FROZEN fruits and vegetables are packed and frozen within hours of harvest, so they don't lose their flavor or nutritional value. Try steaming vegetables in the microwave or stovetop rather than boiling to keep in more nutrients.

CANNED fruits and vegetables often get a bad rap but they are still nutritious. Choose 100% fruit juice with no added sugar and vegetables with no sale added. Remember to drain the water, juice, or syrup and rinse with water to help remove some of the extra sugar and salt.

Mishel Prada in "The Continental: From the World of John Wick"

The 'Continental' experience: John Wick franchise gets three-night TV stay

For many of us, when we book a stay in a hotel (particularly a luxury one), comfort ranks above all else. Though the meaning of the word "comfort" varies from one person to the next and could encompass anything from the thread count of the bedsheets to one's proximity to the bar, "comfort" in the world of John Wick is most closely associated with personal safety.

Those familiar with the John Wick franchise will already be aware of The Continental's most important rule: the assassins seeking refuge within the hotel shall not conduct any "business" on the grounds. Put simply, no hits will be tolerated on the premises.

That said, NBC/Peacock is certainly hoping for a hit of its own (granted, a "hit" of a different kind) when the new miniseries "The Continental: From the World of John Wick" begins streaming Friday, Sept. 22, on Peacock.

John Wick (Keanu Reeves, "The Matrix," 1999), the trained assassin who lends his name to the franchise supported by The Continental Hotel, first made audiences fall in love with him in the 2014 film, simply titled "John Wick." Despite his former career as a hitman, Wick exhibits a soft side while taking care of a new beagle puppy in the wake of his wife's death. However, when a group of gangsters breaks into Wick's home and the puppy is targeted, Wick loses all sensitivity and comes out of retirement to avenge his furry friend. And while Wick's situation may change from film to film, one thing that remains a constant throughout the franchise is The Continental; and this is where Peacock's newest series comes in.

Created by Greg Coolidge ("Ride Along," 2014), Shawn Simmons ("Wayne") and Kirk Ward ("The Turkey Bowl," 2019), "The Continental: From the World of John Wick" is a three-part noir-action miniseries that focuses on the history of the mysterious hotel chain that operates as "neutral territory for members of the criminal underworld" (per IMDb).

Colin Woodell ("The Flight Attendant") stars as a young Winston Scott, the manager of The Continental's New York division and a character already known to franchise fans thanks to the work of "Deadwood" actor Ian McShane. The role of Winston is a meaty one for Woodell, filled with lots of backstory for both character and setting as the series' events dive deep into real-life New York crime history.

While the specifics of the miniseries are being kept a secret for obvious reasons, there has been word that the events take place over three nights at The Continental in the 1970s and that there is a correlation to both the Winter of Discontent and the rise of the American Mafia.

Additionally, audiences can expect to see a few familiar faces along the way; most notably that of controversial actor Mel Gibson ("Braveheart," 1995). Joining Gibson and Woodell on the small screen are Nhung Kate ("The Housemaid," 2016) as Yen, Katie Mc-Grath ("Supergirl") as the Adjudicator, Jessica Allain ("The Laundromat," 2019) as Lou, Adam Shapiro ("Never Have I Ever") as Lemmy, Jeremy Bobb ("The Knick") as Mayhew, Dan Li ("Luther: The Fallen Sun," 2023) as Orphan Master, Sallay Garnett ("Conversations with Friends") as the Concierge, Peter Greene ("Pulp Fiction," 1994) as young Uncle Charlie (portrayed later in life by "Twin Peaks" reboot actor David Patrick Kelly), and new talent Ayomide Adegun as Charon, a role made famous by beloved actor and TV personality Lance Reddick ("White House Down," 2013), who died earlier this year.

Sec. 75

Checking in with JOSHDUHAMEL A movie that Josh Duhamel directed, co-wrote and starred in has given him a path into the reality-competition market.

The "Las Vegas" alum and "All My Children" Daytime Emmy winner first made "Buddy Games" as a 2019 comedy about pals who take part in a series of contests to strengthen their friendship and possibly win a sizable cash prize. Some of the film's content – which Duhamel based on experiences from his youth with his own friends – was reasonably racy, and it's been toned down a bit for the CBS reality version of "Buddy Games" now airing Thursdays. As executive producer Duhamel serves as host, six teams of four acquaintances vie for the win in a summer-camp-like setting, putting their physical and mental abilities to the test.

Just as the "Buddy Games" movie (which recently got a sequel) enabled Duhamel to break into directing, the series variation is giving him an opportunity to enter the unscripted-show category at a time when the actors' strike has kept him from doing his usual sort of work. After being an extra in Donna Summer and Christina Aguilera music videos, he became a weekday star as Leo du Pres on the now-finished "All My Children," in a run that lasted from 1999 to 2002 (with him returning in 2011).

