BY GEORGE DICKIE

Elana Meyers Taylor is among the athletes expected to compete in the 2022 Winter Olympics Monday on NBC and NBCUniversal networks.

The quest for hardware continues at the 2022 Winter Olympics in Beijing

There are a number of stories to watch, with several athletes seeking multiple hardware, as the 2022 Winter Olympics goes into its second full week of action in Beijing. All events air on NBC, Peacock, USA Network, CNBC, NBCOlympics.com and NBC Sports app.

One involves women's bobsledding on Monday, Feb. 14, as Elana Meyers Taylor of the United States will team with Kaillie Humphries, who previously competed for Canada, in the monobob, which makes its debut at these games. Meyers Taylor owns three Olympic medals in the two-woman bobsled but has never won gold, while Humphries topped the monobob podium at the 2021 IBSF World Championships. Meyers Taylor and Humphries are also expected to be in the mix for hardware in the two-woman bobsled, which has its gold medal run on Saturday, Feb. 19.

Also on Monday in women's snowboarding, two-time defending Olympic gold medalist Jamie Anderson of the U.S. will duke it out with two international athletes – 2021 World Champion Eileen Gu of China and Estonia's Kelly Sildaru, the four-time X Games champ – in the slopestyle final. The next night, Anderson will go for gold in the big air event while on Friday, Feb. 18, Sildaru and Gu will vie for podium space with defending Olympic gold medalist Cassie Sharpe of Canada in the halfpipe.

In men's snowboarding on Saturday, American David Wise will face a stalwart field including fellow countryman Alex Ferreira, Canada's Brendan Mackay and Nico Porteous of New Zealand in the halfpipe, an event in which he's won gold in the past two Olympics.

The eyes of the world will no doubt turn to women's hockey on Thursday, Feb. 17, with the gold medal game. Barring any major upsets, the United States and Canada should once again be the opponents here. These countries have met in the last three Olympic finals (with Canada winning twice) and have dominated World Championship play since its inception in 1990.

And who can forget Mikaela Shiffrin? Depending on how she did in her previous events, she could be going for her fourth gold medal of these games in the women's downhill on Tuesday. But she'll face stiff competition from fellow countrywoman Breezy Johnson, the two-time world champion. Shiffrin will then enter her fifth and final race of the Olympics on Thursday with the alpine combined, in which she won silver in 2018.

In women's short track speed skating on Wednesday, Feb. 16, Canada's Kim Boutin will defend her 2018 Olympic gold medal from a field including American Kristen Santos in the 1,500m final. And in women's figure skating on Thursday, look for Russian teenagers Kamila Valiyeva and Alexandra Trusova to vie for hardware with Alysa Liu of the U.S. in the conclusion of the short program.

Checking in with SARA HAINES

Season 25 is a milestone for "The View," and it's been revelatory for Sara Haines, who's been more pronounced than ever in putting forth her own views.

"I'm forever a work in progress, and I have a lot of levels to go," says the ever-friendly yet strongly opinionated personality who co-hosts the weekday ABC talk program with Whoopi Goldberg, Joy Behar and Sunny Hostin (and, often, Ana Navarro). Still, Haines feels a responsibility in her literal place at the table, even when it's virtual (as the coronavirus pandemic sometimes has necessitated again in recent weeks).

"I've noticed in the last four or five years that there's a hysteria in responses by the public and the media to different stories," she reflects. "The very extreme reactions are a new phenomenon in watching mainstream news, and that has forced me to be a little more firm. I don't have an ideological commitment to any party or narrative. I don't decide my answer before I hear the question."

Because of that, Haines reasons, "I think being calm and reasonable and open to facts – even when they're not comfortable – is kind of the North Star for me. And I'm watching it fade away everywhere I look, so I feel the need to be louder. Everyone has to open their eyes and say, 'Some of this is not OK.'"

With that, Haines (who also is the host of ABC's Wednesday game show "The Chase") believes any resulting conversation can be civil on "The View" and elsewhere "because it doesn't have to not be. If you're winning an argument, you don't have to name-call or get emotional. You just win on merit."

