'The Good Place' reaches its final destination with NBC finale

celebrity scoop

Checking in with CARRIE-ANNE MOSS Carrie-Anne Moss had always wanted to do a project in Norway, so when the opportunity arose to shoot the murder mystery series "Wisting" there, the Canadian actress was intrigued.

In the series, which currently streams in Norwegian (with English subtitles) on Sundance Now, Moss stars as Maggie Griffiths, a New York-based FBI agent haunted by a serial killer that got away 20 years earlier, who now appears to be perpetrating his crimes in Norway. She's brought across the Atlantic to aid local homicide detective William Wisting (Sven Nordin, "Lilyhammer") with the investigation.

Not knowing the language, Maggie struggles as she attempts to adapt to local investigative methods to find the killer. That's in stark contrast to the actress, who took to the Norwegians' customs and creative process right away.

"I got there (and) I was the only one with a trailer," she explains, "(and) everyone else just hung out in this room. And I quite quickly just asked them, 'You can take my trailer away. I'm not gonna be in it.' And just everybody hangs out together. And we rehearsed every night, just talking it through. ... So that was really refreshing to be Don't be surprised if "The Good Place" has saved some surprises to end on.

Fans of the Peabody Awardwinning NBC comedy have come to expect big twists from the show, and it seems likely that more are in store as it fills a 90-minute slot to end its four-season run Thursday, Jan. 30. An extended series finale will be followed by a cast gathering hosted by Seth Meyers, allowing for time to dissect whatever may happen as the afterlife misadventures of Michael (played by Ted Danson), Eleanor (Kristen Bell) and company wrap up.

Creator and executive producer Michael Schur made the decision to end "The Good Place," and Bell remembers the phone call that informed her. "I was driving in the car," she recalls, "and I had a sixth sense about what he was about to say because he said, 'Hey, we need to talk.' And I said, 'Before you say anything else, you have to promise me that you'll write me a show after this one, and that's the only way I'm not going to hang up on you.' And he said, 'OK.'

Two-time "Cheers" Emmy winner Danson certainly has done his share of series, but he notes, "What's different about the ending of this show is we knew it was coming, and we knew it was right to end. January 26 to February 1 - Page 3C

Usually, you are informed by a network that the show's over, or there's some turmoil around it ... so it feels like something's been taken away from you."

Danson adds, "(With this,) we all got to be part of going, 'Here. Here's our gift.' I hope that doesn't sound pompous, but we all were part of the decision, and here: Please enjoy. You don't usually get that kind of opportunity."

"The Good Place" also has done much for the careers of co-stars D'Arcy Carden, William Jackson Harper, Jameela Jamil and Manny Jacinto. "I can only hope, no matter where I am on the call sheet going forward, that I can sort of promote the same atmosphere that these two so generously gave us," Harper says of Danson and Bell. "I feel like there's no people on this planet that are as generous and professional and talented."

Schur believes that what he deems "the mission of the show" stays true to the end of "The Good Place." He reflects, "You can try to be a good person this way, or you can try to be a good person this way. And what we ended up saying was, 'We're going to present a bunch of options' – and by the way, there are plenty more that we didn't describe – 'but what's important is that you try one of them.' " with actors (who had) all been in plays together and knew each other very well and it was just such a remarkable experience. I loved it."

Moss also got a charge out of how she was brought to and from set during the winter shoot.

"My transportation to the set was on a snowmobile – that was by far my favorite day," she says with a laugh. "It was so neat. It was so romantic."

7 p.m. on (401); 11:05 p.m. on (401)

Movie: Alita: Battle Angel Adapted from a popular 1990s manga series by Yukito Kishiro, director Robert Rodriguez's 2019 cyberpunk action flick has no less a power player than James Cameron as a producer and co-writer, but the project still went through a tortured preproduction process between its 2003 announcement and the commencement of filming in 2016. Rosa Salazar ("Man Seeking Woman") provides the voice of the titular cyborg heroine, who awakens in an unfamiliar body.

Movie: The Best of Enemies Robin Bissell made his feature film directorial debut with this 2019 historical drama, which also marked a professional reunion for leading lady Taraji P. Henson and her "Empire" producer Danny Strong, who works in the same capacity here. The actress stars as Durham, N.C., civil rights activist Ann Atwater, who clashed bitterly with KKK leader C.P. Ellis (Sam Rockwell) until the two agreed in 1971 to co-chair a two-week community meeting about a school desegregation. The event changed both their lives.

8 p.m. on (435)

Anne Heche and Wes Bentley also star.

8:45 p.m. on 47 Movie: Pride and Prejudice

and Zombies 19th-century England, In Elizabeth Bennet, mistress of martial arts and weaponry, teams up with zombie killer Mr. Darcy to battle the undead in this 2016 adaptation of Seth Grahame-Smith's 2009 literary mash-up of Jane Austen and horror flicks. Alas, this period comedy spoof proved more dead than alive at the boxoffice and failed to recoup its $28 million budget. Lily James ("Downton Abbey") and Sam Riley ("Maleficent") star.

10 p.m. on 36

Cat Bowl II

Among the featured "alternative programming" leading up to tomorrow's NFL championship game telecast, Beth Stern, Larissa Wohl and Cameron Mathison co-host this one-hour special spotlighting a group of adorable - and even more important, adoptable - adult "cat-letes" vying in a feline gridiron game for the ages (or at least for an hour late on Saturday night). The program also showcases stories of senior and special needs cats that have overcome staggering odds and would love a forever home at last.
