Alison Pill and Patrick Stewart star in "Star Trek: Picard," which begins streaming Thursday on CBS All Access.

Patrick Stewart returns to iconic role in "Star Traks Picard"

Fans of "Star Trek: Next Generation" will find its beloved Admiral Jean-Luc Picard out of sorts and in an unfamiliar state in a series that begins streaming this week on CBS All Access.

"Star Trek: Picard," which premieres Thursday, Jan. 23, picks up 20 years after the events of the 2002 feature "Star Trek: Nemesis" and finds the Enterprise commander played by Patrick Stewart retired to his vineyard in the Burgundy region of France, where he's turning out fine wines and licking his wounds from two events that derailed his career and changed his life: the destruction of the planet Romulus and the death of ex-comrade Data (Brent Spiner).

Unshaven and looking rather unkempt in the opening episode, the aging Picard is confronted by his original decision to pull away from Starfleet and forced to grapple with whether to re-engage and head back to the stars.

"A young woman appears to him on a day of remembrance ... about a very specific catastrophic event that is one of the key factors that changed the course of his life," explains series creator Alex Kurtzman. "... And it turns out that she happens to be the key that unlocks a whole chest of secrets and mysteries. And once he has gotten a taste of that, he ends up making the decision to leave the vineyard and go out and get a ship again but not in a way you will expect, not in a way that is predictable. And we have a whole new crew this year of characters."

In addition to Spiner, original 1987-94 series cast members Marina Sirtis and Jonathan Frakes (who also directs several episodes) make appearances in their respective roles of Troi and Riker, with Alison Pill ("Midnight in Paris"), Isa Briones ("Takers"), Santiago Cabrera ("Big Little Lies"), Michelle Hurd ("Blindspot") and Harry Treadaway ("The Lone Ranger") heading the regular cast.

And then, of course, there is Stewart, who had vowed to leave the character behind once and for all after "Nemesis." But Kurtzman's story treatment of a haunted Picard intrigued him and the Emmy- and Golden Globe-winning actor signed on. He has an executive producer credit here.

"He said to us early on," Kurtzman recalls, " 'I will never be the person who can (write) the story for you but I will be able to tell you very quickly if a line feels inauthentic.' And we said, 'Well since you are the pre-eminent expert in Jean-Luc Picard, that will be very helpful.' "

As for Pill, who plays scientist Dr. Agnes Jurati, the chance to work with Stewart in the "Trek" universe proved too enticing.

"I have wonderful videos of him just quoting some of his favorite Shakespeare," the actress says. "I mean, he'll do 'Midsummer Night's Dream,' he'll do 'Lear.' He just has such an encyclopedic knowledge of Shakespeare, so in between takes we'll just be getting amazing stories.

"And then also it's so special having some of the legacy cast members like Brent ... it's just so joyful to see old friends, old colleagues come together in this new iteration of an older thing. So seeing that was really special, seeing Patrick's comfort with them and joy in coming back to it was really special."

Jaina Lee Ortiz is a fitness fanatic by nature, so when she was cast to play Seattle firefighter Andy Herrera on ABC's "Station 19," it wasn't a big jump to get herself physically ready.

Still, she took the CPAT – or Candidate Physical Ability Test – as part of her research for the role.

"It was really hard and I passed," the Bronx, N.Y.-reared actress says. "I kind of want to do it again just to see like after three seasons what it feels like now. But it was not easy, especially carrying the mannequin that weighs 165 pounds; you have to drag the mannequin across – I forget how many feet it was – but that was really, really hard."

The third season of the "Grey's Anatomy" spinoff gets underway Thursday, Jan. 23, with the two shows switching time slots and the action picking up where the "Grey's" fall finale left off, with a car crashed into Joe's Bar, where Ben (Jason George) and Chief Herrera (Miguel Sandoval) from "Station 19" and Jackson (Jesse Williams), Levi (Jake Borelli) and Nico (Alex Landi) from "Grey's" were drinking.

Lives are imperiled in the crossover episode as Andy and others arrive at the scene but as for whether regular characters are killed off, Ortiz was understandably circumspect, lest she reveal spoilers. But she allows, "You'll probably see a lot more death in this one season than Seasons 1 and 2 combined. So the fans will be very shocked and at the same time we're going to see how these people, how these characters react to all these new life situations that present themselves. ... It's going to be a bumpy ride."

Great Performances Tony Danza hosts the latest edition of "Movies for Grownups Awards With AARP The Magazine," an appreciation of the past year's films that resonate with older moviegoers. Annette Bening receives a career achievement award for her body of work, while the films nominated in the best picture category include "A Beautiful Day in the Neighborhood," "Bombshell," "The Farewell," "The Irishman," "Marriage Story," Little Women," "Once Upon a Time ... in Hollywood" and "The Two Popes."