11 p.m. on (44)

Puppy Bowl XVIII

Martha Stewart and Snoop Dogg return as hosts of this year's event, picking up a new role as well: coaches! With Snoop coaching Team Fluff and Stewart repping last year's champions Team Ruff, the pair will cheer on their puppy players while giving each other a few challenges along the way. Celebrity pet groomer Jess Rona also drops by to help the coaches get their adorable — and adoptable — pooches ready for play. As always, the big goal is to find forever homes for rescue pets.

5 p.m. on (43) (5)

Super Bowl LVI

In a fluke of scheduling, tonight's Super Bowl LVI between the Cincinnati Bengals and Los Angeles Rams designates the Rams as the visiting team, despite that the game is on the Rams' home field of SoFi Stadium. Both teams got here via thrilling victories, Joe Burrow and the Bengals via their 27-24 overtime win over the Kansas City Chiefs in the AFC Championship game, and Matthew Stafford and the Rams with their hard-fought 20-17 triumph over the San Francisco 49ers in the NFC title contest. So this game, called by NBC's Al Michaels and Cris Collinsworth, has a lot to live up to.

8:30 p.m. on (56)

Oscar Micheaux: The Superhero Of Black Filmmaking

Francesco Zippel's 2021 documentary profiles the most successful Black filmmaker of the first half of the 20th century. Born in Illinois, Oscar Micheaux wrote, directed and produced more than 44 films, as well as penning six novels, before his death at age 67 in 1951. The work of this determined and gifted storyteller served as a powerful rebuke to the naked racism he came up against during his life. Interviews include cinema scholar Jacqueline Stewart, rapper Chuck D of Public Enemy and actor and filmmaker Melvin van Peebles.

Movie: Yours, Mine and Ours

The late 1960s was a boon for stories of blended families with lots of children, as evidenced by television's "The Brady Bunch," the Doris Day movie "With Six You Get Eggroll" and this 1968 comedy based on a true story. Lucille Ball and Henry Fonda are a charming duo as a widow and widower with 18 children between them. Van Johnson, Nancy Howard, Tim Matheson and Gil Rogers co-star. One of Fonda's most popular movies, it airs here as part of a February salute to the actor as TCM's Star of the Month.

NHL Hockey

TNT's peach of an NHL double-header faces off tonight at PNC Arena in Charlotte, where Sebastian Aho and the Carolina Hurricanes will defend home ice from Jonathan Huberdeau and the Florida Panthers in a clash of Eastern Conference playoff hopefuls. Then in the nightcap, two division leaders go at it when Nazem Kadri and the Colorado Avalanche of the Central drop in on Chandler Stephenson and the Vegas Golden Knights of the Pacific.

7 p.m. on 8 8

Nature

Between May and July of each year, billions of sardines gather along the east coast of South Africa to create a shoal stretching several miles long in one of nature's greatest spectacles. As the largest biomass migration on the planet, this run — which researchers estimate rivals Africa's fabled wildebeest migration — sees the tiny fish fighting to escape the mouths of multiple hungry predators that depend on this event for food. Special underwater cameras capture this event in "The Ocean's Greatest Feast."

8 p.m. on 8 8

NOVA

A fascinating new episode called "Great Mammoth Mystery" chronicles how amateur paleontologists and fossil collectors Neville and Sally Hollingsworth were pursuing their hobby to stave off pandemic lockdown boredom when they discovered a site in southwest England that preserved traces of extinct beasts that populated Britain more than 200,000 years ago. David Attenborough is the host.

8 p.m. on 9 9

The Chase

Season 2 of this fast-paced game show wraps up with two back-to-back episodes. First, James "The Highroller" Holzhauer returns as the Chaser for an episode called "There Is a Time and a Place for a Hawaiian Shirt," in which he tries to beat three contestants in a race against the clock. In the finale that immediately follows, "This Is My Chair of Disappointment," Ken "The Professor" Jennings takes center stage as the last Chaser of the season.

8 p.m. on 46; 12 a.m. on 46

Dr. Pimple Popper

Dr. Sandra Lee is busier than ever with a new caseload of patients as this somewhat improbable medical docuseries returns for a new season. Thankfully, she'll have help from new associate Dr. Betty Song, who joins the practice ready and willing to help Dr. Lee with conditions that are unusual and even sometimes baffling. Among the new cases featured are a condition Dr. Lee never has seen before, in which a male patient has a facial cyst so large that it nearly covers one of his eyes almost entirely.

