Oregon H.S. program holds pitch showcase

OREGON – The Oregon High School Social Entrepreneurship program held its Student Startup Showcase on Wednesday, Dec. 12 in the Scoops "Secret Stache" room.

Twenty high school seniors pitched their business plans and prototypes to raise capital for their second-semester businesses. Each business had to meet the three criteria of the program: the business must have a social benefit as its foundation, must be entirely student-created, and must be operable during class time.

Student businesses ranged from blankets to baked goods, from motor sports to social media marketing.

(See STUDENTS, A-2)

Horse Barn Committee eyes new fundraisers for 2019

The Ogle County Horse Barn Committee is planning the 2019 events for our fundraising efforts to build a horse barn on the Ogle County Fairgrounds.

The committee is looking forward to having a barn to utilize. Plans for an event every weekend at the fairgrounds is the goal. The barn will be used all year with equine events in the spring, summer and fall, and, RV storage in the winter. It will make money for the Fair Association.

The committee has spoken with the Clydesdale Breeders Associationabout participating in the shows. There is a big interest in draft and draft cross horses as riding horses. We are in the process of contacting exhibitors of draft horses of all breeds about participating

Miniature horses are another breed that has seen a big upsurge in popularity. We have several exhibitors that breed, train and show these athletic little horses. Both the drafts and minis are being shown in hand, under saddle, in cartsand in hitches.

We have a gift certificate for the Wild Rose Casino in Clinton, Iowa for a one night's stay and a $25 food allowance. This would make an awesome Christmas gift. $75 donation requested. Email shadowboxerarabians@gmail.com. We welcome sponsors for events and donations to the barn fund.

MEGAN (SWAZIEK) WELLS YOUR LIFE MATTERED

Our grief and sorrow continues as we continue to have many questions about decisions made by individuals voted into office to "Protect and Serve" that allowed your killer out on bail for $200.00 the evening of 6/24/2016 and then after pleading guilty received a 30 month probation sentence (not even a minute in jail) for taking your precious life.

Our heartbreak continues during this Holiday Season as this has forever changed the lives of your kids, our family and all who love and miss you every day.

LOVE YOU MEGAN!

Demmer earns advocacy award

SCHAUMBURG – In recognition of his advocacy on behalf of some of Illinois' most vulnerable residents, State Rep. Tom Demmer (R-Dixon) has been named Legislator of the Year by the Community Behavioral Healthcare Association (CBHA) of Illinois.

Demmer was nominated for the award by the staff and administration of Sinnissippi Centers, Inc., a communitybased behavioral healthcare system in Northwest Illinois.

"Representative Demmer has a deep understanding of behavioral health issues, especially as they relate to regulatory and funding challenges," said Patrick Phelan, President and CEO of Sinnissippi Centers. "He has been a tremendous advocate for the behavioral health community and has championed critical legislation to strengthen community services and provide sustainable and reliable funding. It was our pleasure to nominate him for this much-deserved recognition."

The award was presented at the CBHAAnnual Conference, which was held this week at the Hyatt Regency Woodfield in Schaumburg. "It is an honor to be recognized for my work in this important area of public policy," Demmer said. "I look forward to continuing to work on legislation that helps reform delivery systems and improve patient outcomes."

In announcing the award, DBHA CEO Marvin Lindsey said, "Commitment, dedication and hard work to a cause we all believe in can sometimes be hard to find. Occasionally, an individual will distinguish himself from others through his leadership and ability to achieve results."

Looking back to May, the inaugural Songwriter's Open Mic got off to a great start with first artist – first original composition by Jim Henkel and The Legend of Leo.

Songwriters Open Mic returns to Mount Morris on Dec. 21

MOUNT MORRIS –

Fulfilling its role as one of Northern Illinois' most progressive music venues, the Mount Morris Moose Family Center will once again host the Songwriters Open Mic held on the third Friday of each month.

This month's 2019 Christmas Finale on Dec. 21 will round out the 2018 schedule.

