Arrest made in fatal Byron fire

Ex-husband being held on $10 million bond

OREGON - Duane Meyer was been arrested Wednesday and charged with the deaths of his exwife, Margaret "Maggie" Meyer, and his 3-year-old son, Amos, who died in a Byron house fire on Oct. 19, 2016.

Ogle County Sheriff Brian VanVickle announced at a press conference Wednesday that Duane Meyer, 37, was indicted by an Ogle County Grand Jury on Oct. 8 on four counts of first degree homicide, two counts of aggravated arson and one count of concealment of a homicidal death.

He was arrested at approximately 6 a.m. Wednesday morning without incident, according to the Ogle County Sheriff's Department. During his arrest, Meyer was in possession of a loaded firearm and was additionally charged with unlawful use of a weapon.

Ogle County State's Attorney Eric Morrow presented the case to the Grand Jury.

"After a thorough pre-did return an indictment, Morrow said during the press conference.

Meyer is now being held in the Ogle County Jail on a $10 million bond.

"I would note, if the defendant is convicted of the [charges]...murder cases, this would be a natural life sentence," Morrow added.

Mever was the person who called in the fire at about 6:40 a.m. on Oct. 19, 2016, telling officials he was there to pick up Amos. The Illinois State Fire Marshal official on the scene determined the fire was arson at that time.

At the time of the fire, Byron Fire Department officials said there was no fire visible from outside the home, at 2020 Silverthorn Ave. A small sentation, the Grand Jury fire was found in the living room of the home, where Maggie Meyers, 31, was also found.

> The Ogle County Sheriff's Office began investigating the fire immediately, along with Byron Police, Illinois Police Zone 2 investigators, the Ogle County Coroner's Office, Illinois State Police Crime Scene, the Illinois Fire Marshal as well as technical assistance from the Illinois Attorney General's Office > and the FBI. The investigation produced more than 35,000 pages of documents and other evidence and was 'active and ongoing' until the last few weeks.

Meyer would be required to post $1 million cash bond to be released.

Hillcrest website to get upgrade

BY RUSSELL HODGES

HILLCREST — The Village of Hillcrest Board of Trustees voted Wednesday to allocate $4,600 in budget funding to have a new village website built for residents and others to access. The village plans to partner with the municipal web design company Municode for the new site.

"This is something I've been researching for a few months," Village Clerk Dawn Bearrows said. "Our site is pretty basic and it's broken. It doesn't really do what we need it to do. It's outdated, simple and plain... There isn't any technical support behind the website, so when it gets to a point where I can't do anything with it, it's broken."

Bearrows introduced the idea to the village board Wednesday evening during the new business portion of open session. Bearrows initiated the discussion by detailing the lack of functionality behind the current website, http:// www.hillcrestil.us. Bearrows also noted the current site doesn't comply with ADA standards due to a lack of embedded visual and audio support.

Center closed next week

BY ANDREW HEISERMAN

STAFF WRITER

ROCHELLE - Due to the current sidewalk construction in downtown Rochelle, the Hub City Senior Center will be closed from Oct. 14 to Oct. 20.

For approximately the last two months the city has been replacing sidewalks and gutters and installing new streetlights throughout the downtown area. During the entire process, they have been considerate of working with surrounding businesses, including the senior center, to avoid closures.

"City engineer Sam Tesreau has been very accommodating and easy to work with, they have been very careful about timing the days they work around the days we have events," said Connie Dougherty, executive director of the senior center.

Work on the sidewalk surrounding the senior center is about to begin next Monday, giving center officials no choice but to close during the construction. Once the work is completed, the new sidewalk will make it easier for people to come and go.

"Not only will it be more aesthetically pleasing, but the entrance will also be more handicap accessible with new crosswalks and ramps," explained Dougherty.

As long as there are no unexpected delays or bad weather, the city plans to have the construction near the senior center finished within one week so the center can re-open Oct. 21.

If any changes in the re-opening date occur, the senior center will put the information on their answering machine as well as announce it through WRHL and the Rochelle News-Leader.

During the time that they will be closed, anyone in need of transportation can call the Lee-Ogle Transportation System at 815-288-2117.

