

The two most famous alumniof "Pan

"Pan Am"

Am" are David Harbour and Margot Robbie. Harbour stars in the hit series "Stranger Things" and can be seen in the upcoming Marvel movie "Black Widow." Robbie is a two-time Academy Award nominee for her roles in "I, Tonya" and "Bombshell." Next up for her is a starring role in the film "Barbie," based on the popular line of Mattel toys.

O: Has there been any news on the Alaskan Bush family on the Brown's son Matt? I'm amazed that none of them have mentioned him at all. -- P.B.

A: Matt Brown left the Discovery Channel's hit show "Alaskan Bush People" a couple years ago after he became addicted to alcohol and had a falling out with his family. He did a stay at the Betty Ford Center and has been sober for two years, but according to RadarOnline, the family, including his siblings, doesn't want Matt back in the picture. You can follow Matt on Instagram @ MattBrown511, where he showcases his artwork and quiet new life in California.

Virtual historic tour of homes launches on Oct. 24 favorite Pumpkin Fest tradition is the DeKalb County History Center's His-Ltoric Tour of Homes. This year, while our community might not be celebrating together, people can still enjoy learning more about architecture and local history during this year's virtual

In the past, a theme was announced, volunteers were recruited, and about seven homes were open for the public to explore on the Saturday of Pumpkin Fest. This year, due to COVID, the History Center came up with a creative option to host this important fundraiser – a virtual House Walk. While homes will not be open to the public, there are going to be a variety of opportunities to discover the rich history of Somonauk Street along with two bonus

"By offering a virtual House Walk we can present our research and stories in a variety of new formats. First, we are offering a magazine-style color brochure that highlights 15 homes, compared to the traditional black and white booklet with seven homes. We are also including two interviews with home owners who have never had their home on the Walk. Using Google Earth, people can access material with a mobile device. Finally, there is also the option to print out the text from a computer. All of these choices provide people several ways to discover and engage with Sycamore's historic homes," explained Michelle Donahoe, Executive Director of the DeKalb County History Center. She continued, "Another benefit is that more people will have the time to enjoy the House Walk. Hundreds of people are volunteering during Pumpkin Fest and are not free to participate in the House Walk. This year, with the virtual option, there is more flexibility in when you want to participate."

The homes included in the tour are: 230 Somonauk, 305 Somonauk, 319 Somonauk, 320 Somonauk, 413 Somonauk, 420 Somonauk, 421 Somonauk, 432 Somonauk, 450 Somonauk, 608 Somonauk, 614 Somonauk, 708 Somonauk, 813 Somonauk, 827 Somonauk, and 925 Somonauk. There are also two interviews with the homeowners of 314 S. Main Street and 740 W. State Street.

The History Center will launch their Virtual Tour on Saturday, October 24. Simply visit their website dekalbcountyhistory.org, pay the $20 fee. Then, you can download the information to a computer, access the mobile tour, listen to the interviews, and print out the historical information. The House Walk will be available for purchase until January 10.

For more information contact the DeKalb County History Center at 815-895-5762 or at info@dekalbcountyhistory.org. The History Center is located at 1730 N. Main Street and is open with limited Fifteen homes will be featured in the DeKalb County History Center's virtual Historic Tour of Homes fundraiser. There will also be interviews with the homeowner of 314 S. Main Street and 740 W. State Street. At left is inlaid wood floor from 432 Somonauk.
