Missing windmill found BY ANDREW HEISERMAN

STAFF WRITER

ROCHELLE – A very special garden windmill that was stolen out a resident's front lawn weeks earlier, was recently discovered by a father and son spending quality time together. The five-foot tall garden windmill was purchased at an auction by Joanne Rogde who has always had a fondness for windmills. She put the windmill in a flower patch in the front yard, underneath an American flag since her husband Her husband was also a die-hard Chicago Cubs fan, so when his health declined and he got very sick she stripped it down and painted the windmill "Cubby blue," with the Cub's logo on one of the blades. Her husband would look out the window at the windmill to see if it were too windy to sit on his porch swing. Her husband has since passed away and one day she looked out that same window and cried, when she saw the windmill had been stolen. She informed the Rochelle Police Department and on April 18, made a Facebook post asking for any information and has been searching for it since.

hear at city hall on June 2 at 10 a.m. The second topic was the village's safe route to the school sidewalk project. Creston has received $156,000 in grant funds from Illinois Department of Transportation to move forward with the project and get a second bid.

Grant funding

During the streets and sidewalks committee report, Village Trustee Curt Ward informed the board of Rebuild Illinois funds the city will be receiving from IDOT in multiple installments. The funds are based on population and the village will be receiving a total of $43,000 in six different installments. The first installment will come in the next week or so and the amount will be paid in full within the next three years.

"Whatever check you are getting in a week or so, you will get five more of those," village engineer Kevin Bunge said. "It is supposed to be a check every six months, for three years, for a total of six equal payments."

During the meeting, board members also passed a motion to move forward with a seal coat project that will include all the streets on the south side of the railroad track as well as Main Street and Woodlawn Road.

Mobile wi-fi available to students

Pictured in front of her family's 1931 Ford Model A pickup truck, which survived the 2015 tornado that destroyed much of their family farm, is the 2019-20 Rochelle Township High School NSDAR Good Citizen, Morgan Schabacker. Schabacker was selected by her fellow students and teachers at Rochelle Township High School, through a process that included an optional written essay, for exemplifying the qualities of dependability, service, leadership and patriotism. Morgan's essay was further selected by the Rochelle Chapter Daughters of the American Revolution to be forwarded to the district level of the competition. Schabacker graduates from Iowa State University

AMES, Iowa—Colin Schabacker from Rochelle will graduate with a bachelor of science degree from the College of Agriculture and Life Sciences.

Majoring in agricultural business, Schabacker will join a network of 46,000 CALS alumni sharing their talents and making a difference around the world.

Due to the ongoing COVID-19 crisis and the university's commitment to prioritize health and safety, spring commencement has moved to a virtual format. While graduation may look a little different in this format, there are still opportunities for students to celebrate their achievement with their family, friends and supporters.

On May 8, the College of Agriculture and Life Sciences hosted a virtual convocation. The event provided individual recognition for graduating seniors and featured a series of videos hosted on the college Facebook page. Viewers can also visit www.cals.iastate. edu/convocation where

Happy Hospital Week! May 10-16, 2020

In observance of National Hospital Week, May 10-16, I'd like to take this opportunity to thank all of the medical staff, nursing staff and support staff at Rochelle Community Hospital. Through their dedication and teamwork we continue to provide the very best patient care during the COVID-19 pandemic. Thank you to the City of Rochelle, the Ogle County Health Department, emergency services and everyone in the community for your support of Rochelle Community Hospital during this very challenging time. Observing how everyone has rallied together to meet the challenge has been very humbling for all of us. Please know that Rochelle Community Hospital will be here for you today, tomorrow and in the future. Stay well!

Parade planned to salute local healthcare workers

ROCHELLE — The City of Rochelle and Mayor John Bearrows are making plans for a community parade to show support and thanks to local Rochelle Community Hospital, staff and healthcare professionals on Tuesday, May 12 at 2 p.m.

Annually, the month of May will be Rochelle Community Hospital and Healthcare workers month. The entire community is welcome

"A parade is a great way to invite everyone out to show their appreciation and support," said Mayor Bearrows. "We hope to have a great turnout."

Parades have been utilized in a number of ways since the stay-at-home orders have been in place including for birthday celebrations and graduations as residents look for creative ways to celebrate special occasions while practicing social distance.

"This community has a whole lot of pride," said Bearrows. "We support each other when times are difficult."

The parade lineup will take place at Rochelle Middle School on School Avenue at 1:30 p.m. Watch for the orange cones for check-in. Mayor Bearrows and the Rochelle police and fire departments will lead the way down School Avenue to Second Street and circle the hospital. All are welcome and encouraged to attend, decorate vehicles, honk the horn and have fun.

Kishwaukee College offering online pharmacy technician training this summer

MALTA — Kishwaukee College's Community Education department is offering the Pharmacy Technician program completely online for the Summer

Class will begin the week of May 26 and end the week of Aug. 27. Students registered for the program must attend the Orientation Session on May 19 at 7 p.m. via Zoom. Participants are required to have access to a computer and the internet to participate in the program. The Workforce Innovation and Opportunity Act may provide funding to cover the cost of the class for participants who qualify.

The Pharmacy Technician program prepares participants to successfully start work and pass the national certification exam. Completion of this short-term training program provides an entrance into a career path that begins with a skilled, entry-level position with the opportunity for further career advancement. Participants must be at least 16 years of age to register for the program.

Pharmacy Technicians assist pharmacists with dispensing prescription medication. Depending on the position, the technician may also manage third-party billing, answer telephones, direct customers to items or to the pharmacist for medication consultation, receive written prescriptions, clean and sterilize dispensing bottles and instruments, answer questions regarding non-drug products and collect payments. Those interested in registering for the program must contact Kishwaukee College's coordinator of short-term training, Melissa Gallagher, at mgallagher1@kish.edu.