Making plans to achieve goals

ROCHELLE – The final Revved Up Rochelle meeting took place Tuesday night, and representatives from many different organizations in the state were there to help get things off the ground.

The main focus of the fifth and final Revved Up session was for representatives from the organizations to meet with each of the groups to begin helping them determine a plan to achieve their goals. The first half of the meeting was dedicated for each of the representatives to give a short presentation about their organization, their experience, and how they can help the community accomplish its goals.

Before the various presentations, mayor John Bearrows stood up in front of the room to give a thank you to everyone who took the time to attend each of the meetings.

"I just want to say on behalf of the city, we want to personally thank each and every one of you who have taken the time to attend each of the meetings. I know five nights, three hours a night is quite a commitment," said Bearrows. There were presentations from organizations such as the Illinois Department of Natural Resources, Illinois Department of Commerce and Economic Opportunity, U.S. Department of Agriculture, Peace Corps programs and even local organization Rochelle Area Community Foundation.

One presentation in specific addressed the drop-in population in the region from 2010 to 2017 and what the community needs to provide for people to get them to move to

"You have to be able to provide the good quality of life resources to people who are coming to your town. So, parks, recreation, food and dining, everything that you would associate with quality of life," explained Daniel Payette, executive director of Blackhawk Hills Regional Council.

Payette also touched on the fact that Rochelle already has valuable transportation resources and benefits from two interstate highways and two major railroads intersecting in town. Following the presentations, the groups then continued to plan out their goals, while the representatives walked around to each group answering questions and offering their input on how to achieve the goals. Now that the Revved Up meetings are complete, it is up to each group to set up its own meeting time to begin working on the plans that they came up with.

A community-wide town hall meeting will be held in the near future to share the cities ideas and projects with the community to encourage more people to join in.

American Legion monthly meeting

The American Legion Post 403 had a bi-monthly meeting at the Iron Skillet Restaurant on Oct. 9. Tom McDermott spoke on the history of Rochelle during World War II. This included German prisoners working at local businesses as well as the contribution of the Whitcomb locomotive works to the overall war effort. # A national champion

BY ANDREW HEISERMAN

STAFF WRITER

HE City of Rochelle is home to many namesakes, but it is now also home to the best mandolin player in the nation.

Local resident Wes Carr has been playing the mandolin since he was 13 years old. Recently, the 29-year-old competed in and won the Walnut Valley National Mandolin Championship that is held in Winnfield, Kansas, each year.

There is a 40-person limit for the contest, and each person plays two tunes for the preliminary round that judges then choose the top five to move on to the championship. Once in the championship each contestant gets to play two more tunes for the judges who then vote on the winner of the entire competition.

Carr has competed in the contest before, but decided to try a different approach this year.

"I ended up taking some more chances by performing one bluegrass, two jazz pieces and a classical tune. It would have been safer to stick to bluegrass, but it paid off in the end," said Carr.

This was his first time winning the competition in the multiple years he has competed.

At the competitions, there are events for eight different instruments such as the banjo and guitar, all of which are in the bluegrass genre. The top three players from all eight of the categories divide $116,566 of trophies, instruments and cash.

While Carr was confident in his abilities, he admitted he was a bit taken back when he found out he won the competition.

"I signed up for mandolin because it was the day before the guitar, so I had put more thought into the guitar and was kind of using the mandolin as a warm up for the next day," added Carr. "When I found out that I had won it was kind of surreal."

AWARD: Campbell to be honored at convention

to pick apart

"I actually approached it pretty casually," he said.

He was initially lured in by the thought that Rochelle would cut his commute from DeKalb, but Campbell said he came away from the interview very impressed by both then Superintendent Jamie Craven and principal Jason Harper, as well as the discipline and the facilities.

When Scott first interviewed for the job, it was clear that he was highly qualified for the physics and chemistry positions. His background was unique,' science department chair David Oldenburg said. "Scott came to Rochelle with a lot of enthusiasm, willingness to put in long days, different perspectives, and new ideas. He earned the respect of his peers early in his time here. Scott has shown himself to strive for excellence as a teacher. He holds high standards for his students. With the high expectations, he also gives his students ample access to his assistance by spending many early mornings and after school hours to help them. Scott is always willing to assist his peers and has a positive impact on the teachers who work with him.'

