FROZEN fruits and vegetables are packed and frozen within hours of harvest, so they don't lose their flavor or nutritional value. Try steaming vegetables in the microwave or stovetop rather than boiling to keep in more nutrients.

CANNED fruits and vegetables often get a bad rap but they are still nutritious. Choose 100% fruit juice with no added sugar and vegetables with no sale added. Remember to drain the water, juice, or syrup and rinse with water to help remove some of the extra sugar and salt.

'Superfans' assemble: CBS premieres new competition series honoring music fans

After decades of competitive reality shows committed to finding the most talented singers, dancers, performers and the like, CBS launches an unscripted series dedicated to the fans well, to the "superfans," to be exact. Honoring the most loyal of six celebrities' fan bases, the network's new competition series tests a group of contestants' knowledge in exchange for a chance to meet their idols up close and personal. Originally scheduled to arrive in June, "Superfan" premieres Wednesday, Aug. 9, on CBS, the CBS app and Paramount+.

Created by executive producers Keltie Knight ("Footloose," 2011) and Jodi Roth ("Inappropriate Jeff," 2014), "Superfan" makes use of a classic game show model — think BBC's "Mastermind," if you've seen it — testing players on a smattering of facts about the musician they all share a love for. Each week, beginning with LL Cool J ("NCIS: Los Angeles"), one music star is welcomed to perform and look on as their biggest fans settle the No.1-fan question once and for all.

The series has a six-episode freshman season, and it is hosted by Canadian TV personality Knight and Canadian-American former NFL wide receiver Nate Burleson ("The NFL Today"). It features one new musical celebrity per episode, and following LL Cool J's inaugural episode, the weekly guests of honor include: Canadian country music legend Shania Twain ("That Don't Impress Me Much," 1997); Cuban-American pop sensation Gloria Estefan ("Rhythm Is Gonna Get You," 1987); Alabama-born country foursome Little Big Town ("Pontoon," 2012); rapper and Miami native Pitbull ("I Know You Want Me," 2009); and Tennesseean singer/songwriter Kelsea Ballerini ("Miss Me More," 2017).

As the artist's fans compete across several rounds to figure out who will come out as the one and only "superfan," they each get the opportunity to interact with their favorite artist, thus making their music fandom dreams come true just by taking part. By the end of each episode, the artist in the spotlight will crown their No. 1 fan and present to them a unique set of prizes.

While discussing his excitement about co-hosting the new show, Burleson stated that "Superfan" "perfectly captures the energy of concert vibes and competition," adding that "as a host, I get to meet music icons and watch everyday fans compete for a dream prize."

As far as the at-home audience's interaction with the fun goes, Burleson notes, "You will dance, laugh and even cry by the end of each episode, but more importantly, you'll walk away a superfan yourself."

And Burleson isn't the only person delighted to be taking the game show genre to new heights; creators Knight and Roth also expressed their own love for the series in the CBS news release.

"We felt like it was time that fan bases across all genres of music get the love and recognition they deserve," the pair said. "Superfan' gives celebrated musical artists a chance to honor their fans by engaging with them one-on-one and surprising them with once-in-a-lifetime prize packages. It's a feel-good show that everyone will enjoy."

Note: This interview took place before the SAG-AFTRA actors' strike. Though her resume includes some celebrated sci-fi projects, Jewel Staite notes that one of her favorite roles is quite earthbound.

It's her current series part, edgy recovering-alcoholic attorney Abby Bianchi in "Family Law," the drama now airing its second season Fridays on The CW (and Mondays, in the show's and Staite's native Canada, on Global). Abby is trying to redeem herself as she works in the firm run by her estranged father (Victor Garber, "Alias"), but she also has strained relations with her children and ex-husband that sometimes prompt her to slide backward as she strives for sobriety.

"She's so many things," Staite reflects of Abby while crediting series creator and executive producer Susin Nielsen ("Robson Arms") for coming up with the character. "She's a really big personality and she's masking a lot of pain, but she's also really funny. She uses her sense of humor a lot to cope with different situations, and that's always fun to play. There are times when I've come home from this job really exhausted, and I love it.

"My husband — who knows me better than anybody — watches the show and says, 'You know, honey, it's no wonder you're tired. Abby has a lot going on. I think you pulled 8,000 facial expressions in one scene.' I think in order to make her believable and also relatable, you've got to find the balance and make her almost goofy in her humanity." As she attends conventions where she's widely recognized by fans for her work on

"Firefly" and "Stargate Atlantis," Staite is pleased to receive feedback that indicates "Family Law" (which has gotten a Season 3 renewal in Canada) also has caught on.

"In the beginning," the actress recalls, "I was so worried that no one would like her. Then I realized that she's human, she makes mistakes, and she wears her heart on her sleeve. The course to take with her is to just play her with honesty, and that's what I've tried to do." Birthdate: June 2, 1982 Birthplace: White Rock, British Columbia Current residence: Los Angeles Marital status: Married; has a son

Other television work includes: "Quantum Leap," "The Magicians," "The Order," "The Good Doctor," "Take Two," "The Detectives," "Same Time Next Week," "The Wrong Bed: Naked Pursuit," "Blindspot," "Undercover Wife," "Castle," "Legends of Tomorrow," "The Christmas Ornament," "The Listener," "The L.A. Complex," "Supernatural," "Debbie Macomber's Call Me Mrs. Miracle," "Warehouse 13," "Stargate Atlantis," "Widow on the Hill," "Wonderfalls," "Huff," "Dead Like Me," "Firefly," "Beyond Belief: Fact or Fiction," "Seven Days," "Higher Ground," "Da-Vinci's Inquest," "Honey, I Shrunk the Kids: The TV Show," "Space Cases," "The X-Files," "Are You Afraid of the Dark?," "The Odyssey," "The Only Way Out," "Liar, Liar," "Posing: Inspired by Three Real Stories"

Movie work includes: "How to Plan an Orgy in a Small Town," "40 Below and Falling," "She Who Must Burn," "The Pact," "After Dusk They Come," "Serenity," "Cheats," "Carpool," "Gold Diggers: The Secret of Bear Mountain"

"Cheats," "Carpool," "Gold Diggers: The Secret of Bear Mountain" Favorite movie: "Contact," with Jodie Foster. You can gauge a favorite movie by whether you'll watch it any time it comes on TV, and even if it's 11 p.m. and that's on, I've got to see it."

Favorite TV show you're not on: "House of the Dragon' is a favorite, and I also loved 'Succession.' And I also love a dose of good reality TV, so ... 'Top Chef.' I've seen every season."

Favorite singer: "I love Dinah Washington and Sarah Vaughan. I'm a big jazz nerd. But I love Adele, too, and Beyonce is on in my car. I love good powerhouse vocalists."
