WEATHER

BY ANDREW HEISERMAN STAFF WRITER

ROCHELLE – A record-breaking snowstorm hit the community on Halloween and the city street department did everything in its power to keep travel in the 'Hub City' safe.

Many portions of the state were impacted by a snowstorm extremely early this season, including Rochelle, and the city's street department used all available resources to keep the roads clear.

While the city knew the storm was coming, current projects around town limited their resources during the storm.

ment did not expect to get this much.

"I did not expect to get this much, I was actually hoping that it would just miss us all together but we didn't get that lucky," added Isley. "We will definitely be more prepared for the next one, we still have to get all of our anti-icing materials delivered and made and get our salt bin filled up. So, we still have quite a bit of preparation work to do before winter truly arrives."

Judging team takes 28th

All four place with gold, silver bronze individually

ROCHELLE — The four-person team representing Rochelle Township High School at the National FFA Convention in the horse judging competition competed well this week.

On Friday morning, the team placed 28th at the national convention in Indianapolis, Indiana. Individually, each team member medaled high.

Ava Coglianese earned gold; Mark Hopkins earned silver; Josie Lundquist earned silver; and Mary Coglianese earned bronze at the national competition.

Mary and Ava Coglianese, Lundquist and Hopkins competed against 50 other state champion teams evaluating eight classes of horses Tuesday and Wednesday.

ROCHELLE – The early season snowstorm that hit the area on Halloween day may have kept some people off the road, but it did not keep families from trick-or-treating at local downtown businesses.

As the snowstorm was approaching and many other communities in the state began rescheduling trick-or-treating times to Friday or Saturday, local businesses were beginning to wonder if people would still come out during the downtown Trick-or-Treating times of 2 to 5 p.m. Thursday.

As the day went on and the trick-or-treating hours approached, lots of families began showing up to businesses dressed up in costume.

"It seemed like the weather was going to keep people away at first, but as it went on, tons of kids came out with their parents. Overall the turnout was really well," said Naomi Baldwin, former president of the Downtown Rochelle Association and owner of Colonial Flowers.

Some business owners attributed the good turnout to the businesses and city putting out information ahead of time on their Facebook pages.

Along with putting information on social media, any business participating put a sign in their window to let the kids and their families know that there was candy waiting inside for them.

Challenge brings out innovative business ideas

BY ANDREW HEISERMAN STAFF WRITER

ROCHELLE – Kishwaukee College has recently announced the winners of its inaugural innovations "business idea" challenge.

The challenge was sponsored by Kishwaukee College, The Rochelle Retail Advisory Board and the Illinois Small Business Development Center at Wabaunsee Community College and was held at the Kishwaukee College Conference Center.

The challenge sought either innovative ideas for launching a new business or new ideas for an existing business and included 10 businesses and entrepreneurs competing for cash prizes.

Competitors delivered a three-minute pitch to a panel of expert judges that scored the pitches according to innovation and other categories on a mathematical rubric. Expert judges included Jeff Fiegenschuh, Rochelle city manager; Derek Hiland, community development director of DeKalb County; Manish Patel, owner of Liquor 'n' Wine in Rochelle; and Kate Shaw-Dickey, assistant vice president of human resources at Holcomb Bank.

"Events such as these supports the entrepreneurial spirit that fuels so many great innovations and businesses," said La-Cretia Konan, director of business and training part-

Prizes

The prizes in the competition ranged in value from $1,000 for first place, $750 for second place, $500 for third place and $100 to everyone else that competed. First place was awarded to David Pack from Schaumburg with his idea for life-size building blocks called Box Blox, that kids can use to create anything they could imagine like storefronts or clubhouses.

"Many of us may have seen a kid have more fun out of a box than from the toy inside, a few years ago, we put that to the test when I purchased 150 moving boxes and put them in my front yard," Said Pack. "I was soon amazed to see kids from across the block come over and play for hours and hours."

The motto of the Box Blox is "build big, store small" since they collapse down and can be stored in a small container.

Second place was awarded to a group of students from Northern Illinois University who created a business that aims to help make finding a parking spot on campus easier. The business idea is titled "Your Spot Awaits" and was created by Gustavo Casa, Adam Coonich and Anguel Tochkov and has been in business on campus since 2017.

"Our idea revolves around lot monitoring through vehicle tracking systems that can be accessed by students throughout a dedicated app," explained the group. "The idea of our company came from the minds of students looking to solve the various parking issues around campus."