For more information about the pharmacy technician program visit www.kish.edu/pharmacytech.

For more information about WIOA funding, contact WIOA-Youth program coordinator, Phylicia Hampton at phampton1@kish.edu or WIOA-Adult program training specialist Joanne Dunbar at jdunbar@kish.edu.

Farm bureau accepting applications for veterinary loan program

BLOOMINGTON-Illinois Farm Bureau® (IFB) is accepting applications for its Illinois Veterinary Education and Training (IVET) loan program. Loans are available to students attending any accredited college of veterinary medicine in the U.S. and who are focused on Illinois food animal medicine.

The Illinois Veterinary Education Training (IVET) Program helps offset the high cost of veterinary education. The program loans up to $40,000 to as many as three veterinary students each year.

Loans are made over a period of two to three years. IVET awards recipients a $1,500 stipend during their fourth year in school to help pay expenses associated with clinical rotations. Loans are repaid over five years, during which graduates must commit to working in a food animal practice that services Illinois livestock producers.

"Illinois Farm Bureau encourages veterinary students to pursue a career in caring for food animals. To succeed, farmers need the services of a food-animal veterinarian to help them care for their beef cattle, swine, sheep, and poultry," said Tasha Bunting, Associate Di-

Cleto Kingsbury

LINDENWOOD — Cleto Kingsbury, 47, passed away Sunday, May 3, 2020 at his home in Linden-wood. Cleto was born on July 13, 1972. He is preceded in death by his father, Jordan Kingsbury, his grandparents, Bernard and Rita Kingsbury, and an uncle, Hardy Henna. Cleto was a die-hard Chicago Bears fan. He loved sports and all of his Illinois teams. He enjoyed fishing and spending time in the great outdoors, especially in Canada. He was an Engineer and a Craftsman who could be found designing, optimizing, creating, and building just about anything he needed to solve a problem or simply for his enjoyment or enjoyment by others. One of his hobbies was designing and creating lamps which he often gave away as gifts.

He was an avid reader and cooking enthusiast who enjoyed perfecting his own recipes in the kitchen. Cleto was a gentle, kind, and calm soul, loved by all who knew him. He will be deeply missed by his family, friends, and those who were fortunate to have met him. Cleto is survived by his mother, Juana Kingsbury, of Lindenwood; two brothers, Bernie (Becky) Kingsbury of Lindenwood, and Michael (Christa) Kingsbury of North Dakota; three sisters, Juana (Mike) Kulwicki of Chana, Maria "Cuca" (Travis Lund) Kingsbury of Woodridge, and Rita (Brian) Etscheid of Redwood City, California; and many nieces and Totally unaware of the missing windmill, Adam Moore and his 13-year-old son, Mason, saw a video online of a person going "magnet fishing." Magnet fishing is when a person puts a powerful magnet on the end of a rope and pulls things out of lakes and rivers. The two thought this was cool, so Adam bought a magnet that could hold up to 500 pounds and took his son to Spring Lake. The first thing that Mason pulled from the water was the missing windmill. "My husband purchased the Controlling mosquitoes on your property toes than others? Enroth

URBANA – Mosquitoes are already out in force this season. How can we protect ourselves and our families and still enjoy the outdoors?

"Humans are mosquito magnets," says University of Illinois Extension educator Chris Enroth. "Not only are forgotten plastic kiddie pools in the backyard good for mosquito breeding, we also attract mosquitoes simply by being living, breathing mammals."

Personal

protection What makes one person more attractive to mosqui-says mosquitoes can't resist the following:

Carbon dioxide: "Yes, every time you exhale, you draw those pesky little blood-suckers closer," Enroth says.

Lactic acid: Humans produce lactic acid on our skin. Some produce more than others.

High skin temperature Colognes and perfumes Dark-colored clothing

Warm days with low winds. "Mosquitoes are pretty lousy fliers, so cool days with high winds (over 10 mph) reduce their activity. Placing a fan facing an outdoor seating area will keep them at bay," Enroth

Studies have also indicated that some people are just more desirable than others. Due to the complexity of factors that can play into this, researchers are unsure why exactly this is.

The Illinois Department of Public Health recommends DEET as the most effective chemical to use to combat mosquitoes. Look for sprays with DEET at 40% or higher for an effective, long-lasting repellants Be sure to re-apply every 4-6 hours. DEET confuses the mosquito and blocks the females' ability to detect carbon dioxide, heat, moisture, and human sweat.

Avoidance is only part of the strategy. Controlling mosquito populations though habitat reduction and backyard treatments is another strategy to minimize bites.

Breeding sites

"Only female mosquitoes bite," Enroth says. This is because they need a blood meal (protein) for reproduction. Once she has fed, the female will search out a favorable site to lay her eggs. Anything that holds stagnant water is her target. Preventing her offspring from developing into adult mosquitoes is the most effective control. Enroth suggests the following strategies to eliminate breeding sites:

Remove any object on your property that may hold water. For example, tin cans, toys, flower pot saucers, stagnant pools, and the notorious old tire in the backyard.

Change water in birdbaths weekly

Stock garden ponds with top-feeding minnows

Make sure covers are tight and free of holes over grills, cisterns, rain barrels, or anywhere water is stored Clean your gutters. This is often the unseen area for mosquito development. Enroth recommends cleaning out gutters in the fall and spring.

If you can't remove the standing water, Enroth recommends treating it with Bti (Bacillus thuringiensis israelensis). Bti only targets the larva of mosquitoes and a few species of fly.