District 212 Superintendent Jason Harper has observed Campbell in the classroom.

"As a National Board Certified Teacher, he utilizes best teaching practices on a daily basis. More importantly, Mr. Campbell is able to connect with students of all levels and backgrounds to help improve student achievement beyond what students thought was possible," Harper said.

"I think it is important to put into perspective what exactly the AP Physics course was for Mr. Campbell in my senior year when AP Physics was introduced at RTHS. It was an experiment of sorts that only happened because of Mr. Campbell's extensive knowledge, background, and credentials," 2017 RTHS grad Ben Chiavini said. "The AP Physics course did not and would not have existed without him. That meant that Mr. Campbell had to create the entire course from scratch, on his own, and format the class to meet the AP guidelines and trajectory that it needed to follow. This, however, was nothing new for him; he had already done the same thing for his Chemistry and AP Chemistry courses."

Chiavini, who is currently a chemistry major at the University of Illinois, said the course he took with Campbell at RTHS prepared him for his college-level work.

"AP Physics was also an unusual challenge because the Physics we were learning was calculus-based, and we were learning the very basics of calculus in our class with Mr. (Tim) Hill right alongside this class. To help us, Mr. Campbell taught the minimal amount of calculus we needed to know for the topics we covered in class," Chiavini said. "The class itself gave me a greater understanding of derivatives (a calculus concept), taught me how to pick apart a problem and make it manageable and understandable, and made me more used to what college would be like."

"Those last two points are the most important. The ability to pick apart a large and complex problem and make it manageable is not only useful and necessary for college, but for life...if all taken at once, someone would go crazy and feel overwhelmed, but like a physics problem if all these issues are made smaller and more easily understandable, then they can be managed. This is what Mr. Campbell taught me in AP Physics. Almost every problem we did had many parts to it, many forces to calculate and weigh against each other, many energy and trajectory calculations. Even simply moving a box across a surface would fill up a page with work and calculations, and if taken all at once, it would be impossible. but Mr. Campbell taught us to split up the problem and identify its key parts,' Chiavini added. "AP Physics (and Mr. Campbell) prepared me for college. AP Physics was extremely difficult for the entire class, with most test averages being near the failing to low C range. For many of us, this was one of the first times that a class actually beat us down, and it taught us a great truth, especially for college: you cannot coast by in college without actually studying hard and working at a topic. We learned this by failing and because we failed we learned from our mistakes. For college students that didn't have the luxury of having a hard teacher in high school, they are hit hard with crushing test grades. Mr. Campbell challenged me academically like I had never been challenged before."

"Mr. Campbell is the best physics teacher I've had, and I have had six different physics professors at my school already (moving quickly through the curriculum). There was something about the way that he explained things that kept people paying attention, and in a physics class not filled with physics majors, that is exceptionally rare," Matthew Malaker, a 2017 RTHS grad said. "Even in my physics classes now, there are plenty of people who aren't as enraptured in the content as future non-STEM majors were in (Campbell's) physics class. Mr. Campbell didn't do demonstrations particularly often, but each one served an exact purpose that perfectly conveyed the idea he was trying to express, and this goes for both physics and chemistry.' Malaker is currently double majoring in physics and astrophysics at the Illinois Institute of Technology. "Another thing I remember Mr. Campbell for was that his classes — particularly AP physics, less so for chemistry—weren'talways

the class on the label. By that, I mean that he planned to have several days when for life."

we discussed things other than physics, namely college experience, the future, etc. Those classes in particular were some of the most informative and view-forming classes I have ever been in," Malaker said. "I remember listening to a podcast once. I believe it was "Startalk" with Neil DeGrasse Tyson, and he mentioned he had many physics teachers, but he had very few exceptional ones. He referenced one of his high school teachers, raving about how they were able to get students passionate about the content that they were learning and how that type of teacher was the best possible teacher in virtually every objective sense. I firmly believe that Mr. Campbell is that type of teacher."

