On the hunt: Justin Hartley is the 'Tracker'

Steadily and surely, the stars of "This Is Us" have been moving on to other projects.

Milo Ventimiglia was first with the ABC series "The Company You Keep," while his former television "wife," Mandy Moore, made her series comeback recently with the second season of Peacock's "Dr. Death." Sterling K. Brown appears in the current movie "American Fiction," and his exspouse from "This Is Us" — Susan Kelechi Watson — has been working on a Netflix series titled "The Residence," which also involved Andre Braugher before his recent death. Chrissy Metz, meanwhile, starred in the holiday horror movie "A Creature Was Stirring" (2023) and has been advancing her singing career.

Now, it's Justin Hartley's turn. Formerly the commitment-phobic and trouble-prone Kevin Pearson in "This Is Us," he plays someone much more in command in "Tracker," a drama series that gets a post-Super Bowl premiere slot, Sunday, Feb. 11, on CBS and Paramount+. The series will stay on Sundays thereafter, with Hartley (also an executive producer of the show) playing Colter Shaw, a survivalist who crosses the country, using his specialized skills to help people - both police and private citizens - with searches and collects rewards for the missions when they're completed. His complicated family history has given him demons he tries to exorcise in the course of doing his work.

Also featuring Abby McEnany ("Work in Progress") and Robin Weigert ("Deadwood") as the managers of Colter's business affairs, "Tracker" is one of the first new series to debut after last year's strikes by writers and actors. The friendly Hartley admits he was "a little nervous" as those protests continued, but he marvels that "we were somehow able to save our premiere date and get back into production in enough time to let us keep going like it never happened ... which is pretty amazing. We'd worked so hard on this, there was some stress, but it's wonderful to report for work as normal — just a reminder of what a great business we have."

"Tracker" is based on the bestselling novel "The Never Game" (which was also the series' original title) by "The Bone Collector" author Jeffery Deaver, and that name adapts Shaw's credo that he uses to advise people he assists: "Never let panic take the wheel." Indeed, the first episode starts with him assisting a fearful hiker who has been seriously injured, then follows him as he seeks a missing youngster. In both cases, he stays calm as he informs his new companions of their odds for survival under their respective circumstances.

The opening story involving woodlands, rivers, high cliffs and the like suggests that much of "Tracker" will be set in visually rich locations, and Hartley reports that he's an outdoorsy sort anyway. He also appreciates that Colter, who typically would rather just do something than explain it, "can be so intense. He doesn't just let life happen to him, like Kevin did [on 'This Is Us']."

celebrity scoop

While "FBI: Most Wanted" has had its share of cast changes since it premiered, at least with the latest one, the performer and character are familiar.

As executive producer Dick Wolf's first "FBI" drama spinoff starts its fifth season Tuesday, Feb. 13, on CBS and Paramount+, Shantel VanSanten is moving the role of Special Agent Nina Chase — which she played as a "special guest star" on the parent show, particularly during star Missy Peregrym's ("Rookie Blue") most recent maternity leave — to "Most Wanted." In effect, she's succeeding Alexa Davalos ("The Man in the High Castle"), who has left the latter series after portraying Special Agent Kristin Gaines for the past two seasons.

VanSanten's arrival follows several other high-profile exits from "FBI: Most Wanted." Julian McMahon ("Nip/Tuck") departed in the third season, with Dylan McDermott ("The Practice") then joining as the leader of the show's investigative team; founding co-star Kellan Lutz ("The Twilight Saga: Breaking Dawn - Part 2," 2012) also left in Season 3, with Davalos replacing him; and Nathaniel Arcand ("Heartland"), who appeared as McMahon's character's brother-inlaw and fellow agent, left after the first two seasons.

With VanSanten resurfacing in the "FBI" world, she brings some rich history with her alter ego. Nina is now a mother; her child's father being Special Agent Stuart Scola, the part portrayed in the original "FBI" by John Boyd ("24"). Given that relationship, and producer Wolf's propensity for crossing characters over between shows in the same franchise (see: his "Law & Order" and "Chicago" domains for NBC), it's likely that Nina and Scola will turn up in each other's onscreen lives again sooner than later.

Any constant TV viewer knows that VanSanten is quite used to series work, from "One Tree Hill" and "The Messengers" to "Shooter" and "For All Mankind." Since she already has lived inside the mind of Nina Chase, that only can be an advantage for her as she reports for "FBI: Most Wanted" duty full time.

Kate Phillips in "Miss Scarlet and the Duke"

tonight's picks

Puppy Bowl XX (44) (45) (60) 1 p.m.

What's cuter, cuddlier and fluffier than the Super Bowl? The Puppy Bowl, of course! Celebrating its 20th year on air, this furry game of "football" features more than 130 puppies from 73 shelters across the country, representing Team Ruff or Team Fluff.

Miss Scarlet and the Duke on Masterpiece

🚯 🛞 7 p.m.

In this season finale, Eliza (Kate Phillips) must do everything she can to track down a fugitive suspected of murder before the police can locate him. As such, Insp. William Wellington (Stuart Martin), aka The Duke, is put in a very tough spot.

Curb Your Enthusiasm (401) 9:05 p.m.

Larry David is back to play an overly exaggerated version of himself for one last season of this highly successful comedy series. After 11 seasons, has the legendary writer's poor attitude and sharp wit finally ostracised him from those he tolerates?

LET THEM KNOW WHO YOU ARE!

2024 NBA All-Star Celebrity Game

(25) 6 p.m.

It's the NBA All-Star game we never knew we needed. Celebs from movies, television and music join NBA legends and WNBA players to test their skills in a basketball game filled with laughs, dunks and copious amounts of debris at Lucas Oil Stadium.

My Lottery Dream Home

33 8 p.m.

A new episode airs as part of a "Dream Home" marathon. With $200,000 worth of winnings, a

tonight's picks

Minnesota-born lottery winner heads to St. Paul, Minn., in search of their forever home. Host David Bromstad and her sister couldn't be happier to help.

Fire Country

(3) 8 p.m. Things aren't always sunny in California. Bode (Max Thieriot) returns in this Season 2 premiere, finding himself stuck behind bars and far from his firefighting crew. Meanwhile, the team responds to a massive earthquake that rocks Edgewater.

Dateline NBC

46 5 8 p.m.

Led by host Lester Holt and featuring a series of correspondents and contributing anchors like Kate Snow and Hoda Kotb, this docuseries features compelling interviews, offering an in-depth look at breaking news and ongoing, real-life investigations.

Great Performances

🚯 🛞 8 p.m.

It's a celebration of form meeting function as Gustavo Dudamel and the Los Angeles Philharmonic honor legendary architect Frank Gehry at his creation, the Walt Disney Concert Hall. Performers include Herbie Hancock, H.E.R. and Lucinda Childs.

Blue Bloods

🕄 🕄 9 p.m.

In an effort to break up a human trafficking ring, Jaime (Will Estes) goes undercover. Then, a homicide connected to Danny's (Donnie Wahlberg) former partner draws in Danny and Baez (Marisa Ramirez). And, Frank (Tom Selleck) debates a policy decision.