After he left the serial, it didn't take long for him to land a primetime role with his "Las Vegas" gig as Danny McCoy; he built upon that by making such movies as "Win a Date With Tad Hamilton!," "Turistas" and the first live-action "Transformers" adventure during the show's run. The "Transformers" franchise has proven to be something of a constant in Duhamel's' career, since he has reprised his William Lennox military character in the sequels "Revenge of the Fallen," "Dark of the Moon" and "The Last Knight" (with Lennox getting a job promotion each time).

Duhamel has stayed active (in non-strike times) in both films and TV since - he appeared last year in Season 2 of Disney+'s "The Mighty Ducks: Game Changers" and in NBC's "The Thing About Pam" – but the new incarnation of "Buddy Games" is letting him start an added chapter, and it will be interesting to see whether it endures.

Kevin Costner in "Yellowstone"

tonight's picks

One Night Stand Murder (29) 7 p.m.

Sometimes dates go awry. Alyssa (Casey Waller) wakes up in a strange home and discovers a dead body. Unfortunately, she has no memory of how she got there, and no idea who he is, so Alyssa tries to piece together what exactly happened the night before.

Yellowstone

3 3 7:30 p.m.

The first episode of this series airs for the first time on broadcast TV, following as John Dutton (Kevin Costner), patriarch of a Montana-based family and owner of the largest ranch in the U.S., fights to defend his land from the modern-day forces that threaten his way of life.

The Walking Dead: Daryl Dixon (54) 8 p.m.

Following his departure from The Commonwealth, Daryl Dixon (Norman Reedus) washes ashore in France, raising the ire of a splintered but growing autocratic movement centered in Paris, endangering a young boy at the heart of a benevolent religious movement.

Deadlocked: How America Shaped the Supreme Court

(435) 7 p.m. A new episode from this documentary series examines the vital role that the Supreme Court plays in the context of America's shifting political landscape, and features an indepth look at the historic and pivotal cases that altered the state of the union.

Guy's All-American Road Trip

31 8 p.m.

Season 2 continues, as Guy Fieri and a caravan of his family and friends hit the road again, packing into RVs for an epic journey through Appalachia filled with crazy adventures, family competitions and some of the best food in Tennessee and Kentucky.

American Masters

8 8 p.m.

This new episode from Season 37 highlights the life and career of the prolific First Amendment attorney Floyd Abrams, who worked diligently on countless landmark cases including the Pentagon Papers and Citizens United during his 50 years on the job.

Dateline NBC

46 5 9 p.m.

Season 32 continues, returning to annals of NBC's beloved news magazine: Dateline. With each installment, longtime anchor Lester Holt pieces together real-life events to present an exceptionally comprehensive picture of the case in question.

Outback Opal Hunters

(45) 9 p.m.

As the teams continue to hunt, the Digi Diggers finally install their solar plant. But the power-hungry mine triggers a total system shutdown. Then Lisa puts a sale with a jewellery designer at risk. And Rod takes on thieves who stole from the mine.

Witness to Murder: Digital Evidence

(42) 9 p.m. In this season finale a young woman from South Carolina is found dead in her bathtub, and the investigation focuses on her estranged husband and her boyfriend. But a digital clue gets one of these guys to accidentally confess to the murder.

Keith Morrison from "Dateline NBC" traditions of the trade as they work together to build their

NASCAR Xfinity

Racing Series

(61) 2:30 p.m.

When it comes to the Andy's

Frozen Custard 300, you know these drivers have to drive fast or that stuff will melt.

It's been Austin Hill's season

so far, so don't expect him to coast as the season continues from Texas Motor Speedway in Fort Worth.

own barbecue empire.

Ready Jet Cook

(31) 11 a.m.

Jet Tila mixes up two classic stir-fries where shrimp is the star of the dish. He starts things off with a flavor-packed kung pao shrimp, later revealing two stir-fry superheroes while making salt and pepper shrimp with veggie-loaded fried rice.

Kings of BBQ

(42) 12 p.m.

Anthony Anderson and Cedric the Entertainer continue their BBQ-loving road trip across America with a new episode, determined to discover the best techniques, flavors and (36) 7 n m

36 7 p.m. This film joins Abby (Emilie Ullerup) and Sean (Peter Mooney), a pair of former best friends who run into each other at a retreat after years of no contact. The duo tries to stay apart, but must rely on each other after separated from their hiking group.

Spy

(401) 7 p.m.

She may have gone through field training, but CIA analyst Susan Cooper (Melissa Mc-Carthy) spends her days as a desk jockey, working with dashing agent Bradley Fine (Jude Law). But when Bradley is assassinated, Susan finally gets her first undercover assignment.

Stolen Baby: The Murder of Heidi Broussard

(29) 7 p.m. Just when Heidi Broussard (Anna Hopkins) is ready to give birth, her best friend, Magen (Emily Osment), who is also pregnant, travels to be by her side. But when Heidi and her newborn immediately go missing, authorities think Magen is hiding a secret.