If I didn't care about his class, I wouldn't have stayed for several hours every day for several weeks to refine my titration skills in honors chemistry. If I didn't care about his class, I wouldn't have wanted to be a TA for a semester in AP Chemistry. If I didn't care about his class, I wouldn't have spent six hours every day perfecting my end-of-the-year AP Chemistry experiment," Malaker added. "Most importantly, if I didn't care about what he was teaching, there is a significant chance that I would not be a physics major right now. I might have found my way here some other way, but after taking Mr. Campbell's class, I didn't really have much of a choice in what I wanted to pursue. Every other option paled in comparison... I can guarantee that almost every student you ask will have great things to say about Mr. Campbell. To me, he was more of a mentor than a teacher."

Many of Campbell's students feel he not only stimulates a college environment but also makes the classes engaging and rewarding.

"Mr. Campbell excels at preparing students for their futures through coursework that simulates a college environment while also providing a tremendous student-teacher relationship that secondary education thrives on. Mr. Campbell cares about his students' academic success and their extracurricular accomplishments,' 2018 RTHS grad and current biomedical engineering pre-med student Alex Harvey said. "He can often be observed discussing subject matter other than coursework. His class is engaging, helped by his outstanding personality and good humor, but also rewarding. Students learn much more than physics from Mr. Campbell."

Physics. Hensley will pursue a university degree in industrial engineering. He said,

"Mr. Campbell is very good. He explains things in a way that makes it easier to understand and in addition, he offers advice when asked," current RTHS senior Cole Hensley said.

Hensley has had Campbell for honors chemistry, AP chemistry and now AP physics and plans to pursue a university degree in industrial engineering.

"[And] he's always here early and always makes time [for those that need extra help," he added.

So while he never worked in aeronautical engineering, Campbell shelved neither his education nor experience. He is a member of the DeKalb County Board serving on both the finance and health and human services committees and is a member of the DeKalb School District 428 Finance Committee. Campbell also says he's honored to serve as the President of the Rochelle Township High School teacher's association.

He is currently a full-time doctoral student in education, and while he may consider moving into education administration, Campbell said he would be perfectly happy to retire as a teacher.

Campbell will attend the fall meeting of the Illinois Society American Association of Physics Teachers Nov. 8 through 9 at Joliet Junior College to accept his award.

"Municode is a company we already work with to put our municipal ordinances online," Bearrows said. "The company would build a website that takes and integrates the Municode ordinances we have into a website that [village trustees] could add to... The company would do agendas, minutes, schedules and calendars that would all integrate together... Getting the minutes onto our site is currently a chore because our site is broken.'

Bearrows said the $4,600 in funding would allow Municode to build the new website and make it operational for the public. Additionally, Bearrows said the village will need to pay a $1,500 fee each year for continued hosting and support from Municode. Several vil-

Something to Think About

Jeff Beverage Director

SHARING DURING A WAKE When you have a "visitation"

or "wake", or what some refer to as "calling hours", you permit family and friends to express their feelings about the deceased. This sharing experience can be important to you in in your grief. When you are with others, you may find comfort and enlightenment. You can usually see the relaxation of the bereaved by the end of the wake.

You and others should be able to express your own emotions. At the same time, it is helpful for you to hear what the life of the deceased has meant to others, some of whom you may not even know. The visitation in the presence of the viewable body provides a proper setting and climate for these expressions.

There are some people who suggest other approaches or even elimination of this custom. In fact, some alternatives are totally lacking in those elements which experience and research have shown to be helpful to normal recovery from the loss a death creates.

Sewer lining work cause of smoke, odor inside business

ROCHELLE -Aldi was forced to evacuate the building and remain closed for multiple hours because of a fire scare on Wednesday afternoon.

Reports of smoke coming from both the men's and women's restroom in Aldi forced the fire department to be called and the building to be evacuated. Along with the smoke, there was a strong chemical smell that was permeating throughout the building and carrying out to the parking lot.

After an investigation, it was determined that the cause of the smoke and the smell was the sewer lining work being done in the area by city crews.

"The city is going through and lining sewer lines, they put some kind of a lining in the sewer line then they use steam to harden the material. The problem is if all of the sewer traps don't have water in them, it allows those fumes to come up into your building and that is what happened in both of the bathrooms at Aldi," Rochelle fire chief David Sawlsville explained.

