'Sympathy' for the novel: Oh, Downey Jr. star in Thanh Nguyen novel-turned-series

When a person immigrates to the United States of America, they come with their own set of experiences, for better or — as in the case of HBO's newest series — for worse. The new seven-episode limited series "The Sympathizer" begins Sunday, April 14, on HBO and HBO's streaming service, Max.

Based on the Pulitzer Prize-winning novel of the same name by Vietnamese-American professor and author Viet Thanh Nguyen, "The Sympathizer" follows a young, French-Vietnamese man (played by Hoa Xuande, "Cowboy Bebop"), who had been placed in South Vietnam for the duration of the Vietnam War, working as a plant.

As the war approaches its end in the mid-1970s, the man (hereafter referred to as "the Captain") lands in the United States and begins to live his life as a refugee in Los Angeles. Little do those around him know, the Captain has been tasked with gaining information on the U.S. government and reporting his findings back home to the Communist-propelled Viet Cong.

"I am a spy, a sleeper, a spook, a man of two faces," says the Captain (also the narrator) at the outset of the 2015 novel and series' source material. "Perhaps not surprisingly, I am also a man of two minds, ... able to see any issue from both sides. Sometimes I flatter myself that this is a talent ... [but] I wonder if what I have should even be called talent. After all, a talent is something you use, not something that uses you. The talent you cannot not use, the talent that possesses you — that is a hazard."

As illustrated by the main character in the very first lines of Nguyen's bestselling novel, duality is at the heart of "The Sympathizer." Whether tackling the intricate moral quandaries that separate right from wrong, the complex and imperfect biases of political lefts and rights, or struggling with one's own parentage (as is, for the Captain, a hated French father and an adored Vietnamese mother), "The Sympathizer" always straddles the line between, at least, two possible outcomes.

But if all this talk of dichotomy has you seeing double, don't fret. You may just be seeing the same thing — or person, as the case would have it — twice. In fact, Marvel Cinematic Universe star Robert Downey Jr. ("Iron Man," 2008) plays not just two roles, but four — so you could be seeing double twice!

Downey Jr., who is recognizable in at least one of his four roles, often stars in heavy prosthetics and costuming alongside up-and-comer Xuande, whose credits to date included mostly Vietnamese film and TV content until his 2021 stint as Lin in Netflix's live-action adaptation of "Cowboy Bebop." While very little is shared about any of Downey Jr.'s characters, a quick look at the official teasers reveals that he is largely involved in nearly every step of the well-crafted plot.

Joining Downey Jr. for "Sympathizer" star power is Canadian icon Sandra Oh, best known for her roles in ABC's "Grey's Anatomy," AMC/BBC America's "Killing Eve" and Netflix's "The Chair." Oh stars as Ms. Sofia Mori, a California-born, Japanese-American secretary for Occidental College's Department of Oriental Studies. Here she works with the Captain and finds herself drawn to him as they slowly get to know more about one another.

Duy Nguyen ("The Night Logan Woke Up"), Scott Ly ("A Tourist's Guide to Love," 2023), Fred Nguyen Khan ("Transplant"), Toan Le ("Simply Fobulous," 2005), Tien Pham ("Desperate Waters," 2019), Tom Dang ("Z Nation"), VyVy Nguyen ("Dogs in Space"), Kieu Chinh ("The Joy Luck Club," 1993) and Kayli Tran ("Ambulance," 2022) also star.

Checking in

Michael Douglas has certainly done his share of movie work, encompassing Oscar wins on both sides of the camera, but he's also not averse to returning to the home screen.

The son of fellow Hollywood icon Kirk Douglas ("Spartacus," 1960), Michael had made some films before he largely built his fame on the 1970s ABC police drama "The Streets of San Francisco," and his honors have included Academy Awards for producing "One Flew Over the Cuckoo's Nest" (1975) and acting in "Wall Street" (1987). Now, he's back to series work by depicting the life and achievements of Benjamin Franklin in the Apple TV+ series "Franklin," which is streaming new episodes each Friday; he is also an executive producer of the biographical drama.