Controlling adult

mosquitoes

"Avoid using bug zappers to control flying adults," Enroth says. "About 90% of insects killed with bug zappers are not mosquitoes. In fact several are beneficial insects like the brown lacewing."

Mosquito foggers work for only a short period of time and are well-suited to being used prior to an outdoor event.

Community-wide control programs work best. "Everyone has a role to play in minimizing mosquito population," Enroth says.

To prevent getting bitten by female mosquitoes and to minimize the spread of West Nile Virus, Illinoisians should follow the recommendations above for reducing habitat and personal protection.

The key to having a perfect heart

OUR heart is the most important part of you. It's not only a physical organ that keeps your blood pumping, but when the Bible refers to the heart, it's talking about who you really are. Each person has an inner and an outer life. There's the person we show Religion to everybody around us and the part of us that only God can see, the part He really cares about.

By Joyce Meyer

The Bible tells us to have a perfect heart. Matthew 5:48 (NIV) says, "Be perfect, therefore, as your heavenly Father is perfect." If you're a perfectionist, this is a scary verse, because it's a struggle to always try to be perfect. But this is not what it means to be perfect, according to Scripture.

The Amplified Bible translation of Matthew 5:48 says, "...Be perfect [growing into spiritual maturity both in mind and character, actively integrating godly values into your daily life], as your heavenly Father is perfect." A person with a perfect heart is someone who loves God and always wants to grow.

2 Chronicles 16:9 (NIV) says, "For the eyes of the Lord range throughout the earth to strengthen those whose hearts are fully committed to him." This verse doesn't say that God can just work through those who are perfect but through those who are "fully committed to him."

Just as we don't have to make ourselves perfect before we come to Christ (which we couldn't do anyway), we don't need to behave perfectly in every area of our life before God will work in us and through us. When I first started teaching a home Bible study years ago, I wore short shorts and smoked while I taught the Word, sitting on my living room floor.

I had a lot of growing to do, but I really loved God and wanted to please Him. He met me right where I was and worked with me to get me where I needed to be. There's always room to grow in my walk with Christ, and I'm so thankful that God keeps working in me and through me on every level of my journey, every day of my life.

A person with a perfect heart is someone who loves God with all their heart, soul, mind and strength, and who is fully committed to Him. The question is: What areas of your life have you been holding back from God? Have you been giving Him your time, praying and studying the Word? Do you give of yourself to others, helping to meet their needs as you're able? Are you managing your finances the way God wants you to, living within your means, saving, spending and giving as He puts it on your heart to do so?

It's important to remember that whatever God asks us to do, it's always for our good. Initially, it may feel sacrificial, giving up things we like or want. But as we obey God, we find later on that there was so much more we didn't even know about, and what God wanted was much better for us in the long run.

More than anything else, the Bible says God wants us to love Him (Luke 10:27), and love sacrifices and obeys. The more we love Jesus, the easier it is to obey and trust Him. Because when you really love someone, you want to please them and make them happy.

What makes God happy is helping you do anything that will give you a better life.

In Mark 7:15, Jesus says, "Nothing outside a person can defile them by going into them. Rather, it is what comes out of a person that defiles them. This verse makes it clear that it's what comes out of a person's heart that really matters.

We all need to have a meeting with ourselves once in a while to examine what's really in our hearts. It's easy to smile and act like we're good on the outside, while on the inside, it's a different story. I remember times when I was in church, singing "I Surrender All" with my hands in the air, and thinking, "If Dave thinks I'm cooking something for him today, he's got another thing coming." It's possible to appear to be doing one thing while your heart is somewhere else.

My goal with this message is to help you make a committed decision to love God with all of your heart, and to fall in love with Him more and more every day. As you do, you'll discover how it's the key to having a heart that's more like His...a perfect heart.

LOCAL VIEWS

Crankiness is setting in am a little cranky this week, so pardon

I think it is because of the lack of human interaction...one can only watch so many "Friends" episodes. One of the most moving moments in my life was standing among the white crosses at the American Cemetery at Omaha Beach. It was there on June 6, 1944, that over 3,000 young American men were killed storming the beaches of Normandy,

Terry

Dickow

Why did they do it? Because they recognized the world needed to be rid of the evil sweeping Europe, the evil of Adolph Hitler and the Nazi party. That evil was signified by swastikas and red flags with white circles with the dreaded swastika in the center.

Then I think of Colin Kaepernick, the one-time NFL quarterback who took a knee during the National Anthem to protest the treatment of minorities in our country.

He was vilified by politicians, veterans groups, television commentators — all yelling about the lack of respect he was showing for our country.

You would think people marching down the street in any American city carrying Nazi flags would get the same response.

Instead, all you hear are crickets. One person even said there were nice people protesting.

Nice people don't walk around carrying Nazi flags and wearing swastikas. Nice people don't parade the Confederate flag. Nice people don't have military grade weapons slung over their shoulders.

Except for Michigan's governor...nothing. Just crickets.

Carrying those symbols is akin to spitting on the graves of every veteran who served this country.

In my opinion, if an elected official does not condemn those "protestors' they don't deserve anyone's vote.

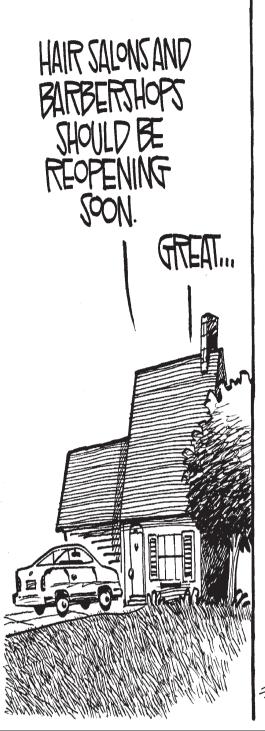

And please, if you think what they are doing is ok, don't criticize Colin Kaepernick ever again.