The Songwriters Open Mic produced by Jerry Tice of the renowned Mountain Grass Band and co-hosted by star performer Ruth Ann Lillstrom will showcase original musical or lyrical compositions performed by the creating artist. No covers. No accompanyist. All material must be family friendly.

At the inaugural show things got off to a rousing start with first artist - first original composition by Jim Henkel and The Legend of Leo. Leo Mongovan was from Jim's hometown of Harmon, a small Northern Illinois farming town. n the depression era he went to Chicago and became a part of the Bugs Moran Gang. Somehow, he survived the gang wars (St. Valentine's Day Massacre for example) and returned to Harmon to live out his life as a farmer. As Jim's well received song describes, "He always kept his back to the wall."

Each performer gets two songs and no more than 10 minutes. Sound is provided, but no complicated set-ups or processors. Each event will run from 7-9:30 p.m. Performer check-in is 6:30 p.m. Performance order will be drawn at 6:50 p.m.

It seems that there are many original compositions among our Northern Illinois musicians.

The Mount Morris Moose Family Center has an extensive menu of food and beverage so arrive hungry and thirsty and ready for original music.

Details are available from Jerry Tice at 815-449-

Contemplating getting a flu shot? The director of the Illinois Department of Public Health says it is not too late.

According to IDPH director Nirav D. Shah, M.D., J.D., the highest flu activity is between the months of December and February, but can last as late as May.

"Even healthy people can get the flu," said Shah. "And while healthy people may not suffer serious illness from the flu, they can pass the virus to babies too young to be vaccinated, people who have chronic illnesses, and others who may develop serious health problems like pneumonia. Before you get together with grandkids and grandparents for the holidays, make sure you not only protect yourself from the flu, but your loved ones as well."

Locally, Rochelle Community Hospital has not seen unusually high activity of flu cases.

"While we have seen cases of influenza, the numbers at this point are very low," said Jim Carle, RCH Chief Ancillary Officer. "It is anticipated that the flu season will follow a typical pattern and peak in mid to late winter."

Schools in the Rochelle area have not seen an unusually high number of absences.

"No, we haven't seen a lot of flu cases," said Debbie O'Brien, Rochelle Township High School attendance secretary. "Our attendance for this time of the year has been the same as it always is."

Shah said the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention released estimates from the 2017-18 flu season attributing 49 million flu illnesses, 960,000 flu hospitalizations and 79,000 deaths.

"Flu is typically spread by droplets when someone with the flu talks, coughs, or sneezes," as read on the press release from Shah. "People can also get the flu by touching something, like a door handle, that has the virus on it and then touching their mouth, eyes, or nose. On average, it's about two days after being exposed to the flu before symptoms begin. However, you can pass the flu to someone roughly a day before you start experiencing those symptoms, and up to five to seven days after becoming sick."

The IDPH recommends the three C's: Clean, Cover and Contain. Clean, or wash hands frequently with soap and warm water, cover coughs and sneezes and contain germs by staying home when sick.

MOMENTS IN TIME

* On Jan. 4, 1785, the older of the two Grimm brothers, Jacob, is born in Hanau, Germany. His brother Wilhelm is born the following year. As young men, the brothers published "Children's and Household Tales," later known as "Grimm's Fairy Tales," in several volumes between 1812 and 1822.

* On Dec. 31, 1879, in the first public demonstration of his incandescent light bulb, American inventor Thomas Alva Edison lights up a street in Menlo Park, New Jersey. The Pennsylvania Railroad Company ran special trains to Menlo Park in response to public enthusiasm over the event.

* On Jan. 5, 1933, construction begins on the Golden Gate Bridge, as workers began excavating 3.25 million cubic feet of dirt for the structure's huge anchorages. The bridge officially opened on May 27, 1937, the longest bridge span in the world at the time.

* On Jan. 1, 1942, President Franklin D. Roosevelt and British Prime Minister Winston Churchill issue a declaration, signed by representatives of 26 countries, called the "United Nations." The signatories vowed to create an international postwar peacekeeping organization.

* On Jan. 2, 1962, an appearance by The Weavers on NBC's "The Jack Paar Show" is canceled when band members refuse to sign an oath of political loyalty. The folk group saw their careers nearly destroyed by the anti-communist Red Scare of the early 1950s.