8 p.m. on 48;
11:02 p.m. on 48

Modern Marvels

This iconic docuseries opens Season 21 with two new back-to-back episodes celebrating the technology that has helped shape our lives. First, "Wild Rides" puts viewers behind the wheel of some of the biggest, fastest and most powerful machines on the planet, from battle tanks to blimps, and from harvesters to helicopters. Then, "Steam Power" explores one of the oldest means of locomotion. TV host Jay Leno owns steam cars, but carousels, boats and even some skyscrapers likewise use steam as their "fuel."

The Game Plan

Shaquille O'Neal's prowess on the basketball court is well known, but he uses his equally formidable business acumen in this new docuseries as he guides and mentors small business owners in the Atlanta market. The series introduces six entrepreneurs who present their products, which run the gamut from streetwear to food and consumer packaged goods, to host O'Neal and such special guests as Killer Mike, Lisa Leslie, Big Boi and Quavo, who respond with business tips and advice on potential pitfalls to avoid. First up: Kultured Misfits, a streetwear brand.

Movie: The Farewell

Based in part on her own life experiences, writer-director Lulu Wang's 2019 comedy-drama earned her near-universal critical acclaim for its vibrant portrait of a large Chinese-American family that discovers a family matriarch (Zhao Shuzhen) has terminal lung cancer. The relatives decide not to tell the old woman, instead scheduling a celebratory family gathering in her honor before she dies. The film earned a number of international accolades, including a Golden Globe Award for Awkwafina as best actress — musical or comedy for her performance as the matriarch's granddaughter.

8 p.m. on 465

Movie: Nine Days

Writer-director Edson Oda earned widespread critical praise for this 2020 drama, for which he earned a screenwriting award when the film premiered at the Sundance Film Festival. The story unfolds in the middle of a desert landscape, where Will (Winston Duke), a kind of celestial arbiter, interviews "candidate souls" to determine which of them is best suited to be born into an earthly existence. The cast also includes Zazie Beetz ("Atlanta"), Bill Skarsgard ("It"), Benedict Wong (the "Doctor Strange" movie franchise) and Tony Hale ("Veep") co-star.

9 p.m. on 15

grown-ish

Jazz (Chloe Bailey) is forced to grapple with cultural and personal perceptions and prejudices surrounding mental health as she resumes therapy after a series of setbacks in the new episode "OK Not to Be OK." Elsewhere, Zoey and Vivek (Yara Shahidi, Jordan Buhat) start spinning out as Aaron and Ana (Trevor Jackson, Francina Raisa) innocently reconnect over their past.

9 p.m. on 43; 11 p.m. on 43

Fast Foodies

Jesse Tyler Ferguson ("Modern Family") proves that he fits in with the modern fast-food family, too, with his love of food, strong drinks and a fast-food sandwich that's truly like no other in this new episode. Chefs Kristen Kish, Justin Sutherland and Jeremy Ford try their best to re-create and remix Jesse's complicated sandwich.

9:01 p.m. on 42;
1:04 a.m. on 42

Taking the Stand

A new episode revisits the case of Sean Foley, who stands accused in the death of his girlfriend's stepfather, Jimmy Shelton, fatally shooting him after a booze-filled evening. Sean doesn't dispute the shooting, but claims that Jimmy was the aggressor and was trying to sexually assault Sean's girlfriend. Now he hopes he can persuade a jury to accept his testimony that the shooting was justified.

tonight's picks

Friday
6 p.m. on OVA
Movie: A Soldier's Story
Adapted from Charles Fuller's play, director Norman Jewison's engrossing 1984 drama stars Howard E. Rollins Jr. ("Ragtime") as a World War II military captain assigned to investigate the killing of a tough master sergeant (Adolph Caesar, in a sizzling performance) at an all-Black Louisiana military outpost. The captain grills each possible suspect about encounters with the murder victim.
7 p.m. on 48 5;
12:30 a.m. on 48 5
2022 Winter Olympics
Figure skating's final event, pairs skating, gets going tonight in Beijing with the short program.