To help eleviate the smell, Aldi was forced to remain closed to customers and use fans to pull the air from inside the store to the outside for several hours.

There were no injuries or any damage to the property as a result of the incident.

"We monitored the air and nothing was showing up as being dangerous, flammable or explosive. I talked to the local people and they explained to me that they are not dangerous, just obnoxious," added Sawlsville.

Making efforts for change

HANGING habits is hard. I try but I don't always succeed.

I care about the planet. I try to bring my own bags to the grocery store. I try not to drive too much or make sary trips I use refillable water bottles and I recycle but I don't feel that is enough.

don't care?

There are times when I think my efforts are futile because I am only one person. I go to a grocery store and see the hundreds of plastic bags going out the doors and I wonder if people just don't believe there is a problem, or is it they

I see cars sitting idling while people run into the store and wonder why they don't shut off the engine. And picking up kids after school, why sit in the car for 30 minutes with the engine running? If your child lives within walking distance, let them walk, or walk to meet them.

Maybe 97 percent of the world's scientists are wrong and the planet isn't changing because of us but what if they aren't wrong? Can we risk that?

So, I am going to try harder. I'll plant some trees next year, and maybe a garden to attract butterflies and bees. I will try to use less energy and I hope you do too.

Speaking of planting trees, there should be a movement in every community to plant trees... park districts, school districts, city governments can look at their land holdings and find places to plant trees.

Memorial forests could be established, with people buying a tree in memory of a loved one.

Maybe I'm looking at it too simply, but we are creating too much carbon dioxide. Trees need carbon dioxide to grow. More trees would mean more carbon dioxide taken out of the air.

If we can do that, and reduce our emissions, maybe the planet has a future.

I see work is underway on the new travel plaza east of town. That's a lot of chain link fencing.

There are lots of cool hay bales around town. If you have not looked at them, it's worth a drive around town (or walk or bike). My favorite is the hippie bus at city hall. Cool, dudes.

I am one of those people who pays extra for recyclables to be picked up. Lately I wonder if they are being recycled after leaving my house. In some areas, the material is going straight to the dump.

BIGGEST FLOP IN BASKETBALL HISTORY...

Trying hard to not look creepy with my camera

EING a journalist is great, and I am very proud of what I have chosen as my life's work.

It comes with some good things – people recognize you and give you a compliment – and it comes with some bad things – people recognize you and tell you that you stink.

But I have found over the years that one thing is harder than pretty much anything else about this job. No, it is not asking tough questions. No, it is not going into a situation that you know in advance will be hostile. No, it is not taking the at times absolutely profane and threatening calls that journalists get from time to time. (That has not happened to me at this job, for the record). For me, the hardest thing about this job is taking pictures. I don't mean the physical part of taking pictures. I actually took a photography class in college. I shot with a manual camera (this was before digital) and developed my own film. It was an involved process and fun, actually.

But once I got to a newspaper and went out on assignments, I realized something: A lot of people hate to have their picture taken.

And when I say hate, I mean Packers/Bears level hate.

Just recently I was taking pictures at Autumn on Parade.

'Don't take my picture." A woman barked at me. "I don't want to be in a picture.' I wasn't even pointing my camera in her direction. Women, often, simply don't like the way they look in pictures, so it can be a bit of a negotiation.

Me: Can I get a couple of pictures?

Her: Absolutely not. Me: I just need a couple of shots. It will give the story more impact.

> Her: Absolutely not. Me: I haven't had this much resistance since I shot those photos with Cindy Crawford 20 years

Her: You shot Cindy Crawford?

OK, I have never shot Jennings photos of supermodel Cindy Crawford. But sometimes you have to get creative when you want to get a photo. Men are even worse. Even if I give them advance notice, a lot of men just refuse to have their photos taken. The worst for me, however, are kids. Kids can give you some great, natural pictures.

When they are just doing their thing and you are taking pictures, they can be so unguarded that you can't help but get some great photos. The problem is approaching people to take photos of their kids at a place like Oregon Park West. I introduce myself and hand out my business card, but no matter what I just look like a creep with a camera taking pictures of kids. I know I am a good person, but it still makes me feel weird. And the withering looks from moms can really get to you. Trust me.