* On Jan. 6, 1975, some members of a large crowd in line to buy tickets to the rock band Led Zeppelin break into the Boston Garden arena and cause $50,000 in damage. In response, Boston's mayor Kevin H. White bans the band from Boston for five years.

* On Jan. 3, 1987, the Rock and Roll Hall of Fame admits its first female artist, Aretha Franklin. Since then female inductees have included The Supremes, Janis Joplin and The Shirelles.

LIFE letters' policy

Concise letters are most likely to be chosen for publication, but the use of any material is at the discretion of management. All letters must be signed or they will not be considered for publication.

During election times, no letters written by the candidates endorsing themselves will be considered for publication.

Éditing may be necessary for space, clarity or to avoid obscenity or libel, but ideas will not be altered. Writers are urged to use discretion and refrain from sarcasm or personal attacks.

Criticism of individuals or organizations that is not broached tactfully will jeopardize the publication of a letter. Letters will be published in the order that they are received, unless there is a time factor involved, space permitting.

Maybe we should apologize to the Millennials

Well, apparently Millennials are killing off tuna.

OK, more specifically, they are killing off canned tuna. Why? Because they are buying less of it than previous generations. The Wall Street Journal has reported that only 32 percent of consumers between the ages of 18 and 34 bought canned fish or shellfish recently.

It seems like people in my age group are buying much more of the canned goodness - 45 percent.

And yes, when I say canned goodness I am being facetious. I am not a fan of tuna fish, or any other canned fish. Or fresh fish. Or frozen fish. Or just fish.

This, to me, seems to be just another thing to blame on Millennials, the generation born roughly in the 1980s and 1990s (some say a little later). Us Baby Boomers would have nothing to complain about if we didn't have Millennials, with all of their feelings and desires for social justice and participation trophies and aversion to homeownership and cereal.

the Life By Brad Jennings

Living

I shake my fist in your general direction, young person with a neatly trimmed beard wearing pajama bottoms at the liquor store, where you are stocking up on Pabst Blue Ribbon for some strange reason.

Why do you hate America?

Again, I am kidding. I do not buy into the current trend of blaming young people for killing off everything that makes America great. They want to eat less processed food? Good for them. They don't want to shop for the 1,200-count toilet paper pallet at Costco? More power to them.

Really, I don't care what the next generations wants to eat or do. They can make those decisions.

Well, some of them.

One hit they have taken is that they are accused of avoiding homeownership. In reality, I'm sure they would love to own homes, but the dollar just doesn't have as much value as it used to, so they can't afford it. They have student loans and three jobs just so they can afford to pay rent in the room they grew up in.

Sure, there are jobs in this economy, but the only people getting rich are, well, the rich. Others, especially young people coming into the job market, often have to work multiple jobs just to get by.

I am thankful that I am not a person in my 20s right now. I have two kids who are in this category, and homeownership isn't even a thought for them right now. And, even though we have never had the conversation, I'm sure they don't spend much time worrying about the future of canned tuna.

They have more important things to worry about, like the skyrocketing national debt. When you are going to have to find a way to pay back the trillions of dollars ($21 trillion and counting) your parents ran up in order to save the country from financial ruin, things like canned fish just don't seem as important, do they?

Instead of blaming young people, maybe we should apologize to them for the debt, the deficit, global warming, the horrible state of affairs in our national politics, skyrocketing drug prices, polyester.

Yeah, we aren't so great ourselves. So let's just sit in front of our TVs, watching people on "news" shows scream at each other while we stuff our faces with canned tuna. These kids don't know what they are missing!

More about tribalism and how to cure it

"I sense a growing longing among us for an end to the extreme politics of today. It's possible, but only if we're willing to make big changes in our social and political institutions. When we do, moderates will resume their rightful place at the core of our political life."

Those words ended last month's article about tribalism, the inflexible loyalty of followers to their political or social group. It's both cause and effect of the polarization, hostility, and extremism that so often degrade our politics. It thrives in both major political parties as well as outside of them.