Members of this group would like to say that just like every other student, they have had their own share of bad parking experiences, but they just decided to do something about it.

The third-place prize went to Mary Ley from Aireloom Music Inc. in Mount Morris for her solution to a very common problem for guitar players. The problem she is hoping to solve is losing the guitar pick inside the sound hole of the guitar — this is being solved by attaching a small strap from the pick to the players' fingers.

"I use plastic waste for my guitar pick and strap that attaches to the players finger, it is called Pick In Hand and is made from 100 percent plastic waste," explained Ley.

Kishwaukee College and its sponsors would like to thank Liquor 'n' Wine, Greater Rochelle Economic Development Corporation, and the City of Rochelle for contributing the cash prizes; Jock Sommese, advisor for DBDC, for preparing competitors and tallying scores; Peggy Friday, industrial development manager for the City of Rochelle, for assistance with the Innovation Challenge; and Samantha Burkus, owner of Sunshine Bakery in Rochelle, for providing desserts.

Plans for the 2020 Innovation Challenge are already underway, and for more information, contact Kish's director of business and training partnerships LaCretia Konan at Lkonan14@Kish.edu.

Rep. Demmer hopes to ban lawmakers from performing paid lobbying work with local government units

SPRINGFIELD — In light of news reports that a member of the Illinois House of Representatives was arrested by Federal agents for attempted bribery of a public official, State Representative Tom Demmer (R-Dixon) introduced legislation Tuesday that would ban lawmakers from performing paid lobbying work with local government units while in office.

"As evidenced by the case of State Representative Luis Arroyo, lawmakers who serve as lobbyists can push legislation they can benefit from financially. That is wrong and a violation of our oath of office," said Rep. Demmer.

"There is a clear conflict of interest for sitting lawmakers to perform paid lobbying work while in office. House Bill 3947 would ban lawmakers, their spouses, and livein immediate family members from that activity. I urge my Democratic colleagues to support this bill and other ethics reform measures so we can eliminate conflicts of interest and restore trust in state government."

The legislation, House Bill 3947 (HB 3947), would ban members of the General Assembly, their spouses, and immediate live-in family members from performing paid lobbying work with local government units. Currently, members of the Illinois General Assembly - state representatives and state senators - are prohibited from lobbying the State of Illinois, but are not prohibited from lobbying local government units, such as a counties or municipalities.

On Oct. 25, Democratic State Representative Luis Arroyo of Chicago was arrested by Federal agents for attempted bribery of a public official. Arroyo works as a registered lobbyist with the City of Chicago in addition to his duties as a state representative. According to the United States Department of Justice, Arroyo attempted to bribe an unnamed state senator $2,500 per month in exchange for supporting legislation that would benefit one of Arroyo's lobbying clients. If convicted of the corruption charges, Arroyo faces up to 10 years in prison.

If HB 3947 were law prior to Rep. Arroyo's attempted bribery scheme, he would have been precluded from performing paid lobbying work on behalf of his client while serving in office.

Rep. Demmer gave remarks on the legislation at a press conference earlier today. HB 3947 has yet to be assigned to a committee. House Speaker Michael Madigan released a statement Monday saying he is open to strengthening Illinois' current ethics and lobbying laws.

She has more than 20 years of financial expertise, including 17 years with media and publishing entities. She oversaw financial operations of more than 225 publications in 17 states during her tenure as a regional and division controller with Gatehouse Media, LLC prior to joining NMC.

Laye is a graduate of Rockford University obtaining her CPA in 2000. Prior to entering the media industry, she worked in public accounting for three years in audit and tax.

She and her husband, Tony, reside in Cherry Valley. They have three adult children and three grandchildren.

Tompkins

JJ Tompkins, who specializes in new revenue generation and promotions, will be leading efforts to develop both digital and print opportunities across all of the NMC operations.

He began his multimedia publishing career in 2001 after graduating with a business and marketing management degree from the University of Arizona.

After working in outside sales with the Illinois group publications, Tompkins relocated to Atascadero, California, in 2002 to serve as general manager of that NMC publication and then returned to Illinois in 2006 to take on a company-wide marketing role.

In 2017, Tompkins teamed up with Shank on an initiative to improve operational efficiencies and increase cash flow in the Arizona and California properties.

He resides in Rockford with his wife, Lindsay, and their three daughters.