So, if you see me at an event taking a few pictures, just go about your business and ignore me. Trust me, I don't want to make anyone look bad. I just want to capture a moment. And hopefully not look creepy while

ROCHELLE — Anthony Rowley, a local Edward Jones financial advisor, is supporting the Ogle County Toys for Tots program by using his office as a drop-off location for this year's toy drive.

Local residents may help needy children in the area by bringing in a new, unwrapped toy to the office, 326 Lincoln Highway in Rochelle, during regular business hours through Friday, Dec. 13.

"With the holiday season around the corner, we are all getting ready for the festivities," Rowley said. "And as this is the season of giving, now is a great time to remember the less fortunate in our community." Edward Jones, a Fortune 500 company headquartered in St. Louis, provides financial services in the U.S. and, through its affiliate, in Canada. Every aspect of the firm's business, from the investments its financial advisors offer to the location of its branch offices, caters to individual investors. # Sycamore handles Hubs

Spartan offense too much for Rochelle in lopsided game

BY DOUG OLESON

CONTRIBUTING WRITER

ROCHELLE — It was the kind of play players dream about making, but rarely does it happen.

It was early in the fourth quarter of Friday night's varsity football game between Rochelle and Sycamore. With the game in hand, the Spartans had a fourth down and five when reserve quarterback Caden Carrier tried a quick pass in the flat.

Anticipating the play perfectly, Rochelle senior Ethan Etes stepped in front of the intended receiver to pick it off, and then raced 57 yards untouched toward the goal line for a touchdown.

Unfortunately, it was one of very few bright spots for the Hubs. Playing a highly ranked team on a very bad night, in which wind chills hovered just above freezing due to a relentless, savage wind, the Hubs lost 42-6.

"They're a very good team," RTHS head coach Kyle Kissack said afterward. "They're well coached."

With the win, the Spartans are now 6-1, and are gearing up for a state playoff run. Coming into the game, Joe Ryan's squad had outscored their opponents 187-33, while winning four straight games—three touchdowns on runs of six,—did lead in time of possession, in which they out powered their 45 and 18 yards. He led all rushers 25:32 to 22:28. foes 163-20.

Despite the lopsided loss, Kissack said the Hubs (2-5) played better than the score might indicate.

"I thought our kids played well, especially early on," he said. "We rose to the level of play."

Starting with the opening kickoff, the Spartans scored six of the first seven times they touched the ball. Many of the scores were set up with good field position inside Rochelle's half of the field.

The first time Sycamore didn't score, came on their third possession, when the Rochelle defense stuffed a running attempt on fourth and goal.

Getting the ball on their own 5-yard line, the Hubs weren't able to do much with it, forcing a punt which Sycamore fielded deep in Rochelle territory, leading to the visitor's third touchdown.

Sycamore senior quarterback Grant McConkey scored the first with 107 yards rushing on just 10 attempts.

Senior running back Gavin Ansteth led Rochelle with 49 yards rushing on 13 attempts, followed by 33 yards from sophomore Eric Briseno on 11 carries.

As a team, the Hubs picked up 101 yards rushing on 23 carries, compared to 214 yards on 31 attempts for the visitors.

McConkey, who kicked all six of Sycamore's extra points, also connected with Manuel Dominquez for a 68-yard touchdown pass late in the first half, three of six passes he completed for a total of 81 yards.

Etes completed one of five passes for Rochelle, including a six-yarder to Briseno.

Gavin Crofoot added Sycamore's last score when he returned Nolan Morrissette's punt 45 yards for a touchdown with 4:35 to play in the third quarter.

Rochelle did have a couple of good drives, including one in the first quarter, and their best of the night midway through the third quarter when Ansteth picked up 20 yards and Briseno a dozen, moving the ball from Rochelle's 45 to Sycamore's 31. But that was as close as the Hubs could get.

The drive accounted for half of the Hubs' four first downs. Sycamore, on the other hand, had 11 first downs. The Hubs Junior Sawyer McGee and sophomore Emma Hicks earned Rochelle's second point with a 10-8 victory at No. 2 doubles.