Somehow, I think those buried in France would also take offense at the Nazi flag wavers. *****

Like others, I have a hair emergency

Thave seen you at the grocery store. I saw you in the local Ldrug store. And there you were, driving around in your car trying to avoid detection.

But I saw you, sporting that COVID-19 hair.

Look, I get it. We are all suffering in many ways right now. And that includes in the hair department. A lot of people look like they just got out of bed. Now, while that may be true of some, I refuse to believe this many people simply don't care about how they look during the pandemic.

Like everyone else, I have not been able to get a haircut. Unlike many men, I am fairly hair obsessed. For those of you who have met me, this probably comes as a shock. But let me tell you, if I didn't care as much as I do it wouldn't even look this good.

For years, I have had my hair cut every three weeks like clockwork. I always like to be well groomed. In fact, it has bordered on being a little embarrassing. Of course, I grew up in an era where longer hair was common for guys, and I certainly had longer hair. I was that kid with the rat-tail comb sticking out of his back pocket who was ready to whip it out and keep his hair neat at a moment's notice.

I was so into my hair, actually, that when I told people I had joined the military late in my senior year of high school, some didn't believe me simply because they didn't think I would get a haircut. Well, I did. It was very painful emotionally, but I did

I have kept my hair generally short since then, except for a period of longer hair just after I was discharged. I had some ugly 80s hair and some bad 90s cuts to be sure.

By the late 1990s, I just decided to shave my head down to stubble. No fuss, no muss. It was already going white anyway, so why not just cut it?

Well, that didn't last too long and I decided to go the other way.

I got it spiked up and started bleaching it.

Yes, I bleached my hair. And I bleached it for 17 years or so. In fact, when I started this job I was still bleaching my hair.

I eventually let it grow out because by that time, it was Jennings pretty much white anyway. But I kept up with my haircuts. I had my last one about two weeks before the shelter at home order was put in place.

My hair has now reached a point where I am just going to let it grow. Why not? I still have some to grow so I might just ride this tiger and see how it goes. It is already growing over my ears and filling out in a very unflattering way, but what better time to get past this awkward stage than during a pandemic? But I still get up and shower every morning, work from home or not. And I "do" my hair every day. I don't sit around looking like a bum. My wife is also working from home, and if there is one person on the Earth that I don't want to look bad around it is my wife.

I think getting ready for work even when you are working from home is important. It helps me stay engaged and do my best job. Also, I can head out if needed at a moment's notice.

And I care what I look like. Vain? Maybe, but I don't want to look like a slob.

I wish I could say the same for everyone.

So, the next time you see me after this is all over, my hair might look a little on the wild side. That is just me trying to get my hair to the next stage. Just please don't stare too long – I am a little hair sensitive.

First donation recipient announced

100 Women Who Care gives $1,100 to Rochelle Christian Food Pantry

ROCHELLE — On April 23, the original 11 members of 100 Women Who Care of Ogle County voted to give $1,100 to the Rochelle Christian Food Pantry. All the funds from the donation will be used to purchase more food, and the pantry cannot stress how thankful it is.

"For every $1 donated, we can purchase $8 worth of food from the Northern Illinois Food Bank," food pantry manager TyAnne Unger said. "We can't believe how blessed we are and cannot thank the people and the industry for supporting us."

100 Women Who Care of Ogle County brings together women who are passionate about helping nonprofit organizations in Ogle County. The organization meets every quarter, with members each donating $100 per quarter. Nonprofit organizations are nominated to receive the funds, and by a vote of the members, one organization receives 100 percent of the money.

"We are very happy to be able to help the food pantry especially in this time of crisis," said Deanna Forrest, president of 100 Women Who Care of Ogle County.

Since the shelter-in-place order went into effect, the Rochelle Christian Food Pantry has been serving more people than ever. The pantry says the amount of people it's serving has at least doubled. Currently, the food pantry is hard at work packing boxes of food on Mondays and Thursdays and is open as a drive-up service on Tuesdays and Fridays.

"We have a skeleton crew working with the minimum number of employees and have become a well-oiled engine at the pantry," said Unger.

Residents and locals in need of food can drive up to the pantry, where workers fill their cars with > food. One person will be allowed to leave the vehicle to choose from a small amount of fresh produce before returning to the vehicle. Anybody served must bring an ID or proof of address, and if it's the person's first time, a small amount of paperwork will be filled out.

The next 100 Women Who Care of Ogle County meeting is scheduled for July 23 at the Holiday Inn Express in Rochelle. If the shelter-in-place order is still in effect, the organization will 100 Women Who Care of Ogle County is looking to increase its membership in order to donate a larger amount to its next recipient. The organization especially wants to extend the invitation to women from each of the towns in Ogle County so that all areas are represented and all nonprofits in the county have the same chance of winning.

Members

The organization is looking for new members from the following areas: Baileyville, Byron, Chana, Creston, Davis Junction, Forreston, Holcomb, Leaf River, Lindenwood, Monroe Center, Oregon, Polo, Rochelle, Stillman Valley and Woosung.

Those considering joining the organization and nominating a nonprofit organization in Ogle County can do so by contacting one of the three founders: Deanna Forrest at forrestdeanna@ hotmail.com, Linda Graber at lingraber204@comcast.net and Debby Katzman at kaytiebo@ yahoo.com.