If it seemed that movies would have Douglas's services exclusively after he left "The Streets of San Francisco" (for which he was Emmy-nominated three times) a year before its run ended, he demonstrated otherwise by hosting NBC's "Saturday Night Live" in 1984 and also appearing in specials. He also executive produced a mid-1980s ABC series based on the movie "Starman" (he was an executive producer of the film as well) and guest-starred on NBC's "Will & Grace." On top of all that, he also took his first role as Benjamin Franklin in the 2003 PBS series "Freedom: A History of US."

However, Douglas's major return to TV was the 2013 HBO project "Behind the Candelabra," for which he won a Primetime Emmy, a Golden Globe and a Screen Actors Guild Award (among other accolades) for his portrayal of the entertainer Liberace. After that, Douglas tackled a series role again in the Netflix comedy-drama show "The Kominsky Method," casting him as an actor-turned-acting coach. He earned another Golden Globe for the program, which reunited him with such previous movie colleagues as Kathleen Turner ("Romancing the Stone," 1984) and Douglas's close friend Danny DeVito ("It's Always Sunny in Philadelphia").

Now, "Franklin" is challenging Douglas as he plays a legendary figure who actually lived, something he rarely has done in his career — and that he has taken the mission seriously goes without saying.

SUNDAY EVENING

Katy Perry serves as a judge in "American Idol"

tonight's picks

American Idol

🕑 🥑 7 p.m.

The contestants' chances at further glory are placed firmly in the hands of the audience as this music-based competition enters the Top 20. Who will move on? Ryan Seacrest hosts, while Luke Bryan, Katy Perry and Lionel Richie serve as judges.

The Sympathizer

(401) 8 p.m. Based on the Pulitzer Prize-winning novel by Viet Thanh Nguyen, this espionage thriller follows a spy (Hoa Xuande) during the last days of the Vietnam War and his eventual exile to the United States. But just who is he working for now?

Secrets of the Hells Angels (42) 9 p.m.

Must love motorcycles. Agent Jay Dobyns of the ATF goes undercover with the international motorcycle gang, the Hells Angels. He's accompanied by fellow agent Jenna Maguire, who portrays his "old lady." Now, the two tell their story for the first time.

Doctor's Face

(29) 7 p.m.

Having a child is a dream for many people. Jessica (Natalie Polisson) loves being a mom to her young son. But when she realizes his biological father is her fertility doctor, she connects with another of the doctor's patients in order to turous side.

NWSL Soccer

🕄 🕄 12 p.m.

The NWSL season may only a month old, but the pressure is on as Kelly O'Hara and the NJ/NY Gotham FC head south to Audi Field in Washington, D.C, to take on Trinity Rodman and the Washington Spirit. The two clubs split wins last year.

Falling in Love in Niagara

(36) 7 p.m. When her fiancé dumps her right before the wedding, mild-mannered Madeline (Jocelyn Hudon) decides to

NASCAR Xfinity Racing Series

(70) 8 p.m.

With revving engines and spinning tires, the Ag-Pro 3000 is set to broadcast live from the infamous Talladega Superspeedway in Talladega, Ala. This springtime NASCAR race runs yearly, with drivers tackling the longest ovular track in the circuit.

House Hunters

33) 9 p.m.

When life gives you a divorce, you make divorcaide. When a young, newly-single woman decides she wants to find an old house to remodel in Minneapolis, she looks for a home she can make her own. However, her friends think she should date, not renovate.

48 Hours

🚯 🕄 9 p.m.

In another new episode of this long-running newsmagazine, Erin Moriarty, Peter Van Sant and other renowned journalists use investigative reporting to get to the bottom of the real crimes that captivate a nation. From real-life drama to underhanded cons, justice will be served.

Erin Moriarty serves as a correspondent for "48 Hours"