Aurora Central Catholic claimed two doubles points in the match, as Lady Hub sophomores Jordin Dickey and MeLisa Young fell 4-10 at No. 1 doubles while McMurray and Olsen fought hard but lost 7-10 at No. 3 doubles. Junior Anna Guevara was shut out 0-10 at No. 2 singles.

"Caitlin has been a sweetheart for the team and she's always cheering for her teammates," Cartwright said. "She's been someone I can rely on and I appreciate all of the hard work she's put in. Avri's been a pleasant surprise coming out her senior year, and she's developed her skills to where she was able to play at the varsity level and hold her own."

The Lady Hubs will compete in the Interstate 8 Conference Varsity Championships at La-Salle-Peru this weekend before beginning the IHSA Class 1A Sectional tournament at Rockford Boylan's Indoor Tennis Center on Friday, Oct. 18.

The loss drops Rochelle to 2-5 on the season and officially eliminated the Hubs from post season playoff action for the first time in the past four years.

Kissack said the Hubs will go back to work Monday preparing for their final two games of the season. The Hubs finish the season by hosting Plano next week and then traveling to Ottawa on Oct. 25. "Both of these final

Lady Hubs fall to Kaneland

RTHS celebrates Volley for the Cure

BY RUSSELL HODGES
SPORTS EDITOR

ROCHELLE—After falling in a very competitive match against Sycamore on Tuesday, head coach Molly Sly was anxious to see how the Lady Hubs would bounce back when the Rochelle volleyball team hosted another tough conference opponent, Kaneland, on Thursday. Wearing their pink uniforms in celebration of Volley for the Cure, the Lady Hubs kept with Kaneland for most of the opening set before the Knights pulled away with a strong start in the closing set to defeat Rochelle 25-19, 25-16 and drop the Lady Hubs to 17-14 overall. Senior Katie Van Hise led the team with eight kills, while junior Clare Green had 10 assists.

Junior Ellie Kinn recorded 11 digs on defense, with sophomore Zoey Tabor adding seven digs. Green also finished with seven digs including a brilliant save near the end of the second set.

"Clare made a fantastic save for us," Sly said. "She comes out ready to play every single game and I love her spark and her fire. She wants to win and I love her desire to go out and get it every single game."

Rochelle tipped off the match with the first two points before Kaneland strung seven straight points together to lead 7-2. The Lady Hubs fired back with a 7-2 run of their own to even the set 9-9 and both teams split the next 10 points to remain deadlocked halfway into the set. But the Knights rallied off three consecutive points to go ahead 17-14 and force a Rochelle timeout.

The 3-point burst was part of an 8-2 Kaneland run that put the Knights ahead 22-16 before both squads split the final six points of the set. Another slow start hurt the Lady Hubs in the second set, as defensive errors allowed the Knights to start up 10-3 and eventually pull ahead 19-8. Rochelle fought back briefly, stringing a 7-3 run together to keep Kaneland slightly on its heels before the Knights closed the match by winning three points in a row.

"We can't wait until the other team has point No. 24 before we start running balls down," Sly said. "We need to read the ball... We had a lot of touches at the net and I thought we read where they were going to hit the ball pretty well. I'm looking for us to finish the season with a couple of wins and to finish on a win before entering the regional."

Rochelle received the No. 4 seed in the IHSA Class 3A Regional at RTHS beginning the week of Oct. 28. The Lady Hubs will continue conference play against LaSalle-Peru and Morris next week before finishing the regular season with matches against Ottawa and Plano the following week.

CELEBRITY EXTRA

Q: I'm searching for information on a series that aired last year about an airline flight that disappeared for five years and then mysteriously reappeared. I can't remember what it was called. I thought I had read that it would be back for a second season. -- M.U. A: The mystery drama you're thinking of is "Manifest," starring Josh Dallas and Melissa

Roxburgh. Fortunately, it will be back for a second season, but not until the winter or spring of 2020. The 13 episodes will air Monday nights on NBC without any hiatuses. It's the closest you'll be able to get to binging the entire season at once. I think it's a smart move for network television to do this, as it decreases the chances of fans losing interest.

Q: I just finished watching season three of "Stranger Things" on Netflix and can't wait for more. Has it been renewed for a fourth season yet? -- P.S.