"I'm excited to join forces with Lori and JJ as we begin working together with our impressive and dedicated team of experienced managers and staff members at all of our locations throughout the company to move NMC forward," Shank added.

TRANSPORTING DECEASED HOME

Many times people die away from home, or away from the place they wish to be buried. This is particularly true in our mobile society - where both the old and young tend to move a distance from their roots. Unfortunately, in the case of death - either unexpected or expected - this can present problems.

If you should find yourself in the unhappy position of having to arrange for the transportation of a deceased relative or friend particularly over a considerable distance within the country - one cardinal rule should be followed: Never call a funeral home in the place where death occurred. Always call the funeral home in the community where the funeral and burial are to take place. The funeral director there will make arrangements with a funeral home in the community where the death occurred and, although there will still be some costs involving the second home, overall costs should be less and considerable time will be saved.

Great Halloween costume, fall

OW...that was some Halloween costume. Fall dressed up as winter and it scared the heck out of me. But the weather also reminded me of a few things.

We tend to forget how to drive in winter. Often it means slowing down, so you up in a ditch like the car I saw on Flagg Road near Caron Road Thursday afternoon. Slow down, nothing is that important to risk your life and the lives of others. If it is important not to be late, then start earlier.

Everyone needs to carry a snow brush. Brush off the car. Brush off the hood, the trunk, the windshield, the roof. There's nothing like driving behind someone when huge chunks of snow blow off their vehicle and fall on your car.

Put on your lights. Driving a white car in a snowstorm without headlights on is not very wise and don't assume your car lights go on when it gets dark...they may not. Turn on your lights when it is raining, when it is snowy, when it is foggy, or when it is beginning to get dark. Visibility of your vehicle could prevent an accident.

It's time for snowbirds to start heading south.

It's over 90 degrees in Florida, over 100 degrees in Arizona, but a balmy 37 degrees right here.

When you get to your warm spot, please don't call us and tell us how hot you are. That only makes us remember how much we dislike braggarts. One type of snowbird I would love to see leave is the goose. Remember when it was rare to see a goose? Seems not too long ago I loved standing outside listening to the honkers as they passed overhead on their way south. Those were the days, eh? Geese are wonderful creatures, but they are dirty, aggressive, loud and they are everywhere. Not just one or two, but hundreds.

I would think between the feral cats, the covotes and the egg sucking raccoons that the geese population would shrink...but it keeps expanding

Maybe they have a sign somewhere that says "Welcome to Rochelle...Goose Haven."

I used to enjoy the honking when they flew above me, now I just cover my head and hide indoors.

The downtown Rochelle Christmas Walk is set for Dec. 6. If all goes according to nature, it will be 85 and sunny, with a chance of rain.

That retention pond by the new Lincoln School is pretty deep. Hope we don't end up with a Loch Ness monster in it!

Goodbye for now summer – you will be missed

ELL, I am not happy about this at all. Some of you probably are.

Those weird people who seem to enjoy the absolute torture that is the winter season in this region.

It seems to me that only a few minutes ago we were wearing shorts and grilling out while enjoying an ice cold adult beverage. We were scaring the neighborhood and causing car accidents by taking off our shirts while we mowed the yard.

We were living – really living. But now things have taking not meant to live this way. It's depressing.

I still have my motorcycle in the garage, as I am confident that there will be at least couple of days yet this year that will be good enough to ride. So, I haven't given up complete hope.

But I am close. The Candlelight Walk in Oregon is just around the corner, and for me that means winter.

So let me just take a few moments to say goodbye to the things I the things of sumlove mer.

sun.

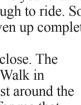

Adios to eating outside on the patio. Sure, I hate the mosquitos, but there is something about enjoying a freshly grilled chunk of meat outside on a warm day while the dogs embarrassingly do their business nearby that just screams summer.

So long, bare feet. You had a pretty good time this summer, walking around the house, yard and patio. You even caught some serious ravs Brad Jennings poolside in Vegas, didn't you? Alas, you will now be stuffed into socks and boots and slippers as I try to keep you warm. Sorry in advance.

shorts that I probably wear too much. Look, they are comfortable and go with pretty much every black T-shirt I own, by which I mean pretty much every T-shirt I own. Because I own a lot of black shirts.