Tribalism's roots and branches are many and intertwined. Andrew Sullivan, in a thorough analysis in the September 18, 2017 edition of New York Magazine, outlined them: divisive social issues; talk radio, cable news, and the internet; demagogic politicians; the way we're sorting ourselves into isolated communities; and many others.

Perhaps this complexity is one reason why there seems to be more tongueclucking and hand-wringing than concrete proposals for solutions from the news media and politicians. Another is that so many of the causes lie beyond the reach of laws and political reforms.

One solution, a crucial one, lies in us, the Americans citizens. Our system of government, as envisioned by the founders, relies on reason, civility, and compromise. When we succumb to the herd mentality, emotionalism, and intransigence of tribalism, it brings into question our fitness to have and keep a democratic political system.

It's human nature to clearly see and condemn these sins in our Republican or Democratic opponents and not in our own tribe. It brings to mind the Biblical passage about taking the piece of wood out of your own eye before telling someone else how to remove the speck from his (Matthew 7, verses 1-5). So the first step in overcoming tribalism is to master it in ourselves—we can be certain it's there in all of us—and to reject it in our leaders.

Then, we can look to our political institutions to see how they encourage extremism. Gerrymandered voting districts, for example, discourage competition and compromise by politicians. Also, the moderating influence of Democratic and Republican Party leadership has been weakened under the competing influence of outside money. And the Electoral College and Senate encourage regional factionalism by over-representing states with small populations.

But for or me there's one political institution that needs reform above all others. It's the system of primary elections that we use to nominate candidates for the general election. Primaries tend to be dominated by the so-called base, the most zealous and uncompromising members of each party.

These practices go back a long way, and there were good reasons for many of them at one time. But the test of any form of government is how well it adapts to changing conditions. The transformations that have taken place in our society and politics make systemic reform at least as important as any other problem that we now face.

We can't effectively address any other issue, whether it's immigration, health care, taxes, climate change, or national defense, while tribalism is crippling our democratic institutions. There's no silver bullet for this problem. The major responsibility lies with each American citizen.

But the right fixes to our political system may help to weaken the power of tribalism. The first step is to reach a consensus that our political system is need of repair. The next is to agree on how to fix what's broken, the topic of a future column.

Producers are encouraged to preregister at least two weeks prior to ensure a seat for the session that fits their schedule. To register, call 217-244-9687 or register online at go.illinois.edu/clm. The cost is $35. If more than one employee from the same farm signs up, each additional registration will cost $25.

Lunch will not be offered, but coffee and snacks will be provided. However, a box lunch will be provided by Illinois Pork Producers for producers that preregister at the January 30 workshop at the Illinois Pork Expo.)

The current training manual used for Certified Livestock Manager Training is the Livestock and Poultry Environmental Stewardship Curriculum. This curriculum is available for free online at go.illinois.edu/manual.

If you have a manual or CD that is older than 2003, you should check the website for information for update options

IDOA CLM Exam questions are taken directly from this manual. Some of this curriculum will be covered during the workshops. However, it is impossible to cover all of the exam material in one workshop, so acquiring and reviewing the manual in advance is highly recommended.

Please visit the Certified Livestock Managers Training webpage at go.illinois.edu/clm for more information about registration, manuals, online training options, and other resources. Producers and employees also have the option of taking five online quizzes.

Passing these is the equivalent of having attended a workshop, but does not substitute for passing the state administered Certified Livestock Manager exam.

Registration is open for the CLM Online Training Program at go.illinois. edu/clm. There is no charge to take the online quizzes other than the cost of a manual.

Leaf River Lions set Leader Dog trip to Michigan

LEAF RIVER – Ever wonder how they train a puppy to become a Leader Dog for a blind or deaf person? Ever wonder how they breed and select the dog for such training? How is the dog and recipient selected? Where are these dogs raised and trained? How much does a Leader Dog cost?

You have the opportunity to find the answers to all of your questions if you want by taking a two-day trip to the third largest Leader Dog training facility in the world in Rochester Hills, Mich.