9 p.m. on 🚯 🔞 Vienna Blood

Early 20th-century Vienna, a hotbed of philosophy, science and art, makes a vibrant backdrop for this new six-part series adaptation of mystery novels by Frank Tallis, which takes its title from a sentimental waltz by Johann Strauss II. Matthew Beard stars as Max Liebermann, a brilliant young English-born student of the controversial psychoanalyst Sigmund Freud. That background gives Max a valuable perspective to share with Detective Inspector Oskar Reinhardt (Jurgen Maurer) as they investigate criminal cases together.

9:30 p.m. on (401); 11:10 p.m. on (401); 1:50 a.m. on (401)

Curb Your Enthusiasm

Larry David returns for his 10th season of this Emmy-winning comedy, which continues to chronicle the misadventures of an over-the-top version of himself. In this edition, Larry finds himself in an unfortunate series of escalating problems after he takes on a huge project primarily for the purpose of spiting a new adversary. Jeff Garlin, Cheryl Hines, J.B. Smoove. Susie Essman and Richard Lewis return to their familiar series roles, as do recurring guest stars Ted Danson and Saverio Guerra.

Tuesday 7 p.m. on 🕄 ③ NCIS

The discovery of a body in the rubble at a test site for an unmanned aerial vehicle sends Gibbs (Mark Harmon) and the NCIS team into action to investigate and determine whether the death was an accident or an act of murder in the new episode "Sound Off." Elsewhere, Palmer (Brian Dietzen) brings a comical level of intensity to his interviews of medical examiner assistant candidates. Sean Murray and Emily Wickersham also star.

7 p.m. on 43 (5)

Ellen's Game of Games Contestants in the new episode "Highway to the Danger Word" face off in the brand-new game

"Runaway Bride," as well as the more familiar "Blindfolded Musical Chairs," "Dizzy Dash" and "Danger Word." The winner of each of the first four rounds advances to "Know or Go," where the person who wins then moves on to "Hot Hands" for a chance to win a cash prize. Stephen "tWitch" Boss is the announcer.

7 p.m. on 😰 7

The Resident

Conrad (Matt Czuchry) finds himself back at Chastain after meeting with a high-profile soccer player suffering from baffling symptoms, but an angry Logan Kim (guest star Rob Yang) waits to confront him in the new episode "How Conrad Gets His Groove Back." After Bell and the Raptor (Bruce Greenwood, Malcolm-Jamal Warner) can't come up with a diagnosis, they're forced to acknowledge Conrad's uncanny gifts. Elsewhere, Nic (Emily VanCamp) starts to worry that her father (guest star Corbin Bernsen) is becoming suicidal.

8 p.m. on 🚯 🔞

Secrets of the Dead

The new episode "Bombing Auschwitz" revisits a tense dilemma that arose in 1944, after a pair of Jewish prisoners managed to escape from Auschwitz and subsequently blew the whistle on the horrors being enacted on the prisoners held there. When news reached the Allies, there was serious discussion about bombing the camp, a position passionately supported by War Refugee Board director John Pehle (portrayed in re-enactments by Daniel Caltagirone). Others argued such a move could well kill the Jewish prisoners they were trying to save.

Project Blue Book

A surprise hit in its freshman outing, this fact-inspired series returns for Season 2 with "The Roswell Incident — Part I," the first of a two-part story. As the action resumes, Hynek and Quinn (Aidan Gillen, Michael Malarkey) follow General James Harding (Neal McDonough) to Roswell, N.M., where a local civilian has threatened to expose to the world hard evidence that an extraterrestrial craft crashlanded in the area a few years ago.

tonight's

Jason George

Thursday 7 p.m. on 🕑 🧐 Station 19

A significant scheduling switch is made in order to give this Season 3 returnee the night's lead-off spot, to be followed by network veteran "Grey's Anatomy," which previously held that position. In storytelling terms, however, it makes sense. The hospital drama's action picks up where the fall season climaxed which saw a car crash through the walls of Joe's Bar, where Warren, Herrera (Jason George, Jaina Ortiz) and the Station 19 interns were relaxing.

7 p.m. on (181); 11 p.m. on (181)

Movie: Death by Friendship Hope (Natalie Brown) has always doted on her daughter,

Lacy (Sarah Fisher), but she's been concerned about Lacy's change in mood since her parents divorced. When Lacy brings home a new friend, Cassie (Alexa Rose Steele), Hope tells herself her daughter is back to normal, but another friend, Harper (Reha Sandill) tries to tell Hope that there are some very, very dark secrets in Cassie's past. She's not kidding, in this 2020 thriller.