Time to hit the closet, sandals. I have a favorite pair that I have worn for years, and it is always sad to see them be put away for the winter. But I know they will be waiting for me when the warmer weather hits. And no, I never, ever wear socks with my sandals. I am civilized.

don't end Terry Dickow

> a turn for the worse. Last week was bad, yes. But at least it was Halloween week, the greatest holiday week of them all. As I have written before, there is no better week for a fan of horror movies and television and basically all things scary.

Now? That fun is over and we have to learn to live with going to work in the dark and coming home in the dark.

Sorry, but humans were Goodbye, my beautiful green grass. I look forward to mowing you next year.

Goodbye to the lovely cover of lush greenery that graces this area. It is a canopy of delight.

Goodbye to my best buddy, the glorious sun. Thank you for all of the hours of fun you provided for me and my friends and family this year. You rule,

I will see you soon, fire pit. We had some great fires in the back yard with friends this summer. Beer, flames, great conversation. Sorry, but you don't find that in the winter around here.

Have a nice winter, camo shorts. Yes, like most guys I have a favorite pair of camo

Finally, goodbye to being warm. I will pretty much not be warm again until next June. Winter weather gets into my bones and I have a very tough time getting warm.

But I will bundle up and struggle through. I know that sunny, warm and green days are waiting for me in the not so distant future.

Lady Hubs start strong but fall short against top seed Belvidere North

BY RUSSELL HODGES SPORTS EDITOR

ROCHELLE — The scene was set for the Rochelle volleyball team to have a storybook ending during the IHSA 3A Regional Championship against No. 1 seed Belvidere North on Thursday.

The fourth-seeded Lady Hubs held early leads in both sets during the match, and the girls capitalized on service errors and poor passing from the Blue Thunder to keep the pressure on the top seed. But the Rochelle back row had a tough time combating some big swingers on the Belvidere North side of the floor, and the Blue Thunder rallied during each set to claim the title with a 25-22, 25-18 win over the Lady Hubs, who finished the season 21-16 overall.

"We're walking out of the gym with our heads held high," head coach Molly Sly said. "We played a very good team and we gave them a very good match. We were in control of each but they had some servers who brought the heat and they found ways around our blocks."

With students and home fans behind them, the Lady Hubs tipped off the match on a 5-1 run to seize early momentum from the Blue Thunder. Rochelle led by as much as 12-8 before Belvidere North tallied three consecutive points to ignite a 12-5 scoring spree that put the Blue Thunder ahead 20-17. The Lady Hubs evened the match at 20-20, but a serve into the net allowed Belvidere North to score and escape the opening set on a 5-2 run.

"I thought our starts showed how much our girls wanted the match and how much skill we have," Sly said. "The seniors were great leaders and they led by example. They came into the gym ready to go every day. They wanted and fought for every point. It's really exciting for our younger girls to see that, especially when we're trying to build a winning program." ROCHELLE—Austin Brown was the Rochelle boys soccer team's Swiss Army knife this season. The senior midfielder needed to fill multiple roles for the Hubs, and his efforts warranted All-Conference First Team recognition for the first time in his high school career.

Brown spent time at forward, midfield and defense for the Hubs, recording 10 assists while adding six goals. The senior even played keeper when starter Alexis Quintanilla and reserve Jarett Milan suffered injuries, recording 19 saves in the process.

Brown was one of three Hubs to receive First-Team honors from the Interstate 8 Conference this season, joining senior Max Torres and junior Brayan Orozco. Juniors Zane Walters and Josh Hurtado were given

All-Conference Honorable Mentions.

"I played wherever I needed to play for us to win," Brown said. "Wherever we were struggling or we had injuries... I stepped up and performed that role. It means a lot to me and it shows how much work I've put in over my four years here."

Torres capped off his high school career as one of Rochelle's top scorers, totaling 26 goals and 13 assists as the team's starting center forward. Despite suffering a knee injury after his junior season, where he scored 16 goals and received an All-Conference Honorable Mention from the Northern Illinois Big 12, Torres still made his presence felt as both a player and a leader.

"I'm glad I was able to come back after my surgery and show what I could do," Torres said. "I knew I wasn't able to come back as strong, but I went game by game and practice by practice... I'm going to miss the atmosphere here and seeing people come out to watch us play, regardless of how many goals we won or lost by."

Orozco has dominated on offense since arriving at Rochelle Township High School, compiling 75 goals over his first three seasons and finishing with 31 goals and six assists this season. Orozco has taken home

All-Conference First Team honors each season, with his first two coming from the NIB-12, and at his current pace, he could wind up as Rochelle's all-time leading scorer.