STATE NEWS

Employment security department processing claims 'in timely manner'

Ezike says honor mothers this weekend by staying home as state announces another 138 COVID-19 deaths

BY REBECCA ANZEL

CAPITOL NEWS ILLINOIS

SPRINGFIELD — Gov. JB Pritzker said Thursday the Illinois Department of Employment Security is paying benefits to unemployed Illinoisans "in a timely manner" after a number of improvements were made to the oft-maligned process.

Three quarters of people filing claims received their first benefits within two weeks of applying, he added.

Personnel worked daily to "expand our systems and capacity" in order to address concerns from residents who could not access the online forms or reach a call center representative, the governor said.

"In many ways, they've been forced to build a new airplane while flying it," he said.

Since March, the department has hired new employees and contracted retired ones, expanded the daily call center and contracted retired ones, expanded the daily call center hours, updated its phone system and modernized its online portal. Its staff worked "thousands of overtime hours to process the avalanche of claims," Pritzker said.

The governor announced the creation of a new call center staffed by 100 agents. Available Monday, it is designed to answer questions from residents filling out the online unemployment forms.

And for those using that web platform, he added, the system has been "improved measurably." Web pages now load with less than one second of wait time.

The improvements come in time for independent contractors to file unemployment claims under a new federal program that makes those workers eligible for such claims. Pritzker said IDES will begin processing those forms Monday, but he urged eligible applicants not to wait.

The federal government mandates independent contractors or self-employed people apply for traditional unemployment benefits and be denied before they can apply for this new program.

Pritzker said those who apply for benefits by debit card, as opposed to direct deposit, could have the card mailed before entering a new pandemic unemployment assistance claim, even if their regular unemployment claim is denied. He said cards can often take two weeks to arrive, so applying early would speed up the process for when the pandemic unemployment assistance portal opens Monday.

The IDES website is "prepared to process more than 140,000 claims per hour," the governor said, "and we will be using capacity at our new call center to support claimants starting Monday."

Pritzker has faced criticism from Republican lawmakers about delays in the unemployment filing process, which he conceded was initially overwhelmed as more than 1 million "The more people are out, the more infections there will be. The more infections there will be, the more hospitalizations there will be. The more hospitalizations, some fraction of those will go on to have severe complications and potentially die."

Dr. Ngozi Ezike

Illinoisans filed claims since March 1.

Republicans said in a videoconference meeting Wednesday that their offices frequently field calls from constituent reporting problems with their unemployment claims.

Delays in the department's ability to process requests came after a decade of being "often overlooked," understaffed and gutted by state government disinvestment, Pritzker said. He said IDES has 500 fewer employees than it did when the Great Recession hit in 2008-2009.

The systems, Pritzker said, were not constructed to meet the "historic" demand, which was far greater than the 180,000 claims filed in the first nine weeks of the Great Recession.

In all of 2019, IDES paid out about $1.5 billion in benefits. In the first four months of 2020, it has paid $2 billion.

"Beyond the thousands who've died and the tens of thousands who've been sick and the hundreds of thousands who've lost friends and loved ones to COVID-19, the financial toll to the people of Illinois has been breathtaking," Pritzker said. "And it's unprecedented."

Health update

The Illinois Department of Public Health reported 2,641 new confirmed COVID-19 cases, and 138 residents died in 15 counties over the previous 24 hours. That brings the state's total to 70,873 cases and 3,111 deaths in 97 counties.

There were 17,783 tests results reported in the last 24 hours, meaning the positivity rate for those tested in that span was about 15 percent. A total of 379,043 tests have been conducted thus far.

Dr. Ngozi Ezike, the department's director, said residents helped stymie the growth in COVID-19 cases by social distancing, but the curve has "stayed flat."

She said officials are watching what will happen as the weather gets warmer and restrictions are loosened.

"We'll move quickly through the phases (of the Restore Illinois plan), but we have to be realistic," Ezike said. "The more people are out, the more infections there will be. The more infections there will be, the more hospitalizations there will be. The more hospitalizations, some fraction of those will go on to have severe complications and potentially die."

With Mother's Day upcoming Sunday, Ezike said it is still important to observe social distancing.

"Please let's honor our elderly mothers and our grandmothers this Mother's Day by keeping them safe," she said. "To do that, please stay at home. Please wear your face coverings. Please wash your hands frequently."

In the Northeast region of Illinois, she added, the infection rate is slightly higher than 20 percent. In the other three regions outlined in the governor's plan to reopen the state's economy, that rate is "well under" 20 percent.

Pritzkersaidhethinksa viable COVID-19 treatment may be available before a vaccine, a development that would help the state's regions begin to reopen.

"An effective treatment, I think, is potentially on the horizon and that will change everything," he said. "(The Rebuild Illinois) plan can evolve. I've said we're going to change the playbook — we need to because things will change as we go forward."

Other notes

1. Pritzker said national sports leagues moving to restore their seasons is good for residents "psyche," but his primary concern is ensuring their safety.

There is no state in the U.S. that can safely have thousands of people gathering in stadiums, Illinois included, the governor said. In speaking with sports officials, he said he learned many plan to resume games without fans physically present.

2 When asked whether the Nov 3 general election

- 2. When asked whether the Nov. 3 general election will continue as planned, the governor said the General Assembly needs to pass a law allowing for mail-in ballots. He confirmed there will be in-person voting and how the state implements that with IDPH's guidance "will be important."
- 3. Pritzker said child care should not be a concern for parents because even under the stay-at-home order, 2,500 facilities were available. He added his administration convened a task force to ensure those services continue to exist.
- Pritzker also announced his daily briefings will no longer occur on weekends.