A: Netflix just announced that it has renewed the popular sci-fi horror series for a fourth season, so we'll be seeing more of Eleven (Millie Bobby Brown) and company as they try to finally close the portal to the Upside Down. And it looks like the kids could be leaving their Indiana hometown behind, as a caption in the season four trailer noted, "We're not in Hawkins anymore."

The Duffer Brothers, the creative minds behind the breakout streaming series, reportedly signed a lucrative multi-year deal with Netflix that goes beyond just "Stranger Things" to include other series and film projects. "We can't wait to see what The Duffer Brothers have in store when they step outside the world of The Upside Down," Netflix said in a statement.

Will season four be the last?

The brothers have said in the past that they see the show running four to six seasons, but that could change with their expanded Netflix deal.

Q: What happened to "The in "Manifest"

Melissa Roxburgh

Village" that aired last year? It was my favorite series. Didn't it have the same writer as "Parenthood," which was a very successful show? -- S.S. A: I hate to break the sad news to you, but "The Village," starring Warren Christie, was canceled by NBC in May after just one season. Set in an apartment building in Greenwich Village, the ensemble series was aimed at attracting fans of absorbing dramas like "This Is Us" and "Parenthood," but unfortunately it just didn't generate very high ratings. Producer-writer Mike Daniels doesn't have any connections with "Parenthood," but his credits include several episodes of the biker drama "Sons of Anarchy" and the Jennifer Lopez police show "Shades of Blue." Send me your questions at NewCelebri-

Soph harrier Johnson up next for Lady Hubs

BY RUSSELL HODGES

SPORTS EDITOR

THE Rochelle girls cross country team has seen its leadership torch passed down a few times over the last three years. From former Lady Hub standout and perennial medalist Katherine Bakken to current senior Britney Baez, there has always been a runner ready to take the next step and lead the cross country program.

It's looking like Lady Hub sophomore Sara Johnson will be handling the torch pretty soon. The younger sister of former Rochelle student-athlete and state track qualifier Levi Johnson, Sara has pieced together an excellent second season with the Lady Hubs, earning awards in five consecutive meets dating back to the Eddington Invitational at Kaneland on Sept. 21.

"Katherine and Britney have taught me to keep pushing myself and continue getting better," Johnson said. "They taught me how we can work as a team and that's really important for us. It's an individual sport but we're still part of a team and we need to work together. It's cool that I'll get to be the next person to lead our team."

Johnson's most recent achievement was finishing fifth out of nearly 100 runners in the 3-mile junior varsity race at the Freeport Invitational on Oct. 5. She recorded her top time this season during the First to the Finish Invitational in Peoria (22:03.4) and she made her personal record with Rochelle during the 2018 season, when she ran a time of 21:47.2 in the IHSA Class 2A Belvidere North Regional at Spencer Park.

"The season has gone pretty well and we've been developing over the course of the season," Johnson said. "Our team has improved a lot... Britney and I have decreased our times and our practices have improved too. We've increased our distances. I've done better this year and I'm faster now than where I was at this point last season."

Johnson entered Rochelle Township High School with no cross country experience, but she said former head coach John Dobbs motivated her to participate with the program. Johnson, who also competes in the 800-meter run and the 300-meter hurdles with the track and field team, was also inspired by her older brother Levi, who ran cross country his senior season.

"I like running and I enjoy the team aspect of the sport," Johnson said. "Levi has been my biggest role model and he's taught me not to stop and to continue getting better at what I'm working for. He taught me to always give 110 percent."

Johnson has raced in both varsity and open competitions throughout her sophomore season. She took ninth place out of almost 70 runners in the annual Rochelle Invitational, where racers have the opportunity to run through Skare Park and get a little dirty while doing so. The event, also known as the Mud Run, has become an early favorite for Johnson, who admitted she went through the creek during the meet last season. "We have so much fun at practices and we've made great memories," Johnson said. "Running the course at Skare Park is really fun and going into the creek last season was a really cool experience."

"Levi [Johnson] has been my biggest role model and he's taught me not to stop and to continue getting better at what I'm working for. He taught me to always give 110 percent."