7:30 p.m. on (15); 9:30 p.m. on (15)

Everything's Gonna Be Okay A new episode called "Giant Asian Mantises" finds Matilda (Kayla Cromer) in the mood to get what she terms "white girl wasted," but a low-key birthday party for Genevieve (Maeve Press) winds up getting Nicholas, Alex (Josh Thomas, Adam Faison) and Matilda exiled to the guest house. Meanwhile, in the main residence, Tallulah (Ivy Wolk) turns things up a notch, leaving Nicholas shocked at being thrust into the role of adult for once.

8 p.m. on (48); 11:03 p.m. on (48)

Swamp People

The swampers incorporate new — and in some case, decidedly risky — tactics to target giant breeding bull gators as part of a desperate effort to cull the rapidly escalating alligator population in the Season 11 premiere, "Raging Bulls." Zak and Joey use wild hogs as chum to create a feeding frenzy, but a gator takes a bite out of Ronnie and Frank. Elsewhere, Willie

Edward teams up with Little Willie, his rookie son, while Troy and Terral embark on their most dangerous mission yet.

8:30 p.m. on 🚯 💿

Perfect Harmony

The Season 1 finale, "Regionals," finds Arthur (Bradley Whitford) savoring an opportunity to really stick it to his old rival Pastor Magnus (recurring guest star John Carroll Lynch) at the regional choir competition in Lexington, Ky, Events take an unexpected turn, however. Meanwhile, Ginny (Anna Camp) is stricken with another attack of low self-esteem just before an interview for a big job opportunity, and Adams (Tymberlee Hill) resolves some frustrating marital issues. NBC hasn't announced a decision on this freshman comedy's renewal.

X Games

ESPN's Winter X Games return to Aspen Snowmass as four days of competition in ski, snowboard and snowmobiling showcase the best young athletes in winter sports. Roughly 200 of them will be on hand. On tonight's schedule is both the Women's and Men's Snowboard SuperPipe Finals. Viewers should also expect highlights from earlier events, including the Snowboard Slopestyle and Big Air, and perhaps even a look at the Special Olympics Big Air events that kicked off the X Games.

Philip Marlowe

Friday 6 p.m. on The Crystal Maze

Conover Adam ("Adam Ruins Everything") hosts this Americanized version of a hit British game show, wherein the members of a family tackle a series of physical and mental challenges in a playing area known as the Crystal Maze, which includes four zones: Aztec, Eastern, Futuristic and Industrial. In tonight's series premiere, "The Walls Are Closing In!," the Blair family pulls together in such challenges as the Shrinking Room, to earn time in the Crystal Dome, where they can win up to $25,000 cash.

7 p.m. on (181); 11 p.m. on (181)

Movie: The Wrong House Sitter

Dan has barely moved into the home of his dreams when his editor has to send him on an out-of-town assignment. Luckily for him, he's just become friends with Kristin, who strikes Dan as the sort of stable, responsible person who would make a perfect house sitter. Dan is terribly, terribly wrong about that, and while he's away, Kristin really makes herself at home in his house, with no plans for ever leaving it — or Dan. Vivica A. Fox, Jason-Shane Scott and Anna Dobbins star.

8 p.m. on 32; 12 a.m. on 32

Kindred Spirits

Paranormal investigators Amy Bruni and Adam Berry once again call on psychic medium Chip Coffey for his assistance as they explore alleged occult activity inside the Old Jail of St. Augustine, Fla. The facility once not only housed some of the most violent criminals in America, but also was the site of many executions of those same evildoers. As he joins his two colleagues, Coffey channels a chillingly dark vision from beyond the grave in the new "Dead Men Tell Tales."

9 p.m. on 56

Movie: Farewell, My Lovely Robert Mitchum steps into the iconic role of private eye Philip Marlowe in Dick Richards' 1975 adaptation of Raymond Chandler's 1940 novel of the same title, which previously had hit the big screen in 1944 as "Murder, My Sweet." The story finds Marlowe trying to track down an old girlfriend for a surly ex-convict, while also investigating the murder of a client who had been the victim of blackmail. Charlotte Rampling, John Ireland, Sylvia Miles and Harry Dean Stanton also star.

Movie: Chris Watts: Confessions of a Killer

When his pregnant wife, Shanann (Ashley Williams), and their two young daughters go missing in 2018 Colorado, husband and father Chris Watts (Sean Kleier) makes a tearful appeal to TV viewers for their safe return. It isn't long, however, before the horrific truth emerges: Watts murdered his family himself. CBI Agent Tammy Lee (Brooke Smith) ferrets out the truth from a murderous web of lies in this harrowing 2020 docudrama.

Eventually, she is forced to mount a desperate attempt to save her young children from a malevolent entity who is trying to steal them away. Raymond Cruz and Patricia Velasquez also star.