Ringing the bell

Jandak family donates special gift to help future Hubs continue tradition

BY RUSSELL HODGES SPORTS EDITOR

The Rochelle

Township High School football program has a long-standing tradition where Hub players ring the bell at the north end of the field after every home win to celebrate their victory with the community. RTHS standouts William and Charlie Jandak took part in this tradition many times during their high school football careers, and through the generosity of their family, that tradition will be carried over from the gridiron to the weight room.

While schools remain closed due to the coronavirus, student-athletes will see something rather unique when they return to the RTHS weight room. Whether they're setting new personal records or accomplishing their fitness goals, studentathletes will have the opportunity to ring the high school's new weight room bell, which the Jandak family donated in an effort to give back to the programs that helped William and Charlie become the men and the athletes they are today.

Scorching start highlights Wanner's senior season

BY RUSSELL HODGES

SPORTS EDITOR

ark Wanner was on the road with his Washburn University teammates when the former Rochelle Township High School baseball standout heard the unfortunate news that his final collegiate season was canceled because of the coronavirus pandemic.

Wanner had been dominating opposing pitchers prior to the cancellation, which made the news much tougher for him to hear. The senior infielder appeared in 16 games with seven starts, leading the Ichabods with a .424 average while adding three extra-base hits and five RBIs. Wanner was ranked second in the Division II MIAA Conference in hitting before play stopped.

"I was devastated when I found out our season was canceled," Wanner said. "We were halfway to our weekend series and we had to turn around and come back to campus. I understand why our season was canceled but I was disappointed that I couldn't finish the season.'

Wanner had been making significant strides from his junior campaign, where he finished with a .190 batting average and six RBIs. Despite missing time this past summer with a broken arm he suffered on a hit-by-pitch, Wanner said the mechanical adjustments he made to his swing over the offseason helped facilitate the improvements he saw in the box this season.

"The changes I made allowed me to have a great summer until I broke my arm," Wanner said. "I used most of the fall to rehab, but I played well in our fall games. I continued to work hard on my mechanical adjustments over the winter and they were paying off this spring."

Wanner, who helped guide Rochelle to an IHSA 3A Regional Championship in 2014, began his collegiate career at the NJCAA level, spending one season with Indian Hills Community College before transferring to McHenry County College, where he slashed .354/.453/.531 with 36 RBIs and was named an All-ISCC First Team member in 2018. He earned MIAA Academic Honor Roll recognition during his first season with Washburn University in 2019.

"My favorite thing about the Washburn team was playing the game I love at a high level with such a great group of teammates with similar goals of competing and winning," Wanner said. "I had a great experience with Washburn baseball. I made a lot of lifelong friends and we had a great fan base for the baseball team, which warranted an awesome atmosphere to play in. I was off to a great start to the season and I thought we had a great team chemistry."

Wanner, who majored in physical therapy, said he plans to enter a doctorate program and pursue a career in rehabilitation and athletic training. He said his most memorable experience with the Washburn baseball program was traveling to San Bernadino, California for a three-game series against California State in February. During the second game of the series, Washburn trailed 5-4 before Wanner hit a game-tying single in the top of the ninth inning.

"It was a cool experience flying over there with my teammates and touring the local beaches while playing a team from California," Wanner said.

"My favorite thing about the Washburn team was playing the game I love at a high level with such a great group of teammates with similar goals of competing and winning."

BELL: Jandak family gives back to athletic program

"I think RTHS shaped them in a lot of ways," said mother Jeanie Jandak. "It's nice when we lay down core values as parents and we see those values reinforced at school. RTHS has really helped shape their character. I've seen them become more confident, especially in sports, and they learned to support other people. They learned good sportsmanship and they became more well-rounded individuals. RTHS has been like a family for us and we wanted to give back."

"Jeanie and I are so proud of the boys for their academic and athletic accomplishments, and we know they couldn't have done that without the support of their coaches and teachers," father Bill Jandak added. "I thought the bell was a great idea and I think it can help studentathletes set new personal goals for themselves... The teachers here have been great in preparing the boys and the coaches have really pushed them. It's important that we give something back." The idea for the bell, which features the Hub logo and the word "FIN-ISH" displayed boldly on the front of its face, originated from William and Charlie, who recently completed their four-year high school careers under head coach Kyle Kissack. William, currently a freshman at North Central College, was a twotime All-Conference First Team offensive tackle at RTHS before helping the Cardinals take home the NCAA Division III National Championship this past season.

"We knew we wanted to give back to the high school because of what RTHS has done for us," William said. "We liked the idea of the bell because our tradition after winning home games was always to ring the bell, so we thought bringing that into the weight room would motivate the studentathletes... We had a great brotherhood at RTHS and that family tradition was a major reason why I chose North Central College. I learned a lot of life lessons here."

Charlie, who will be continuing his academics and his football career at Washington University in St. Louis this fall, also earned All-Conference First Team recognition twice during his time at RTHS. William and Charlie helped guide the Rochelle football team to the IHSA 4A State Quarterfinals in 2017, and later that school year, they were members of the Rochelle wrestling team that brought home a fourth-place trophy from the IHSA 2A Dual State Championship.

"It may seem small, but as football players at RTHS, the bell symbolizes a sense of completion," Charlie said. "It's everything to us, and we thought that if we could bring that symbol into the weight room and motivate the student-athletes to push themselves a little harder, it would mean a lot. The word 'finish' means pushing all the way through, whether it's in the classroom, in the weight room or on the football field. We learned that the closer the team is, the better chance the team has of winning, and that's what we really pushed for at RTHS."

RTHS student-athletes will have a chance to ring the new weight room bell when activities resume later this year.