The Leaf River Lions are sponsoring a trip on Jan. 31-Feb. 1, 2019 to the Leader Dogs for the Blind facility. You do not have to be a Lion to go on this trip.

You will leave from the Bertolet Memorial building in Leaf River at 7:15 a.m. after having a continental snack prior to boarding. We will stop at the DeKalb Oasis for the first break and for anyone wanting something to eat or drink. We will stop at Cracker Barrel in Stevensville Michigan for lunch and arrive at Rochester Hills Thursday late afternoon.

We will have a buffet dinner that evening at the Quality Inn hotel along with a social time.

In the morning, we will have a hot breakfast at the hotel before leaving at 9 a.m. to go to Leader Dog.

Arriving at Leader Dog you will see their brand new remodeled facility and be welcomed by several different people. We will receive a tour of the facility and see all the puppies! You will get to see where the dogs are cared for in their veterinary clinic, their breeding area, and also where the recipients stay while being accustomed and trained with their Leader Dog. There will also be some free time to look around and visit their Leader Dog store.

You will hear from several of the staff that work there as well as meet and hear from some puppy raisers and also a person with a Leader Dog. Lunch will be provided at Leader Dog and we will leave midafternoon. We will stop at Bob Evans in Battle Creek for dinner Friday evening and arrive back in Leaf River around 10 p.m.

The entire trip cost is $210 for a single person and $320 for a couple. This cost includes the continental breakfast and dinner at the hotel on Thursday. Lodging is included as well as the breakfast and lunch on Friday. The travelers only cost will be their meal at Cracker Barrel and Bob Evans.

The tip for the bus driver is included in the price. This is a very informative and inspirational tour. One you will remember forever.

If you are interested you need to contact Paul Lindstrom at 815-738-2761 to make arrangements or to ask questions.

Don't hesitate too long as the very comfortable Van Galder coach is over half full already.

Recycle holiday lights this year

OREGON – It's that time of year again when we start to decorate for the holiday season.

When you come across holiday light strands that refuse to work, have those light strands recycled instead of landfilling them.

The Ogle County Solid Waste Management Department (OCSWMD) is partnering with local fire departments and villages to again offer several convenient dropoff boxes so those nonfunctional holiday light strands can be recycled.

Starting Nov. 16, drop-off boxes were available at the following fire departments: Rochelle, Byron, Stillman Valley, and Mount Morris. They will be located at the village halls in Polo, Forreston, and Davis Junction, and Creston. Light strands ar are also accepted at the Ogle County courthouse and at the OCSWMD office at 909 Pines Road in Oregon. Boxes will remain at these locations until Jan. 25, 2019.

Accepted light strands include Italian mini-lights, traditional lights, LED lights, and other holiday light strands. Extension cords are also accepted. Material not accepted include rope lights, wreaths, garland, metal stakes or silhouettes, live greens, plastic decorations, timers, and light packaging and boxes. Please place light strands into the boxes and do not place shopping or garbage bags into the boxes, doing so hinders the recycling process for this material.

If you have any questions about this program, call the 815-732-4020 or visit www.oglecounty.org.

Mother files complaint over son's death probe

Claims Galesburg Police Department didn't do thorough investigation

BY LORI HAMMELMAN Staff Writer

Sandy Halsne wants to know what happened to her son, Tyler Smith, the night he died this past September.

The Rochelle resident filed a formal complaint against the Galesburg Police Department, claiming they did not thoroughly investigate the circumstances of Smith's death this past September, and also alleged possible discrimination.

Halsne took her story to Galesburg's Community Relations Commission (CRC) Thursday evening.

"A week ago Friday I filed a formal complaint with the Galesburg Police Department and I was then directed to file that with the CRC," Halsne said in a phone interview on Friday. "I don't think Tyler's investigation was taken seriously from day one."

According to what Halsne was told, the CRC cannot investigate complaints against the city; therefore, she was directed to file at the state level. But the committee did give her the opportunity to share her story.

Halsne doesn't believe enough was done during the investigation, and pointed out in her complaint she feels her family was not treated very well by the Galesburg Police Department.