"It feels good to receive All-Conference honors again," Orozco said. "I worked a lot this season and I'm going to keep working hard so we can win the conference. I work hard every game and I want to have a big role on the team."

A: "The Ranch" is a comedy series on Netflix that consists of four seasons, each broken into two parts of 10 episodes each. The first part of season four became available in September, so if you haven't watched those episodes yet, you're in for a treat. Sometime in 2020 the final part, consisting of another 10 episodes, will air.

"The Ranch" stars Kutcher as a former semi-pro football player who returns home to help run his family's ranch in Colorado. Elliott plays his father and Debra Winger his mother. Dax Shepard returns as his estranged cousin Luke.

Kutcher's former "That '70s Show" co-star Danny Masterson was a regular in earlier episodes of "The Ranch" until allegations of sexual assault were made against him off-camera. Other "'70s" cast members, Wilmer Valderrama, Kurtwood Smith and Debra Jo Rupp, also have guest-starred.

Q: Now that Billy Miller is done playing Drew on "General Hospital," will he go back to "The Young and the Restless"? He'll always be Billy Abbott to me. -- C.P.

A: So far, Jason Thompson still has a job as Billy Abbott on "Y&R." As for Miller, he just landed a recurring role on an upcoming new series on the new Apple+ (Apple TV Plus) streaming service. "Truth Be Told" is co-produced by Reese

Brandon Micheal Hall

Q: I really like the TV show "God Friended Me," but missed the first two episodes of the first season and have been waiting impatiently for the series to come out on DVD so I can watch them. All the other new shows have been out on DVD for a while, but I still haven't found this one. Is it ever going to come out? -- D.S.

A: I couldn't find season one of the CBS series starring Brandon Micheal Hall and Violett Beane on DVD either, so it doesn't look like it's being released in that format. However, you can purchase individual episodes to download and watch on your computer or stream on your television through Amazon Prime Video.

Season one episodes are $1.99 each, or you can purchase the entire first season for $24.99. It's not in DVD format, but at least you'll be able to watch the episodes you missed. To check out your options, go to Amazon.com and click on the Prime Video logo near the top of the page, then do a search for "God Friended Me."

Redington brothers battle for the first time

BY RUSSELL HODGES SPORTS EDITOR

ROTHERS Danny and Ben Redington dedicated their youth and high school football years to Rochelle Township High School and the Rochelle community. They've worn purple and white for most of their lives, which made Saturday's NCAADivision III football contest between Wisconsin-Platteville and Wisconsin-Eau Claire a first-time experience for both players. Danny graduated RTHS in 2017 before continuing his football career at Platteville, while Ben moved on to Eau Claire after earning his diploma from RTHS in 2019. Since their schools were members of the same football conference, the two brothers knew they would eventually face each other on the field, and that happened for the first time on Saturday, when Danny and the 13th ranked Pioneers cruised over Ben and the unranked BluGolds 43-8. "To be on the opposite team was honestly a lot of fun," Danny said. "It felt like any other game for the most part, but knowing that only one team could win added a bit of brotherly competition, and for football players, any reason you can find to play harder is a good reason. I'm very thankful our team has been successful this year, and this season has helped make for a very fun college year overall."

"It was very surreal for me to play against my brother for the first time," Ben said. "I've been so used to playing with him in the past that playing against him was a very unique and special experience. Our season has gone well for the most part, with injuries playing a large factor in recent games. My overall experience has exceeded my expectations

While the game was largely a one-sided affair, the brothers were excited to line up as opponents for the first time, and they'll clash again when Platteville and Eau Claire collide during the 2020 season. Danny, a third-year junior, currently plays on the offensive line for the Pioneers, while Ben, a first-year freshman, lines up at tight end for the BluGolds. The brothers have been giving each other advice on both football and academics while attending their respective schools.

"It takes drive and a lot of effort, and sometimes it can feel like all the effort you give isn't quite enough," Danny said. "If I ever feel like that, I know I can talk to Ben, as someone who knows exactly what I'm talking about, and we can both give each other the motivation to keep going."

"I've found out first-hand that college football is a grind," Ben said. "It can be challenging to keep working at some points. We have definitely helped each other get better by training with each other and holding each other accountable to get better over the summer."