CELEBRITY EXTRA Q: When will the season finale of "S.W.A.T." entirety on the FX network, which you can air? Were they done filming before the pandemic stopped production? -- E.O.

A: The final episode of the current season of "S.W.A.T." should air May 20 on CBS. Many shows had to cut their seasons short by a few episodes, but "S.W.A.T." only had to shave it by one. The "missing" episode is an eventful one that reflects back on the 1992 Los Angeles riots. The original air date was supposed to be April 29, which was the 28th anniversary of the riots. According to Deadline.com, Shawn Ryan, the showrunner behind "S.W.A.T.," stated that the flashback-heavy hour now "will probably become either our season premiere or an early episode in season four, but we WILL get around to filming that episode, because that's a special one, to look back at the riots through the perspective of a teenage Hondo [Shemar Moore]." Q: I want to see the new series "Mrs.

America" about the ERA movement, but I don't have Hulu. I'm tired of there being so many streaming services, and I don't want to pay all the monthly fees, so I'm just keeping cable and that's it. Will "Mrs. America" be on DVD or something someday? -- K.J.

A: The streaming service Hulu has made a deal with the FX channel to air all its content, but "Mrs. America" is the first FX show to premiere on Hulu first. Word is that in a few months, "Mrs. America," which stars two-time Oscar winner Cate Blanchett, will air in its find on cable, so keep your fingers crossed. Idon't see as many series available on DVD as there used to be, but you can always check Amazon in about six months to see if a boxed set is available. 'Mrs. America" is a nine-part series about the birth of the Equal Rights Amendment (ERA) in the 1960s. Blanchett plays Phyllis Schafly, a conservative opponent of the movement, and Rose Byrne Cate Blanchett in ("Damages") stars as feminist "Mrs. America" activist Gloria Steinem.

Q: Is it true that the actor who stars in "Better Call Saul" has coronavirus? Is he going to be OK? -- O.G. A: If you're referring to Bob Odenkirk, who plays the sneaky lawyer Jimmy, AKA Saul, on the "Breaking Bad" spinoff, it was actually his son, Nathan, who had the coronavirus. Fortunately he's recovered, and it looks like Bob did not contract the bug. Odenkirk started out his career as a writer for sketch comedy shows like "Saturday Night Live," and Nathan appears to have inherited his father's talents, as he's writing for the humor magazine "Inquirist." Nathan previously worked a production assistant on 'Jimmy Kimmel Live!" and also has a few acting credits. Fortunately, "Better Call Saul" had already finished production of season five before the pandemic, so this is one series that isn't being postponed or cut short. The season finale aired April 20 on AMC.

WIFI: Mobile locations available for Internet

Tests have shown that each vehicle can provide a good Internet signal up to 60 yards away in each direction. Free WiFi is also being offered at both RTHS and RMS during these times. While there may be other Internet options throughout the community, this was done to help make it more accessible for people who may be bound to their homes.

Jason Harper, high school and elementary school district superintendent, presented the idea and Mr. Wise put the plan into motion.

"The schools are excited we were able to secure the hardware needed to provide free wireless Internet at various high need locations in our community." said Harper. "We hope by providing these Internet options, we can help close the connectivity gap created when schools closed for the year."

Acquiring the routers from Kajeet involved paying up front for a one-year contract, just like most phone service plans. So, the district plans to monitor all data usage during the duration of its contract, as this could be a viable option if school closures should extend passed this school year.

Extension of courthouse and Pines Road annex closure announced

OREGON — As the result of the COVID-19 pandemic and remaining consistent with county government operational changes at the Judicial Center, county officials are modifying operations at the historic courthouse and Pines Road annexation.

In an effort to be proactive and to better protect the public and county employees, the descision has been made to close the following offices to the public: County Clerk & Recorder, Treasurer, Supervisor of Assessments, Animal Control, County Board Chairman and Vice-Chairwoman, Planning & Zoning, and Solid Waste.

Please reach out to each individual office for further clarification on how they can process your business. Additionally, these county offices will be operating with limited staff to, again, lessen the chance of exposure for everyone.

These buildings will be closed to the public and the new procedures will remain in effect until May 30.

Mount Morris church helps create and donate snack packs to truck drivers

MOUNT MORRIS The "over-the-road" truck driver is an oftenoverlooked, but essential component of the American economy, and these truckers have been doing their part to keep our local stores stocked with essential goods during the COVID-19 pandemic.

As a small expression of appreciation for their dedication and service, the Evangelical Free Church of Mount Morris partnered with Transport for Christ to create Trucker Snack Packs. Trucker Snack Packs consist of small, store-bought food, drink and snack items packed together in a reusable bag, which drivers can enjoy while driving cross-country.

The church family donated, packaged and delivered more than 200 Trucker Snack Packs to Chaplain Jay LeRette. who serves with Transport for Christ at the Rochelle Petro. Chaplain Jay is distributing the snack packs -along with a word of encouragement, thanks, and prayer – to the dozens of drivers that pass through the Rochelle Petro on a daily basis.

On behalf of the Evangelical Free Church of Mt. Morris, Pastor Bruce McKanna (right) presented Transport for Christ Chaplain Jay LeRette with 221 Trucker Snack Packs to distribute to truckers that stop at the Rochelle Petro.

Plans for ByronFest 2020 cancelled

BYRON – The Byron Chamber of Commerce announced in a Facebook posting last week that the ByronFest 2020, set for July 10-12, has been cancelled.

"With summer fast approaching, we have been gearing up for the big weekend. However, given our current environment, the ByronFest Steering Committee had to make the tough decision to cancel ByronFest for 2020," the statement said.