Championing World and European reignings Anastasia Mishina and Aleksandr Galiimov of the ROC figure to be the favorites here, though current U.S. champions Ashley Cain-Gribble and Timothy LeDuc will likely also be in the medal mix. Also, the two-woman event in bobsledding gets underway and the men's halfpipe wraps up with the final run.
7 p.m. on 38; 10 p.m. on 38
Secrets of Sulphur Springs
Harper (Kyliegh Curran) makes a huge promise to Daisy (Curran again) in the new episode "Check-Out Time." Later, Harper and Griffin (Preston Oliver) share an original document concerning the Tremont, and Grace (Kenneisha Thompson) makes a totally unexpected appearance.

Landon Gordon and Elle Graham also star.
7:15 p.m. on 401
Movie: Antlers
Guillermo del Toro is among the executive producers of director Scott Cooper's 2021 horror thriller, which co-screenwriter Nick Antosca helped adapt from his own magazine short story. Keri Russell stars as Oregon schoolteacher Julia Meadows, who grows concerned about the strange behavior and unsettling drawings of Lucas (Jeremy T. Thomas), one of her students. She thinks he's being abused at home, unaware that the boy is harboring a dangerous entity in his house. Jesse Plemons, Graham Greene, Rory Cochrane, Scott Haze and Amy Madigan co-star.

8 p.m. on 48; 11:02 p.m. on 48
Ancient Aliens
A new episode called "Secrets of the Star Ancestors" examines how the tradition of many native peoples of North America include stories of powerful otherworldly beings who descended to Earth in the distant past. These beings also are present in the modern world, according to some of this lore. This line of thought raises questions about the origins of the human race and speculates whether the ultimate destiny of humans may rest in the stars.
9 p.m. on 56
Movie: Darling
Julie Christie became a major star — and an Oscar-winning one at that — in director John Schlesinger's of-the-moment 1965 drama about the escapades of a gorgeous but emotionally empty British fashion model.

10 p.m. on 401;
11:25 p.m. on 401
Painting With John
"Quirky" is probably used too often to describe unusual shows, but the word definitely applies to this offbeat series starring musician, actor, director and painter John Lurie, who returns for his second season of six episodes. A combination of fire-side chat and meditative tutorial, each episode finds Lurie at his worktable, reflecting on new life insights he recently has received as he works to refine his watercolor techniques. This new season also introduces something called Cowboy Beckett.

Movie: The Wedding Veil Legacy

Movie: Beauty and the Beast

One of the most beloved of modern Disney animated features, this 1991 fantasy puts its own spins on the familiar saga of a young woman (voice of Paige O'Hara) unexpectedly involved with a beastly creature (voice of Robby Benson). He's actually an accursed prince who needs true love to return to his former self. Angela Lansbury and Jerry Orbach also supply voices. The Oscar-winning score includes the title song and "Be Our Guest."

A romantic trilogy that originally premiered in January concludes tonight in this third installment starring Alison Sweeney as Tracy, the last of three friends to take possession of an antique wedding veil the trio purchased together. Just as she is becoming cynical about the legend attached to this item, which is said to lead its owner to true love, Tracy meets Nick (Victor Webster), who helps her save an original draft of "The New Colossus," the Emma Lazarus poem that appears in the Statue of Liberty.

7 p.m. on (56)

Movie: In the Heat of the Night

Director Norman Jewison's first-rate 1967 mystery earned Oscars for best picture and best actor for Rod Steiger, who plays a bigoted Southern police chief forced to investigate a murder with a Black Philadelphia police detective (Sidney Poitier). Ray Charles performs the wonderfully moody title song; Lee Grant and Warren Oates co-star. The film, and the novel upon which it was based, inspired a TV series that starred Carroll O'Connor and kicks off tonight's 24-hour marathon tribute to Poitier, the actor who died last month at age 94.

9 p.m. on (32); 1 a.m. on (32)

Kindred Spirits

The caretaker of an abandoned structure that once housed an insane asylum in Wisconsin summons Amy Bruni, Adam Berry and Chip Coffey to investigate some deeply troubling developments on the property in the new episode "Death Interrupted." Recent renovation work on the site seems to have awakened a previously dormant spectral presence that, to make matters worse, is making the building's resident spirits feel unusually restless.