"Tyler L. Smith may have been just another deceased young black male in the eyes of the Galesburg Police Department, but Tyler is a human being who has a mother and a father who love him very much," Halsne said to the CRC Thursday evening, as she choked back tears sitting next to Smith's father, Keith Smith. "In less than 24 hours it went from a homicide investigation to a drowning. There was no reason why or how he got where he was."

Smith, a 2014 graduate of Rochelle Township High School and a 2018 graduate of Western Illinois University with a criminal justice degree, had just moved to California after being accepted into the California Police Academy.

He arrived in Galesburg on Friday, Sept. 14 and was planning to stay overnight with a friend before attending a National Guard drill in Macomb on Saturday. Smith reportedly went out for dinner and drinks Friday night, got separated from his friends and never returned. He was found dead Saturday night in an area called Cedar Fork, a steep 20-foot cement storm drainage canal. An autopsy determined Smith's cause of death was drowning, but Halsne said there are too many unanswered questions as to what exactly happened to Tyler, and why.

One by one, Halsne told the CRC several accounts she claimed transpired between her and the investigators.

"Did investigators see a mixed race young man from California and make a decision not to investigate? Did they see interracial parents and make a conscious decision to dedicate their time to other things?" Halsne asked the committee.

On Friday, Halsne said her next step is to gather more information on how to file a complaint at the state level.

"Our main concern is what happened to Tyler that night. Our main focus is Tyler, we don't want to take attention from that," she added. "It is important for them to know how our treatment was that night and how the marbles dropped. We don't feel he got a fair investigation."

The Galesburg Police Department confirmed a complaint has been filed, but declined to comment further on the matter.

"Yes, a complaint has been filed and an investigation is being conducted," said David Christensen, Galesburg chief of police. Halsne said a meeting with the city manager, police chief and attorney is scheduled for next Tuesday.

"It's your worst nightmare with a nightmare on top of it," she added.

Soap Opera Update

(From C-7)

THE YOUNG AND THE RESTLESS

Nikki found JT's bloody clothes displayed on her bed. Deeply shaken, she went to see Victoria, only to be interrupted by Reed's return home for the holiday break. Reed announced that he would, once and for all, find his father's killer. Cane made it clear that he didn't want his children hanging out with Reed. Meanwhile, Nikki booked a consultation with Mia in an attempt to befriend her. Abby asked Nick to join her new project as a consultant, but he wasn't willing to commit. Abby got a different idea after seeing Lola at her new pop-up shop inside the coffeehouse. Jack was perplexed by Kerry's pattern of missing dates and ignoring his calls. Reed flew into a rage, accusing his mother of keeping secrets from him. Wait to See: Victor is missing in action.

Michelle Stafford stars as "Nina" on "General Hospital."

Q: Why was Kevin Hart fired as host of the Oscars? I know it had to do with something he posted on Twitter. Did they find a new host yet? -- D.B.

A: Hart wasn't fired from his hosting duties, but chose to step down. It all started when the Academy demanded that he apologize for anti-gay comments he posted on Twitter several years ago. The actor/comedian refused, stating that he had addressed this issue before and that he was not the same person he was when he made those comments.

A few days later, he did issue an apology to the LGBTQ community, stating: "I am evolving and want to continue to do so. My goal is to bring people together, not tear us apart."

As of this writing, a new host has not been named. Reportedly, the Academy is considering having multiple hosts. Last year's ratings for the televised ceremony were the lowest ever, so it is apparently trying to shake things up a bit creatively in an effort to get more viewers.

Q: Is it true that the actress who plays the oldest daughter on "Modern Family" had another kidney transplant? Is she going to be OK? I still watch that show faithfully every week. -- A.J.

A: Yes, Sarah Hyland, who plays Haley on ABC's "Modern Family," underwent a second kidney transplant in 2017, but didn't go public with the news until now.

In an interview with "Self," she stated that she went through a period of major depression after learning that her body rejected her original transplanted kidney, which was donated by her father. Her new kidney was donated by her brother, and she appears to be doing well so far.