"The decision did not come lightly as we focused on the future of the festival, the safety of our community, the uncertainty of being permitted to host the event and coming to the time of the year we would begin to take on major Bank, community partners expenditures."

The post went on to thank the festival's volunteers and sponsors, including resenting sponsor Byron and vendors.

The post said the Steering Committee will now begin working on ByronFest 2021, set for July 9-11.

It's National Police Week

N 1962, President John F. Kennedy signed a proclamation which designated May 15th as Peace Officers Memorial Day and the week in which that date falls as Police Week. Currently, tens of thousands of law enforcement officers from around the world converge on Washington, DC to participate in a number of planned events which honor those that have paid the ultimate sacrifice.

The Memorial Service began in 1982 as a gathering in Senate Park of approximately 120 survivors and supporters of law enforcement. Decades later, the event, more commonly known as National Police Week, has grown to a series of events which attracts thousands of survivors and law enforcement officers to our Nation's Capital each year.

The National Peace Officers' Memorial Service, which is sponsored by the Grand Lodge of the Fraternal Order of Police, is one in a series of events which includes the Candlelight Vigil, which is sponsored by the National Law Enforcement Officers Memorial Fund (NLEOMF) and seminars sponsored by Concerns of Police Survivors (C.O.P.S.)

National Police Week draws in between 25,000 to 40,000 attendees. The attendees come from departments throughout the United States as well as from agencies throughout the world. This provides a unique opportunity to meet others that share a common brotherhood. In that spirit, the Fraternal Order of Police DC Lodge #1 sponsors receptions each afternoon and evening during Police Week. These events are open to all law enforcement personnel and are an experience unlike any other.

The Rochelle Police Department

HE primary goal of the Rochelle Police Department is to continue to make the City of Rochelle a safer place to live and work, and to provide high quality professional service. We encourage community partnerships, protect the safety and well-being of our citizens, and take a proactive stance through crime prevention programs.

Rochelle is a growing community of 9,500 plus citizens and is a natural transportation hub for industry and commercial business. Two interstate highways and two major railroads intersect in Rochelle bringing additional activity to the area. Our airport, hospital and travel stops also provide services to both local residents and travelers.

The Police Department provides full police services to the community 24 hours per day and is comprised of 19 sworn officers, one K-9 unit, 7 civilian personnel, and six crossing guards. The dispatch center serves the citizens of Rochelle with full enhanced 9-1-1 services and also serves as a back up dispatch center for the Ogle County Sheriff's Department.

Chief Eric Higby

Chief Higby joined the Department in 1996 and has spent time in both patrol and investigations divisions. He was appointed chief on September 25, 2009. This is just a drill

ROCHELLE — Rochelle Township High School was host to an array of emergency personnel Saturday for an active shooting drill training session.

Area police and fire departments participated in the event that included more than 320 students and adults that took personnel more than 20 months to put together.

During the hourslong training session, police officers were faced with a shooter in the building who had detonated a pipe bomb.

According to Rochelle Police Chief Eric Higby – during a mock media news conference – the 17-year-old student had barricaded himself inside a classroom in the "C" wing of the building along with approximately 20 students where he detonated the pipe bomb and began shooting a gun, critically injuring eight students before being taken into custody by police.

"Planning for this drill began in February of 2018 and in that time we've engaged the stakeholders and responders in numerous conversations, training and smaller scaled walk throughs," emergency management coordinator for the City of Rochelle and Rochelle Police Department Detective Terry Inman said. "This drill was another step in the process and we exposed the responders to concepts and tactics that they've either never experienced such as responding to an active shooter in a school - or have recently begun to train with - such as rescue task force operations. I am very confident that we took away many lessons learned from this drill."

A multitude of agencies took part in an active shooter drill Saturday at Rochelle Township High School. The drill was 20-months in the making.

Many agencies participated in one fashion or another Saturday, including the Federal Bureau of Investigations, Illinois State Police District 1 and 15, ILEAS, MABAS, Rochelle Police, DeKalb Police, Rockford Police, Rock Valley College Police, Ogle County Sheriff's Police and Emergency Management, Lee County Sheriff's Police and Emergency Management, Oregon Police Department, Genoa Police Department, Rochelle Fire Department, Ogle-Lee Fire Protection District, Oregon Fire Department, Rockford Fire Department, Cherry Valley Fire Department, Dixon

Fire Department, City of Rochelle, Rochelle Street Department, Rochelle Water Department, City of Algonquin, Rochelle School District 212, Rochelle School District 231, Dixon public schools, Oregon public schools, Regional Board of Education, Focus House, Kishwaukee Education Consortium, Kishwaukee College, Western Illinois University, American Red Cross, Salvation Army, Sinnissippi Centers and AESI Counseling.

"Looking at initial observations and immediate reactions taken right after the drill, there were a lot of favorable comments from participants regarding their experience with the scenarios and lessons they learned. As well, there were a number of constructive comments about things that could've gone different or better; and these are common with any training evolution," Inman said. "We are in the process of assessing all of the participants' feedback and will have specific action points in the weeks and months ahead with the completion of the After Action Report & Improvement Plan."

Rochelle Township

High School District 212 and Rochelle Elementary District 231 Superintendent Jason Harper said that in the aftermath of the session, staff will be looking at security protocol, some of the pro-active things that are already being done and the reactive things that happened during the training and discussing with Rochelle Police and the other agencies that participated Saturday.

"We continue to do our training that we are required to do and I think we have done some things that are proactive in trying to be ahead of these types of situations but there's a feeling we could always do more," Harper said.

Inman believes Saturday's drill was successful overall.

"Anytime you get individuals and entities together for a common goal such as improving the safety of our community and they all give 100 percent toward that end you can't help but be successful," he said.
