celebrity BY JAY BOBBIN

If NBC wanted a Washington, D.C., insider to inherit the moderator's chair on "Meet the Press" – and clearly and obviously, it did – it already had Kristen Welker to fill that bill.

Previously a White House correspondent and "Weekend Today" co-anchor for the network, she has succeeded Chuck Todd in presiding over the Sunday-morning staple, a television destination for politics-driven conversation since 1947. (It had started two years earlier on radio on the Mutual Broadcasting System.) Welker's tenure brings the program full-circle in a sense, since it originated with a female host, Martha Rountree. Welker is the first woman to have the job full-time since then; Lawrence Spivak, Bill Monroe, Roger Mudd, Chris Wallace, Garrick Utley, Tim Russert, Tom Brokaw and David Gregory are among others who have held the position.

Welker covered the Obama and Biden administrations extensively as a reporter, and she earned high marks as the sole moderator of the last of the Republican presidential debates in 2020. She has filled in on "NBC Nightly News" and the weekday edition of "Today," and also on "Meet the Press" (co-hosting the streaming "Meet the Press NOW" as well), and she started what was her regular role on the Saturday version of "Today" early in 2020. (Laura Jarrett, NBC's senior legal correspondent, has taken her former spot there alongside continuing co-host Peter Alexander.)

Though she was associated initially with ABC through her work at two of the network's affiliates, Welker became part of the NBC "family" in 2005 by

Beyond time and space: 'Loki' returns with uncontrollable powers

We've all done the time warp and explored the multiverse, but it's high time to sort out the timeline. A brand-new season of "Loki" premieres Friday, Oct. 6, on Disney+. Tom Hiddleston ("The Essex Serpent") returns as the God of Mischief, everyone's favorite troublemaker, Loki, who has developed a mysterious problem this season.

Owen Wilson ("Haunted Mansion," 2023) is back as Mobius M. Mobius, the Time Variance Authority agent tasked with helping Loki right his wrongs across the multiverse. The first season of "Loki" saw the Norse God meet his match in an alternate version of himself. Sophia Di Martino ("The Electrical Life of Louis Wain," 2021) is Sylvie, a variant of Loki who interrupts the Sacred Timeline. After coming together to set things right across space and time, Loki returned to what he thought would be the TVA headquarters he left before his mission, but something still wasn't right.

In the official trailer for the upcoming season, Mobius brings Loki to a repair shop of sorts, manned by TVA repair guy OB, portrayed by Ke Huy Quan ("American Born Chinese"). Before the pair have time to explain what's brought them there, Loki suddenly, uncontrollably disappears in a timeslip, leaving Mobius looking to OB for an answer. "It's impossible to timeslip in the TVA," is all he can say, though they just watched it happen.

"Loki" executive producer Kevin Wright told Entertainment Weekly in September that "[OB's] job is basically every piece of tech, every computer, every thing that is running at the TVA. ... He either designed it or he fixes it and keeps it running." Having recently picked up an Academy Award for Best Supporting Actor in 2022's "Everything Everywhere All At Once," Quan is well suited to help repair another multiverse. While Quan's character is the latest to join Loki's crew as he chases chaos across the multiverse, several cast members return for the new season, including Gugu Mbatha-Raw ("Surface") as Ravonna Renslayer, an ambitious judge in the TVA who oversees Loki's case. Literally backing up Loki at one point in the season's trailer alongside Mobius, Sylvie and OB is Wunmi Mosaku ("We Own This City") as Hunter B-15. Eugene Cordero ("Star Trek: Lower Decks") returns as Hunter K-5E.

The upcoming seasons also star Neil Ellice ("Halo 4: Forward Unto Dawn") as Hunter D-90, Jonathan Majors ("Creed III," 2023) as He Who Remains and Tara Strong ("Teen Titans Go!") as the voice of Miss Minutes. Rafael Casal ("Blindspotting"), Kate Dickie ("Annika") and Liz Carr ("Silent Witness") all join the cast this season in as-yet-unnamed roles.

Odd couple Mobius and Loki unsurprisingly have different approaches to their world-saving mission spanning space and time. While the former admits in the "Loki" teaser that he prefers his "slow, deliberate, cerebral approach" honed by years in the bureaucracy of the TVA, while the Norse god is "a man of action, which is fine." Unconvincing, given Loki is the source of the destruction they are trying to stave off.

While Disney has remained characteristically tight-lipped about the new season of "Loki" ahead of its premiere, Mbatha-Raw promised in a December 2022 interview with Entertainment Tonight that fans "are gonna be in for a real treat because the show is bolder and more surreal." She added that the upcoming season "goes to some bigger, bolder places than Season 1, which is really exciting." Wright promised something similar in his September EW interview, saying, "We made a weird show [in Season 1], and people responded to how weird it was ... so, we wanted to push it further."

joining WCAU, its station in her hometown of Philadelphia. Her first posting with the NBC network took her to its West Coast foothold in Burbank, California, as a general correspondent, before she became a part of the White House beat in 2011.

Twelve years of experience in the nation's capital has given Welker a solid base for her "Meet the Press" duties ... and while the show may be keeping the same mission, it has entered a new era with her on board permanently.

The Proof Is Out There

(48) 9:05 p.m.

Is new thermal imaging the most convincing footage of Bigfoot since the famous Patterson-Gimlin film? Are casts from Mt. St. Helens proof that an as-of-yet undiscovered primate lives in North America? Tony Harris investigates and separates fact from fiction in this season premiere.