Q: Can you please tell me what happened to Danny's daughter on "Hawaii Five-0?" I haven't seen her at all this season. -- John W.

A: You're not the only viewer who has been wondering what happened to Grace, played by Teilor Grubbs. The actress has grown up on the show and is now a teenager, but hasn't been seen this season. Fortunately, she recently filmed scenes with her father, played by Scott Caan, for an upcoming episode, so if it hasn't aired by the time you read this, look for it in 2019.

Q: Whatever happened to actress Katrina Bowden? She had a small role on "30 Rock." I thought she was very funny and beautiful, but I haven't seen her in anything since. -- S.A:

A: Bowden, who recently turned 30, has earned a lot of credits since playing the vapid Cerie on the NBC comedy "30 Rock," including a regular role on the Ed Burns series "Public Morals," which lasted for one season on TNT. She also starred in a couple of TV movies for Hallmark.

Next up for Bowden is a role on the CBS daytime soap "The Bold and the Beautiful" where she'll play Flo, who has ties to Wayne Brady's character, Reese. Send me your questions at NewCelebrityExtra@gmail. com!

"The House with a Clock in Its Walls" (PG) -- Lewis (Owen Vaccaro) is 10 years old and an orphan, sent to live with his oddball uncle. It's hard to be the new kid, especially when you live in the creepiest house in the neighborhood. When he's dared into opening an off-limits section of the house to a schoolfriend, he accidentally wakes the dead, and he, his uncle and the neighborhood witch (a delightful Cate Blanchett as Mrs. Zimmerman) will have to work overtime to clean the clocks of the evil that's to come. Jack Black is at his most effective in weirdo roles, and he's simply magical here as Uncle Jonathan Barnavelt, a warlock who is the caretaker of this house with a secret. Pull up an enchanted sofa, and enjoy this film with a batch of chocolate chip cookies.

"A Simple Favor" (R) -- An unlikely friendship is struck between glamorous fashion executive Emily (Blake Lively) and mommy vlogger Stephanie (Anna Kendrick) that takes so many twists and turns that by the end of the movie you'll be sick to your stomach -- and loving it! The two women bond over play dates, so it's unremarkable when Emily enlists Stephanie as a babysitter. But then she doesn't turn up and eventually is discovered dead in a lake. There's intrigue, confession, sex and alternate personalities. Well-done performances by the leads and direction by Paul Feig. Adapted from the novel by

Darcey Bell.

"Little Women" (PG-13) --When Louisa May Alcott published "Little Women," do you think she knew just how many times the March sisters would have to come of age on film? This release marks the seventh film adaptation, this time bringing Meg, Jo, Beth and Amy into the present day. Jo is a writer challenged to dig into her own life for meaningful material. Meg dreams of domestic harmony, while Beth's quiet spiritual strength belies her fragile health, and Amy's artist talents blossom as she dreams of material wealth. It may be updated to the modern times, but it's 100 percent sappy and sweet -- like, the Hallmark Channel version. Lea Thompson is Marmee, and Lucas Grabeel plays Laurie.

"Venom" (PG-13) -- Tom Hardy stars as investigative journalist Eddie Brock, who, while trying to expose the underhanded machinations of a big bio-engineering company, inadvertently bonds with an alien lifeform that unleashes superhero powers in him. This symbiote is called Venom, and unfortunately for the rest of us, is part of a group of no nose, big teeth, slimy actual peopleeaters whose manifest destiny includes taking over the planet. Bummer. Brock/Venom face off against archtype billionaire baddie CEO Carlton Drake (Riz Ahmed), among other things. The superhero genre has a plentiful stream of offerings, there's no need to waste your time on this weak drivel.

An Advertising Proverb

When Mark Twain was editing a newspaper in Missouri, one of his subscribers wrote in, saying that he had found a spider in his newspaper and wondered whether It was a sign of good or bad luck. Twain's response: "Finding a spider is neither good luck nor bad. The spider was merely looking over our newspaper to see which merchant was not advertising, so that he could go to that store, spin his web across the door, and lead a life of undisturbed peace ever afterward."
